PREFACE

TO THE FOURTH EDITION.

NOW that this Grammar has reached a fourth edition it may, perhaps, without presumption, be allowed to rest on its own merits. I have, therefore, dispensed with much of the prefatory matter which introduced the previous editions.

Any one who compares the present Grammar with its predecessor will see at once the difference between the two, not indeed in its structure and arrangement, nor even in the numbering of the rules, but in the fuller and more complete explanation of points of detail.

It may be well, however, to draw attention to some of the most noteworthy alterations and improvements.

A table shewing the interchange of letters in the three sister languages, Sanskṛit, Greek, and Latin, has been given at pages 18–20.

The list of suffixes at pages 57–75 has been considerably enlarged, and arranged in alphabetical order under each declension.

The subject of declension has been elucidated by a clearer method of synopsis.

A more complete account of Sanskṛit accentuation has been given at the end of the volume.

The Reading Exercises have been slightly curtailed. The publication by the Delegates of the Clarendon Press of such a Class-book as the Nala, and quite recently of the Śakuntalá, sufficiently supplies what is likely to be needed for the prosecution of the study of Sanskṛit after the elements of Grammar have been acquired.

Four indices instead of two have been appended.

In order to bring the present edition into harmony with the Greek and Latin grammars now in use, some of the grammatical terms have been altered, e. g. suffix has been substituted for affix; stem for base; special and general tenses for conjugational and non-conjugational tenses respectively.

Some errors which, notwithstanding all my efforts, crept into the last edition have been corrected, and a few other improvements effected. But I dare not even now hope to have attained the standard of perfection. Sanskṛit is far too vast and intricate a subject to admit of such pretensions. I can, however, with truth affirm, that I have done what I could to bring the present work up to the level of the scholarship of the day; and my acknowledgments are due to Mr. E. L. Hogarth, M. A., of Brasenose College, for his aid in conducting the sheets through the Press.

In conclusion I may, perhaps, be permitted to express a hope that my second visit to India will add to my powers of improving any future edition that may be required, as it certainly will increase my ability to promote a more general knowledge of the Sanskṛit language and literature among my own fellow-countrymen, to whose rule a vast Eastern Empire has been committed, and who cannot hope, except through Sanskṛit, to gain a proper acquaintance with its spoken dialects, or to understand the mind, read the thoughts, and reach the very heart and soul of its vast populations.

CHAPTER I.

LETTERS.

1. The Deva-nágarí or Nágarí character (or its modifications *), in which the Sanskṛit language is usually written, is adapted to the expression of nearly every gradation of sound; and almost every letter has a fixed and invariable pronunciation (see, however, 16).

There are fourteen vowels (or without ḷṛí thirteen, see 3. d) and thirty-three simple consonants. To these may be added a nasal sign, standing for either true or substitute Anusvára (see 6), and a sign for a hard breathing, called Visarga (see 8). They are here first exhibited in the order followed in dictionaries. All the vowels, excepting a, have two forms; the first is the initial, the second the medial or non-initial.

VOWELS.

अ a, आ ा á, इ ि i, ई ी í, उ ु u, ऊ ू ú, ऋ ृ ṛi, ॠ ॄ ṛí, ऌ ॢ ḷṛi, ॡ ॣ ḷṛí, ए े e, ऐ ै ai, ओ ो o, औ ौ au.

Nasal sign called true or proper Anusvára, ◌ं ṇ. Substitute Anusvára, ◌ं ṃ.

Sign for a hard breathing, called Visarga, ◌ः ḥ.

* Such as the Bengálí, Gujarátí, &c. In the South of India Sanskṛit is generally written, not in the Deva-nágarí, but in the Telugu, Kanarese, and Malayálam

The compound or conjunct consonants (see 5) may be multiplied to the extent of four or five hundred. The most common are given here. A more complete list will be found at the end of the volume.

characters, as well as in the Grantha (or Grantham), which is a name for the character used for Sanskṛit in the Tamil country, the Tamil alphabet being too defective to represent all the necessary sounds. In the second edition of this Grammar I gave a comparative table of old Inscription characters from Mr. Edward Thomas' edition of Prinsep's Indian Antiquities, which shows that the present form of Deva-nágarí character is traceable to the inscriptions of Aśoka, who is called Piyadasi for Priyadarśin—a well-known Buddhist king, grandson of Ćandra-gupta =Sandrakottos—and who must have reigned over nearly the whole of India, his capital being Páṭali-putra (=Páli-bothra, the modern Patna). These inscriptions are found on rocks at Giri-nagara (Girnár) in Gujarát on the Western coast, and at Dhaulí in Kuttack on the Eastern coast (in the province of Orissa); and again at a place called Kapurdigiri, quite N. of the Pañjáb, a little to the E. of Purushapura (Pesháwar). It is from the Girnár rock-inscriptions that the present Devanágarí is most evidently derived, and these are not yet clearly traceable to a Phenician origin, those of Kapurdigiri being more so.

Observe—In reading the following pages for the first time, the attention should be confined to the large type.

Observe also—When reference is made to other parts of the Grammar, the numbers will denote the paragraphs, not the pages.

The letters (except r, called Repha, and except the nasal sign called Anusvára and the sign for the hard breathing called Visarga) have no names (like the names in the Greek alphabet), but the consonants are enunciated with the vowel a. Native grammarians, in designating any letter, add the word कार kára; thus, अकार a-kára, 'the letter a;' ककार ka-kára, 'the letter ka.'

NUMERICAL FIGURES.

THE VOWELS AND THE METHOD OF WRITING THEM.

2. The short vowel अ a is never written unless it begin a word, because it is supposed to be inherent in every consonant. Thus, ak is written अक्, but ka is written क; so that in such words as कनक kanaka, नगर nagara, &c., no vowel has to be written. The mark ् under the k of अक्, called Viráma (see 9), indicates a consonantal stop, that is, the absence of any vowel, inherent or otherwise, after a final consonant. It is omitted in the first tables that the letters may be kept unencumbered by additional marks.

a. The other vowels, if written after a consonant, take the place of the inherent a. They assume two forms, according as they are initial or not initial. Thus, आक् ák, का ká; इक् ik, कि ki.

b. Observe here, that the short vowel ि i, when initial, is written in its right place, but when not initial, is always written before the letter after which it is pronounced. Hence, in order to write such a word as iti, the letters would have to be arranged thus, iit इति.

c. Perhaps the true explanation of this peculiarity is that in the earliest alphabets the two i's were written over the consonant to which they belonged, short i inclining to the left, and long í to the right, a perpendicular stroke having been afterwards added.

3. The long vowels ा á and ी í, not initial, take their proper place after a consonant. Also the non-initial o and au (which are formed by placing ॅ and ॆ over ा á), like ा á, take their proper place after their consonants; thus, को ko, कौ kau. The vowels u, ú, ṛi, ṛí, ḷri, not initial, are written under the consonants after which they are pronounced; as, कु ku, कू kú, कृ kṛi, कॄ kṛí, क्लृ klṛi.

a. Except when u or ú follows र् r, in which case the method of writing is peculiar; thus, र्उ ru, र्ऊ rú.

b. When, however, the vowel ऋ ṛi follows र् r the vowel is written in its initial form and r in the crescent shape placed over it (see 5. a); thus, निर्ऋति nirṛiti, 'the goddess of destruction.'

c. The vowels ṛi, ṛí, ḷri and ḷrí are peculiar to Sanskṛit (see 11. c). ऌ ḷri only occurs in the root क्लृप् klṛip, 'to make,' and its derivatives.

d. The long ॡ ḷrí is only used in technical grammatical explanations; strictly it has no existence, and is useless except as contributing to the completeness of the alphabetical system.

e. The vowels e and ai, not initial, are written above the consonants after which they are pronounced; thus, के ke, कै kai.

f. In a few words initial vowels follow other vowels; e. g. अच्ऋणिन् a-ṛiṇin, 'without debt;' गोअग्र go-agra, 'a number of cows;' प्रउग pra-üga, 'the pole of a chariot;' तितउ titaü, 'a sieve.'

METHOD OF WRITING THE SIMPLE CONSONANTS.

4. The consonants have only one form, whether initial or not initial. And here note that in every consonant, and in the initial vowels, there is a perpendicular stroke or the commencement of one, and that all have a horizontal line at the top; but in two of the letters, ध् dh and भ् bh, this horizontal line is broken. In writing rapidly, the student will do well to form the perpendicular stroke first, then the distinctive parts of the letter, and lastly the horizontal line. The natives, however, sometimes form the horizontal line first.

METHOD OF WRITING THE CONJUNCT CONSONANTS.

5. The necessity for conjunct consonants is caused by the fact that every consonant is supposed to have the vowel अ a inherent in it, so that it is never necessary to write this vowel, excepting at the beginning of a word or, in a few cases, of a syllable (see 3. f). Hence when any simple consonants stand alone in any word, the short vowel अ a must always be pronounced after them; but when they appear in conjunction with any other vowel, this other vowel of course takes the place of short अ a. Thus such a word as कलानतया would be pronounced kalánatayá, where long आ á being written after l and y takes the place of the inherent vowel. But supposing that, instead of kalánatayá, the word had to be pronounced klántyá, how are we to know that kl and nty have to be uttered without the intervention of any vowel? This occasions the necessity for conjunct or compound consonants. Kl and nty must then be combined together thus, क्, न्य्, and the word is written क्लान्या. And here we have illustrated the two methods of compounding consonants; viz. 1st, by writing them one above the other; 2ndly, by placing them side by side, omitting in all, except the last, the perpendicular line which lies to the right.

a. Some letters, however, change their form entirely when combined with other consonants. Thus र् r, when it is the first letter of a conjunct consonant, is written above in the form of a crescent, as in कूर्म kúrma, कार्त्स्न्य kártsnya; and when the last, is written below in the form of a small stroke, as in the word क्रमेण krameṇa.

b. So again in क्ष * ksha and ज्ञ † jña the simple elements क् ष् and ज् ञ् are scarcely traceable.

c. In some conjunct consonants the simple letters slightly change their form; as, श śa becomes श in श्च śća; द् d with य ya becomes द्य dya; द् d with ध dha becomes द्ध ddha; द् d with भ bha becomes द्भ dbha; त् t with र ra becomes त्र tra or त्र tra; क् k with त ta becomes क्त kta.

d. Observe, that when r comes in the middle of a conjunct consonant, it takes the same form as at the end; thus, ग्र grya, ग्र gra. When conjunct consonants commencing with ◌् are followed by the vowels i, í, e, ai, o, au, or by a nasal symbol (see 6), then ◌् is for the convenience of typography written on the right of all; thus, र्णि ṛṇi, र्णी ṛṇí, र्के rke, र्कौ rkau, र्कं rkaṃ.

ANUSVÁRA AND ANUNÁSIKA.

6. Anusvára (◌ं ṃ), i. e. 'after-sound,' is a nasal sound which always belongs to a preceding vowel, and can never be used like a nasal consonant to begin a syllable (though like a consonant it imparts, in conjunction with a following consonant, prosodial length to the preceding short vowel). It is denoted by a simple dot,

* Sometimes formed thus क्ष, and pronounced kya in Bengálí.

† This compound is sometimes pronounced gya or nya, though it will be more convenient to represent it by its proper equivalent jña.

which ought to come either immediately over the vowel after which the nasalization is sounded, or on the right of the vowel-mark; thus, कं kaṃ, कुं kuṃ, किं kiṃ, कीं kíṃ.

This dot serves two purposes. It marks, 1. the Anusvára proper or True Anusvára; 2. a short substitute for the five nasal consonants; in which latter case it may be called Substitute Anusvára.

a. True Anusvára denotes the nasalization of the vowel which precedes it before श् ś, ष् sh, स् s, and ह् h, in the body of words. It is then pronounced with the nose only (like n in the French mon, &c.), and will in this Grammar be represented in the Indo-Romanic type by n̤, as in संश an̤śa, संहति an̤hati.

But since the true Anusvára must take the place of a final म् m when the three sibilants श् ś, ष् sh, स् s, and the aspirate ह् h (but see 7. c) follow; and also generally when र् r follows at the beginning of a word (see e. next page); it is then in this Grammar expressed by ṃ; thus, तम् शत्रुम् is written तं शत्रुम् taṃ śatrum; तम् राजानम् becomes तं राजानम् taṃ rájánam; and सम् with root हृ is written संहृ saṃhṛi.

b. Substitute Anusvára is sometimes used, for shortness, as a substitute for any of the five nasal consonants ङ् n, ञ् ṅ, ण् ṇ, न् n, म् m, which belong to the five classes of letters (see 15), when no vowel intervenes between these and a following consonant in the middle of the same word (thus the syllables इङ्क् iṅk, इञ्च् iñć, अण्ड् aṇḍ, इन्त् int, इम्प् imp may for shortness be written इंक्, इंच्, अंड्, इंत्, इंप्). In these cases Anusvára must be pronounced like the nasal consonant for which it has been substituted, and in this Grammar it will always be represented in Indo-Romanic type by these nasal consonants.

But Anusvára is more usually substituted for these nasals when final and resulting from the euphonic adaptation of the final m of accus. cases sing., nom. cases neut., some adverbs and persons of the verb to a following word (see 60). It will then in this Grammar be represented in the Indo-Romanic type by ṃ, as in the cases mentioned in 6. a.

c. Anusvára is even used in some printed books, though less correctly, for the final म् m of the words specified in the last paragraph when they stand in a pause (i. e. at the end of a sentence or clause, or when not followed by another word). In such cases, too, it should be represented by ṃ.

d. But Anusvára is never admitted as a substitute for the original final न् n of a pada or inflected word (as in accus. cases plur., loc. cases of pronominals, the 3rd pers. plur. and pres. part. of verbs, &c., see 54), unless the next word begin with ć, ṭ, t, or their aspirates, when, by 53, a sibilant is interposed before the initial letter.

e. And in the case of roots ending in न् n or म् m, these final nasals, if not dropped, pass into Anusvára before terminations or suffixes beginning with a sibilant or h, but are not changed before semivowels; thus मन् + स्यते = मंस्यते maṇsyate, 'he will think;' मन् + ये = मन्ये manye, 'I think' (617); यम् + स्यति = यंस्यति yaṇsyati, 'he will restrain;' गम् + य = गम्य gamya, 'accessible' (602); नम् + र = नम्र namra, 'bent.' सम् followed by राज् is सम्राज् samráj, 'a sovereign.'

f. Hence it appears that the nasal sign Anusvára is peculiarly the nasal of the three sibilants श् ś, ष् sh, स् s, and the aspirate ह् h; and that the true Anusvára always occurs before these letters. It is also to a certain degree the nasal of the semivowel र् r; so that these five consonants having a nasal sign of their own have no relationship to the corresponding nasal consonant of their respective classes.

7. That Anusvára is less peculiarly the nasal of the semivowels is evident from e. above. Hence म् m final in a word (not a root) may, before य् y, ल् l, व् v, either pass into Anusvára or be represented by यँ, लँ, वँ, or assimilate itself to these letters; thus सम् + यम = संयम or सय्यम, यम् + लोकम् = यं लोकम् or यल्लोकम्.

In the latter case the nasal character of य् y and ल् l is denoted by a nasal symbol called Anunásika (i. e. 'through the nose,' sometimes called Ćandra-vindu, 'the dot in the crescent'), which is also applied to mark the nasality of a final ल् l deduced from a final न् n when followed by initial ल l, see 56. Of course the word सम्यञ् samyaṅć, 'going conformably' (formed from समि + अञ्च्), retains the m.

a. And this Anunásika ँ is not only the sign of the nasality of य् y, ल् l, and व् v, in the preceding cases, but also marks the nasality of vowels, though in a less degree than Anusvára, see 11. f.

b. In the Veda Anunásika is written for a final न् n after a long vowel before another vowel; as, वस्याँ इन्द्रासि for वस्यान् इन्द्रासि Rig-veda VIII. 1, 6.

c. Observe—A final म् m before श् hm, ह् hn, य् hy, ह्ल् hl, ह्व् hv, may either be changed to Anusvára or undergo assimilation with the second letter; thus किं शलयति or किम् शलयति, किं ह्नुते or किन् ह्नुते, किं ह्यः or किय्ँ ह्यः, &c. (see 7).

VISARGA, JIHVÁMÚLÍYA, AND UPADHMÁNÍYA.

8. The sign Visarga, 'emission of breath,' (sometimes said to derive its name from symbolizing the rejection of a letter in pronunciation,) usually written thus :, but more properly in the form of two small circles ∘∘, is used to represent a distinctly audible and harder aspiration than the letter ह् h. It is reckoned under the váhya-prayatna, and is said, like the hard consonants, to be a-ghosha, without the soft articulation. This sign is never the representative of ह् h. Although conveniently represented by ḥ, it should be borne in mind that Visarga (ḥ) is a harder aspirate than ह् h, and is in fact a kind of sibilant, being often a substitute for s and r preceded by vowels whenever the usual consonantal sound of these letters passes into an aspiration at the end of a sentence or through the influence of a k, kh, p, ph, or a sibilant commencing the next word.

And since, according to native grammarians, स् s ought not to be allowed at the end of a complete word, all those inflections of nouns and verbs which end in s and stand separate from other words are, in native Grammars, made to end in Visarga.

But in this Grammar such inflections are allowed to retain their final स् s. We have only to bear in mind that this s is liable at the end of a sentence, or when followed by certain consonants, to pass into an audible breathing more distinct than s in the French les or the English isle, viscount, when it is represented by ḥ (:).

In some parts of India Visarga has a slightly reverberating sound very difficult of imitation; thus रामः rámaḥ is almost like रामह rámaha, अग्निः agniḥ like अग्निहि agnihi, शिवैः śivaiḥ like शिवैहि śivaihi.

a. An Ardha-visarga, 'half-visarga,' or modification of the symbol Visarga, in the form of two semicircles ⸬, is sometimes employed before k, kh, and p, ph. Before the two former letters this symbol is properly called Jihvámúlíya, and the organ of its enunciation said to be the root of the tongue (jihvá-múla). Before p and ph its proper name is Upadhmáníya, 'to be breathed upon,' and its organ of utterance is then the lips (oshṭha).

The Jihvámúlíya and Upadhmáníya are therefore to be regarded as the sibilants of the guttural and labial classes respectively. (See Páṇ. 1. 1, 9.)

b. The sign Ardha-visarga is now rarely seen in printed Sanskṛit texts. In the Vedas the Upadhmáníya occurs, but only after an Anusvára or Anunásika; thus, नॄँ५ पाहि or नॄँ५ पाहि, and in this case also the symbol Visarga may be used for it.

VIRÁMA, AVAGRAHA, &C.

9. The Viráma, 'pause' or 'stop,' placed under a consonant (thus क् k), indicates the absence of the inherent अ a, by help of which the consonant is pronounced.

Observe—Viráma properly means the pause of the voice at the end of a sentence. In some MSS. it is employed like a mark of punctuation at the close of a sentence ending with a consonant, while the mark । is the proper means of denoting the close of a sentence ending in a vowel, all the preceding words being written without separation, because supposed to be pronounced without pause.

10. The mark ऽ (Avagraha, sometimes called Ardhákára, half the letter a), placed between two words, denotes the elision (lopa) or suppression (abhinidhána) of an initial अ a after ए e or ओ o final preceding. It corresponds to our apostrophe in some analogous cases. Thus, तेऽपि te 'pi for ते अपि te api.

a. In books printed in Calcutta the mark ऽ is sometimes used to resolve a long á resulting from the blending of a final á with an initial a or á; thus तथाऽपश्यं for तथा अपश्यं, usually written तथापश्यं. Sometimes a double mark ऽऽ denotes an initial long आ. The mark ऽ is also used in the Veda as the sign of a hiatus between vowels; and in the pada text to separate the component parts of a compound or of other grammatical forms.

b. The half pause । is a stop or mark of punctuation, usually placed at the end of the first line of a couplet or stanza.

c. The whole pause ॥ is placed at the end of a couplet, or is used like a full stop.

d. The mark of repetition ° indicates that a word or sentence has to be repeated. It is also used to abbreviate a word, just as in English we use a full point; thus प° stands for पर्व, as chap. for chapter; so °भ for शुभ.

PRONUNCIATION OF SANSKṚIT VOWELS.

11. The vowels in Sanskṛit are pronounced for the most part as in Italian or French, though occasional words in English may exemplify their sound; but every vowel is supposed to be alpa-práṇa, 'pronounced with a slight breathing' (see 14. a).

a. Since अ a is inherent in every consonant, the student should be careful to acquire the correct pronunciation of this letter. There are many words in English which afford examples of its sound, such as vocal, cedar, zebra, organ. But in English the vowel u in such words as fun, bun, sun, more frequently represents this obscure sound of a; and even the other vowels may occasionally be pronounced with this sound, as in her, sir, son.

b. The long vowel आ á is pronounced as a in the English father, far, cart; इ i as the i in pin, lily; ई í as the i in marine, police; उ u as the u in push; ऊ ú as the u in rude.

c. The vowel ऋ ṛi, peculiar to Sanskṛit, is pronounced as the ri in merrily, where the i of ri is less perceptible than in the syllable ri, composed of the consonant r and the vowel *i. ॠ ṛí is pronounced nearly as the ri in chagrin, being hardly distinguishable from the syllable री; but in the case of the vowels ṛi and ṛí there is a mere vibration of the tongue in the direction of the upper gums, whereas in pronouncing the consonant r, the tongue should actually touch them (see 19, 20): ए e as the e in prey, there; ओ o as in so; ऐ ai as ai in aisle; औ au as aü in the German Haus or as ou in the English house †. ऌ ḷṛi and ॡ ḷṛí differ little in sound from the letter ल् l with the vowels ṛi and ṛí annexed.

d. Hence it appears that every simple vowel in Sanskṛit has a short and a long form, and that each vowel has one invariable sound; so that the beginner can never, as in other languages, be in doubt as to pronunciation or prosody.

e. Note, however, that Sanskṛit possesses no short ĕ and ŏ in opposition to the long diphthongal sounds of e and o.

f. Although for all practical purposes it is sufficient to regard vowels as either short or long, it should be borne in mind that native grammarians give eighteen different modifications of each of the vowels a, i, u, ṛi, and twelve of ḷṛi, which are thus explained:—Each of the first four vowels is supposed to have three prosodial lengths or measures (mátrá), viz. a short (hrasva), a long (dírgha), and a prolated

* That there is not, practically, much difference between the pronunciation of the vowel ṛi and the syllable रि ri may be gathered from the fact that some words beginning with ऋ are also found written with रि, and vice versa; thus, रिषि and ऋषि, रिषि and ऋषि, रिष्य and ऋष्य. Still the distinction between the definition of a vowel and consonant at 19 and 20 should be borne in mind. There is no doubt that in English the sound of ri in the words merrily and rich is different, and that the former approaches nearer to the sound of a vowel.

(pluta); the long being equal to two, and the prolated to three short vowels. Each of these three modifications may be uttered with a high tone, or a low tone, or a tone between high and low; or in other words, may have the acute, or the grave, or the circumflex accent. This gives nine modifications to a, i, u, ṛi; and each of these again may be regarded either as nasal or non-nasal, according as it is pronounced with the nose and mouth, or with the mouth alone. Hence result eighteen varieties of every vowel, excepting ḷri, e, ai, o, au, which have only twelve, because the first does not possess the long and the last four have not the short prosodial time. A prolated vowel is marked with three lines underneath or with ३ on one side, thus आ३ or आ३ (see Páṇ. 1. 2, 27).

PRONUNCIATION OF SANSKṚIT CONSONANTS.

12. क् k, ज् j, प् p, ब् b are pronounced as in English.

a. ग् g has always the sound of g in gun, give, never of g in gin.

b. च् ć is pronounced like ch in church, or as c in Italian. Observe that च् ć is a simple consonantal sound, although represented in English words by ch. It is a modification or softening of k, just as j is of g, the organ of utterance being in the palate, a little in advance of the throat. Hence, in Sanskṛit and its cognate languages, the palatals ć and j are often exchanged with the gutturals k and g. See 25.

c. त् t, द् d are more dental than in English, t being something like t in stick, and d like th in this; thus veda ought to be pronounced rather like vetha. But in real fact we have no sound exactly equivalent to the Indian dentals t and d. The sound of th in thin, this, is really dental, but, so to speak, over-dentalized, the tongue being forced through the teeth instead of against them. Few Englishmen acquire the correct pronunciation of the Indian dentals. They are said to be best pronounced by resting the end of the tongue against the inside of the front teeth and then suddenly removing it.

13. ट् ṭ, ड् ḍ. The sound of these cerebral letters is in practice hardly to be distinguished from the sound of our English t and d. Properly, however, the Sanskṛit cerebrals should be uttered with a duller and deeper intonation, produced by keeping the tongue as far back in the head (cerebrum) as possible, and slightly turning it upwards. A Hindú, however, would always write any English word or name containing t and d with the cerebral letters. Thus such words as trip, drip, London would be written ट्रिप्, ड्रिप्, लण्डन्.

In Bengal the cerebral ड़ ḍ and ढ़ ḍh have nearly the sound of a dull r; so that viḍála, 'a cat,' is pronounced like virála.

In some words both ट़ ṭ and ड़ ḍ seem interchangeable with ऱ r and ल़ l; so that खोट़् khoṭ, 'to be lame,' may be also written खोड़्, खोऱ्, खोल़्. In Prákṛit cerebral letters often stand for the Sanskṛit dentals. Cerebrals rarely begin words in Sanskṛit.

14. ख् kh, घ् gh, छ् ćh, झ् jh, ठ् ṭh, ढ् ḍh, थ् th, ध् dh, फ् ph, भ् bh. These are merely aspirated forms of simple consonants. They are not double or compound letters; h is only added to denote a distinct aspiration. Thus ख् is pronounced like kh in *in*kh*orn,* not like the Greek χ; थ् as th in *ant*h*ill,* not as in th*ink;* फ् as ph in *up*h*ill,* not as in ph*ysic,* but colloquially ph is often pronounced like f (as phala is pronounced fala); भ् bh as in *ca*bh*orse.* Care must be taken not to interpolate a vowel before the aspirate. Indeed it is most important to acquire the habit of pronouncing the aspirated consonants distinctly. Dá and dhá, pṛishṭa and pṛishṭha, stamba and stambha, kara and khara have very different meanings, and are pronounced very differently. Few Englishmen pay sufficient attention to this, although the correct sound is easily attainable. The simple rule is to breathe hard while uttering the aspirated consonant, and then an aspirated sound will come out with the consonant before the succeeding vowel.

a. With regard to aspiration we may note that according to Páṇ. I. 1, 9, the letters are all either slightly aspirated (alpa-práṇa) or more strongly aspirated (mahá-práṇa). To the former belong vowels, semivowels, nasals, and k, g, ć, j, ṭ, ḍ, t, d, p, b, which are supposed to require a slight breathing in uttering them when they are initial. The mahá-práṇa letters are kh, gh, ćh, jh, ṭh, ḍh, th, dh, ph, bh, ś, sh, s, h, Anusvára, Visarga, Jihvámúlíya, and Upadhmáníya.

15. ङ् ṅ, ञ् ñ, ण् ṇ, न् n, म् m. Each of the five classes of consonants in Sanskṛit has its own nasal sound, represented by a separate nasal letter. In English and most other languages the same fivefold division of nasal sounds might be made, though we have only one nasal letter to express the guttural, palatal, cerebral, and dental nasal sounds. The truth is, that in all languages the nasal letters take their sound from the organ employed in uttering the consonant that follows them. Thus in English it will be found that guttural, palatal, cerebral, dental, and labial nasals are followed by consonants of the same classes, as in ink, sing, inch, under, plinth, imp. If such words existed in Sanskṛit, the distinction of nasal sounds would be represented by distinct letters; thus, इङ्क्, सिङ्ह्, इञ्च्, भराञ्ज्, प्रिन्य्, इम्प्. Compare 6.

a. It should be observed, however, that the guttural nasal ङ् n, which is rarely found by itself at the end of a word in Sanskṛit, never at the beginning, probably has, when standing alone, the sound of ng in sing, where the sound of g is almost imperceptible. So that the English sing might be written सिङ्. The palatal ञ् ṅ is only found in conjunction with palatal consonants, as in च् ṅc, ञ् ṅj, ञ् ṅch, and ज्ञ् jñ. This last may be pronounced like ny, or like gn in the French campagne. In Bengal, however, it always has the sound of gy: thus राज्ञा is pronounced rágyá. The cerebral nasal ण् ṇ is generally the result of a preceding cerebral letter, as explained at 58. It is found in conjunction with cerebral consonants, but is not found at the beginning of pure Sanskṛit words (except when used artificially as a substitute for roots beginning with न् n). It is pronounced, as the other cerebrals, by turning the tip of the tongue rather upwards. The dental and labial nasals न् n and म् m are pronounced with the same organs as the class of letters to which they belong. See 21.

16. य् y, र् r, ल् l, व् v are pronounced as in English. Their relationship to and interchangeableness with (samprasáraṇa) the vowels i, ṛi, ḷri, u, respectively, should never be forgotten. See 22. a.

When व् v is the last member of a conjunct consonant it is pronounced like w, as द्वार is pronounced dwára; but not after r, as सर्व sarva. To prevent confusion, however, व् will in all cases be represented by v, thus द्वार dvára. See Preface to Sanskṛit-English Dictionary, p. xix.

a. The character ऌ ḷ is peculiar to the Veda. It appears to be a mixture of ल् l and र् r, representing a liquid sound formed like the cerebrals by turning the tip of the tongue upwards; and it is often in the Veda a substitute for the cerebral ळ् ḍ when between two vowels, as ळ्ह् ḷh is for ढ् ḍh.

b. The semivowels r and l are frequently interchanged, r being an old form of l. Cf. roots rabh, rip, with the later forms labh, lip. (See examples at 25.)

17. श् ś, ष् sh, स् s, ह् h. Of these, श् ś is a palatal sibilant, and is pronounced like sh or like s in sure; (compounded with r it is sounded more like s in sun, but the pronunciation of ś varies in different provinces and different words.) ष् sh is a cerebral, rather softer than our sh. That its pronunciation is hardly to be distinguished from that of the palatal is proved by the number of words written indiscriminately with श or ष; as, कोश or कोष. This ष् is often corrupted into क्ष् in conversation, and क्ष् ksh is often pronounced like क्ष् ćh. The dental स् s is pronounced as the common English s. Different sibilants, of course, exist in English, though represented by one character, as in the words sure, session, pressure, stick, sun.

ह् h is pronounced as in English, and is guttural.

CLASSIFICATION OF LETTERS.

18. In the arrangement of the alphabet at page 1, all the consonants, excepting the semivowels, sibilants, and h, were distributed under the five heads of gutturals (kaṇṭhya), palatals (tálavya), cerebrals (múrdhanya), dentals (dantya), and labials (oshṭhya). We are now to show that all the forty-seven letters, vowels, semivowels, and consonants, may be referred to one or other of these five grand classes, according to the organ principally concerned in their pronunciation, whether the throat, the palate, the upper part of the palate, the teeth, or the lips *:

a. We have also to show that all the letters may be regarded according to another principle of division, and may be all arranged under the head of either HARD or SOFT, according as the effort of utterance is attended with expansion (vivára), or contraction (saṃvára), of the throat.

* a. According to some native grammars the classes (varga) of consonants are distinguished thus: ka-varga the class of guttural letters beginning with k, including the nasal, ća-varga the palatals, ṭa-varga the cerebrals, ta-varga the dentals, pa-varga the labials, ya-varga the semivowels, śa-varga the sibilants and the aspirate h.

b. In the Śiva-sútras of Páṇini the letters are arranged in fourteen groups: thus, a i u ṇ—ṛi ḷṛi k—e o ṅ—ai au ć—h y v r ṭ—l ṇ—ñ m n ṇ n m—jh bh ñ—gh ḍh dh sh—j b g ḍ d ś—kh ph ćh ṭh th ć ṭ t v—k p y—ś sh s r—h l. By taking the first letter of any series and joining it to the last of any other series various classes of letters are designated; thus al is the technical name for the whole alphabet; hal for all the consonants; ać the vowels; ak all the simple vowels; aṇ the vowels a, i, u, short or long; eć the diphthongs; yaṇ the semivowels; jaś the soft consonants g, j, ḍ, d, b; jhaś the same with their aspirates; jhash the soft aspirates alone; yar all the consonants except h; jhal all the consonants except the nasals and semivowels; jhar all the consonants except the aspirate, nasals, and semivowels.

b. The following tables exhibit this twofold classification, the comprehension of which is of the utmost importance to the study of Sanskṛit grammar.

Gutturals	अ a आ á	क ka ख kha	ग ga घ gha	ङ ṅa	ह ha
Palatals	इ i ई í ए e ऐ ai	च ća छ ćha	ज ja झ jha	ञ ña	य ya	श śa
Cerebrals	ऋ ṛi ॠ ṛí	ट ṭa ठ ṭha	ड ḍa ढ ḍha	ण ṇa	र ra	ष sha
Dentals	ऌ ḷi ॡ ḷí	त ta थ tha	द da ध dha	न na	ल la	स sa
Labials	उ u ऊ ú ओ o औ au	प pa फ pha	ब ba भ bha	म ma	व va

The first two consonants in each of the above five classes and the sibilants, including Visarga, are hard; all the other letters, including Anusvára, are soft, as in the following table:

HARD OR SURD LETTERS.		SOFT OR SONANT LETTERS.
क *ka ख *kha		अ a आ á	ग *ga घ *gha	ङ ṅa	ह ha
च *ća छ *ćha	श śa	इ i ई í ए e ऐ ai	ज *ja झ *jha	ञ ña	य ya
ट *ṭa ठ *ṭha	ष sha	ऋ ṛi ॠ ṛí	ड *ḍa ढ *ḍha	ण ṇa	र ra
त *ta थ *tha	स sa	ऌ ḷi ॡ ḷí	द *da ध *dha	न na	ल la
प *pa फ *pha		उ u ऊ ú ओ o औ au	ब *ba भ *bha	म ma	व va

Note—Hindú grammarians begin with the letters pronounced by the organ furthest from the mouth, and so take the other organs in order, ending with the lips. This as a technical arrangement is perhaps the best, but the order of creation would be that of the Hebrew alphabet; 1st, the labials; 2nd, the gutturals; 3rd, the dentals.

c. Observe, that although ए e, ऐ ai, are more conveniently connected with the palatal class, and ओ o, औ au, with the labial, these letters are really diphthongal, being made up of $a+i$, $á+i$, $a+u$, $á+u$, respectively. Their first element is therefore guttural. (In the Prátiśákhyas the diphthongs e, ai, o, au are called Sandhy-akshara.)

d. Note also, that it is most important to observe which hard letters have kindred soft letters, and vice versa. The kindred hard and soft are those in the same line marked with a star in the above table; thus g, gh, are the corresponding soft letters to k, kh; j, jh, to ć, ćh, and so with the others.

In order that the foregoing classification may be clearly understood, it is necessary to note the proper meaning of the term vowel and consonant, and to define the relationship which the nasals, semivowels, and sibilants, bear to the other letters.

19. A vowel is defined to be a sound (svara) or vocal emission of breath from the lungs, modified or modulated by the play of one or other of five organs, viz. the throat, the palate, the tongue, the teeth, or the lips, but not interrupted or stopped by the actual contact of any of these organs.

a. Hence अ a, इ i, उ u, ऋ ṛi, ऌ ḷṛi, with their respective long forms, are simple vowels, belonging to the guttural, palatal, labial, cerebral, and dental classes respectively, according to the organ principally concerned in their modulation. But ए e and ऐ ai are half guttural, half palatal; ओ o and औ au half guttural, half labial. See 18. c.

b. The vowels are, of course, held to be soft letters.

20. A consonant is not the modulation, but the actual stoppage, of the vocal stream of breath by the contact of one or other of the five organs, and cannot be enunciated without a vowel. Hence the consonants from k to m in the table on p. 1 are often designated by the term sparśa or spṛishṭa, 'resulting from contact;' while the semivowels y, r, l, v are called íshat-spṛishṭa, 'resulting from slight contact.' By native grammarians they are sometimes said to be avidyamána-vat, 'as if they did not exist,' because they have no svara (sound or accent). Another name for consonant is vyañjana, probably so called as 'distinguishing' sound.

a. All the consonants, therefore, are arranged under the five heads of gutturals, palatals, cerebrals, dentals, and labials, according to the organ concerned in stopping the vocal sound.

b. Again, the first two consonants in each of the five classes, and the sibilants, are called hard or surd, i. e. non-sonant (a-ghosha), because the vocal stream is abruptly and completely interrupted, and no ghosha or sound allowed to escape; while all the other letters are called soft or sonant (ghosha-vat, 'having sound'), because the vocal sound is less suddenly and completely arrested, and they are articulated with a soft sound or low murmur (ghosha).

c. Observe, that the palatal stop is only a modification of the guttural, the point of contact being moved more forward from the throat towards the palate *.

In the same way the cerebral (múrdhanya) stop is a modification of the dental. See 13.

d. The cerebral letters have probably been introduced into Sanskṛit through pre-existing dialects, such as the Drávidian, with which it came in contact (see 24). As these letters are pronounced chiefly with the help of the tongue, they are sometimes appropriately called linguals.

21. A nasal or narisonant letter is a soft letter, in the utterance of which the vocal stream of breath incompletely arrested, as in all soft letters, is forced through the nose instead of the lips. As the soft letters are of five kinds, according to the organ which interrupts the vocal breathing, so the nasal letters are five, viz. guttural, palatal, cerebral, dental, and labial. See 15.

22. The semivowels y, r, l, v (called अन्तःस्थ antaḥstha or antaḥsthá because they stand between the other consonants and the sibilants) are formed by a vocal breathing, which is only half interrupted, the several organs being only slightly touched (íshat-spṛishṭa) by the tongue. They are, therefore, soft or sonant consonants, approaching nearly to the character of vowels—in fact, half vowels, half consonants. See 16.

a. Each class of soft letters (excepting the guttural) has its own kindred semivowel to which it is nearly related. Thus the palatal soft letters इ i, ई í, ए e, ऐ ai, ज् j, have य् y for their kindred semivowel. Similarly र् r is the kindred semivowel of the cerebral soft letters ऋ ṛi, ॠ ṛí, and ड् ḍ; so also ल् l of the dentals ऌ ḷṛi, ॡ ḷṛí, and द् d †; and व् v of उ u, ऊ ú, ओ o, औ au, and ब् b.

b. The guttural soft letters have no kindred semivowel in Sanskṛit, unless the aspirate ह् h be so regarded.

* The relationship of the palatal to the guttural letters is proved by their frequent interchangeableness in Sanskṛit and in other languages. See 24, 25, and 176, and compare church with kirk, Sanskṛit ćatvár with Latin quatuor, Sanskṛit ća with Latin que and Greek καί, Sanskṛit jánu with English knee, Greek γόνυ, Latin genu. Some German scholars represent the palatals च् and ज् by k' and g'.

† That ल् l is a dental, and kindred to द् d, is proved by its interchangeableness with d in cognate languages. Thus lacrima, δάκρυμα. Compare also दीप् with λαμπ.

23. The sibilants or hissing sounds (called ऊष्मन् úshman by native grammarians) are hard letters, which, nevertheless, strictly speaking, have in some measure the character of vowels. The organs of speech in uttering them, although not closed, are more contracted and less opened (íshad-vivṛita) than in vowels, and the vocal stream of breath in passing through the teeth experiences a friction which causes sibilation.

a. The aspirate ह् h, although a soft letter, is also called an úshman.

b. The palatal, cerebral, and dental classes of letters have each their own sibilant (viz. श्, ष्, स्, respectively, see 17). The Ardha-visarga, called Jihvámúlíya (ᾰ=χ), was once the guttural sibilation, and that called Upadhmánίya (ᾰ=φ) the labial sibilation (see 8. a); but these two latter, though called úshman, have now gone out of use. Visarga (ः) is also sometimes, though less correctly, called an úshman. The exact labial sibilation denoted by f, and the soft sibilation z are unknown in Sanskṛit.

24. That some of the consonants did not exist in the original Sanskṛit alphabet, but have been added at later periods, will be made clear by a reference to the examples below, exhibiting the interchange of letters in Sanskṛit, Greek, and Latin. The palatals ć, ćh, j, jh, ṅ were probably developed out of the corresponding gutturals; the cerebrals ṭ, ṭh, ḍ, ḍh, ṇ are thought to be of Drávidian origin; the guttural nasal ṅ is evidently for an original n or m before a guttural letter; l is supposed to be a more modern form of r; ś belongs to the palatal class, and is generally for an original k; sh is for an original s, cf. root ush, 'to burn,' with Lat. us-tu-s, from ur-o; h is for an original gh, sometimes for dh, and occasionally for bh (e. g. root grah, 'to seize,' for the Vedic grabh).

Of the vowels probably only a, i, u were original; ṛi is not original, and seems to have been a weakened pronunciation of the syllable ar, and at a later period ḷṛi of al. In Prákṛit ṛi is represented by either i or u. The diphthongs are of course formed by the union of simple vowels (see 29).

INTERCHANGE OF LETTERS IN SANSKṚIT, GREEK, AND LATIN.

25. The following is a list of examples exhibiting some of the commonest interchanges of letters in Sanskṛit, Greek, and Latin.

Sanskṛit a = Greek α, ε, ο, = Latin a, e, o, i, u; e. g. Sk. ajra-s, 'a plain,' Gr. ἀγρό-ς, L. ager; Sk. jan-as, 'race,' Gr. γέν-ος, L. gen-us; Sk. janas-as, gen. c., Gr. γένε(σ)-ος, γένους, L. gener-is; Sk. nava-s, 'new,' Gr. νέ-ος, L. novu-s; Sk. apas-as, 'of work,' L. oper-is.

Sanskṛit á = Gr. α, η, ω, = L. á, é, ó; e. g. Sk. má-ṭri (stem mátar-), 'a mother,' Gr. μήτηρ (stem μήτερ-), Dor. μάτηρ, Lat. máter; Sk. jñá-ta-s, 'known,' Gr. γνω-τό-ς, L. (g)nó-tu-s; Sk. sámi-, 'half,' Gr. ἥμι-, L. sémi-.

THE INDIAN METHOD OF WRITING.

26. According to Hindú grammarians every syllable ought to end in a vowel *, except at the end of a clause or sentence, and every final consonant ought to be attracted to the beginning of the next syllable; so that where a word ends in a consonant, that consonant ought to be pronounced with the initial letter of the next word. Hence in some Sanskṛit MSS. all the syllables are separated by slight spaces, and in others all the words are joined together without any separation. Thus the two words आसीद् राजा ásíd rájá would in some books be written आ सी द्रा जा and in others आसीद्राजा. There seems little reason for considering the mere spaces left between the words of a sentence to be incompatible with the operation of euphonic laws. Therefore in some Sanskṛit books printed in Roman type every uncompounded word capable of separation is separated, e. g. pitur dhanam ádatte; which is even printed in Deva-nágarí letters (by those scholars who allow an extension of the use of the mark called Viráma) thus, पितुर् धनम् आदत्ते, for पितुर्धनमादत्ते.

* Unless it end in Anusvára or Visarga ḥ, which in theory are the only consonantal sounds allowed to close a syllable until the end of a sentence.

The following words and passages in the Sanskṛit and English character, are given that the Student, before proceeding further in the Grammar, may exercise himself in reading the letters and in transliteration.

CHAPTER II.

SANDHI OR EUPHONIC COMBINATION OF LETTERS.

We are accustomed in Greek and Latin to certain euphonic changes of letters. Thus for the perfect passive participle of reg-o (stem reg-) we have (not reg-tu-s but) rec-tu-s, the soft g being changed to the hard c before the hard t (cf. rex for reg-s). In many words a final consonant assimilates with an initial; thus συν with γνώμη becomes συγγνώμη; ἐν with λάμπω, ἐλλάμπω. Suppressus is written for subpressus; appellatus for adpellatus; immensus for inmensus; affinitas for adfinitas; offero for obfero, but in perfect obtuli; colloquium for conloquium; irrogo for inrogo. In English, assimilations of the same kind take place in pronunciation, though they are not always recognized in writing; thus cupboard is pronounced as if written cub-board, and blackguard as if written blag-guard. These laws for the euphonic junction of letters are applied throughout the whole range of Sanskṛit grammar; and that, too, not only in the interior of words when a stem is united with its terminations and suffixes, but in combining words in the same sentence. Thus, if the sentence 'Rara avis in terris' were Sanskṛit, it would require, by the laws of Sandhi or combination, to be written Rarávirṇsterriḥ. The learner is recommended, after learning the most common rules of combination, printed in large type, to pass at once to the declension of nouns and conjugation of verbs.

There are two classes of rules of Sandhi, viz. 1. Those affecting the junction of final and initial letters of completely formed words in sentences as well as of the stems of words in compounds; 2. Those which take effect in the process of forming words by the junction of roots and of stems, whether nominal or verbal, with suffixes and terminations (see 74. a). As the rules which apply to one class are generally applicable to the other, it will be convenient to consider them together; but some of the rules which come into operation in the formation of verbs, are reserved till they are wanted (see 294).

SECT. I.—EUPHONIC PERMUTATION AND COMBINATION OF VOWELS.

27. The changes of vowels called Guṇa and Vṛiddhi should at once be impressed on the memory. When the vowels इ i and ई í become ए e, this is called a Guṇa change, or qualification (guṇa meaning 'quality'). When i and í become ऐ ai, this is called a Vṛiddhi change, or increase. Similarly, उ u and ऊ ú are often changed to their Guṇa ओ o, and Vṛiddhi औ au; ऋ ṛi and ॠ ṛí to their Guṇa अर् ar, and Vṛiddhi आर् ár; and अ a, though it can have no corresponding Guṇa change, has a Vṛiddhi substitute in आ á.

a. Native grammarians consider that a is already a Guṇa letter, and on that account can have no Guṇa substitute. Indeed they regard a, e, o as the only Guṇa sounds, and á, ai, au as the only Vṛiddhi; a and á being the real Guṇa and Vṛiddhi representatives of the vowels ऋ and ऌ. It is required, however, that r should always be connected with a and á when these vowels are substituted for ṛi; and l, when they are substituted for ḷṛi.

b. Observe—It will be convenient in describing the change of a vowel to its Guṇa or Vṛiddhi substitute, to speak of that vowel as gunated or vriddhied.

28. In the formation of stems, whether nominal or verbal, the vowels of roots cannot be gunated or vriddhied, if they are followed by double consonants, i. e. if they are long by position; nor can a vowel long by nature be so changed, unless it be final. The vowel अ a is, as we have seen, already a Guṇa letter. See 27. a.

a. But in secondary derivatives long vowels are sometimes vriddhied: स्थौल sthaula, 'robust,' from स्थूल sthúla; ग्रैव graiva, 'belonging to the neck,' from ग्रीवा grívá; मौल maula, 'radical,' from मूल múla (see 80. B).

29. The Guṇa sounds ए e, ओ o are diphthongal, that is, composed of two simple vowel sounds. Thus, ए e is made up of a and i; ओ o of a and u; so that a final अ a will naturally coalesce with an initial इ i into e; with an initial उ u into o. (Compare 18. c.) Again, अर् ar may be regarded as made up of a and ṛi; so that a final अ a will blend with an initial ऋ ṛi into ar.

a. Similarly, the Vṛiddhi diphthong ऐ ai is made up of a and e, or (which is the same) á and i; and औ au of a and o, or (which is the same) á and u. Hence, a final a will naturally blend with an initial ए e into ai; and with an initial ओ o into au. (Compare 18. c; and see note to table in next page.) The simple vowels in their diphthongal unions are not very closely combined, so that e, o, ai, au are liable to be resolved into their constituent simple elements.

b. If ai is composed of á and i, it may be asked, How is it that long á as well as short a blends with i into e (see 32), and not into ai? In answer to this some scholars have maintained that a long vowel at the end of a word naturally shortens itself before an initial vowel (see 38. i), and that the very meaning of Guṇa is the prefixing of short a, and the very meaning of Vṛiddhi, the prefixing of long á, to a simple vowel. Hence the Guṇa of i is originally a i, though the two simple vowels blend afterwards into e. Similarly, the original Guṇa of u is a u, blending afterwards into o; the original Guṇa of ṛi is a ṛi, blending into ar.

c. The practice of gunating vowels is not peculiar to Sanskṛit. The Sanskṛit a answers to the Greek ε or ο (see 25), and Sanskṛit एमि emi, 'I go,' which in the 1st pers. plural becomes इमस् imas, 'we go,' is originally a i mi, corresponding to the Greek εἶμι and ἴμεν. Similarly in Greek, the root φυγ (ἔ-φυγ-ον) is in the present φεύγ-ω. Compare also the Sanskṛit veda (vaida), 'he knows,' with Greek οἶδα; and compare λέ-λοιπ-α, perfect of λιπ, with the Sanskṛit perfect.

30. Again, let it be borne in mind that य् y is the kindred semivowel of i, í, e, and ai; व् v of u, ú, o, and au; र् r of ṛi and ṛí; and ल् l of ḷṛi and ḷṛí. So that i, í, e, ai, at the end of words, when the next begins with a vowel, may often pass into y, y, ay, áy, respectively; u, ú, o, au, into v, v, av, áv; and ṛi, ṛí, into r. [Observe—ḷṛi is not found as a final.]

The interchange of vowels with their own semivowels is called by Sanskṛit grammarians samprasáraṇa.

In English we recognize the same interchangeableness, though not in the same way; thus we write holy, holier; easy, easily; and we use ow for ou in now, cow, &c.

In order to impress the above rules on the mind, the substance of them is embodied in the following table:

Simple vowels,	a or á	i or í	u or ú	ṛi or ṛí	ḷṛi or ḷṛí
Guṇa substitute,		e	o	ar	al
Vṛiddhi substitute,	á	ai	au	ár	ál
Simple vowels,		i or í	u or ú	ṛi or ṛí	ḷṛi or ḷṛí
Corresponding semivowel,		y	v	r	l
Guṇa,		e	o
Guṇa resolved,		a + i	a + u
With semivowel substitute,		ay	av
Vṛiddhi,		ai	au
Vṛiddhi resolved,		a + e a + a + i á* + i	a + o a + a + u á* + u
With semivowel substitute,		áy	áv

The following rules will now be easily understood. They apply generally to the junction (1) of separate words in sentences and compounds; (2) of roots and stems with suffixes and terminations. To distinguish the second class of combinations the sign + will be used in the examples given. The object of most of the rules is to prevent a hiatus between vowels †.

31. If any simple vowel (short or long) is followed by a similar simple vowel (short or long), the two vowels blend into one long similar vowel (Páṇ. VI. 1, 101); e. g.

न अस्ति इह na asti iha becomes नास्तीह nástíha, 'he is not here.'

राजा अस्तु उत्तमः rájá astu uttamaḥ becomes राजास्तूत्तमः rájástúttamaḥ, 'let the king be supreme.'

जीवा अन्त jívá anta becomes जीवान्त jívánta, 'end of life.'

अधि ईश्वर adhi íśvara becomes अधीश्वर adhíśvara, 'supreme lord.'

पितृ ऋद्धि pitṛi ṛiddhi becomes पितॄद्धि pitṛíddhi, 'a father's prosperity.'

---

* Since e=a+i and o=a+u, therefore a+e will equal a+a+i or á+i; and a+o will equal a+a+u or á+u.

† In the Vedic hymns hiatus between vowels is not uncommon; cf. note to 66.

32. अ a or आ á, followed by the dissimilar vowels इ i, उ u, ऋ ṛi (short or long), blends with i or í into the Guṇa ए e; with u or ú into the Guṇa ओ *o; with ṛi or ṛí into the Guṇa अर् ar (Páṇ. VI. 1, 87); e.g.

हित उपदेश hita upadeśa becomes हितोपदेश hitopadeśa, 'friendly instruction.'
गङ्गा उदक gangá udaka becomes गङ्गोदक gangodaka, 'Ganges-water.'
तव ऋद्धि tava ṛiddhi becomes तवर्द्धि tavarddhi, 'thy growth.'
महा ऋषि mahá ṛishi becomes महर्षि maharshi, 'a great sage.'
Similarly, तव ऌकार tava ḷikára becomes तवल्कार tavalkára, 'thy letter ḷi.'

33. अ a or आ á, followed by the diphthongs ए e, ओ o, ऐ ai, or औ au, blends with e into the Vṛiddhi ai; with ai also into ai; with o into the Vṛiddhi au; with au also into au (Páṇ. VI. 1, 88); e.g.

पर एधित para edhita becomes परैधित paraidhita, 'nourished by another.'
विद्या एव vidyá eva becomes विद्यैव vidyaiva, 'knowledge indeed.'
देव ऐश्वर्य deva aiśvarya becomes देवैश्वर्य devaiśvarya, 'majesty of deity.'
अल्प ओजस् alpa ojas becomes अल्पौजस् alpaujas, 'little energy.'
गङ्गा ओघ gangá ogha becomes गङ्गौघ gangaugha, 'Ganges-current.'
ज्वर औषध jvara aushadha becomes ज्वरौषध jvaraushadha, 'fever-medicine.'

34. इ i, उ u, ऋ ṛi (short or long), followed by any dissimilar vowel or diphthong, pass into their kindred semivowels; viz. i or í into y; u or ú into v†; ṛi or ṛí into r (Páṇ. VI. 1, 77); e.g.

प्रति उवाच prati uváća becomes प्रत्युवाच praty-uváća, 'he spoke in reply.'
तु इदानीम् tu idánim becomes त्विदानीम् tv idánim, 'but now.'
मातृ आनन्द mátṛi ánanda becomes मात्रानन्द mátr-ánanda, 'a mother's joy.'
मातृ औत्सुक्य mátṛi autsukya becomes मात्रौत्सुक्य mátr-autsukya, 'a mother's anxiety.'

35. Final ए e and ओ o, followed by an initial अ a, if it begin another word, remain unchanged, and the initial अ a is cut off (Páṇ. VI. 1. 109); e.g.

ते अपि te api becomes तेऽपि te 'pi, 'they indeed' (see 10).
सो अपि so api becomes सोऽपि so 'pi, 'he indeed.'

---

* The blending of a and i into the sound e is recognized in English in such words as sail, nail, &c.; and the blending of a and u into the sound o is exemplified by the French faute, baume, &c.

† Illustrated by some English words; thus we pronounce a word like million as if written millyon; and we write evangelist (not euangelist), saying, playing, &c.

a. In compounds the elision of initial a after a stem like go appears to be optional, e.g. go-'śváḥ or go-aśváḥ, 'oxen and horses' (Páṇ. VI. 1, 122). See 38. e.

b. But go may become gava in certain compounds, as go agram may become gavágram, see 38. e; so go indra becomes gavendra, 'lord of kine,' or gav-indra by 36.

36. But followed by á, i, í, u, ú, ṛi, ṛí, e, o, ai, au, if any one of these begin another word, final ए e and ओ o are changed to ay and av respectively; and the y of ay, and more rarely the v of av, may be dropped, leaving the a uninfluenced by the following vowel (Páṇ. VI. 1, 78); e. g.

Similarly, विष्णो इह vishṇo iha becomes विष्णविह vishṇav iha, and then विष्ण इह vishṇa iha, 'O Vishṇu, here!'

Observe—When go, 'a cow,' becomes gav in compounds, v is retained; e. g.

गो ईश्वर go íśvara becomes गवीश्वर gav-íśvara, 'owner of kine.'

a. And in the case of ए e and ओ o followed by any vowel or diphthong in the same word, even though the following vowel or diphthong be a or e or o, then e must still be changed to ay, and o to av, but both y and v must be retained; e. g.

भो + अ bho+a becomes भव bhava, the present stem of bhú (see 263).

37. ऐ ai and औ au, followed by any vowel or diphthong, similar or dissimilar, are changed to áy and áv respectively (Páṇ. VI. 1, 78); e. g.

कस्मै अपि kasmai api becomes कस्मायपि kasmáy api, 'to any one whatever.'

रै + अस् rai+as becomes रायस् ráyaṣ, 'riches' (nom. plur.).

ददौ अन्नम् dadau annam becomes ददावन्नम् dadáv annam, 'he gave food.'

नौ + औ nau+au becomes नावौ návau, 'two ships' (nom. du.).

a. If both the words be complete words, the y and v are occasionally dropped, but not so usually as in the case of e at 36; thus कस्मा अपि kasmá api for कस्मायपि kasmáy api, and ददा अन्नम् dadá annam for ददावन्नम् dadáv annam.

PRAGṚIHYA EXCEPTIONS.

38. There are some exceptions (usually called pragṛihya, 'to be taken or pronounced separately') caused by vowels which must, under all circumstances, remain unchanged. The most noticeable are the terminations of duals (whether of nouns, pronouns, or verbs) in í, ú, or e (Páṇ. I. 1, 11). These are not acted on by following vowels; e.g.

कवी इतौ kaví etau, 'these two poets;' बन्धू इमौ bandhú imau, 'these two relations;' अमू आसाते 'these two sit down;' पचेते इमौ 'these two cook;' शेवहे आवाम् 'we two lie down.'

Observe—The same applies to अमी amí, nom. pl. masc. of the pronoun अदस्.

a. The Vedic asme and yushme are also pragṛihya according to Páṇ. I. 1, 13.

b. Prolated vowels (11. f) remain unchanged, as आगच्छ कृष्ण३ अत्र 'Come, Kṛishṇa, here,' &c. (Páṇ. VI. 1, 125; VIII. 2, 82).

c. A vocative case in o, when followed by the particle iti, may remain unchanged, as विष्णो इति vishṇo iti, or may follow 36.

d. Particles, when simple vowels, and ओ o, as the final of an interjection, remain unchanged, as इ इन्द्र i indra, 'O, Indra!' उ उमेश u umeśa, 'O, lord of Umá!' अहो इन्द्र aho indra, 'Ho, Indra!' (Páṇ. I. 1, 14, 15.)

Observe—This applies also to the exclamation आ á (but not to the á which native grammarians call आङ् áṅ, and which is used as a preposition before verbs and before nouns with the meanings 'to,' 'up to,' 'as far as,' 'until,' 'a little'); e.g. आ एवम् á evam, 'Ah, indeed!' (but á udakát becomes odakát, 'as far as water;' á ushṇa becomes oshṇa, 'slightly warm').

e. Before initial अ a the ओ o of गो go, 'a cow,' remains unchanged and optionally cuts off the a; e.g. गोअग्रम् go-agram, or गोग्रम् go-'gram, 'a multitude of cows' (cf. 35. a. b, 36. Obs.).

Other Exceptions.

f. The final a or á of a preposition blends with the initial ऋ ṛi of a root into ár (not into ar); e.g. प्र ऋच्छ् = प्रार्च्छ् 'to go on;' उप ऋच्छ् = उपार्च्छ् 'to approach;' प्र ऋष् = प्रार्ष् 'to flow forth;' आ ऋच्छ् = आर्च्छ् 'to obtain' (Páṇ. VI. 1, 91). Compare 260. a.

g. The final a of a preposition is generally cut off before verbs beginning with ए e or ओ o; see 783. k. Obs. and 783. p. Obs. (Páṇ. VI. 1, 89, 94).

Observe—The particle एव when it denotes uncertainty is said to have the same effect on a preceding final a.

h. The ऊ ú which takes the place of the वा of वाह् in the acc. pl. of such words as प्रष्ठवाह्, 'a steer training for the plough,' requires Vṛiddhi after a, as प्रष्ठौहस्.

i. The उ u of किमु may remain or be changed to व् v before a vowel, as किमु उक्तम् or किंवुक्तम् 'whether said.'

j. According to Śákalya, a, i, u, ṛi (short or long), final in a word, may optionally either remain unchanged (but, if long, must be shortened) before a word beginning with ऋ or follow the usual rule, thus ब्रह्म ऋषिः (or even ब्रह्मा ऋषिः 'a Brahman who is a Ṛishi') may be either ब्रह्म ऋषिः or ब्रह्मर्षिः, but in no case can ब्रह्मा ऋषिः be allowed to remain unchanged. Similarly, यथा ऋषि may be either यथर्षि or यथऋषि 'according to the Ṛishi.'

So in the case of í or ú or ṛí, final in a word, followed by dissimilar vowels, thus चक्री अत्र is either चक्र्यत्र or चक्रि अत्र 'the discus armed here.' But compounded words follow the usual rule, as नदी उदक = नद्युदक 'river-water.' Except before words beginning with ṛi, as in the example कुमारीऋषभ: or कुमारिऋषभ: (Benfey's larger Gram. p. 52), and in असिऋद्धित 'made prosperous by (the power of) the sword,' Mahá-bh. XVIII. 105.

k. The words ओतु 'a cat' and ओष्ठ 'the lip,' when used in compounds, may optionally cut off a preceding final a; e.g. स्थूल ओतु is स्थूलोतु or स्थूलौतु; अधर ओष्ठ is अधरोष्ठ or अधरौष्ठ 'the lower lip;' (see Páṇ. VI. 1, 94. Várt.); and दिव ओकस् may be either दिवोकस् or दिवौकस् 'a deity.'

l. So also the sacred syllable ओम् and the preposition आ á may cut off a final a; e.g. शिवाय ओं नम: = शिवायों नम: 'Om! reverence to Śiva;' शिव एहि (i.e. आ with इहि) = शिवेहि 'O Śiva, come!'

m. The following words illustrate the same irregularity: शक अन्धु becomes शकन्धु; कर्क अन्धु becomes कर्कन्धु 'jujube;' लाङ्गल ईषा becomes लाङ्गलीषा 'plough-handle;' (see Gaṇa Śakandhv-ádi to Páṇ. VI. 1, 94.)

n. The following compounds are also irregular (see Páṇ. VI. 1, 89. Várt.):

अक्षौहिणी akshauhiṇí, 'a complete army' (from aksha úhiní for váhiní).

प्रौढ prauḍha, 'grown up' (from pra úḍha).

प्रोह prauha, 'reflection' (from pra úha).

स्वैर svaira, स्वैरिन् svairin, 'self-willed' (from sva íra).

सुखार्त sukhárta, 'affected by joy' (from sukha ṛita).

प्रार्ण prárṇa, 'principal debt' (from pra ṛiṇa).

कम्बलार्ण kambalárṇa, 'debt of a blanket' (from kambala ṛiṇa).

वसनार्ण vasanárṇa, 'debt of a cloth' (from vasana ṛiṇa).

ऋणार्ण ṛiṇárṇa, 'debt of a debt' (from ṛiṇa ṛiṇa).

प्रेष praisha, 'an invitation;' प्रेष्य praishya, 'a servant' (from pra esha).

The annexed table exhibits the combinations of vowels at one view. Supposing a word to end in ú, and the next word to begin with au, the student must carry his eye down the first column (headed 'final vowels') till he comes to ú, and then along the top horizontal line of 'initial vowels,' till he comes to au. At the junction of the perpendicular column under au and the horizontal line beginning ú, will be the required combination, viz. v au.

Observe, that in the above table, as in the examples, the final letter, in its changed state, has been printed, for greater clearness, separate from the initial; except in those cases where the blending of the two vowels made this impossible.

* If the initial a belong to a termination, suffix, &c., and not to a complete word, then a is not cut off, and o becomes av before it. See 36. a.

† If both the words are complete words, the y and v may be dropped throughout, but not so usually as in the case of e.

Sect. II.—EUPHONIC COMBINATION OF CONSONANTS.

39. Before proceeding to the combination of consonants, let the letters be again regarded as divided into two grand classes of Hard and Soft, as explained at 20. b.

HARD OR SURD.				SOFT OR SONANT.
k	kh			g	gh	ṅ	h	a	á
ć	ćh	ś		j	jh	ñ	y	i	í	e ai	ṉ
ṭ	ṭh	sh	ḥ	ḍ	ḍh	ṇ	r	ṛi	ṛí		or
t	th	s		d	dh	n	l	ḷṛi	ḷṛí		ṃ
p	ph			b	bh	m	v	u	ú	o au

40. The stems of nouns and the roots of verbs may end in almost any letter, and these final letters (whether single or conjunct) are allowed to remain when the crude words stand alone; but complete words, when they stand alone or at the end of a sentence, can only, according to the native system, end in one of nine consonants (or, including Visarga and the Anusvára substituted for final m, eleven), viz. क् k, ट् ṭ, त् t, प् p, ङ् ṅ, ण् ṇ, न् n, म् m, ल् l, Visarga (:), and Anusvára (ṃ); and even stems of words not ending in one of the above eleven letters are liable to undergo changes which shall make them so end, before the process of their euphonic union with other suffixes and other words in sentences is commenced.

Páṇini (VIII. 4, 56), however, seems to allow a word ending in one of the soft consonants g, ḍ, d, and b, optionally to stand at the end of a sentence or before a pause; e. g. वाक् or वाग्, &c.

41. In this Grammar the soft letters g, ḍ, d, b, the sibilant स् s, and the semivowel र् r will be admitted as possible finals of complete words standing alone, as well as of stems preparing for euphonic combinations; but the following five preliminary laws must be enforced under any circumstances, without reference to the initial letters of succeeding words.

FIVE PRELIMINARY LAWS.

I. A conjunct quiescent consonant (i. e. a conjunct consonant having no vowel after it) is not generally allowed to remain at the end of a word, but must be reduced to a simple one. As a general rule this is done by dropping every consonant except the first; thus ćarants becomes ćaran, avets becomes avet, ćikírsh becomes ćikír (see 166. a).

Observe, however, that क् k, ट् ṭ, त् t, प् p, when preceded by र् r, remain conjunct if both elements of these conjunct letters are either radical or substitutes for radical letters, e. g. úrk, nom. of úrj, 'strength' (176. h); amárṭ, 3rd sing. Impf. of rt. mṛij (Páṇ. VIII. 2, 24). But in abibhar for abibhart, t is rejected as not being radical (see the table at 583; cf. ἔτυπτον for ἐτυπτοντ).

II. An aspirated quiescent consonant is not allowed to remain final, but is changed to its corresponding unaspirated letter; e. g. चित्रलिख् citralikh becomes citralik (see 43); छ् ch, however, usually becomes ट् ṭ (see under IV. below).

III. The aspirate ह् h is not allowed to remain final, but is usually changed to ट् ṭ (thus lih becomes liṭ); sometimes to क् k or त् *t (see 182, 305, 306).

IV. Final palatals, as being of the nature of gutturals, are generally changed to gutturals; thus च् ć is usually changed to क् k, e. g. váć becomes vák (see 176); but छ् ćh becomes ट् ṭ (see 176); ज् j is changed to ग् g (or क् k) and sometimes to ड् ḍ (or ट् ṭ), (see 176) †. [Technical grammatical expressions are excepted; cf. 50. b.]

V. The sibilants श् ś, ष् sh, if final, are generally changed into ट् ṭ; sometimes, however, श् ś becomes क् k; and ष् sh either क् k or Visarga (see 181) ‡.

a. The above changes must hold good before all suffixes and terminations of nouns and verbs beginning with strong consonants (i. e. all consonants except nasals and semivowels), and before Taddhita suffixes beginning with nasals.

b. But before terminations of nouns and verbs beginning with vowels, and generally before weak consonants (i. e. nasals and semivowels), the finals of roots and stems remain unchanged (see váć, 176; vać, 650), even in opposition to the general rule which requires the softening of a hard letter when a soft letter follows.

GENERAL RULES FOR COMBINATION OF CONSONANTS.

42. If two hard or two soft unaspirated letters come in contact, there is generally no change; thus

विद्युत् प्रकाश vidyut prakáśa remains विद्युत्प्रकाश vidyut-prakáśa, 'the brilliance of lightning.'

* So in Arabic ث h becomes ت t.

† So in cognate languages ch is often pronounced as k or passes into k. Compare archbishop, archangel, church, kirk, &c. Again, nature is pronounced nachure, and g in English is often pronounced as j.

‡ Compare parochial with parish, and nation pronounced nashun.

कुमुद् विकास kumud vikása remains कुमुद्विकास kumud-vikása, 'the blossoming of the lotus.'

दृशद् अधोगति dṛiśad adhogati remains दृशदधोगति dṛiśad-adhogati, 'the descent of the rock.'

विद्युत् + सु vidyut+su remains विद्युत्सु vidyutsu, 'in lightnings' (loc. case plur.).

43. If any hard letter (except a sibilant, see 64–66) ends a word when any soft initial letter follows, the hard (unless affected by some special rule) is changed to its own soft, which must always be in the unaspirated form by 41. II. (but see d. below); thus

चित्रलिक् लिखित čitralik (for čitralikh, 41. II.) likhita becomes चित्रलिग्लिखित čitralig-likhita, 'painted by a painter.'

वाक् देवी vák (for váč, 41. IV.) deví becomes वाग्देवी vág-deví, 'the goddess of eloquence;' similarly, वाक् ईश vák íśa becomes वागीश vág-íśa, 'the lord of speech.'

विट् भव viṭ (for vish, 41. V.) bhava becomes विड्भव viḍ-bhava, 'generated by filth.'

a. An option is allowed before nasals, as follows: When two words come together, the initial of the second word being a nasal, then the final of the first word is usually (though not necessarily) changed to the nasal of its own class (see Páṇ. VIII. 4, 45); thus तत् नेत्रम् tat netram becomes तन्नेत्रम् tan netram (or tad netram), 'that eye.'

अप् मूलम् ap múlam becomes अम्मूलम् am múlam (or ab múlam), 'water and roots.'

सरित् मुख sarit mukha becomes सरिन्मुख sarin-mukha (or सरिद्मुख sarid-mukha), 'the source of a stream.'

b. Before maya and mátra, the nasalization is not optional but compulsory; thus चित् मय čit maya becomes चिन्मय čin-maya, 'formed of intellect.'

वाक् मय vák (for váč, 41. IV.) maya becomes वाङ्मय ván-maya, 'full of words.'

विट् मय viṭ (for vish, 41. V.) maya becomes विण्मय viṇ-maya, 'full of filth.'

तत् मात्रम् tat mátram becomes तन्मात्रम् tan-mátram, 'merely that,' 'an element.'

c. In the case of roots followed by Kṛit suffixes there is not usually any change; e. g. छद् + मन् čhad+man becomes छद्मन् čhadman, 'disguise.'

d. It will be seen from 41. V. a. b. that the general rule 43 applies to case-endings of nouns beginning with consonants, but not to case-endings beginning with vowels. In the latter case, the final consonant attracts the initial vowel, so as to form with it a separate syllable; thus vák + bhis becomes vág-bhis, 'by words;' but in vák + á, ś attracts á, thus vá-śá, 'by a speech' (not váj-á): sarit + bhis = sarid-bhis, 'by rivers;' but in sarit + á, t attracts á, thus sari-tá, 'by a river' (not sarid-á). So also samidh + á becomes sami-dhá, 'by fuel' (not samid-á).

e. Similarly, in the case of verbal terminations beginning with vowels or with m, v, y, attached to roots ending in hard letters (see pat, 597. c; kship, 635; vaś, 650), rule 43 does not apply.

f. षष् 'six' (becoming षट् by 41. V.), when followed by the augment n before the case-ending आम् ám, becomes षण्णाम् shaṇ-ṇ-ám, because the final ट् becomes ण् and cerebralizes also the inserted n coming in contact with it. Similarly, षट् नवति becomes षण्णवति shaṇ-ṇavati, 'ninety-six,' and षट् नगर्यः becomes षण्णगर्यः shaṇ ṇagaryaḥ, 'six cities.' Compare 58. b.

44. If a soft letter ends a word or stem, when any hard initial letter follows, the soft is changed to its own hard, which must always be in the unaspirated form by 41. II; thus

कुमुद् + सु kumud+su becomes कुमुत्सु kumutsu, loc. pl. of kumud, 'a lotus.'

समिद् + सु samid (for samidh, 41. II.)+su becomes समित्सु samitsu, loc. pl. of samidh, 'fuel.'

Note—Similarly in Latin, a soft guttural or labial passes into a hard before s and t; thus reg+si becomes (reksi) rexi, scrib+si=scripsi, reg+tum=(rektum) rectum, &c.

a. With regard to palatals see 41. IV.

b. Soft letters, which have no corresponding hard, such as the nasals, semivowels, and ह् h, are changed by special rules.

c. If the final be an aspirated soft letter, and belong to a stem whose initial is ग् g or ड् ḍ, द् d or ब् b, then the aspiration, which is suppressed in the final, is transferred back to the initial letter of the stem; as बुध् + सु budh+su becomes भुत्सु bhutsu, loc. pl. of budh, 'one who knows' (177; cf. also duh, 182). Similarly दध् + तस् dadh+tas becomes धत्तस् dhattas, 'they two place;' and see 306. a, 299. a. b, 664.

Note—Greek recognizes a similar principle in τρέχω, θρέξομαι; τρυφ, θρύπτω: cf. also θρίξ, i. e. θρικ-ς from the stem τριχ-.

CLASSIFICATION OF SPECIAL RULES.

It is stated at 40, 41, that complete words as well as stems preparing for combination can only end in certain consonants. Of these the most usually occurring final consonants are त् t and द् d, the nasals न् n and म् m, the dental sibilant स् s (changed to Visarga by native grammarians), and the semivowel र् r (also by them changed to Visarga). It will be sufficient, therefore, for all practical purposes to give special rules under four heads:

1st, Changes of final त् and द्.

2nd, Changes of the nasals, especially न् and म्.

3rd, Changes of final स्.

4th, Changes of final र्.

CHANGES OF FINAL त् t AND द् d.

45. By the general rule (43), final त् t becomes द् d before soft consonants, and before vowels; as मरुत् वाति marut váti becomes मरुद्वाति marud váti, 'the wind blows.'

a. Certain exceptions are provided for by 41. V. b, 43. d. Hence also stems ending in t followed by the suffixes vat, mat, vin, vala do not necessarily change; e. g. vidyut-vat, 'possessed of lightning;' garut-mat, 'possessed of wings.'

46. And, by 44, final द् d generally becomes त् t before hard consonants; as दृशद् पतन becomes दृशत्पतन dṛiśat-patana, 'the fall of a stone.'

47. And, by 43. a, final त् t or द् d may become न् n before n or m.

Assimilation of final त् t or द् d.

48. If त् t or द् d ends a word, when an initial च् ć, ज् j, or ल् l follows, then त् t or द् d assimilates with these letters; thus भयात् लोभात् च bhayát lobhát ća becomes भयाल्लोभाच्च bhayál lobháć ća, 'from fear and avarice.'

तद् जीवनम् tad jívanam becomes तज्जीवनम् taj jívanam, 'that life.'

a. A final त् t or द् d also assimilates with a following छ् ćh or झ् jh, but by 41. II. the result will then be ć ćh; j jh; thus तत् छिनत्ति becomes तच्छिनत्ति 'he cuts that;' तद् झषः = तज्झषः 'the fish of him.'

b. Final त् t or द् d assimilates in the same way with ट् ṭ, ड् ḍ, and their aspirates; thus तत् टीका becomes तट्टीका; तद् डीनम्, तड्डीनम्; तत् ठक्कुरः, तट्ठक्कुरः.

Observe—The converse does not take place in the contact of complete words; thus षट् ते (not षट्टे) 'those six:' but ईड् + ते = ईट्टे 'he praises,' see 325.

Final त् t or द् d may also assimilate with initial म् ṁ and ण् ṇ.

49. If त् t or द् d ends a word and the next begins with श् ś immediately followed by a vowel, semivowel, or nasal, then t or d is changed to च् ć, and the initial श् ś is usually changed to छ् ćh; e. g.

तत् श्रुत्वा tat śrutvá becomes तच्छ्रुत्वा tać ćhrutvá, 'having heard that;' but तच्श्रुत्वा tać śrutvá is allowable.

a. Similarly, the change of initial श् ś to छ् ćh is optional after a final क्; thus वाक्शत may either remain so or be written वाक्छत 'a hundred speeches.' Again, after a final द् t and प् p this rule is said to be optional; but examples are not likely to occur: though in Ṛig-veda III. 33, 1, we have विपाट्छुतुद्री for विपाट् शुतुद्री, the two rivers Vipáś and Śutudrí in the Paṅjáb.

50. If त् t ends a word, when initial ह् h follows, the final त् t is changed to द् d (by 43), and the initial ह् h optionally to ध् dh; thus तत् हरति tat harati becomes तद्धरति tad dharati, 'he seizes that;' but तद् हरति tad harati is allowable.

a. By a similar rule, and on the same principle, any consonant (except a nasal, semivowel, or sibilant) followed by ह्, must be softened if hard, and its soft aspirate optionally substituted for the initial ह्; thus वाक् हरति vák harati becomes वाग्घरति vág gharati, 'speech captivates.'

b. Similarly, अच् ह्रस्वः ać hrasvaḥ becomes अज्झ्रस्वः aj jhrasvaḥ, 'a short vowel.'

Insertion of त् t changeable to च् ć.

51. When छ् ćh is between two vowels (long or short) in the body of a simple word, त् t changeable by 48. a. to च् ć must be inserted before छ् ćh; thus root प्रच्छ् praćh followed by a vowel must be written प्रच्च praćća (as in पप्रच्च papraćća, पृच्चामि, &c. at 631); so also चि* + छेद् becomes चिच्छेद् 'he has cut;' अ* + छिनत् = अच्छिनत् 'he was cutting' (see Páṇ. VI. 1, 73, 75).

Observe—In the case of root murćh there is no insertion of ć in múrćhana, &c., because ćh is not between two vowels.

a. This insertion of ć is obligatory when छ् ćh is initial, and when a previous syllable of any word, either separate or compounded, ends in a short vowel; as, शैलस्य च्छाया or शैलच्छाया 'the shadow of a rock.'

b. The same is obligatory after the preposition आ á and the particle मा má; as आ छन्न becomes आच्छन्न 'covered;' so मा छिदत् becomes मा च्छिदत् má ććhidat, 'let him not cut' (Páṇ. VI. 1, 74).

c. In all other cases after long vowels the insertion of च् ć is optional; as, बदरीछाया or बदरीच्छाया 'the shade of a jujube tree;' सा छिनत्ति or सा च्छिनत्ति 'she cuts' (Páṇ. VI. 1, 76).

d. An augment त् t may optionally be inserted after final द् t before initial स् s; as, षट्सन्तः or षट्त्सन्तः 'being six' (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 42; 3, 39).

* चि ći is the syllable of reduplication to form the perfect of छिद् ćhid (252), and अ a the augment to form the imperfect of all verbs (251).

CHANGES OF THE NASALS, ESPECIALLY न् n.

52. If the letter न् n, preceded by a short vowel, ends a word, when the next begins with any vowel, the n is doubled; thus आसन् अत्र ásan atra becomes आसन्नत्र ásann atra, 'they were here.'

तस्मिन् उद्याने tasmin udyáne becomes तस्मिन्नुद्याने tasminn udyáne, 'in that garden.'

a. This applies equally to final ङ् n and ण् ṇ; as प्रत्यङ् एति becomes प्रत्यङ्ङेति 'he goes towards the west;' सुगण् अस्ति = सुगणस्ति 'he is a good calculator' (see Páṇ. VIII. 3, 32); but these, especially the last, rarely occur as finals.

b. Technical terms in grammar, such as Uṇ-ádi (i. e. 'a list of suffixes beginning with uṇ'), are said to be exceptions to this rule.

53. If न् n ends a word, when an initial च् ć or त् t or ट् ṭ (or their aspirates) follows, a sibilant is inserted between the final and initial letter, according to the class of the initial letter; and the न् n then passes into the true Anusvára, see 6. d; e. g.

कस्मिन् + चित् kasmin+ćit becomes कस्मिंश्चित् kasmiṁśćit, 'in a certain person.'

अस्मिन् तडागे asmin taḍáge becomes अस्मिंस्तडागे asmiṁs taḍáge, 'in this pool.'

महान् टङ्कः mahán ṭankaḥ becomes महांष्टङ्कः mahánsh ṭankaḥ, 'a large axe.'

a. The same holds good before छ् ćh (as, तांश्छादयति 'he covers them'), and before थ् th, ठ् ṭh; but the two latter are not likely to occur.

b. If s immediately follows t in a conjunct consonant, as in the word त्सरु 'a sword-hilt,' there is no change; thus सन् त्सरुः remains सन्त्सरुः.

c. A similar euphonic s is inserted between the prepositions sam, ava, pari, prati, and certain words which begin with k, as संस्कार saṁs-kára, संस्कृत saṁs-kṛita, परिष्कार parish-kára, प्रतिष्कार pratish-kára, &c. (see 70); just as in Latin, between the preposition ab and c, &c., e. g. ab-s-condo. Also, between पुम् 'a male,' and a word beginning with a hard consonant, as कोकिल 'a cuckoo,' thus पुंस्कोकिलः; also when कान् is repeated, e. g. कांस्कान् or काँस्कान् 'whom?' 'whom?' 'which of them?' (Páṇ. VIII. 3, 12, but cf. Vopa-deva II. 35.)

d. न् n at the end of a root does not require an inserted s before terminations beginning with t; thus हन् + ति han + ti is हन्ति hanti, 'he kills' (but see 57, 57. a. b).

e. Except, also, प्रशान् praśán (nom. of praśám, 179. a); as, प्रशान्तनोति 'the peaceful man spreads;' प्रशाञ्चिनोति 'the peaceful man collects' (Páṇ. VIII. 3, 7).

54. The only cases in which न् n, when originally the final of a word, can pass into Anusvára are given above at 53, 53. a; thus in classical Sanskṛit combinations like तान् करोति or तान् ददाति must not be written तां करोति, तां ददाति.

55. If न् n ends a word, when the next begins with श् ś, then न् n and श् ś may be combined in either of the two following ways:

1st, the final न् n may be changed to palatal ञ् ń; thus महान् शूरः mahán śúraḥ may be written महाञ्शूरः 'a great hero.'

2ndly, the initial श् ś may be changed to छ् ćh; thus महाञ्छूरः.

a. According to native authorities an augment t, changeable to ć (51), may be inserted in both cases, thus महाञ्शूरः or महाञ्छूरः, but this is rarely done; and in practice, both न् and श् are sometimes erroneously left unchanged against the rule (thus, महान् शूरः).

b. Final ङ् n may optionally insert an augment क् k when any sibilant begins the next word or syllable. Hence प्राङ् शत may be either प्राङ्क्शत (or प्राङ्क्षत by 49. a) or may remain unchanged.

c. Similarly, final ण् ṇ may insert ट् ṭ, and final न् n may insert त् t before स् s; e. g. सुगण्, 'a good reckoner,' is in loc. pl. सुगण्सु or सुगण्त्सु; and सन् सः, 'he being,' may be सन्त्सः; and some say the inserted letters may optionally be aspirated. The insertion of त् between a final न् and initial स् is common in the Veda; but in later Sanskṛit these insertions are not usual.

56. If न् n ends a word, when the next begins with ल् l, the n assimilates with the l, and the Candra-vindu mark ँ is placed over the l, substituted for n, to denote its nasality; thus पक्षान् लुनाति becomes पक्षाꣳ̃लुनाति or पक्षाल्ँ लुनाति 'he clips the wings;' see 7. Similarly, ἐν + λάμπω = ἐλλάμπω; con+ligo=colligo.

a. Final न् n, before ज् j or झ् jh, and ञ् ñ, is properly written in the palatal form ञ्, but in practice is often allowed to remain unchanged against the rule.

b. Final न् n, before ड् ḍ, ढ् ḍh, and ण् ṇ, should be written in the cerebral form ण्.

c. But final न् n, before gutturals, labials, semivowels (except य् y), and the sibilants स् s, ष् sh, remains unchanged; as, तान् षट् 'those six.'

57. न् n as the final of nominal stems is rejected before terminations and suffixes beginning with consonants; thus धनिन्+भिस् dhanin+bhis becomes धनिभिस् dhanibhis, 'by rich people;' युवन्+त्व yuvan+tva becomes युवत्व yuva-tva, 'youth.' Similarly svámin+vat becomes svámi-vat, 'like a master.' But राजन्वत् rájan-vat is excepted in the sense of 'having a good king.' (Raghu-v. VI. 22; Páṇ. VIII. 2, 14; cf. also उदन्वत् udan-vat, 'the ocean,' Raghu-v. X. 6.)

a. न् n as the final of a root is rejected before those terminations beginning with consonants (excepting nasals and semivowels) which have no indicatory P (see 307 and 323); thus हन्+*ti*P is हन्ति, but हन्+tas is हतस्, see 654.

b. Also, when a word ending in न् n is the first (or any but the last) member of a compound word, even though the next member of the compound begins with a vowel; e. g. राजन् पुरुष rájan purusha becomes राजपुरुष rája-purusha, 'the king's servant;' राजन् इन्द्र rájan indra becomes राजेन्द्र rájendra, 'chief of kings;' स्वामिन् अर्थम् svámin artham becomes स्वाम्यर्थम् svámy-artham, 'on the master's account.'

c. न् n not final, immediately preceded by a palatal, is changed to the palatal form; e. g. याच्+ना=याच्ञा 'prayer,' यज्+न=यज्ञ 'a sacrifice;' similarly, राज्ञी 'a queen,' fem. of राजन् 'a king.'

Change of न् n (not final) to ण् ṇ.

58. If न् n (not final, and having immediately after it any vowel, or one of the consonants न् n, म् m, य् y, व् v) follows any one of the three cerebral letters ऋ ṛi (short or long), र् r, ष् sh, in the same word (samána-pade), then न् n must be changed to the cerebral ण् ṇ, even though any vowel or any of the guttural or labial consonants at page 15 (viz. k, kh, g, gh, ṅ, h, and p, ph, b, bh, m, v), or y or Anusvára, either singly or combined together or with any vowel, intervene; as in the following examples formed with suffixes or terminations: क्षिपाणि (635); कर्मेण (152); मृगेण (107); बृंहण 'causing to grow fat;' शृङ्गिण 'horned;' ब्रह्मण्य 'devout.' आचार्यानी áćáryáni, 'the wife of an Áćárya,' is an exception (Páṇ. IV. 1, 49. Várt.)*.

Obs. 1. न् n final (i. e. followed by Viráma) in a word is not so changed; e. g. दातृन्, not दातॄण् (see 127).

Obs. 2. In a word like कुर्वन्ति, 'they do,' t immediately after n prevents the change. Similarly, रुन्ध्वस् (671).

Obs. 3. This change of a dental to a cerebral letter is called nati in the Prátiśákhyas.

a. The intervention of any of the palatal, cerebral, or dental consonants at p. 15, except y (viz. ć, ćh, j, jh, ñ, ś, ṭ, ṭh, ḍ, ḍh, ṇ, t, th, d, dh, l, s), prevents the operation of this rule, as in अर्चना 'worship;' सर्जन 'abandoning;' क्रीडन 'playing;' वर्त्मानि 'roads' (nom. pl. of वर्त्मन्); शृगालेन 'by a jackal' (149).

The intervention of a labial, conjunct with न् n, precludes any change in the conjugational forms of the verb तृप् 'to satisfy,' cl. 5. (तृम्प्नोति &c., 618), and in those of क्षुभ् 'to shake,' cl. 9. (क्षुभ्नाति &c., 694); see Páṇ. VIII. 4, 39. In the Veda, however, तृष्णोति is found. But the intervention of nasals, semivowels, or h, though conjunct with the न्, do not prevent cerebralization, as in अर्यम्णा (157); अराव्णा inst. c. of अरावन् 'hostile;' ग्राव्णा of ग्रावन् 'a stone.'

Observe—According to Páṇ. VI. 1, 16, the past pass. part. of vraść, 'to cut,' and ruj, 'to break,' should be वृक्ण, रुग्ण.

b. If two conjunct न् *n*s follow the letters causing the cerebralization, they each become ण्, as in विषण्ण vishaṇṇa† (540).

c. Even in compound words where ऋ, ॠ, ष्, र् are in the first member of the compound, and न् occurs in the second member, the change to ण may sometimes take place (especially when the separate ideas inherent in each word are lost sight of in a single object denoted), and sometimes is optional. When, however, the

* The whole rule 58 is thus expressed in the first two Sútras of Páṇini VIII. 4, रषाभ्यां नो नः समानपदे । अट्कुप्वाङ्नुम्व्यवायेऽपि. The vowel ṛi is supposed to be included in र. अट् stands for the vowels, diphthongs, y, r, v, and h; कु for the guttural class of consonants; पु for the labial; आङ् for the preposition आ; नुम् for Anusvára.

† Except a word like प्राणिषत् redup. aorist of अन् 'to breathe,' with प्र.

words do not, so to speak, merge their individuality in a single object, no change is generally allowed, but even in these cases it is impossible to lay down a precise rule. The following are a few examples: ग्रामणी 'a village-chief,' अग्रणी 'foremost,' रामायण 'the Rámáyaṇa,' वार्ध्रीणस 'a Rhinoceros' ('leather-snouted animal'), खरणस 'having a sharp nose,' but चर्मनासिका 'a whip,' and सर्वनामन् 'a pronoun,' स्वर्नदी or स्वर्णदी 'the river of heaven,' वृषनाशन 'a plant' (where वृषणाशन might be expected), गिरिनदी or गिरिणदी 'a mountain-stream,' आम्रवण 'a mango-grove,' ब्रह्महणम् (acc. of ब्रह्महन्) 'the killer of a Bráhman.' Similarly, वृत्रहणम् acc. c. of वृत्रहन् 'the slayer of Vṛitra,' but वृत्रघ्न (where han becomes ghna); सर्वाह्ण 'the whole day;' and in other similar compounds when the first member ends in short a, but पराह्ण 'afternoon' (if from परा अहन्). See Páṇ. VIII. 4, 3, &c.

d. In a compound, न् n is not generally changed to ण् ṇ, if the first member ends in ष् sh, and the next word is formed with a Kṛit suffix containing न् n, as निष्पान, दुष्पान, यजुष्पावन (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 35).

e. If the second member of a compound contain a guttural or be monosyllabic, the change of न् n to ण् ṇ is necessary, as in स्वर्गकामिणौ, हरिकामेण (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 13), हरिणेण (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 12); but not in compounds with agni, as शरानि.

59. The prepositions अन्तर्, निर् (for निस्), परा, परि, प्र, and दुर् (for दुस्) require the change of न् n to ण् ṇ in most roots beginning with न् (which in the Dhátu-páṭha are therefore written with cerebral ण्); e. g. प्रणमति 'he bows,' अन्तर्णयति 'he leads inside,' निर्णुदति 'he drives out,' पराणुदति 'he drives away,' प्रणय 'guidance,' प्रणायक 'a guide,' परिणाह 'circumference.'

a. But in the following roots the न् is never changed, and these roots are therefore written in the Dhátu-páṭha with dental न् n: नृत् 'to dance,' नन्द् 'to rejoice,' नर्द् 'to roar,' नङ्क् 'to kill,' नद् 'to dance*,' नाध् 'to ask,' नाध् 'to ask,' नी 'to lead.'

b. In the case of नश् 'to destroy,' the change of न् into ण् only takes place, when श् is not changed to ष्, as प्रणश्यति, परिणश्यति, but प्रनष्ट, परिनष्ट (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 36).

c. In the case of हन् 'to kill,' the change of न् to ण् takes place except when ह् is changed to ध्, as in प्रहण्यते, प्रहणन, but प्रघ्नन्ति (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 24). An option is allowed when न् is followed by म् or व्, as in प्रहन्मि or प्रहणिम, &c. (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 23).

d. When the preposition नि intervenes between the above-mentioned prepositions and the root, the change of न् into ण् takes place in the following verbs, गद्, नद्, पत्, पद्, मा, मे, सो, हन्, या, वा, द्रा, प्सा, वप्, वह्, शम्, चि, दिह्. In most other verbs the change is optional, as प्रनिभिनत्ति or प्रणिभिनत्ति (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 17, 18).

e. After prepositions containing an r, the n of certain suffixes like ana is liable to be cerebralized, but in the case of causal stems, and in some other cases, the change is optional (see Páṇ. VIII. 4, 29-31); e.g. प्रकोपन or प्रकोपण, प्रयापन or प्रयापण. In प्रवेपन, प्रमज्जन, प्रकम्पन, प्रगमन, प्रभान, &c., no change to n is allowed (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 32, 34). In the case of root अन् 'to breathe,' the final becomes ण् in प्राण् and परापण्, making प्राणिति 'he breathes,' and परापिति (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 19). The causal aorist allows two cerebral nasals, e.g. प्राणिणत्; as does also the desid. of परापण्, e.g. परापिणिषति. In this way final न् may be changed to ण् at the end of a word, as in प्राण्, परापण्, formed from rt. an. But this is only true of rt. अन्. In no other case can final न् become ण्. When r is separated from the n of an by more than one letter, no change is allowed, as in पर्यनिति.

* According to some the resistance of this root to cerebralization is only when it belongs to class 10, and means 'to drop or fall.'

Changes of final म् m.

60. If म् m ends a word, when any one of the consonants k, kh, g, gh; ć, ćh, j, jh; ṭ, ṭh, ḍ, ḍh; t, th, d, dh, n; p, ph, b, bh, m follows, then म् m may pass into Anusvára, or may, before any one of those consonants, be changed to its own nasal; thus गृहम् जगाम gṛiham jagáma is written either गृहं जगाम or गृहञ्जगाम 'he has gone home;' and nagaram prati either नगरं प्रति or नगरम्प्रति 'towards the city;' but in these cases Anusvára is generally used. So also ड्डीन preceded by prep. sam becomes either संडीन or सण्डीन 'flight;' सम् चय either संचय or सञ्चय 'collection;' सम् न्यास either संन्यास or सन्यास 'abandonment;' but in these cases Anusvára is not so usual.

a. The final म् m of a root is changed to न् n or ण् ṇ before suffixes beginning with any consonant except y, r, l, s; thus जङ्गम् + मि = जङ्गन्मि (see 709). So also चक्षम् + वहे = चक्षण्वहे (see 58; and Páṇ. VIII. 2, 65).

b. Before श्, ष्, स्, ह्, a final म् is represented by Anusvára; also generally before the semivowels, but see 6. e. f, 7.

c. With regard to final म् before ह् when followed by m, n, y, l, v, see 7. c.

d. When the next word begins with a vowel, then म् m must always be written; thus गृहम् आयाति becomes गृहमायाति 'he comes home' (not गृहं आयाति).

e. Observe—When न् n or म् m not final is preceded by ह् ćh, the latter becomes श् ś, as प्रह् + न = प्रश्न 'a question;' विह् + न = विश्न 'lustre' (Páṇ. VI. 4, 19); पाप्रह् + मि = पाप्रश्मि 'I ask frequently.'

CHANGES OF FINAL स् s.

61. Many cases of nouns and many inflections of verbs end in स् s, which is changeable to श् ś and ष् sh, and is liable to be represented by Visarga (ः, i.e. the sign for a hard breathing, see 8), or to pass into र् r (regarded as the corresponding soft letter of the hard sibilants and Visarga). As these changes will constantly meet the student's eye, the following five rules must be carefully studied.

Observe—In other grammars these rules are designated 'rules for the changes of Visarga,' a sibilant not being allowed at the end of a complete word standing alone (see 40).

In the following pages, however, s is preserved as a final, both in declension and conjugation, for two reasons: 1st, because it is more easily pronounced than a mere breathing; 2ndly, because it keeps in view the resemblance between Sanskṛit and Greek and Latin terminations.

62. First Rule. When does the final sibilant remain unrejected?—Before त् t, च् ć, and ट् ṭ, and their aspirates, respectively; thus, final स् s before t, th, remains unchanged; before ć, ćh, passes into the palatal sibilant श् ś; and similarly, before ṭ, ṭh, passes into the cerebral sibilant ष् sh.

a. Final स् s is also allowed to remain unchanged before initial स् s, and to assimilate with initial श् ś and ष् *sh. More commonly, however, it is in these cases represented by Visarga; see 63.

b. So also, the final स् s of a root must always remain unchanged before the terminations si, se; thus शास् + से = शास्से; वस् + से = वस्से; see 304. a.

c. When an initial त् t is compounded with a sibilant, a preceding final s, instead of remaining unchanged, may become Visarga as if before a sibilant; e.g. हरिः त्सरुं गृह्णाति 'Hari grasps the sword-belt.'

d. For exceptions in as, is, us, see 69.

63. Second Rule. When does final स् s pass into Visarga (:)?—Before क् k, प् p, and their aspirates, and generally (but see 62. a) before the three sibilants स् s, श् ś, and ष् sh †.

a. Before a pause, i. e. at the end of a sentence.

b. When an initial sibilant is compounded with another hard consonant, the preceding final s is often dropped in MSS.; e.g. हरि स्कन्दति or हरिः स्कन्दति 'Hari goes.'

c. Nouns ending in is or us followed by verbs beginning with k, p, or their aspirates, and grammatically connected with these verbs, may optionally substitute sh for Visarga; e.g. सर्पिष्करोति or सर्पिः करोति 'he makes ghee' (Pāṇ. viii. 3, 44).

64. Third Rule. When does final अस् as become o?—Before all soft consonants.

a. Similarly, before short अ a, which a is then cut off.

This rule is more properly, but less simply, stated thus. When does final स् s

* The assimilation of स् with an initial ष् is rare; but त्रयष्षष्टि is an example.

† Examples before initial ष्, like त्रयःषष्टि, are rare.

blend with a preceding a into the vowel o? Before all soft consonants final स् s is treated as if liquefied into u *.

b. The names of the worlds (bhuvas, mahas, janas, tapas, &c.) change s to r before soft consonants; e. g. bhuvar-loka, mahar-loka, &c.

65. Fourth Rule. When does final स् s become र् r?—When preceded by any other vowel but अ a or आ á, and before all soft letters, consonants or vowels.

a. Unless र् r itself be the soft letter following, in which case, to avoid the conjunction of two r's, final स् s is dropped, and the vowel preceding it (if short) is lengthened.

The interchangeableness of s, r, and Visarga is illustrated in some Greek and Latin words; e. g. flos, floris; genus, generis; labor for labos; sex=ἑξ; suavis=ἡδύς, &c.

66. Fifth Rule. When is final स् s rejected?—When preceded by short अ a, before any other vowel except short अ a †. NB. The अ a, which then becomes final, opens on the initial vowel without coalition ‡.

a. When preceded by long आ á, before any soft letter, consonant or vowel. NB. If the initial letter be a vowel, the आ á, which then becomes final, opens on it without coalition.

b. When preceded by any other vowel but अ a or आ á, before the letter r, as noticed at 65. a.

c. Native grammarians say that final s passes into Visarga, which is then changed to y; which y is rejected in accordance with 36, 37.

The above five rules are illustrated in the following table, in which the nominative cases नरस् naras, 'a man;' नरास् narás, 'men;' हरिस् haris, 'the god Vishṇu;' रिपुस् ripus, 'an enemy;' and नौस् naus, 'a ship'—are joined with verbs.

* That is, it is first changed to r, as at 65, and r is then liquefied into a vowel; just as l is often changed to u in French. The plural of animal is animaux.

† That is, it blends with a into o, as in 64; and o becoming av before any vowel but a, the v is rejected by 36. Indian grammarians hold that final s or Visarga here becomes y, which would also be rejected by 36.

‡ This is one of the three cases in which a hiatus of two vowels is admissible in Sanskṛit. The three cases are, 1. when final s is rejected from as or ás (66); 2. when a complete word, ending in e, is followed by any other vowel but a (see 36); 3. when certain dual terminations, ई í, ऊ ú, ए e, are followed by vowels (see 38). In the middle of a word a hiatus is very rare (see 5. b).

First Rule. Final sibilant remains unrejected.	Second Rule. Final स् s passes into Visarga.	Third Rule. Final अस् as becomes ओ o.	Fourth Rule. Final स् s becomes र् r.	Fifth Rule. Final स्-s is rejected.
नरस् तरति naras tarati नरास् तरन्ति narás taranti हरिस् तरति haris tarati नौस् तरति naus tarati नरश् चरति naraś ćarati नराश् चरन्ति naráś ćaranti हरिश् चरति hariś ćarati नौश् चरति nauś ćarati Final s rarely remains unchanged before स s, and assimilates with श ś; thus, नरस् सरति naras sarati नरास् सरन्ति narás saranti हरिस् सरति haris sarati नरश् शोचति naraś śoćati नराश् शोचन्ति naráś śoćanti हरिश् शोचति hariś śoćati	नरः करोति naraḥ karoti नराः कुर्वन्ति naráḥ kurvanti हरिः करोति hariḥ karoti नरः खनति naraḥ khanati नराः खनन्ति naráḥ khananti हरिः खनति hariḥ khanati नरः पचति naraḥ paćati नराः पचन्ति naráḥ paćanti हरिः पचति hariḥ paćati नरः सरति naraḥ sarati नराः सरन्ति naráḥ saranti हरिः सरति hariḥ sarati नरः शोचति naraḥ śoćati नराः शोचन्ति naráḥ śoćanti हरिः शोचति hariḥ śoćati Before a pause, करोति नरः karoti naraḥ	नरो गच्छति naro gaćchati नरो जयति naro jayati नरो याति naro yáti नरो रक्षति naro rakshati Similarly, before all other soft consonants. Also before अ a, which अ a is then cut off; thus, नरोऽत्ति naro 'tti for naro atti	हरिर् अत्ति harir atti रिपुर् अत्ति ripur atti नौर् आयाति naur áyáti हरिर् एति harir eti रिपुर् एति ripur eti नौर् एति naur eti हरिर् गच्छति harir gaćchati रिपुर् गच्छति ripur gaćchati नौर् गच्छति naur gaćchati हरिर् याति harir yáti रिपुर् याति ripur yáti नौर् याति naur yáti Similarly, final s preceded by any vowel but a or á, before all soft letters except r. Before r final s also becoming r is rejected, and the preceding vowel lengthened; e.g. हरी रक्षति harí rakshati रिपू रक्षति ripú rakshati	नर आयाति nara áyáti नरा अदन्ति nará adanti नर ईक्षते nara ikshate नरा ईक्षन्ते nará ikshante नर एधते nara edhate नरा एधन्ते nará edhante नरा गच्छन्ति nará gaćchanti नरा यान्ति nará yánti नरा रक्षन्ति nará rakshanti Similarly, final अस् as before all other vowels except अ a (see third rule); and similarly, final आस् ás before all other soft letters, consonants or vowels.

67. There is one common exception to 62, 63, 64: सस् sas, 'he,' and एषस् eshas, 'this,' the nominative case masc. of the pronouns तद् tad and एतद् etad (220, 223), drop the final s before any consonant, hard or soft; as, स करोति sa karoti, 'he does;' स गच्छति sa gaććhati, 'he goes;' एष पचति esha paćati, 'this (man) cooks.' But rules 64. a, 66, and 63. a, are observed; thus, सोऽपि so 'pi, 'he also;' स एषः sa eshaḥ, 'he himself.' Sometimes (but only पादपूरणे to fill up a verse or suit the metre) sa may blend with a following vowel, as सैषः for स एषः.

In poetry syas, 'he,' nom. masc. of tyad, may optionally follow the same rule (Páṇ. VI. 1, 133).

Compare Greek ὁ for ὁς. Compare also Latin qui for quis, and ille, iste, ipse, for illus, istus, ipsus. The reason why sa dispenses with the termination s may be that this termination is itself derived from the pronoun sa.

68. The preceding rules are most frequently applicable to स् s, as the final of the cases of nouns and inflexions of verbs; but they come equally into operation in substantives or adjectives, whose stem ends in अस् as, इस् is, and उस् us; thus, by 65, चक्षुस् ईक्षते ćakshus ikshate becomes चक्षुरीक्षते ćakshur ikshate, 'the eye sees;' and चक्षुस् + भिस् ćakshus + bhis = चक्षुर्भिस् ćakshurbhis, 'by eyes.' Similarly, by 64, मनस् जानाति manas jánáti becomes मनो जानाति mano jánáti, 'the mind knows;' and मनस् + भिस् manas + bhis = मनोभिस् manobhis, 'by minds.'

Exceptions in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us.

69. अस् as at the end of the first member of a compound word retains its s before derivatives of the roots कृ and कम्, and before कंस, कुम्भ, पात्र, कुशा, कर्णी (see Páṇ. VIII. 3, 46); e. g. तेजस्कर 'causing light,' अयस्कार 'a blacksmith,' नमस्कार 'adoration,' तिरस्कार 'disrespect *,' पयस्काम 'a lover of milk.' The s is also retained in some other compounds, generally when the second member begins with क्, प्; as, दिवस्पति 'lord of day,' वाचस्पति 'lord of speech;' similarly also, भास्कर 'the sun.' Also before the Taddhita suffixes वत् vat, विन् vin, and वल vala; e. g. तेजस्वत्, तेजस्विन् 'possessing light.'

a. Words ending in इस् is, उस् us, such as हविस्, सर्पिस्, धनुस्, &c., and the prefixes निस्, दहिस्, आविस्, दुस्, प्रादुस्, when compounded with words beginning with क्, ख्, प्, फ्, change their final स् into ष् (Páṇ. VIII. 3, 41, 45); e. g. हविष्कृत् 'performing a sacrifice,' सर्पिष्पान 'drinking ghee,' धनुष्कार 'a bow-maker,' निष्कृत

* In forms of तिरस्कृ the retention of स् s is considered optional (Páṇ. VIII. 3, 42); e. g. तिरस्कर्तृ or तिरःकर्तृ.

'removed,' निष्फल 'fruitless,' वहिष्कृत 'excluded,' आविष्कृत 'made evident,' दुष्पान 'difficult to be drunk,' प्रादुष्कृत 'made manifest.'

b. Nouns ending in इस् is, उस् us, before the Taddhita suffixes मत् mat, वत् vat, विन् vin, वल vala, change the final स् s to ष् sh according to 70; e.g. अर्चिष्मत्, ज्योतिष्मत् 'possessing splendour,' धनुष्मत् 'armed with a bow.'

c. Similarly before Taddhita suffixes beginning with त् t, as tva, tama, tara, taya, &c. (see 80), final s of is and us is changed to sh, but the initial t is then cerebralized; thus ज्योतिस् + त्व becomes ज्योतिष्ट्व jyotish-ṭva, 'brightness.' So ज्योतिष्टम jyotish-ṭama, 'most brilliant.'

d. Similarly स्, liable to be changed to ष् according to 70, is retained before the suffixes क, कल्प, पाश, and when compounded with the nominal verb काम्यति; as, तेजस्क 'splendid,' यशस्क 'glorious,' पयस्कल्प 'a little milk,' सर्पिष्कल्प 'a little ghee,' यजुष्काम्यति 'he desires sacrifice' (Pán. VIII. 3, 39).

70. स् s, not final, if followed by a vowel or by t, th, n, m, y, v, or by certain Taddhita suffixes, such as ka, kalpa, &c. (see 69. d), passes into ष् sh when preceded by any other vowel but अ a or आ á, and when preceded by क् k, or र् r, or ल् l; thus अग्नि + सु agni + su becomes अग्निषु agnishu, 'in fires;' करो + सि karo + si = करोषि karoshi, 'thou doest;' वाक् + सु vák + su = वाक्षु vákshu, 'in words;' बिभर् + सि bibhar + si = बिभर्षि bibharshi, 'thou bearest.' See 69 and 69. a.

a. An intervening Anusvára or Visarga or sibilant does not prevent this rule; e.g. हवींषि, चक्षूंषि, हविःषु (or हविष्षु), चक्षुःषु.

b. In accordance with this rule, certain roots and their derivatives beginning with स् change their initials to ष् after the prepositions अभि, अधि, वि, नि, परि, प्रति, अति, अनु, अपि; thus, अभिष्टु from अभि and स्तु, परिषिच् from परि and सिच्, निषण्ण from नि and सद्; and the change may even be preserved though the augment अ a intervenes, as in न्यषिचत् from सिच् with नि, अध्यष्ठात् from स्था with अधि; and though the reduplicated syllable of the perfect tense intervene, as अधिषसौ (but not always in either case, as अन्वस्थात्, अनुतस्थौ).

c. Hence roots beginning with s and followed by a vowel or a dental consonant are written in the Dhátu-pátha as if beginning with sh; e.g. षिध् (for सिध्), षु (for सु), षा (for स्था), षद्ऌ (for सद्ऌ); and this applies also to the roots स्मि, स्खिद्, स्वद्, स्वञ्ज्, स्वप्, &c.

d. Certain roots beginning with s resist all change to sh and are therefore always written with s; e.g. सृप्, सृज्, स्तृ, स्तृ, स्यै, सेक्, सृ, स्फुर्ज्. In certain roots the change is optional, as in स्यन्द्, स्कन्द्, &c.

e. The root स्तम्भ् changes its initial to ष after अव, as अवष्टभ्नाति.

f. In a few roots the change is optional, as परिस्कन्दति or परिष्कन्दति, विस्फुरति or विष्फुरति; and there are cases where s is retained quite exceptionally, e.g. परिसेधति, अभिसेसिच्यते, परिसोढुम्.

g. The root अस् as, 'to be,' when it drops initial a, leaves the s liable to be changed to sh if it be followed by y or a vowel; e. g. अभिष्यात्, अभिषन्ति, निषन्ति, प्रादुःष्यात्, प्रादुःषन्ति (Pán. VIII. 3, 87).

Even in compounds the initial s of the second member of the compound may be affected by rule 70, especially if a single object is denoted, as in the names हरिषेण hari-sheṇa for hari-sena, युधिष्ठिर yudhi-shṭhira for yudhi-sthira; and in अग्निष्ठ agni-shṭha for agni-stha, 'a frying-pan.' So also in अग्निष्टोम, पितृष्वसृ, दुःषम, &c.

h. In compounds formed with साह् (rt. सह्), the initial becomes ष् where ह् is changed to a cerebral (ढ्, ळ्, or ढ्). See 182. e.

i. The स् of the suffix सात् is not changed, as अग्निसात्कृ 'to consume by fire.'

j. Observe—The preposition nis followed by the root tap does not become nish if repeated action is denoted; e. g. निस्तप् 'to melt (gold &c.) repeatedly' (Pán. VIII. 3, 102); otherwise निष्टप्.

CHANGES OF FINAL ऋ r.

71. For purposes of Sandhi nearly all words ending in ऋ r may be regarded as ending in स् s. Most of the cases in which the changes of final ऋ r differ from those of final स् s will be found below in large type.

a. Thus, by 63, प्रातर् काल prátar kála becomes प्रातःकाल prátaḥ-kála, 'the time of morning;' अन्तर् पुर antar pura becomes अन्तःपुर antaḥ-pura, 'the female apartments;' and prátar snána becomes प्रातःस्नान prátaḥ-snána, 'morning ablution.'

b. But r as the final of a stem, or as a radical letter, remains unchanged before a sibilant; thus चर्+सु=चर्षु (70); विभर्+सि=विभर्षि; चतुर्+सु=चतुर्षु (see 203, cf. 62. b); and sometimes before the hard letter प् p in compounds; as, गीर्पति gír-pati, 'lord of speech' (also written गीःपति, गीष्पति); स्वर्पति svar-pati, 'lord of heaven' (also written स्वःपति).

c. After the analogy of 62, प्रातर् तु prátar tu becomes प्रातस्तु prátas tu; and प्रातर् च prátar ća becomes प्रातश्च prátaś ća.

The transition of r into s before t is exemplified in Latin by gestum from gero, ustum from uro, &c. On the other hand, r in the middle of words is preserved before t in Sanskṛit, as in kartum, &c.

d. But in opposition to 64 and 66, final अर् ar, unlike अस् as, remains unchanged before any soft letter (consonant or vowel); thus प्रातर् आश prátar áśa remains प्रातराश prátar-áśa, 'morning meal;' पुनर् याति punar yáti remains पुनर्याति punar yáti, 'again he goes;' पुनर् उक्त punar ukta remains पुनरुक्त punar-ukta, 'repeated' (cf. nir-ukta, 'described,' for nis-ukta, by 65).

e. After the analogy of 65. a, final ar before initial r drops its own r, and lengthens the preceding a; as पुनर् रक्षति punar rakshati becomes पुना रक्षति puná rakshati, 'again he preserves.' Analogously, गीरथ gí-ratha (i. e. गिर् रथ gir ratha), 'epithet of Bṛihaspati.'

f. Analogously to 69. c, चतुर्+तय ćatur+taya becomes चतुष्टय ćatush-ṭaya, 'the aggregate of four.'

72. Prefixes such as nir and dur must be treated as originally ending in s; see nis, dus, 69. a.

73. र् r preceded by a vowel may optionally double a consonant immediately following; thus निर् दय nir daya may be written either निर्दय nirdaya or निर्द्दय nirddaya, 'merciless;' except ह् h and a sibilant followed by a vowel, as in चर्षु 71. b; but karshyate may be written karshshyate. In doubling an aspirated letter, the aspiration of the first is rejected, as अद्धा (for अर्धा). ह् h is said to have the same effect in doubling a consonant immediately following; thus brahman may be written brahmman; but for the sake of simplicity it is better to avoid doubling in both cases, and write always nirdaya and brahman.

a. The doubling of consonants, when they come in contact with others, is constantly allowable in Sanskṛit, though not usual in practice. Thus, in any conjunction of two (or even more) consonants preceded by any vowel, especially if a semivowel be the last letter in the compound, the first letter, provided it be not र् or ह्, may be doubled (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 47); thus पुत्र may be written for पुत्र, मद्भत्र for मध्वत्र, इत्याकर्ण्य for इत्याकर्ण्य, but the more simple form is preferable.

b. Again, any one of the first four consonants of any class may be doubled before the nasal of its own class, and if this takes place the middle consonant is called the yama of the preceding; thus in kkṇiti (Páṇ. I. 1, 5) the second k is the yama or twin letter.

c. It should be noted that by Páṇ. VIII. 4, 65, there is an optional rejection of one of two homogeneous consonants after any consonant, so that कीर्त्ति may be written कीर्ति.

The following table exhibits the more common combinations of consonants at one view. In the top line of initial letters the aspirated consonants have been omitted, because it is a universal rule, that whatever change takes place before any consonant, the same holds good before its aspirate.

CHAPTER III.

ON SANSKṚIT ROOTS AND THE FORMATION OF NOMINAL STEMS.

BEFORE treating of the declension of Sanskṛit nouns (náman or sañjñá), it is necessary to point out the peculiar method of forming the stem from the root.

74. Every Sanskṛit noun (including substantives, adjectives, pronouns, and numerals) has at least two distinct states prior to the formation of the nominative case; viz. 1st, a root (dhátu); 2ndly, a stem (prátipadika or *anga) formed directly from the root or from a modification of the root, generally by the addition of a suffix (pratyaya); which stem becomes a complete word (pada) by the addition of a case-ending (vibhakti)†.

a. The root is of such importance in Sanskṛit that it should be clearly defined before another step is taken.

A root (dhátu) is to language what the primitive elements are to chemistry; it is that primitive part of a word which, being incapable of grammatical decomposition, is supposed to contain the primary meaning antecedent to any addition or modification. When a root has been developed in any way by the addition of letters or syllables or by internal change it becomes a stem, which again is subject to further development by the addition of letters or syllables called case-endings or inflexions (vibhakti), whether nominal or verbal. Thus dána and dadá are stems (the former nominal, the latter verbal) developed out of the root dá, but dána and dadá are not fully developed until they have received terminations or inflexions, when they become complete words (pada); thus dána-m, 'a gift;' dadá-ti, 'he gives' (cf. Lat. do-nu-m, Gr. δί-δω-σι).

* According to Páṇ. 1. 4, 13, the term anga is used for the stem when speaking of some suffix (pratyaya) or termination which is required to be added to it, whereas prátipadika is a general term for a stem without reference to its suffix.

† The process of forming a complete word (pada), in the case of nouns, may be shewn, as it were algebraically, thus: Root (dhátu) + Suffix (pratyaya) = Stem (prátipadika); again, Stem (prátipadika) + Case-ending (vibhakti) = a complete word (pada); e.g. in the word jan-a-s, 'a person,' jan is the root, a is the suffix, and s is the masculine termination for the nominative case.

b. There are in Sanskṛit about 2000 roots, and every one of these conveys some simple idea, conveniently expressed in English by the sign of the infinitive 'to,' as in ad, 'to eat,' though it must be noted that the simple root ad only denotes the idea of 'eating,' which appears under different modifications in its derivatives (see 76. a). The following are a few of the commonest roots, with the leading idea conveyed by each (omitting 'to'):

अद् ad, 'eat.'	तप् tap, 'warm.'	भक्ष् bhaksh, 'eat.'
अर्च् arć, 'honour.'	तुद् tud, 'strike.'	भा bhá, 'shine.'
अस् as, 'be.'	त्यज् tyaj, 'quit.'	भिद् bhid, 'split.'
आप् áp, 'obtain.'	दह् dah, 'burn.'	भी bhí, 'fear.'
इ i, 'go.'	दा dá, 'give.'	भुज् bhuj, 'enjoy.'
इष् ish, 'wish.'	दिव् div, 'shine.'	भू bhú, 'become.'
कम् kam, 'love.'	दिश् diś, 'point out.'	भृ bhṛi, 'bear.'
कृ kṛi, 'do.'	दीप् díp, 'shine.'	मद् mad, 'rejoice.'
कृष् kṛish, 'draw.'	दृश् dṛiś, 'see.'	मन् man, 'think.'
क्रम् kram, 'go.'	द्युत् dyut, 'shine.'	मा má, 'measure.'
क्री krí, 'buy.'	द्रु dru, 'run.'	मुच् muć, 'liberate.'
क्रुध् krudh, 'be angry.'	द्विष् dvish, 'hate.'	मुह् muh, 'be foolish.'
क्षि kshi, 'waste away.'	धा dhá, 'place.'	मृ mṛi, 'die.'
क्षिप् kship, 'throw.'	नन्द् nand, 'rejoice.'	यज् yaj, 'sacrifice.'
ख्या khyá, 'relate.'	नश् naś, 'perish.'	यत् yat, 'strive.'
गम् gam, 'go.'	निन्द् nind, 'blame.'	यम् yam, 'restrain.'
ग्रह् grah, 'seize.'	नी ní, 'lead.'	या yá, 'go.'

75. A cursory glance at the above list of common roots will serve to shew that they are all monosyllabic. In other respects they differ. Some consist of a single vowel only; some begin with one or two consonants, and end in a vowel, but none end in either अ a or औ au; some begin with a vowel, and end in one or two consonants; and some begin and end with one or two consonants, inclosing a medial vowel; so that a root may sometimes consist of only one letter, as इ i, 'to go;' and sometimes of four or more, as स्कन्द् skand, 'to move.' Roots consisting of simple letters, such as कृ, भू, इ, जि, इष्, &c., are probably primitive; and those which have compound consonants, such as स्कन्द् &c., are in all likelihood developed out of more primitive forms*. Those with cerebral letters, such as लुठ् 'to roll,' have some of them been formed by adopting sounds from aboriginal dialects.

a. The few polysyllabic words recognized as roots have probably resulted from a constant habit of joining some particular preposition with some particular monosyllabic root till it has at length come to be regarded as part of the root; e. g. in सङ्ग्राम् saṅgrám, 'to fight,' अवधीर् avadhír, 'to despise,' the prepositions सम् sam and अव ava have combined thus with the root. A few other polysyllabic roots are the result of the constant habit of reduplication; (as, दरिद्रा daridrá, 'to be poor;' जागृ jágṛi, 'to be awake;' चकास् ćakás, 'to shine;' वेवी veví, 'to go,' 'pervade;') and a few are derived from nouns; as, कुमार् 'to play,' from कुमार kumára, a boy.' Most of the latter are of the 10th class, and may be regarded as nominal verbs (see 288. b).

* Thus श्च्युत् śćyut (also written śćut), 'to drop,' beginning with three consonants, was probably merely developed out of rts. ćyu, ćyut, a sibilant and dental having been added (cf. 51, 53, 84. III).

b. न् n and स् s at the beginning of a root are liable, according to 58 and 70, to be changed to ण् ṇ and ष् sh. Hence these roots are generally represented in Native Grammars as beginning with ण् and ष्, because the Indian system exhibits that form which may occur under any circumstances (see 70. c. d). But in this Grammar, the real initials न् n and स् s will be retained.

c. According to Indian grammarians, roots are either udáttą or anudátta (see explanation of accentuation at end of Grammar). Udátta roots take the inserted इ् i in certain tenses (see 391), anudátta roots reject this inserted vowel (Páṇ. VII. 2, 10). Native grammarians attach to roots (either at the beginning or end) certain symbolical letters or syllables indicative of peculiarities of conjugation, called anubandhas, 'appendages' (or technically इत् it), which have the udátta accent on the vowel used as an anubandha, to shew that the verb takes the Parasmai (243) terminations only (such verbs being then called udáttetaḥ); or the anudátta, to shew that it takes the Átmane only (such verbs being anudáttetaḥ); or the svarita, to shew that it takes both (such verbs being svaritetaḥ). See Páṇini I. 3, 12. 72. 78.

The following is a list of Páṇini's anubandhas (with one or two added by Vopadeva):

आ indicates that the past participle suffixes (530, 553, called nishṭhá in native grammars) do not take the inserted i, VII. 2, 16. इ् that a nasal is inserted before the last letter of the root in all the tenses; thus nid-i shews that the present is nindámi &c., VII. 1, 58. इर् that the Aorist (or 3rd Pret.) is formed in two ways, either with form I (418) or form II (435); thus ghush-ir shews that the Aor. is either aghoshisham &c. or aghusham &c., and dṛiś-ir that the Aor. is either adrákṣham or adarśam. ई् that the past participle (530, 553) is formed without i, VII. 2, 14. उ that the indeclinable participle (555) may optionally reject i, while the past part. always rejects it, VII. 2, 56, 15. ऊ that i may optionally be inserted in the general tenses, VII. 2, 15. ॠ that in the Caus. Aor. the radiçal long vowel must not be shortened, VII. 4, 2. ॡ that the vowel may be either lengthened or shortened in the Caus. Aor. ऌ that the Aor. takes form II (435) in the Par., III. 1, 55. ए that Vṛiddhi is not admitted in the Aor. Par., VII. 2, 5. ओ that the past pass. part. is formed with na instead of ta, VIII. 2, 45. औ that a root is anudátta, i.e. that it rejects the inserted i. ङ् that a root is inflected in the Átm., I. 3, 12. ञ् that a root is inflected in the Par. and Átm., I. 3, 72. ञि that the past part. has a present signification, III. 2, 187. टु that a noun with the suffix athu may be formed from the root; thus ṭu-kshu indicates that kshavathu may be formed from kshu, III. 3, 89. डु that a noun with the suffix trima may be formed from the root; thus ḍu-kṛi shews that kṛi-trima may be formed from kṛi, III. 3, 88. ण् that the vowel a must not be lengthened in forming the Causal, that in the 3rd sing. Aor. pass. (technically called ćiṇ, 475) and indec. part. of repetition (567, technically named ṇamul) the vowel can be optionally lengthened or shortened, and that nouns of agency in a (580) can be formed from Causal stems having short radical vowels, VI. 4, 92. 93.

94. ष् that a noun may be formed from the root by adding the suffix á (80. I), III. 3, 104.

76. Since every word in Sanskṛit, whether substantive, adjective, verb, or adverb, stands in close filial relationship to its root, the learner is recommended to commit to memory the commonest roots, as given at 74. b. He will thus become master of a large family of words, which are easily remembered when attention is directed to the leading radical idea running through them all.

a. For example: let him take one of the foregoing roots, budh, 'to know;' out of it are developed, 1st, a set of simple substantives; 2ndly, of simple adjectives; 3rdly, of simple verbs: e. g. bodha or bodhana, 'knowledge;' buddhi, 'intellect;' bodhaka, 'an informer;' bauddha, 'a Buddhist;' budha, 'wise;' buddhimat, 'intellectual;' and the following verbs, bodhati, 'he knows;' budhyate, 'it is known;' bodhayati, 'he informs;' bubhutsate or bubodhishati, 'he wishes to know;' bobudhyate, 'he knows well.' And the simple idea contained in the root may be endlessly extended by the prefixing of prepositions; as, prabodha, 'vigilance;' prabudhyate, 'he awakes,' &c.

b. Similarly, from the root man, 'to think,' a vast number of derivatives are developed, throughout all of which the leading radical idea is traceable; e. g. ma-ta (i. e. man+ta), 'thought,' 'an opinion;' ma-ti (i. e. man+ti), 'mind;' mati-mat, 'mind-possessing;' man-ana, 'thoughtful;' man-as, 'mind;' manas-vin, 'intelligent;' maṇá, 'devotion;' maná-yu, 'zealous;' man-íshá, 'reflection;' maníshita, 'desired;' maníshin, 'wise;' man-u, 'man;' man-tu, 'an adviser;' man-tṛi, 'a thinker;' man-tra, 'a sacred text;' mantriu, 'a counsellor;' mantri-tva, 'office of a minister;' man-man, 'desire;' manyu, 'courage;' mána, 'pride;' mánana, 'honouring;' mánava, 'belonging to man,' &c.; mánasa, 'mental;' mánita, 'honoured;' mánin, 'proud;' mánusha, 'human;' mímáṇsá (from the Desid. stem), 'investigation;' mímáṇsya, 'to be investigated.'

Similarly, after prefixing prepositions (such as anu, abhi, ava, ni, prati, vi, sam, &c.) to the root, the meaning may be extended and a large number of derivatives formed; e. g. from anu-man, 'to assent:'—anu-mata, 'agreed to;' anu-mati, 'assent;' anu-manana, 'assenting.' From ava-man, 'to despise:'—ava-mata, 'despised;' ava-mati, 'disrespect;' ava-mána and ava-mánana, 'dishonour;' ava-mánin, 'holding in contempt;' avamáni-tá, 'disrespectfulness.'

77. It has been shewn at 74 that a stem (prátipadika) is an intermediate state between the root and nominative case—the crude form of the noun, which serves as a kind of stock out of which its eight cases, beginning with the nominative, are made, as it were, to grow. In a Greek or Latin dictionary we look for the noun under the nominative case; but in Sanskṛit we look for it under its stem. Thus, bodha, bodhana, tat, pañćan, bhavat are the stems under which the nominative cases bodhas, bodhanam, sas, pañća, bhaván are to be sought.

The stem is, in truth, no mere useless grammatical invention. It is that form of the noun which, with occasional modifications, is used in the formation of compound words, and in this respect may be regarded as the most general of cases. And since every Sanskrit sentence contains more compound words than simple, it may even be said, that the stem is the form under which the noun most usually appears.

Similarly, Greek and Latin grammarians might have supposed a root λεγ, from which was drawn out the nouns λέξις, λεξικός, λεκτός, καταλογή, ἔλλογος, and the verbs λέγω, καταλέγω, ἐλλογέω: so also, a root scrib, from which was derived the nouns scriptio, scriptum, scriptor, scriptura; and the verbs scribo, perscribo, ascribo: or a root nau, from which would come nauta, navis, nauticus, navalis, navigo, &c. And a stem λεξι and λεξικο of λέξι-ς and λεξικό-ς, and navi of navi-s; which stem is, in fact, the form used in the formation of compound words, as in λεξικο-γράφο-ς and navi-ger.

78. It will now be perceived that the consideration of Sanskrit nouns must divide itself into two heads: 1st, the formation of the stem; 2ndly, the inflexion or declension of the stem; that is, the adaptation of the stem to a common scheme of case-terminations.

a. In fact, the same system applies both to nouns and verbs. As in verbs (see 248) the formation of a verbal stem from a root precedes the subject of verbal inflexion or conjugation, so in nouns the method of forming the stem from the root precedes declension.

b. Moreover, nouns, substantive and adjective, are classified into separate declensions, according to the finals of their stems, not according to the finals of their nominative cases. In Greek and Latin grammars a similar system of classification is now adopted.

c. The final syllable of nominal stems may end in almost any letter of the alphabet except ङ् n, ञ् ñ, and य् y.

Those stems that end in vowels may be conveniently separated under four classes, each class containing masc., fem., and neuter nouns; the 1st ending in अ a, आ á, and ई í; the 2nd in इ i; the 3rd in उ u; and the 4th in ऋ ṛi.

Those that end in consonants may also be arranged under four classes; the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, ending in त् t and द् d, न् n, and स् s, respectively (compare 44); and the 4th comprising all other final consonants.

Primary and Secondary Derivatives.

79. Nominal stems (prátipadika), formed by means of suffixes (pratyaya), are of two kinds: 1. Primary derivatives formed immediately from a root, or from a modified form of it, by addition of a Kṛit-suffix (hence called Kṛid-anta, 'ending in a Kṛit-suffix,' the word Kṛit being an example of a primary derivative); under which head are included some participles formed with aníya, tavya, ya (which with elima are sometimes called Kṛitya suffixes); as also words formed with Uṇádi * suffixes. 2. Secondary derivatives, formed from the stems of primary derivatives by means of Taddhita suffixes, and therefore called secondary (for examples see 80. A. B).

Observe—It is not intended that the student should commit the following lists of suffixes to memory, but he is recommended to note carefully the final letters of the stem under each of the eight classes.

FORMATION OF THE STEMS OF NOUNS.

80. First Class.—Stems ending in अ a (m. n.); in आ á and ई í (f.)

A. Primary Derivatives, formed from Roots by adding the following Kṛit suffixes—

Observe—A list of adverbial suffixes will be found at 718–725, and the participial suffixes will be more fully explained 524–582. Feminine suffixes must be looked for under their corresponding masculine forms. In the examples which follow, the meaning of roots will not be given when they coincide with that of their derivatives. Thus when bheda, 'division,' is said to come from bhid, it is implied that the root bhid means 'to divide.' In a few cases the meanings of roots are omitted when doubtful. From is written fr.; Root, rt.

I. अ -a, forming, 1st, abstract nouns, generally masculine, after Vṛiddhi of a medial radical a and Guṇa (with some exceptions) of a vowel capable of gunation; a final palatal ć or j being changed to its corresponding guttural k or g † (cf. 20. c, 24, 25); e. g. bheda, m. 'division,' fr. bhid; veda, m. 'knowledge,' fr. vid;

* A list of suffixes 'beginning with the suffix uṇ' (i. e. u, with the indicatory letter ṇ), so called from the words káru, váyu, &c. in the first Sútra being formed with this suffix. The sense of Uṇádi derivatives frequently does not agree with the meaning of the root, and even when it does, usually receives a special signification; e. g. káru, though it involves the general idea of doing, means especially 'an artizan.'

bhava, bháva, m. 'existence,' fr. bhú; bhara, bhára, m. 'a load,' fr. bhṛi, 'to bear;' bodha, m. 'knowledge,' fr. budh; jaya, m. 'conquest,' fr. ji; páka, m. 'cooking,' fr. pać; yoga, m. 'joining' &c., yuga, n. 'a yoke,' fr. yuj; yága, m. 'a sacrifice,' fr. yaj.

Forming, 2ndly, other nouns, substantive and adjective, especially nouns of agency (fem. á, sometimes í); e. g. plava, 'what swims,' fr. plu; sarpa, 'what creeps,' fr. sṛip; deva, 'a god,' fr. div, 'to shine;' ćara (fem. í), 'one who goes,' fr. ćar; jana, 'a man,' fr. jan, 'to produce;' śubha, 'beautiful,' fr. śubh; kara, 'doing,' fr. kṛi; jaya, 'conquering,' fr. ji; dama, 'subduing,' fr. dam. Cf. Gr. forms in o = Sk. a; e. g. λύκο-ς, λόγο-ς, φόρο-ς, φορό-ς, ζυγό-ν, ἔργο-ν, &c.: Lat. sonu-s, deu-s, vivu-s, &c. Words like kara, ćara, jaya, plava often occur at the end of such compounds; as, bhayan-kara or bhaya-kara (fem. í), 'fear-causing' (see 580); arin-dama, 'foe-taming;' (cf. ἱππό-δαμος, veri-dicus, grandi-loquus, omni-vorus, &c.) When su, 'well,' and dus, 'ill,' are prefixed to such words, they take a Passive sense, as in Greek (576. a); e. g. su-kara (fem. generally í), 'easy to be done;' dush-kara (fem. generally í), 'difficult to be done,' &c. Cf. εὖ-φορος, δύς-φορος, δύς-τομος, &c.

ई -í, forming a large class of feminine nouns, generally corresponding to masculines in a (see 123); e. g. gopí, 'a herdsman's wife' (see Páṇ. IV. 1, 48); deví, 'a goddess;' nadí, 'a river;' vṛikí (nom. ís), 'a she-wolf;' siṃhí, 'a lioness;' putrí, 'a daughter.' Many of such feminines in á and í are not strictly formed with Kṛit suffixes, being rather derived from masculines, or formed with Taddhita suffixes: some words like Indra, 'the god Indra,' have a fem. form for the goddess; e. g. Indráṇí, 'the wife of Indra.'

II. अक -aka (having six technical names, ण्वुल्, वुन्, ष्वुन्, वुञ्, ण्वुल्, ण्वुच्), forming adjectives (fem. aká or iká) and nouns of agency (see 582. b), after Vṛiddhi of a final vowel and generally of medial a, and Guṇa of any other vowel; e. g. táp-aka, 'inflammatory,' fr. tap, 'to burn;' kár-aka, 'a doer,' fr. kṛi; náy-aka, 'a leader,' fr. ní; nart-aka, 'a dancer,' fr. nṛit; sádh-aka (fem. aká or iká), 'effective,' fr. sádh; khan-aka, 'a digger,' fr. khan.

Observe—The feminine of the agents is usually formed with iká; e. g. káriká, náyiká.

III. अत्र -a-tra. See -tra.

IV. अन -ana (having nine technical names, क्यु, क्युन्, युच्, युन्, ल्यु, ल्युन्, ल्युट्, ण्युट्, ञ्युट्), forming, 1st, a large class of chiefly neuter substantives after

Guṇa of the root; e. g. nay-ana, n. 'the eye,' fr. nī, 'to guide;' dána, n. 'a gift,' fr. dā; sthána, n. 'place,' fr. sthā, 'to stand;' darp-aṇa, 'a mirror,' fr. dṛip, 'to make proud;' ćay-ana, n. 'collection,' fr. ći; vad-ana, 'the mouth,' fr. vad, 'to speak;' śay-ana, 'a couch,' fr. śī, 'to lie down.'

Forming, 2ndly, nouns of agency (see 582. c) and adjectives (fem. aná or aní); as, nart-ana, 'a dancer,' fr. nṛit; śobh-ana, 'bright,' fr. śubh.

Observe—The feminine of the agents is in aní. Cf. ὄργανο-ν, δρέπανο-ν, ἱκανό-ς, πιθανό-ς, &c.

V. अनीय -aníya, forming future passive participles (see 570) after Guṇa of a radical vowel liable to gunation; e. g. ćay-aníya, 'to be collected,' fr. ći, 'to collect.' According to Schleicher -aníya is for -ana+ya.

VI. आ -á. See page 58.

VIII. आन -ána (शानच्, चानश्, शानन्, आनच्), forming, 1st, present participles Átm. (see 526; cf. -māna, XXVII); e. g. lih-ána, 'licking,' fr. lih; śay-ána, 'lying down,' fr. śī; ćinv-ána, 'collecting,' fr. ći-nu, present stem of ći.

Forming, 2ndly, perfect participles Átm. (see 554. d); e. g. bubhuj-ána, 'one who has bent,' fr. bu-bhuj, perfect stem of bhuj, 'to bend;' dadṛiś-ána, 'one who has seen,' fr. da-dṛiś, perfect stem of dṛiś.

XVII. त -ta, -i-ta, forming past passive participles (see 530 &c.); sometimes without change of the root; sometimes with weakening of the root; sometimes with rejection of the final nasal of a root; frequently with insertion of i (which takes the place of aya in Causals and verbs of the 10th class); e. g. śru-ta, 'heard,'

'a limb,' fr. gá, 'to go;' vak-tra, n. 'the mouth,' fr. vać, 'to speak;' ne-tra, n. 'an eye,' fr. ní, 'to lead.'

A few are masculine and feminine; e. g. daṇsh-ṭra, m. or daṇsh-ṭrá, f. 'instrument of biting,' 'a tooth,' fr. daṇś; man-tra, m. 'a holy text,' 'prayer,' fr. man, 'to reflect;' yá-trá, 'provisions (for a journey),' fr. yá, 'to go;' vara-trá, f. 'instrument of surrounding,' 'a strap,' fr. vṛi.

Sometimes i is inserted between the root and suffix; e. g. khan-i-tra, n. 'a spade,' fr. khan, 'to dig;' ćar-i-tra, n. 'proceedings,' fr. ćar, 'to go:' and sometimes the present stem is used; e. g. kṛinta-tra, n. 'a plough,' fr. kṛit, 'to cleave;' pata-tra, n. 'a wing,' fr. pat, 'to fly;' vadha-tra, n. 'a weapon,' fr. vadh, 'to kill.' Cf. similar Gr. forms in -τρο-ν, -θρο-ν, &c.; e. g. νίπ-τρο-ν, ἄρο-τρο-ν, βάκ-τρο-ν, βά-θρο-ν, ῥή-τρα, φρά-τρα, κοιμή-θρα: Lat. ras-tru-m, ros-tru-m, ara-tru-m, plec-tru-m, fulge-tra, &c.

XXI. त्व -tva (for secondary suffix -tva see LXVIII), forming a kind of future passive participle (probably an abbreviated form of -tvya, -tavya) after Guṇa of a radical vowel capable of gunation; e. g. kar-tva, 'to be done,' fr. kṛi; je-tva, 'to be conquered,' fr. ji; vak-tva, 'to be spoken,' fr. vać; snā-tva, 'fit for ablutions,' fr. snā.

-tvā, forming indeclinable past participles (see 555), appears to be a kind of instrumental case of a suffix tva (see 555. a), and is either added to the root or to the same weakened form of the root as the -ta of the past passive participle (see XVII); e. g. kṛi-tvā, 'having done,' fr. kṛi; sthi-tvā, 'having stood,' fr. sthā; uk-tvā, 'having spoken,' fr. vać, 'to speak:' sometimes an i is inserted; e. g.

vid-i-tvá, 'having known,' fr. vid; likh-i-tvá or lekh-i-tvá, 'having written,' fr. likh; corayi-tvá, 'having stolen,' fr. cur, 'to steal.'

-tví, a Vedic form of -tvá (e.g. kṛi-tví, 'having done'), appears to be for tvyá (which is thought to be for tvayá).

XXII. त्य -tya, a Vedic abbreviated form of -tavya (see XVIII); e.g. kṛi-tya, 'able to perform,' 'effectual,' fr. kṛi.

Caus. of budh; dásya-mána, 'about to give,' fr. the stem of the second future of dá. B. Secondary Derivatives, formed from the Nominal Stems of primary derivatives,

a. The final vowels of the nominal stems of primary derivatives are liable to certain changes before Taddhitá suffixes beginning with vowels or y; thus (1) a, á, i, í are rejected; e. g. śući, 'pure;' śauća, 'purity:' (2) u, ú are gunated into o, which then becomes av; e. g. fr. Manu comes Mánav-a, 'a descendant of Manu:' (3) o and au become av and áv according to the general rules of Sandhi; e. g. from go, 'a cow,' comes gavya, 'relating to cows;' from nau, 'a ship,' comes návika and návya, 'belonging to a ship.'

b. A final n is generally rejected before Taddhita suffixes beginning with consonants; and both n and its preceding vowel are sometimes rejected before vowels and y; e. g. yuvan, 'young,' yuva-tá or yuva-tva, 'youth;' átman, 'self,' átmya and atmíya, 'own,' 'personal.' There are, however, many exceptions to the latter part of this rule; e. g. yauvana, 'youth,' fr. yuvan; rájanya, 'regal,' fr. rájan; átmanína fr. átman.

c. It will be found that Taddhita or secondary suffixes often require Vṛiddhi of the first syllable of the words to which they are added, as in maula, 'radical,' fr. múla, 'a root;' śauća, 'purity,' fr. śući, 'pure.' Similarly, in the case of derivatives formed from compound words; e. g. sauhṛida, 'friendship,' fr. su-hṛid, 'a friend:' sometimes a double Vṛiddhi takes place, as in sauhárda, 'friendship,' fr. su-hṛid; saubhágya, 'good fortune,' fr. su-bhaga, 'fortunate.'

d. When the initial consonant of a word is compounded with y or v followed by a or á, as VY*ágh*ra, 'a tiger,' S*vara*, 'sound,' the y and v are generally resolved into iy and uv, thus VIY*ágh*ra and SUV*ara*, and then vriddhied, e. g. vaiyághra, 'relating to a tiger,' sauvara, 'relating to sound;' so also sva, 'self,' makes sauva, 'relating to self;' śvan, 'a dog,' śauvana, 'canine.' Similarly, svasti makes sauvastika; nyáya, naiyáyika; sv-aśvá, sauvaśvi, &c.

XXXV. अ -a (fem. í), after Vṛiddhi of the first syllable, forming abstract nouns, collectives, patronymics, and adjectives expressing some relationship to the primitive noun; e. g. śauća, n. 'purity,' fr. śući, 'pure;' sauhṛida, n. or sauhárda, n. 'friendship,' fr. su-hṛid (see Preliminary Obs. c); paurusha, n. 'manliness,' fr. purusha, 'a man;' śaiśava, n. 83. FOURTH CLASS.—Stems ending in ऋ ṛi (m. f. n.)

PRIMARY DERIVATIVES, formed from ROOTS by adding the Kṛit suffix—

तृ -tṛi, forming, 1st, nouns of agency of three genders, and a kind of future participle, the same change of the root being required which takes place in the first future, and the same euphonic changes of t (see 386 and 581); thus kshep-tṛi, 'a thrower,' fr. kship; dá-tṛi, 'a giver,' fr. dá; bhar-tṛi, 'a protector,' fr. bhṛi, 'to bear;' boddhṛi, 'a knower,' fr. budh; soḍhṛi, 'patient,' fr. sah, 'to bear;' bhav-i-tṛi, 'about to become' (=fu-turu-s), fr. bhú, 'to become' (Raghu-v. VI. 52).

2ndly, nouns of relationship, masculine and feminine; in these the vowel of the root is frequently modified; as, pi-tṛi, 'a father,' fr. pá, 'to protect;' má-tṛi, 'a mother,' fr. má, 'to form,' 'produce;' bhrá-tṛi, 'a brother,' fr. bhṛi, 'to support.' Cf. Gr. δο-τήρ, πα-τήρ, μη-τήρ: Lat. da-tor, da-turu-s, pa-ter, ma-ter, fra-ter.

84. FIFTH CLASS.—Stems ending in त् t and द् d (m. f. n.)

A. PRIMARY DERIVATIVES, formed from ROOTS by adding the following Kṛit suffixes—

I. अत् -at, forming present and future participles Par. from the stems of the present and the second future tenses respectively (see 524, 525, 578); e. g. ad-at, 'eating,' fr. ad; ćinv-at, 'collecting,' fr. ći; karishy-at, 'about to do,' fr. kṛi;

dadh-at, 'placing,' fr. dhá. Cf. Gr. φέρ-ων (stem φερ-οντ-), διδ-ού-ς (stem διδοντ-), τιθ-εί-ς (stem τιθ-εντ-): Lat. veh-ens (stem veh-ent-), i-ens (stem e-unt-).

II. इत् -it, forming a few nouns and adjectives; e. g. sar-it, 'a river,' fr. sṛi, 'to flow;' har-it, 'green.'

III. त् -t, frequently added to roots ending in a short vowel, to form nouns of agency, substantives, and adjectives (often used at the end of compounds); e. g. ji-t, 'conquering,' in sarva-jit, 'all-conquering,' fr. ji; kṛi-t, 'a doer,' in karma-kṛit, 'a doer of work,' fr. kṛi.

Sometimes t is substituted for a final m of a root, generally at the end of a compound; as, ga-t in adhva-gat, m. 'a traveller,' fr. gam, 'to go.'

IV. This class, besides comprehending a few nouns already ending in d, as śarad, f. 'autumn;' dṛiśad, f. 'a stone;' kumud, n. 'a lotus,' includes a number of monosyllabic nouns formed by taking roots ending in t or d, and using them in their unchanged state as substantives and nouns of agency, the technical suffix kvip (leaving v) being theoretically added, for which a blank is substituted (see 87); e. g. cit, f. 'the mind;' mud, f. 'joy;' vid, 'a knower' (in dharma-vid); ad, 'an eater' (in kravyád, 'a flesh-eater'); dyut, f. 'splendour;' pad, m. 'a step.'

Some nouns falling under this class are formed by prefixing prepositions to roots ending in t or d, or in a short vowel; e. g. sam-pad, f. 'success;' saṃ-vid, f. 'an agreement;' vi-dyut, f. 'lightning;' upa-ni-shad, 'a philosophical treatise;' sam-i-t, 'conflict' (fr. sam-i, 'to go together').

The practice of using roots at the end of compounds prevails also in Greek and Latin; as in χέρ-νιψ (-νιβ-), βου-πλήξ (-πληγ-), &c., arti-fex (-fic-), carni-fex (-fic-), præ-ses (-sid-), &c. And there is a very remarkable agreement between Sanskṛit and Latin in the practice of adding t to roots ending in short vowels; thus, com-it- (comes), 'a goer with;' equ-it- (eques), 'a goer on horseback;' al-it- (ales), 'a goer with wings;' super-stit- (superstes), 'a stander by,' &c. Greek adds a similar t to roots with a long final vowel; as, ἀ-γνωτ- (ἀγνώς), ἀ-πτωτ- (ἀπτώς), &c.

B. SECONDARY DERIVATIVES, formed from the NOMINAL STEMS of primary derivatives by adding the following Taddhita suffixes—

V. तात् -tát, a Vedic suffix (= -táti, 81. XI); e. g. deva-tát, f. 'worship;' satya-tát, 'truth.'

VI. मत् -mat (मतुप्, ङ्मतुप्), forming adjectives (fem. atí) signifying 'possessed of,' 'full of,' &c. = -vat below; usually added to stems ending in i, í, or u; e. g. agni-mat, 'having fire;' śrí-mat, 'prosperous;' dhí-mat, 'wise;' aṇśu-mat, 'radiant;' yava-mat, 'abounding in barley;' madhu-mat, 'full of honey;' vidyun-mat = vidyut-vat, 'possessing lightning,' fr. vidyut; jyotish-mat, 'brilliant,' fr. jyotis, 'light;' dhanush-mat, 'armed with a bow' (see 69); arćish-mat, 'brilliant' (69. b).

VII. वत् -vat (वतुप्, वति), forming, 1st, adjectives (fem. atí) signifying 'possessed of,' &c.; usually added to stems ending in a, á, or m, and in some other consonants; e. g. dhana-vat, 'possessed of wealth;' aśva-vat, 'having horses;' víra-vat, 'abounding in heroes;' śikhá-vat, 'crested,' fr. śikhá; vidyá-vat, 'learned,'

fr. vidyá, 'knowledge;' rája-vat or rájan-vat (see 57), 'having a king,' fr. rájan; agni-vat=agni-mat, 'having fire;' kiṃ-vat, 'possessed of what;' pad-vat, 'having feet,' fr. pad, 'a foot;' vidyut-vat, 'possessing lightning,' fr. vidyut (see under -mat); tejas-vat, 'brilliant,' fr. tejas, 'splendour;' bhás-vat, 'shining,' 'the sun' (m.), fr. bhás, 'light;' srug-vat, 'having a ladle,' fr. sruć. Cf. Gr. forms in -Fεις (i. e. for Fεντ-ς), -Fεσσα (i. e. Fεντya=vatí for vatyá), -Fεν (for Fεντ); as, χαρί-εις (stem χαρι-Fεντ-), δακρυό-εις (stem δακρυο-Fεντ-).

Forming, 2ndly, past active participles (see 553); e. g. kṛita-vat, 'one who has done;' bhagna-vat, 'one who has broken.'

For the suffix -vat, in tá-vat, 'so many,' yá-vat, &c., see 234; and for the adverbial suffix -vat, expressing 'similitude,' see 724.

85. Sixth Class.—Stems ending in अन् an and इन् in (m. f. n.)

A. Primary Derivatives, formed from Roots by adding the following Kṛit suffixes—

I. अन् -an, forming several nouns, chiefly masculine; e. g. rájan, m. 'a king' (fem. rájñí, 'a queen,' 57. c), fr. ráj, 'to govern;' taksh-an, m. 'a carpenter,' fr. taksh, 'to form by cutting;' sneh-an, m. 'a friend,' fr. snih, 'to love;' uksh-an, m. 'a bull,' fr. uksh, 'to impregnate;' aś-an, m. 'a stone,' fr. aś; ud-an, n. 'water,' fr. ud or und, 'to wet.' Cf. Gr. κλύδ-ων, τέκτ-ων (stem τεκτ-ον-), ἴκ-ων (stem εἰκ-ον-): Lat. hom-o (stem hom-in-), asperg-o (stem asperg-in-), pect-en (pec-tin-).

II. इन् -in, forming numerous substantives, adjectives, and nouns of agency (fem. iní); e. g. math-in, m. 'a churning-stick,' fr. math, 'to shake;' path-in, m. 'a path,' fr. path, 'to go' (see 162); kár-in, m. 'an agent,' fr. kṛi, 'to do;' dvesh-in, m. 'an enemy,' fr. dvish, 'to hate.' Cf. the secondary suffix -in at VI.

III. त्वन् -tvan (fem. tvarí), see under -van below.

IV. मन् -man (मनिन्, मनि, मनिण्), -iman, forming neuter and a few masculine abstract substantives, and rarely adjectives, often after Guṇa of the radical vowel (those in iman being generally masc.); e. g. kar-man, n. 'a deed,' fr. kṛi, 'to do;' jan-man or jan-iman, n. 'birth,' fr. jan, 'to beget;' veś-man, n. 'a house,' fr. viś, 'to enter;' ná-man, n. (for jñá-man), 'a name,' fr. jñá, 'to know;' śar-man, n. 'happiness,' probably fr. śri; pre-man, m. n. 'affection,' fr. prí, 'to please;' ush-man, m. 'heat,' fr. ush, 'to burn:' also sí-man, f. 'a boundary;' aś-man, m. 'a stone;' śush-man, m. 'fire,' 'strength' (neut.); páp-man, m. 'sin.'

Sometimes with insertion of i (and Vedic í), in which case the gender is generally masculine (cf. the secondary suffix -iman); e. g. sar-iman or Ved. sar-íman, m. 'going,' fr. sṛi, 'to go;' star-iman or Ved. star-íman, m. 'a couch,' fr. stṛí, 'to spread;' dhar-iman, m. 'form,' fr. dhṛi, 'to hold;' har-iman, m. 'time,' fr. hṛi, 'to seize.' Cf. Gr. ἄκ-μων (stem ἄκ-μον-), γνώ-μων (stem γνω-μον-), πυθ-μήν (stem πυθ-μέν-): Lat. no-men (stem no-min-), stra-men (stem stra-min-), ag-men, teg-men, teg-i-men.

V. वन् -van (क्वनिप्, वनिप्), forming substantives, adjectives, and nouns of agency (fem. generally varí; cf. suffix -vara, with which -van appears to be connected); e.g. pad-van, m. 'a way,' fr. pad, 'to go;' mad-van (fem. varí), 'intoxicating,' fr. mad, 'to gladden;' ṛik-van (fem. varí), 'praising,' fr. arć (or ṛić); dṛiś-van, 'one who has seen' (generally at the end of a comp.), fr. dṛiś; yaj-van (fem. varí), 'sacrificing,' fr. yaj.

When a root ends in a short vowel, t is inserted; e.g. kṛi-t-van (fem. varí), 'effecting,' fr. kṛi; ji-t-van, 'conquering,' fr. ji; i-t-van, 'going,' fr. i.

B. SECONDARY DERIVATIVES, formed from the NOMINAL STEMS of primary derivatives by adding the following Taddhita suffixes—

VI. इन् -in, forming numerous adjectives of possession, &c.; e.g. dhan-in, 'wealthy,' fr. dhana, 'wealth;' bal-in, 'strong,' fr. bala, 'strength;' mál-in, 'wearing a garland,' fr. málá, 'a garland;' vríh-in, 'having rice,' fr. vríhi, 'rice;' keś-in, 'having hair,' fr. keśa, 'hair;' padm-in, 'abounding in lotuses' (padminí, f. 'a quantity of lotuses'), fr. padma, 'a lotus.'

VII. इमन् -iman (इमनिच्, इमनिन्), forming masculine abstract substantives, mostly from adjectival stems, the finals being generally rejected, and the same changes being frequently required as before the comparative and superlative suffixes -íyas, -ishṭha (cf. the Kṛit suffix -man, 85. IV); e.g. kál-iman, 'blackness,' fr. kála, 'black;' lagh-iman, 'lightness,' fr. laghu, 'nimble;' mah-iman, 'greatness,' fr. mahat; also gar-iman, drágh-iman, prath-iman, &c. (cf. comparisons, 194).

VIII. मिन् -min, forming adjectives of possession (cf. the suffixes -in, -vin, -mat, -vat); e.g. vág-min, 'eloquent,' fr. vák, 'speech;' go-min, 'possessing herds,' fr. go, 'a cow;' svá-min, 'an owner,' fr. sva, 'self.'

IX. विन् -vin, forming adjectives, generally from stems ending in á or as; e.g. medhá-vin, 'intellectual;' tejas-vin, 'splendid' (69); srag-vin, 'wearing a garland,' fr. sraj.

86. SEVENTH CLASS.—Stems ending in अस् as, इस् is, उस् us (m.f.n.)

A. PRIMARY DERIVATIVES, formed from ROOTS by adding the following Kṛit suffixes—

I. अस् -as, forming numerous nouns, mostly neuter, and a few adjectives, generally after Guṇa of the root; e.g. man-as, n. 'the mind,' fr. man, 'to think:' similarly formed are nam-as, n. 'adoration;' tap-as, n. 'penance;' tam-as, n. 'darkness;' jan-as, 'a race;' sar-as, n. 'water,' fr. sṛi, 'to go;' ćet-as, n. 'mind,' fr. ćit; srot-as, n. 'stream,' fr. sru, 'to flow' (in this case t is inserted); ush-as, f. (nom. ás), 'dawn,' fr. ush (=vas), 'to shine;' jar-as, f. 'old age,' fr. jṛí, 'to grow old' (171); vedh-as (nom. m. f. n. ás, ás, as), 'creating,' 'name of Brahman' (m.) Cf. Gr. γέν-ος, μέν-ος, εὐ-γεν-ής (stem εὐ-γεν-ες-), εὐ-μεν-ής (=su-manas): Lat. gen-us (stem gen-es- or gen-er-), scel-us.

II. इस् -is (= -as above), as hav-is, n. 'ghee,' fr. hu, 'to offer;' also arć-is, jyot-is, dyot-is, roć-ís, śoć-is, n. 'light,' 'lustre,' fr. arć, jyut, dyut, ruć, śuć, 'to shine.'

III. उस् -us (= -as, 86. I), as ćaksh-us, n. 'an eye,' fr. ćaksh, 'to see;' also vap-us, n. 'body;' tanus, n. 'body;' dhan-us, n. (m.) 'a bow;' jan-us, n. 'birth;' man-us, m. 'man.'

IV. वस् -vas, -ivas (nom. m. f. n. ván, ushí, vat), forming perfect participles from the stem of the reduplicated perfect (see 554); e. g. vivid-vas, 'one who has known,' fr. vivid (cf. vidvas, 168. e); similarly, ten-ivas, jagm-ivas, &c. (see 168).

B. SECONDARY DERIVATIVES, formed from the NOMINAL STEMS of primary derivatives by adding the following Taddhita suffixes—

V. ईयस् -íyas, forming the comparative degree (see 167, 193, 194); e. g. bal-íyas, 'stronger,' fr. bala for balin or bala-vat. Observe—Perhaps this suffix is in most cases rather primary than secondary, being generally added to the root or modified root; as, uru, 'wide,' forms varíyas fr. vṛi (cf. -ishṭha, 80. XLVIII).

VI. यस् -yas (= -íyas above), as bhú-yas, 'more,' comparative of bahu (see 194): also jyá-yas (194); nav-yas, Ved. (comparative of nava, 'recent').

87. EIGHTH CLASS.—Stems ending in any Consonant, except त् t and द् d, न् n, स् s (m. f. n.)

Almost any root may be used alone in its naked unchanged state as a nominal stem, no suffix of any kind being apparently added, but as it is a rule of native grammarians that no word can be formed without a suffix, they suppose a suffix technically called kvip (leaving v), for which a blank is then substituted. Most naked roots so used, form nouns of agency, especially at the end of compounds.

Those roots which end in t or d, or in a short vowel, having t affixed, have been already noticed as falling under the fifth class, see 84. III. IV. This eighth class is intended to comprise all other roots, ending in any consonant; e. g. bhuj (nom. bhuk), 'an eater;' so, budh (nom. bhut), 'a knower' (see 44. c); spṛiś (nom. spṛik), 'one who touches;' viś (nom. viṭ), 'one who enters,' 'a Vaiśya' (m.), 'a house' (f.); lih (nom. liṭ), 'one who licks;' duh (nom. dhuk), 'one who milks.'

a. Some require modifications; as, práćh (nom. práṭ), 'an asker,' fr. praćh. A desiderative stem is sometimes used alone in the same way; e. g. pipaksh (nom. pipak), 'one who wishes to cook.'

b. Many roots are taken in this way to form substantives; e. g. yudh, f. (nom. yut), 'battle;' kshudh, f. (nom. kshut), 'hunger:' some requiring modifications of the radical vowel; e. g. váć, f. (nom. vák), 'speech,' fr. vać, 'to speak;' pur, f. (nom. púr), 'a city,' probably fr. pṛí; gir, f. (nom. gír), 'praise,' fr. gṛí.

c. Many roots ending in nasals, when used in this way, especially at the end of compounds, either reject the nasal, or exchange it for t (see -t, 84. III): gam, 'to go,' has ga or gat; jan has ja; han has ha or ghna.

d. There are also a few dissyllabic nouns formed from roots which must be made to fall under this eighth class; as, tṛishṇaj (nom. tṛishṇak), 'thirsty;' asṛij, n. (nom. asṛik), 'blood:' also a few substantives formed by prefixing prepositions to roots; as, sam-idh (nom. samit), 'fuel.'

CHAPTER IV.

DECLENSION; OR INFLEXION OF THE STEMS OF NOUNS, SUBSTANTIVE AND ADJECTIVE.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

88. HAVING explained how the stem of a noun is formed, we have now to shew how it is inflected.

In the last chapter, nouns, Substantive and Adjective, were arranged under eight classes, according to the final of their stems (the first four classes comprising those ending in vowels, the last four those ending in consonants). In the present chapter their declension or inflexion will be exhibited under the same eight classes. Moreover, as every class comprises Adjectives as well as Substantives, so the example of masculine, feminine, and neuter Substantives given under each class will serve as a model for the declension of masculine, feminine, and neuter Adjectives coming under the same class.

Gender of Nouns.

89. The noun has three genders, and its gender is, in many cases, determinable from the termination of its stem. Thus, nearly all stems in á, í, and those formed with the suffix ti (81. II), are feminine: most abstract nouns and those denoting an act or instrument, formed with the suffixes ana, tva (80. LXVIII), ya, tra (see under 80), as, is, us (86), and man (85. IV), are neuter; those formed with the suffixes na (80. XXIV) and iman (85. VII) are generally masculine; but those in a, i, u, and ṛi are not reducible to rule. The Nominative case is, however, in the first of these instances a guide to the gender; as, deva-s, 'a deity,' is masculine; but phala-m, 'fruit,' neuter. And in other cases the meaning of the word; as, pitṛi, 'a father,' is masculine; and mátṛi, 'a mother,' feminine.

It may be noted also that words denoting gods, mountains, seas, divisions of time, are generally masculine; words denoting rivers, the earth, and night, are usually feminine; while adjectives and participles, used as abstract nouns, the names of woods, flowers, fruits, towns, and water, are generally neuter.

Cases of Nouns.

90. In Sanskṛit, nearly all the relations between words in a sentence are expressed by inflexions (vibhakti, Páṇ. 1. 4, 104). Many prepositions exist, but in Post-Vedic Sanskṛit they are not often used alone in government with cases, their chief use being as prefixes to verbs and nouns. Hence the necessity for eight cases. These, as it were, grow out of the stem, and are called, 1. Nominative (prathamá, scil. vibhakti, 'the first case'); 2. Accusative (dvitíyá, 'the second'); 3. Instrumental (tṛitíyá, 'the third'); 4. Dative (ćaturthí, 'the fourth'); 5. Ablative (pañćamí, 'the fifth'); 6. Genitive (shashṭhí, 'the sixth'); 7. Locative (saptamí, 'the seventh'); 8. Vocative (see 92). 1. The Nominative is the kartṛi or 'agent,' but the agent is not always in the N. case*; thus in the sentences, 'he did that,' and 'that was done by me,' the agent in the last sentence is in the I. case. 2. The Accusative is the karman or 'that acted on,' but the karman is not always in the Ac. case; as in 'that was done by me,' where 'that' is the karman, and is in the N. case. 3. The Instrumental expresses karaṇa, 'instrumentality,' i.e. it denotes the instrument or agent by which or by whom a thing is done; as, tena kṛitam, 'done by him †.' 4. The Dative is used in the sense sampradána, 'giving,' 'delivering over,' &c. 5. The Ablative generally expresses apádána, 'taking away,' and is usually translateable by 'from,' and not as in Latin and Greek by 'with,' 'by,' 'in' (see 812). 6. The Genitive expresses sambandha, 'relationship,' 'connexion ‡.' 7. The Locative is used in the sense adhikaraṇa, 'location,' and generally expresses the place or time in which anything is done; as, Ayodhyáyám, 'in Ayodhyá;' púrva-kále, 'in former time;' bhúmau, 'on the ground †.' 8. The Vocative is used in the sense sambuddhi and sambodhana, 'addressing,' 'calling to.'

* These cases will sometimes be denoted by their initial letters. Thus N. will denote Nominative; I., Instrumental; Ac., Accusative; Ab., Ablative.

† The Instrumental and the Locative cases denote various other relations. See Syntax, 805, 817.

‡ The Genitive in Sanskṛit generally denotes 'possession,' but is of very extensive application. See Syntax, 815, 816.

91. According to the Indian system, each of these eight cases has three numbers, singular (eka-vaćana), dual (dvi-vaćana), and plural (bahu-vaćana); and to each belongs a termination which is peculiarly its own, serving alike for masculine (puṃ-liṅga), feminine (strí-liṅga), and neuter gender (klíva or napuṃsaka-liṅga).

Again, according to the native system, some terminations are technically combined with servile or indicatory letters to indicate some peculiarity, or to distinguish one from the other, or to enable Pratyáháras to be formed (see note below). Thus the proper termination of the Nominative singular is स् s (expressible by Visarga ः before k, kh, p, ph, and before the sibilants, or at the end of a sentence, see 63); but the technical termination is su, the letter u being servile*. Similarly, the termination of the Nominative plural is really as, but technically jas, the j being servile. The two schemes of termination, with and without the servile letters, are here exhibited. The first, or merely technical scheme, is given in small type.

L. ङि N·i	— os	सुप् suP	i	os	su

* The servile u may possibly indicate that final s, in certain positions, is liable to be liquefied into u. The object of the ट् of औट् in the Ac. du. is to enable a pratyáhára सुट् to be formed, denoting the first five inflexions, i. e. the Strong cases of masculine and feminine nouns (see 135). The terminations for the D. Ab. G. and L. sing. are called by Páṇini ńitaḥ, 'having n as their it,' to indicate that they are applicable to the four cases, admitting occasional substitutions; cf. the inflexion of mati, dhenu at 112, śrí, &c. at 123. The pratyáhára सुप् sup is used to denote all the cases from the N. sing. to the L. pl. Pratyáháras are generally formed by combining the first member of a series with the final consonant of the last member, as above (cf. page 14, note b).

92. The Vocative is held to be a peculiar aspect of the Nominative, and coincides with the Nom. in the dual and plural. Hence it is not supposed to have a separate termination of its own. In the singular it is sometimes identical with the stem, sometimes with the Nominative. Sometimes, however, it differs from both *.

a. The terminations beginning with vowels will sometimes be called vowel-terminations; and those beginning with consonants, including the Nom. sing., consonantal terminations.

Again, those cases which take the vowel-terminations will sometimes be called vowel-cases; and those which take the consonantal, consonantal cases.

See also the division into Strong, Middle, and Weak cases at 135. a.

Observe—The terminations should be read horizontally, i.e. for each case in all three numbers; not perpendicularly, i.e. not for all the cases of the singular before passing to the dual. Hence the expression 'śas and all the remaining cases' must be taken to mean the Ac. pl. and all the other cases sing. du. and pl., and the 'first five inflexions' must be taken to denote s, au, as, am, au, or N. sing. du. pl., Ac. sing. du.

93. Having propounded the above scheme as the general type of the several case-suffixes in the three numbers, Indian grammarians proceed to adapt them to every Substantive and Adjective in the language, as well as to Pronouns, Numerals, and Participles, whether masculine, feminine, or neuter.

In fact, their theory is, that there is but one declension in Sanskṛit, and that the stem of a noun being given, and the regular case-terminations being given, the stem is to be joined to those terminations according to the regular laws of euphonic combination, as in the following examples of the two stems, नौ nau, f. 'a ship' (navi, vav), and हरित् harit, m. f. 'green.'

* In the first or commonest class of nouns the masculine stem stands alone in the Vocative, just as the termination is dropped from the 2nd pers. sing. Imperative Parasmai in the first group of classes in conjugation, see 246.

96. Unfortunately, however, नौ nau, 'a ship,' is nearly the only noun, ending in a vowel, that joins its stem thus regularly with case-endings; and although nouns ending in consonants are numerous, and nearly as regular as harit, they are far less common than nouns in a, á, i, í, u, and ṛi, whose declension requires frequent changes in the finals, both of stem and terminations.

97. Thus in cl. I of stems ending in a (comprising almost as many nouns as the other seven classes together; compare 80 with 81–87), not only is the final a of the stem liable to be lengthened and changed to e, but also the termination ina is substituted for á, the proper termination of the Inst. sing. masc.; ya for e of the Dat.; t for as of the Ab.; sya for as of the Gen.; n for as of the Ac. pl.; ais for bhis of the Inst. pl. And in other nouns changes and substitutions are required, some of which are determined by the gender. (Compare the first group of verbal stems at 257. a.)

The annexed table repeats synoptically the terminations, with the most usual substitutions, throughout all the classes of nouns.

Obs. 1. Those substitutions marked * are mostly restricted to nouns ending in a, and are therefore especially noticeable. Feminines in á are peculiar in taking the neut. substitution í in du. N. Ac. V.

Obs. 2. It will be perceived that the Accusative pl. of all masc. nouns in the first four declensions ends in n, whilst that of all fem. nouns ends in the regular termination s.

a. Comparing the above terminations with those of Latin and Greek, we may remark that s enters into the Nom. sing. masc., and m or n into the neuter, in all three languages. In regard to the Sk. dual au, the original termination was á, as found in the Vedas; and á equals the Greek α, ω, and ε. In Nom. pl. masc. the s appears in many Lat. and Gr. words. In Ac. sing., Sk. agrees with Lat., and even with Gr., final μ in Gr. being changed into ν. S appears in all three languages in Ac. pl.; and when the Sanskṛit ends in n, as in the first class of nouns, this n is probably for ns, since a preceding a is lengthened to compensate for the rejection of s. Cf. some Vedic Ac. plurals; cf. also ἵππονς Ac. pl. in the Cretic dialect; and Gothic forms, such as balgins, sununs; cf. likewise the r added in the Veda after the Ac. pl., e. g. ऋतूँरनु ṛitúm̃r anu (Ṛig-v. I. 49, 3). In Inst. pl. bhis is preserved in the Lat. nobis, vobis, and Gr. φι(ν) for φις (ναῦ-φιν = naubhis). The ais which belongs to Sk. nouns in a is probably a contraction of ábhis, since in the Vedas ebhis for ábhis is found for ais, as vṛikebhis for vṛikais, &c. &c. This ais probably answers to the Latin Dat. and Abl. plural in is, just as bhis and bhyas answer to the Latin bus. In the Gen. sing. all three languages have preserved the s (नावस्, nav-is, νη-ός for ναϝος); and in the Gen. pl. ám=Gr. ων and Lat. um (पदाम् = ποδῶν, pedum). In Loc. sing. Sanskṛit i is preserved in Lat. and Gr. in such words as οἴκοι, 'at home,' Ἰσθμοῖ, 'on the Isthmus;' humi, domi, &c.; and in the Dative (निशि = νυκτί, नावि = navi). In Loc. pl. su = Gr. σι; e. g. θύρασι(ν), 'at the door;' ὥρασι(ν), 'at the right time' (नौषु = ναυσί). Sanskṛit stems in a prefix i to su; so that vṛikaishu (29. b) = λυκοῖσι. The Voc. sing. in Gr. is frequently identical with the stem, and the Voc. du. and pl. with the Nom., as in Sanskṛit; e. g. πολίτη-ς, stem and Voc. πολιτα; ῥήτωρ, stem and Voc. ῥητορ; εὐγενής, stem and Voc. εὐγενες.

98. In the following pages no attempt will be made to explain how or why particular nouns deviate from the general scheme of terminations. A division of nouns into eight classes, four ending in vowels, and four ending in consonants, will be made; and under every one of the eight classes a model noun for the masculine, feminine, and neuter, serving for adjectives as well as substantives, will be declined in full.

99. But the student must understand, that this division into eight classes is entirely arbitrary. It does not imply that there are eight separate declensions in Sanskṛit. All that is meant is, that the final letters of the stems of nouns may be conveniently arranged under four general heads for vowels, and four for consonants. Indeed, according to native grammarians, there is only one declension in Sanskṛit, all nouns, whatever may be the final of their stems, being forced to adapt themselves to one common scheme of nearly similar case-terminations.

100. It is most important to remember, that the formation of every case in a Sanskṛit noun supposes the application of a rule of Sandhi or 'junction;' and that declension in Sanskṛit is strictly 'junction,' i. e. not a divergence from an upright line (rectus), but a joining together of a stem with its terminations.

101. Sometimes, however, before this joining together takes place, the original final of the stem has to be changed to its Guṇa or Vṛiddhi equivalent (see 27), or even to some other letter (see 41. II–V), so that it will often be necessary to point out in what manner the inflective stem (aṅga, see 135. c) varies from the original stem (prátipadika); and sometimes the original termination of the scheme will have to be changed, as indicated at 97; thus, at 103, under the Gen. du. śivayos, śive + os denotes, that before the stem śiva is joined to the termination os, the final letter a is to be changed to e; and the reference 36. a. indicates the rule of Sandhi (explained at 36. a) which must come into operation in joining śive and os together. Similarly, when the original termination has to be modified, the termination will be exhibited in its altered form; thus, at 103, under the Ac. sing., śiva + m denotes, that the stem is to be joined with m, substituted for the original termination am. See the table at 97.

102. In declining the first model noun śiva, the stem with the sign +, and after it the termination will be exhibited under each inflexion, and a reference will be given to the number of the rule of Sandhi which must come into operation.

In the other nouns the process of Sandhi will be explained when necessary, along with the changes of the stem, immediately before the paradigms of declension, and in the paradigms a transliteration in Italic type will be generally given immediately under the Sanskṛit type.

Section I.—FIRST FOUR CLASSES OF NOUNS.

Inflexion of Nouns, Substantive and Adjective, whose stems end in vowels.

First Class in अ a, आ á, and इ i.

This large class corresponds to a common class of Latin and Greek words in us and ος, um and ον, a and α, e.g. lupu-s, λύκο-ς (=Sk. vṛika-s, Nom. of vṛika); donu-m, δῶρο-ν; terra, χώρα (=dhará); and to adjectives like bonus, ἀγαθός, e.g. Sk. nava-s, navá, nava-m, 'new,'=Lat. novu-s, nova, novu-m; Gr. νέο-ς (for νεϝο-ς), νέα, νέο-ν.

103. Masculine stems in a, like शिव śiva, m. 'the god Śiva,' or as an adjective, 'prosperous.'

The final of the stem is lengthened in D. Ab. sing., I. D. Ab. du., Ac. G. pl.; and changed to e in G. L. du., D. Ab. L. pl.: n is euphonically affixed to the final in G. pl. Hence the four inflective stems śiva, śivá, śive, śiván.

Obs.—The Vedic I. sing. may end in á, e.g. śivá for śivena; N. Ac. du. may end in á, e.g. śivá for śivau; N. pl. may end in ásas, e.g. śivásas for śivás; I. pl. may end in ebhis, e.g. śivebhis for śivais. Cf. ebhis, I. pl. of idam, 224.

104. Neuter stems in a, like शिव śiva, n. 'prosperity,' or as an adjective, 'prosperous.'

The final of the stem is lengthened and assumes n in N. Ac. V. pl.

N. Ac.	शिवम् śivam śiva+m. 97.	शिवे śive śiva+i. 32.	शिवानि śiváni śivá+n+i

The Vocative is शिव śiva, शिवे śive, शिवानि śiváni; all the other cases are like the masculine.

105. Feminine stems in á and í, like शिवा śivá, f. 'the wife of Śiva,' or as an adjective, 'prosperous,' and नदी nadí, f. 'a river.' Their declension is exhibited side by side that their analogy may be more easily perceived.

In śivá the final of the stem is changed to e in I. sing., G. L. du.; yá is inserted in D. Ab. G. L. sing.; and n in G. pl. Hence the inflective stems śivá, śive. In nadí the final is changed to y before the vowel-terminations by 34; á is inserted in D. Ab. G. L. sing.; and n in G. pl.; in V. sing. the final of the stem is shortened.

V.	शिवे śive	शिवे śive	शिवास् śivás	नदि nadi	नद्यौ nadyau	नद्यस् nadyas

Obs. 1. The Vedic I. sing. may be śivá for śivayá; D. sing. śivai for śivávai; N. pl. śivásas; G. pl. śivám.

Obs. 2. The Vedic N. pl. of nouns in í may end in ís, e. g. nadís for nadyas.

106. Monosyllabic nouns in ई í, like श्री f. 'fortune,' भी f. 'fear,' &c., vary from nadí in the manner explained at 123.

107. In accordance with 58, such words as मृग mṛiga, m. 'a deer;' पुरुष purusha, m. 'a man;' भार्या bháryá, f. 'a wife;' कुमारी kumárí, f. 'a girl'—must be written, in the Inst. sing. m. and the Gen. pl. m. f., with the cerebral ण् ṇ; thus, मृगेण mṛigeṇa, पुरुषेण, मृगाणाम्, पुरुषाणाम्, भार्याणाम्, कुमारीणाम्. When n is final, as in the Ac. pl. m., it remains unchanged.

108. When a feminine noun ending in á forms the last member of a compound adjective, it is declined like śiva for the masc. and neut. Thus fr. vidyá, 'learning,' alpa-vidyas (m.), alpa-vidyá (f.), alpa-vidyam (n.), 'possessed of little learning.' Similarly, a masculine noun takes the fem. and neut. terminations; and a neut. noun, the masc. and fem.

a. When roots ending in á, such as pá, 'to drink' or 'to preserve,' form the last member of compound words, they assume the terminations at 91 regularly for their masculine and feminine, rejecting, however, the final of the stem in Ac. pl. and remaining Weak or vowel-cases; thus, सोमपा soma-pá, m. f. 'a drinker of Soma juice;' N. V. -पास्, -पौ, -पास्; Ac. -पाम्, -पौ, -पस्; I. -पा, -पाभ्याम्, &c.; D. -पे, &c. They form their neuter like that of śiva, e. g. neut. N. Ac. V. सोमपम्, -पे, -पानि, &c.

Similarly, विश्वपा 'protector of the universe,' and शङ्खध्मा 'a shell-blower.'

b. Analogously in Ṛig-veda IV. 9, 4, ग्ना 'a woman' is in N. sing. ग्नास्.

c. Masculine nouns in á, like हाहा háhá, m. 'a Gandharva,' not derived from verbal roots, assume the terminations with the regular euphonic changes, but the Ac. pl. ends in न्; thus, N. V. हाहास्, हाहौ, हाहास्; A. हाहाम्, हाहौ, हाहान्; I. हाहा, हाहाभ्याम्, हाहाभिस्, &c.; D. हाहै, &c.; Ab. हाहास्, &c.; G. हाहास्, हाहौस्, हाहाम्; L. हाहे, &c.

d. The Voc. cases of अम्बा ambá, अक्का akká, and अल्ला allá, all signifying 'mother,' are अम्ब, अक्क, अल्ल, 'O mother!'

e. दन्त m. 'a tooth,' मास m. 'a month,' पाद m. 'a foot,' यूष m. n. 'soup,' आस्य n. 'the face,' हृदय n. 'the heart,' उदक n. 'water,' शीर्ष n. 'the head,' मांस n. 'flesh,' निशा f. 'night,' नासिका f. 'the nose,' पृतना f. 'an army,' are declined regularly, but may substitute दत्, मास्, पद्, यूषन्, आसन्, हृद्, उदन्, शीर्षन्, मांस्, निश्, नस्, पृत् in the Ac. pl. and remaining cases (see 184). In the neut. nouns, the Nom. pl. does not admit the same substitute as Ac. pl. Thus, उदक will be Ac. pl. उदकानि or उदानि; I. sing. उदकेन or उदा. Again, नासिका in I. du. will be नासिकाभ्याम् or नोभ्याम्; and मांस, मांसाभ्याम् or मान्भ्याम्..

109. To understand the importance of studying the declension of this first class of nouns, the student has only to turn back to pp. 57–68, where the formation of the stems of nouns, substantive and adjective, which follow this declension, is explained. All masculine and neuter substantives in this list are declined like śiva, and all feminine either like śivá or nadí, all the adjectives following the same three examples for their three genders.

Second Class in इ i. Third Class in उ u.

The inflexion of the 2nd and 3rd classes of nouns (see 81, 82) is exhibited side by side, that their analogy may be more readily perceived.

The 2nd answers to Latin and Greek words like igni-s, turri-s, πόλι-ς, πίστι-ς, mare, μέλι; the 3rd, to words like gradu-s, cornu, βότρυ-ς, ἡδύ-ς, μέθυ.

110. Masculine stems in इ i and उ u, like अग्नि agni, m. (ignis), 'fire;' भानु bhánu, m. 'the sun.'

The final of the stem is gunated in D. Ab. G. V. sing., N. pl.; lengthened in N. Ac. V. du., Ac. G. pl.; dropped in L. sing., or, according to Pāṇini, changed to a; n is inserted in I. sing., G. pl. Hence the inflective stems agni, agní, agne, agn; bhánu, bhánú, bháno, bhán; according to some the Locative of bhánu was originally bhánavi (such a form occurring in the Veda), and i being dropped, bhánav would become bhánáv (bhánau).

Junction of stem with termination: V. sing., N. Ac. V. du., case-termination rejected; N. pl. agne+as=agnayas by 36. a; D. sing. agne+e=agnaye, 36. a; G. L. du. agni+os=agnyos, 34; L. pl. agni+su=agnishu, 70. Similarly, N. pl. bháno+as=bhánavas, 36. a; D. sing. bháno+e=bhánave, 36. a; G. L. du. bhánu+os=bhánvos, 34; L. pl. bhánu+su=bhánushu, 70.

112. Feminine stems in इ i and उ u, like मति mati, f. 'the mind,' and धेनु dhenu, f. 'a milch cow.'

The final of the stem is gunated in D. Ab. G. V. sing., N. pl.; lengthened in N. Ac. V. du., Ac. G. pl.; dropped in L. sing. (unless the termination be आम्); n is inserted in G. pl. Hence the inflective stems mati, matí, mate, mat; dhenu, dhenú, dheno, dhen.

114. Neuter stems in इ i and उ u, like वारि vári, n. 'water,' and मधु madhu, n. 'honey' (μέθυ).

The stem inserts n before the vowel-terminations, and the final is lengthened in N. Ac. V. and G. pl. Hence the inflective stems vári, várí; madhu, madhú.

116. Neuter nouns in i and u follow the analogy of nouns in in at 159, except in G. plur. and V. sing.

a. सानु n. 'summit,' 'ridge,' optionally substitutes सनु in all cases except the first five inflexions.

117. There are not many substantives declined like agni and vári (81), but nouns like mati are numerous (81. II). Moreover, adjectives like śuci, and compound adjectives in i, are declined like agni in masc., like mati in fem., and like vári in neut.

118. Again, there are few substantives declined like dhenu and madhu, yet many simple adjectives like tanu and pipásu (82), all compound adjectives in u, are declined like bhánu in the masc., like dhenu in the fem., and like madhu in the neut.

a. Many adjectives in u, however, either optionally or necessarily follow nadí in fem.; as, tanu, 'thin,' makes Nom. fem. either tanus or tanví; मृदु, 'tender,' makes Nom. f. मृद्वी mṛidví; and गुरु, 'heavy,' गुर्वी gurví: and some optionally lengthen u in the fem.; as, bhíru, 'timid,' makes fem. भीरु or भीरू, declinable like nouns in ú, 125.

119. When feminine nouns in i and u form the last member of a compound adjective, they must be declined like agni in masc., and vári in neut. Thus alpa-mati, 'narrow-minded,' in the Ac. plur. masc. would be alpa-matín; fem. alpa-matís; neut. alpa-matíni.

Similarly, a masc. or neut. noun, at the end of a comp., may take a fem. form.

a. Although adjectives in i and u are declined like vári and madhu for the neut., yet in the D. Ab. G. L. sing., and in the G. L. du., they may optionally follow the masculine form; thus śuci and tanu will be, in D. sing. neut., शुचिने or शुचये, तनुने or तनवे; and so with the other cases.

120. सखि sakhi, m. 'a friend,' has two stems, सखाय् for the Strong cases (see 135. a), and सखि for the others; thus, N. सखा, सखायौ, सखायस्; Ac. सखायम्, सखायौ, सखीन्; I. सख्या, सखिभ्याम्, सखिभिस्; D. सख्ये, सखिभ्याम्, सखिभ्यस्; Ab. सख्युस्, सखिभ्याम्, सखिभ्यस्; G. सख्युस्, सख्योस्, सखीनाम्; L. सख्यौ, सख्योस्, सखिषु; V. सखे, सखायौ, सखायस्. Hence it appears that sakhi in some cases assumes the terminations at 91 more regularly than agni. In the rest it follows agni.

Obs.—The feminine सखी, 'a female friend,' is declined like नदी.

121. पति m. 'a master,' 'lord' (πόσις), when not used in a compound word, follows sakhi at 120 in I. D. Ab. G. L. sing. (thus, I. पत्या, D. पत्ये, Ab. G. पत्युस्, L. पत्यौ); in the other cases, agni. But pati is more usually found at the end of compounds, and then follows agni throughout (thus, भूपतिना 'by the lord of the earth').

Obs.—The feminine of पति is पत्नी patní, declinable like नदी.

122. A few neuter nouns, अस्थि n. 'a bone' (ὀστέον), अक्षि n. 'an eye' (oculus, ὄκός), सक्थि n. 'a thigh,' दधि n. 'coagulated milk,' drop their final i in I. sing. and remaining weak or vowel-cases, and are declined in those cases as if derived from obsolete forms in an, such as अस्थन्, &c. (cf. náman at 152); thus, अस्थि 'a bone:' N. V. Ac. अस्थि, अस्थिनी, अस्थीनि; I. अस्थ्ना, अस्थिभ्याम्, &c.; D. अस्थ्ने, अस्थिभ्याम्, &c.; Ab. अस्थ्नस्, &c.; G. अस्थ्नस्, अस्थ्नोस्, अस्थ्नाम्; L. अस्थ्नि or अस्थनि, अस्थ्नोस्, अस्थिषु.

Hence, अक्षि, 'an eye,' will be in I. sing. अक्ष्णा; in D. अक्ष्णे, &c. (see 58).

Nouns ending in ई í and ऊ ú.

123. Besides the feminines of adjectives and participles, &c., declined like nadí at 105 (cf. 80. XI), there are a few common monosyllabic words in long ई í (generally roots used as substantives) primitively feminine, i. e. not derived from masculine substantives (see 82. XV), whose declension must be noticed separately. They vary from the declension of नदी (105) by forming the Nom. with स्, and using the same form for the Voc., and by changing the final í to iy before the vowel-terminations; thus,

श्री f. 'prosperity:' N.V. श्रीस्, श्रियौ, श्रियस्; Ac. श्रियम्, श्रियौ, श्रियस्; I. श्रिया, श्रीभ्याम्, श्रीभिस्; D. श्रिये or श्रियै, श्रीभ्याम्, श्रीभ्यस्; Ab. श्रियस् or श्रियास्, श्रीभ्याम्, श्रीभ्यस्; G. श्रियस् or श्रियास्, श्रियोस्, श्रियाम् or श्रीणाम्; L. श्रियि or श्रियाम्, श्रियोस्, श्रीषु.

a. Similarly, भी f. 'fear,' ह्री f. 'shame,' and धी f. 'understanding;' thus, N. V. भीस्, भियौ, भियस्; Ac. भियम्, &c.; I. भिया, &c.; D. भिये or भियै, &c.

b. स्त्री f., 'a woman' (not being itself a root like the examples above), follows नदी in N. V. sing., and varies also in other respects; thus, N. स्त्री, स्त्रियौ, स्त्रियस्; V. स्त्रि, स्त्रियौ, स्त्रियस्; Ac. स्त्रीम् or स्त्रियम्, स्त्रियौ, स्त्रीस् or स्त्रियस्; I. स्त्रिया, स्त्रीभ्याम्, स्त्रीभिस्; D. स्त्रियै, स्त्रीभ्याम्, स्त्रीभ्यस्; Ab. स्त्रियास्, स्त्रीभ्याम्, स्त्रीभ्यस्; G. स्त्रियास्, स्त्रियोस्, स्त्रीणाम्; L. स्त्रियाम्, स्त्रियोस्, स्त्रीषु.

As the last member of a compound adjective, it shortens its final, and in some of its cases follows agni and mati; e. g.

अतिस्त्रि m. f. n. 'surpassing a woman:' N. masc. -स्त्रिस्, -स्त्रियौ, -स्त्रियस्; Ac. -स्त्रिम् or -स्त्रियम्, -स्त्रियौ, -स्त्रीन् or -स्त्रियस्; I. -स्त्रिणा, -स्त्रिभ्याम्, &c.; D. -स्त्रये, &c.; Ab. -स्त्रेस्, &c.; G. -स्त्रेस्, -स्त्रियोस्, -स्त्रीणाम्; L. -स्त्रौ, &c.; V. -स्त्रे, &c. The fem. form is like the masc., but Ac. pl. -स्त्रीस् or -स्त्रियस्; I. -स्त्रिया; D. -स्त्रियै or -स्त्रये; Ab. -स्त्रियास् or -स्त्रेस्, &c. For neut., see 126. j.

124. A few primitively feminine words not monosyllabic, such as लक्ष्मी 'the goddess of prosperity,' तन्त्री 'a lute-string,' तरी 'a boat,' like श्री, take s in the Nom. sing., but in other respects follow नदी; thus, N. लक्ष्मीस्, लक्ष्म्यौ, लक्ष्म्यस्; Ac. लक्ष्मीम्, &c.; V. लक्ष्मि.

Obs.—Analogously in the Veda वृकी 'a she-wolf' (Ṛig-v. I. 117, 18), and (according to some authorities) सिंही 'a lioness,' make N. sing. वृकीस्, सिंहीस्.

But गौरी f. 'the brilliant (goddess),' as a derivative fem. noun, is N. sing. गौरी.

125. Feminine nouns in long ऊ ú, not monosyllabic, are declined like primitively feminine nouns of more than one syllable in ई í, i.e. like लक्ष्मी, they follow the analogy of nadí except in N. sing., where s is retained. In the other cases ऊ ú becomes v, wherever ई í is changed to y (see 34); thus,

वधू 'a wife:' N. वधूस्, वध्वौ, वध्वस्; Ac. वधूम्, वध्वौ, वधूस्; I. वध्वा, वधूभ्याम्, वधूभिस्; D. वध्वै, वधूभ्याम्, वधूभ्यस्; Ab. वध्वास्, वधूभ्याम्, वधूभ्यस्; G. वध्वास्, वध्वोस्, वधूनाम्; L. वध्वाम्, वध्वोस्, वधूषु; V. वधु, वध्वौ, वध्वस्.

Similarly, चमू f. 'a host;' श्वश्रू f. 'a mother-in-law.'

a. Again, monosyllabic words in ú primitively feminine are declined analogously to श्री f. at 123; ú being changed to uv, wherever í is changed to iy; thus, भू f. 'the earth:' N.V. भूस्, भुवौ, भुवस्; Ac. भुवम्, भुवौ, भुवस्; I. भुवा, भूभ्याम्, भूभिस्; D. भुवे or भुवै, भूभ्याम्, भूभ्यस्; Ab. भुवस् or भुवास्, भूभ्याम्, भूभ्यस्; G. भुवस् or भुवास्, भुवोस्, भुवाम् or भूनाम्; L. भुवि or भुवाम्, भुवोस्, भूषु.

Observe that the V. is like the N.

b. Similarly, भ्रू f. 'the eye-brow' (ὀφρύς): N.V. भ्रूस्, भ्रुवौ, भ्रुवस्, &c.

126. Roots of one syllable ending in í and ú, used as masc. or fem. nouns, follow the declension of monosyllabic words in í and ú, such as श्री at 123 and भू at 125.a; but in the D. Ab. G. L. sing., G. pl., take only the first inflexion; thus,

क्री m. f., 'one who buys,' makes D. क्रिये only for m. and f., and लू m. f., 'a reaper,' makes D. लुवे only for m. and f.

a. The same generally holds good if they have adjectives prefixed to them; thus, परमक्री m. f. 'the best buyer' (N.V. -क्रीस्, -क्रियौ, -क्रियस्; Ac. -क्रियम्, &c.)

b. And when they are compounded with another noun as a dependent term they generally change their final í and ú to y and v, before vowel-terminations, and not to iy and uv (unless í and ú are preceded by a double consonant, as in यवक्री 'a buyer of barley'), thus conforming more to the declension of polysyllables; e.g.

जलपी (for जलपा) m. f., 'a water-drinker,' makes N.V. जलपीस्, -प्यौ, -प्यस्; Ac. जलप्यम्, -प्यौ, -प्यस्; I. जलप्या, -पीभ्याम्, &c.; D. जलप्ये, &c.; Ab. जलप्यस्, &c.; G. जलप्यस्, -प्योस्, &c.; L. जलपि (in opposition to 31), &c.

So also, खलपू m. f. 'a sweeper:' N.V. खलपूस्, -प्वौ, -प्वस्; Ac. खलप्वम्, &c.; I. खलप्वा, &c.; L. खलपि, &c.: सुलू 'one who cuts well;' N.V. सुलूस्, -ल्वौ, -ल्वस्.

c. Similarly, वर्षाभू m. f. 'a frog,' दृन्भू m. 'a thunderbolt,' करभू m. 'a finger-nail,' पुनर्भू m. f. 'born again' (N.V. पुनर्भूस्; Ac. -र्भ्वम्, &c.; I. -र्भ्वा; D. -र्भ्वे; Ab. G. -र्भ्वस्, -र्भ्वै. But if the sense is limited to a distinct female object, as 'a virgin widow remarried,' the D. will be -र्भ्यै; Ab. G. -र्भ्यास्; L. -र्भ्याम्, like वधू).

d. Similarly also, सेनानी m. 'a general,' ग्रामणी m. f. 'the chief of a village;' but these, like नदी, take ám for the termination of the L. sing. even in masc.; thus, N.V. सेनानीस्, -न्यौ, -न्यस्; Ac. -न्यम्, &c.; I. -न्या; L. सेनान्याम्, सेनान्योस्, सेनानीषु, &c. This applies also to the simple noun नी m. f. 'a leader,' but the final becomes iy before vowel-terminations.

e. But स्वयम्भू and स्वभू m. 'self-existent,' as a name of Brahmá, follow भू at 125. a, taking only the first inflexions; thus, D. -भुवे; Ab. -भुवस्, &c.

f. Masculine non-compounds in i and u of more than one syllable, like पपी m. 'who drinks' or 'cherishes,' 'the sun,' हूहू m. 'a Gandharva,' follow जलपी and खलपू at 126. b, except in Ac. sing. and pl.; thus, N. V. पपीस्, पप्यौ, पप्यस्; Ac. पपीम्, पप्यौ, पपीन्; and in L. sing. the final i combines with the i of the termination into i (31), not into yi; thus, L. sing. पपी (but हूह्वि from हूहू). Again, वातप्रमी m. 'an antelope' (surpassing the wind), as a compound, may follow जलपी; but Vopadeva makes Ac. sing. and pl. follow पपी. When such nouns have a feminine, the Ac. pl. ends in s; thus श्मारू m. f., 'tawny,' makes श्मारूस् for the Ac. pl. fem.

g. A word like प्रधी f. 'superior understanding' (formed from the compound verb प्रध्यै), when used as a fem. noun, is treated as a polysyllable, and follows जलपी, except in D. Ab., &c., where it takes the second inflexions (D. sing. प्रध्यै, &c.) But when used adjectively, in the sense 'having superior understanding,' it follows जलपी throughout, both for masc. and fem., but may optionally for the fem. be declined like the fem. substantive. The Voc. fem. may be प्रधीस् or प्रधि.

Two rare nouns, सुखी 'one who loves pleasure' and सुती 'one who wishes for a son,' also follow जलपी, but in Ab. G. sing. make सुख्युस्, सुत्युस्.

h. Monosyllabic nouns primitively feminine (like भी f., धी f., श्री f., at 123, भ्रू f. 'the eye-brow'), forming the last member of a compound adjective, still follow the declension of monosyllables, but use the first inflexions only in the D. Ab. G. L. cases and G. plur. for the masc., and may optionally use them for the fem.; thus, N. गतभीस् m. f., 'fearless,' is गतभिये only in D. sing. m., -भिये or -भियै in D. sing. f. So also, सुधी m. f. 'intelligent,' शुद्धधी m. f. 'having pure thoughts,' दुर्धी m. f. 'stupid,' सुश्री m. f. 'having good fortune,' सुभ्रू m. f. 'having beautiful brows;' thus, N. V. सुभ्रूस्, -भ्रुवौ, -भ्रुवस्; Ac. सुभ्रुवम्, &c. According to Vopadeva, the Voc. f. may be सुधु, and this form occurs once in the Bhaṭṭi-kávya.

i. Words necessarily feminine (nitya-strí-linga), such as kumárí, 'a girl,' Gaurí, 'the goddess Gaurí,' &c. (not like ग्रामणी, which may be masc. and fem.), retain their nadí character (Pán. I. 4, 3), even though they afterwards assume another sense which makes them masculine. This may happen in a compound, as in बहुश्रेयसी m. 'a man of many excellences:' N. बहुश्रेयसी, -स्यौ, -स्यस्; V. -सि, &c.; Ac. -सीम्, -स्यौ, -सीन्; I. -स्या, -सीभ्याम्, &c.; D. -स्यै, &c.; Ab. G. -स्यास्, &c.; L. -स्याम्, &c.

Or in words not compounded, as in कुमारी 'a man who acts like a girl,' N. masc. कुमारी. But these differ in Ac. sing. and pl. (कुमार्यम्, कुमार्यस्). Cf. the name Gopála-sarasvatí in Sanskrit-English Dictionary.

Also like bahu-śreyasí (but N. sing. will end in स्), अतिलक्ष्मी m. f. 'one who has surpassed Lakshmí,' अलक्ष्मी m. f. 'deprived of fortune,' अतिचमू m. f. 'victorious over hosts' (N. अतिचमूस्, -म्वौ, -म्वस्; V. -मु; Ac. -मूम्, -म्वौ, -मून्, Ac. pl. f. -मूस्; I. -म्वा, -मूभ्याम्, &c.; D. -म्वै, &c.; Ab. -म्वास्, &c.); but these three may follow Vopadeva's declension of वातप्रमी at 126. f.

j. Adjectives ending in i and u shorten the final vowel for the neuter, and follow vári; but in the I. D. Ab. G. and L. cases they may optionally take the masc. terminations; thus, N. V. sing. neut. गतभि; I. गतभिना or गतभिया; D. गतभिने or गतभिये, &c. N. V. Ac. sing. जलपि; I. जलपिना or -प्या, &c. N. V. Ac. खलपु; I. -पुना or -प्वा. N. V. Ac. बहुश्रेयसि; I. -श्रेयसिना or -श्रेयस्या; D. -श्रेयसिने or -श्रेयस्यै, &c. N. V. Ac. ग्रामणि; I. -णिना or -ण्या.

Fourth Class in ऋ ṛi.

This class answers to δοτήρ, πατήρ, pater, &c.; ṛi being equivalent to ar: and it is remarkable, that dátáram, dátáras, &c., bear the same relation to pitaram, pitaras, &c., that δοτῆρα, δοτῆρες, δοτῆρι, &c., bear to πατέρα, πατέρες, πατέρι, &c. Compare also the Latin datoris from dator with patris from pater.

127. Masculine stems in ṛi, like दातृ dátṛi, m. 'a giver,' and पितृ pitṛi, m. 'a father.' The former is the model of nouns of agency (83); the latter, of nouns of relationship.

In nouns of agency like dátṛi the final ṛi is vriddhied (28), and in nouns of relationship like pitṛi (except naptṛi, 'a grandson,' and svasṛi, 'a sister') gunated, in the Strong cases (see 135); but the r of ár and ar is dropped in N. sing., and to compensate in the last case a is lengthened. In both, the final ṛi is gunated in L. V. sing., and ur is substituted for final ṛi and the initial a of as in Ab. G. sing. In Ac. G. pl. final ṛi is lengthened, and assumes n in G. pl. Hence the inflective stems dátṛi, dátár, dátar, dátṛí, dátur; pitṛi, pitar, pitṛí, pitur.

Junction of stem with terminations: s is elided at the end of a conjunct consonant after r; hence in Ab. G. dáturs and piturs become dátur and pitur. See 41. I.

V.	दातर् dátar	दातारौ dátárau	दातारस् dátáras	पितर् pitar	पितरौ pitarau	पितरस् pitaras

128. Pitṛi seems to be a weakened form of pátṛi, 'a protector' (pá, 'to protect'). The cognate languages have preserved the root in πατήρ, pater, 'father,' &c. The Latin Jupiter, however, is literally Dyu-pitar, or rather Dyaush-pitar, 'father of heaven.' It is clear that stems like dátṛi, pitṛi, &c., originally ended in ar.

a. नप्तृ naptṛi, 'a grandson' (thought by some to be derived from na, 'not,' and pátṛi, 'a protector'), is declined like दातृ dátṛi.

b. There are a few nouns in ṛi expressing neither relationship nor agency.

नृ nṛi, m. 'a man,' is said to be declined like pitṛi; thus, N. ना ná, Ac. नरम्, I. त्रा, D. त्रे, Ab. G. नुर्, &c. But the forms त्रा, त्रे, नुर् are seldom, if ever, used. The following forms certainly occur: N. sing. ना, Ac. नरम्; N. Ac. du. नरौ, I. D. Ab. नृभ्याम्, G. L. नरोस्; N. pl. नरस्, Ac. नॄन्, D. Ab. नृभ्यस्, G. नृणाम् or नॄणाम्, L. नृषु. In the I. D. G. L. sing., the corresponding cases of नर are generally substituted.

c. क्रोष्टु m., 'a jackal,' must form its Strong cases (except V. sing.) and may form its Weak cases (135) from क्रोष्टृ. N. क्रोष्टा, -ष्टारौ, -ष्टारस्; Ac. -ष्टारम्, -ष्टारौ, -ष्टून् or -ष्ट्ॄन्; I. -ष्ट्रा or -ष्टुना, -ष्टुभ्याम्, &c.; D. -ष्ट्रे or -ष्टवे, &c.; Ab. -ष्टुर् or -ष्टोस्, &c.; G. -ष्टुर् or -ष्टोस्, -ष्ट्रोस् or -ष्ट्रोस्, -ष्टॄणाम् or -ष्टूनाम्; L. -ष्टरि or -ष्टौ, &c.; V. -ष्टो.

As the last member of a compound adjective, in the neuter, क्रोष्टु alone is used.

d. Nouns like क्षत्तृ m. 'a charioteer,' त्वष्टृ m. 'a carpenter,' नेष्टृ m., होतृ m., पोतृ m. 'different kinds of priests,' योद्धृ m. 'a warrior,' of course, follow dátṛi. But सव्येष्टृ m., 'a charioteer,' follows pitṛi.

129. Feminine stems in ऋ ṛi belong to nouns of relationship, like mátṛi, 'a mother' (from má, 'to create,' 'the producer'); and only differ from pitṛi in Ac. pl., which ends in s instead of n; thus, मातॄस्. Compare μήτηρ, μητέρα, Voc. μῆτερ.

a. स्वसृ svasṛi, 'a sister,' exceptionally follows दातृ dátṛi; but the Ac. pl. is still स्वसॄस्. The lengthening of the penultimate in the Strong cases is probably caused by the loss of the t from tṛi, preserved in the English sister. So soror for sostor.

b. The feminine stem of nouns of agency is formed by adding ई í to the final ऋ ṛi; thus, दातृ + ई, दात्री dátrí, f. 'a giver;' and कर्तृ + ई, कर्त्री f. 'a doer.' Their inflexion follows nadí at 105.

130. The neuter stem is thus declined: N. Ac. दातृ, दातॄणी, दातॄणि; V. दातर् or दातृ. The rest may conform to várі at 114, or resemble the masc.; thus, I. दात्रा or दातॄणा, &c. But neuter stems in ऋ ṛi belong generally to nouns of agency or of relationship, when used at the end of compound adjectives, such as बहुदातृ bahu-dátṛi, 'giving much,' or दिव्यमातृ divya-mátṛi, agreeing with neuter words like कुलम्, i. e. 'a family having a divine mother,' or द्विमातृ 'having two mothers' (compare διμήτωρ). Their declension may resemble that of várі at 114, or conform to the masc. in all cases but the N. V. Ac.; thus, N. Ac. दातृ, दातॄणी, दातॄणि; V. दातृ or दातर्, &c.; I. दातॄणा or दात्रा, &c.; D. दातॄणे or दात्रे, &c.; Ab. G. दातॄणस् or दातुर्, &c.; L. दातॄणि or दातरि, &c. N. Ac. -मातृ, -मातॄणी, -मातॄणि; V. -मातृ or -मातर्, &c.; I. -मातॄणा or -मात्रा, &c.

Nouns ending in ऐ ai, ओ o, औ au.

131. We may notice here a few monosyllabic nouns in ऐ, ओ, and औ, not sufficiently numerous to form separate classes.

132. रै rai, m. f. 'substance,' 'wealth' (Lat. res): N. V. रास्, रायौ, रायस्; Ac. रायम्, &c.; I. राया, राभ्याम्, राभिस् (rebus); D. राये, राभ्याम्, राभ्यस्; Ab. रायस्, &c.; G. रायस्, रायोस्, रायाम्; L. रायि, रायोस्, रासु.

133. गो go, m. f. 'a cow' or 'ox' (bos, βοῦς), 'the earth:' N. V. गौस्, गावौ, गावस्; Ac. गाम्, गावौ, गास्; I. गवा, गोभ्याम्, गोभिस्; D. गवे, &c.; Ab. गोस्, &c.; G. गोस्, गवोस्, गवाम्; L. गवि (bovi), गवोस्, गोषु. Compare गाम् with γῆν.

a. द्यो dyo, f. 'the sky,' follows गो; thus, N. V. द्यौस्, द्यावौ, द्यावस्; Ac. द्याम्, द्यावौ, द्यास्; I. द्यवा, द्योभ्याम्, द्योभिस्; D. द्यवे, &c. The Vedic N. du. is द्यावा.

134. नौ nau, f. 'a ship' (cf. navis, ναῦς), is declined at 94, taking the terminations with perfect regularity. With the N. pl. návas, compare naves, νᾶες (νῆες). The gen. νηός for νᾱος or ναϝος = návas.

Similarly may be declined गौ m. 'the moon:' N. glaus, glávau, glávas, &c.

a. The above nouns sometimes occur at the end of compounds; as, बहुरै 'rich,' N. m. f. बहुरास्, &c.; बहुनौ 'having many ships,' N. m. f. बहुनौस्, &c. The neuter is बहुरि, बहुनु; of which the Inst. cases will be बहुरिणा, बहुनुना; and so with the other cases: the masc. forms being equally allowable in बहुरि throughout, except in N. Ac. V. sing. du. pl.; e. g. बहुरिणा or बहुराया.

b. In the case of go, 'a cow,' the compound seems always formed with gu; e. g. dvi-gu, us, us, u, 'worth two cows;' pañća-gu, 'bought with five cows;' śata-gu, 'possessing a hundred cows.'

Section II.—LAST FOUR CLASSES OF NOUNS.

Inflexion of Nouns, Substantive and Adjective, whose stems end in consonants.

135. The last four classes of nouns, though including substantives, consist chiefly of adjectives, participles, or roots at the end of adjective compounds. All masc. and fem. nouns under these remaining classes regularly take the terminations at 91. Neut. nouns take the substitutions at 97 in N. Ac. du. pl.

a. The case-terminations are here repeated with Bopp's division into Strong, Weaker, and Weakest, as applicable especially to nouns ending in consonants (though not to all of these even). The Strong cases will be here denoted by the letter S; the Weaker, sometimes called Middle, will be denoted by M; and the Weakest by w. In those nouns which distinguish between Strong and Weak cases only, the Weak will be marked by both M and w.

SINGULAR. M. F. N.	DUAL. M. F. N.	PLURAL. M. F. N.

Gen. — as (w)	ओस् os (w)	आम् ám (w)
Loc. इ i (w)	— os (w)	सु su (M)

The Vocative, though identical with the Nom. in the dual and plural, has sometimes a peculiar form of its own in the singular (see 92).

b. Páṇini always considers the Nom. sing. masc. as having the termination s, which is supposed to retain its effect, though it experiences lopa (cutting off); but in the N. Ac. Voc. sing. neut. there is luk of the terminations s and am, i. e. these terminations disappear altogether (Páṇ. VII. 1, 23).

c. The terms anga, pada, bha (the first two of which have also general meanings, see 74 with note) are applied in a restricted sense to different forms of the Prátipadika or stem as modified by the above terminations or by suffixes; thus, the stem is called anga before the terminations of the so-called Strong cases or Páṇini's sarva-náma-sthána (viz. the Nom. sing. du. pl., Ac. sing. and du. of masc. and fem. nouns, and the Nom. and Ac. pl. of neuter nouns, see the above table); *pada before the terminations of the Middle cases (viz. bhyám, bhis, bhyas, and su), as well as before Taddhita suffixes beginning with any consonant except y (Páṇ. I. 4, 17); bha before the terminations of the Weak cases beginning with vowels (except of course the anga terminations mentioned above), as well as before Taddhita suffixes beginning with vowels and y (see Páṇ. I. 4, 18).

d. A stem is made strong by lengthening the vowel of the last syllable, or by inserting a nasal, e. g. yuvan, yuván; dhanavat, dhanavant: and made weak by eliminating one or more letters, e. g. yuvan, yún; pratyañć, pratíć.

e. It should be noted that the Ac. pl., and in neuter nouns the

* Probably so called because the laws of Sandhi which come into operation at the junction of separate words (pada) in a sentence generally hold good before the terminations of the Middle cases.

Inst. sing., is generally the guide to the form assumed before the remaining vowel-terminations.

f. This division of cases has not been noticed before, because it is of no real importance for stems ending in vowels. That it applies to stems ending in ṛi is accounted for by the fact that these originally ended in ar.

Fifth Class in त् t and द् d.

This class answers to Latin words like comes (stem comit-), eques (stem equit-), ferens (stem ferent-); and to Greek words like χάρις (stem χαριτ-), κέρας (stem κερατ-), ἐλπίς (stem ἐλπιδ-), χαρίεις (stem χαριεντ-).

136. Masculine and feminine stems in त् t and द् d, like हरित् harit, m. f. 'green' (declined at 95), and सरित् sarit, f. 'a river,' and the compound धर्मविद् dharma-vid, m. f. 'knowing one's duty' (see 84. IV).

Observe—The Nom. sing. is properly harits, dharma-vits, but s is rejected by 41. I. The same applies to all nouns ending in consonants. So αἰδήμων for αἰδημονς. Latin and Greek, when the final of the stem refuses to combine with the s of the Nom., often prefer rejecting the final of the stem; thus, χάρις for χαριτς, comes for comits; and in these languages the final consonant frequently combines with the s of the Nom., as in lex (for leks), φλόξ (for φλοκς).

137. Neuter stems in त् t and द् d, like हरित् harit, n. 'green,' धर्मविद् dharma-vid, n. 'knowing one's duty,' and कुमुद् kumud, n. 'a lotus.'

These only differ from the masculine and feminine in the N. du. pl., Ac. sing. du. and pl., the usual neuter terminations ई í, इ i (see 97), being required, and n being inserted before the final of the stem in N. Ac. pl.; thus,

N. Ac. V. हरित् harit, हरिती haritî, हरिन्ति harinti; I. हरिता haritá, हरिद्भ्याम् haridbhyám, &c., like masc. and fem.

N. Ac. V. धर्मवित्, धर्मविदौ, धर्मविन्दि; I. धर्मविदा, &c.

Similarly, N. Ac. V. कुमुत्, कुमुदौ, कुमुन्दि; I. कुमुदा, &c.

138. All nouns at 84. II–IV. follow हरित् and धर्मविद्.

139. हृद् hṛid, n. 'the heart,' is said to be defective in the first five inflexions, these cases being supplied from hṛidaya (see 108. e).

140. Possessive adjectives formed with the suffixes वत् -vat (84. VII) and मत् -mat (84. VI), like धनवत् dhana-vat, 'rich,' and धीमत् dhí-mat, 'wise,' are declined like harit for the masculine; but in the Strong cases (see 135. a) n is inserted before the final of the stem.

In N. sing. dhanaván for dhanavants, ts is rejected by 41. I, and the final vowel of the stem lengthened by way of compensation.

N. धनवान् dhanaván धनवन्तौ dhanvantau धनवन्तस् dhanavantas
Ac. धनवन्तम् dhanavantam — dhanavantau धनवतस् dhanavatas
I. धनवता dhanavatá, धनवद्भ्याम् dhanavadbhyám, &c., like harit.
V. धनवन् dhanavan, &c.

Similarly, धीमत् 'wise:' N. धीमान्, धीमन्तौ, धीमन्तस्; Ac. धीमन्तम्, धीमन्तौ, धीमतस्, &c.; V. धीमन्, &c.

a. Like dhana-vat are declined Past Active Participles, such as कृतवत् 'one who has done' (553); thus, N. masc. कृतवान्, कृतवन्तौ, कृतवन्तस्, &c.

b. The feminine stems of adjectives like धनवत् and धीमत्, and Participles like कृतवत्, are formed by adding ई í to the Weak form of the masc. stem; as, धनवती, धीमती, कृतवती, declined like नदी at 105; thus, N. धनवती, धनवत्यौ, धनवत्यस्, &c.

c. The neuter is like the neut. of harit: N. Ac. V. धनवत्, धनवती, धनवन्ति.

141. Present Participles (524) like पचत् pacat, 'cooking,' and Future Participles (578) like करिष्यत् karishyat, 'about to do,' are declined after dhanavat (140), excepting in the N. sing. masc., where a is not lengthened before n; thus,

N. V. sing. पचन् pacan (for pacants), and not पचान् pacán: N. du. pl. पचन्तौ, पचन्तस्; Ac. पचन्तम्, पचन्तौ, पचतस्; I. पचता, &c. Cf. Latin and Greek Participles like ferens, ferent-is, ferent-em, &c.; φέρων, φέροντ-ος, φέροντ-α, &c.

a. Observe, however, that all reduplicated verbs of the 3rd class and Frequentatives (but not Desideratives); a few verbs from polysyllabic roots (75. a), and some few other verbs—such as जक्ष् 'to eat,' शास् 'to rule'—which reject the nasal in the 3rd pl. Pres. of the Parasmai-pada, reject it also in the declension of the Pres. Participle. Hence the Pres. Participle of such verbs is declined like harit, the N. sing. being identical with the stem; thus, fr. dá, cl. 3, 'to give,' N. V. sing. du. pl. dadat, dadatau, dadatas; Ac. dadatam, &c.: fr. bhṛi, cl. 3, 'to bear,' N. V. sing. du. pl. bibhrat, bibhratau, bibhratas. So also, jágrat, 'watching' (fr. jágṛi), śásat, 'ruling' (fr. śás), jakshat, 'eating' (fr. jaksh). The rejection of the nasal is doubtless owing to the encumbrance of the syllable of reduplication.

Obs. 1. Quasi-reduplicated verbs of cl. 1 and Desideratives do not reject the nasal; e.g. tishṭhat, fr. sthá, 'to stand,' makes N. sing. du. pl. tishṭhan, tishṭhantau, tishṭhantas, &c. Similarly, jighrat, fr. ghrá, 'to smell;' jighṛikshat, Desid. of grah, 'to take.'

Obs. 2. The reduplicated verbs of cl. 3, &c., mentioned above, optionally reject the nasal from the N. V. Ac. pl. neut.; thus, dadati or dadanti, jakshati or jakshanti.

But jagat, n. 'the world,' is only jaganti in N. Ac. pl.

b. In Present Participles derived from verbs of cl. 1, 4, 10, a nasal is inserted for the feminine stem; thus, पचन्ती fr. पच्, cl. 1 (declined like nadí at 105); and this nasal is carried through all the inflexions, not merely, as in the masculine, through the first five. So दीव्यन्ती fr. div, cl. 4; and चोरयन्ती fr. ćur, cl. 10.

Similarly with quasi-reduplicated verbs of cl. 1 and Desideratives; e.g. tishṭhantí, fr. sthá; jighrantí, fr. ghrá; jighṛikshantí, fr. Desid. of grah (cf. Obs. 1. above).

The same conjugational classes also insert a nasal in the N. V. Ac. du. neut. as well as the pl.; thus, पचत्, पचन्ती, पचन्ति.

In all verbs of cl. 6, in verbs ending in á of the 2nd, and in all Participles of the 2nd Fut. Parasmai, the insertion of the nasal in the feminine is optional; thus, tudatí or tudantí, fr. tud, cl. 6; yátí or yántí, fr. yá, cl. 2; karishyatí or karishyantí, fr. kṛi. It is also optional in the N. V. Ac. du. neut., which will resemble the Nom. sing. fem.; thus, tudantí or tudatí, yántí or yátí, karishyantí or karishyatí.

c. Verbs of cl. 2, 3, 5, 7, 8, 9 follow 140. b. c, and insert no nasal for feminine nor for N. Ac. V. du. neut.; although all but cl. 3 assume a nasal in the first five inflexions in the masculine; thus, adat (fr. ad, cl. 2); N. V. masc. adan, adantau, adantas; fem. adatí: juhvat (fr. hu, cl. 3); N. V. masc. juhvat, juhvatau, juhvatas; fem. juhvatí: rundhat (fr. rudh, cl. 7); N. V. masc. rundhan, rundhantau, rundhantas; fem. rundhatí. The neut. will be N. Ac. V. adat, adatí, adanti; juhvat, du. juhvatí, but pl. juhvanti or juhvati (see 141. a).

142. The adjective महत्, 'great,' is properly a Pres. Part. fr. मह् mah, 'to increase;' but its masculine lengthens the a of at before n in the N. Ac. sing., N. V. Ac. du., N. V. pl., and neuter in N. V. Ac. pl.; thus, N. masc. महान्, महान्तौ, महान्तस्; Ac. महान्तम्, महान्तौ, महतस्; I. महता, &c.; V. महन्, महान्तौ, &c.: N. fem. महती, &c., see 140. a. b: N. V. Ac. neut. महत्, महती, महान्ति.

a. बृहत् m. f. n. 'great,' जगत् m. f. n. 'moving,' पृषत् m. f. 'a deer,' follow Pres. Participles; e.g. N. V. masc. बृहन्, बृहन्तौ, बृहन्तस्. Fem. बृहती. Neut. बृहत्, &c.

143. The honorific pronoun भवत् (said to be for भावत् bhá-vat) follows धनवत् (at 140), making the a of at long in the N. sing.; thus, भवान् 'your honour,' and not भवन्. The V. is भवन्. The fem. is भवती, see 233.

भवत् 'being,' Pres. Part. of भू 'to be,' follows of course पचत् at 141.

144. यकृत् n. 'the liver' (ἧπαρ, jecur), and शकृत् n. 'ordure,' may optionally be declined in Ac. pl. and remaining cases as if their stems were यकन् and शकन्; thus, N. V. यकृत्, यकृती, यकृन्ति; Ac. यकृत्, यकृती, यकृन्ति or यकानि; I. यकृता or यक्ना, यकृद्भ्याम् or यकभ्याम्, यकृद्भिस् or यकभिस्; D. यकृते or यक्ने, &c.

a. A defective noun दन् is optionally substituted for दन्त in Ac. pl. and remaining cases (see 183), and is often used at the end of compounds; e. g. su-dat, 'having good teeth,' making N. masc. fem. neut. su-dan, su-datí, su-dat.

145. पाद्, 'a foot,' at the end of compounds becomes पद् in Ac. pl. and remaining Weakest cases; thus, सुपाद्, 'having beautiful feet,' makes in masc. N. V. सुपाद्, सुपादौ, सुपादस्; Ac. सुपादम्, सुपादौ, सुपदस्; I. सुपदा, सुपाद्भ्याम्, सुपाद्भिस्, &c. The fem. is सुपदी, like nadí at 105. Neut. N. V. Ac. सुपाद्, सुपदी, सुपादि.

a. Similarly, द्विपाद्, but according to Páṇ. IV. 1, 9, the fem. is dvi-padá, if agreeing with ṛik, 'a verse;' dvi-padí, if agreeing with strí, 'a woman.' So also त्रिपाद्, &c.

Sixth Class in अन् an and इन् in.

This class answers to Lat. and Gr. words like sermo (stem sermon-), homo (stem homin-), δαίμων (stem δαιμον-). Latin agrees with Sanskṛit in suppressing the n in N. masc. and fem., but not in neut.; thus homo is N. of masc. stem homin, the stronger vowel o being substituted for i, just as í is substituted for i in Sanskṛit; but nomen is N. of the neut. stem nomin.

146. Masculine and feminine stems in अन् an, of two kinds, A and B.

A. If an be preceded by m or v at the end of a conjunct consonant, then the model is आत्मन् átman, m. 'soul,' 'self.'

B. But if an be preceded by m or v not conjunct, as in सीमन् síman, f. (sometimes m.) 'a border,' or by any other consonant, whether conjunct or not, than m or v, as in तक्षन् takshan, m. 'a carpenter,' राजन् rájan, m. 'a king,' then the a of an is dropped in the Ac. pl. and before all the other vowel-terminations, and the remaining n is compounded with the preceding consonant.

Obs.—In the Loc. sing. this dropping of a is optional.

All nouns ending in an, lengthen the a in the Strong cases (V. sing. excepted); and drop the n before all the consonantal terminations (see 57). The inflective stem will be átman, átmán, átma; síman, símán, símn (see above), síma.

Junction of stem with termination: N. sing. n final of stem, and s case-termination rejected by 57 and 41. I; V. sing. case-termination rejected.

148. Similarly, like सीमन्, are declined तक्षन् m. 'a carpenter' and राजन् m. 'a king.'

Obs.—In the inflexion of words like takshan, rájan (which follow the B form síman in combining m and n), the dental n of the stem being combined with a cerebral or palatal is changed to the cerebral or palatal nasal respectively. See 57. c, 58.

149. Masculine stems in वन्, like पीवन्, दृभ्वन्, यज्वन्, generally form their feminines in वरी (Páṇ. IV. 1, 7); e. g. पीवरी, दृभ्वरी, यज्वरी, declined like nadí at 105.

150. When a feminine stem in ई í is formed from words like राजन्, it follows the rules at 146. A. B. for the rejection of the a of an; thus, राज्ञी rájñí, 'a queen.'

151. When rájan occurs at the end of a compound, it may be declined like śiva (103); as, N. sing. masc. mahárájas; Ac. mahárájam, &c. (cf. 778): but not necessarily, as bahu-rájan, m. f. n. 'having many kings.' The fem. stem of which may be bahu-rájan or bahu-rájá or bahu-rájñí.

152. Neuter stems in सन् an, like कर्मन् 'an action' and नामन् 'a name' (nomen, ὄνομα*).

Obs.—The retention or rejection of a in an before the Inst. sing. and remaining vowel-terminations, as well as optionally before the Nom. Acc. du., is determined by the same rule as in masculines and feminines (146. A. B). They only differ from masculine nouns in Nom. Voc. and Acc. sing. du. pl.

153. Like कर्मन् n. are declined जन्मन् 'birth,' वेश्मन् 'house,' वर्मन् 'armour,' ब्रह्मन् 'prayer,' 'the Supreme Spirit,' वर्त्मन् 'road,' चर्मन् 'leather,' छद्मन् 'pretext,' पर्वन् 'a joint.'

Like नामन् n. are declined दामन् 'string,' सामन् 'conciliation,' धामन् 'mansion,' व्योमन् 'sky,' रोमन् (for रोह्मन् rohman, from ruh), 'hair,' प्रेमन् (also m.) 'love.'

154. When nouns in an, man, and van form the last member of adjective compounds, the feminine may be declined like the masc., or its stem may end in á, and be declined like śivá; the neuter follows the declension of neuter nouns at 152. Those in an, if they follow the declension of síman and rájan, may also form their feminine in í, rejecting the a of an, and be declined like nadí (Páṇ. IV. 1, 28).

155. There are a few anomalous nouns in an, as follow:

a. श्वन् m. 'a dog' (canis, κύων): N. श्वा, श्वानौ, श्वानस्; Ac. श्वानम्, श्वानौ, शुनस्; I. शुना, श्वभ्याम्, श्वभिस्; D. शुने, &c.; Ab. शुनस्, &c.; G. शुनस् (κυνός), शुनोस्,

* Greek has a tendency to prefix vowels to words beginning with consonants in the cognate languages. Cf. also nakha, 'nail,' ὄνυξ; laghu, 'light,' ἐλαχύ-ς; भ्रू 'brow,' ὀφρύ-ς.

शुनाम्; L. शुनि, शुनोस्, श्वसु; V. श्वन्, श्वानौ, &c. See 135. a. Fem. शुनी, &c. (like nadí at 105).

b. युवन् m. 'a youth,' 'young:' N. युवा, युवानौ, युवानस्; Ac. युवानम्, युवानौ, यूनस्; I. यूना, युवभ्याम्, युवभिस्; D. यूने, &c.; Ab. यूनस्, &c.; G. यूनस्, यूनोस्, यूनाम्; L. यूनि, यूनोस्, युवसु; V. युवन्, युवानौ, &c. See 135, a. Fem. यूनी (like nadí) or युवति (like mati). Neut. युव, यूनी, युवानि, &c.

c. मघवन् m. 'a name of Indra:' N. मघवा, -वानौ, -वानस्; Ac. मघवानम्, -वानौ, मघोनस्; I. मघोना, मघवभ्याम्, -वभिस्; D. मघोने, मघवभ्याम्, &c.; Ab. मघोनस्, &c.; G. मघोनस्, मघोनोस्, मघोनाम्; L. मघोनि, मघोनोस्, मघवसु; V. मघवन्, &c. Fem. मघोनी or मघवती.

The last may also be declined like a noun in vat: N. मघवान्, -वन्ती, &c. See 140.

156. अहन् n., 'a day,' forms its N. Ac. V. sing. fr. अहर् ahar, and the consonantal middle cases fr. अहस् ahas; in the other cases it is like náman; thus,

N. Ac. V. अहर् (41. I), अह्नी or अहनी, अहानि; I. अह्ना, अहोभ्याम्, अहोभिस्; D. अह्ने, अहोभ्याम्, अहोभ्यस्; Ab. अह्नस्, &c.; G. अह्नस्, अह्नोस्, अह्नाम्; L. अह्नि or अहनि, अह्नोस्, अहस्सु or अहःसु. At the beginning of compounds the form is generally अहर्, as in ahar-niśam, 'day and night.' At the end of compounds it may be declined as a masc.; thus, N. दीर्घाहास्, -हाणौ, -हाणस्; Ac. -हाणम्, &c.; V. -हस्, &c., or sometimes becomes अह or अह्न.

a. दिवन् m., 'a day,' lengthens the i in those cases where the a of an is rejected; thus, Ac. pl. दीव्नस्; I. दीव्ना, &c.

b. शीर्षन् n., 'the head,' is said to be defective in N. sing. du. and pl. and Ac. sing. du., these cases being supplied from शिरस् n., or शीर्ष 108. e.

c. यकन् n., 'the liver,' and शकन् 'ordure,' are said to be defective in the first five inflexions, these cases being supplied from yakṛit and śakṛit respectively, see 144.

157. अर्यमन् m., 'the sun,' does not lengthen a of an in N. du. pl., Ac. sing. du.; thus,

N. अर्यमा, अर्यमणौ, अर्यमणस्; Ac. अर्यमणम्, अर्यमणौ, अर्यम्णस्; I. अर्यम्णा, &c.

a. Similarly, पूषन् 'the sun:' N. पूषा, पूषणौ, &c.; Ac. पूषणम्, &c.; but the Ac. pl., and remaining Weakest cases, may be optionally formed from a stem पूष्; thus, Ac. pl. पूष्णस् or पूषस्.

b. Similarly, compounds having -हन् as the last member, such as ब्रह्महन् m. 'the slayer of a Bráhman:' N. ब्रह्महा, ब्रह्महणौ, &c.; but in Ac. pl. ब्रह्मघ्नस्; I. ब्रह्मघ्ना, ब्रह्महभ्याम्, &c. (h becoming gh where the a of han is dropped).

158. अवेन् m. 'a horse,' or m. f. n. 'low,' 'vile,' is declined like nouns in vat at 140, excepting in N. sing.; thus, N. अवी, अवेन्तौ, अवेन्तस्; Ac. अवेन्तम्, &c.; I. अवेता, अवेद्भ्याम्, अवेद्भिस्; V. अवेन्, &c. If the negative अन् precedes, अवेन् is regular; thus, N. अनवी, अनवीणौ, &c.; Ac. अनवीणम्, &c.; I. pl. अनवीभिस्.

159. Masculine stems in इन् in, like धनिन् dhanin, m. 'rich.'

In N. sing. dhaní for dhanins, n and s are rejected (by 57 and 41. I), and the vowel lengthened by way of compensation.

	SINGULAR.	DUAL.	PLURAL.
N.	धनी dhaní	धनिनौ dhaninau	धनिनस् dhaninas
Ac.	धनिनम् dhaninam	— dhaninau	— dhaninas
I.	धनिना dhaniná	धनिभ्याम् dhanibhyám. 57.	धनिभिस् dhanibhis. 57.
D.	धनिने dhanine	— dhanibhyám	धनिभ्यस् dhanibhyas. 57.
Ab.	धनिनस् dhaninas	— dhanibhyám	— dhanibhyas
G.	— dhaninas	धनिनोस् dhaninos	धनिनाम् dhaninám
L.	धनिनि dhanini	— dhaninos	धनिषु dhanishu. 70.
V.	धनिन् dhanin. 92.	धनिनौ dhaninau	धनिनस् dhaninas

Obs.—Many adjectives of the forms explained at 85. VI. VIII. IX. are declined in masc. like धनिन्; thus, मेधाविन् medhávin, 'intellectual;' N. मेधावी, -विनौ, -विनस्, &c. Also numerous nouns of agency, like कारिन् 'a doer,' at 85. II; thus, N. कारी, कारिणौ (58), कारिणस्, &c.

160. The feminine stem of such adjectives and nouns of agency is formed by adding ई í to the masc. stem; as, fr. धनिन्, धनिनी f.; fr. कारिन्, कारिणी f.; declined like nadí at 105; thus, N. धनिनी, -न्यौ, -न्यस्, &c.

161. The neuter is regular, and is like vári as far as the Gen. pl.; N. Ac. धनि, धनिनी, धनीनि. But the G. pl. धनिनाम्, not धनीनाम्; V. sing. धनि or धनिन्.

162. पथिन् m. 'a road,' मथिन् m. 'a churning-stick,' and ऋभुक्षिन् m. 'a name of Indra,' are remarkable as exhibiting both suffixes, an and in, in the same word. They form their N. V. sing. from the stems पन्थस्, मन्थस्, ऋभुक्षस्; their other Strong cases, from the stems पन्थन्, मन्थन्, ऋभुक्षन्; their Ac. pl., and remaining Weak cases, from the stems पथ्, मथ्, ऋभुक्ष्; in their Middle cases they follow dhanin regularly; thus,

N. V. पन्थास् (163), पन्थानौ, पन्थानस्; Ac. पन्थानम्, पन्थानौ, पथस्; I. पथा, पथिभ्याम्, पथिभिस्; D. पथे, &c. Similarly, N. V. मन्थास्, &c.; ऋभुक्षास्, &c.: I. मथा, &c.; ऋभुक्षा, &c. Observe—The V. is the same as the N.

a. The compound सुपथिन्, 'having a good road,' is similarly declined for the masc.; the N. fem. is सुपथी, -थ्यौ, -थ्यस्, like nadí at 105; the neut. is N. Ac. सुपथि, -पथी, -पन्थानि, &c.; V. सुपथिन् or सुपथि; the rest as the masc.

SEVENTH CLASS in अस् as, इस् is, and उस् us.

This class answers to Gr. and Lat. words like πάθος, μένος, genus, scelus, &c.

163. Masculine and feminine stems in अस् as, like चन्द्रमस् candramas, m. 'the moon.'

In N. sing. as is lengthened to compensate for rejection of the termination s:

candramas becomes candramo by 64 before the terminations bhyám, bhis, bhyas; in L. pl. candramas+su becomes candramaḥsu by 63, or candramassu by 62. a.

N.	चन्द्रमास् candramás	चन्द्रमसौ candramasau	चन्द्रमसस् candramasas
Ac.	चन्द्रमसम् candramasam	— candramasau	— candramasas
I.	चन्द्रमसा candramasá	चन्द्रमोभ्याम् candramobhyám	चन्द्रमोभिस् candramobhis
D.	चन्द्रमसे candramase	— candramobhyám	चन्द्रमोभ्यस् candramobhyas
Ab.	चन्द्रमसस् candramasas	— candramobhyám	— candramobhyas
G.	— candramasas	चन्द्रमसोस् candramasos	चन्द्रमसाम् candramasám
L.	चन्द्रमसि candramasi	— candramasos	चन्द्रमःसु candramaḥsu or -स्सु
V.	चन्द्रमस् candramas. 92.	चन्द्रमसौ candramasau	चन्द्रमसस् candramasas

a. Similarly, अप्सरस् apsaras, f. 'a nymph:' N. अप्सरास्, &c.

164. Neuter stems in अस् as, like मनस् manas, n. 'mind' (μένος, mens).

These differ from the masc. and fem. in the N. Ac. V. The a of as remains short in N. sing. after the rejection of the case-termination s, but is lengthened in N. Ac. V. pl. before inserted Anusvára.

N. Ac. V. मनस् manas मनसी manasí मनांसि manánsi

I. मनसा manasá, मनोभ्याम् manobhyám, &c., like the masc. and fem.

a. Obs.—Nearly all simple substantives in as are neuter like manas; but these neuters, when at the end of compound adjectives, are declinable also in masc. and fem. like candramas. Thus mahá-manas, 'magnanimous,' makes in N. (m. f. sing. du. pl.) mahá-manás, mahá-manasau, mahá-manasas. Similarly, sumanas, 'well-intentioned;' durmanas, 'evil-minded' (N. m. f. sumanás, durmanás, &c.): cf. εὐ-μενής, δυσ-μενής, m. f., but neut. and stem εὐ-μενές, δυσ-μενές, derived from μένος.

b. Where final as is part of a root and not a suffix, the declension will follow पिण्डग्रस् 'one who devours a mouthful;' thus, N. V. sing. m. f. पिण्डग्रस्; Ac. -ग्रसम्. N. V. Ac. du. -ग्रसौ, pl. -ग्रसस्; I. -ग्रसा, -ग्रोभ्याम्, &c. N. V. Ac. neut. -ग्रस्, -ग्रसी, -ग्रंसि. When a root ends in ás, s will be rejected before bh by 66. a; thus, चकास्, 'brilliant,' makes in I. du. चकाभ्याम्.

c. But स्रंस् (fr. स्रंस्) and ध्वंस् (fr. ध्वंस्), at the end of compounds, change final स् to त् before the consonantal terminations, making N. sing. स्रत् and ध्वत्; e. g. उखास्रत्, पणीध्वत् (see Pán. III. 2, 76; VII. 1, 70; VIII. 2, 72).

165. Neuter stems in इस् is and उस् us are declined analogously to मनस् manas at 164, i and u being substituted for a throughout, sh for s (70), ir or ur for o (65); thus, हविस् havis, n. 'ghee:' N. Ac. V. हविस्, हविषी, हवींषि; I. हविषा, हविर्भ्याम्, हविर्भिस्; D. हविषे, हविर्भ्याम्, हविर्भ्यस्; Ab. हविषस्, हविर्भ्याम्, हविर्भ्यस्; G. हविषस्, हविषोस्, हविषाम्; L. हविषि, हविषोस्, हविःषु or -ष्षु.

a. चक्षुस् cakshus, n. 'the eye:' N. Ac. V. चक्षुस्, चक्षुषी, चक्षूंषि; I. चक्षुषा, चक्षुभ्याम्, चक्षुर्भिस्; D. चक्षुषे, चक्षुभ्याम्, चक्षुर्भ्यस्; Ab. चक्षुषस्, चक्षुभ्याम्, चक्षुर्भ्यस्; G. चक्षुषस्, चक्षुषोस्, चक्षुषाम्; L. चक्षुषि, चक्षुषोस्, चक्षुःषु or -ष्षु.

166. Nouns formed with the suffixes is and us are generally neuter. In some nouns, however, the final sibilant is part of the root itself, and not of a suffix; such as आशिस् áśis, f. 'a blessing' (fr. rt. शास्), and सजुस् m. f. 'an associate' (fr. जुष्). These follow the analogy of masc. and fem. nouns in as (163) in the N. Ac. cases; and, moreover, before the consonantal terminations, where the final sibilant is changed to r, unlike nouns formed with is and us, lengthen the i and u (compare nouns in r at 180); thus,

N. आशीस्, -शिषौ, -शिषस्; Ac. -शिषम्, -शिषौ, -शिषस्; I. -शिषा, -शीभ्याम्, -शीर्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. -शीःषु or -शीष्षु.

N. सजूस्, -जुषौ, -जुषस्; Ac. -जुषम्, &c.; I. -जुषा, -जूर्भ्याम्, &c.

a. Nouns formed from Desiderative stems in ish (497), such as जिगदिस् (for jigadish), 'desirous of speaking,' are similarly declined; thus,

N. V. m. f. जिगदीस्, -दिषौ, &c.; I. du. -दीर्भ्याम्. The N. V. Ac. neut. pl. is जिगदिषि, the nasal being omitted (cf. 181. d).

So चिकीर्ष्, 'desirous of doing,' makes N. V. m. f. चिकीर्, -कीर्षौ, &c.

b. सुतुस् 'well-sounding,' where us is radical, makes N. V. sing. m. f. सुतूस्; Ac. सुतुसम्; N. V. Ac. du. सुतुसौ, pl. सुतुसस्; I. सुतुसा, सुतूर्भ्याम्, सुतूर्भिस्, &c. N. V. Ac. neut. सुतूस्, सुतुसी, सुतुंसि.

c. Obs.—When neuter nouns in is or us are taken for the last member of compound adjectives, analogy would require them to be declined in masc. and fem. according to candramas at 163; but, according to the best authorities, the N. sing. does not lengthen the vowel of the last syllable; thus, उत्पलचक्षुस् m. f. n. 'having lotus eyes,' N. masc. and fem. उत्पलचक्षुस्, -चक्षुषौ, &c.; and शुचिरोचिस् m. f. n. 'having brilliant rays,' N. masc. and fem. शुचिरोचिस्, शुचिरोचिषौ, &c.

d. दोस् dos, m. 'an arm,' follows the declension of nouns in is and us; but in Ac. pl., and remaining cases, optionally substitutes doshan for its stem (see 184); thus, N. V. दोस्, -षौ, -षस्; Ac. दोषम्, -षौ, -षस् or -णस्; I. दोषा or दोष्णा, दोर्भ्याम् or दोषभ्याम्, &c. As a neuter noun it makes in N. Ac. V. दोस्, दोषी, दोंषि.

167. Comparatives formed with the suffix ईयस् íyas (192), lengthen the a of as, and insert n, changeable to Anusvára before s, in N. sing. du. pl., V. du. pl., Ac. sing. du. masc.; thus, बलीयस् m. f. n., 'more powerful,' makes N. masc. बलीयान् (for बलीयांस्, s rejected by 41. A), -यांसौ, -यांसस्; Ac. -यांसम्, -यांसौ, -यसस्; I. -यसा, -योभ्याम्, &c., like candramas at 163. The V. sing. is बलीयन्; du. and pl. like the Nom.

a. The fem. बलीयसी follows nadí at 105. The neut. बलीयस् is like manas.

168. Perfect Participles, formed with vas (see 554), are similarly declined in the Strong cases (135. b). But in Ac. pl., and remaining Weak cases, vas becomes ush, and in the Middle cases vat; so that there are three forms of the stem, viz. in váṃs, ush, and *vat; thus,

---

* Vat is evidently connected with the Greek οτ. Compare tutupvat (fr. rt. tup) with τετυφ-(F)οτ, and tutupvatsu with τετυφ-ο(τ)σι.

विविद्वस् (Perf. Part., fr. विद् 'to know'): N. विविद्वान्, विविद्वांसौ, विविद्वांसस्; Ac. विविद्वांसम्, विविद्वांसौ, विविदुषस्; I. विविदुषा, विविद्वद्भ्याम्, विविद्वद्भिस्; D. विविदुषे, &c.; V. विविद्वन्, विविद्वांसौ, &c.

The neuter is N. Ac. विविद्वत्, -दुषी, -द्वांसि; for fem. see d below.

a. When this Participle is formed with ivas instead of vas (see 554), the vowel i is rejected in the cases where vas becomes ush; thus, जग्मिवस् (fr. गम् 'to go'): N. masc. जग्मिवान्, &c.; Ac. जग्मिवांसम्, जग्मिवांसौ, जग्मुषस्, &c.; I. जग्मुषा, &c.; V. जग्मिवन्, जग्मिवांसौ, &c.

b. Similarly, तेनिवस् (fr. तन् 'to stretch'): N. तेनिवान्, तेनिवांसौ, &c.; Ac. तेनिवांसम्, तेनिवांसौ, तेनुषस्, &c.; V. तेनिवन्, -वांसौ, &c.

c. But not when the i is part of the root; thus, चिचिवस् (fr. चि), निनीषस् (fr. नी) make in the Ac. pl. चिच्युषस्, निन्युषस्. चकृवस् (fr. कृ) makes, of course, चक्रुषस्.

d. The N. fem. of these Participles is formed from ush; and the N. Ac. neut. sing. du. pl. from vat, ush, and vas, respectively; thus, N. fem. विविदुषी, &c., declined like nadí at 105. Similarly, from the root तुप् comes तुतुपुषी (cf. τετυφυῖα). Those formed with ivas do not retain i in the feminine; thus, tenivas makes N. sing. masc. fem. neut. teniván, *tenushí, tenivat.

e. The root विद्, 'to know,' has an irregular Pres. Part. विद्वस् vidvas, used commonly as an adjective ('learned'), and declined exactly like विविद्वस् above, leaving out the reduplicated vi; thus, N. masc. विद्वान्, विद्वांसौ, विद्वांसस्; V. विद्वन्, &c. With reference to 308. a, it may be observed, that as a contracted Perfect of vid is used as a Present tense, so a contracted Participle of the Perfect is used as a Present Participle. The fem. is विदुषी, and the neut. विद्वत्.

169. पुंस् m., 'a male,' forms its V. sing. from पुमंस्, and its other Strong cases (135. b) from पुमांस्; but Ac. pl., and remaining Weakest cases, from पुंस्; and I. du., and remaining Middle cases, from पुम्; thus,

N. पुमान्, पुमांसौ, पुमांसस्; Ac. पुमांसम्, पुमांसौ, पुंसस्; I. पुंसा, पुम्भ्याम्, पुम्भिस्; D. पुंसे, &c.; Ab. पुंसस्, &c.; G. पुंसस्, पुंसोस्, पुंसाम्; L. पुंसि, पुंसोस्, पुंसु; V. पुमन्, पुमांसौ, &c.

170. उशनस् m., 'a name of the regent of the planet Śukra,' forms N. sing. उशना from a stem उशनन् (147). Similarly, पुरुदंशस् m. 'a name of Indra,' and अनेहस् m. 'time.' The other cases are regular; thus, N. du. उशनसौ. But उशनस् may be optionally in Voc. sing. उशनस् or उशन or उशनन्.

171. जरस् f., 'decay' (γῆρας), supplies its consonantal cases (viz. N. V. sing., I. D. Ab. du. pl., L. pl.) from जरा f. Its other cases may be either from जरस् or जरा; thus, N. sing. जरा; V. जरे; Ac. जरसम्† or जराम्; I. जरसा and जरया, जराभ्याम्, जराभिस्, &c.

* There seems, however, difference of opinion as to the rejection of i; and some grammarians make the feminine tenyushí.

† Since जरसम् certainly occurs, it may be inferred that the N. Ac. V. du. are जरसौ or जरे; N. Ac. V. pl. जरसस् or जरास्. These forms are given in the grammar of Íśvara-ćandra Vidyá-ságara, p. 51.

EIGHTH CLASS.—Stems ending in any consonant except त् t, द् d, न् n, स् s.

172. This class consists principally of roots used as nouns, either alone or at the end of compounds, or preceded by prepositions and adverbial prefixes. Stems ending in त् t or द् d, formed in this manner, are of common occurrence; but their declension falls under the fifth class at 136.

With regard to stems ending in other consonants which we place under the eighth class, the only difficulty in their declension arises from their euphonic combination with the consonantal terminations.

173. Whatever change of the final consonant takes place in Nom. sing. is preserved before all the consonantal terminations; provided only, that before such terminations the rules of Sandhi come into operation.

174. Before the vowel-terminations the final consonant of the stem, whatever it may be, is generally preserved. If in some nouns there is any peculiarity in the formation of the Ac. pl., the same peculiarity runs through the remaining Weakest or vowel cases.

The terminations themselves undergo no change, but the s of the Nom. sing. is of course cut off by 41. I (see, however, 135. b). There is generally but one form of declension for both masc. and fem.; the neuter follows the analogy of other nouns ending in consonants.

175. Stems ending in क् k, ख् kh, ग् g, घ् gh declined.

शक् m. f. 'one who is able' (in sarva-śak, 'omnipotent').

N. V.	शक् śak	शकौ śakau	शकस् śakas
Ac.	शकम् śakam	— śakau	— śakas
I.	शका śaká	शग्भ्याम् śagbhyám	शग्भिस् śagbhis
D.	शके śake	— śagbhyám	शग्भ्यस् śagbhyas
Ab.	शकस् śakas	— śagbhyám	— śagbhyas
G.	— śakas	शकोस् śakos	शकाम् śakám
L.	शकि śaki	— śakos	शक्षु śakshu

The neuter is N. Ac. V. शक्, शकी, शग्भि, &c.; the rest like the masc.

a. Similarly, लिख् 'one who paints' (in citra-likh, 'one who paints a picture'): N. V. लिक् (41. II, 41. I), लिखौ (174), लिखस्; Ac. लिखम्, &c.; I. लिखा, लिग्भ्याम्, लिग्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. लिक्षु.

The neuter is N. Ac. V. लिक्, लिखी, लिग्भि, &c.; the rest like the masc.

b. In the same way final ग्, घ् are changed to क्, and when final घ्, ढ्, ध्, भ्, ह् lose their aspirate form, the aspirate must be transferred to the initial, if that initial be ग्, ड्, द्, or ब् (see 44. c).

c. सुवल्ग् m.f., 'jumping well,' makes N.V. सुवल्क् (41. I), सुवल्गौ, &c.; Ac. सुवल्गाम्, &c.; I. सुवल्गा, सुवल्भ्याम्, &c.; D. सुवल्गे, &c.; Ab.G. सुवल्गास्, &c.; L. सुवल्गि, सुवल्गोस्, सुवल्षु (see 70). Neut. N. Ac. V. सुवल्क्, सुवल्गी, सुवल्ग्गि or (see 176. h) सुवल्गि.

176. Stems ending in च् ć, ह् ćh, ज् j, झ् jh declined.

Final च् is changed to क् or ग्; final ह् is changed to श्, which becomes ट् or ड् before the consonantal terminations; final ज् to क् (ग्) or ट् (ड्); and final झ्, which is rare, to क् or ग्, before the consonantal terminations (41. IV, 92. a).

वाच् f. 'speech' (fr. rt. वच्): N. V. वाक् (for váks, 41. I; vox, ὄψ), वाचौ (ὄπε), वाचस् (voces, ὄπες); Ac. वाचम् (vocem), वाचौ, वाचस् (ὄπας); I. वाचा, वाग्भ्याम्, वाग्भिस्; D. वाचे, वाग्भ्याम्, वाग्भ्यस्; Ab. वाचस्, वाग्भ्याम्, वाग्भ्यस्; G. वाचस्, वाचोस्, वाचाम्; L. वाचि (ὀπί), वाचोस्, वाक्षु. Compare Latin vox, and Greek ὄψ or ὀπ for Fοπ throughout.

Similarly, मुच् 'a liberator:' N.V. मुक्, मुचौ, मुचस्.

भुज् m. f. 'one who eats:' N. V. भुक्, भुजौ, भुजस्; Ac. भुजम्, &c.; I. भुजा, भुग्भ्याम्, भुग्भिस्, &c.

प्राज् m. f. 'an asker' (fr. rt. प्रच्): N. V. प्राट्, प्राशौ, प्राशस्; Ac. प्राशम्, &c.; I. प्राशा, प्राड्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. प्राट्सु.

The root भज् becomes भाज् (just as vać becomes váć); e.g. N. V. भाक् m. f. n. 'a sharer.'

a. The neuters are thus formed: N. Ac. V. वाक्, वाची, वाञ्चि, &c. (as in सुवाच् 'speaking well'); भुक्, भुजी, भुञ्जि, &c.; प्राट्, प्राशी, प्राञ्छि, &c.

b. The root अञ्च् añć, 'to go,' preceded by certain prepositions and adverbial prefixes, forms a few irregular nouns (such as प्राच् 'eastern'), and is found at the end of a few compounds after words ending in a; such as अधराच् 'tending downwards,' &c. These all reject the nasal in the Ac. pl. and remaining cases masculine. In Nom. sing. the final च् ć being changed to क् k, causes the preceding nasal to take the guttural form, and the क् is rejected by 41. I. In the Ac. pl., and remaining Weakest cases, there is a further modification of the stem in the case of प्रत्यच्, &c.

प्राच् m. 'eastern,' 'going before:' N. V. प्राङ्, प्राञ्चौ, प्राचस्; Ac. प्राचम्, प्राञ्चौ, प्राचस्; I. प्राचा, प्राग्भ्याम्, प्राग्भिस्; D. प्राचे, &c.; L. pl. प्राक्षु. Similarly, अवाच् m. 'southern.'

प्रत्यच् m. 'western:' N. V. प्रत्यङ्, प्रत्यञ्चौ, प्रत्यचस्; Ac. प्रत्यचम्, प्रत्यञ्चौ, प्रतीचस्; I. प्रतीचा, प्रत्यग्भ्याम्, प्रत्यग्भिस्; D. प्रतीचे, &c. Similarly, सम्यच् 'going with,' 'fit,' and even उदच् 'northern,' which make in Ac. pl., and remaining Weakest cases, समीचस्, उदीचस्.

So also, विष्वच्, 'going everywhere,' forms its Ac. pl., and remaining Weakest cases, fr. a stem विषूच्, making विषूचस्, &c.

Analogously, तिर्यच् 'going crookedly,' 'an animal,' forms its Weakest cases fr. a stem तिरश्च्, making Ac. pl. तिरश्चस्, &c.

The feminine form and the neut. du. of these nouns follow the analogy of the Ac. pl.; thus, N. fem. प्राची &c., अवाची &c., प्रतीची &c., उदीची &c., समीची &c., तिरश्ची &c., declined like नदी.

The neuter is N. Ac. V. प्राक्, प्राची, प्राचि, &c.; प्रत्यक्, प्रतीची, प्रत्यचि, &c.

c. प्राच्, when it signifies 'worshipping,' retains the nasal, which has become guttural, throughout; but ć, which has become k, is rejected before the consonantal terminations; thus,

N. V. प्राङ्, प्राञ्चौ, &c.; Ac. प्राञ्चम्, &c.; I. प्राञ्चा, प्राङ्भ्याम्, &c.

Similarly, क्रुञ्च् 'a curlew:' N. V. क्रुङ्, क्रुञ्चौ, &c.; Ac. क्रुञ्चम्, &c.; I. क्रुञ्चा, क्रुङ्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. क्रुङ्षु or क्रुञ्चु (55. b).

d. असृज् n., 'blood,' is regular; thus, N. Ac. V. असृक्, असृजी, असृञ्जि, &c.; but it may optionally take its Ac. pl. and remaining inflexions from a defective stem, असन् asan; thus, N. V. pl. असृञ्जि; Ac. pl. असृञ्जि or असानि; I. असृजा or असा, असृग्भ्याम् or असभ्याम्, &c.; L. असृजि or असनि or असृक्षि, &c.

e. Nouns formed with the roots यज् 'to worship,' राज् 'to shine,' मृज् 'to rub,' भ्राज् 'to shine,' भ्रज्ज् 'to fry,' व्रज् 'to wander,' सृज् 'to create,' generally change the final ज् to ट् or ड् before the consonantal terminations; thus, देवेज् m. 'a worshipper of the gods' (यज् becoming इज्): N. V. sing. देवेट्. Similarly, राज् m. 'a ruler:' N. sing. राट्; I. राजा, राड्भ्याम्, &c. So also, परिमृज् 'a cleanser:' N. sing. परिमृट्. So also, विभ्राज् m. f. 'splendid:' N. sing. विभ्राट्. Similarly, परिव्राज् m. 'a religious mendicant' (व्रज् becoming व्राज्): N. sing. परिव्राट्. So also, विश्वसृज् m. 'the creator of the world:' N. sing. विश्वसृट्.

But विश्व when it precedes राज्, as in विश्वराज् m. 'a universal ruler,' becomes विश्वा wherever ज् becomes ट् or ड्; thus, N. विश्वाराट्, विश्वराजौ, &c.

ऋत्विज् m., 'a priest' (ऋतु + इज् for यज्), is regular: N. V. ऋत्विक्.

f. अवयाज् m. 'a kind of priest,' 'part of a sacrifice,' forms the consonantal cases from an obsolete stem, अवयस्: N. V. sing. du. pl. अवयाः, -याजौ, -याजस्; Ac. -याजम्, &c.; I. -याजा, -योभ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. अवयस्सु or अवयःसु.

g. भ्रज्ज्, 'one who fries,' may take भृज्ज् for its stem, and make N. V. भृट्, भृज्जौ, भृज्जस्; Ac. भृज्जम्, &c. Similarly, व्रश्च्, 'one who cuts,' makes, according to some, वृट्, &c., and not व्रट्, &c.; but others allow vraṭ.

h. ऊर्ज् f., 'strength,' makes N. V. ऊर्क् (41. I. Obs.), &c.; Ac. ऊर्जम्, &c.; I. ऊर्जा, ऊर्ग्भ्याम्, &c. At the end of a comp. the neuter is N. Ac. V. úrk, úrji, únrji. But in these cases where a word ends in a conjunct consonant, the first member of which is r or l, the nasal may be optionally omitted in the plural, so that úrji would be equally correct.

i. खञ्ज्, 'lame,' makes N. खन्, खञ्जौ, खञ्जस्; I. pl. खन्भिस्; L. pl. खन्सु.

177. Stems ending in थ् th, ध् dh declined.

The final aspirate is changed to its unaspirated form before the consonantal terminations (41. II, 43), but not before the vowel (43. d). कथ् m. f. 'one who tells:' N. V. कत्, कथौ, कथस्; Ac. कथम्, &c.; I. कथा, कद्भ्याम्, &c.

So also, युध् f. 'battle:' N. V. युत्, युधौ, युधस्; Ac. युधम्, &c.; I. युधा, युद्भ्याम्, &c.

In the case of बुध् m. f., 'one who knows,' the initial ब् b becomes भ् bh wherever the final ध् dh becomes t or d, by 175. b. and 44. c; thus, N. V. भुत्, बुधौ, बुधस्; Ac. बुधम्, &c.; I. बुधा, भुद्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. भुत्सु.

a. The neuter is N. Ac. V. कत्, कधी, कन्धि, &c.; युत्, युधी, युन्धि, &c.

178. Stems ending in प् p, फ् ph, ब् b, भ् bh declined.

गुप् m. f. 'one who defends:' N. V. गुप्, गुपौ, गुपस्; Ac. गुपम्, &c.; I. गुपा, गुब्भ्याम्, गुब्भिस्, &c.

लभ् m. f. 'one who obtains:' N. V. लप्, लभौ, लभस्; Ac. लभम्, &c.; I. लभा, लब्भ्याम्, लब्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. लप्सु.

a. The neuter is N. Ac. V. गुप्, गुपी, गुम्पि, &c.; लप्, लभी, लम्भि, &c.

b. अप् f. 'water,' declined in the plural only, substitutes t (d) for its final before bh; thus, N. V. आपस्; Ac. अपस्; I. अद्भिस्; D. Ab. अद्भ्यस्; G. अपाम्; L. अप्सु. In the Veda it is sometimes singular.

179. Stems ending in म् m declined.

The final m becomes n before the consonantal terminations. शम् śam, m. f. 'one who pacifies:' N. V. शन्, शमौ, शमस्; Ac. शमम्, &c.; I. शमा, शन्भ्याम्, शन्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. शन्सु.

a. Similarly, प्रशाम् m. f., 'quiet,' makes N. V. प्रशान्, प्रशामौ, प्रशामस्; Ac. प्रशामम्, &c.; I. प्रशामा, प्रशान्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. प्रशान्सु or प्रशान्त्सु. Compare 53. e.

b. The neuter is N. Ac. V. शन्, शमी, शमि, &c.; प्रशान्, -शमी, -शामि, &c.

180. Stems ending in र् r and व् v declined.

If the vowel that precedes final r be i or u, it is lengthened before the consonantal terminations (compare 166); and final r, being a radical letter, does not become Visarga before the s of the Loc. pl. (71. b).

चर् m. f. 'one who goes:' N. V. चर्, चरौ, चरस्; Ac. चरम्, &c.; I. चरा, चर्भ्याम्, चर्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. चर्षु.

द्वार् f. 'a door:' N. V. द्वार्, द्वारौ, द्वारस्, &c.

गिर् f. 'speech:' N. V. गीर्, गिरौ, गिरस्; Ac. गिरम्, &c.; I. गिरा, गीर्भ्याम्, गीर्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. गीर्षु.

a. The neuter is N. Ac. V. चर्, चरी, चरि, &c.; गीर्, गिरी, गिरि, &c.

So also, वार् n. 'water:' N. Ac. वार्, वारी, वारि.

b. One irregular noun ending in व् v, viz. दिव् f. 'the sky,' forms its N. V. sing. from द्यो (133. a), and becomes द्यु in the other consonantal cases; thus,

N. V. द्यौस्, दिवौ, दिवस्; Ac. दिवम्, दिवौ, दिवस्; I. दिवा, द्युभ्याम्, &c.

Similarly, सुदिव् m. f. 'having a good sky,' but the neuter is N. Ac. V. सुद्यु, सुदिवी, सुदीवि.

181. Stems ending in श् ś and ष् sh declined.

The difficulty in these is to determine which stems change their finals to क् and which to ट् (see 41. V). In the roots दिश्, दृश्, मृश्, स्पृश्, and भ्रस्ज् (the last forming

विश् m. f. 'one who enters,' or 'a man of the mercantile and agricultural class:' N. V. विट् (41. V), विशौ, विशस्; Ac. विशम्, &c.; I. विशा, विड्भ्याम्, &c. दिश् f. 'a quarter of the sky:' N. V. दिक् (41. V, 24), दिशौ, दिशस्; Ac. दिशम्, &c.; I. दिशा, दिग्भ्याम्, &c. द्विष् m. f. 'one who hates:' N. V. द्विट् (41. V), द्विषौ, द्विषस्; Ac. द्विषम्, &c.; I. द्विषा, द्विड्भ्याम्, &c. मृष् m. f. 'one who endures:' N. V. मृट् (41. V), मृषौ, मृषस्; Ac. मृषम्, &c.; I. मृषा, मृड्भ्याम्, &c. स्पृश् 'one who touches:' N. V. स्पृक्, स्पृशौ, स्पृशस्, &c.

The neuters are N. Ac. V. विट्, विशी, विंशि, &c.; दिक्, दिशी, दिंशि, &c.; द्विट्, द्विषी, द्विंषि, &c.; मृट्, मृषी, मृंषि, &c.

a. पुरोडाश् 'a priest,' in the Veda, makes N. V. sing. पुरोडास्, and forms its other consonantal cases from an obsolete stem, पुरोडस्. Compare 176. f.

b. सुहिंस् m. f., 'very injurious,' makes N. V. सुहिन्, सुहिंसौ, &c.; Ac. सुहिंसम्, &c.; I. सुहिंसा, सुहिन्भ्याम्, &c. But nouns ending in स्, preceded by vowels, fall under 163.

c. गोरक्ष्, 'a cow-keeper,' makes N. V. गोरक् or गोरट्, गोरक्षौ, &c.

d. Similarly, nouns from Desiderative stems, like पिपक्ष् 'desirous of cooking,' and विवक्ष् 'desirous of saying,' make N. V. पिपक्, पिपक्षौ, &c.; विवक्, विवक्षौ, &c. (see 166. a).

182. Stems ending in ह् h declined.

In stems beginning with द् d, the final aspirate generally becomes क् k (ग् g), in other stems ट् ṭ (ड् ḍ), before the consonantal terminations; and in stems whose initial is द् d or ग् g, the loss of the h, which disappears as a final, is compensated for by aspirating the initial, which becomes dh or gh wherever final h becomes k (g) or ṭ (ḍ). See 44. c, 175. b. लिह् m. f. 'one who licks:' N. V. लिट् (41. III), लिहौ, लिहस्; Ac. लिहम्, &c.; I. लिहा, लिड्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. लिट्सु or लिट्त्सु. दुह् m. f. 'one who milks:' N. V. धुक्, दुहौ, दुहस्; Ac. दुहम्, &c.; I. दुहा, धुग्भ्याम्, धुग्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. धुक्षु.

The neuter is N. Ac. V. लिट्, लिही, लिंहि, &c.; धुक्, दुही, दुंहि, &c.

a. But द्रुह् m. f., 'injuring,' makes N. धुक् or धुट् (44. c); I. द्रुहा, धुग्भ्याम् or धुड्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. धुक्षु or धुट्सु. Similarly, मुह् m. f. 'infatuating:' N. मुक् or मुट्.

The same option is allowed in स्निह् 'one who loves' and ष्णुह् 'one who vomits.'

b. उष्णिह् f., 'a kind of metre,' changes its final to k (g) before the consonantal terminations, like stems beginning with d: N. उष्णिक्, उष्णिहौ, &c.

c. वाह्, 'bearing' (fr. rt. वह् 'to bear'), changes वा to उ ú in Ac. pl. and remaining Weakest cases (and before the ई í of the fem.) if the word that precedes it in the compound ends in a or á: this a or á combining with ú into औ au (instead of ओ o, by 32); thus,

भारवाह् m. f. 'a burden-bearer:' N. V. masc. भारवाट् भारवाहौ, भारवाहस्; Ac. भारवाहम्, भारवाहौ, भारौहस्; I. भारौहा, भारवाड्भ्याम्, &c. N. fem. भारौही, &c. So प्रष्ठवाह् m. 'a steer' and विश्ववाह् 'all-sustaining.' Under other circumstances the change of váh to úh is optional; thus, शालिवाह्, 'bearing rice,' makes in Ac. pl. शाल्यूहस् or शालिवाहस्.

d. श्वेतवाह् m., 'Indra' ('borne by white horses'), may optionally retain वा in Ac. pl. &c.; and in consonantal cases is declined as if the stem were श्वेतवस्; thus, N. V. श्वेतवास्, श्वेतवाहौ, श्वेतवाहस्; Ac. श्वेतवाहम्, श्वेतवाहौ, श्वेतौहस् or श्वेतवाहस्; I. श्वेतौहा or श्वेतवाहा, श्वेतवोभ्याम्, श्वेतवोभिस्, &c.

e. In तुरासाह्, 'a name of Indra,' the स् is changed to ष् wherever ह् becomes ट् or ड्: N. तुरषाट्, तुरासाहौ, तुरासाहस्; Ac. तुरासाहम्, &c.; I. तुरासाहा, तुरषाड्भ्याम्, &c.

f. अनडुह् m., 'an ox' (for अनोवाह् fr. अनस् 'a cart' and वाह् 'bearing'), forms the N. V. sing. from अनड्वत्; the other Strong cases from अनड्वाह्, and the Middle cases from अनडुत्; thus, N. अनड्वान्, अनड्वाहौ, अनड्वाहस्; Ac. अनड्वाहम्, अनड्वाहौ, अनडुहस्; I. अनडुहा, अनडुद्भ्याम्, अनडुद्भिस्, &c.; L. pl. अनडुत्सु; V. अनड्वन्. There is a feminine form अनड्वाही, but at the end of compounds this word makes fem. N. sing. अनडुही; neut. N. V. अनडुत्, अनडुही, अनड्वांहि.

183. नह् 'binding,' 'tying,' at the end of compounds, changes the final to त् or द्, instead of ट् or ड्; thus, उपानह् f., 'a shoe,' makes N. V. उपानत्, उपानहौ, उपानहस्; Ac. उपानहम्, &c.; I. उपानहा, उपानद्भ्याम्, &c.; L. pl. उपानत्सु. See 306. b.

Defective Nouns.

184. The following nouns are said to be defective in the first five inflexions, in which cases they make use of other nouns (see Páṇ. VI. 1, 63): असन् n. (176. d); आसन् n. (108. e); उदन् n. (108. e); दत् m. (108. e); दोषन् n. m. (166. d); नस् f. (108. e); निश् f. (108. e); पद् m. (108. e); पृत् f. (108. e); मांस् n. (108. e); मास् m. (108. e); यकन् n. (144, 156. c); यूषन् m. (108. e); शकन् n. (144, 156. c); शीर्षन् n. (156. b); सु n. (116. a); हृद् n. (108. e).

185. Examples of nouns defective in other cases are अहन् n. (156); क्रोष्टु m. (128. c); जरस् f. (171).

SECTION III.—ADJECTIVES.

186. The declension of substantives includes that of adjectives; and, as already seen, the three examples of substantives, given under each class, serve as the model for the three genders of adjectives falling under the same class. Adjectives may be grouped under three heads, A, B, C, as follow:

A. Simple adjectives, coming immediately from roots, and not derived from substantives. These belong chiefly to the first, second, and third classes of nouns (see 80. A, 81. A, 82. A, 103–115).

B. Adjectives formed from substantives by secondary or Taddhita suffixes. They belong chiefly to the first, fifth, and sixth classes of nouns (see 80. B, 84. B, 85. B, 103, 140, 159).

C. Compound adjectives, formed by using roots and substantives at the end of compounds. These are common under every one of the eight classes.

187. A. Examples of Simple Adjectives.

शुभ śubha, 'beautiful,' 'good:' masc. and neut. stem शुभ śubha; fem. stem शुभा śubhá.

An example of an adjective of cl. 1 is here given in full, that the declension of the masc., fem., and neut. forms may be seen at once and compared with that of Latin adjectives in us, like bonus, 'good.' The fem. of some of these adjectives is in í, and then follows nadí at 105. In the succeeding examples only the Nom. cases sing. will be given.

DEGREES OF COMPARISON.

191. The degrees of comparison are formed in two ways:

1st, by adding to the stem तर tara (= Gr. -τερο-ς) for the comparative (see 80. LXI), and तम tama (= Lat. -timu-s, Gr. -τατο-ς) for the superlative (see 80. LIX), both of which suffixes are declined in m. f. n. like śubha at 187; thus,

पुण्य puṇya, 'holy,' पुण्यतर puṇya-tara (Nom. m. f. n. as, á, am), 'more holy,' पुण्यतम puṇya-tama (Nom. m. f. n. as, á, am), 'most holy.' Similarly, धनवत् dha- navat, 'wealthy,' धनवत्तर dhanavat-tara, 'more wealthy,' धनवत्तम dhanavat-tama, 'most wealthy.'

a. A final n is rejected; as, धनिन् dhanin, 'rich,' धनितर dhani-tara, 'more rich,' धनितम dhani-tama, 'most rich.'

b. विद्वस्, 'wise,' makes विद्वत्तर, विद्वत्तम. Compare 168. e.

192. 2ndly, by adding ईयस् íyas (Nom. m. f. n. -íyán, -íyasí, -íyas, see declension below, cf. Gr. ιων) for the comparative (see 86. V), and इष्ठ ishṭha (Nom. m. f. n. -ishṭhas, -ishṭhá, -ishṭham, declined like śubha at 187, cf. Gr. -ιστος) for the superlative (see 80. XLVIII).

Obs.—The difference in the use of tara, tama, and íyas, ishṭha, seems to be this—that íyas and ishṭha, being of the nature of primary suffixes, are generally added to roots or to modifications of roots (the root being sometimes weakened, sometimes gunated), while tara and tama are of more general application.

a. Note, that while the Sanskṛit comparative suffix ends in n and s (íyans) for the Strong cases, the Greek has adhered to the n throughout (N. íyán = ιων, Voc. íyan = ιον); and the Latin has taken the s for its neuter (íyas = ius, neuter of ior; s being changed to r, in the masc. and oblique cases). Cf. Sk. garíyas with Lat. gravius.

193. Before íyas and ishṭha, the stem generally disburdens itself of a final vowel, or of the more weighty suffixes in, vin, vat, mat, and ṭri; thus, बलिन् 'strong,' बलीयस् 'more strong,' बलिष्ठ 'strongest;' पापिन् 'wicked,' पापीयस् 'more wicked,' पापिष्ठ 'most wicked;' लघु 'light,' लघीयस् 'lighter,' लघिष्ठ 'lightest;' मेधाविन् 'intelligent,' मेधीयस् 'more intelligent,' मेधिष्ठ 'most intelligent.' Similarly, महत् 'great,' महीयस् 'greater,' महिष्ठ 'greatest.'

a. Compare स्वादीयान् (N. of svádíyas) from svádu, 'sweet,' with ἡδ-ίων from ἡδύς; and स्वादिष्टस् with ἥδ-ιστος.

The declension of बलीयस् masc. is here given in full (see 167).

बलीयसी fem. is like nadí (105), and बलीयस् neut. like manas (164).

194. Besides the rejection of the final, the stem often undergoes change, as in Greek (cf. ἐχθίων, ἔχθιστος, fr. ἐχθρός); and its place is sometimes supplied by a substitute (cf. βελτίων, βέλτιστος, fr. ἀγαθός).

* अल्प may be also regularly अल्पीयस्, अल्पिष्ठ; and ऋजु may be रजीयस्, &c.

† In the case of अ and प्र the final vowel is not rejected, but combines with íyas and ishṭha agreeably to Sandhi. In ज्या and भू, yas is affixed in place of íyas.

195. Tara and tama may be added to substantives; as, fr. राजन्, 'a king,' राजतर, &c.; fr. दुःख, 'pain,' दुःखतर, &c. If added to a word like सर्पिस्, 'clarified butter,' the usual euphonic changes must take place; thus, सर्पिष्टर, &c. (70).

These suffixes are also added to inseparable prepositions; as, उत् 'up,' उत्तर 'higher,' उत्तम 'highest' (cf. Lat. ex-timus, in-timus, &c.); also to pronominal stems (236); and tama is added to numerals (209, 211).

196. Tará and tamá may sometimes be added to feminine stems ending in í and ú (like स्त्री 'a woman,' सती 'a faithful wife,' विदुषी 'a wise woman'), which may optionally be retained or shortened; e.g. स्त्रीतरा, स्त्रीतमा, or स्त्रितरा, स्त्रितमा; सतीतरा, सतीतमा, or सतितरा, सतितमा; विदुषीतमा or विदुषितमा (Pán. VI. 3, 44. 45).

But if the feminine be the feminine of a masculine substantive, as ब्राह्मणी of ब्राह्मण, the shortening is compulsory, as ब्राह्मणितरा (Pán. VI. 3, 42).

197. Tara and tama may even be added, in conjunction with the syllable आम् ám, to the inflexions of verbs; as, जल्पितरताम् 'he talks more than he ought.' See So. LIX, LXI.

a. Sometimes íyas and tara, ishṭha and tama are combined together in the same word (just as in English we say lesser); thus, श्रेयस्तर, श्रेष्ठतम; ज्येष्ठतम; नेदिष्ठतम, &c.: and tara may be even added to ishṭha; thus, ज्येष्ठतर.

199. The intervening numbers between 100 and 1000, those between 1000 and 2000, and so on, may be expressed by compounding the adjective अधिक adhika (or occasionally उत्तर uttara), 'more,' 'plus,' with the cardinal numbers; thus 101 is एकशतम् (see above) or एकाधिकं शतम् (or occasionally एकोत्तरं शतम्), i.e. 'a hundred plus one,' or compounded thus, एकाधिकशतम्. Similarly, द्व्यधिकं शतम् or द्व्यधिकशतम् 102; त्र्यधिकं शतम् or त्र्यधिकशतम् 103; सप्ताधिकं शतम् or सप्तोत्तरं शतम् 107; त्रिंशदधिकशतम् 130; पञ्चाशदधिकशतम् 150 (also expressed by सार्धशतम् 'one hundred and a half'); षड्विंशत्यधिकद्विशतम् 226; त्र्यशीत्यधिकत्रिशतम् 383; पञ्चाशीत्यधिकचतुःशतम् 485; षण्णवत्यधिकपञ्चशतम् 596; षट्षष्ट्यधिकषट्शतम् 666; षष्ट्यधिकसहस्रम् or षष्ट्युत्तरसहस्रम् 1060; षोडशशतम् or षट्शताधिकसहस्रम् 1600; षट्षष्ट्यधिकषोडशशतम् 1666‡.

* I have found शतं शताः 'a hundred hundred' and सप्तशताः 'seven hundred' (agreeing with वाणाः) in the Mahá-bhárata.

† चतुःसहस्रम् is used in Ṛig-veda V. 30, 15 for 4000; and on the same principle त्रिसहस्रम् might stand for 3000, and द्विसहस्रम् for 2000, &c.; but it is a question whether these might not also stand for 1004, 1003, 1002 respectively.

‡ Similarly 2130 may be expressed by त्रिंशदधिकैकत्रिंशतिशतम् or -शतानि or by using पर; thus, त्रिंशदधिकैकशतपरे द्वे सहस्रे. Other forms of expressing numerals are also found; e.g. 21,870 सहस्राण्येकत्रिंशतिः शतान्यष्टौ भूयश्च सप्ततिः; 109,350 शतसहस्रं नव सहस्राणि पञ्चाशच्छतानि त्रीणि. According to Páṇ. VI. 3, 76, एकान्न may be prefixed to a number in the sense 'by one not,' 'less by one;' e.g. एकान्नविंशति 'by one not twenty,' 'one less than twenty,' i.e. 19.

In the same way the adjective ऊन 'less,' 'minus,' is often placed before a cardinal number, to denote one less than that number, एक 'one' being either expressed or understood; thus, ऊनविंशति or एकोनविंशति 'twenty minus one' or 'nineteen' (cf. Lat. undeviginti, i. e. unus de viginti). And other cardinals, besides एक 'one,' are sometimes prefixed to ऊन, to denote that they are to be subtracted from a following number; as, पञ्चोनं शतम् or पञ्चोनशतम् 'a hundred less five' or 'ninety-five.'

a. Again, the ordinals are sometimes joined to the cardinals to express 111 and upwards; thus, एकादशं शतम् or एकादशशतम् 111; पञ्चदशं शतम् 115; विंशं शतम् 120; त्रिंशं शतम् or त्रिंशशतम् 130; पञ्चाशं शतम् 150; चतुर्णवतं शतम् 194; पञ्चदशं द्विशतम् 215; विंशं सहस्रम् or विंशसहस्रम् 1020.

b. There are single words for the highest numbers; thus, अयुत n. (also m.) 'ten thousand;' लक्ष n. or लक्षा f. or नियुत n. (also m.) 'a lac,' 'one hundred thousand' (शतसहस्र); प्रयुत n. (also m.) 'one million;' कोटि f. 'a krore,' 'ten millions;' अर्बुद m. n. 'one hundred millions;' महार्बुद m. n. or पद्म n. or अब्ज n. 'one thousand millions;' खर्व n. 'ten thousand millions;' निखर्व n. 'one hundred thousand millions;' महापद्म n. 'a billion;' शङ्कु m. (or महाखर्व n.) 'ten billions;' शङ्कु m. n. or समुद्र m. 'a hundred billions;' महाशङ्कु m. n. or अन्त्य 'a thousand billions;' हार्हा m. or मध्य 'ten thousand billions;' महाहार्हा m. or परार्ध m. 'one hundred thousand billions;' धुन n. (धुल) 'one million billions;' महाधुन n. (महाधुल) 'ten million billions;' अक्षौहिणी f. 'one hundred million billions;' महाक्षौहिणी 'one thousand million billions.'

Note—Some variation occurs in some of the above names for high numbers, according to different authorities.

DECLENSION OF CARDINALS.

200. एक 1, द्वि 2 (duo, δύο), त्रि 3 (tres, τρεῖς, τρία), चतुर् 4 (quatuor), are declined in three genders.

एक eka, 'one' (no dual), follows the declension of the pronominals at 237: Nom. m. एकस् ekas; Dat. m. एकस्मै ekasmai; Nom. f. एका ekā; Dat. f. एकस्यै ekasyai; Nom. n. एकम् ekam; Nom. pl. m. एके eke, 'some.' It may take the suffixes tara and tama; thus, eka-tara, 'one of two;' eka-tama, 'one of many;' which also follow the declension of pronominals; see 236, 238.

201. द्वि dvi, 'two' (dual only), is declined as if the stem were द्व dva, like śiva; thus, N. Ac. V. m. द्वौ dvau, f. n. द्वे dve; I. D. Ab. m. f. n. द्वाभ्याम्; G. L. द्वयोस्.

202. त्रि tri, 'three' (pl. only), is declined in the masculine like the plural of nouns whose stems end in इ i at 110, except in Gen.; thus, N. V. masc. त्रयस्; Ac. त्रीन्; I. त्रिभिस्; D. Ab. त्रिभ्यस्; G. त्रयाणाम् (Ved. त्रीणाम्); L. त्रिषु. The feminine forms its cases from a stem तिसृ; thus, N. Ac. V. fem. तिस्रस्; I. तिसृभिस्; D. Ab. तिसृभ्यस्; G. तिसृणाम्; L. तिसृषु. The N. Ac. V. neut. is त्रीणि; the rest like masc.

203. चतुर् ćatur, 'four' (plural only), is thus declined: N. V. masc. चत्वारस् (τέτταρες, τέσσαρες); Ac. चतुरस्; I. चतुर्भिस्; D. Ab. चतुर्भ्यस्; G. चतुर्णाम्; L. चतुर्षु. N. Ac. V. fem. चतस्रस्; I. चतसृभिस्; D. Ab. चतसृभ्यस्; G. चतसृणाम्; L. चतसृषु. N. Ac. V. neut. चत्वारि; the rest like the masculine.

a. In ćatur, shash, pañćan, &c., an augment n is inserted before ám, the termination of Gen., by Pán. VII. 1, 55.

204. पञ्चन् pañćan, 'five' (plural only), is the same for masc., fem., and neut. It is declined in I. D. Ab. L. like nouns in an (146). The Gen. lengthens the penultimate; thus, N. Ac. V. पञ्च (πέντε); I. पञ्चभिस्; D. Ab. पञ्चभ्यस्; G. पञ्चानाम्; L. पञ्चसु.

Like पञ्चन् are declined, सप्तन् 'seven' (septem, ἑπτά), नवन् 'nine' (novem), दशन् 'ten' (decem, δέκα), एकादशन् 'eleven' (undecim), द्वादशन् 'twelve' (duodecim), and all other numerals ending in an, excepting अष्टन् 'eight.'

205. षष् shash, 'six,' is the same for masc., fem., and neut., and is thus declined: N. Ac. V. षट्; I. षड्भिस्; D. Ab. षड्भ्यस्; G. षण्णाम् shaṇṇám (43. f); L. षट्सु.

a. Similarly without distinction of gender, अष्टन् ashṭan, 'eight:' N. Ac. V. अष्टौ or अष्ट (octo, ὀκτώ); I. अष्टाभिस् or अष्टभिस्; D. Ab. अष्टाभ्यस् or अष्टभ्यस्; G. अष्टानाम्; L. अष्टासु or अष्टसु.

b. The numerals from पञ्चन् 'five' to नवदशन् 'nineteen' have no distinction of gender, but agree in number and case with the nouns to which they are joined; thus, पञ्चभिर् नारीभिस् 'by five women.'

206. All the remaining cardinal numbers, from ऊनविंशति 'nineteen' to शत 'a hundred,' सहस्र 'a thousand,' and upwards, may be declined in the singular, even when joined with masculine, feminine, or neuter nouns in the plural. Those ending in ति ti are feminine, and declined like मति mati at 112; and those in त् t are also feminine, and declined like सरित् sarit at 136; thus, विंशत्या पुरुषैस् 'by twenty men;' विंशतिं नरान् acc. pl. 'twenty men;' त्रिंशता पुरुषैस् 'by thirty men;' त्रिंशतं नरान् acc. pl. 'thirty men.' शत 'a hundred' and सहस्र 'a thousand' and all the higher numbers are declined according to their final vowels, whether a, á, i, í, or u; thus, शतं पितरः 'a hundred ancestors;' शतात् पितृभ्यः 'from a hundred ancestors;' एकाधिकशतं पितरः 'a hundred and one ancestors;' सहस्रेण पितृभिः 'with a thousand ancestors;' प्रयुतं नराः 'a million men;' कोट्या पुरुषैः 'with ten million men,' &c.

207. Although these numerals, from ऊनविंशति 'nineteen,' when joined with plural nouns, may be declined in the singular, yet they may take a dual or plural when used alone and in particular constructions; as, विंशती 'two twenties;' त्रिंशतौ 'two thirties;' त्रिंशतस् 'many thirties;' शते 'two hundred;' शतानि 'hundreds;' सहस्राणि 'thousands;' 'sixty thousand sons,' षष्टिः पुत्रसहस्राणि.

The things numbered are often put in the genitive; thus, द्वे सहस्रे रथानाम् 'two thousand chariots;' सप्तशतानि नागानाम् 'seven hundred elephants;' एकविंशतिः शराणाम् 'twenty-one arrows.' See other examples in Syntax at 835.

ORDINALS.

208. The ordinals are, प्रथम 'first'* (cf. πρῶτος, primus); द्वितीय 'second' (δεύτερο-ς); तृतीय 'third' (tertiu-s); which three are all declined like śiva and śubha at 187; but the first may optionally follow sarva at 237 in N. V. pl. m. (प्रथमे or प्रथमास्); and the other two the pronominals at 237, 238 in D. Ab. L. sing. m. f. n.; thus, D. द्वितीयस्मै or द्वितीयाय m. n., द्वितीयस्यै or द्वितीयायै f. See also 239.

209. चतुर्थ 'fourth'† (τέταρτος); पञ्चम 'fifth;' षष्ठ 'sixth;' सप्तम 'seventh' (septimus); अष्टम 'eighth;' नवम 'ninth' (nonus); दशम 'tenth' (decimus); declined like śiva and śubha for masc. and neut., and like nadí at 105 for feminine; thus, Nom. m. चतुर्थस्, f. चतुर्थी. (In पञ्चम &c. the old superlative suffix ma may be noted.)

210. The ordinals from 'eleventh' to 'nineteenth' are formed from the cardinals by rejecting the final n; thus, from एकादशन् 'eleven,' एकादश 'eleventh' (Nom. m. f. n. एकादशस्, -शी, -शम्, 103, 105, 104).

211. 'Twentieth,' 'thirtieth,' 'fortieth,' and 'fiftieth' are formed either by adding the superlative suffix tama (195) to the cardinal, or by rejecting the final syllable or letter of the cardinal; as, from विंशति 'twenty,' विंशतितम or विंश 'twentieth' (Nom. m. f. n. -मस्, -मी, -मम्; -शस्, -शी, -शम्, 103, 105, 104). Similarly, त्रिंशत्तम or त्रिंश 'thirtieth,' पञ्चाशत्तम or पञ्चाश 'fiftieth,' &c. The intermediate ordinals are formed by prefixing the numeral, as in the cardinals; thus, एकविंशतितम or एकविंश 'twenty-first,' &c.

* Other adjectives may be used to express 'first;' as, आद्यस्, -द्या, -द्यम्; आदिमस्, -मा, -मम्; अग्रस्, -ग्रा, -ग्रम्; अग्रिमस्, -मा, -मम्.

† तुरीयस्, -या, -यम्; तुर्यस्, -र्या, -र्यम् are also used for 'fourth.'

212. The other ordinals, from 'sixtieth' to 'ninetieth,' are formed by adding tama; also by changing ti to ta in the case of another numeral preceding, but not otherwise; thus, from षष्टि 'sixty,' षष्टितम 'sixtieth;' but षष्ट for 'sixtieth' can only be used when another numeral precedes, as एकषष्ट or एकषष्टितम 'sixty-first,' त्रिषष्ट or त्रिषष्टितम 'sixty-third;' from नवति 'ninety,' नवतितम 'ninetieth;' but नवत for 'ninetieth' can only be used when another numeral precedes (see Páṇ. v. 2, 58).

213. 'Hundredth' and 'thousandth' are formed by adding tama to शत and सहस्र, declinable in three genders; thus, शततम 'hundredth' (Nom. m. f. n. शततमस्, -मी, -मम्). Similarly, सहस्रतमस्, -मी, -मम्, 'thousandth.'

214. The aggregation of two or more numbers is expressed by modifications of the ordinal numbers; thus, द्वयम् 'a duad,' त्रयम् 'a triad,' चतुष्टयम् 'the aggregate of four.'

215. There are a few adverbial numerals; as, सकृत् 'once,' द्विस् 'twice,' त्रिस् 'thrice,' चतुस् 'four times.' कृत्वस् may be added to cardinal numbers, with a similar signification; as, पञ्चकृत्वस् 'five times.' The neuter of the ordinals may be used adverbially; as, प्रथमम् 'in the first place.'

PRONOUNS.

216. PRONOUNS (sarva-náman) have no one stem equally applicable to all the cases. In the 1st personal pronoun, the stem of the sing. is practically अह् ah in Nom., and in the oblique cases म ma. In the 2nd, the stem of the sing. is practically त्व tva or तु tu, while that of the dual and plural is यु yu. The 3rd has स sa for the stem of the Nom. sing., and त ta for the other cases.

217. Nevertheless the form of the pronoun used in derivative and compound words is regarded by grammarians as expressive of its most general and comprehensive state, and this in the pronouns of the first and second persons, corresponds with the Ablative cases, singular and plural, and in the other pronouns, with the Nominative and Accusative cases singular neuter.

DECLENSION OF THE PERSONAL PRONOUNS.

Obs.—In Sanskṛit, as in other languages, the general and indefinite character of the first two personal pronouns is denoted by the fact that no distinction of gender is admitted. For the same reason, the termination of the Nom. case of some pronouns is made to resemble the neuter, as the most general state. This may also be the reason why the 3rd pronoun sa drops the s of the Nom. case before all consonants. There is no Vocative case.

218. मद् mad, sing. 'I,' अस्मद् asmad, pl. 'we.'

N.	अहम् aham, 'I'	आवाम् ávám, 'we two'	वयम् vayam, 'we'

D.	मह्यम् mahyam or मे me	— ávábhyám or नौ nau	अस्मभ्यम् asmabhyam or नस् nas

L.	मयि mayi	— ávayos	अस्मासु asmásu

219. त्वद् tvad, sing. 'thou,' युष्मद् yushmad, pl. 'you.'

N.	त्वम् tvam, 'thou'	युवाम् yuvám, 'you two'	यूयम् yúyam, 'you' or 'ye'
Ac.	त्वाम् tvám or त्वा tvá	— yuvám or वाम् vám	युष्मान् yushmán or वस् vas
I.	त्वया tvayá	युवाभ्याम् yuvábhyám	युष्माभिस् yushmábhis
D.	तुभ्यम् tubhyam or ते te	— yuvábhyám or वाम् vám	युष्मभ्यम् yushmabhyam or वस् vas
Ab.	त्वत् tvat *	— yuvábhyám	युष्मत् yushmat
G.	तव tava or ते te	युवयोस् yuvayos or वाम् vám	युष्माकम् yushmákam or वस् vas
L.	त्वयि tvayi	— yuvayos	युष्मासु yushmásu

Obs.—The alternative forms má, me, nau, &c., have no accent, and cannot be used at the beginning of sentences, nor before the particles ca, 'and;' vá, 'or;' eva, 'indeed,' &c.

* As the stems mad and tvad are generally used in compounds, mat-tas and tvat-tas more commonly stand for the Ablative; see 719. Similarly, the Ablative plural may be yushmat-tas, asmat-tas; but these very rarely occur.

† By 67, स will be the usual form. सस् usually exists as सो, see 64. a.

NEUTER.

N. Ac. तत् tat, ते te, तानि táni; the rest like the masculine.

a. Observe the resemblance of the Sanskṛit personal pronouns to those of the dead and living cognate languages. Aham or ah is the Greek ἐγώ (Æolic ἐγών), Latin ego, German ich, English 'I;' mám or má (the latter being the oldest form found in the Vedas) equals ἐμέ, me; mahyam=mihi; mayi=mei; the mat of the Abl. sing. and of asmat, yushmat, corresponds to the Latin met in memet, nosmet, &c.: vayam or va is the English 'we;' asmán=us; nas=nos; tvam=tu, 'thou;' tvám or tvá=te, 'thee;' tubhyam=tibi; tvayi=tui; yúyam=ὑμεῖς, English 'you;' vas=vos. The 3rd personal pronoun corresponds to the Greek article; thus, tau =τώ, tam=τόν; tábhyám=τοῖν, ταῖν, &c.

DEMONSTRATIVE PERSONAL PRONOUNS.

221. The third personal pronoun तद् tad, 'he,' declined above, is constantly used in a demonstrative sense, to signify 'that' or 'this.'

a. It is sometimes used emphatically with other pronouns, like ille and ipse: thus, सोऽहम् 'ille ego;' ते वयम् 'illi nos;' स त्वम् 'ille tu;' सा त्वम् 'illa tu;' ते यूयम् 'illi vos;' स एषः 'ille ipse;' तद् एतत् 'id ipsum.'

222. It is also combined with the relative ya to form another demonstrative pronoun (rarely used except in the Veda), of which the stem is tyad: N. स्यस् (67), त्यौ, त्ये; Ac. त्यम्, &c. Fem. स्या, त्ये, त्यास्, &c. Neut. त्यत्, त्ये, त्यानि, &c.

223. By prefixing ए e to तद्, another common pronoun is formed, more proximately demonstrative; thus,

एतद् etad, 'this.'

MASCULINE.

N.	एषस् eshas (usu. एष esha). 70.	एतौ etau	एते ete
Ac.	एतम् etam or एनम् enam	— etau or एनौ enau	एतान् etán or एनान् enán
I.	एतेन etena or एनेन enena	एताभ्याम् etábhyám	एतैस् etais
D.	एतस्मै etasmai	— etábhyám	एतेभ्यस् etebhyas
Ab.	एतस्मात् etasmát	— etábhyám	— etebhyas

L.	एतस्मिन् etasmin	— etayos or — enayos	एतेषु eteshu

The feminine is N. एषा eshá, एते ete, एतास् etás; Ac. एताम् or एनाम्, एते or एने, एतास् or एनास्; I. एतया or एनया, एताभ्याम्, एताभिस्; D. एतस्यै, &c.

The neuter is N. एतत्, एते, एतानि; Ac. एतत् or एनत्, एते or एने, एतानि or एनानि, &c.

a. The alternative forms एनम्, एनेन, एनाम्, &c. are, like those of the 1st and 2nd person, enclitic, and ought not to be used at the beginning of a sentence. Moreover, they can only be used with reference to some one or something mentioned in a previous sentence (see Syntax 836).

With etad cf. Lat. iste, ista, istud; etam = istum, etasya = istius, etat = istud.

224. There is another common demonstrative pronoun, of which इदम् idam, 'this,' the N. neuter, is supposed to represent the most general state (cf. Lat. is, ea, id), though there are really two stems—the vowels अ a and इ i (cf. a-tas, i-tas, 719). The latter serves also as the stem of certain pronominals, such as इतर, ईदृश, इयत्. See 234, 234. b, and 236.

NEUTER.

N. Ac.	इदम् idam	इमे ime	इमानि imáni

225. There is another demonstrative pronoun (rarely used, excepting in Nom. sing.), of which अदस्, 'this' or 'that,' is supposed to represent the most general state, though the stem is अमु amu, and in N. sing. असु asu. It is thus declined: Masc. N. असौ, अमू, अमी; Ac. अमुम्, अमू, अमून्; I. अमुना, अमूभ्याम्, अमीभिस्; D. अमुष्मै, अमूभ्याम्, अमीभ्यस्; Ab. अमुष्मात्, अमूभ्याम्, अमीभ्यस्; G. अमुष्य, अमुयोस्, अमीषाम्; L. अमुष्मिन्, अमुयोस्, अमीषु. Fem. N. असौ, अमू, अमूस्; Ac. अमूम्, अमू, अमूस्; I. अमुया, अमूभ्याम्, अमूभिस्; D. अमुष्यै, अमूभ्याम्, अमूभ्यस्; Ab. अमुष्यास्, &c.; G. अमुष्यास्, अमुयोस्, अमूषाम्; L. अमुष्याम्, अमुयोस्, अमूषु. Neut. N. Ac. अदस्, अमू, अमूनि.

RELATIVE PRONOUN.

226. The relative is formed by substituting य् y for the initial letter of the pronoun tad at 220; thus,

यद् yad, 'who,' 'which.'

MASCULINE.

N.	यस् yas	यौ yau	ये ye, 'who' or 'which'
Ac.	यम् yam	— yau	यान् yán
I.	येन yena	याभ्याम् yábhyám	यैस् yais
D.	यस्मै yasmai	— yábhyám	येभ्यस् yebhyas
Ab.	यस्मात् yasmát	— yábhyám	— yebhyas
G.	यस्य yasya	ययोस् yayos	येषाम् yeshám
L.	यस्मिन् yasmin	— yayos	येषु yeshu

The feminine and neuter follow the fem. and neut. of tad at 220. Fem. N. या yá, ये ye, यास् yás; Ac. याम् yám, &c. &c. Neut. N. Ac. यत् yat, ये ye, यानि yáni; the rest like the masculine.

With yas, yá, yat, &c., cf. Gr. ὅς, ἥ, ὅ, &c., Sk. y corresponding to spiritus asper in Gr. (see 25).

INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS.

227. The interrogative differs from the relative in substituting k instead of y for the initial letter of the pronoun tad at 220; and in making the N. Ac. sing. neut. किम् instead of कत्*; thus, N. masc. कस् kas, कौ kau, के ke, 'who?' 'which?' 'what?' Ac. कम् kam, 'whom?' &c. N. fem. का ká, के ke, कास् kás, &c. The N. Ac. neut. are किम् kim, के ke, कानि káni. Although the real stem of this pronoun is ka, yet kim is taken to represent the most general state, and occurs in a few compounds; such as किमर्थम् 'on what account?' 'why?'

a. To the true stem ka may be affixed ti, to form कति kati (quot), 'how many?' The same suffix is added to ta and ya, the proper stems of the third personal and relative pronouns, to form tati, 'so many' (tot), and yati, 'as many.' These are thus declined in pl. only:

N. Ac. V. कति; I. कतिभिस्; Dat. Ab. कतिभ्यस्; G. कतीनाम्; L. कतिषु.

Note—The Latin quot and tot, which drop the final i, take it again in composition; as, quotidie, totidem, &c.

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS.

228. The indeclinable suffixes ćid, api, and ćana (718), affixed (in accordance with the rules of Sandhi) to the several cases of the interrogative pronouns, give them an indefinite signification; as, कश्चिद् kaśćid, 'somebody,' 'some one,' 'any one,' 'a certain one.'

MASCULINE.

N.	कश्चित् kaśćit. 62.	कौचित् kaućit	केचित् kećit, 'some persons'

Similarly, Fem. Nom. काचित्, केचित्, काश्चित्; Ac. काञ्चित्, &c.: and Neut. Nom. Ac. किञ्चित् 'something,' 'anything,' केचित्, कानिचित्, &c.

229. So also by affixing अपि; as, Nom. masc. कोऽपि (64. a) 'some one,' 'a certain one,' कावपि, केऽपि (37, 35); Ac. कमपि, &c.; I. केनापि, &c. (31); D. कस्मा-

* Kat (or kad), however (=Latin quod), was the old form, and is, like kim, found at the beginning of compounds; such as kaććid, 'perhaps;' kad-artha, 'useless' ('of what use?'); kad-adhvan, 'a bad road' ('what sort of a road?').

यपि, &c. (37); Ab. कस्मादपि, &c.; G. कस्यापि, &c.; L. कस्मिन्नपि, &c. (52). Nom. fem. कापि, &c.; Ac. कामपि, &c.; I. कयापि, &c. &c. Nom. neut. किमपि 'something,' 'anything,' &c. The suffix ćana is rarely found, except in Nom. masc. कश्चन 'some one,' 'any one;' and in Nom. neut. किञ्चन 'something.'

230. In the same way interrogative adverbs are made indefinite; thus, from kati, 'how many?' katićid, 'a few;' from kadá, 'when?' kadáćid or kadáćana or kadápi, 'at some time;' from katham, 'how?' kathaṅćana, 'some how;' from kva, 'where?' kvaćid or kvápi, 'somewhere.'

a. 'Whosoever,' 'whatsoever' are expressed by prefixing the relative to the indefinite; thus, यः कश्चित् or यः कोऽपि 'whosoever,' यत् किञ्चित् 'whatsoever:' or sometimes to the interrogative; as, येन केन उपायेन 'by any means whatsoever:' or sometimes by repeating the relative; as, यो यः, यद् यत्.

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS.

231. Possessive pronouns (Páṇ. IV. 3, 1–3) are mostly formed by affixing íya (80. L) to those forms of the personal pronouns, ending in d, which are used as stems; thus, fr. मद् 'I,' मदीय madíya, 'mine;' fr. अस्मद् 'we,' अस्मदीय asmadíya, 'our;' fr. त्वद् 'thou,' त्वदीय tvadíya, 'thine;' fr. तद् 'he,' तदीय tadíya, 'his.' Similarly, भवदीय 'yours' (Páṇ. IV. 2, 115) is formed from bhavad, and not from the regular stem bhavat (see 233). They are declined like śubha at 187; e.g. Nom. m. मदीयस्, f. मदीया, n. मदीयम्.

a. Other possessive pronouns differently formed are mámaka (fem. aki, but generally iká) and mámakína (fem. á), 'mine;' távaka (fem. aki) and távakína (fem. á), 'thine;' ásmáka (fem. áki) and ásmákína (fem. á), 'our;' yaushmáka (fem. áki) and yaushmákíṇa (fem. á), 'your.' Mámaka and those formed with the suffix ína (80. XLIX) make their feminines in á, and are declined like śubha at 187; the others follow śiva or śubha for masc. and neut., and nadí (105) for fem.

Obs.—The genitive case of the personal pronouns is often used as a possessive; thus, तस्य पुत्रः 'his son;' मम पुत्री 'my daughter.'

REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS.

232. The oblique cases sing. of आत्मन् átman, 'soul,' 'self' (declined at 146), are used reflexively, in place of the three personal pronouns, like the Latin ipse.

Thus, átmánam (me ipsum) anáhāreṇa hanishyámi, 'I shall kill myself by fasting;' átmánam (te ipsum) mṛitavad darśaya, 'show thyself as if dead;' átmánaṃ (se ipsum) nindati, 'he blames himself.' It is used in the singular, even when it refers to a plural; as, átmánam punímahe, 'we (will) purify ourselves;' abudhair átmá paropakaraṇíkṛitaḥ, 'foolish people make themselves the tools of others.'

a. The indeclinable pronoun स्वयम् svayam is sometimes joined, in the sense of 'self,' to the three personal pronouns; thus, अहं स्वयम् 'I myself,' &c.

b. स्व sva (suus) is used reflexively, with respect to all three persons, and may stand for 'my own' (meus), 'thy own' (tuus), 'his own,' 'our own,' &c. (cf. σφός, σφή, σφόν). It often occupies the first place in a compound, e. g. स्वगृहं गच्छति 'he goes to his own house.'

The Gen. case of आत्मन् átman, or often the simple stem, is used with the same signification; as, आत्मनो गृहं or आत्मगृहं गच्छति. It is used in the singular even when it refers to more than one*. In the most modern Sanskṛit, निज nija is often used in place of स्व and आत्मन्, and from it transferred to Bengálí.

स्व, in the sense of 'own,' is declined like sarva at 237; as a pronominal the Ab. L. sing. masc. neut. and N. pl. masc. may optionally follow śubha at 187; thus, N. pl. m. sve or svás in the sense of 'own;' but used substantively in the sense of 'kinsmen' or 'property,' sva can only follow śiva or śubha (N. pl. m. svás).

c. स्वीय (f. á), स्वकीय (f. á), and स्वक (f. aká or iká), declinable like śubha, sometimes take the place of स्व in the sense of 'own,' 'one's own.'

HONORIFIC OR RESPECTFUL PRONOUN.

233. भवत् bhavat, 'your Honour,' requiring the 3rd person of the verb, is declined like dhanavat at 140; thus, N. masc. भवान् bhaván, भवन्तौ bhavantau, भवन्तस् bhavantas; V. भवन्; N. fem. भवती bhavatí, भवत्यौ bhavatyau, भवत्यस् bhavatyas, &c.; V. भवति. It is constantly used to denote 'respect,' in place of the 2nd personal pronoun; thus, भवान् गृहं गच्छतु 'let your Honour go home' for 'go thou home.'

PRONOUNS OF QUANTITY AND SIMILITUDE.

234. Modifications of the demonstrative, relative, and interrogative pronouns may take the suffix वत् vat to express 'quantity,' and दृश् dṛiśa, दृक्ष dṛiksha or दृश् dṛiś (Nom. masc. neut. dṛik, fem. dṛiśí) to express 'similitude,' frequently used as correlative pronouns; thus,

तावत् távat, एतावत् etávat, 'so many,' 'so much' (tantus); यावत् (quantus) 'as many,' 'as much' (declined like dhanavat at 140); तादृश tádṛiśa or तादृक्ष tádṛiksha or तादृश् tádṛiś, 'such like' (talis, τηλίκος); एतादृश etádṛiśa or एतादृश् etádṛiś, 'like this or that,' following śubha (187) for masc. and neut. of those ending in श śa and क्ष ksha; and diś, at 181, for masc. and neut. of those in श् ś; and nadí,

* Lassen cites an example (Rámáyaṇa II. 64, 28) in which átman refers to the dual: Putram átmanaḥ sprishṭvá nipetatuḥ, 'they two fell down after touching their son.'

at 105, for the fem. of all three. Similarly, the correlatives यादृश or यादृक्ष or यादृश् 'as like,' 'how like' (qualis, ἡλίκος); ईदृश or ईदृक्ष or ईदृश् 'so like;' कीदृश or कीदृक्ष or कीदृश् 'how like?' (qualis?)

a. Note, that दृश is derived from the root dṛiś, 'to see,' 'appear,' and is in fact our English 'like,' d being interchangeable with l, and ś with k.

b. कियत् 'how much,' and इयत् 'so much,' are declined like धनवत् (140).

c. A few peculiar pronouns of quantity, some of which are of the nature of ordinals, are formed with the suffix tha (itha), thought by some to be an old superlative, or titha (80. LXIII); e.g. yávatitha, as, í, am, 'to whatever stage or degree advanced,' 'how-manieth,' 'as-manieth;' katitha, as, í, am, 'to whatever degree,' 'how-manieth;' katitho divasaḥ, 'what day of the month is it?' katipayatha, as, í, am, 'advanced to a certain degree.'

PRONOMINALS.

235. There are certain common adjectives, called pronominals, which partake of the nature of pronouns, and follow the declension of tad at 220; but may also take a vocative case.

236. These are, इतर 'other' (but in Veda the neut. may be itaram as well as itarat, Páṇ. VII. 1, 26, cf. Latin iterum); कतर 'which of the two?' (πότερος for κότερος); कतम 'which of many?' ततर 'that one of two;' ततम 'that one of many;' यतर 'who or which of two;' यतम 'who or which of many' (formed by adding the comparative and superlative suffixes to the various pronominal stems, 195); अन्य 'other,' 'another;' अन्यतर 'one of two;' and एकतम 'one of many.' They are declined like तद्, and make the N. V. Ac. neut. sing. in at; thus, anyat, itarat, anyatarat, katarat, katamat, &c.; but they have a vocative, viz. V. masc. anya, V. fem. anye, V. neut. anyat, &c.; the V. du. and plural is like the Nom.

a. With regard to itara, it loses its pronominal declension at the end of Dvandva compounds, but at the end of Dvandvas (748) it may optionally follow tad in the Nom. pl.; e.g. varṇáśrametarás (or -re), 'classes, orders, and others.'

237. There are other pronominals, which make am instead of at in the N. Ac. neuter. The model of these is सर्व sarva, 'all;' thus,

The other cases like the masculine.

238. Like sarva are declined उभय 'both' (properly only found in sing. and pl., ubha being used in du.; the fem. of ubhaya is ubhayí, like nadí); विश्व 'all;' एकतर 'one of two' (ἑκάτερος); अन्यतम 'one of many;' सम meaning 'all,' but not when it signifies 'equal;' सिम 'the whole;' त्व 'other;' नेम 'half.' The N. Ac. sing. neuter of these will end in am, but त्व is optionally त्वत्. In N. V. pl. masc. नेम is नेमे or नेमास्.

Obs.—उभ, 'both' (ambo, ἄμφω), is declined like sarva, but only in du.; thus, N. Ac. V. masc. उभौ, fem. and neut. उभे; I. D. Ab. उभाभ्याम्; G. L. उभयोस्.

a. अधर 'inferior,' पर 'other,' अपर 'other,' अवर 'posterior,' 'west,' उत्तर 'superior,' 'north,' दक्षिण 'south,' 'right,' पूर्व 'east,' 'prior,' अन्तर meaning either 'outer' or 'inner' (as applied to a garment), स्व 'own' (232), follow sarva, and optionally śubha, at 187, in Abl. Loc. sing. masc. and neut., and Nom. Voc. pl. masc.; as, अधरस्मात् or अधरात्, &c. They can only be declined like pronominals, when they denote relative position; hence dakshiṇáḥ (not dakshiṇe) kavayaḥ, 'clever poets.' Moreover, the pronominal inflexion is optional in certain compounds.

239. एक, 'one,' follows sarva, see 200; द्वितीय 'second,' तृतीय 'third,' follow śubha (187), and optionally sarva in certain cases, see 208; they make their fem. in á.

240. अल्प 'a few,' अर्ध or अर्द्ध 'half,' कतिपय (fem. á or í) 'several,' 'few,' 'some,' प्रथम 'first,' चरम 'last,' द्वय (fem. í), द्वितय (fem. í) 'twofold,' पञ्चतय (fem. í) 'fivefold,' and all in -ya and -taya, properly follow śiva at 103; but may make their Nom. V. pl. masc. in e; as, अल्पे or अल्पास् 'few,' &c. (see Páṇ. I. 1, 33).

a. अन्योन्य, इतरेतर, 'one another,' 'mutual,' make their Nom. Ac. sing. neut. in am, not at; and V. in a.

b. In some pronouns the syllable ka or ak is introduced, generally before the last vowel or syllable, to denote contempt, in the same way that ka is added to nominal stems; e.g. मयका for मया 'by me,' युष्मकाभिस् for युष्माभिस् 'by you.' Similarly, सर्वेके, विश्वके, for सर्वे, विश्वे 'all' (see Páṇ. v. 3, 71).

CHAPTER VI.

VERBS.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

241. ALTHOUGH the Sanskṛit verb (ákhyáta, kriyá) offers many striking and interesting analogies to the Greek, yet our explanations of its structure are not likely to fall in with the preconceived notions of the student of Greek grammar.

There are ten tenses and moods (kála). Seven of them are of common occurrence; viz. 1. the Present (technically called लट् laṭ, which, with the other technical names, is applicable also to the terminations of each tense respectively); 2. the Imperfect, sometimes called the First Preterite (लङ् laṅ); 3. the Potential or Optative (लिङ् liṅ); 4. the Imperative (लोट् loṭ); 5. the Perfect, sometimes called the Second Preterite (लिट् liṭ); 6. the First Future (लुट् luṭ); 7. the Second Future (लृट् lṛiṭ). Three are not so commonly used; viz. 8. the Aorist, sometimes called the Third Preterite (लुङ् luṅ); 9. the Precative, also called the Benedictive (आशिष् लिङ् áśir liṅ); 10. the Conditional (लृङ् lṛiṅ). There is also an Infinitive, and several Participles. Of these, the Present, the three Past tenses, and the two Futures belong to the Indicative mood. The Imperative, Potential, Precative, and Conditional (see 242) are moods susceptible of various times; but, as there is only one form for each, it can lead to no embarrassment to call them tenses, and to arrange them indiscriminately with the tenses of the Indicative.

The first four tenses, viz. the Present, Imperfect, Potential, and Imperative, are frequently called *Special tenses, because in these each of the ten classes of roots has a special structure of its own (as will be explained at 248).

a. Obs.—The ancient Sanskṛit of the Veda is more rich in grammatical forms than the later or classical Sanskṛit. There is a Vedic Subjunctive mood, technically called लेट् leṭ, which comprises under it a Present, Imperfect, and Aorist; moreover, the Vedic Potential and Imperative are thought to have distinct forms for various tenses. The Vedic Infinitive, too, has ten or eleven different forms (see 459. a).

* In the previous editions of this Grammar these tenses were called 'Conjugational.' I have thought it better to bring the present edition into harmony with other Grammars by adopting Bopp's designation of 'Special.'

242. Although the three past tenses are used without much distinction, yet it should be observed, that they properly express different degrees of past time. The Imperfect (anadyatana-bhúta) corresponds in form to the Imperfect of Greek verbs, and properly has reference to an event done at some time recently past, but before the current day. It may denote action past and continuing, or it may be used like the Greek Aorist. The Perfect (paroksha-bhúta) is said to have reference to an event completely done before the present day at some remote period, unperceived by or out of sight of the narrator; it answers in form to the Greek Perfect, but may also be used like the Aorist. The Aorist refers to an event done and past at some indefinite period, whether before or during the current day; it corresponds in form and sense to the Greek 1st and 2nd Aorist, and sometimes to the Pluperfect*. Again, the two Futures properly express, the First, definite, the Second, indefinite futurity†: the Second, however, is the most used, and answers to the Greek Future. The Potential or Optative may generally be rendered in English by some one of the auxiliaries 'may,' 'can,' 'would,' 'should,' 'ought.' It is said to denote 'command,' 'direction,' 'expression of wish,' 'enquiry,' 'condition,' 'supposition' (sambhávana, Pán. III. 3, 161). See Syntax, 879. The Conditional (or Imperfect of the Future) is occasionally used after the conjunctions yadi and ćed, 'if:' it has an augment like the Imperfect and Aorist, and ought on that account to be classed with the tenses of the Indicative (see 891). The Precative or Benedictive is a tense sometimes used in praying and blessing (áśishi). It is a modification of the Potential. There is no tense exactly equivalent to the Pluperfect in Sanskṛit, although the form of some Aorists (in a few primitive verbs, and in verbs of Cl. 10 and Causals) resembles that of the Greek Pluperfect by taking both augment and reduplication: the sense of this tense, however, may often be expressed by the Past Indeclinable Participle or by the Past Passive Participle; as, tasminn apakránte, 'after he had departed.' See Syntax, 840, 899. a.

a. According to some, the form of the Imperfect and Aorist, which remains after rejecting the augment of these tenses in the Indicative, and which is especially used after the particles मा má and मा स्म má sma (see 884. Obs. and 889), ought to be called the Subjunctive Imperfect and Subjunctive Aorist.

b. The Infinitive generally has an Active, but is capable of a Passive signification (see Syntax, 867–872).

* The fact is, that the three past tenses are not very commonly used to represent the completeness of an action. This is generally done by employing the Past Passive Participle with an inst. case; or by adding vat to the Past Pass. Part., and combining it with the Present tense of as, 'to be;' as, uktaván asmi, 'I have said.' See Syntax, 897.

† The First Future (luṭ) is said to be an-adyatane, i. e. to be so far definite as to denote what will happen at a future period, not in the course of the current day; as, श्वो गन्तास्मि 'to-morrow I shall go' (Pán. III. 3, 15); whereas the Second Future may refer to immediate futurity; as, अद्य सायंकाले श्वो वा गमिष्यामि 'this very evening or to-morrow I shall be going.'

243. Every tense has three numbers, singular, dual, and plural. To each tense belong two sets of Active terminations; one for the Active voice (properly so called), the other for a kind of Middle or Reflexive voice. The former of these voices is called by Indian grammarians Parasmai-pada ('word* directed to another'), because the action is supposed to be Transitive, or to pass parasmai, 'to another (object);' the latter is called Átmane-pada ('word* directed to one's self'), because the action is supposed to refer átmane, 'to one's self.' This distinction, however, is not always observed, and we often find both Parasmai and Átmane employed indifferently for Transitive verbs.

Some verbs, however, are conjugated only in the Átmane-pada, especially when they are Intransitive, or when the direct fruit of the action accrues to the agent (see the distinction of Udáttetaḥ and Anudáttetaḥ at 75.c), or when particular prepositions are used; thus,

Mud and ruć meaning 'to be pleased,' 'please one's self;' bhuj meaning 'to eat' (not 'to protect'); dá, 'to give,' with á prefixed, meaning 'to give to one's self,' 'to take,' are restricted to the Átmane-pada. Sometimes, when a verb takes both Padas, the Átmane, without altering the idea expressed by the root, may be used to direct the action in some way towards the agent; thus, paćati means 'he cooks,' but paćate, 'he cooks for himself:' yajati, 'he sacrifices;' yajate, 'he sacrifices for himself:' namati, 'he bends;' namate, 'he bends himself:' darśayati (Causal), 'he shews;' darśayate, 'he shews himself,' 'appears:' kárayati, 'he causes to make;' kárayate, 'he causes to be made for himself:' and yáć, 'to ask,' although employing both Padas, is more commonly used in the Átmane, because the act of asking generally tends to the advantage of the asker. (See this subject more fully explained at 786.)

a. Passive verbs are conjugated in the Átmane-pada. Indeed, in all the tenses, excepting the first four, the Passive is generally undistinguishable from the Átmane-pada of the primitive verb. But in the four Special tenses, viz. the Present, Imperfect, Potential, and Imperative (unlike the Greek, which exhibits an identity between the Middle and Passive voices in those tenses), the Sanskṛit Passive, although still employing the Átmane-pada terminations, has a special

* Pada is an inflected word as distinguished from an uninflected root (Páṇ. 1. 4, 14). The term pada has here reference to the scheme of terminations only; so that in this sense there are only two voices in Sanskṛit, and they are often used indiscriminately. Although the Átmane-pada has occasionally a kind of Middle signification, yet it cannot be said to correspond entirely to the Greek Middle.

structure of its own, common to all verbs, and distinct from the conjugational form of the Átmane-pada in all but the fourth class*.

Thus the Greek ἀκούω makes for both the Middle and Passive of those four tenses, 1st sing. ἀκούομαι, ἠκουόμην, ἀκουοίμην, ἀκούου (2nd sing.) But the Sanskṛit śru, 'to hear,' makes for the conjugational form of the Átmane, शृणवे, अशृणवि, शृणवीय, शृणवै; while for the Passive it is श्रूये, अश्रूये, श्रूयेय, श्रूयै.

244. As in nouns the formation of a nominal stem out of a root precedes declension, the root generally requiring some change or addition before the case-terminations can be affixed, so in verbs the formation of a verbal stem out of a root must precede conjugation. Again, as in nouns every case has its own proper termination, so in verbs each of the three persons, in the three numbers of every tense, has a termination (vibhakti), one for the Parasmai-pada, and one for the Átmane-pada, which is peculiarly its own. Moreover, as in nouns, so in verbs, some of the terminations may be combined with servile or indicatory letters, which serve to aid the memory, by indicating that where they occur peculiar changes are required in the root. Thus the three terminations which belong to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd persons of the Present tense, Parasmai-pada, respectively, are mi, si, ti; and these are combined with the letter P (*mi*P, *si*P, *ti*P), to indicate that roots belonging to the second and third groups of classes (see 258, 259, and 290) must be modified in a particular way, before these terminations are affixed.

The annexed tables exhibit, 1st, the scheme of terminations for Parasmai and Átmane-pada, with the most useful indicatory letters (denoted by Roman capitals), in all the tenses, the four Special tenses being placed first; 2ndly, the same scheme with the substitutions required by certain classes of roots (the numerical figures denoting the classes in which these substitutions occur, see 257).

* Only eight roots, viz. śru, stu, dru, sru, kṛi, bhṛi, sṛi, vṛi, reject the initial i from the terminations marked with *; and of these eight all but vṛi (meaning 'to cover') necessarily reject it also in the 2nd sing. Parasmai. See 369–372.

First Future or Definite Future.

3. tá	tárau	táras	tá	tárau	táras

Many roots prefix i to the above terminations; thus, 1. itásmi, 2. itási, &c. ग्रह् lengthens this i; वृ vṛi and all roots in long ṛí optionally do so.

Second Future or Indefinite Future.

1. syámi	syávas	syámas	sye	syávahe	syámahe

3. syati	syatas	syanti	syate	syete	syante

Many roots prefix i to the above terminations; thus, 1. ishyámi (70), 2. ishyasi, &c. ग्रह् lengthens this i; वृ and all roots in long ṛí optionally do so.

Aorist or Third Preterite (requiring the augment a, 251).

Form I.—Regular terminations of the scheme.

1. sam	sva	sma	si	svahi	smahi
2. sís	stam or tam	sta or ta	sthás or thás	sáthám	dhvam
3. sít	stám or tám	sus	sta or ta	sátám	sata

ढ्वम् ḍhvam is used for dhvam after any other vowel but a or á, or after ऽ ḍ immediately preceding.

The same terminations with i prefixed, except in 2nd and 3rd sing., where initial s is rejected.

1. isham	ishva	ishma	ishi	ishvahi	ishmahi

3. ít	ishṭám	ishus	ishṭa	ishátám	ishata

ऴ्ढ्वम् iḍhvam may be used for idhvam when a semivowel or h immediately precedes. ग्रह् lengthens the i throughout; वृ and all roots in long ṛí optionally do so in Átm.

FORM II.—Terminations resembling those of the Imperfect.

1. am	áva or va	áma or ma	e or i	ávahi	ámahi

3. yát	yástám	yásus	síshṭa	síyástám	síran

Many roots prefix i to the Átmane, but not to the Parasmai, of the above; thus, 1. ishíya, &c. ग्रह् lengthens the i in this tense also, but no other root can do so.

सीढ्वम् sídhvam is used for सीध्वम् sídhvam after any other vowel but a or á, and optionally after the prefixed i, when immediately preceded by a semivowel or h (see 442).

Conditional (requiring the augment a, 251).

2. syas	syatam	syata	syathás	syethám	syadhvam
3. syat	syatám	syan	syata	syetám	syanta

Many roots prefix i to the above terminations throughout; thus, 1. ishyam, 2. ishyas, &c. ग्रह् lengthens this i; वृ and all roots in long ṛ optionally do so.

247. Those terminations which are marked with P will be called the P terminations. They are technically designated Pit (i.e. having P for their it), and are as follow:

Present, Parasmai, 1, 2, 3 sing. Impf., Par., 1, 2, 3 sing. Impv., Par., 1, 3 sing., 1 du., 1 pl.; Átm., 1 sing., 1 du., 1 pl. In these, however, the P is indicatory only with reference to certain classes of roots (see 244), but in Perf., Par., the indicatory P in 1, 2, 3 sing. applies to all the classes.

Obs.—Instead of ṆaP, *tha*P, ṆaP (which are from Vopa-deva), Páṇini gives ṆaL, *tha*L, ṆaL; and this L, like the P, has reference to accent.

a. Sometimes, however, it will be convenient to adopt Bopp's expression, 'Strong forms,' in speaking of the form assumed by the stem before the P terminations, these terminations being themselves called Weak.

b. In fact the P or Pit terminations are an-udátta, 'unaccented;' and when these are added, the stem on which the accent falls is called Strong. In other cases the accent is on the terminations, and the stem is then Weak and unaccented.

c. The terminations of the first four or Special tenses are called by Páṇini sárvadhátuka, 'belonging to the full form of the verbal stem,' which name is also applied to suffixes like śánać (i.e. -ána), śatṛi (i.e. -at), having an indicatory ś (but not to Vikaraṇas like śap, &c.) The term árdhadhátuka, 'belonging to the half or shorter form of the verbal stem,' is given to the terminations of the Perfect (liṭ), and Precative (áśir liṅ), as well as to certain distinctive additions to the root before the terminations of the remaining four tenses (such as tás and sya in the Futures and Conditional, s in the Aorist, yás and síy in the Precative), and therefore practically to the terminations of all the six General tenses.

d. If we examine these terminations, we shall find that they are composed of two distinct elements, one marking person, number, and voice; the other, mood and tense. The terminations in which the former element prevails may be called simple, and belong to the Present, Imperfect, Imperative, Perfect, and 2nd form of the Aorist; those which include the second may be called compound, and are peculiar to the other tenses. Thus the terminations of the Potential consist of i or í or yá as characterizing the mood, and of am, s, t, va, tam, tám, &c., as marking person, number, and voice. So, also, in the 2nd Future the syllable sya prefixed to all the terminations, characterizes the Future tense, while the mi, si, ti, vas, thas, tas, &c., mark person, number, and voice. If, then, such initial parts of every termination as mark mood or tense were left out, an examination of the remaining parts would shew that the Present and Imperfect are the prototypes of the terminations of all the other tenses, that is to say, that the formation of the terminations of every other tense may be referred back to one or other of these two. The Present tense may in this way be connected with the two Futures. These three tenses agree in shewing a certain fulness of form, which is wanting in most of those connected with the Imperfect. The terminations of the Perfect, however, partake of the character of both the Present and Imperfect. In the Átmane-pada they very closely resemble the Present. Many of them exhibit the same fulness as that tense, while some of the other terminations of the Perfect shew even more lightness than those of the Imperfect *. It should be observed, too, that the terminations of the Imperative, though evidently connected with the Imperfect, are in some instances even more full than those of the Present.

e. Although comparative grammarians have bestowed much labour on investigating the origin of Sanskṛit verbal terminations, the only point that may be asserted with probability is, that they stand in a certain relationship to the pronominal stems ma, tva, sa, ta. The m of the first persons is related to the stem ma (mad, 218); the t, th, sv, s, of the second persons, to the stem tva of the second personal pronoun (Gr. σε); and the t, of the third person, to the stem ta. We may also observe a community of character between the termination nti of the 3rd pl. and the plural of neuter nouns like dhanavat (dhanavanti). But whether the v in the dual is related to a pronominal stem va occurring in á-vám, va-yam; whether the s of the dual and plural terminations is the result of blending different pronominal stems (e. g. vas=va-si, mas=ma-si, 'I and thou'); whether the terminations of the Átmane-pada are formed from those of the Parasmai-pada by gunation or by composition of the latter with other stems,—these are questions which cannot be determined with actual certainty. The subject, however, is fully and ably discussed in Schleicher's Compendium of Comparative Grammar, §§ 268-286.

f. Whatever the exact state of the case may be, the student may aid his memory by noting that the letter m generally enters into the 1st sing. Par.; s into the 2nd sing. Par. and Átm.; and t into the 3rd sing. du. and pl. Par. and Átm. of all the tenses. Moreover, that the letter v occurs in the 1st du., m in the 1st pl. of all the tenses, and dhv in every 2nd pl. Átmane. In the Impf. and Pot. Átm., and in the Perf. Par., th is admitted, instead of s, into the 2nd sing.; and in the 2nd pl. of the last tense, th has been dropped, owing to the influence of the heavy reduplication. For the same reason the m and t are dropped in the 1st and 3rd sing. Perf. Observe also—When the 1st du. Par. is vas, the 2nd and 3rd end in as (except the 3rd du. 1st Fut.), and the 1st pl. is mas. When the 1st du. Par. is va, the 2nd and 3rd end in tam, tám (except in the Perf.), and the 1st pl. in ma. When the 1st du. Átm. is vahe, the 1st pl. is mahe, and the last letter of the remaining terminations is generally e. When the 1st du. Átm. is vahi, the 2nd and 3rd end in ám; the 1st pl. is mahi, and the 2nd pl. is dhvam.

g. The frequent occurrence of m in the 1st sing., of s in the 2nd, of t in the 3rd, of mas and ma in the 1st pl., of ta in the 2nd pl., and of ant in the 3rd pl., suggests a comparison with the Gr. and Lat. verb. We may remark, that m, the characteristic of the 1st per. sing., is suppressed in the Pres. Indic. Act. of all Gr. verbs except those in μι (asmi=εἰμί, Dor. ἐμμί for εσμι, dadámi=δίδωμι), and also in Lat. verbs (except sum and inquam); but ω and o answer to the Sk. á of bharámi=φέρω, fero. In the Gr. Middle and Passive, the μι, which originally belonged to all Active verbs, becomes μαι; while the Sanskṛit, on the other hand, here suppresses the m, and has e for αι; bhare (for bhara-me)=φέρομαι. In the Impf., Gr. has ν for Sk. and Lat. mute m, because μ is not allowed to be final in Greek; atarpam=ἔτερπον, adadám=ἐδίδων, astṛiṇavam=ἐστόρνυν, avaham=vehebam. Gr. has μι in the 1st sing. Opt.; and in verbs in μι, ν takes the place of the mute m of Sk. and Lat.; thus, bhareyam=φέροιμι, feram; dadyám=διδοίην, dem; tishṭheyam=ἱσταίην, stem. In the Gr. First Aorist, m is suppressed, so that Sanskṛit adiksham (Aor.)=ἔδειξα; but not in the 2nd Aor., so that adám=ἔδων. In the Perf., Sk. a=Gr. α, tutopa=τέτυφα. In the Gr. Middle and Passive Futures, m is retained, but not in the Active; dúsyámi=δώσω, dekshyámi=δείξω, dásye=δώσομαι. As to the 1st per. pl., Sk. mas of the Pres. is μεν (for μες) in Gr., and mus in Lat.; tarpá-mas=τέρπο-μεν; sarpá-mas=ἕρπο-μεν, serpi-mus; dad-mas=δίδο-μεν, da-mus; tishṭhá-mas=ἵστα-μεν, sta-mus. The Átmane mahe answers to Gr. μεθα; dad-mahe=διδό-μεθα. As to the other tenses, in Impf. 1st pl. abhará-ma=ἐφέρο-μεν, fereba-mus; avahá-ma=veheba-mus; adad-ma=ἐδίδο-μεν; abhará-mahi=ἐφερόμεθα. In the Pot. 1st pl. bhare-ma=φέροι-μεν (-μες), fera-mus; dadyáma=διδοίημεν (-μες), demus; dadí-mahi=διδοί-μεθα. In 2nd Fut. dásyá-mas=δώσο-μεν, dekshyá-mas=δείξο-μεν. In 2nd pers. sing. Act., the characteristic s has been preserved in all three languages; thus, in the Present, Sk. asi (for original assi)=ἐσσί, es; dadá-si=δίδως, das; bhara-si=φέρεις, fers; vahasi=vehis. In the Átmane, Sk. se (for sa i, by 32) answers exactly to Gr. σαι of verbs in μι (tishṭha- se=ἵστα-σαι). In other Gr. verbs, σ has been rejected, and εαι contracted into η, something in the way of Sk. (τύπτη for τύπτε-σαι). In 2nd du. thas=Gr. τον, and in 2nd pl. tha=τε and tis; bhara-thas=φέρε-τον; tishṭha-tha=ἵστα-τε, sta-tis; bhara-tha=φέρε-τε, fer-tis. In 2nd pl. Átm. bhara-dhve=φέρε-σθε. As to the other tenses, in the 2nd sing. Impf. atarpas=ἔτερπες, avahas=vehebas, &c. So also, tam=τον, adat-tam=ἐδίδο-τον, ta=τε, adat-ta=ἐδίδο-τε. In Átm. thás is found for sás in 2nd sing. Impf. and Pot.; hence abhara-thás=ἐφέρε-σο, adat-thás=ἐδίδο-σο, dad-ṡthás=δίδ-οι(σ)ο. In 2nd sing. Pot. tishṭhes=ἱσταίης, stes; dadyás=διδοίης, des; vahes=vehas; bhares=φέροις, feras: in 2nd du. bhare-tam=φέροι-τον: in 2nd. pl. tishṭheta=ἱσταίητε, stetis; dadyáta=διδοίητε, detis; bhareta=φέροιτε, feratis. In 2nd sing. Impv. hi and dhi answer to Gr. θι. Dhi was originally universal in Sk. (see 291), as in Gr. verbs in μι; e-dhi=ἴσ-θι, vid-dhi=ἴσ-θι, de-hi=δίδο-θι, śru-dhi=κλῦ-θι. Many verbs drop the termination hi both in Gr. and Sk.; as, भर=φέρε, and compare δείκνυ with ćinu, &c. In 2nd du. Impv. tam=τον, and ta=τε. In Impv. Átm. sva=the old form σο; bhara-sva=φέρε-σο (old form of φέρου); dat-sva=δίδο-σο; áthám=εσθον, &c. In Perf. the tha of the 2nd sing.=Latin sti; dad-itha=dedi-sti, tasthi-tha=steti-sti, tutodi-tha=tutudi-sti. In the Aor. adás=ἔδως, avákshís=vexisti. In the 3rd pers. sing. Active, Gr. has dropped the characteristic t (except in ἐστί=Sk. asti, Lat. est); bharati=φέρε(τ)ι, fert; vahati=vehit. Verbs in μι have changed t to s; dadáti=δίδωσι (for δίδωτι). In Átm. bharate=φέρεται. In Impf. avahat=vehebat, abharata=ἐφέρετο. In Pot. bharet=φέροι, dadyát=διδοίη. In Impv. bhara-tu or bhara-tát=φερέ-τω, fer-to. In Perf. tutopa=τέτυφε. In Aor. avákshít=vexit, adikshata=ἐδείξατο. As to 3rd pl., in the above tenses, bharanti=φέρουσι, ferunt; vahanti=vehunt; bharante=φέρονται; dadati=διδοῦσι; tishṭhanti=stant; bhareyus=φέροιεν; bharantu=ferunto; abharan=ἔφερον; abharanta=ἐφέροντο; ásan=ἦσαν; atarpishus=ἔτερψαν; dásyante=δώσονται.

248. The terminations exhibited in the preceding tables are supposed to be applicable to all verbs, whether Primitive or Derivative: and as in nouns, so in verbs, the theory of Indian grammarians is, that before these terminations can be affixed, a stem must be developed out of a root, according to certain rules which vary for the first four tenses in ten different ways, according as a root belongs to one or other of ten classes. Accordingly, ten special rules are propounded for forming verbal stems out of roots in the first four tenses, which are therefore called the four Special tenses; while all verbs are arranged under ten classes, according to the form of the stem required by one or other of these rules. In the other tenses there is one general rule for forming the stem, applicable to all verbs of whatever class, and these tenses are therefore called General.

Hence the ten classes of roots are sometimes regarded as following one or other of ten conjugations; and the four tenses, which alone are affected by these conjugational rules (viz. the Present, Imperfect, Potential, and Imperative), are sometimes called the conjugational tenses. It is evident, however, that all Sanskṛit roots, of whatever class, follow one general conjugation for the majority of the tenses of the Primitive verb, although they require a special formation of stem depending on the class of each root for four of the tenses.

249. We begin by giving a brief summary of the ten rules for the forming the stem of the four Special tenses in the ten classes of roots, according to the Indian order of the ten classes.

Obs.—Native grammarians distinguish the ten classes of verbs by the name of the first root in their lists; e. g. cl. 1. Bhv-ádi, i. e. Bhú, &c., or the class of roots beginning with bhú. Similarly, cl. 2. Ad-ádi; cl. 3. Juhoty-ádi (i. e. the Hu class); cl. 4. Div-ádi; cl. 5. Sv-ádi (i. e. the Su class); cl. 6. Tud-ádi; cl. 7. Rudh-ádi; cl. 8. Tan-ádi; cl. 9. Kry-ádi (i. e. the Krí class); cl. 10. Ćur-ádi.

Cl. 1. Gunate the vowel of the root (unless it be अ a, or a long vowel not final, or a short vowel followed by a double consonant, 28) before every termination of the four Special tenses, and affix अ a—lengthened to आ á before initial *m and v—to the root thus gunated.

The accent is on the vowel of the root, unless it be thrown on the augment.

Cl. 2. Gunate the vowel of the root (if capable of Guṇa, as in the last) before those terminations only which are marked with P in the scheme at 246. Before all the other terminations the original vowel of the root must be retained.

The accent rests on the vowel of the root, but only when the P terminations are added. In other cases it rests on the first vowel of the Non-P terminations.

Cl. 3. Reduplicate the initial consonant and vowel (see 252) of the root, and gunate the radical but not the reduplicated vowel before the P terminations only, as in cl. 2.

The accent rests on the first syllable of the stem before the Non-P terminations, and before the P terminations beginning with a vowel.

Cl. 4. Affix य ya—lengthened to या yá before initial *m and v—to the root, the vowel of which is generally left unchanged.

The accent is on the vowel of the root, not on the ya (cf. 461).

* But not before m final, the termination of the 1st sing. Impf. Parasmai.

Cl. 5. Affix नु nu to the root, and gunate this nu into no before the P terminations only.

In this class, as well as in cl. 8 and 9, the accent is on the inserted Vikaraṇa (250. b) before the P terminations, and in other cases it rests on the first vowel of the Non-P terminations.

Cl. 6. Affix अ a—lengthened to आ á before initial *m and v—to the root, which in other respects generally remains unchanged.

The absence of gunation of the radical vowel results from the accent being on the Vikaraṇa a (250. b).

Cl. 7. Insert न na between the vowel and final consonant of the root before the P terminations, and न् n before the other terminations.

Observe the peculiarity of this conjugation—that the conjugational na or n is inserted into the middle of the root, and not affixed.

The accent is on the inserted na before the P terminations; in other cases it rests on the Non-P terminations.

Cl. 8. Affix उ u to the root, and gunate this u into o before the P terminations only.

Obs.—As nine out of the ten roots in this class end in n or ṇ, cl. 8 will resemble cl. 5.

Cl. 9. Affix ना ná to the root before the P terminations; नी ní before all the others, except those beginning with vowels, where only न् n is affixed.

Cl. 10. Gunate the radical vowel (if capable of Guṇa) throughout all the persons of all the tenses, and affix अय aya—lengthened to अया ayá before initial *m and v—to the root thus gunated.

The accent rests on the first vowel of the inserted aya.

250. It will appear, from a cursory examination of the above rules, that the object of nearly all of them is to insert either a vowel—sometimes alone, sometimes preceded by y or n—or a letter of some kind between the modified root and the terminations. The 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th agree in requiring that the vowel, which is immediately to precede the terminations, shall be a or á. The 2nd, 3rd, and 7th agree in inserting no vowel between the final of the root and the terminations. The 5th, 8th, and 9th agree in interposing either u, á, or í after the letter n.

a. Any letters or syllables required to be inserted by the above

ten rules, are inserted only in the four Special tenses (except only in the case of cl. 10). In the other six tenses the stem is formed according to one general rule for all roots of whatever class, whence their name of General tenses. But in these also, some letter or syllable has to be inserted (the only exception being in the Perfect).

b. This inserted conjugational vowel, consonant, or syllable is usually called the vikaraṇa. Pāṇini's technical names for the ten insertions between the modified root and terminations under each of the ten classes, in regular order, are śap, śapo luk, ślu, śyan, śnu, śa, śnam, u, śná, ṇić; the last, however, does not strictly contain the vikaraṇa, the real insertion in cl. 10 (and in Causals) being aya (represented by the i of ṇić). The above Vikaraṇas (with ṇić) hold good before Kṛit suffixes containing an indicatory ś (such as śatṛi or śánać, see 247. c). In Passives and Neuters the insertion is technically called yak (leaving ya), to distinguish it from the Vikaraṇa śyan of cl. 4. With regard to the six General tenses, the Perfect has strictly no vikaraṇa (the almost universally inserted i of iṭ being called an augment). But in verbs belonging to cl. 10, in Derivative verbs (such as Causals), and in a few Primitive verbs like ikṣh, the syllable ám is added to the verbal stem. With regard to the other General tenses the Ágama iṭ (or inserted i) is by no means universally interposed, but certain letters or syllables are regarded as additions to the root distinct from the terminations; that in the 1st Future is technically called tási (=tás); that in the 2nd Future and Conditional is sya; that in the Aorist is called ćli (for which either sić or ksa or ćan or an or ćin are always substituted); that in the Precative is yásuṭ (=yás) for Par., and síyuṭ (=síy) for Átm.; that in the Vedic Leṭ is called sip.

THE ÁGAMA OR AUGMENT अ a.

251. In classical Sanskṛit (but not always in Vedic) the augment अ a (called ágama, 'increase') is prefixed to the stems of the Imperfect, Aorist, and Conditional tenses, and when the stem begins with अ a or आ á, the augment blends with these vowels into आ á by 31. (So in Gr. ε and ε become η in ἤγειρον, &c.)

a. But when the augment a is prefixed to stems beginning with the vowels इ i, उ u, and ऋ ṛi (short or long), it blends with them into ऐ ai, औ au, आर् ár (against 32, which would require the result to be e, o, ar).

Thus the stem इच्छ iććha (fr. rt. ish, 'to wish') in 3rd sing. Impf. becomes ऐच्छत् aiććhat; the stem ऊह úha becomes औहत auhata (Impf. Átm.); the stem ऋध्नो ṛidhno becomes आर्ध्नोत् árdhnot; the stem ओख okha becomes औखत् aukhat.

b. When a root is compounded with one or more prepositions, the augment is placed between the preposition or prepositions and the root, e. g. anv-atishṭham (fr. anu-sthá), upa-sam-aharat (fr. upa-saṃ-hṛi).

When स् s is prefixed to the root कृ kṛi, after certain prepositions (see 53. c), the augment is placed before the s, e. g. sam-askarot.

Obs.—The augment a is thought by some to have been originally a kind of demonstrative particle denoting past time (probably connected with the stem a of the demonstrative pronoun idam, see 224), while the separable particle sma (thought to be an abbreviation of another demonstrative pronominal stem sa-ma), also denoting past time, and often discharging the function of the augment a (see 878), has remained a detached particle.

REDUPLICATION.

252. After explaining the augment it will be convenient to specify the rules of reduplication (abhyása), as these have to be applied in the Special tenses of Primitive verbs of cl. 3, in the Perfect tense of all Primitive verbs, in the Aorist of a few Primitive verbs, and of verbs of cl. 10, and of some Nominals (521), as well as in Desideratives and in Frequentatives.

In reduplication the initial consonant and first vowel of a root are doubled, as in lilip fr. rt. lip, dadaridrá fr. daridrá. There are, however, special rules, as follow:

1st, as to consonants, thus:

a. A corresponding unaspirated letter is substituted for an aspirate, as द् d for ध् dh, in dadhá fr. dhá. (So in Gr., τ is repeated for θ, as θύω, τέθυκα, &c.)

b. The hard palatal च् ć is substituted for the hard gutturals क् k or ख् kh, as in ćakhan fr. khan; and the soft palatal ज् j for the soft gutturals ग् g, घ् gh, or ह् h, as in jagam fr. gam, jaghas fr. ghas, juhu fr. hu.

Obs.—हन् han, 'to kill,' and हि hi, 'to go,' substitute घ् gh for ह् h when reduplicated; as, jaghan fr. han.

c. If a root begin with a double consonant, the first consonant only or its substitute is repeated; as, च् ć for क्ष् ksh, in ćikship fr. kship; स् s for स्य् sy, in sasyand fr. syand; ज् j for ह् hṛ, in jahras fr. hras.

But if with a double consonant whose first is a sibilant, and whose second is hard, the second or its substitute is reduplicated; as, च् ć for स्क् sk, as in ćaskand fr. skand; त् t for स्थ् sth, as in tasthá fr. sthá; प् p for स्प् sp, as in paspriś fr. spṛiś.

2ndly, as to vowels, thus:

d. A short vowel is repeated for a long, and diphthongal sounds are represented by their second element; e. g. अ a is reduplicated for आ á; इ i for ई í, ऋ ṛi, ॠ ṛí, ए e, and ऐ ai; उ u for ऊ ú, ओ o, and औ au.

Obs.—In certain cases इ i is also repeated for a and á, as being a lighter vowel, and dyut, 'to shine,' makes didyut for dudyut.

e. In fact it may be observed, that when a long vowel causes too great weight in the radical syllable, it is generally lightened in the reduplicated syllable.

f. When a form has once been reduplicated, it is never reduplicated again in forming other Derivatives from it (see 517. a); and when roots which have to be reduplicated have any changed form, this modified form is taken in the reduplication; thus, स्मृ smṛi, 'to remember,' being changed to स्मर् in the Desiderative, the vowel of the root does not appear in the reduplication (सुस्मूर्).

VERBS PRIMITIVE, PASSIVE, CAUSAL, DESIDERATIVE, &c.

253. In conjugating a verb, then, two things have to be done: 1st, to form the stem from the root according to ten rules for four of the tenses, and one general rule for the other six; 2ndly, to join the stem so formed with the terminations, according to the regular rules of Sandhi or euphonic conjugation. As yet, however, we have only given a general explanation of the formation of the verbal stem of the Simple or Primitive verb under the ten classes of roots.

There are four other kinds of verbs deducible from all roots, whatever be their class.

254. In fact, every Sanskṛit root serves as a kind of stock out of which the inflective stems of five kinds of verbs may be evolved: 1. of a Primitive, Transitive or Intransitive; 2. of a Passive; 3. of a Causal, having often a Causal and often merely a Transitive signification; 4. of a Desiderative, giving a sense of wishing to the root; and 5. of a Frequentative (or Intensive), implying repetition, or heightening the idea contained in the root (see, however, 507).

255. The first, or Primitive verb, is formed from the root, according to the ten different rules, already given, for the formation of the stem in the first four tenses.

The second, or Passive, is formed according to the rule for the change of the root, required by the 4th class; viz. the addition of ya in the first four tenses.

The third, or Causal, is formed according to the rule for the change of the root required by the 10th class; viz. the addition of aya to the root in all the tenses excepting the Aorist.

The fourth, or Desiderative, is formed by the addition of sa or isha, the root also undergoing reduplication.

The fifth, or Frequentative, is formed like the Passive, according to the rule required by cl. 4, and is, in fact, a reduplicated passive verb. It may also be formed analogously to the rule for cl. 3.

Thus, if we take the root शुभ् śubh, conveying the idea of 'shining'—from this are developed, 1st, the Primitive verbal stem, śobha, 'to shine;' 2ndly, the Passive, śubhya, 'to be bright;' 3rdly, the Causal, śobhaya, 'to cause to shine' or 'illuminate;' 4thly, the Desiderative, śuśobhisha, 'to desire to shine;' 5thly, the Frequentative or Intensive, śośubhya or śośubh, 'to shine very brightly.'

a. And as every root is the source of five different kinds of Derivative verbs, so there are secondary Derivative verbs developed out of nouns called Nominal verbs. An explanation of these will be found after Frequentatives at 518.

256. The subject of verbs, therefore, as of nouns, will divide itself into two heads:

A. The formation of the stem; 1st of Primitive, 2ndly of Passive, 3rdly of Causal, 4thly of Desiderative, 5thly of Frequentative verbs; with their respective Participles.

B. The exhibition of the stem, united to its terminations, under each of the five forms of verbs consecutively.

PRIMITIVE VERBS.

FORMATION OF THE STEM OF THE FIRST FOUR TENSES, IN THE TEN CLASSES.

A brief summary of the ten rules for the formation of the stem of the four Special tenses—viz. the Present, Imperfect, Potential, and Imperative—in the ten classes of roots, has already been given at 249. These ten rules may be collected into three groups, which form three distinct general conjugations, as follow:

257. GROUP I. Conjugation I. This (like the declension of the first class of nouns whose stems end in a and á) is by far the most important, as comprising roots of the 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th classes, which agree in making their stems end in a (liable to be lengthened to á). These also resemble each other in taking substitutions for some of the terminations, after the analogy of the stems of nouns ending in a and á at 97. (See the substitutions indicated in the table at 246.)

Note—Of about 2000 roots belonging to the Sanskṛit language, nearly 1300 belong to this 1st conjugation. Besides which, every root in the language may take a Passive and Causal form, and so be conjugated as if it belonged to the 4th and 10th classes.

258. GROUP II. Conjugation II. This comprises verbs of the 2nd, 3rd, and 7th classes, which agree in affixing the regular terminations (at 246) to the final letter of the root, without the intervention of a vowel, after the analogy of the last four classes of nouns whose stems end in consonants.

259. GROUP III, Conjugation III, comprising verbs of the 5th, 8th, and 9th classes, also affixes the regular terminations (at 246) to the root; but after the intervention of either u, á, or í, preceded by the consonant n.

260. In comparing Sanskṛit verbs with Greek and Latin, it might be shewn that group I, comprising the 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th classes, answers to the Gr. 1st conjugation in ω, the conjugational अ a being represented in Gr. by ο or ε (tarpámas=τέρπομεν, tarpatha=τέρπετε); and although the Gr. 1st conjugation contains more subdivisions than the first group in Sk., yet the inflexion of these subdivisions is similar. As to the Sk. 10th class, however, it appears to correspond to Gr. verbs in αζω and ιζω, which, like the 10th, are generally found in company with other verbs from the same root; thus, καθαρίζω, 'I make pure' (καθαίρω), στενάζω, 'I groan' (στένω), where ζ corresponds to य् y, as in ζειά and यव 'barley.' To this class also may be referred verbs in αω, εω, οω; thus párayámi=περάω, where the y has been dropped, and the two a's combined. Lat. verbs in io, like audio &c., seem to be related to the Sk. 4th class, as well as to the 10th; thus cupio answers to kupyámi; and the i of audiebam answers to the aya of the 10th, just as in Prákṛit aya is contracted into ए e. The second and third groups of classes in Sk. (viz. the 2nd, 3rd, 7th, 5th, 8th, and 9th) answer to Gr. verbs in μι; thus emi cl. 2=εἶμι, dadámi cl. 3=δίδωμι. Class 7, however, has no exact parallel in Gr., but many Gr. and Lat. verbs resemble it in inserting a nasal into the middle of the root; see 342. a. The 5th and 8th classes answer to Gr. verbs like δείκ-νυ-μι, ζεύγ-νυ-μι, which agree in inserting νυ between the root and termination; in Gr. the vowel υ is lengthened before certain terminations, just as u is gunated into o in Sk.; thus stṛiṇomi=στόρνῡμι, stṛiṇoshi=στόρνῡς, stṛiṇoti=στόρνῡσι (for στόρνυτι), stṛiṇumas=στόρνῡμεν (for στόρνυμες), &c. The 9th class answers to Gr. verbs in νᾱ (νη); thus kríṇámi=πέρνᾱμι (πέρνημι), kríṇímas=πέρνᾰμεν. Cf. also Lat. forms in ni; thus sternimus=Sk. stṛiṇímas, fr. stṛi, cl. 9.

GROUP I.—FORMATION OF STEM IN ROOTS OF CLASSES 1, 4, 6, 10.

261. CLASS 1 (containing about 1000 Primitive verbs).—Rule for the formation of the stem in the four Special tenses.

Gunate the vowel of the root (except when debarred by 28) before every termination of all the four tenses, and affix the vowel अ a to the root so gunated. Remember, that this अ a is lengthened into आ á before the initial m and v of a termination, but not when m is final, as in the 1st sing. Impf.

262. Thus, fr. root बुध् budh, 'to know,' is formed the stem बोध bodha, lengthened into बोधा bodhá before m and v (Pres. 1.* bodhá+mi=बोधामि bodhámi, bodha+si=बोधसि bodhasi, bodha+ti=बोधति bodhati; Du. 1. bodhá+vas=बोधावस् bodhávas, &c.; Átm. Pres. bodha+i=बोधे bodhe by 32, bodha+se=बोधसे bodhase, &c.) See table at 583.

263. Similarly, fr. जि ji, 'to conquer' (see 590), comes the stem जय jaya (i. e. je+a, see 36. a), liable to be lengthened into जया jayá, as explained above; fr. नी ní, 'to lead,' the stems naya and nayá; fr. भू bhú, 'to be' (φύω, Lat. fu), the stems bhava (i. e. bho+a, 36. a) and bhavá (Pres. 1. भवामि bhavámi; 2. भवसि bhavasi, φύεις, &c., see 584); fr. सृप् sṛip, 'to creep,' the stems सर्प sarpa and sarpá (see 27); fr. क्लृप् klṛip, 'to fashion,' the stems कल्प kalpa and kalpá.

Obs.—Bhú, 'to be' or 'to become,' is one of the commonest verbs in the language, and like as, 'to be,' at 584, 327, is sometimes used as an auxiliary. Bhú is conjugated in full at 585.

264. The stem of the Imperfect has the augment अ a prefixed by 251 (Impf. 1. abodha + m = अबोधम् abodham, 2. abodha + s = अबोधस् abodhas, &c.)

265. In the Potential the final a of the stem blends with the initial i of the termination into e by 32 (Pot. 1. bodha + iyam = बोधेयम् bodheyam). So also in the Pres. Átm. (बोधे &c.) See table at 583.

266. In the Imperative the termination is rejected in the 2nd sing. (Impv. 1. bodha + áni = बोधानि bodháni, 2. बोध bodha, 3. bodha + tu = बोधतु bodhatu).

267. Roots like पच् 'to cook,' भिक्ष् 'to beg,' जीव् 'to live' (603), cannot change their radical vowels (see 27. a, 28), but, as before, affix अ a, liable to be lengthened to आ á: (Pres. 1. पचामि &c.; Pres. Átm. 1. भिक्षे &c.; Pres. 1. जीवामि &c.)

268. Some roots ending in the Vṛiddhi ऐ ai cannot be gunated, but suffer the usual change of Sandhi before अ a and आ á by 37; as, from गै 'to sing,' ग्लै 'to be weary,' त्रै Átm. 'to preserve †,' ध्यै 'to meditate,' म्लै 'to fade,' are formed the stems gáya, gláya, tráya, dhyáya, mláya. See 595. a. b.

269. Some roots of cl. 1 form their stems in the first four tenses by a change peculiar to themselves, which change is of course discarded in the other tenses; thus, from स्था sthá, 'to stand' (587), घ्रा ghrá, 'to smell' (588), पा 'to drink' (589), ध्मा 'to blow,' ष्ठा 'to repeat' or 'think over,' come the bases तिष्ठ tishṭha, जिघ्र jighra, पिब piba, धम dhama, मन mana, the final a being, as before, liable to be lengthened.

a. It should be noted that स्था sthá and घ्रा ghrá are properly reduplicated verbs of cl. 3 at 330. The reduplicated stem, by 252, would be tasthá, jaghrá: but as the reduplication is irregular, and the radical á gives way to the conjugational a, grammarians place these roots under cl. 1. The Greek ἵστημι, on the other hand, has not shortened its radical vowel in the singular.

* 1. stands for 1st person singular; Du. 1. for 1st dual; Pl. 1. for 1st plural, &c.

† A form त्राहि, as well as त्रायस्व, is found in Epic poetry for the 2nd sing. Impv. of this root.

270. Again, दृश् 'to see,' गम् 'to go,' यम् 'to restrain,' च्यु 'to go,' सद् 'to sink,' शद् (Átm. in Special tenses, Par. in others) 'to fall,' 'to perish,' form their stems पश्य paśya, गच्छ gaććha, यच्छ yaććha, च्यच्छ ṛiććha, सीद sída, शीय śíya: (Pres. 1. पश्यामि paśyámi, &c.)

a. According to Páṇini (VII. 3, 78), दा 'to give' may sometimes substitute the stem यच्छ yaććha; and सृ 'to go,' the stem धाव dháva.

b. गुह् 'to conceal' forms गूह; ष्ठिव् 'to spit,' ष्ठीव; मृज् 'to cleanse,' मार्ज: (Pres. 1. गूहामि &c.)

c. क्रम् 'to step,' क्लम् 'to tire,' चम् (with आ) 'to rinse the mouth,' lengthen their medial vowels, but the first only in Parasmai: (Pres. 1. क्रामामि &c., but Átm. क्रमे.)

d. दंश् 'to bite,' रञ्ज् 'to colour,' सञ्ज् 'to adhere,' स्वञ्ज् 'to embrace,' drop their nasals: (Pres. 1. दशामि &c., रजामि &c.)

e. जभ् Átm. 'to yawn' makes its stem जम्भ, and even लभ् Átm. 'to receive' sometimes becomes लम्भ in Epic poetry.

271. कम् Átm. 'to love' forms its stem after the analogy of cl. 10 (Pres. 1. कामये &c.), and some other roots add áya; thus, fr. गुप् 'to protect,' गोपाय gopáya; fr. धूप् 'to fumigate,' धूपाय; fr. विच्छ् 'to go,' विच्छाय; fr. पण् Átm. (meaning 'to praise,' not 'to wager'), पणाय; fr. पन् Átm. 'to praise,' पनाय.

a. कुर्द् Átm. 'to play,' like all roots containing ir and ur compounded with another consonant, lengthens the vowel (Pres. 1. कूर्दे &c.)

272. Class 4 (containing about 130 Primitive verbs).—Rule for the formation of the stem in the four Special tenses.

Affix य ya to the root. The vowel of the root is not gunated, and generally remains unchanged. Remember, that the inserted य ya is liable to become या yá before an initial m and v of the terminations (but not before the m of the 1st sing. Impf. Par.), as in cl. 1 at 261.

273. Thus, fr. सिध् sidh, 'to succeed,' is formed the stem सिध्य sidhya (Pres. 1. sidhyá+mi=सिध्यामि sidhyámi, 2. सिध्यसि sidhyasi, &c.; Impf. asidhya+m=असिध्यम् asidhyam, &c.; Pot. 1. sidhya+iyam=सिध्येयम् sidhyeyam, 2. सिध्येस् sidhyes, &c.; Impv. 1. sidhya+áni=सिध्यानि sidhyáni, &c. Pres. Átm. 1. sidhya+i=सिध्ये sidhye, sidhya+se=सिध्यसे sidhyase, &c.) See 616.

274. Similarly, fr. मा má, 'to measure,' the stem माय máya (Pres. 1. Átm. máya+i=माये máye, &c.); fr. क्षिप् kship, 'to throw,' क्षिप्य kshipya; fr. नृत् nṛit, 'to dance,' नृत्य nṛitya; fr. डी ḍí, 'to fly,' डीय ḍíya (Pres. Átm. 1. डीये).

275. Roots ending in am and iv, and one in ad, lengthen the vowel; as, fr. दिव् div, 'to play,' दीव्य dívya; fr. भ्रम् bhram (also cl. 1), 'to wander,' भ्राम्य bhrámya; fr. मद् mad, 'to be mad,' माद्य mádya. Similarly, क्रम् (also cl. 1) 'to step,' क्षम् 'to endure,' क्लम् 'to grow weary,' तम् 'to be afflicted,' दम् 'to be tamed;' but bhram may optionally form भ्रम्य bhramya.

276. If a root contain a nasal it is generally rejected; as, from भ्रंश् 'to fall,' भ्रश्य bhraśya; from रञ्ज् 'to colour,' रज्य; जन् 'to be born' makes जाय jáya (Pres. 1. Átm. जाये), lengthening the vowel, to compensate for the loss of n.

a. Roots ending in ओ o drop this o before the conjugational ya; thus, सो so, 'to end,' makes its stem sya. Similarly, छो 'to cut,' शो 'to sharpen,' दो 'to divide.'

277. The following are anomalous. From जॄ 'to grow old,' जीर्य jírya; fr. व्यध् 'to pierce,' विध्य vidhya (cf. 472); fr. मिद् 'to be viscid,' मेद्य medya.

Obs.—Although this class includes only 130 Primitive verbs (generally Intransitive in signification), yet every one of the 2000 roots in the language may have a Passive form which follows the Átmane-pada of this class, differing from it only in the position of the accent, see 461.

278. Class 6 (containing about 140 Primitive verbs).—Rule for the formation of the stem in the four Special tenses.

Affix the vowel अ a to the root, which is not gunated, and in other respects generally remains unchanged. Remember, that the inserted अ a becomes आ á before an initial m and v of the terminations of the four tenses (but not before the m of the 1st sing. Impf.), as in cl. 1 and 4 at 261 and 272.

279. Thus, fr. क्षिप् kship, 'to throw,' comes the stem क्षिप kshipa (Pres. 1. kshipá +mi=क्षिपामि kshipámi, 2. kshipa+si=क्षिपसि kshipasi; Pot. 1. kshipa+iyam=क्षिपेयम् kshipeyam, &c. Átm. Pres. 1. kshipa+i=क्षिपे kshipe; see 635).

Similarly, fr. तुद् tud, 'to strike,' तुद tuda; fr. दिश् diś, 'to point out,' दिश diśa.

280. Roots in इ i, उ u or ऊ ú, ऋ ṛi and ॠ ṛí, generally change those vowels into इय् iy, उव् uv, रिय् riy, and इर् ir respectively; as, fr. रि, 'to go,' comes the stem रिय riya; fr. नु 'to praise,' नुव nuva; fr. धू 'to agitate,' धुव dhuva; fr. मृ 'to die,' म्रिय mriya (626); fr. कॄ kṛí, 'to scatter,' किर kira (627).

a. गॄ 'to swallow' makes either गिर or गिल.

281. A considerable number of roots of the sixth class, ending in consonants, insert a nasal before the final consonant in the four tenses; as, fr. मुच्, 'to let go,' comes the stem मुञ्च muñca; fr. लिप् 'to anoint,' लिम्प limpa; fr. कृत् 'to cut,' कृन्त kṛinta; fr. सिच् 'to sprinkle,' सिञ्च siñca; fr. लुप् 'to break,' लुम्प lumpa; fr. पिश् 'to form,' पिंश. Similarly, विद् 'to find,' खिद् 'to trouble.'

282. The following are anomalous. From इष्, 'to wish,' comes the stem इच्छ iććha; fr. प्रच्छ् 'to ask,' पृच्छ pṛiććha; fr. भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' भृज्ज bhṛijja; fr. व्यच् 'to deceive,' विच vića; fr. व्रश्च् 'to cut,' वृश्च vṛišća. Cf. 472.

a. The roots शद् and सद् are sometimes regarded as falling under this class; see their stems at 270.

283. Class 10 (containing a few Primitive verbs, all Causals, and some Nominal verbs, see 521).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Gunate the vowel of the root throughout every person of all the four tenses (except when debarred by 28), and affix अय aya to the root so gunated. This अय aya becomes अया ayá before initial m and v of the terminations of the four tenses, but not before m of the 1st sing. Impf.

284. Thus, from चुर् ćur, 'to steal,' is formed the stem चोरय ćoraya (Pres. 1. ćorayá + mi = चोरयामि ćorayámi, 2. ćoraya + si = चोरयसि ćorayasi, &c.; Impf. 1. aćoraya + m = अचोरयम् aćorayam, &c., see 638; Pot. 1. ćoraya + iyam = चोरयेयम् ćorayeyam; Impv. 1. ćoraya + áni = चोरयाणि ćorayáṇi, &c., see 58).

285. Roots ending in vowels generally take Vṛiddhi instead of Guṇa (481); as, fr. प्री 'to please,' प्रायय práyaya (cf. 485. a); fr. धृ 'to hold,' धारय dháraya. But वृ 'to choose' makes वरय varaya. This last, however, is generally regarded as a Causal.

286. Roots containing the vowel अ a before a single consonant generally lengthen this vowel; as, fr. ग्रस् 'to swallow,' ग्रासय grásaya: but not before a conjunct consonant; as, fr. अङ्क् 'to mark,' अङ्कय; fr. दण्ड् 'to punish,' दण्डय.

a. The following, however, do not lengthen the medial a, though followed by a single consonant: कथ् 'to say' (कथय); गण् 'to count;' अघ् 'to sin;' खच् 'to tie;' रच् 'to arrange;' पद् Átm. in the sense of 'to surround;' रट् 'to scream;' व्रण् 'to wound;' अर्ष् and ऋष् in the sense of 'to be lax or weak;' रह् 'to quit;' पद् Átm. 'to go;' गद् 'to sound;' ध्वन्, स्तन्, स्वन्, 'to sound;' कल् 'to count' (also lengthened in Epic poetry); व्यय् 'to spend;' and others less common.

287. कृत्, 'to celebrate,' 'to praise,' makes कीर्तय kírtaya (Pres. कीर्तयामि).

288. A few roots with a medial ऋ ṛi retain that vowel unchanged; as, from स्पृह् 'to desire,' स्पृहय; मृग् 'to search,' मृगय; मृष् 'to bear,' मृषय (more commonly मर्षय); गृह् Átm. 'to take,' गृहय (also ग्राहय); कृप् 'to pity,' कृपय; but मृज् 'to wipe' takes Vṛiddhi (मार्जय). Some of these may be regarded as nominals.

a. The following also do not gunate their medial vowels: सुख् 'to make happy,' पुट् 'to bind,' स्फुट् 'to become manifest,' कुण् or गुण् 'to consult.'

b. A few roots of more than one syllable (see 75. a) are said to belong to cl. 10, viz. सभाज् 'to worship,' अवधीर् 'to despise,' संग्राम् 'to fight,' कुमार् or कुमाल् 'to play,' गवेष् 'to search,' विडम्ब् 'to imitate,' निवास् 'to put on,' संकेत् 'to invite,' आन्दोल्, हिन्दोल्, हिल्लोल्, प्रेङ्खोल्, 'to swing,' पल्यूल् or पल्युल् or वल्यूल् 'to cut off.' These and a few monosyllabic roots of cl. 10, such as अंश् 'to divide,' अर्च् 'to ask,' मिश्र् 'to mix,' अङ्क् 'to mark,' मूत्र् 'to make water,' सूत्र् 'to thread,' चीव् 'to fan,' छिद्र् 'to perforate,' शब्द् 'to sound,' and others less common, can, according to some grammarians, form their stems optionally with ápaya: thus, अंश् may make in Pres. 1. अंशापयामि or अंशयामि.

289. It has been shewn that every root may have a Causal form, which follows the rule of conjugation of cl. 10. Indeed, it may be owing to the fact that there are a number of Active Primitive verbs not Causal in their signification, but conjugated like Causals, that a 10th class has arisen distinct from the Causal. In verbs of this class the Causal form will generally be identical with the Primitive.

Again, as some verbs really Causal in their signification are regarded as belonging to cl. 10, there will often be a difficulty in determining whether a verb be a Primitive verb of this class, or a Causal verb. Hence the consideration of cl. 10 must to a great extent be mixed up with that of the Causal form of the root. See the special changes applicable to Causals at 483–488.

a. Observe, that all verbs, whether Primitive or Causal, which belong to cl. 10, have this great peculiarity, viz. that the conjugational aya is carried throughout all the tenses of the verb, General as well as Special, except only the Aorist and the Precative, Parasmai-pada. For this reason the formation of the stem of the General tenses of verbs of cl. 10 will not be explained under the head of the General tenses (at 363), but will fall under Causal verbs.

b. Many verbs of cl. 10 are also conjugated in other classes; and many may be regarded as Nominal verbs.

GROUPS II AND III.—FORMATION OF STEM IN ROOTS OF CLASSES 2, 3, 7, AND CLASSES 5, 8, 9.

Preliminary Observations.

290. The formation of the stems of verbs of groups II and III presents more difficulties than that of group I, containing the 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th classes. In group I the verbal stem, although varying slightly in each class, preserves the form assumed in the singular before all the terminations of every Special tense; but in the last two groups the stem is liable to variation in the various persons and numbers of most of the tenses, such variation being denoted by the letter P and other indicatory letters of the scheme at 246.

a. The object of the P is to shew, that fulness or strength of form is imparted to the root before these weak terminations (see 247. b); thus इ i, cl. 2, 'to go,' is in the Pres. sing. emi, eshi, eti; in du. ivas, ithas, itas; in pl. imas, &c.: just as in Gr. ἔ͡ιμι, ἔ͡ι, ἔ͡ισι, ἴτον, ἴτον, ἴμεν, &c.: cf. also φημί (for φᾱμι), φής, φησί, φᾰτόν, φᾰτόν, φᾰμέν, φᾰτέ, φασί. So again, stṛi, 'to strew,' is in Pres. sing. stṛiṇomi, stṛiṇoshi, stṛiṇoti; in du. stṛiṇuvas, stṛiṇuthas, stṛiṇutas; in pl. stṛiṇumas, &c.: just as in Gr. στόρνυμι, στόρνῡς, στόρνῡσι, στόρνῠτον, στόρνῠτον, στόρνῦμεν, &c. Similarly, krí, 'to buy,' is in Pres. sing. kríṇámi, kríṇási, kríṇáti; in du. &c. kríṇívas, kríṇíthas, kríṇítas, kríṇímas, &c., the á being heavier than í. Cf. πέρνᾱμι (πέρνημι), πέρνᾱς, πέρνᾱτι, πέρνᾰτον, πέρνᾰτον, &c. The P after the terminations of the first three persons of the Impv., Parasmai and Átmane, indicates that even before these heavy terminations the stem must be full. When a root ending in a consonant is long by nature or position, no additional strength is necessary, and no Guṇa is then possible (see 28); but in place of Guṇa, the stem sometimes remains unmutilated before the light terminations, while mutilation takes place before the heavy. The same holds good in roots ending in á; thus dá and dhá suppress their final vowels before strong terminations, and preserve them before weak; see 335, 336. Similarly, as, 'to be,' which by 28 cannot be gunated, drops its initial vowel before the strong terminations, retaining it before the weak; see 327, and compare 324.

291. Another source of difficulty is, that in group II (containing the 2nd, 3rd, and 7th classes) the verbal stem generally ends in a consonant. This group of verbal stems, therefore, will resemble the last four classes of nominal stems; and the combination of the final consonant of a stem with the initial t, th, dh, or s, of a termination in the Special tenses of these three classes requires a knowledge of the laws of Sandhi already given, as well as of others about to be explained.

292. With regard to the terminations, a reference to the table at 246 will shew that the last two groups take the regular terminations of the scheme, with few substitutions. But in the 3rd pl. Present and Imperative, Átmane-pada, the nasal is rejected in all six classes; and in the 3rd class, owing to the burden occasioned by reduplication, the nasal is also rejected in the 3rd pl. of the Parasmai-pada in these two tenses; this class also takes us for an in the 3rd pl. Impf.

293. Moreover, roots ending in consonants, of the 2nd and 3rd, and all roots of the 7th, and the root हु hu of the 3rd class, take dhi (the Greek θι) for hi in the 2nd sing. Impv.* (see 246); and roots ending in vowels, of the 5th, and all roots of the 8th, and roots ending in consonants of the 9th class, resemble the first group of classes at 257, in rejecting this termination hi altogether.

294. Again, roots ending in consonants reject the terminations s and t of the 2nd and 3rd sing. Impf. by 41. I, changing the final of the root, if a soft consonant, to an unaspirated hard; and in other respects changing a final consonant, as indicated at 41. I–IV. In roots ending in न्, म्, द्, भ्, the 3rd person rejects the termination t regularly, and ends therefore in simple त्; the 2nd person optionally rejects either the termination s, and ends therefore in t, or the final dental of the root, and ends then in s, see 308.

295. The following new rules of Sandhi will also apply in forming the Special tenses of the Parasmai-Frequentative (see 514), and in forming the stem of the General tenses of all Primitive verbs (except those of cl. 10), and in some of the Participles; for although in most roots ending in consonants the vowel इ i (see 391) is inserted before the terminations of these tenses, yet a large class of common roots reject this inserted vowel, leaving the final of the stem to coalesce with the initial consonant of the termination. It will be convenient, therefore, to introduce by anticipation examples from the General tenses and Participles.

EUPHONIC JUNCTION OF CERTAIN VERBAL STEMS WITH TERMINATIONS AND SUFFIXES.

Combination of final च् ć, छ् ćh, ज् j, झ् jh, with त् t, थ् th, ध् dh, स् s.

296. Final च् ć and ज् j, before त् t, थ् th, ध् dh, and स् s, are changed to क् k (cf. 41. IV), the क् k blending with स् s into क्ष् ksh by 70, and becoming ग् g before dh; thus, vać + ti = vakti; vać + thas = vakthas; vać + si = vakshi; moć + syámi = mokshyámi; muć + ta = mukta; tyaj + ta = tyakta; tyaj + syámi = tyakshyámi. The same applies to final झ् jh, but this is not likely to occur.

a. Similarly, final छ् ćh before s; as, praćh + syámi = prakshyámi.

297. But a final छ् ćh and ज् j sometimes become ष् sh before त् t, थ् th; and त् t, थ् th, then become ट्, ठ्; thus, मार्ज् + ti = मार्ष्टि; मृज् + thas = मृष्ठस्; सृज् + ta = सृष्ट; प्रच्छ् + tá = प्रष्टा.

a. Similarly, a final ज् j may be changed to ड् ḍ before ध् dh, which then becomes ढ् ḍh.

b. भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' मज्ज् 'to be immersed,' and व्रश्च् 'to cut,' reject their last consonant, and the first two are treated as if ending in ज्, the last as if ending in श्. See 632, 633, 630.

Combination of final ध् dh, भ् bh, with त् t, थ् th, स् s.

298. Final ध् dh and भ् bh, before त् t and थ् th, are changed, the one to द् d, the other to ब् b, and both t and th then become ध् dh; thus, rundh with tas or thas becomes equally रुन्द्धस् runddhas; labh + táhe = लभाहे labdháhe; bodh + táhe = बोद्धाहे.

A similar rule applies to final घ् gh, which must be changed to ग् g, but this is not likely to occur.

a. When final ध् dh is preceded by a conjunct न् n, as in rundh, then the final dh, which has become d (before t and th changed to dh), may optionally be rejected; so that rundh + tas = रुन्द्धस् or रुन्धस्; rundh + tam = रुन्द्धम् or रुन्धम् (Páṇ. VIII. 4, 65).

b. On the same principle तृण्ढस् is written for तृण्ढ्ढस् from तृंह् (674).

c. Similarly roots ending in त् t and द् d may reject these letters before th, t, and dhi, when n immediately precedes, hence भिन्ते may be written for भिन्त्ते, भिन्तस् for भिन्त्तस्, भिन्धि for भिन्द्धि.

299. Final ध् dh and भ् bh, before स् s, are changed by 44, the one to त् t, the other to प् p; thus, रुणध् ruṇadh + सि si becomes रुणत्सि ruṇatsi; sedh + syámi = setsyámi; labh + sye = lapsye (cf. 41. II).

a. If the initial of the syllable containing the final aspirate be g, d, b, or ḍ, then the aspirate, which has been rejected in the final, is thrown back on the initial; as, बोध् bodh + स्ये sye = भोत्स्ये bhotsye; दध् dadh + sva = dhatsva: and in the case of दध् the same applies before t and th, against 298. See 44. c, 336, 664. Cf. θρέψω from τρέφω.

b. The aspiration is also thrown back on the initial, when final dh is changed to d, before the terminations dhve and dhvam. See 336, 664.

Combinations of final श् ś, ष् sh, स् s, with त् t, थ् th, स् s, ध् dh.

300. Final श् ś, before त् t and थ् th, becomes ष् sh; and the त् t, थ् th, take the cerebral form ट्, ठ्; thus, ईश् + te = ईष्टे; ऐश् + thás = ऐष्ठास्.

301. Similarly, final ष् sh, before त् t and थ् th, requires the change of त् t, थ् th, to ट्, ठ्; thus, द्वेष् + ti = द्वेष्टि; and द्विष् + thas = द्विष्ठस्.

302. Final श् ś or ष् sh, before स् s, is changed to क् k by 41. V, the स् s then becoming ष् sh by 70; thus, वश् + si = वक्षि; द्वेष् + si = द्वेक्षि; दृश् + syámi = द्रक्ष्यामि.

a. Final क्ष् ksh is also changed to क् k; as, चक्ष् + से = चक्षे.

303. Final श् ś or ष् sh, before ध् dh, is changed to ड् ḍ, the ध् dh becoming ढ् ḍh by 51; thus, द्विष् + dhi = द्विड्ढि. Similarly, द्विष् + dhvam = द्विड्ढ्वम्. A final ज् j may also follow this rule; see 632, 651.

a. Final क्ष् ksh also becomes ड् ḍ, k being dropped; as, चक्ष् + ध्वे = चड्ढ्वे.

304. Final स् s is changed to त् t before त् t in the 3rd sing. Impf. (the termination t being rejected), and before ध् dh, is either dropped or changed to द् d; thus, ćakás + dhi = either चकाधि ćakádhi or चकाद्धि ćakáddhi; शास् + dhi = शाधि; हिंस् + dhi = हिन्धि or हिन्द्धि, see 658, 673.

a. Final स् s before स् s is changed to त् t; as, vas + syámi = vatsyámi. So optionally in 2nd sing. Impf. of शास्, aśás + s = aśáts = aśát (or aśás).

b. But not in the case of final s preceded by a or á before si and se.

Combination of final ह् h with त् t, थ् th, स् s, ध् dh.

305. In roots beginning with द् d, like दुह् duh, 'to milk,' final ह् h is treated as if it were घ् gh, and is changed to ग् g before त् t and थ् th, and both t and th then become ध् dh; thus, दुह् duh + tas or thas becomes equally दुग्धस् dugdhas; दह् dah + tásmi = dagdhásmi.

But दृह् + ta = दृढ dṛiḍha.

Note—In root नह् the final h is treated as if it were ध् dh, and becomes द् d, after which t and th both become dh. See 624.

a. But if a root begin with any other letter than द् d or न् n, then its final ह् h is dropped, and both the त् t and थ् th of the termination become ढ् ḍh. Moreover, to compensate for the rejection of the final h, a radical vowel (except ṛi), if not gunated, is lengthened, and in the roots सह् sah and वह् vah, 'to bear,' changed to o; as, मुह् + ta = मूढ; रुह् + ta = रूढ; लेह् + ti = लेढि leḍhi; रोह् + tásmi = रोढास्मि; सह् + tá = सोढा; वह् + tá = वोढा.

Obs.—But तृह् + ta = तृढ, and वृह् + ta = वृढ (Páṇ. VI. 3, 111).

b. दुह् 'to injure,' मुह् 'to be foolish,' स्निह् 'to love,' स्नुह् 'to vomit,' optionally follow either 305 or 305. a.

306. Final ह् h, before स् s, follows the analogy of final श् ś and ष् sh, and is changed to क् k, which blends with स् s into क्ष् ksh; thus, लेह् leh with si becomes लेक्षि; रोह् + syámi = रोक्ष्यामि. Similarly, in Latin, final h becomes k before s; as, veksit (vexit) from veho.

a. And if the initial of the syllable ending in ह् h be द् d, ग् g, ब् b, or ड् ḍ (the two latter, however, are not likely to occur), then the final ह् h is still changed to क् k before s; but the initial द् d and ग् g are aspirated according to the analogy of 44. c; thus, दोह् doh + si = धोक्षि; दह् dah + syámi = धक्ष्यामि; अगुह् aguh + sam = अघुक्षम्.

b. In root नह् nah final ह् h is treated as if it were dh, and becomes त् t before स् s. Compare 183, and see 624.

c. In roots beginning with द् d, like दुह् duh and दिह् dih, final ह् h becomes ग् g before dh; i.e. before the dhi of the 2nd sing. Imperative, and before the terminations dhve and dhvam (see 306. d); thus, दुह् duh + dhi = दुग्धि dugdhi. And in a root beginning with n, like नह् nah, final h becomes d before these terminations.

But if the root begin with any other letter than द् d or न् n, then final ह् h is dropped, and the ध् dh of the termination becomes ढ् ḍh, the radical vowel (except ऋ ṛi) being lengthened; thus, लिह् lih + dhi = लीढि; lih + dhvam = लीढ्वम्. An option, however, is allowed in the case of the roots at 305. b.

d. And 306. a. applies before dhve and dhvam, when final ह् h becomes ग् g or is dropped, although not before dhi of the Imperative; thus, duh + dhve = धुग्ध्वे dhugdhve; and aguh + dhvam = अगूढ्वम् aghúḍhvam.

e. Obs.—If a root end in ह् h, this final h becomes क् k in the 2nd and 3rd sing. Impf. of roots beginning with द् d (the personal terminations s and t being dropped). In all other roots the final ह् h becomes द् t (41. III). In both cases the changed ह् throws back an aspiration on the first consonant of the root in accordance with 306. a.

GROUP II. CONJUGATION II.

307. Class 2 (containing about 70 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Gunate the vowel of the root (except when debarred by 28) in the strong forms, or before those terminations only which are marked with P in the scheme at 246. Before all the other terminations the original vowel of the root must be retained. No vowel is interposed between the root and the terminations. (Cf. Gr. verbs like εἶμι, φημί, &c. See 290. a.)

308. Thus, from विद् vid, 'to know' (Gr. ϝείδω, ϝίδον, Lat. video), is formed the stem of the singular Present ved (1. ved + mi = वेद्मि vedmi, &c.), and the stem of the dual and plural vid (Du. 1. vid + vas = विद्वस् vidvas, &c.; Pl. 1. vid + mas = विद्मस् vidmas, &c.) So also the stem of the Impf. aved and avid (1. aved + am = avedam, 2. aved + s = avet or aves by 41. I. and 294); the stem of the Pot. vid (1. vid + yám = विद्याम् vidyám, &c.); and the stem of the Impv. ved and vid (1. ved + áni = vedáni, 2. vid + dhi = viddhi 293, ved + tu = pettu: Du. 1. ved + áva = vedáva, &c. *) See the table at 583.

a. A contracted form of the Perfect of vid (365) is sometimes used for the Present; thus, Sing. veda, vettha, veda; Du. vidva, vidathus, vidatus; Pl. vidma, vida, vidus; see 168. e. Cf. Gr. οἶδα (for ϝοίδα) fr. rt. ϝιδ (ϝείδω), also used with a Present signification; and Lat. vidi, vidisti, &c. Cf. also the Present vidmas with ϝίδμεν (ἴσμεν), vittha with ϝίστε, and viddhi with ϝίσθι. Cf. also old English 'to wit.'

309. Similarly, from द्विष्, 'to hate,' come the stems dvesh and dvish (Pres. 1. द्वेष्मि; Du. 1. द्विष्वस्, &c.; see 657).

* The Impv. of vid is optionally formed with the syllable ám and the auxiliary verb kṛi (cf. 385); thus, Sing. 3. विदांकरोतु or विदाङ्करोतु (Pán. III. 1, 41). And this root may optionally insert r in the 3rd pl. Átm. of the Pres., Impf., and Impv.; thus, विदते or विद्रते, अविदत or अविद्रत, विदताम् or विद्रताम्.

310. So also, from इ i, 'to go,' come the stems e and i (Pres. 1. एमि emi (= εἶμι), 2. एषि by 70, 3. एति; Pl. 1. इमस्, ἴμεν, see 645).

a. जागृ 'to awake' makes, in the same way, jágar and jágri (Pres. 1. जागर्मि, &c.; Du. 1. जागृवस्; Pl. 3. जाग्रति; Impf. 2, 3. अजागर् or अजागः; Du. 3. अजागृताम्; Pl. 3. अजागरुस्; Pot. 1. जागृयाम्; Impv. 3. जागर्तु; Pl. 3. जाग्रतु).

Obs.—Roots of cl. 2, having more than one syllable (such as जागृ above, दरिद्रा 'to be poor,' चकास् 'to shine,' all formed by reduplication), as well as शास् 'to rule' (perhaps contracted from a reduplicated शशास्), and जक्ष् 'to eat' (perhaps for जघस्), resemble the reduplicated verbs of cl. 3 in rejecting the nasal from the 3rd pl. Pres. and Impv. Parasmai, and taking us for an in 3rd pl. Impf. Moreover, a few roots like विद् and द्विष् above, as well as some in á, like या 'to go' and पा 'to protect,' optionally take us for an in Impf., before which a final á is dropped.

311. The preposition अधि adhi, 'over,' prefixed to the root इ i, 'to go,' gives the sense of 'to read' (Átmane-pada only): इ then becomes iy (compare 123) and blends with adhi into अधीय् adhíy before the vowel-terminations of the Pres., Impf., and Pot. Before the consonantal terminations it becomes अधी adhí. (Hence Pres. 1. अधीये, 2. अधीषे, 3. अधीते; Du. 1. अधीवहे, &c.; Pl. 3. अधीयते; Impf. 1. adhi+a+iy+i=अध्यैयि by 251. a, 2. अध्यैथास्, 3. अध्यैत; Du. 1. अध्यैवहि, 2. अध्यैयाथाम्, &c.; Pot. 1. अधीयीय, अधीयीयास्, &c.; Impv. 1. adhi+e+ai=अध्यये by 36. a, 2. अधीष्व, &c.)

a. The preposition आ á is prefixed to the root इ i, according to the usual rules of Sandhi, and gives the sense of 'to come;' thus, Pres. ऐमि, ऐषि, ऐति; एवस्, &c.; Impf. आयम्, ऐस्, &c.; Pot. एयाम्, एयास्, &c.; Impv. आयानि, एहि, ऐतु, &c. Again, the prep. अप apa prefixed gives the sense of 'to go away;' thus, Pres. अपैमि, &c.: and the prep. अव gives the sense of 'to know;' as, Pres. अवैमि.

312. So also other roots in ई í and ऊ u or ॠ ú change these vowels to iy and uv (cf. 123, 125. a) before the vowel-terminations; as, fr. वी ví, 'to go,' come ve, ví, and viy (Pres. 1. वेमि, &c.; Du. 1. वीवस्; Pl. 3. वियन्ति)*. Similarly, सू, 'to bring forth' (Átm. only), makes in Pres. Sing. Du. Pl. 3. सूते, सुवाते, सुवते; and in Impv. Sing. Du. Pl. 1. सुवै, सुवावहै, सुवामहै, Guṇa being suppressed.

313. स्तु stu and नु nu, 'to praise;' यु yu, 'to join,' 'to mix;' and रु ru, 'to sound,' follow 312, but take Vṛiddhi instead of Guṇa before the consonantal P terminations†. Hence the stems स्तौ stau, स्तु stu, and स्तुव् stuv; see 648. Before the vowel P terminations both Vṛiddhi and Guṇa are generally (but not always) suppressed, and uv substituted, as in सू at 312. Note, that these roots may optionally insert an ई í before the consonantal P terminations; and before this vowel Guṇa, not Vṛiddhi, is required. According to some authorities, however, í is inserted before all the consonantal terminations; and, according to others, before all the consonants, except y, v, or m, not followed by an indicatory P.

314. ब्रू, 'to speak,' can never take Vṛiddhi, like the roots at 313; but inserts

* According to some the 3rd pl. Impf. of वी is अव्यन् as well as अवियन्.

† That is, the terminations marked with P, which begin with consonants.

an ई i after Guṇa in the places where those roots optionally insert it, viz. before the consonantal P terminations. Hence the stems bravi, brú, bruv. See 649.

a. Before the vowel P terminations Guṇa is not suppressed, excepting in the 1st sing. Impf., which may be either अब्रवम् or अब्रुवम्.

315. शी, 'to lie down' (Átm. only), guṇates the radical vowel before all the terminations, and inserts r in the 3rd pl. Pres., Impf., and Impv., after the analogy of the 3rd pl. Pot. See 646.

316. ऊर्णु, 'to cover,' takes either Vṛiddhi or Guṇa of the final u before the consonantal P terminations, except before the 2nd and 3rd sing. of the Impf., where Guṇa only is admissible. Before the vowel-terminations it follows 312, but Guṇa is retained before the vowel P terminations, excepting in the 1st sing. Impf. Hence the stems úrṇau, úrṇo, úrṇu, and úrṇuv (Pres. Par. 1. ऊर्णौमि or ऊर्णोमि; Du. 1. ऊर्णुवस्; Pl. 3. ऊर्णुवति, see 310. Obs.; Impf. 1. और्णवम् or और्णुवम् by 251. a, 2. और्णोस्, &c.; Pot. 1. ऊर्णुयाम्; Impv. S. 1. ऊर्णवानि, 3. ऊर्णौतु or ऊर्णोतु. Pres. Átm. 3. ऊर्णुते, ऊर्णुवाते, ऊर्णुवते).

317. या 'to go,' पा 'to protect,' अद् 'to eat' (edo), आस् 'to sit,' Átm., and other roots having a or á for their vowels, cannot be changed, but are themselves the inflective stems (Pres. 1. या yá+mi=yámi, see 644; अद् ad+mi=admi, 2. ad+si =atsi, 3. ad+ti=atti; Du. 3. ad+tas=attas, &c., see 652). With atti compare Lat. edit.

a. आस् 'to sit' is similar; thus ás+e=áse, ás+se=ásse, ás+te=áste. The final of ás is dropped before dh, hence Pl. 2. आध्वे ádhve, &c.

b. अद् 'to eat,' before the terminations of the 2nd and 3rd sing. Imperfect, inserts the vowel अ a by special rule, see 652; and some other roots of this class require peculiar changes, as follows:—

318. दरिद्रा daridrá, 'to be poor,' follows 310. Obs., making its stem daridri before the consonantal terminations not marked with P, and daridr before ati, us, atu (Pres. S. Du. Pl. 3. दरिद्राति, दरिद्रितस्, दरिद्रति; Impf. 1. अदरिद्राम्; Pl. 3. अदरिद्रुस्; Pot. 3. दरिद्रियात्; Impv. 1. दरिद्राणि; Du. 1. दरिद्राव; Pl. 3. दरिद्रतु).

319. दीधी dídhí, 'to shine' (Átm.), and वेवी 'to go' (Átm.), change their final to y, and not to iy, before the vowel-terminations (compare 312); but in the Potential the final i coalesces with the i of the terminations (Pres. Sing. 1. दीध्ये; वेव्ये; Pl. 3. दीध्यते; वेव्यते: Pot. 1. दीधीय, &c.)

320. वच् vać, 'to speak,' changes its final palatal to a guttural before all the hard consonantal terminations, in conformity with 176; but not before the soft (except dh). It is defective in the 3rd pl. Present and Imperative, where its place must be supplied by ब्रू at 314, 649. Hence the stems vać and vak. See 650.

321. मृज् mṛij, 'to cleanse,' is vriddhied in strong forms, and optionally before the vowel-terminations having no P. Hence the stems márj and mṛij. See 651.

322. रुद् rud, 'to weep,' besides the usual Guṇa change before the P terminations, inserts the vowel इ i before all the consonantal terminations except y, and optionally a or i in the 2nd and 3rd sing. Impf. Hence rodi, rudi, rud. See 653.

a. स्वप् 'to sleep,' श्वस् and अन् 'to breathe,' and जक्ष् 'to eat,' are similar, but without Guṇa. The last conforms to 310. Obs. In the Epic poems, forms like स्वपामि are found as well as स्वपिमि, while in the Veda other roots (besides the above five) insert i (as शोचिमि, वमिति, ऋलिति, सरिति, &c.) See Páṇ. VII. 2, 76. 34.

323. हन् han, 'to kill,' makes its stem ह ha before t or th (by 57. a); घ् ghn before anti, an, antu; and ज ja before हि. The last change is to avoid the proximity of two aspirates. See 654, and compare 252. b. Obs.

324. वश् vaś, 'to desire,' 'to choose,' suppresses the a, and changes v to u before the terminations which have no P (see 290. a); and उश् uś becomes उष् ush before t and th by 300. See 656.

325. ईड् íḍ, 'to praise' (Átm.), not guṇated by 28, inserts the vowel इ i between the root and the terminations of the 2nd person से, ध्व, ध्वे, and ध्वम्: Pres. 1. ईडे, 2. ईडिषे, 3. ईट्टे (see 48. b. Obs.); Du. 1. ईड्वहे; Pl. 2. ईडिध्वे; Impf. 3. ऐट्ट, &c.; Pot. 1. ईडीय, &c.; Impv. 1. ईडै, 2. ईडिष्व, 3. ईट्टाम्; Pl. 2. ईडिध्वम्.

a. Similarly, ईश् íś, 'to rule' (Átm. only): Pres. 1. ईशे, 2. ईशिषे, 3. ईष्टे by 300; Impf. 3. ऐष्ट, &c.; Impv. 3. ईष्टाम्, &c.

326. चक्ष् ćaksh, 'to speak' (Átm.), drops the penultimate k before all consonantal terminations, except those beginning with m or v (Pres. 1. चक्षे, 2. चक्ष्+से = चक्षे, 3. चष्टे, &c., see 302. a, 303. a; Impf. 3. अचष्ट; Pot. 3. चक्षीत). Kátyáyana considers कशा the original root, whence is formed ख्या; the latter being substituted for चक्ष् in the General tenses.

327. अस् as, 'to be' (Parasmai only), a very useful auxiliary verb, follows 290. a, and rejects its initial a, except before the P terminations. The 2nd pers. sing. Pres. is असि for अस्सि. The Impf. has the character of an Aor., and retains the initial a throughout, and inserts ई í before the s and t of the 2nd and 3rd sing.; see 584. The 2nd sing. Impv. substitutes e for as, and takes the termination dhi. This root is found in the Átmane-pada, with the prepositions vi and ati, when the Present is Sing. व्यतिहे, -से, -स्ते; Du. -स्वहे, -साथे, -साते, -स्महे, -ध्वे, -सते; Pot. व्यतिसीय, &c. (Páṇ. VIII. 3, 87). See 584.

328. शास् śás, 'to rule,' in Parasmai (but not in Átmane), changes its vowel to इ i before the consonantal terminations having no P, except that of the 2nd sing. Impv. Before that and all vowel-terminations, as well as in the strong forms, the vowel of the root remains unchanged; and, after i, स् becomes ष् by 70. Hence the stems शास् and शिष्.

329. चकास्, 'to shine,' is Pres. 1. चकास्मि, 2. चकास्सि, 3. चकास्ति; Du. 1. चकास्वस्; Pl. 3. चकासति (310. Obs.); Impf. 1. अचकासम्, 2. अचकास् or अचकात् (294), 3. अचकात्; Du. 1. अचकास्व; Pl. 3. अचकासुस्; Pot. 1. चकास्याम्; Impv. 1. चकासानि, 2. चकाधि or चकाद्धि (304), 3. चकास्तु; Du. 1. चकासाव, 2. चकास्तम्; Pl. 3. चकासतु.

330. दुह् duh, 'to milk,' and लिह् lih, 'to lick,' form their stems as explained at 305, 306. They are conjugated at 660, 661.

331. Class 3 (containing about 20 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Reduplicate the initial consonant and vowel of the root, and gunate the vowel of the radical syllable before the P terminations only, as in cl. 2.

Obs.—This class resembles the 2nd in interposing no vowel between the root and terminations. It is the only class that necessarily rejects the nasal in 3rd pl. Pres. and Impv. Parasmai (see 292), and takes us for an in 3rd pl. Impf. Parasmai, before which us Guṇa is generally required. See 292–294.

332. Thus, from भृ bhṛi, 'to bear' (φέρω, fero), is formed the stem of the Present singular बिभर् bibhar (1. bibhar+mi=बिभर्मि), and the stem of the dual and plural बिभृ bibhṛi (Du. 1. bibhṛi+vas=बिभृवस्; Pl. 1. bibhṛi+mas=बिभृमस्; Pl. 3. bibhṛi+ati=बिभ्रति by 34 and 292). See the table at 583.

a. Note, that bibharti bears the same relation to bibhṛimas that fert does to ferimus, and vult to volumus.

333. Similarly, from भी bhí, 'to fear,' come the two stems bibhe and bibhí; from हु hu, 'to sacrifice,' the two stems juho and juhu. The former of these roots may optionally shorten the radical vowel before a consonant, when not gunated. See 666. The latter may optionally reject its final before vas and mas, and is the only root ending in a vowel which takes dhi for hi in the 2nd sing. Impv. See 662.

a. ह्री, 'to be ashamed,' is like भी, but changes its final ई to इय् iy before the vowel-terminations, in conformity with 123. See 666. a.

334. ऋ ṛi, 'to go,' is the only verb in this class that begins with a vowel. It substitutes iy for ṛi in the reduplication, and makes its stems इयर् iyar and इयृ iyṛi (Pres. Sing. Du. Pl. 3. इयर्ति, इयृतस्, इयृति; Impf. 1. ऐयरम्, 2. ऐयर्, 3. ऐयर्; Du. 3. ऐयृताम्; Pot. 3. इयृयात्; Impv. 1. इयराणि).

335. दा dá, 'to give' (δίδωμι, do), drops its final á before all excepting the P terminations. Hence the stems dadá and dad. It becomes दे de before the hi of the Impv. See 663.

336. धा dhá, 'to place' (τίθημι), is similar. Hence the stems dadhá and dadh; but dadh becomes धत् before t, th, and s; and dhad before dhve and dhvam by 299. a. b; and dhe before the hi of the Impv. See 664.

337. हा há, 'to abandon,' changes its final á to ई í before the consonantal terminations not marked with P, and drops the final altogether before the vowel-terminations, and before y of the Potential. Hence the stems jahá, jahí, jah. Before hi of the Impv. the stem is optionally jahá, jahí, or jahi. According to some authorities, जही may be shortened into जहि in Pres., Impf., and Impv. See 665.

338. मा má, 'to measure' (Átm.), and हा há, 'to go' (Átm.), make their stems मिमी mimí and जिही jihí before the consonantal terminations not marked with P. Before the vowel-terminations their stems are mim and jih (Sing. Du. Pl. 3. जिहीते, जिहाते, जिहते; Impf. 3. अजिहीत; Impv. 3. जिहीताम्). See मा at 664. a.

339. जन् jan, 'to produce' (Parasmai-pada), rejects the final nasal (see 57. a), and lengthens the radical a before t and th and hi, and optionally before y. Before consonantal terminations beginning with m or v the radical jan remains, but before vowel-terminations not marked with P the medial a is dropped, and the nasal combining with j becomes palatal (compare the declension of rájan at 148). Hence the three stems jajan, jajá, and jajñ. See 666. b.

340. भस् bhas, 'to eat,' 'to shine,' like jan, rejects the radical a before the vowel-terminations not marked with P; and bh coalescing with s becomes p by 44 (Pres. S. Du. Pl. 3. बभस्ति, बभस्तस्, बप्सति). The same contraction takes place before terminations beginning with त, त्य, but the final s is then dropped, and the usual rules of Sandhi applied; thus, बभ् + ताम् = बब्धाम् by 298.

341. निज् 'to purify,' विज् 'to shake,' विच् 'to separate' (identified with vij), and विष् 'to pervade,' 'to penetrate,' gunate the reduplicated syllable before all the terminations, and forbid the usual Guṇa of the radical syllable before terminations beginning with vowels, as in the 1st sing. Impf. and the 1st sing. du. pl. Impv. (Pres. 1. नेनेज्मि, 2. नेनेक्षि, 3. नेनेक्ति; Du. 1. नेनिज्वस्, &c.; Pl. 1. नेनिज्मस्, 3. नेनिजति; Impf. 1. अनेनिजम्, 2. अनेनेक्, &c.; Pl. 3. अनेनिजुस्, &c.; Impv. 1. नेनिजानि; Du. 1. नेनिजाव; Pl. 1. नेनिजाम).

342. Class 7 (containing about 24 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Insert न na (changeable to ण ṇa after ṛi &c. by 58) between the vowel and final consonant* of the root before the P terminations, and न् n (changeable to ङ्, ञ्, ण्, म्, or Anusvára†, according to the consonant immediately succeeding) before all the other terminations.

Obs.—This class resembles the 2nd and 3rd in interposing no vowel between the final consonant of the root and the terminations.

a. The insertion of nasals is common in other roots besides those of the 7th class (cf. 270. d, 281, 487. b), and cf. certain Greek and Latin roots; as, μαθ, μανθάνω; λαβ, λαμβάνω; θιγ, θιγγάνω; scid, scindo; fid, findo; tag, tango; liq, linquo, &c. See 260.

343. Thus, from भिद् bhid, 'to divide,' 'to break,' is formed the stem of the Present tense singular भिनद् bhinad, and the stem of the dual and plural भिन्द् bhind, changeable to bhinat and bhint by 46 (1. bhinad + mi = भिनद्मि, 3. bhinad + ti = भिनत्ति; Du. 1. bhind + vas = भिन्द्वस्, 3. bhind + tas = भिन्त्तस् or भिन्तस् (298. c); Pl. 3. bhind + anti = भिन्दन्ति). See the table at 583.

344. Similarly, from रुध् rudh, 'to hinder,' the two stems रुणध् ruṇadh and रुन्ध् rundh, changeable to ruṇat, ruṇad, and rund (1.

* All the roots in this class end in consonants.

† The change to Anusvára will take place before sibilants and ह. See 6. a.

ruṇadh + mi = रुणध्मि, 2. ruṇadh + si = रुणत्सि, 3. ruṇadh + ti = रुणद्धि; Du. 3. rundh + tas = रुन्द्धस्); see 671. So also, from पिष्, 'to grind,' the two stems पिनष् and पिंष् (Pres. 3. पिनष् + ति = पिनष्टि; Impv. 2. पिंष् + धि = पिण्ढि or पिण्ढि).

345. Observe—Roots ending in त् t and द् d may reject these letters before th, t, and dhi, when n immediately precedes; see 298. a. b. c.

346. भुज् 'to eat,' युज् 'to join,' विच् 'to distinguish,' conform to 296. Hence, from bhuj come bhunaj and bhuñj, changeable to bhunak and bhunk; see 668. a.

347. भञ्ज् 'to break,' अञ्ज् 'to anoint,' उन्द् 'to moisten,' इन्ध् 'to kindle,' हिंस् 'to injure,' नच् or नञ्च् 'to contract,' fall under this class; but the nasal belonging to the root takes the place of the conjugational nasal, and becomes न na in the strong forms. Hence, from bhañj come the two stems bhanaj and bhañj, changeable to bhanak and bhank; from und come unad and und (Pres. 3. unatti, untas, undanti; Impf. 1. aunadam, 2. aunas, 3. aunat; Du. 3. auntám, &c.) See 669, 668, 673. Similarly, from इन्ध्, Pres. 1. indhe, 2. intse, 3. inddhe; Pl. 3. indhate; Impf. 2. ainddhás, 3. ainddha; Impv. 1. inadhai, &c.

348. तृह्, 'to strike,' 'to kill,' inserts ण instead of न before all the consonantal P terminations (Páṇ. VII. 3, 92), but not before those beginning with vowels. See 674.

GROUP III. CONJUGATION III.

349. CLASS 5 (containing about 30 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Add नु nu (changeable to णु by 58) to the root, which must be gunated into नो no (changeable to णो) before the P terminations (290. a)*. Roots ending in consonants add nuv, instead of nu, to the root before the vowel-terminations. Roots ending in vowels may drop the u of nu before initial v and m (not marked with P), and always reject the termination hi of the Imperative. See 293.

350. Thus, from चि ći, 'to gather,' are formed the stems ćino and ćinu (Pres. 1. ćino + mi = चिनोमि, ćino + si = चिनोषि by 70; Du. 1. ćinu + vas = चिनुवस् or चिन्वस्; Pl. 1. ćinu + mas = चिनुमस् or चिन्मस्, 3. ćinu + anti = चिन्वन्ति by 34; Impv. 1. ćino + áni = चिनवानि by 36. a, 2. चिनु ćinu by 291). See the table at 583.

351. Similarly, fr. दु du, 'to burn,' come duno, dunu, and dunuv; fr. आप् áp, 'to obtain,' come ápno, ápnu, and ápnuv, see 681; fr. तृप् 'to satisfy,' tṛipno, tṛipnu, and tṛipnuv, see 618.

* The change of nu to no before the P terminations is represented in Gr. by the lengthening of υ before certain terminations, as in ζεύγ-νῡ-μι, δείκ-νῡ-μι, but ζεύγ-νῠ-μεν, δείκ-νῠ-μεν. See 260.

352. श्रु śru, 'to hear' (sometimes placed under the 1st class), substitutes शृ śṛi for the root, and makes its stems śṛiṇo and śṛiṇu. See 676.

a. दम्भ् 'to deceive,' स्कम्भ् and स्तम्भ् 'to support,' स्कुम्भ् 'to stop,' and स्तुम्भ् 'to astonish,' reject their nasals in favour of the conjugational nu; thus, dabhnu, skabhnu, &c.

353. Class 8 (containing 10 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Add उ u to the root, which must be gunated into ओ o before the P terminations (see 290. a).

Note—Only ten roots are generally given in this class, and nine of these end in न् n or ण् ṇ; hence the addition of u and o will have the same apparent effect as the addition of nu and no in cl. 5.

354. Thus, from तन् tan, 'to stretch,' are formed the stems tano and tanu (Pres. 1. tano+mi=तनोमि, 2. tano+si=तनोषि by 70; Du. 1. tanu+vas=तनुवस् or तन्वस्; Pl. 1. tanu+mas=तनुमस् or तन्मस्; Impv. 1. tano+áni=तनवानि by 36. a, 2. तनु tanu, see 293). Cf. Gr. τάννμι, τάννμεν.

a. The root सन् san, 'to give,' optionally rejects its n, and lengthens the radical a before the y of the Potential; thus, सन्याम् sanyám or सायाम् sáyám, &c.

b. When the vowel of a root is capable of Guṇa, it may optionally take it; thus the stem of ऋण् 'to go' may be either ऋणु or अर्णु (1. अर्णोमि or ऋणोमि).

355. One root in this class, कृ kṛi, 'to do,' 'to make,' is by far the most common and useful in the language. This root gunates the radical vowel ṛi, as well as the conjugational u, before the P terminations. Before the other terminations it changes the radical ṛi to ur. The rejection of the conjugational u before initial m (not marked with P) and v, which is allowable in the 5th class, is in this verb compulsory, and is, moreover, required before initial y. Hence the three stems karo, kuru, and kur. See 682.

356. Class 9 (containing about 52 Primitive verbs).—Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Add ना ná to the root before the P terminations; नी ní before all the others, except those beginning with vowels, where only न् n is added (see 290. a).

Obs.—ना, नी, and न् are changeable to णा, णी, and ण्, by 58.

357. Thus, from यु yu, 'to join,' are formed the three stems yuná, yuní, and yun (Pres. 1. yuná+mi=युनामि; Du. 1. yuní+vas=युनीवस्; Pl. 1. yuní+mas=युनीमस्, 3. yun+anti=युनन्ति. Pres. Átm. 1. yun+e=युने; Impv. 1. yuná+áni=युनानि, 2. yuní+hi=युनीहि, &c.)

a. Obs.—Roots ending in consonants substitute ána for their conjugational sign in 2nd sing. Impv., and reject the termination hi; e. g. अशान 'eat thou,' from अश् 'to eat;' पुषाण 'nourish thou,' from पुष्; धुभाण 'shake thou,' from धुभ्, &c. See 696, 698, 694.

358. री 'to go,' श्री 'to go,' क्ली 'to go,' 'to choose,' व्री 'to choose,' ली 'to adhere,' भी 'to fear,' 'to bear,' ह्री 'to destroy,' धू 'to shake,' पू 'to purify' (583), लू 'to cut' (691), सृ 'to go,' कृ 'to hurt,' गृ 'to sound,' जॄ 'to grow old,' तॄ 'to split,' नॄ 'to lead,' पॄ 'to fill,' भॄ 'to bear,' 'to blame,' मॄ 'to kill,' षॄ or वॄ 'to choose,' शॄ 'to injure,' स्तॄ 'to spread,' स्वॄ or स्वृ or स्पृ or सॄ 'to hurt,' shorten the radical vowel in forming their stems; thus, from पू 'to purify' come the stems puná, puní, and pun; see the table at 583.

a. क्री 'to buy,' प्री 'to love,' श्री 'to cook,' क्रू or कू† 'to sound,' द्रू 'to hurt,' do not shorten their vowels. See 689, 690.

359. ग्रह्, 'to take,' becomes गृह्, and makes its stems गृह्णा, गृह्णी, and गृह्ण्. See 699.

a. ज्या, 'to grow old,' becomes जि, and makes its stems jiná, jiní, and jin.

360. बन्ध्, ग्रन्थ्, मन्थ्, श्रन्थ्, कुन्थ्, and स्तम्भ् reject the radical nasal in favour of the conjugational; thus, from bandh are formed the three stems badhná, badhní, and badhn. See 692, 693, 695.

361. ज्ञा 'to know,' in the same way, rejects its nasal in favour of the conjugational, and makes its stems jáná, jání, and ján. See 688.

362. खच्, 'to appear as a spectre,' is said to make its stems khauná, khauní, and khaun.

PRIMITIVE VERBS OF THE FIRST NINE CLASSES IN THE SIX GENERAL TENSES.

363. The general rules for the formation of the stem in the Perfect, 1st and 2nd Futures, Aorist, Precative, and Conditional, apply to all verbs of the first nine classes indiscriminately; see 250. a. The 10th class alone carries its conjugational characteristic into most of the General tenses; for this reason the consideration of its last tenses falls most conveniently under Causal verbs. See 289. a.

Reduplicated Perfect (Second Preterite).

Terminations repeated from 246.

PARASMAI.			ÁTMANE.
a (au)	iva*	ima*	e	ivahe*	imahe*
itha or tha	athus	a	ishe*	áthe	idhve* or iḍhve*
a (au)	atus	us	e	áte	ire

† कू, however, may optionally shorten it.

364. Rule for forming the stem in verbs of the first nine classes.

In the first place, with regard to reduplication, if a root begin with a consonant, double the initial consonant, with its vowel, according to the rules given at 252 (but a is reduplicated for a radical a, á, ṛi, ṛí, ḷṛi, and even for radical e, ai, o, if final; i for i, í, e; u for u, ú, o); e. g.

From पच् pać, 'to cook,' papać; fr. याच् yáć, 'to ask,' yayáć; fr. कृ kṛi, 'to do,' ćakṛi; fr. नृत् nṛit, 'to dance,' nanṛit; fr. तॄ tṛí, 'to cross,' tatṛí; fr. क्लृप् klṛip, 'to be able,' ćaklṛip; fr. मे me, 'to change,' mame; fr. गै gai, 'to sing,' jagai; fr. सो so, 'to finish,' saso; fr. सिध् sidh, 'to accomplish,' sishidh (70); fr. जीव् jív, 'to live,' jijív; fr. सेव् sev, 'to serve,' sishev; fr. द्रु dru, 'to run,' dudru; fr. पू pú, 'to purify,' pupú; fr. बुध् budh, 'to know,' bubudh; fr. लोक् lok, 'to see,' lulok; fr. स्मि smi, 'to smile,' sishmi; fr. स्था sthá, 'to stand,' tasthá.

a. And if it begin with a vowel, double the initial vowel; e. g. fr. अस् as, 'to be,' comes a as = आस् ás by 31; fr. आप् áp, 'to obtain,' a áp = áp; fr. इष् ish, 'to wish,' i ish = ísh (see 31).

b. In the second place, with regard to changes of the radical vowel, if the root end in a consonant, gunate* the vowel of the radical syllable, if capable of Guṇa (see 28), in 1st, 2nd, and 3rd sing. Par.; but leave the vowel unchanged before all other terminations, both Par. and Átm.

c. If the root end in a simple consonant, preceded by short a, this a is lengthened optionally in 1st and necessarily in 3rd sing.; and before the other terminations it is either left unchanged, or is liable to become e (see 375. a).

d. If the root end in a vowel, vriddhi the vowel of the radical syllable in 1st and 3rd sing. Par.†, and gunate it in 2nd sing. (optionally in 1st sing.) Before all other terminations, Parasmai and Átmane, the root must revert to its original form, but the terminations must be affixed according to euphonic rules‡.

365. Thus, fr. बुध् budh, cl. 1, comes the stem of the sing. Parasmai बुबोध् bubodh,

* The gunation of the vowel is indicated by the P of णप्, थप्, णप्, in the singular terminations. See scheme at 245.

† Vṛiddhi is indicated by the ण् of णप् ṇaP. See scheme at 245.

‡ Greek affords many examples of verbs which suffer a kind of Guṇa or Vṛiddhi change in the Perfect; but this change is not confined to the singular, as in Sanskṛit. Compare λέλοιπα (fr. λείπω, ἔλιπον), πέποιθα (fr. πείθω, ἔπιθον), τέτροφα (fr. τρέφω), τέθεικα (fr. τίθημι), &c.

and the stem of the rest of the tense बुबुध् bubudh (1. bubodh+a=bubodha, 2. bubodh+itha=bubodhitha, 3. bubodh+a=bubodha; Du. 1. bubudh+iva=bubudhiva, 2. bubudh+athus=bubudhathus, &c. Átm. 1. bubudh+e=bubudhe, &c.)

Similarly, fr. विद् vid, cl. 2, 'to know,' come the two stems विवेद् vived and विविद् vivid (1. 3. viveda; Du. 1. vividiva; Pl. 1. vividima, &c.*)

From पच्, 'to cook,' the two stems पपाच् papáć and पपच् papać (1. papáća or papaća, 3. papáća, &c.)

366. Again, fr. कृ kṛi, 'to do' (see 684), comes the stem of the 1st and 3rd sing. Par. चकार् ćakár (252. b), the stem of the 2nd sing. चकर् ćakar (which is optionally the stem of the 1st sing. also), and the stem of the rest of the tense चक्र् ćakṛi (1. ćakár+a=ćakára (or ćakara), 2. ćakar+tha=ćakartha, 3. ćakár+a=ćakára; Du. 1. ćakṛi+va=ćakṛiva (369), 2. ćakṛi+athus=ćakrathus by 34. Átm. 1. ćakṛi+e=ćakre; Pl. 2. ćakṛi+ḍhve=चकृढ्वे. See 684).

a. Observe—The roots enumerated at 390. a. reject Guṇa in the 2nd sing.; thus, विज् makes 1. 3. विवेज, but 2. विविजिथ. So कु or कू 'to cry' makes 1. चुकाव or चुकव, 2. चुकुविथ.

367. We have seen at 364. a. that if a root, ending in a single consonant, begin with a vowel, this vowel is repeated, and the two similar vowels blend into one long one by 31. But when an initial i or u is gunated in the sing. Par., then the reduplicated i becomes iy before e, and the reduplicated u becomes uv before o; thus, fr. इष् ish, 'to wish,' come the two stems iyesh and ísh (1. 3. इयेष; Du. 1. ईषिव; see 637); and fr. उख् ukh, 'to move,' uvokh and úkh (1. 3. उवोख; Du. 1. ऊखिव).

a. The same holds good in the root इ i, 'to go,' which makes the reduplicated syllable iy before the Vṛiddhi and Guṇa of the sing. In the remainder of the tense the stem becomes iy (cf. 375. e), which is reduplicated into íy (1. 3. इयाय, 2. इयथिथ or इयेथ; Du. 1. ईयिव). But when the prep. adhi is prefixed, the Perf. is formed as if from gá, Átm. only (Sing. Du. Pl. 3. adhijage, -jagáte, -jagire).

b. And if a root begin with अ a, and end in a double consonant, or begin with ऋ ṛi and end in a single consonant, the reduplicated syllable is आन् án; thus, fr. अर्च् arć, 'to worship,' comes the stem आनर्च् ánarć (1. 3. आनर्च); fr. ऋध् ṛidh, 'to flourish,' comes आनर्ध् ánardh (1. 3. आनर्ध; Du. 1. आनृधिव, &c.)

* One Greek root agrees very remarkably with the Sanskṛit in restricting Guṇa to the singular, viz. Fιδ (εἴδω), 'to know' (=Sk. vid above); thus, οἶδα, οἶσθα, οἶδε; ἴστον, ἴστον; ἴσμεν, ἴστε, ἴσασι. Rt. vid has a contracted Perf. used for the Present, which agrees exactly with οἶδα; thus, veda, vettha, &c. See 308. a.

c. अश् Átm. 'to pervade,' although ending in a single consonant श्, follows the last rule (1. 3. आनशे).

368. Obs.—In the Perfect the 1st and 3rd sing. Par. and Átm. have the same termination, and are generally identical in form; but when Vṛiddhi of a final vowel is required in both, then there is optionally Guṇa in the first; and when a medial a is lengthened, this a may optionally remain unchanged in the first; thus कृ 'to do' may be in 1st sing. either चकार or चकर, and पच् 'to cook' may be पपाच or पपच in 1st sing.; but in 3rd sing. they can only make चकार and पपाच.

369. By referring back to the scheme at 363, 246, it will be seen that all the terminations of this tense (except optionally the 2nd sing. Par.) begin with vowels. Those which begin with i are all (except the 3rd pl. Átm.) distinguished by the mark *, because eight roots only in the language (viz. कृ 'to do†,' भृ 'to bear,' सृ 'to go,' वृ 'to surround,' श्रु 'to hear,' स्तु 'to praise,' द्रु 'to run,' स्रु sru, 'to flow') necessarily reject the i from these terminations.

Some roots, however, optionally reject i from these terminations, see क्षम् 371.

Rejection of i from itha (2nd sing. Perfect, Parasmai).

370. The above eight roots (except वृ vṛi when it means 'to cover,' and except कृ kṛi, 'to do,' when compounded with the prep. sam †) also reject i from the 2nd sing. Parasmai.

a. Moreover, the 2nd sing. Parasmai is formed with tha instead of itha after roots ending in ऋ ṛi (except after the root ऋ ṛi itself, and वृ vṛi and जागृ jágṛi, which only allow itha; thus, áritha, vavaritha, jágaritha; and except स्वृ at b);

b. and optionally with tha or itha after the root स्वृ svṛi, 'to sound' (sasvartha or sasvaritha);

c. and optionally with tha or itha after roots ending in आ á, ए e (except ये vye, which allows only itha), and after roots in ऐ ai, ओ o, इ i, ई í, उ u, and the root धू 'to shake' (except those indicated at 392, as necessarily inserting i in the Futures &c.; e.g. श्रि, which makes śiśrayitha only, and so also most roots in ऊ ú);

d. and optionally with tha or itha after those roots enumerated at

† But कृ 'to do,' if स् is inserted after a preposition, as in संस्कृ, does not reject i, and follows 374. k; thus, 2. संचस्करिथ.

400–414, which have a medial a, and which reject i either necessarily or optionally from the Futures &c. (e. g. शक्, śekitha or śaśaktha; क्षम्, ćakshamitha or ćakshantha, &c.); but not अद् and घस्, which can only make áditha, jaghasitha;

e. and optionally with tha or itha after most of the roots enumerated at 415, as optionally inserting i in the Futures &c.:

f. but all other roots, which necessarily take i, and even most of those (having no medial a) at 400–414 which necessarily reject i in the Futures &c., must take itha only in the 2nd sing. of the Perfect; thus तुद् is तोत्तासि tottási in the 2nd sing. 1st Future, but तुतोदिथ tutoditha in the 2nd sing. Perfect (Du. 1. tutudiva). Some few of these, however, are allowed the alternative of tha, as सृज् 'to create' makes ससर्जिथ or ससृष्ठ; दृश् 'to see,' ददर्शिथ or ददृष्ठ; both these roots requiring the radical ṛi to be changed to र ra, instead of gunated, when tha is used.

g. मज्ज् 'to dip' and नश् 'to perish,' which belong to 370. d, insert a nasal when tha is used; thus, ममज्जिथ or ममंक्थ, नेशिथ or ननंष्ठ.

h. तृप् 'to be satisfied' and दृप् 'to be proud,' which belong to 370. e, either gunate the radical ṛi or change it to र ra when tha is used (ततर्प्थ or तत्रप्थ or ततर्पिथ).

Obs.—When tha is affixed to roots ending in consonants, the rules of Sandhi (296–306) must be applied.

Optional rejection of i, in certain cases, from the dual and remaining terminations (of the Perfect, Parasmai and Átmane, marked with *).

371. The roots enumerated at 415, as optionally rejecting or inserting i in the Futures &c., may optionally reject it also from the dual and remaining terminations of the Perfect marked with * in the table at 363; thus क्षम् makes चक्षमिव or चक्षम्व, चक्षंसे or चक्षमिषे, चक्षमिवहे or चक्षम्वहे; but the forms with the inserted i are the most usual, and all other roots, even those which necessarily reject i from the Futures &c. (except the eight enumerated at 369), must take i in the dual and remaining terminations of the Perfect marked with *.

Observe—The i is never rejected from the 3rd pl. Átmane, except in the Veda.

Substitution of ढ्वे for ध्वे (2nd pl. Perfect, Átmane).

372. ढ्वे ḍhve is used instead of ध्वे dhve by the eight roots at 369; also in certain cases by the roots mentioned at 371. The usual rules of Sandhi must then be observed, as in वव्रड्ढ्वे from व्रश्च्.

a. ड्ढ्वे for ड्ध्वे may be optionally used by other roots when a semivowel or h immediately precedes, as लुलुविध्वे or -विढ्वे from लू, चिक्रियिध्वे or -यिढ्वे from क्री.

Anomalies in forming the stem of the Perfect.

373. Roots ending in आ á (as दा dá, 'to give;' धा dhá, 'to place;' या yá, 'to go;' स्था sthá, 'to stand') drop the á before all the terminations except the tha of the 2nd sing., and substitute औ au for the terminations of the 1st and 3rd sing. Parasmai. Hence, from दा dá comes the stem दद् dad (1. 3. ददौ, 2. ददिथ or ददाथ; Du. 1. ददिव. Átm. 1. 3. ददे, 2. ददिषे, &c. See 663).

a. दरिद्रा 'to be poor' makes 1. 3. ददरिद्रौ; Du. 3. ददरिद्रतुस्; Pl. 3. ददरिद्रुस्; or more properly takes the periphrastic form of Perfect. See 385.

b. ज्या 'to grow old' has a reduplicated stem जिज्या (1. 3. जिज्यौ, 2. जिज्याथ or जिज्यिथ; Du. 1. जिज्यिव). Similarly, an uncommon root ज्यो Átm. 'to instruct' makes 1. 3. जिज्ये.

c. मि 'to throw,' मी 'to destroy,' 'to perish,' must be treated in the sing. as if they ended in á; and ली cl. 9, 'to obtain,' may optionally be so treated; thus, Sing. 1. ममौ, 2. ममाथ or मेमिथ, 3. ममौ; Du. 1. मिम्यिव. But ली is 1. ललौ or लिलाय, 2. ललाथ or ललिथ or लिलेथ or लिलयिथ; Du. 1. लिल्यिव.

d. Most roots ending in the diphthongs ए e (except ह्वे, दे, ध्वे, वे, &c., see e. f), ऐ ai, ओ o, follow 373, and form their Perfect as if they ended in á; thus, धे cl. 1, 'to drink,' 1st and 3rd sing. दधौ, 2. दधिथ or दधाथ, Du. 1. दधिव; गै cl. 1, 'to sing,' 1. 3. जगौ, 2. जगिथ or जगाथ; म्लै cl. 1, 'to fade,' 1. 3. मम्लौ; शो cl. 4, 'to sharpen,' 1. 3. शशौ.

e. But ह्वे 'to call' forms its stem as if from हू, see 595 (1. 3. जुहाव, &c.)

f. दे Átm. 'to pity,' 'to protect,' makes its stem digi (1. 3. दिग्ये, 2. दिग्यिषे, &c.)

g. ध्वे 'to cover' makes vivyáy, vivyay, and vivy (1. 3. विव्याय, 2. विव्यिथ; Du. 1. विव्यियिव or विव्यिव, &c.)

h. वे 'to weave' forms its stems as if from vá or vav or vay (1. 3. ववौ or उवाय, 2. वविथ or ववाथ or उवयिथ; Du. 1. वविव or ऊविव or ऊयिव, &c. Átm. 1. 3. वये or ऊये or ऊये, &c.)

i. प्यै Átm. 'to be fat' makes regularly पप्ये, पप्यिषे, &c.; but the root प्याय्, meaning the same, and often identified with प्यै, makes पिप्ये, पिप्यिषे, &c.

374. If a root end in इ i or ई í, this vowel does not blend with the initial i of the terminations in du. pl. Parasmai, sing. du. pl. Átmane, but is changed to y, in opposition to 31; thus, from चि ći, cl. 5, 'to collect,' come the stems ćićai, ćiće, and ćići, changeable to ćićáy, ćićay, and ćićy (1. 3. ćićáya, 2. ćićayitha or ćićetha; Du. 1. चिच्यिव ćićyiva, 2. ćićyathus by 34. Átm. 1. 3. ćićye. See the table at 583). Obs.—चि may also substitute चिकाय for चिचाय and चिक्ये for चिच्ये.

a. Similarly, नी nī, 'to lead' (1. 3. ninâya; Du. 1. ninyiva. Átm. 1. ninye, &c.); and ली lī (Du. 1. lilyiva; Átm. 1. lilye).

b. जि ji, 'to conquer,' makes its stem जिगि, as if from gi (1. 3. जिगाय; Du. 1. जिग्यिव, &c. See 590).

c. हि hi, 'to go,' 'to send,' makes जिघि, as if from ghi (1. 3. जिघाय).

d. दी Átm. 'to sink,' 'to decay,' makes its stem दिदीय् throughout; thus, 1. 3. दिदीये, 2. दिदीयिषे, &c.

e. But roots ending in इ i or ई ī, and having a double initial consonant, change i or ī to इय् iy before all terminations, except those of the sing. Parasmai; hence, from श्रि cl. 1, 'to resort to,' come the three stems śiśrai, śiśre, and śiśriy (1. 3. शिश्राय, 2. शिश्रयिथ; Du. 1. शिश्रियिव, &c.) So क्री cl. 9, 'to buy' (1. 3. चिक्राय, 2. चिक्रयिथ or चिक्रेथ; Du. 1. चिक्रियिव, &c. See 689).

f. श्वि śvi, 'to swell,' like ह्वे at 373. e, forms its stem as if from शू, but only optionally; thus, 1. 3. शिश्वाय or शुशाव, 2. शिश्वेथ or शिश्वयिथ or शुशोथ or शुशविथ.

g. And all roots ending in उ u or ऊ ú change u or ú to उव् uv before the terminations of the du. and pl. Parasmai and the whole Átmane (except of course भू, स्तु, द्रु, सु, in the persons marked with * at 246; and except भू 'to be,' see i. below); thus, fr. धू dhú, 'to shake,' come the stems dudhau, dudho, and dudhuv (1. 3. दुधाव, 2. दुधविथ or दुधोथ; Du. 1. दुधुविव. Átm. 1. 3. दुधुवे). Similarly, उ u, Átm. 'to sound,' makes 1. 3. ऊवे, 2. ऊविषे.

h. But श्रु makes 1. 3. शुश्राव, 2. शुश्रोथ; Du. 1. शुश्रुव, 2. शुश्रुवथुस्. Átm. 1. 3. शुश्रुवे; and similarly, स्तु, द्रु, and सु sru.

i. भू 'to be' is anomalous, and makes its stem बभूव् throughout; see 585, 586. So सू 'to bring forth' makes in the Veda ससूव.

j. ऊर्णु 'to cover' (although properly requiring the periphrastic form of Perfect, see 385) is reduplicated into ऊर्णुनु. In the 2nd sing. it may reject Guṇa; thus, ऊर्णुनविथ or ऊर्णुनुविथ, 3rd sing. ऊर्णुनाव; Du. 1. ऊर्णुनुविव, 3. ऊर्णुनुवतुस्; Pl. 3. ऊर्णुनुवुस्.

k. Roots ending in ऋ ṛi, preceded by a double consonant, and most roots in long ॠ ṝ, instead of retaining this vowel and changing it to r by 364. d, gunate it into ar in the 2nd sing., and throughout the whole tense, except the 1st and 3rd sing. (and even in the 1st there may be optionally Guṇa by 368); e.g. स्मृ smṛi, 'to remember,' 1. sasmára or saṣmara, 2. sasmartha, 3. sasmára; Du. 1. sasmariva, &c. Átm. 1. 3. sasmare.

l. But धृ dhṛi, 'to hold,' not being preceded by a double consonant, makes regularly 1. Sing. Du. Pl. दधार, दध्रिव, दध्रिम.

m. पॄ 'to fill,' भॄ 'to injure,' and दॄ 'to rend,' may optionally retain ṛi, changeable to r; thus, Du. पपरिव or पप्रिव.

n. ऋ ṛi, 'to go,' takes Vṛiddhi, and makes its stem आर् ár throughout; thus, 1. 3. आर, 2. आरिथ; Du. 1. आरिव.

o. मृ Átm. 'to die,' although properly Átmane, is Parasmai in Perfect; thus, 1. 3. ममार, 2. ममर्थ.

p. जागृ 'to awake,' which properly takes the periphrastic form of Perfect (जागराञ्चकार, see 385), may also take the reduplicated form, and may optionally drop the reduplicated syllable; thus, 1. 3. जजागार or जागार, 2. जजागरिथ or जागरिथ (370. a).

q. गॄ 'to swallow' may optionally change र् to ल्; thus, जगार or जगाल.

r. तॄ 'to pass' follows 375. a, as if it were तर्; thus, 1. 3. ततार, 2. तेरिथ; Du. 1. तेरिव.

s. जॄ 'to grow old' optionally follows 375. a (3. जजार, 2. जजरिथ or जेरिथ; Du. 3. जजरतुस् or जेरतुस्).

375. We have already seen, at 364, that roots beginning with any consonant and ending with a single consonant, and enclosing short अ a, lengthen this vowel in the 3rd sing. and optionally in the 1st; as, fr. पच् pać, 'to cook,' पपाच् papáć; fr. tyaj, 'to quit,' tatyáj (1. 3. tatyája, 2. tatyajitha or tatyaktha; Du. 1. tatyajiva, &c.)

a. Moreover, before itha and in du. and pl. Parasmai, and all persons of the Átmane, if the initial as well as the final consonant of the root be single, and if the root does not begin with व् v, and does not require a substituted consonant in the reduplication, the reduplication is suppressed, and, to compensate for this, the अ a is changed to ए *e; thus, from pać come the stems पपाच् papáć, papać, and पेच् peć (1. papáća or papaća, 2. pećitha or papaktha by 296, 3. papáća; Du. 1. pećiva. Átm. 1. 3. peće, &c.) Similarly, from लभ् labh, cl. 1, Átm. 'to obtain' (cf. λαμβάνω, ἔλαβον), the stem लेभ् lebh throughout (lebhe, lebhishe, lebhe, lebhivahe, &c.) So नह् nah, 'to bind,' makes 1. nanáha or nanaha, 2. nehitha or nanaddha by 305, 3. nanáha; Du. 1. nehiva, &c. Átm. nehe, &c.

Similarly, नश् naś, 'to perish,' 1. nanáśa or nanaśa, 2. neśitha or nananṣhṭha (ननंष्ठ), 3. nanáśa, &c.: see 620, 370. g.

b. Roots that require a substituted consonant in the reduplication are excepted from 375. a (but not भज् bhaj and फल् phal, see g. below); thus, भण् 'to speak' makes 1. 3. बभाण; Du. 1. बभणिव.

c. वच् 'to speak,' वद् 'to say,' वप् 'to sow,' वश् 'to wish,' वस् 'to dwell,' वह् 'to carry,' beginning with v, are also excepted. These require that the reduplicated syllable be उ u, or the corresponding vowel of the semivowel, and also change va of the root to उ u before every termination, except those of the sing. Parasmai, the two u's blending into one long ऊ ú; thus, fr. वच् vać, 'to speak,' come the two stems उवाच् uváć and ऊच् úć (1. uváća or uvaća, 2. uvaćitha or uvaktha, 3. uváća; Du. 3. úćatus; Pl. 3. úćus).

Obs.—This change of a semivowel to its corresponding vowel is called Samprasárana by native grammarians (Páṇ. 1. 1, 45).

d. वह् vah, 'to carry,' changes the radical vowel to ओ o before tha (see 305. a), optionally substituted for itha (1. 3. उवाह, 2. उवहिथ or उवोढ). Compare 424.

Obs.—वम् vam, 'to vomit,' is excepted from 375. c (thus, 3. vavámа, vavamatus, vavamus, Páṇ. VI. 4, 126); it may also, according to Vopadeva, follow 375. a (3. vaváma, vematus, vemus).

* Bopp deduces forms like pećiva, from papaćiva, by supposing that the second p is suppressed, the two a's combined into á, and á weakened into e.

e. यज् yaj, 'to sacrifice,' is excepted from 375. a, and follows the analogy of 375. c (1. 3. iyája; Du. 3. ijatus; Pl. 3. ijus): the 2nd sing. is इयजिथ or इयष्ठ by 297; Átmane 1. 3. ईजे, 2. ईजिषे, see 597. Yej is allowed optionally in the weak forms, and optionally in 2nd sing., especially in the Veda.

f. शस् 'to injure' and दद् Átm. 'to give' are excepted from 375. a (शशास, शशसिव, ददिवहे).

g. भज् 'to honour,' स्रप् 'to loosen,' त्रप् 'to be ashamed,' फल् 'to bear fruit,' necessarily conform to 375. a, although properly excepted (thus, भेजिथ, भेजिव, &c.) The following conform to 375. a. optionally: फण् 'to go,' स्वन् 'to sound,' (according to some) स्तन् 'to sound,' भ्रम् 'to wander,' चम् 'to vomit,' and (according to some) स्रम् and स्यम् 'to sound,' त्रस् 'to tremble' (thus, पफणिथ or फेणिथ, पफणिव or फेणिव, &c.)

h. The following also conform optionally to 375. a: ग्रन्थ् 'to tie,' स्रन्थ् 'to loosen,' दम्भ् 'to deceive;' and, when they do so, drop their nasals (thus, जग्रन्थिथ or ग्रेथिथ, जग्रन्थुस् or ग्रेथुस्).

i. The following, although their radical vowel is long, also conform optionally to 375. a: राज्, भ्राज् Átm., भ्राश्, and भ्लाश्, all meaning 'to shine' (रराजिव or रेजिव, &c.)

j. राध्, when it signifies 'to injure,' necessarily conforms to 375. a (2. रेधिथ; Du. 1. रेधिव, 3. रेधतुस्; Pl. 3. रेधुस्).

k. तॄ 'to pass' follows 375. a, and जॄ 'to grow old' may do so. See 374. r. s.

376. गम् gam, 'to go,' जन् jan, 'to be born,' खन् khan, 'to dig,' and हन् han, 'to kill' (which last forms its Perfect as if from घन् ghan), drop the medial a before all the terminations, except those of the sing. Par. (cf. the declension of rájan at 148). Hence, gam makes in sing. du. pl. 3. jagáma, jagmatus, jagmus; jan makes jajána, jajñatus, jajñus; khan makes ćakhána, ćakhnatus, ćakhnus; and han makes 1. 3. jaghána, jaghnatus, jaghnus, 2. jaghanitha or jaghantha.

377. घस् ghas, 'to eat,' is analogous, making jaghása, jakshatus, jakshus; Du. 1. jakshiva. See 44 and 70. And in the Veda some other roots follow this analogy; thus, पत् 'to fall' (पप्रिव &c.); तन् 'to stretch' (तत्निषे &c.); भस् 'to eat' (बप्सिव &c.)

378. सञ्ज् 'to adhere,' स्वञ्ज् 'to embrace,' and दंश् 'to bite,' can optionally drop their nasals in du. pl. Parasmai and all the Átmane; thus, ससजिव or ससञ्जिव, सस्वजे or सस्वञ्जे.

379. रध् 'to perish' and जभ् Átm. 'to yawn' may insert a nasal before vowel-terminations (ररन्ध, ररन्धिथ or ररड्ढ; Du. 1. ररन्धिव or रेध्व, see 371: 1. 3. जजम्भे).

380. मृज् 'to clean' makes its stem ममार्ज in sing. Parasmai, and may do so before the remaining terminations (1. 3. ममार्ज, 2. ममार्जिथ or ममार्ष्ठ; Du. 1. ममार्जिव or ममृजिव or ममृज्व, see 651).

381. प्रच्छ् pracḥ, 'to ask,' makes its stem पप्रच्छ्* (becoming पप्रच्छ् before a vowel by 51) throughout; see 631. भ्रज्ज् bhrajj, cl. 6, 'to fry,' makes either बभर्ज्ज् or बभ्रज्ज् throughout. See 632.

* This rests on Siddhánta-kaum. 134. Some grammarians make the stem in du. and pl. &c. पपृच्छ्.

a. ऋछ् 'to go' gunates the radical vowel throughout; thus, 1. 3. आनर्छ, 2. आनर्छिथ; Du. 1. आनर्छिव.

382. स्वप् svap, 'to sleep,' makes its bases सुष्वाप् and सुषुप्. See 655.

a. ष्ठिव् or ष्ठीव् 'to spit' may substitute त् t for द् t in the reduplication; thus, 1. 3. टिष्ठेव or तिष्ठेव, टिष्ठीव or तिष्ठीव.

383. व्यध् 'to pierce,' व्यच् 'to encompass,' 'to deceive,' व्यथ् Atm. 'to be pained,' make their reduplicated syllable vi; and the first two roots change vya to vi before all the terminations, except the sing. Parasmai; thus, from vyadh comes sing. du. pl. 3. विव्याध, विविधतुस्, विविधुस्; Atm. विविधे, &c.: from vyać, विव्याच, विविचतुस्, विविचुस्: from vyath, विव्यथे, विव्यथाते, विव्यथिरे. See 615 and 629.

a. द्युत् cl. 1. Atm., 'to shine,' makes its reduplicated syllable di (1. 3. didyute).

384. ग्रह् grah, cl. 9, 'to take,' makes its stem जग्राह् and जगृह् (S. Du. Pl. 3. जग्राह, जगृहतुस्, जगृहुस्). But sing. 2. जग्रहिथ. See 699.

a. गुह् 'to conceal' lengthens its radical vowel instead of gunating it in the sing. Parasmai, जुगूह, जुगूहिथ, &c.

b. अह् ah, 'to say' (only used in Perf.), is defective in sing. du. pl. 1. and pl. 2, and forms 2nd sing. from आत् (2. आत्थ, 3. आह; Du. 2. आहथुस्, 3. आहतुस्; Pl. 3. आहुस्).

c. ब्रू 'to say' has no Perfect of its own, but substitutes either that of वच् (375. c) or the above forms from अह्. Again, अद् 'to eat' has a Perfect of its own, but may substitute that of घस् 377. Similarly, अज् 'to drive' (ago) may substitute that of वी.

Periphrastic Perfect.

385. Roots which begin with a vowel, long by nature or position (except the vowel आ, as in आप् 'to obtain,' 364. a, and in आम्ब् 'to stretch;' and roots having an initial स before two consonants, 367. b), and all roots of more than one syllable (except ऊर्णु 'to cover,' 374. j; and except optionally जागृ 'to awake,' 374. p, and दरिद्रा 'to be poor,' 373. a), form their Perfects by adding आम् ám to the root or stem (which generally gunates its last vowel if ending in i, u, ṛi, short or long), and affixing the Perfect of one of the auxiliary verbs, अस् as, 'to be;' भू bhú, 'to be;' कृ kṛi, 'to do.'

a. This ám may be regarded as the acc. case of a feminine abstract noun formed from the verbal stem. With चकार it becomes आञ्चकार or आंचकार by 59. Thus, ईश्, 'to rule,' makes 1st and 3rd sing. ईशामास or ईशाम्बभूव or ईशाञ्चकार; the last might be translated 'he made ruling,' and in the former cases the acc. may be taken adverbially. So also, चकास्, 'to shine,' makes चकासाञ्चकार 'he made shining.'

Obs.—The stem with ám may sometimes be separated from the auxiliary verb; e.g. तं पातयां प्रथमम् आस 'first he caused him to fall' (Raghu-v. IX. 61), and प्रभ्रंशयां यो नघुषं चकार (Raghu-v. XIII. 36).

b. When the Átmane inflexion has to be employed, कृ only is used; thus, ईड् Átm., 'to praise,' makes 1st and 3rd sing. ईडाञ्चक्रे 'he made praising or praised.'

c. Roots of cl. 10 also form their Perfect in this way, the syllable ám blending with the final a of the stem; thus, from चुर् ćur, cl. 10, 'to steal,' ćorayámása, 'I have or he has stolen.'

d. Also all Derivative verbs, such as Causals, Desideratives, and Frequentatives. See 490, 504, 513, 516.

e. Also the roots अय् ay, 'to go;' दय् day, Átm. 'to pity;' आस् ás, Átm. 'to sit;' कास् kás, 'to cough,' 'to shine' (कासाञ्चक्रे &c.); see Páṇ. III. 1, 37. 35.

And optionally the roots भी bhí, cl. 3, 'to fear' (बिभाय or बिभयाञ्चकार); ह्री hrí, cl. 3, 'to be ashamed' (जिह्राय or जिह्रयाञ्चकार); भृ bhṛi, cl. 3, 'to bear' (बभार or बिभराञ्चकार); हु hu, cl. 3, 'to sacrifice' (जुहाव or जुहवाञ्चकार); विद् vid, cl. 2, 'to know' (विवेद or विदाञ्चकार); उष् ush, cl. 1, 'to burn' (उवोष or ओषाञ्चकार).

f. The roots कम् Átm., गुप्, धूप्, विछ्, पण्, पन्, whose peculiarity of conjugational form is explained at 271, and क्षुत् Átm. 'to blame,' may optionally employ a Periphrastic Perfect, not derived from the root, but from the conjugational stem; thus, चकमे or कामयाञ्चक्रे, जुगोप or गोपायाञ्चकार, दुधूप or धूपायाञ्चकार, विविच्छ or विच्छायाञ्चकार, पेणे or पणायाञ्चकार (according to Vopa-deva पणायाञ्चक्रे), पेने or पनायाञ्चकार, क्षानते or क्षतीयाञ्चक्रे.

g. Observe—Stems ending in i, u, or ṛi, short or long, are generally gunated before ám; but दीधी 'to shine' and वेवी 'to go' make दीध्याञ्चक्रे, वेव्याञ्चक्रे, &c.

syasi	syathas	syatha	syase	syethe	syadhve
syati	syatas	syanti	syate	syete	syante

Obs.—The First Future results from the union of the Nom. case of the noun of agency (formed with the suffix तृ tṛi, see 83) with the Present tense of the verb अस् as, 'to be;' thus, taking दातृ dátṛi, 'a giver' (declined at 127), and combining its Nom. case with अस्मि asmi and हे he, we have dátásmi and dátáhe, 'I am a giver,' identical with the 1st pers. sing. Par. and Átm. of the 1st Fut., 'I will give.' So also dátási and dátáse, 'thou art a giver,' or 'thou wilt give.' In the 1st and 2nd persons du. and pl. the sing. of the noun is joined with the du. and pl. of the auxiliary. In the 3rd pers. the auxiliary is omitted, and the 3rd sing. du. and pl. of the 1st Fut. in both voices is then identical with the Nom. case sing. du. and pl. of the noun of agency; thus, dátá, 'a giver,' or 'he will give;' dátárau, 'two givers,' or 'they two will give,' &c. *

Hence this tense is sometimes called the Periphrastic Future.

387. The terminations of the Second Future appear also to be derived from the verb अस् joined, as in forming the Passive and 4th class, with the y of root या 'to go,' just as in English we often express the Future tense by the phrase 'I am going.'

388. Rule for forming the stem in verbs of the first nine classes.

Gunate the vowel of the root (except as debarred at 28, and except in certain roots of cl. 6, noted at 390, 390. a) throughout all the persons of both First and Second Future; and in all roots ending in consonants (except those enumerated at 400–414), and in a few ending in vowels (enumerated at 392), insert the vowel इ i between the root so gunated, and the terminations.

389. Thus, from जि ji, cl. 1, 'to conquer,' comes the stem जे je (1st Fut. je+tásmi=जेतास्मि, &c.; Átm. je+táhe=जेताहे. 2nd Fut. je+syámi=जेष्यामि, &c.; Átm. je+sye=जेष्ये, by 70). Similarly, from श्रु śru, cl. 5, 'to hear,' comes the stem श्रो śro (1st Fut. śro+tásmi=श्रोतास्मि, &c.; 2nd Fut. śro+syámi=श्रोष्यामि, &c.)

a. So also, from बुध् budh, cl. 1, 'to know,' comes the stem बोधि bodhi (1st Fut. bodhi+tásmi=बोधितास्मि, &c.; Átm. bodhi+táhe=बोधिताहे. 2nd Fut. bodhi+syámi=बोधिष्यामि, &c.; Átm. bodhi+sye=बोधिष्ये).

390. The roots ending in उ u and ऊ ú of cl. 6, forbidding Guṇa, are कु or कू 'to call out,' गु or गू 'to void excrement,' भु or भू 'to be firm,' नु or नू 'to praise,' धू 'to shake.' These generally change their final ú to uv; thus, कुविताहे &c. from कू, but कुताहे &c. from कु; गुवितास्मि &c. from गू, but गुतास्मि &c. from गु.

a. The roots ending in consonants of cl. 6, not gunated, are कुच् 'to contract,' गुज् 'to sound,' कुट् 'to make crooked,' घुट् 'to resist,' चुट् or छुट् 'to cut,' तुट् 'to quarrel,' त्रुट् 'to break,' पुट् 'to embrace,' मुट् or मुड् or तुड् 'to pound,' स्फुट् 'to burst in pieces,' लुट् 'to roll,' कुड् 'to play,' क्रुड् or दुड् 'to be immersed,' खुड्, चुड्, छुड्, थुड्, पुड्, बुड्, भुड्, ष्वुड्, स्थुड्, स्फुड्, all meaning 'to cover,' गुड् 'to guard,' घुड् 'to hinder,' जुड् 'to bind,' नुड् 'to strike,' पुड् 'to emit,' लुड् 'to adhere,' हुड् 'to collect,' डिप् 'to throw,' गुर् Átm. 'to make effort,' छुर् 'to cut,' स्फुर् or स्फुल् 'to vibrate,' भुव् 'to be firm,' 'to go,' कृड् 'to eat,'—nearly all uncommon as verbs. To these must be added विज् cl. 7, 'to tremble.'

* The future signification inherent in the noun of agency dátá, seems implied in Latin by the relation of dator to daturus.

b. ऊर्णु 'to cover' may either guṇate its final or change it to uv (ऊर्णवितास्मि or ऊर्णुवितास्मि, ऊर्णविष्यामि or ऊर्णुविष्यामि).

c. दीधी Átm. 'to shine,' वेवी Átm. 'to go,' drop their finals before the inserted i (दीधिताहे &c.) Similarly, दरिद्रा 'to be poor' (दरिद्रितास्मि &c., दरिद्रिष्यामि &c.)

d. Roots in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, change their finals to á; thus, ह्वे 'to call' (ह्वातास्मि, ह्वास्यामि).

e. मि 'to throw,' मी 'to perish,' and दी Átm. 'to decay,' must change, and ली 'to obtain' may optionally change their finals to á (मातास्मि, मास्यामि, &c.; दाताहे, &c.; लेतास्मि or लातास्मि, &c.; लेष्यामि or लास्यामि, &c.) Compare 373. c.

f. Roots containing the vowel ṛi, as सृप् 'to creep,' मृज् 'to handle,' स्पृश् 'to touch,' कृष् 'to draw,' are generally gunated, but may optionally change the vowel ṛi to र ra; thus, सर्प्तास्मि or स्रप्तास्मि &c., सर्प्स्यामि or स्रप्स्यामि &c.

g. Reversing this principle, भ्रस्ज् 'to fry' may make either भ्रष्टास्मि or भर्ष्टास्मि &c., भ्रक्ष्यामि or भर्क्ष्यामि &c.

h. The alternative is not allowed when i is inserted; thus, तृप् 'to be satisfied' makes तर्प्तास्मि or त्रप्तास्मि, but only तर्पितास्मि. Similarly, दृप् 'to be proud.'

i. सृज् 'to let go,' 'to create,' and दृश् 'to see,' necessarily change ṛi to ra; thus, स्रष्टास्मि, स्रक्ष्यामि, &c.; द्रष्टास्मि, द्रक्ष्यामि, &c.

j. मृज् 'to rub,' 'to clean,' takes Vṛiddhi instead of Guṇa (मार्जितास्मि or मार्ष्टास्मि).

k. मस्ज् 'to be immersed,' and नश् 'to perish' when it rejects i, insert a nasal; thus, मंस्क्तास्मि, मंस्क्ष्यामि, &c.; नंष्टास्मि, नंक्ष्यामि, &c.; but नशितास्मि &c., नशिष्यामि &c.

l. कम् Átm., गुप्, धूप्, विछ्, पण्, पन्, वृत्, at 385. f, may optionally carry their peculiar conjugational form into the Futures (कमिताहे or कामयिताहे, गोप्तास्मि or गोपितास्मि or गोपायितास्मि, विच्छितास्मि or विच्छायितास्मि, वर्तिताहे or वृतीयिताहे, &c.)

m. गुह् 'to conceal' lengthens its vowel when i is inserted. See 415. m.

n. अस् 'to be,' ब्रू and चक्ष् 'to speak,' have no Futures of their own, and substitute those of भू, वच्, and ख्या respectively; अद् 'to eat' may optionally substitute the Futures of घस्, and अज् 'to drive' of वी (अजितास्मि or वेतास्मि &c.) Cf. 384. c.

o. The rules at 296–306 must, of course, be applied to the two Futures; thus, नह् 'to tie' makes नत्स्यामि &c. See 306. b.

Observe—The above rules apply generally to the Aorist, Precative (Átmane), and Conditional, as well as to the two Futures.

RULES FOR INSERTION OR REJECTION OF इ i IN THE LAST FIVE TENSES AND DESIDERATIVE.

391. These rules do not apply to form II of the Aorist at 435, nor to the Parasmai of the Precative at 442, which can never insert i.

a. The insertion of the vowel i (called an ágama or 'augment,' and technically styled it) before the terminations of the General tenses constitutes one of the most important and intricate subjects of Sanskṛit Grammar. The manifest object of this inserted i—which can never be gunated or vriddhied, but may occasionally be lengthened into í—is to take the place of the conjugational vowel, and prevent the coalition of consonants. Hence it is evident that roots ending in vowels do not properly require the inserted i. Nevertheless, even these roots often insert it; and if it were always inserted after roots ending in consonants, there would be no difficulty in forming the last five tenses of the Sanskṛit verb.

Unfortunately, however, its insertion is forbidden in about one hundred roots ending in consonants, and the combination of the final radical consonant with the initial t and s of the terminations will require a knowledge of the rules already laid down at 296–306.

We now proceed to enumerate, 1st, with regard to roots ending in vowels; 2ndly, with regard to roots ending in consonants: A. those inserting i; B. those rejecting i; C. those optionally inserting or rejecting i. As, however, it is more important to direct attention to those roots (whether ending in vowels or consonants) which reject i, the paragraphs under B. will be printed in large type.

Obs.—In the following lists of roots the 3rd sing. will sometimes be given between brackets, and the roots will be arranged generally in the order of their final vowels and consonants.

Note that if the 1st Future reject इ i, it is generally rejected in form I of Aorist, in Átmane-pada of Precative, in Conditional, Infinitive, Past Passive Participle, Indeclinable Past Participle, Future Participle formed with the suffix tavya, and noun of agency formed with the suffix tṛi; and often (though not invariably) decides the formation of the Desiderative form of the root by s instead of ish. So that the learner may always look to the 1st Future as his guide. For example, taking the root kship, 'to throw,' and finding the 1st Fut. to be ksheptásmi, he knows that i is rejected. Therefore he understands why it is that the 2nd Fut. is kshepsyámi; Aor. akshaipsam; Átmane of Precative, kshipsíya; Cond. akshepsyam; Infin. ksheptum; Past Pass. Part. kshipta; Indecl. Part. kshiptvá; Fut. Part. ksheptavya; noun of agency, kshepṭṛi; Desid. ćikshipsámi. On the other hand, taking root yáć, 'to ask,' and finding the 1st Fut. to be yáćitá, he knows that i is inserted, and therefore the same parts of the verb will be yáćishyámi, ayáćisham, yáćishíya, ayáćishyam, yáćitum, yáćita, yáćitvá, yáćitavya, yáćitṛi, yiyáćishámi, respectively.

A. Roots ending in Vowels inserting इ i (except as indicated at 391).

392. Five in इ i and ई í, viz. श्रि 'to resort to' (अयिता, अयिष्यति), ष्णि 'to swell,' डी 'to fly,' शी 'to lie down,' स्मि 'to smile' (in Desid. alone).

a. Six in उ u, viz. ष्णु 'to sneeze,' ष्ण्णु 'to sharpen,' नु 'to praise,' यु 'to join,'

रु 'to sound,' स्नु snu, 'to drip' (the last only when Parasmai; when inflected in Átm., it may reject i).

Obs.—स्तु 'to praise,' and सु 'to pour out,' in the Aorist Parasmai.

b. All in ऊ ú, as भू 'to be' (भविता, भविष्यति), except सू and धू (which optionally reject i), and except in the Desiderative. See 395, 395. a.

c. All in short ऋ ṛi, in the 2nd Future and Conditional, &c., but not in the 1st Future, as कृ 'to do' (करिष्यति, but कर्ता).

d. Two in short ऋ ṛi (viz. वृ 'to choose' and जागृ 'to awake') also in 1st Future (वरिता, वरिष्यति, जागरिता, &c.)

e. All in long ॠ ṛí, as तॄ 'to pass' (तरिता, तरिष्यति).

393. Observe—वृ 'to choose,' and all roots in long ॠ ṛí, may optionally lengthen the inserted i, except in Aorist Parasmai and Precative Átmane (वरिता or वरीता, वरिष्यति or वरीष्यति, तरिता or तरीता, &c.) See 627, note *.

B. Roots ending in Vowels rejecting इ i.

394. All in आ á, as दा 'to give' (दाता, दास्यति).

a. Nearly all in इ i and ई í, as जि 'to conquer,' नी 'to lead' (जेता, जेष्यति, &c.)

b. Nearly all in short उ u, as श्रु 'to hear' (श्रोता, श्रोष्यति).

c. Those in long ऊ ú generally in the Desiderative only.

d. All in short ऋ ṛi (except वृ) in the 1st Future only, as कृ 'to do' (कर्ता, but करिष्यति). See 392. c.

e. All in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o. See 390. d.

C. Roots ending in Vowels optionally inserting or rejecting इ i, either in all the last five tenses and Desiderative, or in certain of these forms only.

395. सू or सु cl. 2, 4, Átm. 'to bring forth' (सोता or सविता, सोष्यते or सविष्यते).

a. धू 'to shake' (धविता or धोता, धविष्यति or धोष्यति, &c., but i must be inserted in Aor. Par., see 430), पू 'to purify,' optionally in Desid. only (पुपूष्, पिपविष् Átm.)

b. प्यै Átm. 'to grow fat' (प्याता and प्यायिता, प्यास्यते and प्यायिष्यते; but necessarily inserts i in Desid.)

c. ऋ 'to go,' स्तृ or स्तॄ 'to spread,' 'to cover,' and स्वृ 'to sound,' all in 1st Fut., and the latter two optionally in Desid. also (अर्ता, अरिता or (?) अरीता; स्तर्ता, स्तरिता or स्तरीता; स्वर्ता or स्वरिता; तिस्तीर्षति or तिस्तरिषति or तिस्तरीषति; सिस्वरिषति or सुस्वूर्षति).

396. दरिद्रा 'to be poor' optionally in Desid. (दिदरिद्रास् or दिदरिद्रिष्).

397. All roots in long ॠ ṛí optionally in Desid., as तॄ makes तितरिषति or तितीर्षति.

398. श्रि, सु, भृ, वृ, optionally in Desiderative. Compare 392.

A. Roots ending in Consonants inserting इ i.

399. As a general rule, all roots ending in ख् kh, ग् g, घ् gh, झ् jh, ट् ṭ, ठ् ṭh, ड् ḍ, ढ् ḍh, ण् ṇ, त् t, थ् th, फ् ph, ब् b, य् y, र् r, ल् l, व् v; thus, लिख् 'to write' makes लेखिता, लेखिष्यति, &c.; वल्ग् 'to leap' makes वल्गिता, वल्गिष्यति.

a. ग्रह् 'to take' lengthens the inserted i in all the last five tenses, except Prec. Parasmai (ग्रहीता, ग्रहीष्यति), see 699. It rejects i in Desid.

B. Roots ending in Consonants rejecting इ i.

Obs.—The rules at 296–306 must in all cases be applied. When a number is given after a root, it indicates that the root only rejects i if conjugated in the class to which the number refers. When a number is given between brackets, this refers to the rule under which the root is conjugated.

h. One in म् m.—क्षम् 1. 4. 'to bear' (क्षमिता or क्षन्ता, क्षमिष्यते, -ति, or क्षंस्यते, -ति).

i. All in इव् iv (but only optionally in Desid.); as, दिव् 'to play,' ष्ठिव् 'to spit,' सिव् 'to sew.'

j. Two in य् y.—चाय् 'to honour;' प्याय् or स्फाय् 'to be fat' (but both necessarily insert i in Desid., compare 395. b).

k. Three in श् ś.—अश् 5. Atm. 'to pervade†' (but necessarily inserts i in Desid., see 681. a); नश् 4. 'to perish' (see 390. k, and 620); क्लिश् 9. 'to torment' (697).

l. Seven in ष् sh.—अक्ष् 'to pervade;' तक्ष् 'to form by cutting,' 'to carve' (तक्षिता or तष्टा, तक्षिष्यति or तक्ष्यति, &c.); त्वक्ष् 'to create;' कुष् with निर् 'to extract' (otherwise necessarily inserts i); इष् 6. 'to wish' (637); रिष् 'to injure;' रुष् 1. 'to injure' (the last three optionally in 1st Fut., but necessarily insert i in other forms).

* Except the Aorist, following form II at 435.

† अश् cl. 9, 'to eat,' inserts i.

m. Twelve in ह् h.—सह् Atm. 'to bear' (optionally in 1st Fut. only, necessarily inserts i in other forms, see 611. a); गृह् 'to gamble' (गृहिता or गृाढा, &c.); गाह् 'to penetrate;' माह् 'to measure' (माहिता or माढा, &c.); स्निह् snih, 'to love' (स्नेहिता or स्नेग्धा or स्नेढा, &c.); स्नुह् snuh, 'to love,' 'to vomit;' मुह् 'to be perplexed' (612); गुह् 'to conceal' (गूहिता or गोढा, गूहिष्यति or घोक्ष्यति, see 306. a, 390. m); द्रुह् 'to seek to injure' (623); तृह् 6. 7. or तृंह् 6. 'to kill' (674); वृह् or बृह् 'to raise;' स्तृह् or स्तृंह् 6. 'to kill.'

Aorist (Third Preterite).

This complex and multiform tense, the most troublesome and intricate in the whole Sanskṛit verb, but fortunately less used in classical Sanskṛit than the other past tenses, is not so much one tense, as an aggregation of several, all more or less allied to each other, and all bearing a manifest resemblance to the Imperfect.

416. Grammarians assert that there are seven different varieties of the Sanskṛit Aorist, four of which correspond more or less to the Greek 1st Aorist, and three to the 2nd Aorist, but we shall endeavour to shew that all these varieties may be included under two distinct forms of terminations given in the table at 246, and again below, and at 435.

417. Form I is subdivided like the terminations of all the last five tenses into (A) those which reject i, and (B) those which assume it; A belongs to many of those roots at 394, 400–414, which reject i; B to most of those at 392, 399, which insert it: but in the latter case the initial s becomes sh by 70, and in the 2nd and 3rd sing. the initial s is rejected, the i blending with the í, which then becomes the initial of those terminations. Moreover, in the case of roots which insert i the stem is formed according to rules different from those which apply in the case of roots which reject i.

a. Form II at 435 resembles the terminations of the Imperfect, and belongs, in the first place, to some of those roots rejecting i, whose stems in the Imperfect present some important variation from the root (see 436); in the second, to certain of the roots rejecting i, which end in श् ś, ष् sh, or ह् h, and which have i, u, or ṛi, for their radical vowel (see 439); in the third, to verbs of cl. 10 and Causals.

Form I.

418. The terminations are here repeated from 246.

A. Terminations without इ i.

	Parasmai.			Átmane.
1. sam	sva	sma	si	svahi	smahi
2. sís	stam [tam]	sta [ta]	sthás [thás]	sáthám	dhvam or ḍhvam
3. sít	stám [tám]	sus	sta [ta]	sátám	sata

B. Terminations with इ i.

	Parasmai.			Átmane.
1. isham	ishva	ishma	ishi	ishvahi	ishmahi
2. ís	ishṭam	ishṭa	ishṭhás	isháthám	idhvam or iḍhvam
3. ít	ishṭám	ishus	ishṭa	ishátám	ishata

419. Observe—The brackets in the A terminations indicate the rejection of initial s from those terminations in which it is compounded with t and th, if the stem ends in any consonant except a nasal or semivowel, or in any short vowel such as a, i, u, or ṛi. Observe also, that initial s is liable to become sh by 70, in which case a following t or th is cerebralized. The substitution of ḍhvam for dhvam and iḍhvam for idhvam, in certain cases, is explained in the table at 246.

420. General rule for forming the stem for those verbs of the first nine classes which reject इ i and so take the A terminations.

Obs. 1. The augment अ a must always be prefixed, as in the Imperfect; but it will be shewn in the Syntax at 889, that when the Aorist is used as a prohibitive Imperative, after the particle má or má sma, the augment is then rejected. See 242. a.

Obs. 2. When a root begins with the vowels इ i, उ u, or ऋ ṛi, short or long, the augment is prefixed in accordance with 251. a.

In Parasmai, if a root end in either a vowel or a consonant, vriddhi the radical vowel before all the terminations.

In Átmane, if a root end in इ i, ई í, उ u, or ऊ ú, gunate the radical vowel; if in ऋ ṛi or any consonant, leave the vowel unchanged before all the terminations. Final consonants must be joined to the A terminations according to the rules propounded at 296–306.

a. Thus, from नी 'to lead' come the two stems anai for Parasmai and ane for Átmane (anai+sam=अनैषम् by 70; Átm. ane+si=अनेषि, ane+sthás=अनेष्ठास्, &c.)

b. From कृ cl. 8, 'to make,' come the two stems akár for Parasmai and akṛi for Átmane (akár+sam=अकार्षम् by 70, &c.; Átm. akṛi+si=अकृषि by 70, akṛi+thás=अकृथास् by 419, akṛi+ta=अकृत, &c.) See 682.

Similarly, भृ cl. 3, 'to bear.' See the table at 583.

c. So, from युज् 'to join' come the two stems ayauj for Parasmai and ayuj for Átmane (Par. ayauj+sam=अयौक्षम् by 296, ayauj+sva=अयौक्ष्व, ayauj+tam=अयौक्तम् by 419; Átm. ayuj+si=अयुक्षि by 296, ayuj+thás=अयुक्थास्, ayuj+ta=अयुक्त).

d. From रुध् cl. 7, 'to hinder,' the stems araudh and arudh (Par. araudh+sam=अरौत्सम् by 299, Du. araudh+sva=अरौत्स्व, araudh+tam=अरौद्धम्; Átm. arudh+si=अरुत्सि, arudh+thás=अरुद्धास्, &c.)

e. Similarly, from पच् 'to cook' come the stems apáć and apać (apáć+sam=अपाक्षम् by 296; Átm. apać+si=अपक्षि, apać+thás=अपक्थास्, &c.)

f. From दह् 'to burn' (610), the stems adáh and adah (adáh+sam=अधाक्षम् by 306. a, adáh+tam=अदाग्धम् by 305; Átm. adah+si=अधक्षि by 306. a, adah+thás=अदग्धास्, &c.)

421. By referring to 391. b. it will be easy to understand that most roots in i, í, short u, and short ṛi, take the A terminations. Most of those in ṕ, e, ai, o, do so in the Átmanè, and a few of those in á also in the Parasmai.

a. स्तृ or स्तॄ 'to spread' takes either A or B; and in Átmane when it takes A, changes ṛí to ír. See 678.

b. वृ or वॄ 'to choose,' 'to cover,' changes its vowel to úr, under the same circumstances. See 675.

c. Roots in e, ai, o, change these vowels to á as in the other General tenses; thus, from ध्ये 'to cover,' अध्यासिषम् &c. (see 433), अध्यासि &c. Similarly, मि, मी, दी, and optionally ली, see 390. e (अमासिषम् &c., अमासि &c.)

d. दा 'to give' (see 663), धा 'to place' (see 664), स्था 'to stand' (see 587), दे 'to protect,' धे 'to drink' (if in Átm.), दो or दा 'to cut' (if in Átm.), change their finals in the Átmane to i (अदिषि, अदिषीय 419, अदित, अदिध्वहि; 2nd pl. अदिढ्वम्). In Parasmai they follow 438.

e. गा used for इ 'to go,' with अधि prefixed, signifying 'to go over,' 'to read' (Átmane only), changes its final to í (अध्यगीषि, -गीषीय, -गीष्ट, &c.)

f. कु Átm. 'to cry out,' गु 'to void excrement,' and ध्रु 'to be firm,' all cl. 6, preserve their vowels unchanged (अकुषि, &c.; अकुषीय, अकुत, &c.; अगुषम्, &c.); ध्रु may also make अध्रौषम्, and गु may also make अगुविषम्, but the latter root is then generally regarded as गू.

422. The following roots of those rejecting i, enumerated at 400–414, take the A terminations only, both for Par. or Átm.: पच्; प्रच्छ्; त्यज्, भज्, भञ्ज्, भ्रञ्ज्, मज्ज्, यज्, रञ्ज्, सञ्ज्, स्वञ्ज् Átm., भुज्, रुज्, सृज्; पद् Átm., हद् Átm., खिद्, तुद्, नुद्; बन्ध्, व्यध्, राध्, साध्, बुध् 4. Átm., युध्; मन् 4. Átm.; तप्, वप्, शप्, स्वप्, क्षिप्, तिप् Átm., लुप्; यभ्, रभ्, लभ्; दंश्; वस्; दह्, नह्, वह्.

a. The following take in Par. either the A terminations of form I or optionally form II; but in Átm. usually the A form of I, sometimes form II: रिच्, विच् 3, निज्, विज् 3, स्कन्द्, छिद्, भिद्, क्षुद्, रुध्, दृश्, मृश्, स्मृश्, कृष्.

b. The following take in Par. only form II; but in Átm. the A form of I, or sometimes the B form of I: शक् (Átm. doubtful), सिच्, मुच्, विद् 6. 'to find' (Átm. doubtful), 4. 7. (only Átm.), शद्, सद्, क्लिद्, स्विद् 4, रध्, सिध् 4, कुध्, क्षुध्, हन् (see 424. b; वध् with the B terminations is generally used for Par., but अहनत् occurs in Epic poetry), आप्, लिप्, लुप्, सृप्, गम्, यस्.

423. The following of those inserting or rejecting i, enumerated at 415, take either the A or B terminations: तच् or तञ्च्, त्रस्, मृज्, स्यन्द् generally Átm. only, सिध्, त्वप् Átm., गुप्, कुप् Átm., तृप्, दृप् (the last three in Par. take also form II), क्षम् generally Átm. (may also follow form II in Par.), प्याय् (or पी) Átm., अञ्, अक्ष्, ग्लह्, गाह्, माह्, तृंह्.

424. The rules at 296–306 must in all cases be applied, as well as the special rules applicable to certain roots in forming the Futures at 390 and 390. a–o; thus, त्रस् makes अत्रास्यम् by 297. b (see 630); मज्ज् makes अमाङ्क्षम् by 390. k (see 633); नश् in Átm., अनङ्क्षि or अनशिषि; भ्रञ्ज्, अभ्राक्षम् or अभार्क्षम्, अभ्रक्षि or अभर्क्षि by 390. g; मृज्, अमार्क्षम् by 390. j (also अमार्जिषम्); नह्, अनात्सम् by 306. b.

a. पद् Átm. 'to go,' बुध् Átm. 'to awake,' जन् Átm. 'to be born,' may form their 3rd sing. as if they were Passive verbs (see 475); thus, अपादि, Du. 3. अपत्साताम्; अबोधि (or optionally अबुद्ध), Du. 3. अभुत्साताम्; अजनि (or optionally अजनिष्ट).

b. Roots ending in न् and म् must change these letters to Anusvára before s, and म् becomes न् before ध्व; thus, मन् makes अमंसि, अमंस्यास्, अमंस्त (or if in cl. 8. अमनिष्ट, or by c. below अमत); क्षम् makes अक्षंसि &c., Du. 2. अक्षन्ध्वम्.

हन् (generally Par.) drops its nasal before the Átmane terminations (अहसि, अहथास्, &c.; initial s being rejected according to 419).

गम् does so optionally (अगंसि or अगसि, अगंस्यास् or अगथास्, &c.)

c. Roots in न् and ण् of cl. 8, which properly take the B terminations, are allowed an option of dropping the nasal in 2nd and 3rd sing. Átm., in which case initial s is rejected (419); e. g. तन् makes 3. अतनिष्ट or अतत (Páṇ. II. 4, 79).

d. Similarly, क्षण् makes 3. अक्षणिष्ट or अक्षत; and क्षुण्, अक्षुणिष्ट or अक्षुत.

e. सन् 'to give' is allowed the option of lengthening the a, when n is dropped; thus, Sing. 2. असायास् or असनिष्ठास्, 3. असात or असनिष्ट. Compare 354. a, 339 (Páṇ. II. 4, 79).

f. The nasal of दंश् 'to bite' becomes ङ् before क् and ण् before ट्; thus, अदाङ्क्षम्, Du. 2. अदांष्टम्; Átm. 1. अदक्षि, Du. 2. अदष्टृम्. See 303.

425. वह् 'to carry' (see 611) changes its radical vowel to ओ o before those terminations which reject an initial s by 305. a; thus, avóksham, avókshís, avókshít (Lat. vexit), avókshva, avoḍham, &c.; Átm. avakshi (Lat. vexi), avoḍhás, avoḍha.

a. सह् Átm., 'to bear,' generally takes the B terminations (asahishi, &c.), though the form असोढ is also given for the 3rd sing.

426. नह् 'to tie,' 'to fasten,' makes anátsam, anátsís, anátsít, anátsva, anáddham, &c.; and Átm. anatsi, anaddhás, &c., by 306. b (compare 183).

a. वस् 'to dwell' (see 607) makes avátsam, &c., by 304. a.

427. General rule for forming the stem for those verbs of the first nine classes which assume i, and so take the B terminations at 418.

a. If a root end in the vowels इ i, ई í, उ u, ऊ ú, ऋ ṛi, ॠ ṛí, vriddhi those vowels in the Parasmai before all the terminations, and gunate them in the Átmane.

Thus, from पू 'to purify' come the two stems apau for Parasmai and apo for Átmane (apau+i+sam=अपाविषम् by 37, apau+i+ís=अपावीस्, apau+i+ít=अपावीत्, &c.; Átm. apo+i+si=अपविषि, &c., by 36), see 583.

From तॄ cl. 1, 'to cross,' comes the stem atár for Parasmai (atár+i+sam=अतारिषम्, &c.)

So, from शी 'to lie down' comes अशयिषि, अशयिष्टास्, &c.; but roots ending in any other vowel than ú and long ṛí more frequently take the A terminations, as they generally reject i.

b. If a root end in a single consonant, gunate the radical vowel in both Parasmai and Átmane (except as debarred at 28, and except in the roots enumerated at 390. a).

Thus, बुध् budh, cl. 1, 'to know,' makes its stem abodh (abodhisham, &c.) See 583.
वृत् vṛit, 'to be,' makes avart (avartishi, &c.)
एध् edh, 'to increase,' makes aidh (aidhishi, &c., 251. b). See 600.

428. A medial a in roots ending in र् and ल् is lengthened in Parasmai, but not in Átmane.

Thus, चर् 'to go' makes अचारिषम्; ज्वल् 'to blaze,' अज्वालिषम्. The roots वद् 'to speak' and व्रज् 'to go' also lengthen the a in Parasmai (अवादिषम्; but not in Átmane अवदिषि &c.)

a. But those in म्, य्, ह् never lengthen the a in Parasmai; thus, स्यम् 'to sound' makes अस्यमिषम्. The following roots also are debarred from lengthening the a: कख्, कग्, रग्, लग्, सग्, स्थग्, हृग्, ह्वग्, कद्, क्षण्, चत्, क्षथ्, पथ्, मथ्, चद्, चध्, भ्रस्, हस्. One or two do so optionally; as, कण् and नद् 'to sound.'

429. Observe, that as the majority of Sanskṛit verbs assume i, it follows that rule 427. a. b. will be more universally applicable than rule 420, especially as the former applies to the Aorist of Intensives, Desideratives, and Nominals, as well as to that of simple verbs.

430. The special rules for the two Futures at 390. a–o will of course hold good for the Aorist; thus the roots enumerated at 390 and 390. a (कुच् &c.) forbid Guṇa; and गू, धू, धू, नू generally change their finals to uv (अकुचिषम् &c., अगुविषम् &c.); but when गू is written गु it makes अगुषम् &c., see 421. f, and धू may also make अधाविषम्, and नू, अनाविषम्.

a. ऊर्णु makes और्णाविषम् or और्णविषम् or और्णुविषम् &c., and in Átmane और्णविषि or और्णुविषि.

b. According to 390. c. दीधी, वेवी, and दरिद्रा drop their finals (अदीधिषि, अदरिद्रिषम्, &c.; see also 433).

431. In the Átmane, वृ 'to choose,' 'to cover,' and all roots in long ॠ ṛí, such as स्तृ 'to spread,' may optionally lengthen the inserted i; thus, अवरिषि or अवरीषि &c., अस्तरिषि or अस्तरीषि; but in Parasmai only अवारिषम्, अस्तारिषम्.

432. ष्विद् 'to swell' and जागृ 'to awake' take Guṇa instead of Vṛiddhi (अष्वयिषम् &c., see also 440. a; अजागरिषम् &c.)

a. ग्रह् according to 399. a. makes अग्रहीषम्, and by 390. m. गुह् makes अगूहिषम्. The latter also conforms to 439 and 439. b. See 609.

b. हन् 'to kill' forms its Aorist from वध् (अवधिषम् &c.), but see 422. b.

433. Many roots in आ á, ए e, ओ o, and ऐ ai, with three in म् m, viz. यम् yam, रम् ram, नम् nam, assume i, but in the Parasmai insert s before it; final e, o, and ai, being changed to आ á; thus, from या 'to go' comes अयासिषम्, &c. (see 644); from शो 'to sharpen,' अशासिषम्, &c.; from यम् 'to restrain,' अयंसिषम्, &c.

434. In the Átmane these roots reject the i and the s which precedes it, and follow 418; thus, from मा 'to measure' comes अमासि, &c. (see 664. a); from च्यै 'to cover,' अच्यासि (see 421. c); from रम् 'to sport,' अरंसि, अरंस्यास्, अरंस्त, &c.

Form II.

435. Resembling the Imperfect.

	Parasmai.			Átmane.
1. am	áva [va]	áma [ma]	e [i]	ávahi	ámahi
2. as [s]	atam [tam]	ata [ta]	athás	ethám [áthám]	adhvam
3. at [t]	atám [tám]	an [us]	ata	etám [átám]	anta

436. No confusion arises from the similarity which this form bears to the Imperfect, as in all cases where the above terminations are used for the Aorist, the Imperfect presents some difference in the form of its stem; thus, गम् 'to go' makes agaććham for its Impf., agamam for its Aor. (see 602); भिद् 'to break' makes abhinadam for its Impf., abhidam for its Aor. (see 583). So again, cl. 6, which alone can shew a perfect identity of root and stem, never makes use of this form for its Aorist, unless by some special rule the stem of its Imperfect is made to differ from the root; thus, लिप् 'to smear' (cf. ἀλείφω), which makes alipam in Aor., is alimpam in its Impf.; see 281. (So in Gr., cf. Impf. ἔλειπον with 2nd Aor. ἔλιπον; ἐλάμβανον with ἔλαβον; ἐδάμνην with ἔδαμον, &c.)

Obs.—This form of the Sanskṛit Aorist corresponds to Gr. 2nd Aor. (cf. asthám, asthás, asthát, with ἔστην, ἔστης, ἔστη), and the first form is more or less analogous to the 1st Aor. The substitution of i for e, and áthám, átám, for ethám, etám, in Átm. of form II, is confined to a class of roots mentioned at 439.

437. Rule for forming the stem in verbs of the first nine classes. Prefix the augment, and as a general rule attach the terminations directly to the root.

Thus, in agamam &c., abhidam &c., see 436. So also, नश् 'to perish' makes अनशम् (also अनेशम्, see 441, 424).

a. Observe, however, that most of the roots which follow this form in Par., follow form I at 418 in Átm.; thus, भिद् 'to break' makes abhitsi, &c., in Átm.; see the table at 583: similarly, छिद् 'to cut,' see 667. And a few roots, which are properly restricted to Átm., have a Parasmai Aorist of this 2nd form; thus, रुच् Átm. 'to shine,' 'to be pleasing,' makes Par. arućam, as well as Átm. aroćishi.

b. One or two roots in आ á, इ i, and ए e reject their finals; and one or two in ऋ ṛi and ॠ ṛí gunate these vowels before the above terminations; thus, ख्या 'to tell' makes अख्यम् &c., अख्ये &c.; ष्वि 'to swell,' अष्वम्; ह्वे 'to call' makes अह्वम् (see 595); सृ 'to go,' असरम्; ऋ 'to go,' आरम्; जॄ 'to grow old,' अजरम्.

c. दृश् 'to see' gunates its vowel (अदर्शम्, see 604).

d. Penultimate nasals are generally dropped; thus, स्तम्भ् 'to stop' makes अस्तभम्; स्यन्द् 'to distil,' अस्यदम्; स्कन्द् 'to mount,' अस्कदम्; भ्रंश् 'to fall,' अभ्रशम्.

e. A form अद्धम् occurs in the Veda, from घस् 'to eat,' the medial a being dropped.

438. In the Parasmai certain roots ending in long आ á and ए e conform still more closely to the terminations of the Imperfect, rejecting the initial vowel, as indicated by the brackets in the table at 435. In the 3rd pl. they take us for an.

Thus, दा cl. 3, 'to give,' makes adám, adás, adát, adáva, &c.; 3rd pl. adus, see 663. So also, धा cl. 3, 'to place,' makes adhám, &c., 664; and स्था cl. 1, 'to stand,' makes asthám, &c., 587.

a. Similarly, भू cl. 1, 'to be,' except 1st sing. and 3rd pl. (अभूवम्, अभूस्, अभूत्, अभूव, &c.; but 3rd pl. अभूवन्, see 585).

b. Observe, however, that some roots in á, like yá, 'to go,' follow 433.

c. And some roots in ए e and ओ o, which follow 433, optionally follow 438; in which case e and o are changed as before to á; thus, धे dhe, cl. 1, 'to drink,' makes either adhásisham &c., or adhám &c., also adadham, see 440. a; सो so, cl. 4, 'to come to an end,' makes either asásisham or asám, see 613.

d. In the Átmane-pada, roots like दा, धा, स्था, दे, धे, दो follow 421. d.

e. इ 'to go' makes its Aorist from a root गा; thus, agám, agás, &c.

Note—Adadám, Impf. of dá, 'to give,' bears the same relation to its Aor. adám that ἐδίδων does to ἔδων. So also the relation of adhám (Aor. of dhá, 'to place') to adadhám (Impf.) corresponds to that of ἔθην to ἐτίθην. Cf. also abhavas and abhús with ἔφυες and ἔφυς.

439. Certain roots ending in श् ś, ष् sh, ह् h, enclosing a medial i, u, or ṛi, form their Aorists according to form II at 435; but whenever confusion is likely to arise between the Imperfect and Aorist, s is prefixed to the terminations, before which sibilant the final of the root becomes k by 302 and 306.

Thus, दिश् 'to point out,' the Impf. of which is अदिशम्, makes अदिक्षम् &c. in Aor. (cf. Gr. 1st Aor. ἔδειξα). Similarly, द्विष् cl. 2, 'to hate,' makes adviksham &c., 657; दुह् cl. 2, 'to milk,' makes अधुक्षम् adhuksham &c., by 306. a. See 660.

a. This class of roots substitutes i for e, and áthám, átám, for ethám, etám, in

b. A few roots in ह् h (viz. लिह्, दिह्, गुह्, दुह्) optionally in the Átmane reject the initial a from the terminations of the 2nd and 3rd sing., 1st du., and 2nd pl.; thus, लिह् may make अलिक्षि, अलीढास्, अलीढ; Du. 1. अलिह्वहि; Pl. 2. अलीढ्वम्, 661: and दुह् 'to milk,' अधुक्षि, अदुग्धास्, &c. See 661, 659, 609, 660.

c. According to some authorities, a few roots (e. g. तृप्, दृप्, सृप्) which generally follow form I, A, in Átmane, may optionally conform to form II, taking the terminations i, áthám, átám, rejecting initial a and á from the other terminations, and taking ata for anta: thus, atṛipi, atṛipthás, atṛipta, atṛipvahi, &c.

440. Causal verbs and verbs of cl. 10 make use of form II, but the stem assumes both reduplication and augment (as in the Greek Pluperfect); thus, बुध् cl. 1, 'to know,' makes in the Causal Aorist अबूबुधम्, &c. This will be explained at 492.

a. A few Primitive verbs besides those of cl. 10 take a reduplicated stem, analogous to Causals (see 492).

Thus, श्रि 'to resort to' makes अशिश्रियम् &c.; श्वि 'to swell' makes अशिश्वियम् (also अश्वम् and अश्वयिषम्, see 432, 437. b); द्रु cl. 1, 'to run,' अदुद्रुवम्; सु 'to flow,' असुस्रुवम्; धे 'to drink,' अदधम्; कम् 'to love,' अचकमे, &c. This last is defective when it belongs to cl. 1, having no Special tenses; but when it belongs to cl. 10 (Pres. कामये, &c.) its Aorist is अचीकमे.

441. The following Primitive verbs take a contracted form of reduplicated stem: वच् cl. 2, 'to speak,' makes अवोचम् avoćam (from अवउचम् for अववचम् 650); पत् cl. 1, 'to fall,' अपप्तम् (from अपपतम्; compare Gr. ἔπτατον); शास् cl. 2, 'to rule,' अशिषम् (from अशिशसम्, but the Átmane follows 427; see 658); अस् cl. 4, 'to throw,' आस्यम् (from आससम्, contracted into आथ्सम् for आत्सम् 304. a, whence by transposition आस्थम्); नश् cl. 4, 'to perish,' अनेशम् (from अनड्पम् for अननिशम्). See 620, 436.

Precative or Benedictive.

Terminations of Precative repeated from 246.

Parasmai.			Átmane.
yásam	yásva	yásma	síya	sívahi	símahi
yás	yástam	yásta	síshṭhás	síyásthám	sídhvam or síḍhvam
yát	yástám	yásus	síshṭa	síyástám	síran

442. The terminations of this tense resemble those of the Potential in the scheme at 245. In 2nd and 3rd sing. they are identical. In the other persons of the Parasmai a sibilant is inserted, and in some of the Átmane, both prefixed and inserted. In 2nd pl. Átm. sídhvam is used for sídhvam when immediately preceded by any other vowel but a or á, and optionally ishíḍhvam for ishídhvam when immediately preceded by a semivowel or h. The only difference between the Potential and Precative of verbs of the 2nd and 3rd groups, at 290, will often be that the Potential will have the conjugational characteristic; thus, bhid, cl. 7, 'to break,' will be bhindyát in Pot., and bhidyát in Prec. (Compare the Optative of the Gr. Aor. δοίην with Optative of the Present διδοίην.)

443. Rule for forming the stem in verbs of the first nine classes.

In Parasmai, as a general rule, either leave the root unchanged before the y of the terminations, or make such changes as are required in the Passive (see 465–472), or by the conjugational rule of the 4th class, and never insert i.

In Átmane, as a general rule, prefix i to the terminations in those roots ending in consonants or vowels which take i in the Futures (see 392, 399), and before this i gunate the radical vowel. Gunate it also in the Átmane in some roots ending in vowels which reject i: but if a root end in a consonant, and reject i, the radical vowel is generally left unchanged in the Átmane, as well as Parasmai.

444. Thus, from भू cl. 1, 'to be,' come the stem of the Parasmai bhú, and the stem of the Átmane bhavi, by 36. a (bhú + yásam = भूयासम् &c., bhavi + sîya = भविषीय by 70).

445. Frequently, as already observed, before the y of the Parasmai terminations, the root is liable to changes analogous to those which take place before the y of cl. 4 at 272, and the y of Passive verbs at 465; and not unfrequently it undergoes changes similar to those of the Perfect at 373, &c., as follows:—

446. A final आ á is changed to ए e in Par., but remains unchanged in Átm., as before the s of the 2nd Future terminations; thus, दा cl. 3, 'to give,' makes देयासम् &c. for Par., but दासीय &c. for Átm.; पा 'to drink' makes पेयासम् &c.

a. But ज्या 'to become old' makes जीयासम् &c., and दरिद्रा 'to be poor' drops its final even in Parasmai (दरिद्यासम्, दरिद्रिषीय, &c.) Compare 390. c.

447. Final इ i and उ u are lengthened in Par., as before the y of Passives, and gunated in Átm., as before the s of the 2nd Future; thus, चि 'to gather' makes चीयासम् &c., चेषीय &c.; and हु 'to sacrifice' makes हूयासम् &c., होषीय &c.

a. When इ 'to go' is preceded by a preposition, it is not lengthened (इयासम् &c.; otherwise ईयासम्).

b. दीधी and वेवी drop their finals as at 390. c (दीधिषीय &c.)

448. Final ऋ ṛi is changed to रि ri in Parasmai, but retained in Átmane; thus, कृ 'to do' makes क्रियासम् &c., and कृषीय &c. After a double consonant ṛi is gunated in Parasmai, as well as before inserted i; thus, स्तृ 'to spread' makes स्तर्यासम् &c., स्तृषीय &c., or स्तरिषीय &c.

a. It is also gunated in ऋ ṛi, 'to go,' and जागृ 'to awake' (अर्यासम्, जागर्यासम्, &c.)

b. वृ 'to cover,' 'to choose,' makes व्रियासम् or वूर्यासम्, वृषीय or वरिषीय or वूर्षीय.

449. Final ऋ ṛ is changed to ईर् ír in both voices, but is gunated before inserted i in Átmane; thus, तॄ cl. 1, 'to cross,' makes तीर्यासम् &c., तोर्षीय &c., or तरिषीय &c., or तरीषीय &c.

a. One root, पॄ cl. 10, 'to fill,' makes पूर्यासम् &c. Compare 448. a.

450. Of roots in ए e, धे 'to drink' makes धेयासम् &c. (which is also the Precative of धा 'to hold'); दे 'to protect,' देयासम्.

a. But ह्वे 'to call' makes हूयासम् &c., and ह्वासीय &c.; व्ये 'to cover' makes वीयासम् &c., and व्यासीय &c.; and वे 'to weave' makes ऊयासम् &c., and वासीय &c. Compare 465. c.

451. Final ऐ ai and ओ o are often treated like final á at 446; thus गै 'to sing' makes गेयासम् &c.; सै 'to waste' and सो 'to destroy' make सेयासम्; दो 'to cut,' like दा 'to give' and दे 'to protect,' makes देयासम्. But sometimes they are changed to á; thus, त्रै 'to preserve' makes त्रासीय &c.; दै 'to purify' makes दायासम्; ध्यै 'to think' either ध्यायासम् or ध्येयासम्; ग्लै 'to be weary' either ग्लायासम् or ग्लेयासम्.

452. As already stated, if a root end in a consonant, there is no change in Parasmai, except the usual changes before y; moreover, unlike the 2nd Future, there is no Guṇa in Átmane, unless the root take i; the other changes in Átmane are similar to those applicable before the s of the 2nd Future terminations (390. o); thus, दुह् 'to milk' makes दुह्यासम् &c., and धुक्षीय &c., by 306. a; द्विष् 'to hate' makes द्विष्यासम् &c., and द्विक्षीय &c., by 302; and बुध् 'to know' makes बुध्यासम् &c., and बोधिषीय &c. See 443.

a. Roots of the 10th class, however, retain Guṇa in Par., as well as in Átm., rejecting the conjugational aya in Par. only; see under Causals (495).

453. According to the usual changes in cl. 4 and in Passives, roots ending in a double consonant, of which the first member is a nasal, generally reject the nasal; thus, भञ्ज् bhañj, cl. 7, makes bhajyásam, &c. Compare 469.

a. So again, according to 472, ग्रह् 'to take' makes in Par. गृह्यासम् &c.; प्रच्छ् 'to ask,' पृच्छ्यासम् &c.; भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' भृज्ज्यासम् (632); त्रश्च् 'to cut,' तृच्यासम् (636); व्यध् 'to pierce,' विध्यासम्; व्यच् 'to deceive,' विच्यासम्; शास् 'to teach,' शिष्यासम् &c. In the Átmane they are regular.

b. So again, इ i and उ u before r and v are lengthened; thus, कुर् 'to sound' makes कूर्यासम्; and दिव् 'to play,' दीव्यासम्. Compare 466.

454. वच् 'to speak,' वद् 'to say,' वप् 'to sow,' वश् 'to wish,' वस् 'to dwell,' वह् 'to carry,' and स्वप् 'to sleep,' substitute उ u for व va in Par., and यज् 'to sacrifice' substitutes i for ya; thus, उच्यासम्, सुप्यासम्, इज्यासम्, &c.; cf. 471. In the Átmane they are regular; as, वक्षीय from वह्; यक्षीय from यज्.

a. जन्, खन्, and सन् conform to 470; thus, जन्यासम् or जायासम् &c.; cf. 424. e.

Observe—In addition to these rules, the other special changes which take place before the s of the 2nd Future terminations, noted at 390 and 390. a–o, will apply to the Átmane of the Precative; thus, कु or कॄ at 390 makes कुषीय or कृषीय; भ्रस्ज् at 390. g.

makes अक्षीय or अक्षीय; कम् at 390. l. makes कामयिषीय or कमिषीय; and गुप् may be गुप्यासम् or गोपायासम् even in Parasmai.

Conditional.

Terminations of Conditional repeated from 246.

Parasmai.			Atmane.
syam	syáva	syáma	sye	syávahi	syámahi
syas	syatam	syata	syathás	syethám	syadhvam
syat	syatám	syan	syata	syetám	syanta

455. Observe, that this tense bears the same relation to the 2nd Future that the Imperfect does to the Present. In its form it is half an Imperfect, half a 2nd Future. It resembles the Imperfect in prefixing the augment अ a to the stem (see 251), and in the latter part of its terminations: it resembles the 2nd Future in the first part of its terminations in gunating the radical vowel, in inserting इ i in exactly those roots in which the Future inserts i, and in the other changes of the stem.

456. The Conditional is most easily formed from the 2nd Future (388–415) by prefixing the augment a and changing syámi (shyámi) into syam (shyam); e. g. karishyámi, akarishyam.

457. Thus, बुध् cl. 1, 'to know,' makes अबोधिष्यम् &c.; दुह् 'to milk' makes अधोक्ष्यम् &c. (see 414 and 306. a); द्विष् 'to hate,' अद्वेक्ष्यम् &c. (see 412); गुह् 'to conceal,' अगूहिष्यम् or अघोक्ष्यम् (415. m); मज्ज् 'to be immersed,' अमंक्ष्यम् (390. k).

a. The augment will be prefixed to roots beginning with vowels according to the rules given at 251; thus, ऊर्णु 'to cover' makes और्णुविष्यम् or और्णविष्यम्, cf. 390. b.

b. इ 'to go,' with अधि prefixed (meaning 'to read'), may optionally form its Conditional from the root गा (अध्यैष्ये or अध्यगीष्ये, see 421. e).

Infinitive.

458. The termination of the Infinitive is तुम् tum (= the tum of the Latin Supine). It is used as a verbal noun with the force of the accusative or dative case.

Obs.—The suffix tum is probably the accusative of the suffix tu (see 82. VIII), of which other cases are used as Infinitives in the Veda.

459. Rule for forming the stem in verbs of the ten classes.

The stem of the Infinitive is identical with the stem of the First Future, and where one inserts इ i, the other does also; thus, budh, cl. 1, 'to know,' makes बोधितुम् bodhitum; क्षिप् kship, cl. 6, 'to throw,' makes क्षेप्तुम् ksheptum. Moreover, all the rules for the change of the root before the t of the Future terminations apply equally before the t of the Infinitive. Hence, by substituting um for the final á of the 3rd pers. sing. of the 1st Future, the Infinitive is at once obtained.

Thus, शक्ता, शक्तुम्; प्रष्टा, प्रष्टुम्; सोढा, सोढुम्; कथयिता, कथयितुम्. So also, दुह् makes दोग्धुम्; दुह्, द्रोढुम् or द्रोग्धुम् or द्रोहितुम्; कुच्, कुचितुम्. See 388–415.

a. In the Veda, Infinitives are also formed by the suffixes तवे, तवै, तोस्, स्यै, से, असे, अध्यै, अम्, ए, ऐ, अस्, which are really cases of verbal nouns (see 867. a. b).

b. The following examples will shew how remarkably the Sanskṛit Infinitive answers to the Latin Supine. S. स्थातुम् 'to stand,' L. statum; S. दातुम् 'to give,' L. datum; S. पातुम् 'to drink,' L. potum; S. इतुम् 'to go,' L. itum; S. स्तर्तुम् 'to strew,' L. stratum; S. अंक्तुम् 'to anoint,' L. unctum; S. जनितुम् 'to beget,' L. genitum; S. स्वनितुम् 'to sound,' L. sonitum; S. सर्प्तुम् 'to go,' L. serptum; S. वमितुम् 'to vomit,' L. vomitum.

DERIVATIVE VERBS.

460. Having explained the formation of the verbal stem in the ten classes of Primitive verbs, we come next to the four kinds of Derivative verbs, viz. Passives, Causals, Desideratives, and Frequentatives.

PASSIVE VERBS.

461. Every root in every one of the ten classes may take a Passive form, conjugated as an Átmane-pada verb of cl. 4, the only difference being in the accent, which in Passives falls on the inserted ya, whereas in the Átmane of Primitive verbs of cl. 4, it falls on the radical syllable.

a. It has already been remarked, that the Passive may be regarded as a distinct derivative from the root, formed on one invariable principle, without any necessary community with the conjugational structure of the Active verb. Thus the root bhid, cl. 7, 'to divide,' makes bhinatti or bhintte, 'he divides;' dvish, cl. 2, 'to hate,' makes dveshṭi or dvishṭe, 'he hates;' but the Passive of both is formed according to one invariable rule, by the simple insertion of ya, without reference to the conjugational form of the Active; thus, bhidyate, 'he is divided;' dvishyate, 'he is hated.' See 243. a.

b. In fact, a Passive verb is really nothing but a root conjugated according to the rule for cl. 4 restricted to the Átmane-pada: and to say that every root may take a Passive form, is to say that roots of classes 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 may all belong to cl. 4, when they receive a Passive sense: so that if a root be already of cl. 4, its Passive is frequently identical in form with its own Átmane-pada (the only difference being in the accent).

c. It might even be suspected, that the occasional assumption of an Intransitive signification and a Parasmai-pada inflexion by a Passive verb, was the cause which gave rise to a 4th class of Primitive verbs as distinct from the Passive. Instances are certainly found of Passive verbs taking Parasmai-pada terminations, and some Passive verbs (e. g. jáyate, 'he is born,' fr. rt. jan; púryate, 'he is filled,' fr. pṛí; and tapyate, 'he is heated,' fr. tap) are regarded by native grammarians as Átmane verbs of cl. 4 *. Again, many roots appear in class 4 as Intransitive verbs, which also appear in some one of the other nine as Transitive. For example, yuj, 'to join,' when used in a Transitive sense, is conjugated either in cl. 7, or in the Causal; when in an Intransitive, in cl. 4. So also, push, 'to nourish;' kshubh, 'to agitate;' kliś, 'to vex;' sidh, 'to accomplish †.'

d. There are said to be three kinds of Passive verbs.

I. The Passive, properly so called (karman); as, from तुद्, तुद्यते 'he is struck' (i. e. 'by another'), where the verb implies that the person or thing spoken of suffers some action from another person or thing; e. g. ओदनः पच्यते मया 'rice is cooked by me.'

II. An Impersonal Passive (bháva), generally formed from an Intransitive verb, and only occurring in the 3rd singular; गम्यते 'it is gone;' नृत्यते 'it is danced;' पच्यते 'it is cooked' or 'cooking goes on,' where the verb itself implies neither person nor thing as either acting or suffering, but simply expresses a state or condition.

III. A Reflexive Passive (karma-kartṛi, 'object-agent' or 'object-containing-agent'), where there is no object as distinct from the subject of the verb, or, in other words, where the subject is both agent and object, as in ओदनः पच्यते 'rice is cooked;' स जायते 'he is born,' &c. In these latter, if a vowel immediately precedes the characteristic y, the accent may fall on the radical syllable, as in cl. 4. They may also, in some cases, make use of the Átmane-pada of the Active, and drop the y altogether; thus to express 'he is adorned by himself,' it would be right to use भूषते 'he adorns himself.'

Obs.—According to Páṇini the Passive verb is merely an Átmane verb with the Vikaraṇa yak in the four tenses, and karman merely expresses one idea of the Passive. The object is expressed by the termination of the Passive in such a case as 'the house is built by me,' where the object of the agent me, viz. house, is expressed by the terminations of the Passive. But no agent might be mentioned, as simply 'the house is built,' in which case it would be a bháva, not a karman.

462. Passive verbs take the regular Átmane-pada terminations at 246, making use of the substitutions required in cl. 4.

In the Aorist they take either the A or B terminations of form I at 418, according as the root may admit the inserted इ i or not; but they require that in 3rd sing. of both forms the termination be इ i in place of sta and ishṭa (see 475).

* The Passive not unfrequently takes the terminations of the Parasmai-pada in Epic poetry; e. g. ćhidyet for ćhidyeta, 'it may be cut;' mokshyasi for mokshyase, 'thou shalt be liberated;' adṛiśyat, 'he was seen.'

† The forms given for the Aorists of such verbs as pad, 'to go,' budh, 'to know' (which are said to be Átmane verbs of cl. 4), could only belong to Passive verbs. The forms given by Westergaard are, apádi, abodhi. See 475.

Special Tenses.

463. Rule for the formation of the stem in the four Special tenses, Átmane-pada, of roots of the first nine classes.

Affix य *ya—lengthened to या yá before initial m and v—to the root, the vowel of which is not gunated, and often remains unchanged. (Compare the rule for cl. 4 at 249 and 272.)

464. Thus, from भू cl. 1, 'to be,' comes the stem भूय bhúya (Pres. bhúya+i=भूये, bhúya+se=भूयसे, &c.; Impf. abhúya+i=अभूये, &c.; Pot. bhúya+íya=भूयेय, &c.; Impv. bhúya+ai=भूयै, &c.); from तुद् cl. 6, 'to strike,' comes tudya (Pres. tudya +i=तुद्ये, &c.)

465. The root, however, often undergoes changes, which are generally analogous to those of cl. 4 and the Precative Parasmai-pada (see 275 and 445); but a final á is not changed to e as in the Precative.

Six roots in आ á, and one or two in ए e, ऐ ai, and ओ o, change their final vowels to ई í; thus, दा 'to give,' दे 'to protect,' and दो 'to cut,' make Pres. दीये, दीयसे, दीयते, &c. So also, धा 'to place' (3rd sing. धीयते); स्था 'to stand,' मा 'to measure,' पा 'to drink,' and हा 'to quit;' धे 'to drink' (3rd sing. धीयते, &c.); गै 'to sing' (गीयते); सो 'to destroy' (सीयते).

Obs. 1. दा cl. 2, 'to bind,' makes दायते, as it is not a ghu and does not come under Pán. VI. 4, 66.

Obs. 2. हा 'to go' (ohán) makes háyate, though हा 'to quit' (ohák) makes híyate.

a. But other roots in आ á remain unchanged; and most others in ai and o are changed to á; thus, ख्या 'to tell' makes 3rd sing. ख्यायते; and ज्ञा 'to know,' ज्ञायते; पा 'to protect,' पायते; ध्यै 'to meditate,' ध्यायते; शो 'to sharpen,' शायते.

b. दरिद्रा, दीधी, and वेवी drop their final vowels as at 390. c (दरिद्रायते, दीध्यते, &c.); and ज्या 'to become old' makes 1. जीयते. Cf. 446. a.

c. ह्वे 'to call,' वे 'to weave,' ष्ये 'to cover,' make their stems हूय, ऊय, and वीय (3rd sing. हूयते). Compare 450. a.

466. Final इ i or उ u are lengthened, as also a medial i or u before v or r; thus, from जि, हु, दिव्, कुर्, come जीय, हूय, दीव्य, कूर्य. See 447 and 453. b.

a. But श्वि 'to swell' makes 3rd sing. शूयते; and शी 'to lie down,' शय्यते.

467. Final ऋ ri becomes रि ri, but if preceded by a double consonant is gunated; thus, कृ makes 3. क्रियते; वृ, व्रियते; but स्मृ, स्मर्यते. Cf. 448.

a. The roots ऋ (3rd sing. ऋर्यते) and जागृ are also gunated. Cf. 448. a.

468. Final ॠ rí becomes ईर् ír; thus, कॄ 'to scatter' makes 3. कीर्यते; but पॄ 'to fill,' पूर्यते. See 449 and 449. a.

* This ya is probably derived from yá, 'to go,' just as the Causal aya is derived from i, 'to go.' It is certain that in Bengálí and Hindí the Passive is formed with the root yá. Cf. Latin amatum iri, &c. See 481.

469. Roots ending in a double consonant, of which the first is a nasal, usually reject the nasal; as, from बन्ध्, स्तम्भ्, सञ्ज्, come the stems बध्य, &c. (बध्ये, &c.)

a. The roots at 390. l. carry their peculiarities into the Passive (कम्यते or काम्यते, गुप्यते or गोपाय्यते, विच्छ्यते or विच्छाय्यते, ऋत्यते or ऋतीय्यते).

470. जन् 'to produce,' खन् 'to dig,' तन् 'to stretch,' सन् 'to give,' optionally reject the final nasal, and lengthen the preceding a; thus, जायते or जन्यते, &c.

471. वच् 'to speak,' वद् 'to say,' वप् 'to sow,' वश् 'to wish,' वस् 'to dwell,' वह् 'to bear,' स्वप् 'to sleep,' यज् 'to sacrifice,' change the semivowels व, य into their corresponding vowels and accordingly make their stems उच्य, उद्य, उप्य, उश्य, उष्य, उह्य, सुप्य, इज्य respectively, (उच्यते, &c.)

Obs.—This change of a semivowel into its corresponding vowel is technically called Samprasáraṇa.

472. Similarly, ग्रह् 'to take,' प्रच्छ् 'to ask,' भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' व्यच् 'to deceive,' व्यध् 'to pierce,' व्रश्च् 'to cut,' make their stems गृह्य, पृच्छ्य, भृज्ज्य, विच्य, विध्य, वृश्च्य respectively, (गृह्यते, &c.)

a. ऊह् 'to reason' shortens its vowel after prepositions (उह्यते; otherwise ऊह्यते).

b. अज् forms its Passive from वी; घस् from अद्; असु from भू; ब्रू from वच्; and चक्ष् from ख्या.

c. शास् 'to rule' makes its Passive stem शिष्य.

General Tenses.—Perfect of Passives.

473. The stem of this tense in the Passive verb is identical with that of all Primitive verbs, in all ten classes. The stems, therefore, as formed at 364–384, will serve equally well for the Perfect of the Passive, provided only that they be restricted to the Átmane-pada inflexion; thus, बुबुधे, पेचे, &c.

a. When the Periphrastic Perfect has to be employed (see 385) the auxiliaries आस and भू may be used in the Átmane, as well as कृ. Compare 385. b.

First and Second Future of Passives.

474. In these and the remaining tenses no variation generally occurs from the stems of the same tenses in the Primitive, Átmane, unless the root end in a vowel. In that case the insertion of इ i may take place in the Passive, although prohibited in the Primitive, provided the final vowel of the root be first vriddhied; thus, from चि ći, cl. 5, 'to gather,' may come the stem of the 1st and 2nd Fut. Pass. cáyi (cáyitáhe &c., cáyishye &c.), although the stem of the same tenses in the Primitive is će (četáhe &c., ceshye &c.) Similarly, from हु hu and कृ kṛi may come hávi and kári (hávitáhe, káritáhe), although the stems in the Primitive are ho and kar.

a. In like manner इ i may be inserted when the root ends in long आ á, or in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, changeable to आ á, provided that, instead of Vṛiddhi (which is impossible), y be interposed between the final á and inserted i; thus, from दा dá, 'to give,' may come the stem of the Fut. Pass. dáyi (dáyitáhe &c.), although the stem of the same tenses in the Primitive is dá (dátáhe &c.); from ह्वे hve, 'to call,' may come hváyi

(ह्वायिताहे &c.), although the stem in the Primitive is hvá. But in all these cases the stem of the Primitive may be taken for that of the Passive, so that ćetáhe or ćáyitáhe may equally stand for the 1st Fut. Pass.; and similarly with the others.

b. In the case of roots ending in consonants, the stem of the two Futures in the Passive will be identical with that of the same tenses in the Primitive verb, the inflexion being that of the Átmane. दृश् 'to see,' however, in the Passive, may be दर्शिताहे, दर्शिष्ये, as well as द्रष्टाहे, द्रक्ष्ये; and हन् 'to kill' may be घानिताहे, घानिष्ये, as well as हन्ताहे, हनिष्ये; and ग्रह् 'to take' may be ग्राहिताहे, ग्राहिष्ये, as well as ग्रहीताहे, ग्रहीष्ये.

c. In verbs of cl. 10 and Causals, deviation from the Átmane form of the Primitive may take place in these and the succeeding tenses. See 496.

Aorist of Passives.

475. In this tense, also, variation from the Primitive may occur when the root ends in a vowel. For in that case the insertion of इ i may take place, although forbidden in the Primitive verb, provided the final of the root be vriddhied; thus, from चि ći may come the stem of the Aor. Pass. aćáyi (aćáyishi &c., 427), although the stem in the Átmane of the Primitive is aće (aćeshi &c., 420). So also, from हु hu and कृ kṛi may come ahávi and akári (ahávishi, akárishi, 427), although the stems in the Átmane of the Primitive are aho and akṛi (ahoshi, akṛishi, 420). Again, i may be inserted when the root ends in long आ á, or in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, changeable to आ á, provided that y be interposed between final á and inserted i; thus, from दा 'to give,' दे 'to protect,' दै 'to purify,' दो 'to cut,' may come adáyi (adáyishi &c.), although the stems in the Átmane of the Primitives are different (as adishi &c.) But in all these cases it is permitted to take the stem of the Primitive for that of the Passive (so that the Passive of ći may be either aćáyishi or aćeshi), except in the 3rd pers. sing., where the terminations ishṭa and sta being rejected, the stem, as formed by Vṛiddhi and the inserted i, must stand alone; thus, aćáyi, 'it was gathered;' ahávi, 'it was sacrificed;' akári, 'it was done;' adáyi, 'it was given,' 'protected,' 'purified,' 'cut.'

a. Sometimes the usual form of the Aorist Átmane is employed throughout (see 461. III). This is the case whenever the sense is that of a Reflexive Passive, not of the real Passive; thus, ख्या 'to tell' in the 3rd sing. Aor. Pass. is अख्यायि, but in the sense of a Reflexive Passive अख्यत; श्रि 'to resort to' makes 1st sing. Aor. Pass. अश्रयिषि, but Reflexive अशिश्रिये; and कम् 'to love' makes 3rd sing. Aor. Pass. अकमि or अकामि, but Reflexive अचकमे.

b. If the root end in a consonant, the stem of the Aorist Passive will always be identical with that of the Átmane of the Primitive, except in the 3rd sing., where इ i being substituted for the terminations ishṭa and sta of form I at 418, generally requires before it the lengthening of a medial a (if not already long by position), and the Guṇa of any other short medial vowel*. Hence, from tan, 'to stretch,'

* A medial vowel, long by nature or position, remains unchanged (by 28), and in one or two cases even a short vowel; as, aśami for aśámi.

1st, 2nd, and 3rd sing. atanishi, atanishṭhás, atáni; from kship, 'to throw,' akshipsi, akshipthás, akshepi; from vid, 'to know,' avedishi, avedishṭhás, avedi, &c.

c. The lengthening of a medial a, however, is by no means universal; and there are other exceptions in the 3rd sing., as follows:—

Nearly all roots ending in am forbid the lengthening of the vowel in the 3rd sing.; thus, अक्रमि from क्रम् 'to walk;' अद्यमि from द्यम् 'to bear;' अशमि from शम् 'to be calm' (but in the sense of 'to observe,' अशामि).

d. Similarly, अवधि from वध् and अजनि from जन्. The former may optionally substitute अघानि from हन्.

e. मृज् and गुह् lengthen their vowels (अमार्जि, अगूहि).

f. The roots at 390. l. will have two forms, अकमि or अकामि, अगोपि or अगोपायि, अविच्छि or अविच्छायि, &c.

g. रध् 'to perish,' जभ् 'to yawn,' रभ् 'to desire,' insert nasals (अरन्धि, अजम्भि, अरम्भि). Similarly, लभ् 'to receive,' when it has a preposition (e. g. प्रालम्भि), and optionally when it has none (अलम्भि or अलाभि, Páṇ. VII. 1, 69).

h. भञ्ज् 'to break' may drop its nasal, in which case the medial a is lengthened (अभञ्जि or अभाजि).

i. हेड् 'to clothe' may either retain the e or change it to í or i (अहेडि or अहिडि or अहीडि).

j. इ 'to go' substitutes गा, and optionally does so when adhi is prefixed in the sense of 'to read' (अध्यगायि or अध्यायि).

k. ऋत् 'to blame' makes आर्तीयि or आर्ति.

Precative (or Benedictive) and Conditional of Passives.

476. In these tenses the same variation is permitted in the case of roots ending in vowels as in the Aorist; that is, the insertion of इ i is allowed, provided that, before it, Vṛiddhi take place in a final vowel capable of such a change, and y be interposed after final á; thus, from चि ći may come the stems ćáyi and aćáyi (ćáyishíya, aćáyishye); from हु hu, hávi and ahávi; from कृ kṛi, kári and akári; from दा dá, dáyi and adáyi. But ćeshíya, aćeshye, hoshíya, ahoshye, &c., the forms belonging to the Átmane of the Primitive verb, are equally admissible in the Passive.

Passive Infinitive.

477. There is no Passive Infinitive in Sanskṛit distinct in form from the Active. The suffix tum, however, is capable of a Passive sense, when joined with certain verbs, especially with the Passive of शक् śak, 'to be able.' It is also used passively, in connection with the Participles árabdha, nirúpita, yukta, &c. See Syntax, 869.

Passive verbs from roots of the 10*th class.*

478. In forming a Passive verb from roots of cl. 10, although the conjugational अय is rejected in the first four tenses, yet the other conjugational changes of the root are retained before the suffix ya; thus, from चुर् cl. 10, 'to steal,' comes the stem ćorya (चोर्यते). In the Perfect अय is retained (see 473. a), and in the other General tenses the stem may deviate from the Átmane form of the Primitive by the optional rejection or assumption of अय, especially in the Aorist. See Causal Passives at 496.

CAUSAL VERBS.

479. Every root in every one of the ten classes may take a Causal form, which is conjugated as a verb of the 10th class; and which is not only employed to give a Causal sense to a Primitive verb, but also a Transitive sense to an Intransitive verb; see 289.

Thus, the Primitive verb bodhati, 'he knows' (from root budh, cl. 1), becomes in the Causal बोधयति bodhayati, 'he causes to know,' 'he informs;' and the Intransitive verb kshubhyati, 'he shakes,' 'is shaken' (from kshubh, cl. 4), becomes क्षोभयति 'he shakes' (transitively).

a. This form may sometimes imply other analogous senses.

Thus, hárayati, 'he allows to take;' náśayati, 'he suffers to perish;' abhishećayati, 'he permits himself to be inaugurated;' kshamayati, 'he asks to be forgiven;' अभिषेचय आत्मानम् 'allow yourself to be inaugurated.'

Obs.—To say that every root may take a Causal form, is equivalent to saying that roots of the first nine classes may all belong to the 10th, when they take a Causal sense; and that if a root be originally of the 10th class, no distinct form for its Causal is necessary, the Primitive verb and the Causal being in that case identical (see 289). Possibly the occasional employment of a Causal verb in a Transitive, rather than a Causal sense, was the reason for creating a 10th class of Primitive verbs. Certainly the subject of conjugation would be simplified if the addition of aya to the root were considered in all cases as the mark of a Causal verb; especially as aya is not the sign of a separate conjugation, in the way of any other conjugational Vikaraṇa (see 250. b); for it is retained in most of the other tenses of the verb, not only in the first four, just as the Desiderative ish is retained.

480. As to the terminations of Causal verbs, they are the same as those of the scheme at 246; and the same substitutions are required in the first four tenses as in classes 1, 4, 6, and 10.

Special Tenses.

481. General rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses of roots of the ten classes.

If a root end in a vowel, vriddhi that vowel; if in a consonant, gunate the radical vowel before all the terminations, and affix अय aya *

* This may be derived from root इ i, 'to go,' just as the Passive ya is supposed to be derived from root yá. See 463, note *.

(changeable to ayá before initial m and v, but not before simple m) to the root so vriddhied or gunated.

482. Thus, from नी 'to lead' comes the stem नाय by 37 (Pres. náyayá+mi= नाययामि, náyaya+si=नाययसि &c.; Impf. anáyaya+m=अनाययम् &c.; Pot. náyaya+iyam=नाययेयम् &c.; Impv. náyaya+áni=नाययानि &c. Átm. Pres. náyaya+i=नाये &c. In Epic poetry a doubtful form नापयामि is found). Similarly, from शी 'to lie down' comes शाय śáyaya (शाययामि &c.); from भू bhú, 'to be,' comes भावय bhávaya (भावयामि &c.); and from कृ 'to do' and कॄ 'to scatter' the stem कारय káraya.

But from बुध् 'to know' comes the gunated बोधय bodhaya (बोधयामि); and from सृप् cl. 1, 'to creep,' the gunated सर्पय sarpaya.

Obs.—कृत् 'to celebrate,' and other verbs of the 10th class, will take the changes already explained at 285–289.

483. Roots ending in आ á, or in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, changeable to आ á, cannot be vriddhied, but frequently insert प् p between the root and the suffix aya; thus, दा 'to give,' दे 'to love,' and दो 'to cut,' all make दापयामि dápayámi, &c.; धे 'to drink,' धापयामि dhápayámi, &c.; गै 'to sing,' गापयामि gápayámi, &c. See 484.

a. So also other roots in á insert p, except पा cl. 1, 'to drink,' which inserts य् y (पाययामि &c.); and पा cl. 2, 'to preserve,' which inserts ल् l (पालयामि &c.); and वा cl. 2, in the sense of 'to agitate,' which inserts ज (वाजयामि &c.)

b. So also other roots in ai insert p, but most others in e and o insert y; thus, ह्वे 'to call' makes ह्वाययामि &c. Similarly, वे 'to weave,' व्ये 'to put on.' शो 'to sharpen' makes शाययामि &c. Similarly, छो 'to cut,' सो 'to destroy.'

484. ज्ञा 'to know,' श्रा or श्रै 'to stew,' स्ना 'to bathe,' and ग्लै 'to languish,' may optionally shorten the á, the last two only when not joined with prepositions; thus, ज्ञापयामि &c., or ज्ञपयामि &c.; ग्लापयामि &c., or ग्लपयामि &c. (but with परि only, परिग्लपयामि). क्षै 'to waste away' makes only क्षपयामि.

485. Some roots in i, í, ṛi, also insert p, after changing the final vowel to á; thus, जि 'to conquer' makes जापयामि &c. Similarly, मि 'to throw,' मी 'to perish,' क्री 'to buy' (मापयामि, क्रापयामि, &c.)

a. स्मि 'to smile' makes स्माययामि &c., and स्मापये &c.

b. चि 'to collect' has four forms; 1. चापयामि &c., 2. चपयामि &c., 3. चाययामि &c., 4. चययामि &c.

c. भी cl. 3, 'to fear,' has three forms; 1. भाययामि &c., 2. भापये &c., Átm. only, 3. भीषये &c., Átm. only.

d. इ cl. 2, 'to go,' makes आपयामि &c., especially with the preposition अधि 'over,' अध्यापयामि 'I cause to go over,' 'I teach.'

e. Three roots insert n; ली cl. 4, 'to embrace,' 'to adhere,' making (with prep. वि in the sense of 'to dissolve') -लीनयामि &c., as well as -लापयामि, -लाययामि, and -लालयामि &c.; in some senses, however, लापयामि only can be used: प्री cl. 9, 'to please,' makes प्रीणयामि (also प्राययामि); and धू cl. 5 and 9, 'to shake,' धूनयामि.

486. ह्री cl. 3, 'to be ashamed,' री 'to flow,' व्री 'to choose,' and ऋ cl. 1, 'to go,' insert p after gunation; thus, ह्रेपयामि &c., अर्पयामि &c.

a. दीधी and वेवी and दरिद्रा (see 390. c) drop their finals (दीधयामि, वेवयामि, दरिद्रयामि, &c.)

b. जागृ 'to awake,' स्मृ in the sense of 'to long for,' जॄ cl. 4, 'to grow old,' दॄ in the sense of 'to fear,' नॄ 'to lead,' take Guṇa (जागरयामि). But दॄ 'to tear,' दारयामि.

c. गॄ 'to swallow' makes गारयामि or गालयामि.

487. Roots ending in single consonants, enclosing a medial अ a, generally lengthen the a: thus, पच् cl. 1, 'to cook,' makes पाचयामि &c. There are, however, many exceptions; thus, ज्वर् 'to be sick,' त्वर् 'to hasten,' &c., do not lengthen the vowel. In ज्वल् 'to blaze,' and some others, the lengthening is optional.

a. Roots in m generally do not lengthen the a; thus, गम् cl. 1, 'to go,' makes गमयामि &c.; क्लम् 'to be weary,' क्लमयामि &c. Some, however, optionally do so; as, नम् 'to bend,' &c. One or two always lengthen the a; as, कम् 'to love' makes कामयामि.

b. The roots रध्, जभ्, रभ्, and लभ् (see 475. g) insert nasals (रन्धयामि &c.)

488. Other anomalies.—रुह् 'to grow' makes रोहयामि or रोपयामि; क्रूय् or क्रू 'to sound,' क्रोपयामि; दुष् 'to be corrupt,' दूषयामि; हन् 'to kill,' घातयामि; शद् 'to fall,' 'to perish,' शातयामि; स्फुर् 'to quiver,' स्फारयामि or स्फोरयामि; स्फाय् 'to increase,' स्फावयामि; क्ष्माय् 'to shake' as the earth, क्ष्मापयामि &c.; मृज् 'to rub,' मार्जयामि (390. j); गुह् 'to conceal,' गूहयामि (390. m).

a. The roots गुप्, विछ्, धूप्, पण्, पन्, ऋत्, at 390. l, will have two forms (गोपयामि or गोपायामि &c., see 390. l).

b. सिध् 'to be finished' makes its Causal either साधयामि or, with reference to sacred rites, सेधयामि; भ्रस्ज् 'to fry' either भ्रज्जयामि or भर्जयामि; but the last form may be from भृज्.

c. हेड् 'to clothe' makes हिडयामि; रञ्ज् in the sense of 'to hunt,' रजयामि.

Obs.—The Causal of verbs of cl. 10 will be identical with the Primitive; see 289. The Causals of Causals will also be identical with the Causals themselves.

General Tenses.

489. The changes of the root required to form the stem of the Special tenses are continued in the General. Moreover, aya is retained in all these tenses, except the Aorist and except the Precative, Parasmai; but the last a of aya is dropped before the inserted इ i, which is invariably assumed in all other General tenses.

Perfect of Causals.

490. This tense must be of the Periphrastic form, as explained at 385; that is, आम् ám added to the Causal stem is prefixed to the Perfect of one of the three auxiliary verbs, अस् 'to be,' भू 'to be,' or कृ 'to do;' thus, बुध् 'to know' makes in Causal Perfect बोधयाञ्चकार or बोधयामास or बोधयाञ्चभूव. शम् makes in Caus. Perf. 3rd pl. शमयाञ्चभूवुः 'they extinguished' (Raghu-v. VII. 45).

First and Second Future of Causals.

491. In these tenses the inserted इ i is invariably assumed between the stem, as formed in the Special tenses, and the usual terminations; thus, बुध् makes बोधयितास्मि &c., बोधयिष्यामि &c.

Aorist of Causals and verbs of cl. 10.

492. The terminations are those of form II at 435. In the formation of the stem of this tense, the suffix ay is rejected; but any other change that may take place in the Special tenses, such as the insertion of p or y, is preserved. The stem is a reduplicated form of this change, and to this reduplication the augment अ a is prefixed.

Thus, taking the stems bodhay and jápay (Causal stems of budh, 'to know,' and ji, 'to conquer'), and rejecting ay, we have bodh and jáp; and from these are formed the stems of the Aorist abúbudh and ajíjap (अबूबुधम् abúbudham &c., अबूबुधे abúbudhe &c., अजीजपम् ajíjapam &c., अजीजपे ajíjape &c., cf. the Greek Pluperfect).

493. The rule for this reduplication is as follows:—The initial consonant of the root, with its vowel, is reduplicated, and the reduplicated consonant follows the rules given at 252; but the reduplication of the vowel is peculiar.

Reduplication of the vowel of the initial consonant in the Causal Aorist.

a. Causal stems, after rejecting ay, will generally end in áy, áv, ár, or a consonant preceded by a, á, e, o, or ar. The usual reduplicated vowel for all these, except o, is इ i. But उ u is reduplicated for o, and sometimes also for áv. The rule is, that either the reduplicated or stem syllable must be long either by nature or position; and in general the reduplicated vowel i or u is made long, and, to compensate for this, the long vowel of the Causal stem shortened, or, if it be Guṇa, changed to its corresponding short vowel; thus, the Causal stem náy (from नी, rejecting ay) makes the stem of the Aorist anínay (अनीनयम् anínayam &c.); the Causal stem bháv (from भू) makes abíbhav (अबीभवम् &c.); the Causal stem kár (from कृ), aćíkar; gam (from गम्), ajígam; páć (from पच्), apípać; pál (from पा), apípal; ved (from विद्), avívid. But bodh (from बुध्), abúbudh; and sáv (from सु), asúshav.

b. Sometimes the reduplicated vowel is only long by position before two consonants, the radical vowel being still made short; as, śráv (from श्रु) makes aśiśrav or aśuśrav; dráv (from द्रु), adudrav or adidrav; भ्राज्, abibhraj (also ababhráj).

c. Sometimes the reduplicated vowel remains short, whilst the vowel of the Causal stem, which must be long either by nature or position, remains unchanged;

thus, the Causal stem jív (from जीव्) may make अजिजीव् (also अजीजिव्); cint, acicint; kalp, acikalp. In such cases a is generally reduplicated for a or á; as, laksh makes alalaksh; yáć, ayayáć; vart (from vṛit), avavart, &c.

d. Obs.—If the stem has ar, ár, ír, al (from radical ṛi, ṛí, or lṛi), these are either left unchanged or ar, ár, ír may be changed to ऋ ṛi, and al to ऌ lṛi; thus, vart (from वृत्) may make avívṛit as well as avavart; kírt (from कृत्) either acikírt or acikṛit, &c.

e. The following are other examples, some of which are anomalous: from páy (Caus. of pá, 'to drink'), अपीप्यम् &c.; from sthấp (Caus. of sthá, 'to stand'), अतिष्ठिपम् &c.; from ghráp (Caus. of ghrá, 'to smell'), अजिघ्रिपम् &c., and अजिघ्रपम् &c.; from adhyáp (Caus. of i, 'to go,' with adhi), अध्यजीगपम् &c.; from éshṭ (Caus. of éshṭ, 'to make effort'), अचचेष्टम् or अचिचेष्टम्; from hváy (Caus. of hve, 'to call'), अजुहावम् or अजूहवम्; from tvar (Caus. of tvar, 'to hasten'), अतत्वरम्; from stár (Caus. of stṛi or stṛí, 'to spread'), अतस्तरम् or अतिस्तरम्; from dár (Caus. of dṛí, 'to tear'), अददरम्; from dyot (Caus. of dyut, 'to shine'), अदिद्युतम्; from śváy (Caus. of śvi, 'to swell'), अशूशवम् or अशिश्वयम्; from smár (Caus. of smṛi, 'to remember'), असस्मरम्; from svấp (Caus. of स्वप् 'to sleep'), असूषुपम्; from kath (cl. 10, 'to tell'), अचकथम् or अचीकथम्; from गण् (cl. 10, 'to count'), अजगणम् or अजीगणम्; from prath (Caus. of प्रथ् 'to spread'), अपप्रथम्.

Reduplication of an initial vowel in the Causal Aorist.

494. Roots beginning with vowels, and ending with single consonants, form their Causal Aorists by a peculiar reduplication of the root (after rejecting अय). The rule is that not only the initial vowel, as in the Perfect at 364. a, but the final consonant also be reduplicated. In fact, the whole root is doubled, as it would be if it began with a consonant, and ended with a vowel; the consonant is reduplicated according to the rules at 252, but the second vowel is generally इ i. This i (which probably results from a weakening of a) takes the place of the stem vowel, which then becomes the initial of the reduplicated syllable, and combines with the augment अ a, according to 251. a; thus, ऊह् 'to infer' makes the stem of its Causal Aorist अजिह् újih; and with अ prefixed, औजिह् (औजिहम् 'I caused to infer'). So also, आप् cl. 5, 'to obtain,' makes आपिपम् 'I caused to obtain;' ईड् cl. 2, 'to praise,' makes ऐडिडम् 'I caused to praise.' Cf. Gr. 2nd Aor. ἤγαγον from ἄγω, and ὤρορον from ὄρνυμι.

a. If a root end in a conjunct consonant, the first member of which is a nasal or r, this nasal or r is rejected from the final, but not from the reduplicated letter; thus, अर्ह् 'to be worthy' makes आर्जिहम् 'I caused to be worthy,' 'I honoured;' so अर्ध्, Causal stem from ऋध् 'to prosper,' makes आर्दिधम् 'I caused to prosper;' and उन्द् 'to moisten' makes औन्दिदम् 'I caused to moisten.'

b. But when the first member of the compound is any other letter, then the corresponding consonant to this first member of the compound is reduplicated by 252. c; thus, ईक्ष् 'to see' makes ऐचिक्षम् aicíksham, 'I caused to see;' अभ्र् 'to go' makes आबिभ्रम् 'I caused to go.'

c. Roots consisting of a single vowel, form their Causal Aorists from the Causal stem (after rejecting aya); thus, the root ऋ 'to go' makes its Causal stem arp, 'to deliver over;' and its Causal Aorist आर्पिषम् 'I caused to deliver.'

d. ऊर्णु 'to cover' makes its Causal Aorist और्णुनुवम्; अन्ध् cl. 10, 'to be blind,' आन्दधम्; and ऊन् cl. 10, 'to diminish,' औनानम्.

e. When the consonant which follows the initial vowel has another vowel after it, this vowel must appear in the reduplication; thus, from अवधीर् cl. 10, 'to despise,' comes the Aorist आववधीरम्.

Precative (or Benedictive) and Conditional of Causals.

495. The stem of the Causal Precative Átmane, and of the Causal Conditional in both voices, does not differ from that of the General tenses; but the last a of aya is dropped before the inserted इ् i, which is always assumed. In the Precative Parasmai both aya and i are rejected, but any other change of the root is retained; thus, बुध् 'to know' makes in Caus. Prec. bodhyásam &c., bodhayishíya &c.; in Cond., abodhayishyam &c., abodhayishye &c.

Infinitive of Causals.

a. The Infinitive may be most easily formed from the 3rd sing. 1st Future, as explained at 459; thus, from बुध् comes बोधयिता 'he will cause to know,' बोधयितुम् 'to cause to know.'

Passive of Causals.

496. In forming a Passive verb from a Causal stem, the Causal suffix अय is rejected, but the other Causal changes of the root are retained before the Passive suffix ya.

Thus, from Caus. stem पातय pátaya (from पत् 'to fall') comes the Pass. पात्य pátya, making 1st sing. पात्ये 'I am made to fall,' 3rd sing. पात्यते 'he is made to fall.' Similarly, स्था 'to stand' makes स्थापयति 'he causes to stand,' स्थाप्यते 'he is caused to stand;' and ज्ञा 'to know' makes ज्ञपयति 'he causes to know,' and ज्ञप्यते 'he is caused to know,' 'he is informed.'

a. In the General tenses, the stem of all the tenses, excepting the Perfect, may vary from the Átmane form by the optional rejection of the conjugational अय. But in the Perfect, the Átmane of the usual form with ám and the auxiliaries (490, 385) is admitted for the Passive. In the Aorist, the usual reduplicated form (492) gives place to the Átmane form which belongs to those verbs of the first nine classes which assume i.

Thus, from भावय, the Causal stem of भू 'to be,' come the Passive Perfect भावयाञ्चक्रे or भावयामासे or भावयाम्बभूवे; 1st Fut. भावयिताहे or भाविताहे; 2nd Fut. भावयिष्ये or भाविष्ये; Aor. अभावयिषि or अभाविषि, 3rd sing. अभावि; Prec. भावयिषीय or भाविषीय; Cond. अभावयिष्ये or अभाविष्ये.

b. Similarly, from बोधय, Causal stem of बुध् 'to know,' come Passive Perfect बोधयाञ्चक्रे &c. 'I have been caused to know;' 1st Fut. बोधयिताहे or बोधिताहे &c. 'I shall be caused to know;' 2nd Fut. बोधयिष्ये or बोधिष्ये &c.; Aor. अबोधयिषि or अबोधिषि 'I have been caused to know,' 2. अबोधयिष्टास् or अबोधिष्टास्, 3. अबोधि &c.

c. So also, from शमय, Causal stem of शम् 'to cease,' come the Passive Perfect शमयाञ्चक्रे or शमयामासे &c. 'I have been caused to cease,' &c.; 1st Fut. शमयिताहे or शमिताहे; 2nd Fut. शमयिष्ये or शमिष्ये; Aor. अशमयिषि or अशमिषि, 3rd sing. अशमि; Prec. शमयिषीय &c.: and the radical a may be optionally lengthened; thus, 1st Fut. शामयिताहे or शामयिताहे &c.

d. So also, अक्षपि or अक्षापि, 3rd sing. Aor., from Causal of क्षै.

Obs.—Even रञ्ज्, कन्द्, क्रन्द्, and some other roots which end in a double consonant, may optionally lengthen the medial a; thus, Aor. 3rd sing. अरञ्जि or अराञ्जि.

Desiderative of Causals.

497. When Causals and verbs of cl. 10 take a Desiderative form (see 498), they retain ay, and are all formed with isha; thus, पातयामि 'I cause to fall' makes पिपातयिषामि 'I desire to cause to fall;' स्वापयामि 'I cause to sleep' makes सुष्वापयिषामि 'I desire to cause to sleep;' चुर् cl. 10, 'to steal,' makes चुचोरयिषामि 'I wish to steal.'

a. The Desiderative stem of the Causal of अधी, 'to go over,' is either अध्यापिपयिष or अधिजिगापयिष; of the Causal of ह्वे 'to call,' जुहावयिष (as if from हावय); of the Causal of ज्ञा 'to know,' ज्ञीप्स (or regularly जिज्ञापयिष or जिज्ञपयिष); of the Causal of ष्ण्वि 'to swell,' शुश्वावयिष (or regularly शिश्वाययिष).

DESIDERATIVE VERBS.

498. Every root in the ten classes may take a Desiderative form.

a. Although this form of the root is not often used, in classical composition, in its character of a verb, yet nouns and participles derived from the Desiderative stem are not uncommon (see 80. I, and 82. VII). Moreover, there are certain Primitive roots which take a Desiderative form, without yielding a Desiderative sense; and these, as equivalent to Primitive verbs (amongst which they are generally classed), may occur in classical Sanskrit; e. g. jugups, 'to blame,' from गुप् gup; cikits, 'to cure,' from कित् kit; titiksh, 'to bear,' from तिज् tij; मीमांस् mímáṅs, 'to reason,' from मन् man; bibhats, 'to abhor,' from बाध् or बध्.

499. Desideratives take the terminations at 246, with the substitutions required in classes 1, 4, 6, and 10; and their inflexion, either in Parasmai or Átmane, is generally determined by the practice of the Primitive verb.

Thus, root बुध् budh, cl. 1, 'to know,' taking both inflexions in the Primitive, may take both in the Desiderative (bubodhishámi &c., or bubodhishe &c., 'I desire to know'); and लभ् labh, 'to obtain,' taking only the Átmane in the Primitive, may take only the Átmane in the Desiderative (lipse &c., 'I desire to obtain').

500. Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Reduplicate the initial consonant and vowel of the root, and generally, though not invariably, if the Primitive verb inserts इ i (see 392–415), affix इष् ish or in a few roots ईप् (see 393); if it rejects i, then simply स् s, changeable to ष् sh (by 70; see, however, f), to the root so reduplicated. The vowel a is then added, as in classes 1, 4, 6, and 10; and, agreeably to the rule in those classes, this a becomes á before terminations beginning with m and v (but not before simple m).

a. Thus, from क्षिप् kship, 'to throw,' comes the stem ćikshipsa (ćikshipsá+mi= चिक्षिप्सामि ćikshipsámi &c., 'I desire to throw'); but from विद् vid, 'to know,' taking inserted i, comes vividisha (vividishá+mi=विविदिषामि vividishámi &c. In Átm. the stem is vivitsa).

b. Some roots, however, which reject the inserted i in other forms, assume it in the Desiderative, and vice versa. Some, again, allow an option; thus, वृत् 'to be' makes विवर्तिषे &c. or विवृत्सामि &c. See the lists at 392–415.

c. The reduplication of the consonant is in conformity with the rules at 252; that of the vowel belonging to the initial consonant follows the analogy of Causal Aorists at 493; that is, the vowel इ i is reduplicated for a, á, i, í, ṛi, ṛí, ḷṛi, e, or ai; but the vowel उ u for u, ú, and o; and also for the a of av or áv preceded by any consonant except j, a labial or a semivowel; thus, fr. पच् 'to cook' comes Desid. stem pipaksha by 296; fr. याच् 'to ask,' yiyáćisha; fr. जीव् 'to live,' jijívisha; fr. दृश् 'to see,' didṛiksha; fr. सेव् 'to serve,' sisevisha; fr. गै 'to sing,' jigásа; fr. ज्ञा 'to know,' jijñása (γιγνώσκω): but fr. युज् 'to join' comes yuyuksha; fr. पू 'to purify,' pupúsha; fr. बुध् cl. 4, 'to know,' बुभुत्स bubhutsa, see 299. a; fr. नावय, Causal stem of नु 'to praise,' nunávayisha; fr. पावय, Causal stem of पू 'to purify,' pipávayisha.

d. And if the root begin with a vowel the reduplication still follows the analogy of the same tense at 494; thus, from अर्ज् comes अर्जिर्ज्; and with isha added, अर्जिर्जिष. Similarly, from अर्ह् comes arjihisha; from ऊह्, ujihisha; from ईक्ष्, ićikshisha; from उन्द्, undidisha; see 494.

Obs.—In reduplication the vowel i takes the place of a, as being lighter; see 252. d. Obs. It is probably the result of a weakening of a.

e. In Desiderative stems formed from the Causals of च्यु 'to fall,' द्रु 'to run,' प्लु 'to go,' प्लु 'to leap,' श्रु 'to hear,' स्रु 'to distil,' and स्रु 'to flow,' a or á may be represented by either u or i; thus, the Causal of च्यु makes चिच्यावयिष or चुच्यावयिष.

f. Observe—When the inserted s becomes sh by 70, the initial स् of a root will not be affected by the vowel of the reduplicated syllable; thus, sić makes sisiksha, not sishiksha; and sev makes sisevisha. Except, however, स्नु, which makes सुस्नूष; and except the Desid. of Causals, as सिसेधयिष fr. Caus. of सिध्.

501. When a root takes the inserted i or í (393), and forms its Desiderative with isha or ísha, then the final ऋ ṛí is gunated.

Thus, तॄ 'to cross' makes titarisha or titarísha (also titírsha, see 502).

a. Moreover, initial and medial i, u, ṛi are often, but not always, gunated if followed by a single consonant.

Thus, उख् 'to go' makes oćikhisha; इष् 'to wish,' eshishisha; दिव् 'to play,' dideviśha; नृत् 'to dance,' ninartisha: but विद् 'to know,' vividisha.

b. An option, as to Guṇa, is however generally allowed to medial i and u; thus, मुद् 'to rejoice' makes either mumodisha or mumudisha; क्लिद् 'to become moist' either ćiklidisha or ćikledisha; but roots in iv (e. g. siv) are peculiar, see 502. b.

c. इ 'to go' and उ 'to sound,' having no consonant, reduplicate the characteristic letter of the Desiderative with i; thus, ईषिष (used with the prepositions adhi and prati), so ऊषिष.

502. When a root rejects i and forms its Desiderative with स sa, this sa, if affixed to roots ending in vowels, has the effect of lengthening a final इ i or उ u; of changing ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, to आ á; ऋ ṛi or ॠ ṛí to ईर् ír, or after a labial to ऊर् úr.

Thus, from चि comes ćićisha; from श्रु, śuśrúsha; from कॄ, ćikírsha; from गै, jigásha; from तॄ, titírsha; from पॄ, pupúrsha; from भॄ, bubhúrsha; from मॄ, mumúrsha.

a. When it is affixed to roots ending in consonants, the radical vowel generally remains unchanged, but the final consonant combines with the initial sibilant, in accordance with the rules at 296.

As, from युध् comes yuyutsa (299); from दह् comes didhaksha (306. a); from दुह्, dudhuksha; from भुज्, bubhuksha.

b. A medial long ṛí becomes ír, and final iv becomes yú or is gunated; thus, from कॄत् comes ćikírtayisha; from सिव्, susyúsha or sisevisha.

c. Many of the special rules for forming the stem in the last five tenses at 390. a–o apply to the Desiderative; thus the roots at 390. a. generally forbid Guṇa (ćukućisha &c.)

d. So भ्रस्ज् makes bibhraksha or bibharksha or bibhrajjisha or bibharjisha (390. g); मस्ज् and नश्, mimanksha and ninanksha (390. k); नह्, ninatsa (390. o); दरिद्रा, didaridrisha (390. c, but makes also didaridrása); कम्, ćikamisha or ćikámayisha; गुप्, jugopisha or jugopáyisha or jugupsa (390. l).

503. The following is an alphabetical list of other Desiderative stems, some of them anomalous: अटिटिष fr. अट् 'to wander;' अट्टिटिष fr. अट्ट् 'to transgress;' अरिरिष fr. ऋ 'to go;' ईप्स fr. आप् 'to obtain;' ईर्त्सि (or regularly अर्दिधिष) fr. ऋध् 'to prosper;' ईर्ष्यिपिष or ईर्ष्यियिष fr. ईर्ष्य् 'to envy;' ऊर्णुनूष or ऊर्णुनविष or ऊर्णुनुविष (390. b) fr. ऊर्णु 'to cover;' चिकीष (or regularly चिचीष) fr. चि 'to collect;' जिगांस (or regularly जिगमिष) fr. गम् 'to go;' जिगलिष (or regularly जिगरिष) fr. गॄ 'to swallow' (cf. 375. q); जिगीष fr. जि 'to conquer;' जिघत्स fr. घस् 'to eat' (used as Desid. of अद्); जिघांस fr. हन् 'to kill;' जिघीष fr. हि 'to send;' जिघृक्ष fr. ग्रह् 'to take;' जुहूष fr. ह्वे 'to call;' तितांस (or regularly तितनिष) fr. तन् 'to stretch;' तितृक्ष fr. तृंह् 'to kill;' दित्स fr. दा 'to give,' दे 'to love,' and दो 'to cut;' दिदरिष fr. दृ 'to respect;' दिदरिष or दिदरीष or दिदीर्ष fr. दॄ 'to tear;' दिद्युतिष or दिद्योतिष fr. द्युत् 'to shine;' दिधरिष fr. धृ 'to hold;' दुद्यूष (or regularly दिदेविष) fr. दिव् 'to play;' धित्स fr. धा 'to place' and धे 'to drink;' धिप्स or धीप्स (or दिदम्भिष) fr. दम्भ् 'to deceive;' पित्स (or पिपतिष) fr. पत् 'to fall' and पद् 'to go;' पिपविष or पुपूष fr. पू 'to purify;' पिपृच्छिष fr. प्रच्छ् 'to ask;' बिभरिष or बुभूर्ष fr. भृ 'to bear;' मित्स fr. मा 'to measure,' मि 'to throw,' मी 'to perish,' and मे 'to change;' मिमार्ज्जिष or मिमृक्ष fr. मृज् 'to rub;' मोक्ष fr. मुच् (in the sense of 'desiring release from mundane existence,' otherwise मुमुक्ष); यियविष or युयूष fr. यु 'to join;' रित्स fr. राध् 'to accomplish;' रिप्स fr. रभ् 'to take;' लिप्स fr. लभ् 'to obtain;' विवरिष or विवरीष or वुवूर्ष fr. वृ 'to choose;' विव्रक्ष fr. व्रश्च् 'to cut;' शिक्ष fr. शक् 'to be able;' शिश्रयिष (or शिश्रीष) fr. श्रि 'to have recourse to;' सिषास (or सिसनिष) fr. सन् 'to obtain,' 'to give;' सिस्मयिष fr. स्मि 'to smile;' सिस्वरिष (or सुस्वूर्ष) fr. स्वृ 'to sound;' सुषुप्स fr. स्वप् 'to sleep.'

General Tenses of Desideratives.

504. The Perfect must be of the Periphrastic form as explained at 385; that is, आम् ám added to the Desiderative stem, as already formed, with sa, isha, or ísha (500), is prefixed to the Perfect of one of the auxiliaries kri, as, or bhú (see 385); thus, from pipaksha (root pać, 'to cook') comes the Perfect pipakshám̐ćakára, 'I wished to cook;' from bubodhisha (root budh, 'to know') comes bubodhishám̐ćakára, bubodhishámása, bubodhishámbabhúva, 'I wished to know.'

a. In all the remaining tenses it is a universal rule, that inserted i be assumed after the Desiderative stem, whether formed by sa or isha, except in the Precative Parasmai; thus, from pać comes 1st Fut. pipakshitásmi &c.; 2nd Fut. pipakshishyámi &c.; Aor. apipakshisham &c. (form I, B, at 418); Prec. Par. pipakshyásam &c.; Atm. pipakshishíya &c.; Cond. apipakshishyam &c. So also, taking vividish (formed with isha from vid, 'to know'), the 1st Fut. is vividishitásmi; 2nd Fut. vividishishyámi; Aor. avividishisham &c. Similarly, from bubodhisha, 1st Fut. bubodhishitásmi &c.; 2nd Fut. bubodhishishyámi; Aor. abubodhishisham &c.

b. The Infinitive may be formed regularly from the 1st Future; thus, from bubodhishitá, 'he will wish to know,' comes bubodhishitum, 'to wish to know.'

Passive of Desideratives.

505. Desideratives may take a Passive form by adding ya to the Desiderative stem after rejecting final a; thus, from bubodhisha comes bubodhishye, 'I am wished to know,' &c. The General tenses will not vary from the Active Átmane-pada form of Desiderative except in the Aor. 3rd sing., which will be abubodhishi instead of abubodhishishṭa.

Causal of Desideratives.

506. Desiderative verbs may take a Causal form; thus, dudyúshámi, 'I desire to play' (from div), makes in Caus. dudyúshayámi, 'I cause to desire to play,' &c.

FREQUENTATIVE OR INTENSIVE VERBS.

507. Most roots may take a Frequentative form, except polysyllabic roots, and except those of cl. 10, and except certain roots beginning with vowels.

Obs.—ऊर्णु 'to cover,' however, has forms ऊर्णोनूय and ऊर्णोनु. Some few roots also beginning with vowels take the Átmane form of Frequentative; see examples at 511. a. b, 681. a.

a. The Frequentative form is even less common in classical composition than the Desiderative. In the Pres. Part., however, and in nouns, it not unfrequently appears (see 80. VI). It either expresses repetition or gives intensity to the radical idea; thus, fr. दीप् 'to shine' comes the Frequent. stem dedípya (Pres. 3rd sing. dedípyate, 'it shines brightly'), and the Pres. Part. dedípyamána, 'shining brightly:' so also, fr. शुभ् 'to be beautiful,' śośubhya and śośubhyamána; fr. रुद् 'to weep,' rorudya and rorudyamána.

508. There are two kinds of Frequentative verb, the one a reduplicated Átmane-pada verb, with ya affixed, conforming, like Intransitive and Passive verbs, to the conjugation of cl. 4, and usually, though not always, yielding an Intransitive signification; the other a reduplicated Parasmai-pada verb, following the conjugation of cl. 3. The latter is less common in classical Sanskṛit than the former, and will therefore be considered last*.

a. The terminations for the first form of Frequentative will be those of the Átmane at 246, with the usual substitutions required for the 4th class of verbs. For the second form they will be the regular Parasmai-pada terminations of the scheme at 246.

* Intensive or Frequentative forms are found in Greek, such as παιπάλλω, δαιδάλλω, μαιμάζω or μαιμάω, παμφαίνω, ἀλαλάζω.

ĀTMANE-PADA FREQUENTATIVES, FORMED BY REDUPLICATION AND ADDING ya.

509. Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses.

Reduplicate the initial consonant and vowel of the Passive stem according to the rules for reduplicating consonants at 252, and gunate the reduplicated vowel (if capable of Guṇa), whether it be a long or short vowel.

Thus, from the Passive stem दीय (of dá, 'to give') comes the Frequent. stem dedíya (Pres. 1. dedíya+i=देदीये, 2. dedíya+se=देदीयसे &c.); fr. हीय (Pass. of há, 'to quit') comes jehíya (jehíye &c.); fr. स्तीर्य (of स्तॄ 'to spread') comes testírya (also tástarya); fr. पूय (of पू 'to purify'), popúya; fr. विद्य (of विद् 'to know'), vevidya; fr. बुध्य (of बुध् 'to know'), bobudhya (Pres. बोबुध्ये, बोबुध्यसे, बोबुध्यते, &c.) The conjugation of all four tenses corresponds exactly to that of the Passive.

510. As to the reduplication of the vowel, if the Passive stem contain a medial अ a, long á is substituted; thus, pápaćya from paćya; sásmarya from smarya.

a. If it contain a medial आ á, ए e, or ओ o, the same are reduplicated; as, yáyáćya from yáćya; seshevya from sevya; lolоćya from loćya.

b. If it contain a medial ऋ ṛi, then अरी *arí is substituted in the reduplication; as, दरीदृश्य from dṛiśya; परीस्पृश्य from spṛiśya, &c.; वरीवृश्च from व्रश्च्; बरीभृज्ज्य from भ्रज्ज्. Similarly, alí is substituted for ऌ ḷṛi, in कॢप् making चलीकॢप्य.

511. If a Passive stem has रि ri before ya, this रि ri becomes री rí in the Frequentative stem; as, चेक्रीय from क्रिय (Passive of कृ 'to do').

a. If the stem begin with अ a, as in अट्य aṭya (from अट् 'to wander'), the initial aṭ is repeated, and the radical a lengthened; thus, अटाट्य aṭáṭya (3rd sing. अटाट्यते). Similarly, अशाश्य from अश् 'to pervade.'

b. ऋ ṛi, 'to go,' makes its stem अरार्य arárya.

512. If the Passive stem contain a nasal after short a, this nasal generally appears in the reduplicated syllable, and is treated as final म् m; thus, fr. गम् 'to go' comes जङ्गम्य 'to walk crookedly;' fr. भ्रम् 'to wander,' बम्भ्रम्य; fr. घ्नण् 'to kill,' चङ्घ्नण्य.

a. The Passive stems जप्य, जभ्य, दह्य, and some others formed from roots containing nasals (as दश्य, भञ्ज्य), may insert nasals, instead of lengthening the vowel in the reduplication; thus, जञ्जप्य, जञ्जभ्य, दन्दह्य, &c.

b. Anomalous forms.—पद् 'to go' (making पद्य) inserts नी ní; thus, पनीपद्य. Similarly, पत् 'to fall,' कस् or कश् 'to go,' भ्रंश् 'to fall,' स्रंस् 'to drop,' ध्वंस् 'to fall,' स्कन्द् 'to go,' धच् 'to deceive' (पनीपत्य, चनीकस्य, बनीभ्रश्य, सनीस्रस्य, दनीध्वस्य, चनीस्कद्य, &c.) चर् 'to go' makes चञ्चूर्य.

c. हन् 'to kill' makes जेघ्नीय; घ्रा 'to smell,' जेघ्रीय; ध्मा 'to blow,' देध्मीय (देध्मीये &c.); गॄ 'to swallow,' जेगिल्य.

* This seems to support the idea that the original Guṇa of ṛi is ari. See 29. b.

General Tenses of Átmane-pada Frequentatives.

513. In these tenses Frequentatives follow the analogy of Passives, and reject the suffix य ya. Since, however, the stem of the Perfect is formed by affixing आम् ám (as usual in all polysyllabic forms, see 385), and since, in all the other tenses, inserted i is assumed, a coalition of vowels might arise were it not allowed to retain y in all cases in which a vowel immediately precedes that letter*; thus, from देदीप is formed the Perfect 1st sing. देदीपाञ्चक्रे &c., rejecting ya; but from देदीय comes देदीयाञ्चक्रे &c., retaining y. Similarly in the other tenses: 1st Fut. dedípitáhe, dedíyitáhe, &c.; 2nd Fut. dedípishye, dedíyishye, &c.; Aor. adedípishi, adedíyishi, &c.; Prec. dedípishíya, dedíyishíya, &c.; Cond. adedípishye, adedíyishye, &c. In the 3rd sing. of the Aor. इ i is not allowed to take the place of the regular terminations, as in the Passive form.

a. The Infinitive, as formed in the usual manner (459), will be dedípitum, &c.

PARASMAI-PADA FREQUENTATIVES.

514. Rule for forming the stem in the four Special tenses. The stem is here also formed by a reduplication similar to that of Átmane-pada Frequentatives; not, however, from the Passive, but from the root; thus, from root पच् paś comes pápaś; fr. विद् vid comes vevid; fr. दृश् comes darídṛiś; fr. कृ comes ćaríkṛi.

a. But in the Parasmai form of Frequentative, अरि ari and अर् ar as well as अरी arí may be reduplicated for the vowel ऋ ṛi; so that दृश् may make दरीदृश् or दरिदृश् or ददर्श्; and कृ, चरीकृ or चरिकृ or चर्कृ (Páṇ. VII. 4, 92).

Similarly, क्लृप् may make चलीक्लृप् or चलिक्लृप् or चल्क्लृप्.

b. Again, in roots ending in long ॠ ṛí, á is reduplicated for ॠ ṛí, and this á is retained even when ṛí becomes ir; thus, कॄ kṛí, 'to scatter,' makes 1. ćákarmi; Pl. 3. ćákirati. Similarly, from तॄ 'to cross' come tátarmi and tátirati.

c. In the Special tenses Parasmai, these Frequentatives follow the conjugation of cl. 3, and in accordance with the rules for the 2nd and 3rd class (307, 331), the radical vowel is gunated before the P terminations of the scheme at 246. Hence, from vid come the two stems veved and vevid (Pres. vevedmi, vevetsi, vevetti; du. vevidvas, &c.; Impf. avevedam, avevet, avevet, avevidva, &c.; 3rd pl. avevidus; Pot. vevidyám, &c.; Impv. vevedáni, veviddhi, vevettu, vevedáva, vevittam, &c.)

d. Again, the stem will vary in accordance with the rules of combination at 296–306, as in बुध् budh (Pres. bobodhmi, bobhotsi, boboddhi, bobudhvas, &c.; see 298). So also, वह् vah makes in 3rd sing. वावोढि vávoḍhi (see 305. a); दुह् makes दोदोग्धि (305); नह् makes नानद्धि (305 note); द्रुह् makes दोद्रोढि or दोद्रोग्धि; and स्निह्, सेष्णोढि or सेष्णेग्धि (305. b).

e. And in further analogy to cl. 2 (313, 314) long í is often optionally inserted

---

* In Passives this coalition of vowels is avoided by the change of a final vowel to Vṛiddhi, as of ći to ćáy, of hu to háv, and of kṛi to kár; and by the change of final á to áy, as of dá to dáy; see 474.

before the consonantal P terminations (Pres. vevedímí, vevedíshi, vevedíti; du. vevidvas, &c.; Impf. avevedam, avevedís, avevedít, avevidva, &c.; Impv. vevedáni, veviddhi, vevedítu).

515. Lastly, when the root ends in a vowel, the usual changes take place of i and í to y or iy; of u and ú to uv; and of ṛi to r (see 312): as in the roots भी bhí, भू bhú, कृ kṛi (Pres. 1st sing. bebhemi, bobhomi, ćarkarmi; 3rd pl. bebhyati, bobhuvati, ćarkrati).

a. Observe—Many of the anomalous formations explained under Átmane-pada Frequentatives must be understood as belonging also to the Parasmai-pada; thus, पद् (512. b) makes in Parasmai पनीपद्मि, पनीपत्सि, पनीपत्ति, &c.; and so with the other roots at 512. b.

b. हन् 'to kill,' गॄ 'to swallow' (512. c), and some others have a separate Parasmai-pada form (जङ्घन्मि, जागर्मि; the last identical with Pres. of जागृ).

General Tenses of Parasmai-pada Frequentatives.

516. The Perfect follows the usual rule for polysyllabic roots (385), and affixes आम् ám with the auxiliaries; thus, from बुध् budh, 'to know,' comes bobudhámása, bobudhámbabhúva, bobudháńćakára; from विद् vid, 'to know,' comes vevidámása. Guṇa of a final and sometimes of a penultimate vowel is required before ám; thus, bobhú (from भू) becomes bobhavámása. So also, वृत् makes vávartámása. In the other tenses, excepting the Precative, inserted i is invariably assumed; and before this inserted i some roots are said to forbid the usual Guṇa change of the radical vowel in the 1st Fut. &c.; thus, budh is said to make bobudhitásmi; bhí, 'to fear,' bebhyitásmi, &c. (374); 2nd Fut. bobudhishyámi, bebhyishyámi, &c.; Aor. abobudhisham, abebháyisham, &c.; Prec. bobudhyásam, bebhíyásam, &c.; Cond. abobudhishyam, abebhyishyam, &c. The rejection of Guṇa from the radical syllable, however, admits of question; thus, bhú, 'to be,' makes, according to the best authorities, bobhavitásmi, &c.

a. The Infinitive will be formed in the usual way from the 1st Fut., see 513. a.

Passive, Causal, Desiderative, and Desiderative Causal form of Frequentatives.

517. Frequentatives are capable of all these forms. The Passive, when the root ends in a consonant, will be identical with the Átmane-pada Frequentative formed by reduplication and the suffix ya; thus, fr. Frequent. stem totuda, 'to strike often,' comes totudye, 'I am struck often;' but fr. lolúya (lú, 'to cut'), lolúyye, &c. Again, fr. totuda comes totudayámi, 'I cause to strike often;' totudishámi, 'I desire to strike often;' totudayishámi, 'I desire to cause to strike often.'

a. The ya of the Átmane-pada Frequentative if preceded by a consonant is rejected; but not if preceded by a vowel; thus, lolúya, Frequentative stem of lú, 'to cut,' makes lolúyishámi, 'I desire to cut often.' See 252. f.

NOMINAL VERBS, OR VERBS DERIVED FROM NOUNS.

518. These are formed by adding certain suffixes to the stem of nouns. They are not in very common use, but, theoretically, there is no limit to their formation. They might be classed according to their meaning; viz. 1st, Transitive Nominals, yielding the sense of performing, practising, making or using the thing or quality expressed by the noun; 2nd, Intransitive Nominals, giving a sense of behaving like, becoming like, acting like the person or thing expressed by the noun; 3rd, Desiderative Nominals, yielding the sense of wishing for the thing expressed by the noun. It will be more convenient, however, to arrange them under five heads, according to the suffixes by which they are formed, as follows:—

519. 1st, Those formed by affixing अ a (changeable to á before a syllable beginning with m and v) to a nominal stem, after Guṇa of its final vowel (if capable of Guṇa). When the stem ends in a, this vowel takes the place of the suffix a. A final á absorbs the suffix.

Obs.—The terminations of Nominals will be those of the scheme at 246, both for Par. and Átm., requiring the substitutions of the 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th classes.

a. Thus, from कृष्ण 'Kṛishṇa,' Pres. 1. कृष्णामि 'I act like Kṛishṇa,' 2. कृष्णसि, 3. कृष्णति, &c. So, from कवि 'a poet,' Pres. 1. कवयामि 'I act the poet,' 2. कवयसि, &c.; and from पितृ 'a father,' Pres. 1. पितरामि 'I act like a father,' 2. पितरसि, 3. पितरति; Átm. Pres. 1. पितरे, &c.: from माला 'a garland,' Pres. 1. मालामि, 2. मालासि, 3. मालाति; Impf. 1. अमालाम्, 2. अमालास्, &c.; Pot. मालेयम्, &c.: from स्व 'own,' Pres. 3. स्वति 'he acts like himself.' Sometimes a final i or u is not gunated; as, from कवि 'a poet,' Pres. कव्यामि, कव्यसि, &c. (Páṇ. VII. 4, 39). Words ending in nasals preserve the nasals, and lengthen the preceding vowels; as, राजानति 'he acts like a king,' पथीनति 'it serves as a road,' इदामति 'he acts like this.'

520. 2ndly, Those formed by affixing य ya to a nominal stem.

a. If a word end in a consonant, ya is generally affixed without change; as, from वाच् 'a word,' वाच्यति 'he wishes for words;' from दिव् 'heaven,' दिव्यति 'he wishes for heaven' (or, according to some, दीव्यति); from तपस् 'penance,' तपस्यति 'he does penance;' from नमस् 'reverence,' नमस्यति 'he does reverence.' Final n is dropped, and the next rule then applied; thus, from राजन् 'a king,' Pres. राजीयामि, Pot. राजीयेयम्; from धनिन् 'rich,' धनीयामि, &c.

b. A final अ a or आ á is generally changed to ई í; final इ i or उ u lengthened; final ऋ ṛi changed to रीर rír; ओ o to av; औ au to áv.

Thus, from पुत्र 'a son,' Pres. 1. पुत्रीयामि 'I desire a son,' 2. पुत्रीयसि, &c.; from पति 'a husband,' Pres. 1. पतीयामि 'I desire a husband,' &c. So also, from मातृ 'a mother' comes मात्रीयामि, &c.

c. This form of Nominal has not always a Desiderative meaning. The following are examples of other meanings, some of which properly belong to the next form: प्रासादीयति 'he fancies himself in a palace;' कवीयति 'he acts like a poet;' कण्डूयति or -ते 'he scratches;' मन्तूयति or -ते 'he sins' or 'he is angry;' मित्रीयते 'he acts the part of a friend;' पुत्रीयति छात्रम् 'he treats the pupil as a son;' विष्णूयति द्विजम् 'he treats the Bráhman as if he were Vishṇu;' तिरस्यति 'he vanishes;' गव्यति 'he seeks cows' (from गो 'a cow').

d. In the sense of 'behaving like,' 'acting like,' 'doing like,' a final अ a is generally lengthened, a final आ á retained, and a final न् n, स् s, or त् t dropped; thus, from पण्डित 'a wise man,' Pres. 1. पण्डितामि 'I act the part of a wise man,' 2. पण्डितायसे, 3. पण्डितायते, &c.; from द्रुम 'a tree,' Pres. 1. द्रुमामि, &c.; from शब्द 'a noise,' Pres. शब्दामि 'I am noisy;' from राजन् 'a king,' Pres. 1. राजामि, &c.; from उन्मनस् 'sorrowful,' Pres. उन्मनामि, &c.; from बृहत् 'great,' Pres. बृहामि, &c.

e. This Nominal is sometimes found with a Transitive sense, especially when derived from nouns expressive of colour; as, from कृष्ण 'black,' कृष्णायते or -ति 'he blackens:' and sometimes in the Parasmai with an Intransitive sense; as, from जिह्म 'crooked,' जिह्मायति 'it is crooked;' from दास 'a slave,' दासायति 'he is a slave.' It corresponds to Greek Desiderative Denominatives in ιαω, as θανατιάω &c.

521. 3rdly, Those formed by affixing अय aya to a nominal stem. This form is similar to that of Causals and verbs of the 10th class, with which it is sometimes confounded. Like them it has generally an Active sense. A final vowel must be dropped before aya; and if the nominal stem have more than one syllable, and end in a consonant, both the consonant and its preceding vowel must be dropped.

a. Thus, from वस्त्र 'cloth,' Pres. 1. वस्त्रयामि 'I clothe,' 2. वस्त्रयसि, 3. वस्त्रयति, &c.; from वर्मन् 'armour,' Pres. 1. वर्मयामि 'I put on armour,' &c.; from प्रमाण 'authority,' प्रमाणयामि 'I propose as authority;' from स्रज् 'a garland,' स्रजयामि 'I crown;' from घट 'a jar,' घटयामि 'I make a jar' or 'I call it a jar,' &c.

b. In further analogy to Causals, प् p is sometimes inserted between the stem and aya, especially if the noun be monosyllabic, and end in a. Before this प् p, Vṛiddhi is required; thus, from स्व 'own,' Pres. स्वापयामि 'I make my own.' There are one or two examples of dissyllabic nouns; thus, from सत्य 'true,' सत्यापयामि, &c.; and from अर्थ 'substance,' अर्थापयामि, &c.

c. If the stem be monosyllabic, and end in a consonant, Guṇa may take place; as, from क्षुध् 'hunger,' क्षोधयामि.

d. Whatever modifications adjectives undergo before the suffixes ṭyas and ishṭha at 194, the same generally take place before aya; thus, from दीर्घ 'long,' द्राघयामि 'I lengthen;' from अन्तिक 'near,' नेदयामि 'I make near,' &c.

e. This form of Nominal is sometimes Intransitive, as चिरयति 'he delays' (from चिर 'long'). According to Bopp, Greek Denominatives in αω, εω, οω, ιζω correspond to this form; as, πολεμ-όω, γυναικ-ίζω.

522. 4thly, Those formed by affixing स्य sya or अस्य asya to a nominal stem, giving it the form of a Future tense, generally with the sense of 'desiring,' 'longing for.'

a. Thus, fr. क्षीर 'milk,' Pres. 1. क्षीरस्यामि 'I desire milk,' 2. क्षीरस्यसि, &c.; fr. वृष 'a bull,' वृषस्यति '(the cow) desires the bull;' fr. दधि 'curds,' दध्यस्यामि 'I desire curds,' &c. Cf. Greek Desideratives in σειω.

523. 5thly, Those formed by affixing काम्य kámya (derived from kam, 'to desire') to a nominal stem; as, from पुत्र 'a son,' Pres. 1. पुत्रकाम्यामि 'I desire a son,' 2. पुत्रकाम्यसि, 3. पुत्रकाम्यति, &c.; from यशस् 'fame,' यशस्काम्यामि 'I desire fame.'

a. The General tenses of these Nominals will be formed analogously to those of other verbs; thus, from स्वामि 'I act like self' comes Perf. सस्वौ; from कुमारयामि 'I play like a boy' comes Aor. अचुकुमारम्, &c. A long vowel in the stem generally remains unchanged, and is not shortened; thus, मालयामि (from माला 'a garland') makes अममालम्. So also, समिध्यिता 'he will wish for fuel' (Guṇa being omitted), पुत्रकाम्यिता 'he will wish for a son.'

b. Nominal verbs may take Passive, Causal, Desiderative, and Frequentative forms. The Causal of those formed with aya will be identical with the Primitive Nominal; thus, चर्मयामि 'I put on armour' or 'I cause to put on armour.' In reduplicating for the Desiderative or Frequentative, sometimes the last syllable is repeated, sometimes the first; thus, कण्डूय 'to scratch' makes its Desiderative stem कण्डूयिषि, and पुत्रीय 'to treat as a son' makes पुपुत्रीयिष or पुत्रीयियिष. According to some, the middle syllable may be reduplicated; thus, पुतित्रियिष.

PARTICIPLES.

PRESENT PARTICIPLES; PARASMAI-PADA.—FORMATION OF STEM.

524. Present Participles are the only Participles the formation of which is connected with the conjugational class of the verb. The stem in the Parasmai may be most easily formed by dropping the final t of the 3rd pers. pl. Pres. Par. and rejecting the nasal in certain cases (see 141. a, 84. I); e. g.

From पचन्ति pacanti, 'they cook' (3rd pl. Pres. of पच्, cl. 1), comes पचत् pacat, 'cooking;' fr. घ्नन्ति ghnanti, 'they kill' (3rd pl. of han, cl. 2), comes घ्नत् ghnat, 'killing;' fr. सन्ति santi, 'they are' (3rd pl. of as, cl. 2, 'to be'), comes सत् sat, 'being;' fr. यन्ति yanti, 'they go' (3rd pl. of इ, cl. 2), यत् yat, 'going;' fr. यान्ति yánti, 'they go' (3rd pl. of या, cl. 2), यात् yát; fr. जुह्वति juhvati, 'they sacrifice' (3rd pl. of hu, cl. 3), जुह्वत् juhvat; fr. नृत्यन्ति nṛityanti, 'they dance,' cl. 4, नृत्यत् nṛityat; fr. चिन्वन्ति cinvanti, 'they gather,' cl. 5, चिन्वत् cinvat; fr. आप्नुवन्ति ápnuvanti, 'they obtain,' cl. 5, आप्नुवत् ápnuvat; fr. तुदन्ति tudanti, 'they strike,' cl. 6, tudat; fr. रुन्धन्ति rundhanti, 'they hinder,' cl. 7, rundhat; fr. कुर्वन्ति kurvanti, 'they do,' cl. 8, kurvat; fr. पुनन्ति punanti, 'they purify,' cl. 9, punat.

525. The same holds good in Derivative and Nominal verbs; e. g.

From Caus. बोधयन्ति 'they cause to know' (479) comes बोधयत् 'causing to know;' fr. Desid. बुबोधिषन्ति (499) comes बुबोधिषत् 'desiring to know;' fr. दित्सन्ति (503) comes दित्सत् 'desiring to give;' fr. Frequent. चेक्षिपति comes चेक्षिपत् 'throwing frequently;' from the Nominal कृष्णन्ति 'they act like Kṛishṇa,' कृष्णत् 'acting like Kṛishṇa;' fr. तपस्यन्ति 'they do penance,' तपस्यत् 'doing penance.'

a. In corroboration of the remark made at 461. c, that the Passive verb appears in a few rare instances to assume a Parasmai-pada inflexion, and that many of the Intransitive verbs placed under cl. 4 might be regarded (except for the accent) as examples of this form of the Passive, it is certain that a Parasmai-pada Present Participle derivable from a Passive stem is occasionally found; thus, दृश्यत् 'being seen,' from the Passive stem दृश्य dṛiśya; चीयत् 'being gathered,' from चीय ćiya (Passive stem of ći).

b. The inflexion of Parasmai-pada Present Participles is explained at 141. The first five or strong inflexions (see 135. a) of this participle in nine conjugational classes retain the nasal, shewing that the stem in all the classes, except the third, and a few other verbs (141. a), ends in ant as well as in at. The Parasmai-pada Frequentative, as conforming to the conjugational rule for cl. 3, also rejects the nasal.

Obs.—In the cognate languages the n is preserved throughout. Cf. Sk. bharan, bharantam (fr. bhṛi), with φέρων, φέροντα, ferentem; also, bharantau (Ved. bharantá) with φέροντε; bharantas with φέροντες, ferentes; bharatas with φέροντας; Gen. sing. bharatas with φέροντος, ferentis. So also, Sk. vahan, vahantam, with Lat. vehens, vehentem; and san, santam (fr. as, 'to be'), with Lat. -sens of ab-sens, præ-sens. Cf. also the strong stem stṛiṇvant- with στορνυντ-.

PRESENT PARTICIPLES; ÁTMANE-PADA.—FORMATION OF STEM.

526. The stem is formed by substituting मान mána for न्ते nte, the termination of the 3rd pl. Pres. Átm. of verbs of the 1st, 4th, 6th, and 10th classes, and Derivative verbs (see 527, 528, below); and by substituting आन ána for अते ate, the termination of the 3rd pl. Pres. Átm. of verbs of the other classes (see 246); e. g.

From पचन्ते paćante (cl. 1) comes पचमान paćamána, 'cooking;' fr. तिष्ठन्ते (sthá, cl. 1), तिष्ठमान 'standing;' fr. नृत्यन्ते (cl. 4), नृत्यमान; fr. लिम्पन्ते (lip, cl. 6), लिम्पमान.

a. But from ब्रुवते bruvate (ब्रू cl. 2), ब्रुवाण bruváṇa (58); fr. निघ्नते (हन् with नि cl. 2), निघ्नान; fr. दधते (dhá, cl. 3), दधान; fr. चिन्वते (cl. 5), चिन्वान; fr. युञ्जते (cl. 7), युञ्जान; fr. कुर्वते (cl. 8), कुर्वाण; fr. पुनते (cl. 9), पुनान. Root आस् cl. 2, 'to sit,' makes आसीन for आसान; and शी cl. 2 is शेरते in 3rd pl. (see 315), but शयान in Pres. Part.

Obs.—The real suffix for the Pres. Part. Átm. is mána, of which ána is probably an abbreviation. Cf. Gr. -μενο- in φερό-μενο-ς=bhara-máṇa (58).

527. Verbs of class 10 and Causals substitute मान mána; as, fr. बोधयन्ते bodhayante comes बोधयमान bodhayamána: but occasionally यान ána; as, fr. दर्शयन्ते, दर्शयान; fr. वेदयन्ते, वेदयान; fr. चिन्तयन्ते, चिन्तयान; fr. पूजयन्ते, पूजयान.

528. Passives, Desideratives, Frequentatives, &c. substitute मान mána for the Átmane; thus, from क्रियन्ते 'they are made' comes क्रियमाण 'being made' (58); from दीयन्ते 'they are given,' दीयमान 'being given;' from the Desiderative दित्सन्ते 'they desire to give,' दित्समान 'desiring to give;' from जिघांसन्ते 'they desire to kill,' जिघांसमान 'desiring to kill;' from the Frequentative बोबुध्यन्ते 'they know repeatedly,' बोबुध्यमान 'knowing repeatedly.'

529. The inflexion of Pres. Participles Átmane follows that of adjectives at 187; as, N. sing. m. f. n. पचमानस्, पचमाना, पचमानम्.

PAST PARTICIPLES.

PAST PASSIVE PARTICIPLES.—FORMATION OF STEM.

530. This is the most common and useful of all Participles. In general the stem is formed by adding त ta directly to roots ending in vowels, and to most roots ending in consonants; as, fr. या yá, 'to go,' यात yáta, 'gone;' fr. जि 'to conquer,' जित 'conquered;' fr. नी 'to lead,' नीत 'led;' fr. क्षिप् kship, 'to throw,' क्षिप्त kshipta, 'thrown;' fr. कृ 'to do,' कृत 'done' (see 80. XVII).

a. But if the root end in ऋ ṛí, by adding न na, changeable to ण ṇa (58); as, fr. कॄ kṛí, 'to scatter,' कीर्ण kírṇa, 'scattered,' see 534.

531. Some roots in आ á, ई í, and ऊ ú, some in ऐ ai preceded by two consonants, with some of those in द् d, र् r, ज् j, one in ग् g (लग्), and one or two in च् ć, छ् ćh (see 541, 544), also take na instead of ta; see 80. XXIV, 532, 536, 540, &c.

532. Roots ending in vowels do not generally admit inserted इ् i in this Participle, even when they admit it in the Futures (392, 395, &c.), but attach ta or na directly to the root; as, fr. या 'to protect,' पात; fr. श्रि 'to resort to,' श्रित; fr. श्रु 'to hear,' श्रुत; भू 'to become,' भूत; कृ 'to do,' कृत; घ्रा 'to smell,' घ्राण (58); डी 'to fly,' डीन; दी 'to decay,' दीन; मी 'to perish,' मीन; ली 'to embrace,' लीन; ह्री 'to be ashamed,' ह्रीण; लू 'to cut,' लून; दु 'to be afflicted,' दून; ष्टि 'to swell,' ष्टून.

a. But when they do retain i, gunation of the final vowel is required as in the Future; thus, शी 'to lie down' makes शयित; and पू 'to purify,' पवित (also पूत); and जागृ 'to awake,' जागरित.

533. In certain cases the final vowel of the root is changed; thus, some roots in आ á change á to i before ta; as, from स्था sthá, 'to stand,' स्थित sthita; from मा 'to measure,' मित; from दरिद्रा 'to be poor,' दरिद्रित.

a. धा 'to place' becomes हित; दा 'to give,' दत्त.

Obs.—When prepositions are prefixed to datta, the initial da may be rejected; thus, átta for ádatta, 'taken;' pratta for pradatta, 'bestowed;' vyátta for vyádatta, 'expanded;' nítta for nidatta, 'given away;' parítta for paridatta, 'delivered over;' sútta for sudatta, 'well given,' the i and u being lengthened.

b. पा 'to drink' makes पीत; but हा 'to quit,' हीन; and ज्या 'to grow old,' जीन; हा 'to go,' हान.

c. Some roots in á take both na and ta; as, fr. घ्रा 'to smell,' घ्राण and घ्रात; fr. वा 'to blow,' with prep. निर्, निर्वाण and निर्वात; fr. आ (or श्रै) 'to cook,' आण or श्रित.

534. Roots in ऋ ṛí change ṛí to ír before na, which passes into ण ṇa by 58; as, from तॄ 'to pass,' तीर्ण 'passed.' But when a labial precedes, ṛí becomes úr; as, from पॄ or पूर्, पूर्त or पूर्ण 'full,' 'filled.'

535. The root धे dhe, 'to suck,' forms धीत; ह्वे hve, 'to call,' हूत; वे ve, 'to weave,' उत; व्ये vye, 'to cover,' वीत; मे 'to barter,' मित.

536. Roots in ऐ ai generally change ai to á before na or ta; as, from म्लै mlai, 'to fade,' म्लान mlána; from ध्यै 'to meditate,' ध्यात (in the Veda धीत); from दै 'to purify,' दात; from त्रै 'to rescue,' त्राण or त्रात; from प्यै 'to grow fat,' प्यान, &c.

a. But fr. गै 'to sing,' गीत; fr. सै 'to waste,' सीत; fr. क्षै 'to waste,' क्षाम, see 548; fr. श्यै 'to coagulate,' शीत or शीन or श्यान; fr. स्त्यै 'to accumulate,' स्त्यान, (with प्र) स्तीत or स्तीम.

537. Of the four or five roots in ओ o, सो 'to destroy' makes सित (as also सि 'to bind'); शो 'to sharpen,' शित or शात; दो 'to tie,' दित; छो 'to cut,' छात and छित; ज्यो 'to instruct,' जीत.

538. Those roots ending in consonants which take the inserted i in the last five tenses (399), generally take this vowel also in the Past Pass. Part., but not invariably (see 542); and when i is assumed, ta is generally affixed, and not na; as, from पत् pat, 'to fall,' पतित patita, 'fallen.'

a. इ i, उ u, or ऋ ṛi preceding the final consonant of a root may occasionally take Guṇa, especially if the Participle be used impersonally; as, fr. स्विद् 'to sweat,' स्वेदित or स्विन्न; fr. स्निद् 'to be unctuous,' स्नेदित or स्निण; fr. द्युत् 'to shine,' द्योतित or द्युतित; fr. मृष् 'to bear,' मर्षित; fr. मृष् 'to sprinkle,' मृष्ट. See Syntax, 895.

b. ग्रह् 'to take' lengthens the inserted i, making गृहीत. See 399. a.

539. Roots ending in consonants which reject the inserted i in the last five tenses (400–415), generally reject it in the Past Pass. Part. They must be combined with ta, agreeably to the rules of Sandhi at 296, &c. Whatever change, therefore, the final consonant undergoes before the termination tá of the 1st Fut. (see 400–415), the same will often be preserved before the ta of the Past Part.; so that, in many cases, the form of this Participle resembles that of the 3rd sing. 1st Fut., provided the final á be shortened, and the vowel of the root preserved unaltered; thus, taking some of the roots at 400–415; शक् (शक्ता), शक्त; सिच् (सेक्ता), सिक्त; मुच् (मोक्ता), मुक्त; त्यज्, त्यक्त; युज्, युक्त; सृज्, सृष्ट; मृज् and मृश्, मृष्ट; सिध्, सिद्ध; बुध्, बुद्ध; युध्, युद्ध; क्षिप्, क्षिप्त; लुप्, लुप्त; सृप्, सृप्त; क्लृप्, क्लृप्त; लभ्, लब्ध; लुभ्, लुब्ध; विश्, विष्ट; दृश्, दृष्ट; क्रुश्, क्रुष्ट; द्विष्, द्विष्ट; दुष्, दुष्ट; कृप्, कृष्ट; इष्, इष्ट; दह्, दग्ध; सह्, सोढ (415. m); नह्, नद्ध (414); गाह्, गाढ (415. m); लिह्, लीढ; दिह्, दिग्ध; स्निह्, स्निग्ध; रुह्, रूढ; मुह्, मूढ or मुग्ध (415. m); दुह्, दुग्ध; गुह्, गूढ (415. m).

540. Most roots ending in द् d, forbidding the inserted इ i (405), take na instead of ta, and are combined with na, agreeably to 47; as, fr. पद् 'to go,' पन्न; fr. विद् 'to find,' विन्न (also वित्त); fr. नुद् 'to impel,' नुन्न (also नुत्त); fr. भिद् 'to break,' भिन्न; fr. सद् 'to sit,' 'to sink,' सन्न, with वि, विषण (70, 58); fr. क्षुद् 'to pound,' क्षुण; fr. क्रीड् 'to play,' 'to vomit,' क्रीण; fr. अद् 'to eat,' अन्न (unless जग्ध be substituted). ह्लाद् 'to rejoice' makes ह्लन्न.

541. Roots ending in च् ć or ज् j of course change these letters to k before ta: see examples at 539. Similarly, those which take na, change ć and j to g before na: as, fr. नज् 'to be ashamed,' नग्न 'naked;' fr. विज् 'to tremble,' विग्न; fr. रुज् 'to break,' रुग्ण; fr. स्फुर्ज् 'to thunder,' स्फूर्ण; fr. अञ्च् 'to move' (in some senses), अक्त. So, fr. मज्ज् 'to be immersed,' rejecting one j, मग्न; from लज्ज् 'to be ashamed,' लग्न (as well as लज्जित). लग् 'to adhere' also makes लग्न. But स्मृज् 'to forget,' स्मृष्ट; तृज् 'to be crooked,' तृष्ट.

542. Some roots which admit i necessarily or optionally in one or both of the Futures, reject it in this participle; thus, धृष् 'to be bold' makes धृष्ट. According to Pán. VII. 2. 24, अर्द् 'to move' makes अर्ण arṇa after the prepositions sam, ni, and vi, and in every other case अर्दित ardita, so that after á prefixed, it becomes आर्दित

(आर्त 'pained' is thought by some to be ṛita, fr. rt. ṛi, with prep. á prefixed, and by others is regarded as an anomalous form of rt. ard; by native grammarians a form अर्त्त artta is referred to rt. ऋत्); दृंह् 'to make firm,' दृढ; वृह् 'to extol,' वृढ; मद् 'to be mad,' मत्त; दीप् 'to shine,' दीप्त; नश् 'to perish,' नष्ट; मुह् 'to faint,' मूढ as well as मूर्छित; म्लेच्छ् 'to speak barbarously,' म्लिष्ट as well as म्लेच्छित; नृत् 'to dance,' नृत्त; यत् 'to strive,' यत्त.

543. If in forming the Passive stem (471), the v or y contained in a root is changed to its semivowel u or i, the same change takes place in the Past Pass. Part.; as, fr. वच् vać, 'to say,' उक्त ukta; fr. वद् 'to speak,' उदित; fr. वश् 'to wish,' उशित; fr. वस् 'to dwell,' उषित; fr. वप् 'to sow,' उप्त; fr. वह् 'to carry,' ऊढ (with प्र, प्रौढ, 38. n); fr. स्वप् 'to sleep,' सुप्त; fr. यज् 'to sacrifice,' इष्ट.

Obs.—This change of a semivowel to its corresponding vowel is called Samprasárana by native grammarians (Pán. I. 1, 45).

a. Some roots change व् with a preceding or following vowel into ऊ; as, ज्वर् 'to be feverish,' जूर्ण; त्वर् 'to hasten,' तूर्ण; श्वि 'to dry,' शूत; श्वि 'to protect,' ऊत; मव् 'to bind,' मूत.

b. Some roots ending in व् also substitute ऊ for व्; as, दिव् 'to play,' द्यूत and द्यून (the former only in the sense of 'to gamble'); सिव् 'to sew,' स्यूत; ष्ठिव् or ष्ठीव् 'to spit,' ष्ठ्यूत; ष्ठिव् or ष्ठीव् 'to spit,' ष्ठ्यूत.

544. Some other changes which take place in forming the Passive stem (472) are preserved before ta; thus, fr. शास् 'to rule,' शिष्ट; fr. व्यध् 'to pierce,' विद्ध; fr. व्यच् 'to deceive,' विचित; fr. भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' भृष्ट; fr. प्रच्छ् 'to ask,' पृष्ट; fr. ऋश्च् 'to cut,' वृक्ण (58).

a. When a root ends in a conjunct consonant, of which the first is a nasal, this nasal is generally rejected before ta; as, fr. बन्ध् 'to bind,' बद्ध; fr. भंश् 'to fall,' भ्रष्ट; fr. ध्वंस् 'to fall,' ध्वस्त; fr. अञ्च् 'to move' and अञ्ज् 'to anoint,' अक्त; fr. सञ्ज् 'to adhere,' सक्त; fr. रञ्ज् 'to colour,' रक्त; fr. इन्ध् 'to kindle,' इद्ध; fr. उन्द् 'to be wet,' उन्न or उत्त; fr. स्यन्द् 'to flow,' स्यन्न; fr. स्कन्द् 'to ascend,' स्कन्न; fr. स्कम्भ् 'to stop,' स्कम्भ; fr. स्तम्भ् 'to stop,' स्तम्भ; fr. दम्भ् 'to deceive,' दम्भ; fr. भञ्ज् 'to break,' भग्न; fr. दंश् 'to bite,' दष्ट; fr. तञ्च् 'to contract,' तक्त.

b. But not if इ i is inserted; as, fr. खण्ड् 'to break,' खण्डित; fr. क्रन्द्, क्रन्दित (except मन्थ् 'to churn,' making मथित; and ग्रन्थ् 'to tie,' ग्रथित).

545. Many roots ending in म् m, न् n, or ण् ṇ reject these nasals before ta if i is not inserted; as, गम् gam, 'to go,' गत gata; यम् yam, 'to restrain,' यत yata; रम् 'to sport,' रत; तन् 'to stretch,' तत; हन् 'to kill,' हत; नम् 'to bend,' नत; मन् 'to think,' मत; क्षण् 'to hurt,' क्षत: but अन् 'to breathe' and अम् 'to go' make आन्त (the latter also अमित); and स्वन् 'to sound,' स्वनित (also स्वान्त with prep.)

a. जन् 'to be born' makes जात; and खन् 'to dig,' खात; सन् 'to give,' सात; medial a being lengthened.

546. Those roots ending in म् m, of the 4th class, which lengthen a medial a before the conjugational suffix ya, also lengthen it before ta, changing m to n as in the Futures; thus, fr. क्रम् 'to step,' क्रान्त; fr. भ्रम् 'to wander,' भ्रान्त; fr. शम् 'to be appeased,' शान्त; fr. दम् 'to tame,' दान्त (also दमित); fr. क्षम् 'to be patient,' क्षान्त; fr. क्लम् 'to be sad,' क्लान्त.

a. Similarly, वम् 'to vomit,' वान्त; कम् 'to love,' कान्त; चम् 'to eat,' चान्त.

547. From स्फाय् 'to swell' is formed स्फीत; fr. क्षाय् 'to shake,' क्षात; fr. पूय् 'to be putrid,' पूत; from ऊय् 'to weave,' ऊत; fr. प्याय् 'to be fat,' पीन (with आ and प्र, -प्यान); fr. क्रूय् 'to stink,' क्रूत.

a. गुर् or गूर् 'to make effort' forms गूर्ण; तुर्व् 'to kill,' like त्वर् 'to hasten,' तूर्ण; मुर्व् 'to bind or tie' makes मूर्ण; धाव् 'to wash,' धौत.

b. फल् 'to open' makes फुल्ल (Pán. VIII. 2, 55); and घस् 'to eat,' जग्ध (fr. जक्ष्).

Obs.—From the above examples it appears that sometimes several roots have the same form of Past Pass. Part. The following may also be noted: पूय् 'to stink' and पू 'to purify' make पूत; मा 'to measure' and मे 'to barter,' मित; मृज् 'to wipe,' मृश् 'to touch,' and मृष् 'to sprinkle,' all make मृष्ट (मृष् 'to bear' making मर्षित by Pán. I. 2, 20); शंस् 'to recite' and शस् 'to kill,' शस्त; शास् 'to rule' and शिष् 'to distinguish,' शिष्ट; सो 'to destroy' and सि 'to tie,' सित. On the other hand, भुज् 'to enjoy' makes भुक्त; but भुज् 'to bend,' भुग्न.

548. The following, though regarded as Participles by native grammarians, are more properly adjectives: पक्व, fr. पच् paċ, 'to cook;' शुष्क, fr. शुष् 'to dry;' क्षीव, fr. क्षीव् 'to be drunk;' कृश, fr. कृश् 'to grow thin;' क्षाम, fr. क्षै 'to waste.'

549. In forming the Past Pass. Part. of Causals, the Causal suffix अय aya is rejected, but the inserted इ i is always assumed; as, fr. कारय, Causal of कृ 'to make,' comes कारित kárita, 'caused to be made;' fr. स्थापय, Causal of स्था 'to stand,' स्थापित sthápita, 'placed;' fr. आप्याय (प्यै with आ), आप्यायित 'increased,' 'refreshed.'

550. In adding त ta to a Desiderative or Frequentative stem, the inserted इ i is assumed, final a of the stem being dropped; and in the case of roots ending in consonants, final ya being dropped; as, fr. पिपास 'to desire to drink' comes पिपासित; fr. चिकीर्ष 'to desire to do,' चिकीर्षित; fr. ईप्स 'to desire to obtain,' ईप्सित, &c.; fr. लोलूय 'to cut often,' लोलूयित; fr. बेभिद्य 'to break frequently,' बेभिदित.

551. त ta with i is added to nominal stems, final a being dropped; as, fr. शिथिल 'loose,' शिथिलित 'loosened;' fr. जिह्म 'crooked,' जिह्मित 'curved.' These may be regarded as Past Passive Participles of the Transitive Nominal verbs शिथिलयति, जिह्मयति (521). So again, from नमस्य 'to do reverence' comes नमस्यित or नमसित.

Obs.—Moreover, as na sometimes takes the place of ta, so ina is added to some nouns instead of ita; e.g. मलिन 'soiled,' fr. मल 'dirt;' शृङ्गिण (58) 'horned,' from शृङ्ग 'a horn.' See 80. XLIII.

a. Corresponding forms in Latin are barbatus, alatus, cordatus, turritus, &c.; and in Greek, ὀμφαλωτός, κροκωτός, αὐλωτός, &c.

552. The inflexion of Past Passive Participles follows that of adjectives at 187; thus exhibiting a perfect similarity to the declension of Latin participles in tus; thus, कृत kṛita, Nom. sing. masc. fem. neut. कृतस्, कृता, कृतम्.

a. The resemblance between Sanskṛit Past Passive Participles in ta, Latin Participles in tu-s, and Greek verbals in τo-ς, may be seen in the following examples: Sk. jñáta-s = Lat. (g)notu-s (ignotus), γνωτό-ς; Sk. datta-s = Lat. datus, δοτός; śruta-s=clutus, κλυτό-ς; bhúta-s=φυτό-ς; yukta-s=junctu-s, ζευκτό-ς; labdha-=ληπτό-ς; píta-s=πότο-ς; bhṛita-s=φερτό-ς; dishṭa-s=dictu-s, δεικτό-ς. And, like Sanskṛit, Latin often inserts an i, as in domitu-s (=Sk. damita-s), monitu-s, &c. This is not the case in Greek, but ε is inserted in forms like μενετό-ς, ἑρπετό-ς. There are also examples of Latin and Greek formations in nu-s and νο-ς, corresponding to the Sanskṛit participle in na; thus, plenu-s (=púrṇa-s), magnu-s (cf. Sk. rt. mah), dignu-s (cf. Sk. diś, dik, Gr. δεικ); and στυγνό-ς, στεγνό-ς, σεμνό-ς, &c.

PAST ACTIVE PARTICIPLES.

These are of two kinds: A. those derived from the Past Passive Participle; B. those belonging to the Reduplicated Perfect. The former frequently supply the place of a Perfect tense Active (see 897).

553. A. The stem of these Participles is formed by adding वत् vat to that of the Past Passive Participle; e. g.

From कृत 'made,' कृतवत् 'having made,' 'who or what has made;' fr. दग्ध 'burnt,' दग्धवत् 'having burnt;' fr. उक्त 'said,' उक्तवत् 'having said;' fr. भिन्न 'broken,' भिन्नवत् 'having broken;' fr. स्थापित 'placed,' स्थापितवत् 'having placed,' &c.

a. For the declension of these Participles see 140. a. b. c.

554. B. In these Participles, either वस् vas or इवस् ivas is generally added to the stem of the Reduplicated Perfect, as formed in the dual and plural. Vas is added when the stem in the dual and plural (as it appears in its unchanged form before the terminations are added) consists of more than one syllable; thus, from ćakṛi (root kṛi, 'to do'), ćakṛivas; from ćići (374), ćićivas; from nanṛit (364, compare 45. a), nanṛitvas; from sasmar (374. k), sasmarvas.

a. And ivas is added when the stem in the dual and plural consists of one syllable only; as, from ten (375. a), tenivas; from ghas (377), jakshivas.

Obs.—Certain roots are said optionally to form this Perf. Part. with ivas or vas, whether the stem in dual and plural consists of one syllable or two (see Páṇ. VII. 2, 68); e. g. fr. gam (376), jagmivas or jaganvas; fr. han, jaghnivas or jaghanvas; fr. vid, cl. 6, 'to find,' vividvas or vividivas; fr. viś, viviśvas or viviśivas; fr. dṛiś, dadṛiśvas or dadṛiśivas.

b. When vas is affixed, it will be necessary to restore to its original state the final of a root ending in i, í, u, ú, or ṛi, if changed before the terminations of the du. and pl. to y, v, r, iy, uv, or úv; thus, श्रि śri, changed by 374. e. to śiśriy, becomes शिश्रिवस्; क्री, changed to ćikriy, becomes चिक्रीवस् ćikrívas; धू, changed by 374.g. to dudhuv, becomes दुधूवस् dudhúvas; भू, changed by 374.i. to babhúv, becomes बभूवस् babhúvas. In declension, the 3rd pers. pl. with its termination us is the form of the stem in the weakest cases (135.a), and in the fem. final s becoming sh by 70; e.g. 3rd pl. jagmus, I. jagmushá; 3rd pl. tenus, I. tenushá, &c. See 168.

c. Roots which take the Periphrastic Perfect (see 385) form the Participles of this tense by adding the Perfect Participles of kṛi, bhú, and as, to ám; thus, from ćur, cl. 10, ćorayám-babhúvas, ćorayáṅ-ćakṛivas, ćorayám-ásivas.

d. There is an Átmane-pada Participle of the Reduplicated Perfect most easily formed by changing ire, the termination of the 3rd pl., into ána; thus, vividána, ćićyána, jagmána. See 526.a; and cf. Greek Perf. Part. in μενο (τετυμμένος = tutupána).

e. The Parasmai-pada form of these Participles is inflected at 168. Those of the Átmane-pada follow the inflexion of adjectives like śubha at 187.

PAST INDECLINABLE PARTICIPLES.

555. These are of the nature of Gerunds, as 'carrying on the action of the verb.' They fall under two heads: 1st, as formed by affixing त्वा tvá to uncompounded roots; as, fr. भू bhú, 'to be,' भूत्वा bhútvá, 'having been' (see 80. XXI): 2ndly, as formed by affixing य ya to roots compounded with prepositions or other adverbial prefixes; thus, fr. अनुभू anubhú, 'to perceive,' अनुभूय anubhúya, 'having perceived;' fr. सञ्जीभू sajjíbhú, 'to become ready,' सञ्जीभूय sajjíbhúya, 'having become ready.' The sense involved in them is generally expressed by the English 'when,' 'after,' 'having,' or 'by;' thus, तत् कृत्वा tat kṛitvá, 'when he had done that,' 'after he had done that,' 'having done that,' 'by doing that.' See Syntax, 898.

a. The suffix tvá of this participle is thought by some to be the instrumental case of a suffix tva (see 80. XXI). The Indeclinable Participle has certainly much of the character of an instrumental case (see Syntax, 901).

Obs.—In the Veda त्वाय, त्वानम्, त्वीनम् or त्वी are sometimes used for त्वा.

Indeclinable Participles formed with tvá from uncompounded roots.

556. When the root stands alone and uncompounded, the Indeclinable Participle is formed with त्वा tvá.

This suffix is closely allied to the त ta of the Past Passive Participle at 531, so that the rules for the affixing of त ta to the root generally apply also to the Indeclinable suffix त्वा tvá, and the formation of one Participle then involves that of the other.

Thus, क्षिप्त kshipta, 'thrown,' क्षिप्त्वा kshiptvá, 'having thrown;' कृत 'done' (rt. कृ), कृत्वा 'having done;' स्थित (rt. स्था), स्थित्वा; दृष्ट (rt. दृश्), दृष्ट्वा; दत्त (rt. दा), दत्त्वा;

पीत (rt. पा), पीत्वा; क्रान्त (rt. क्रम्), क्रान्त्वा; गृहीत (rt. ग्रह्), गृहीत्वा; उषित (rt. वस्), उषित्वा; उक्त (rt. वच्), उक्त्वा; बुद्ध (rt. बुध्), बुद्ध्वा; ऊढ (rt. वह्), ऊढ्वा; हित (rt. धा), हित्वा; जग्ध (rt. घस्), जग्ध्वा; गत (rt. गम् 545), गत्वा.

a. Where i is inserted, there is generally gunation of final i, í, u, ú, and of final ऋ ṛí and of medial ऋ ṛi; and optional gunation of medial i, u (except as debarred by 28).

Thus, शयित्वा fr. शी; पवित्वा (also पूत्वा) fr. पू; जरित्वा or जरीत्वा fr. जॄ; लिखित्वा or लेखित्वा fr. लिख्; द्युतित्वा or द्योतित्वा fr. द्युत्; मृषित्वा or मर्षित्वा fr. मृष्.

b. But from दिव्, देवित्वा and द्यूत्वा; from सिव्, सेवित्वा and स्यूत्वा. So श्रिव् &c. The root जागृ makes जागरित्वा (532. a); and initial i, u, before single consonants, must be gunated; as, इष् makes एषित्वा.

c. The roots in the list at 390. a. do not admit Guṇa; thus, विज् can make only विजित्वा.

d. When there are two forms of the Passive Participle, there is often only one of the Indeclinable; thus, नृत् makes नृत्त and नर्तित, but only नर्तित्वा; लज्ज्, लग्न and लज्जित, but only लज्जित्वा; and, vice versa, वस् (543) only उषित, but उषित्वा and उष्ट्वा; सह्, सोढ, but सहित्वा and सोढ्वा; मृज्, मृष्ट, but मार्जित्वा and मृष्ट्वा. So, some roots in nasals optionally insert i: तन्, तत्वा or तनित्वा; क्षण्, क्षत्वा or क्षणित्वा; कम्, कान्त्वा or कमित्वा; क्रम्, क्रान्त्वा or क्रन्त्वा or क्रमित्वा; खन्, खात्वा or खनित्वा.

e. The penultimate nasal, which is rejected before ta (544. a), is optionally so rejected before tvá in रञ्ज्, सञ्ज्, स्वञ्ज्, तञ्ज् or तच्, and भञ्ज्; thus, from रञ्ज् comes रक्त, but रंक्त्वा or रक्त्वा; from भञ्ज्, भक्त्वा, भंक्त्वा or भक्त्वा.

f. मज्ज् and नश् optionally insert nasals; मक्त्वा or मंक्त्वा, नष्ट्वा or नंष्ट्वा, 390. k.

g. Some few roots necessarily retain their nasals; thus, स्कन्द् makes स्कन्त्वा; and स्यन्द्, स्यन्त्वा or स्यन्दित्वा.

557. The only important variation from the Past Passive Participle occurs in those roots, at 531. a, which take na for ta. The change of ṛí to ír and úr (534) is preserved (unless i be inserted), but tvá never becomes nvá; thus, जॄ, जीर्ण, but जरित्वा (or जरीत्वा); from तॄ, तीर्ण, but तरीत्वा; from पॄ, पूर्ण, but पूर्त्वा; from छिद्, छिन्न, but छित्त्वा; from भञ्ज्, भग्न, but भंक्त्वा or भक्त्वा (556. e); from रुज्, रुग्ण, but रुक्त्वा; from हा, हीन, but हित्वा 'having quitted' (not distinguishable in form from हित्वा 'having placed,' root धा).

558. Observe, moreover, that verbs of cl. 10 and Causals, which reject the characteristic aya before the ita of the Past Pass. Part., retain ay before itvá; thus, स्थापित 'made to stand' (fr. Caus. stem स्थापय), but स्थापयित्वा 'having made to stand;' चिन्तित 'thought' (fr. चिन्त् cl. 10, 'to think'), but चिन्तयित्वा 'having thought.'

a. All Derivative verbs of course assume i, and form their Indeclinable Participles analogously to Causals; thus, बुबोधिषित्वा (fr. Desid. of बुध्), and बोबुधित्वा (fr. Freq. of बुध्). In regard to the Átmane Frequentatives, लोलूयित्वा is formed fr. लोलूय, and देदीपित्वा fr. देदीप्य (ya in the latter being preceded by a consonant).

b. There are one or two instances of compounded roots formed with tvá; thus, अनुध्यात्वा (fr. ध्यै), Rámáy. I. 2, 20; also अप्रत्युक्ता, Rámáy. I. 74, 23. Especially in the case of Causals; as, निवर्तयित्वा.

c. When अ a, 'not,' is prefixed, tvá is always used; as, अकृत्वा 'not having done,' 'without having done;' अदत्त्वा 'not having given.'

Indeclinable Participles formed with ya from compounded roots.

559. When a root is compounded with a preposition or any indeclinable prefix (except अ a, 'not,' see 558. c), the Indeclinable Participle is formed by affixing य ya, and the rules for annexing it to the root are some of them analogous to those which prevail in other cases in which ya is affixed; see the rules for forming the Special tenses in cl. 4 (272), for Passives (461), and for the Precative (443).

560. But if a root end in a short vowel, instead of lengthening this vowel, त् t is interposed; as, fr. आश्रि áśri, 'to take refuge' (rt. श्रि with आ), आश्रित्य áśritya, 'having taken refuge;' fr. निश्चि (rt. चि with निस्), निश्चित्य; fr. उत्प्लु, उत्प्लुत्य; from संस्कृ (rt. कृ with सम्), संस्कृत्य; fr. निःसृ, निःसृत्य. The lengthening of the radical vowel by coalition does not prevent this rule; as, fr. अती atí (rt. इ with अति), अतीत्य atítya.

a. जागृ 'to awake' gunates its final as in उज्जागर्य; and क्षि 'to destroy,' 'to waste,' lengthens its final as in प्रक्षीय, उपक्षीय.

561. If a root end in long आ á, ई í, or ऊ ú, no change generally takes place; as, fr. विहा, विहाय; fr. उपक्री, उपक्रीय; fr. विधू, विधूय.

a. If it end in long ॠ ṛí, this vowel becomes ir, and after labial letters úr; thus, fr. अवकॄ, अवकीर्य 'having scattered;' fr. आपॄ (root पॄ 'to fill'), आपूर्य (compare 534).

562. Final diphthongs pass into आ á; as, fr. परिध्यै, परिध्याय (also परिधीय); fr. अभिध्यै, अभिध्याय; fr. अवसो, अवसाय.

a. But ह्वे with आ makes आहूय. In Epic poetry, सो with व्यव makes व्यवस्य.

b. मि 'to throw,' मी 'to kill,' मा 'to measure,' and मे 'to barter,' all make -माय. Similarly, दी 'to decay,' -दाय; but ली 'to adhere,' -लाय or -लीय (see 390. e). श्रि and शी conform to the rule for the Passive (-श्रूय, -शय्य), अधिशय्य 'having reclined upon,' Kirát. I, 38.

563. A penultimate nasal is generally rejected, as in Passives (see 469); as, fr. समासञ्ज् samásañj, समासज्य samásajya; fr. प्रमन्थ्, प्रमथ्य (used adverbially in the sense 'violently').

a. Some few roots retain the nasal; thus, आशञ्ज् makes आशञ्ज्य; and आलिङ्ग्, आलिङ्ग्य.

b. लभ् 'to acquire' may insert a nasal after the prepositions आ and उप; thus, आलम्भ्य &c. (otherwise -लभ्य).

564. If a root end in a consonant the general rule is, that no change takes place; as, from निक्षिप् nikship, निक्षिप्य nikshipya; from प्राप् (root आप् with प्र), प्राप्य; from वीक्ष् (root ईक्ष् with वि), वीक्ष्य.

a. But roots in ऋ or व्, preceded by i or u, lengthen these vowels, as in प्रतिदीव्य from दिव्, विस्फूर्य from स्फुर्.

b. Four roots in अम् (गम्, नम्, यम्, रम्) optionally reject the nasal, and interpose t between the final a and ya; as, from निर्गम्, निर्गत्य or निर्गम्य. The roots हन्, मन्, तन्, वन्, क्षण्, क्षिण्, ऋण्, घृण्, वृण्, तृण् always reject the nasal; as, from निहन्, निहत्य.

c. खन्, जन्, and सन् optionally reject the न्; but instead of interposing t, lengthen the final a, as in Passives (see 470); thus, from उत्खन्, उत्खाय (or उत्खन्य).

565. The changes which take place in certain roots before the ya of the Passive (471, 472) are preserved before ya; as, from निवप्, न्युप्य; from विवस्, व्युप्य; from प्रवस्, प्रोप्य; from अनुवद्, अनूद्य; from विग्रह्, विगृह्य; from आप्रछ्, आपृच्छ्य; from आव्यध्, आविध्य; and so with all the roots at 471, 472.

a. The roots at 390. l. have two forms; thus, from गुप् comes -गोपाय्य and -गुप्य, &c.

b. There are one or two instances in which an uncompounded root takes य; as, अर्च्य 'having reverenced,' Manu I. 4; VII. 145: Mahá-bh. iii. 8017. उष्य 'having resided,' Nala v. 41 (from वस्); गृह्य 'having taken,' Astra-śikshá 21.

566. In affixing य ya to the stems of Causal verbs of cl. 10, and the 3rd class of Nominals (521), the characteristic अय is generally rejected; as, fr. प्रबोधय prabodhaya, प्रबोध्य prabodhya; fr. प्रसारय, प्रसार्य; fr. सन्दर्शय, सन्दृश्य; fr. विचारय, विचार्य.

a. It is, however, retained when the root ends in a single consonant and encloses short a; thus, विगणय्य 'having calculated' (गण् with वि); आकलय्य 'having imagined' (कल् with आ); सङ्कथय्य 'having narrated' (कथ् with सम्): and also sometimes in other cases; e. g. प्रापय्य 'having conducted,' Raghu-v. XIV. 45.

b. The final a of Frequentative stems is of course dropped, and the final ya of both Frequentatives and Nominals, if preceded by a consonant; as, from लोलूय comes -लोलूय्य; from बोबुध्य, -बोबुध्य; from तपस्य, -तपस्य.

Adverbial Indeclinable Participle.

567. There is another Indeclinable Participle yielding the same sense as those formed with tvá and ya, but of rare occurrence. It is equivalent to the accusative case of a noun derived from a root, used adverbially; and is formed by adding अम् am to the root, before which suffix changes of the radical vowel take place, similar to those required before the Causal suffix अय (481) or before the 3rd sing. Aorist Passive (see 475); thus, from नी ní, 'to lead,' नायम् náyam, 'having led;' from पा 'to drink,' पायम् 'having drunk;' from क्षे, क्षायम्; from पच्, पाचम्; from क्षिप्, क्षेपम्; from हन् 'to kill,' घातम्. It often occupies the last place in a compound; as in the expression समूलघातम् 'having totally exterminated;' and in the following passage from Bhatti-k. ii. 11:

लतानुपातं कुसुमान्यगृह्णात् स नद्यवस्कन्दमुपास्पृशच्च ।
कुतूहलाच्चारुशिलोपवेशं काकुत्स्थ ईषत्स्मयमान आस्त ॥

'The descendant of Kakutstha, smiling softly, repeatedly bending down the creepers, would pluck the blossoms; descending to the streams, would sip (the waters); seating himself on some variegated rock, would recline in admiration (of the scene).' Compare also Śakuntalá, Act V, verse 131, बाहूत्क्षेपं क्रन्दितुं प्रवृत्ता 'repeatedly throwing up her arms she began to weep.' Other examples are नामग्राहम् 'mentioning by name,' and जीवग्राहम् 'taking alive.'

a. These Participles generally imply repetition of the action, as above, and in this sense are themselves often repeated; as, dáyam, dáyam, 'having repeatedly given.'.

FUTURE PASSIVE PARTICIPLES.

568. These are gerundive in their character, and may be called verbal adjectives. They may be classed under three heads: 1st, as formed with the suffix तव्य tavya (80. XVIII); 2ndly, as formed with अनीय aníya (80. V); 3rdly, as formed with य ya (80. XXVIII). These suffixes yield a sense corresponding to the Latin Fut. Pass. Part. in dus, and the English able and ible, and most commonly denote 'obligation' or 'propriety' and 'fitness.'

a. In some of the Latin formations with tivus, the Passive sense is preserved, as in captivus, nativus, coctivus. Cf. Sk. dátavya with dativus (dandus), δοτέος; yoktavya with (con)junctivus (jungendus); janitavya with genitivus (gignendus); dhátavya with θετέος, &c.

Future Passive Participles formed with तव्य (80. XVIII).

569. These may be formed by substituting तव्य tavya for ता tá, the termination of the 3rd pers. sing. of the 1st Future; e. g.

From क्षेप्ता ksheptá, 'he will throw,' क्षेप्तव्य ksheptavya, 'to be thrown;' कर्ता 'he will do,' कर्तव्य 'to be done;' fr. भविता 'he will be,' भवितव्य 'about to be;' fr. कुचिता, कुचितव्य (see 390. a); fr. विजिता, विजितव्य.

Obs.—In the case of those roots ending in consonants which reject i, whatever changes take place before tá, the same take place before tavya, and the special rules at 390. a–o will equally apply to this suffix.

Thus, त्यक्ता, त्यक्तव्य (relinquendus); प्रष्टा, प्रष्टव्य; द्रष्टा, द्रष्टव्य; बोद्धा, बोद्धव्य; दग्धा, दग्धव्य; सोढा, सोढव्य; कमिता or कामयिता, कमितव्य or कामयितव्य; दीधिता, दीधितव्य; मार्ष्टा or मार्जिता, मार्ष्टव्य or मार्जितव्य; and from Causal कारयिता, कारयितव्य; from Desid. बुबोधिषिता, बुबोधिषितव्य; from Frequentative बोबुधिता, बोबुधितव्य; from बोभविता, बोभवितव्य. See the rules at 388, 390, 491, 505, 513, 516.

Future Passive Participles formed with अनीय (80. V).

570. This suffix is added directly to the root, and generally without other change than gunation (if Guṇa is admissible).

Thus, fr. चि ci, 'to gather,' चयनीय cayanîya, 'to be gathered;' fr. भू, भवनीय; fr. कृ, करणीय (58); fr. लिख्, लेखनीय; fr. शुध्, शोधनीय; fr. स्पृश्, स्पर्शनीय; fr. कृष्, कर्षणीय; fr. चुर् (cl. 10), चोरणीय: but मृज्, मार्जनीय; गुह्, गूहनीय; दीधी, दीध्यनीय; कम्, कमनीय and कामनीय; गुप्, गोपनीय and गोपायनीय, &c. See 390. j. l. m.

a. A final diphthong is changed to आ á, which blends with the initial a of aníya; as, from ध्यै, ध्यानीय; from गै, गानीय.

b. The roots at 390, 390. a. of course forbid Guṇa; thus, कुचनीय from कुच्; गुवनीय from गु, &c.

c. As to Derivative verbs, aya is rejected from a Causal stem, and a from the stems of other Derivative verbs, and ya, if a consonant precedes.

Thus, बोधनीय from the Causal stem बोधय; बुबोधिषणीय from the Desid. बुबोधिष; also बोभूयनीय, चेक्षिपणीय, fr. the Frequentatives बोभूय, चेक्षिप्य; and तपस्यनीय or तपसनीय fr. the Nominal तपस्य.

Future Passive Participles formed with य (80. XXVIII).

571. Before this suffix, as before all others beginning with y, certain changes of final vowels become necessary.

a. If a root end in आ á, or in ए e, ऐ ai, ओ o, changeable to आ á, this vowel becomes ए e (compare 446); e. g.

From मा má, 'to measure,' मेय meya, 'to be measured,' 'measurable;' fr. हा há, 'to quit,' हेय heya; fr. ध्यै dhyai, 'to meditate,' ध्येय dhyeya; fr. ग्लै 'to be weary,' ग्लेय; fr. दा 'to give,' दे 'to pity,' and दो 'to cut,' देय.

b. If in इ i, ई í, उ u, or ऊ ú, these vowels are gunated; e. g.

From चि ci, चेय ceya (in the Veda चाय्य with उप); but नी with उद्, -नीय.

But the Guṇa ओ o is changed to av, and sometimes ए e to ay, before ya (as if before a vowel); thus, from भू, भव्य; from जि 'to conquer,' जय्य; from क्री 'to buy,' क्रय्य; from क्षि 'to destroy,' क्षय्य.

And the Guṇa ओ o passes into áv before y, especially when it is intended to lay emphasis on the meaning; as, from स्रु, स्राव्य; from प्लु, प्लाव्य; from भू, भाव्य. But धू 'to shake' makes धूय.

c. If in ऋ ṛi or ॠ ṛí, these vowels are vriddhied; e. g.

From कृ 'to do,' कार्य; from भृ 'to support,' भार्य (also भृत्य, see 572); fr. वृ 'to choose,' वार्य (also वृत्य).

d. The roots at 390. c. drop their finals (दीध्य, दरिद्र्य).

572. Sometimes if a root end in a short vowel no change takes place, but t is interposed, after the analogy of the Indeclinable Participle formed with ya at 560;

so that the stem of the Future Participle is often not distinguishable from the Indeclinable; thus, from जि ji, 'to conquer,' जित्य jitya (also jeya), 'conquerable;' from स्तु stu, 'to praise,' स्तुत्य stutya, 'laudable;' from कृ kṛi, 'to do,' कृत्य kṛitya (as well as कार्य), 'practicable;' from इ 'to go,' इत्य 'to be gone;' from आदृ 'to honour,' आदृत्य 'to be honoured.'

573. If a root end in a single consonant with a medial a, the latter may be vriddhied; as, fr. ग्रह् grah, 'to take,' ग्राह्य gráhya; fr. लप् 'to be ashamed,' लाप्य; fr. कम् 'to love,' काम्य: but not always; as, fr. शक्, शक्य; fr. सह्, सह्य; fr. बध्, बध्य; fr. यत्, यत्य: and not if the final is a labial (except लप्, रप्, लप्); as, fr. गम्, गम्य; fr. शप्, शप्य; fr. लभ् 'to receive,' लभ्य (and लभ्य). The root मद् 'to be mad' makes माद्य after prepositions, but otherwise मद्य. Similarly, गद् and चर्. The root भज् 'to serve' makes भज्य and भाग्य (see 574).

a. If with a medial इ i or उ u, these are generally gunated; as, from भुज्, भोज्य; from लिह्, लेह्य; but जुष्, जुष्य: and sometimes only optionally; as, गुह् makes गुह्य as well as गोह्य; and दुह्, दुह्य and दोह्य.

b. If with a medial ऋ ṛi, no change generally takes place; as, fr. स्पृश्, स्पृश्य; fr. दृश्, दृश्य; fr. सृज्, सृज्य (after अव and सम्, सर्ग्य); fr. मृज्, मृज्य (also मार्ग्य): but fr. वृष्, वृष्य or वर्ष्य.

c. The roots at 390, 390. a. are, as usual, debarred from Guṇa; thus, कुच्य, &c.

574. A final च् ć may sometimes be changed to क् k, and final ज् j to ग् g, when the Past Passive Participle rejects i; as, from पच् pać, पाक्य pákya and पाच्य páćya; from युज्, योग्य or युग्य. When the final is unchanged, as in páćya, the obligation implied is said to be more absolute; but the two forms may have distinct meanings; thus, bhojya (fr. bhuj) means 'to be eaten,' but bhogya, 'to be enjoyed;' váćya (fr. vać) means 'proper to be said,' but vákya, 'that which is actually to be said.'

a. Again, त्याज्य (fr. त्यज्) is used after the prepositions नि and प्र, otherwise त्याग्य. Similarly, योज्य (fr. युज्) after नि and प्र, and यज्य or याज्य (fr. यज्) after the same prepositions.

b. Other anomalous changes may take place, some of which are similar to those before the ya of Passives; thus, fr. ग्रह्, गृह्य as well as ग्राह्य (472); fr. वद्, उद्य (471, also वद्य); fr. यज्, इज्य (471); fr. शास्, शिष्य (472. c); fr. खन् 'to dig,' खेय; fr. शंस् 'to praise,' शस्य or शंस्य; fr. भ्रस्ज् 'to fry,' भर्ज्य or भ्रज्य; fr. हन्, वध्य or घात्य.

c. The roots beginning with गुप् at 390. l. have two forms; thus, गोप्य or गोपाय्य.

575. Many of these Participles are used as substantives; thus, वाक्य n. 'speech;' भोज्य n. 'food;' भोग्या f. 'a harlot;' इज्या f. 'sacrifice;' खेय n. 'a ditch;' भार्या f. 'a wife,' fr. भृ 'to support,' &c.

576. The suffix ya may be added to Desiderative, Frequentative, and Nominal stems in the same way as aníya (570); thus, बुबोधिष्य, बोभूय्य, चेक्षिष्य, तपस्य. So also, from मुसल 'a pestle,' मुसल्य 'to be pounded with a pestle.'

a. अ a added to a root after gunation (if Guṇa is possible) gives the sense of a Future Passive Participle when in composition with सु, दुस्, and ईषत्; as, सुकर 'easy to be done,' दुष्कर 'difficult to be done,' दुस्तर 'difficult to be crossed.' See 80. I.

b. Again, a suffix एलिम added to a few roots has the same force as the suffixes of the Future Passive Participle; e. g. पचेलिम 'fit to ripen' or 'to be cooked,' भिदेलिम 'to be broken.'

577. The inflexion of Future Passive Participles follows that of adjectives at 187; thus, कर्तव्य 'to be done;' N. sing. m. f. n. kartavyas, -á, -am. Similarly, karaṇíyas, -á, -am; and káryas, -á, -am.

PARTICIPLES OF THE SECOND FUTURE.—FORMATION OF STEM.

578. These are not common. They are of two kinds, either Parasmai-pada or Átmane-pada; and, like Present Participles, are most easily formed by changing अन्ति anti, the termination of the 3rd pl. of the 2nd Fut., into अत् at, for the Par.; and by changing अन्ते ante into अमान amána, for the Átm.; thus, from करिष्यन्ति karishyanti and करिष्यन्ते karishyante, 'they will do,' come करिष्यत् karishyat and करिष्यमाण karishyamáṇa (58), 'about to do;' from the Passive 2nd Fut. वक्ष्यन्ते 'they will be said' comes वक्ष्यमाण 'about to be said' (see 84. I. and 80. XXVII).

a. In their inflexion (see 141), as well as in their formation, they resemble Present Participles; see 524 and 526.

Obs.—Cf. Greek in δωσό-μενο-ς = dásya-mána-s.

PARTICIPIAL NOUNS OF AGENCY.

579. These have been already incidentally noticed at 80, 83, 84, 85, 87. As, however, they partake of the nature of Participles, and are often used as Participles (see Syntax, 909–911), a fuller explanation of them is here given. They may be classed under three heads: 1st, as formed from the root; 2ndly, as formed from the same stem as the 1st Future; 3rdly, as formed from the root by changes similar to those which form the Causal stem.

580. The stem of the first class is often identical with the root itself; that is, the unchanged root is frequently used at the end of compounds as a noun of agency, t being added if it ends in a short vowel; see examples at 84. III. and 87.

a. Another common noun of agency is formed from the root by affixing अ a (as in the first group of conjugational classes at 257), before which a, Guṇa, and rarely Vṛiddhi, of a final vowel is required; as, from जि ji, 'to conquer,' जय jaya, 'conquering.' Medial vowels are generally unchanged; as, from वद् vad, 'to say,' वद vada, 'saying;' from तुद् tud, 'to vex,' तुद tuda, 'vexing' (see 80. I).

b. And final आ á, अम् am, or अन् an are dropped; as, from दा dá, 'to give,' द da, 'giving;' from गम् gam, 'to go,' ग ga, 'going;' from जन् jan, 'to be born,' ज ja, 'being born.' Their declension follows that of adjectives at 187.

581. The stem of the second class (see 83) may be always inferred from the 3rd pers. sing. of the 1st Fut. of Primitive verbs, the vowel ऋ ṛi being substituted for the final vowel á, the nominative case being therefore identical with the 3rd pers. sing. of that tense (see 386).

Thus, भोक्ता bhoktá, 'he will eat,' भोक्तृ bhoktṛi, 'an eater;' योद्धा 'he will fight,' योद्धृ 'a fighter;' याचिता 'he will ask,' याचितृ 'an asker;' सोढा 'he will bear,' सोढृ 'a bearer,' &c. They are inflected at 127.

582. The stem of the third class is formed in three ways.

a. By adding इन् in to the root (see 85. II), before which suffix changes take place similar to those required before the Causal suffix aya (481, 482, 483); as, from कृ, कारिन् kárin, 'a doer;' from हन् (488), घातिन् ghátin, 'a killer;' from शी, शायिन् 'a sleeper:' y being inserted after roots in á (483); as, from पा, पायिन् 'a drinker;' from दा, दायिन् dáyin, 'a giver.' They are inflected at 159.

b. By adding अक aka to the root (see 80. II), before which suffix changes take place analogous to those before the Causal aya (481, 482, 483); as, fr. कृ, कारक káraka, 'a doer,' 'doing;' fr. नी, नायक náyaka, 'a leader,' 'leading;' fr. ग्रह्, ग्राहक gráhaka; fr. सिध्, साधक; fr. हन्, घातक; fr. दुष्, दूषक; fr. क्रम्, क्रमक; fr. नन्द्, नन्दक; fr. स्था, स्थापक.

c. By adding अन ana to some few roots ending in consonants (see 80. IV), after changes similar to those required in forming the Causal stem; as, fr. नन्द्, नन्दन nandana, 'rejoicing;' fr. दुष्, दूषण 'vitiating;' fr. शुध्, शोधन 'cleansing.'

The inflexion of the last two follows that of adjectives at 187.

EXAMPLES OF INFLECTED VERBS.

583. The following tables give a synopsis of the inflexion of the Primitive forms of the ten roots: बुध् budh, cl. 1, 'to know;' नृत् nṛit, cl. 4, 'to dance;' दिश् diś, cl. 6, 'to point out;' युज् yuj, cl. 10, 'to unite;' विद् vid, cl. 2, 'to know;' भृ bhṛi, cl. 3, 'to bear;' भिद् bhid, cl. 7, 'to break;' चि ći, cl. 5, 'to gather;' तन् tan, cl. 8, 'to stretch;' पू pú, cl. 9, 'to purify:' classes 1, 4, 6, and 10; 2, 3, and 7; and 5, 7, and 9, being grouped together as at 257–259. Then the Passive forms of these ten roots are given, followed by the Present tense of the Causal, Desiderative, and Frequentative forms, and the Participles.

PARASMAI-PADA (see 327).

584. Although this root belongs to cl. 2, its inflexion is exhibited here, both because it is sometimes used as an auxiliary, and because it is desirable to study its inflexion together with that of the other substantive verb भू bhú, 'to be' (585), which supplies many of the tenses in which अस् is defective. Two other roots are sometimes employed as substantive verbs, with the sense 'to be,' viz. स्था cl. 1, 'to stand' (see 269, 587), and आस् cl. 2, 'to sit' (see 317. a). Indeed, the root अस् as, here inflected, is probably only an abbreviation of आस् ás.

The cognate languages have two roots similar to the Sanskrit for the substantive verb 'to be.' Cf. φύ and εσ in Greek, es (sum) and fu (fui) in Latin; and observe how the different parts of the Sanskrit verbs correspond to the Greek and Latin; thus, asmi, asi, asti: ἐμμί, ἐσσί, ἐστί; sum, es, est. Cf. also santi with sunt: ástam, ástám, with ἦστον, ἤστην; ásma, ásta, ásan, with ἦμεν, ἦστε, ἦσαν, &c.

Present, 'I am.'

Obs.—The root as, 'to be,' has no Derivative forms, and only two Participles, viz. सत् sat, Pres. Par., सान sána, Pres. Átm. (see 524, 526). The Special tenses have an Átmane-pada, which is not used unless the root is compounded with prepositions. In this Pada ह् h is substituted for the root in 1st sing. Pres., and स् s is dropped before dh in 2nd pl.; thus, Pres. he, se, ste; svahe, sáthe, sáte; smahe, dhve, sate: Impf. dsi, dsthás, ásta; ásvahi, ásáthám, ásátám; ásmahi, ádhvam, ásata: Pot. síya, síthás, síta; sívahi, síyáthám, síyátám; símahi, sídhvam, síran: Impv. asai, sva, stám; asávahai, sáthám, sátám; asámahai, dhvam, satám: see 327.

* The Perfect of as is not used by itself, but is employed in forming the Perfect of Causals and some other verbs, see 385, 490; in which case the Átmane may be used. The other tenses of as are wanting, and are supplied from bhú at 585.

CHAPTER VII.

INDECLINABLE WORDS.

712. THERE are in Sanskṛit a number of words used as nouns having only one inflexion, which may be classed among indeclinables; e. g. अस्तम् 'setting,' 'decline;' अस्ति 'what exists,' 'existence;' ओम् 'the sacred syllable Om;' चनस् 'satisfaction,' 'food;' नमस् 'reverence;' नास्ति 'non-existence;' वदि or वदि 'the fortnight of the moon's wane;' भुवर् 'sky;' भूर् 'earth;' शम् 'ease;' संवत् 'a year;' सुदि or शुदि 'the fortnight of the moon's increase;' स्वधा an exclamation used on making oblations to the spirits of the dead; स्वर् 'heaven;' स्वस्ति 'salutation' (see Gaṇa Svarádi to Páṇ. 1. 1, 37). Others will be mentioned at 713–717.

a. Adverbs (nipáta), like nouns and verbs, may be divided into simple and compound. The latter are treated of in the next Chapter on Compound Words. Simple adverbs may be classified under four heads: 1st, those formed from the cases of nouns and obsolete words; 2ndly, other adverbs of less obvious derivation; 3rdly, adverbial suffixes; 4thly, adverbial prefixes.

Formed from the Cases of Nouns and Obsolete Words.

713. The Accusative neuter of many adjectives;

As, सत्यम् 'truly;' बहु 'much;' शीघ्रम्, क्षिप्रम्, 'quickly;' युक्तम् 'fitly;' मनीषम्

'near;' ध्रुवम् 'certainly;' लघु 'lightly;' निर्भरम्, अत्यन्तम्, गाढम्, भृशम्, 'exceedingly;' अवश्यम् 'certainly;' नित्यम् 'constantly;' चिरम् 'for a long while;' बलवत् 'strongly;' भूयस् 'again,' 'repeatedly' (194); केवलम् 'only,' 'merely;' साधु 'very well.'

b. The Acc. neuter of certain substantives and obsolete words; as, रहस् 'secretly;' कामम् 'willingly;' स्वयम् 'of one's own accord,' 'of one's self,' 'spontaneously;' नाम 'by name,' 'that is to say;' वारं वारम् 'repeatedly;' चिरम् 'long ago;' सुखम् 'pleasantly;' साम्प्रतम् 'now;' नक्तम् 'by night' (noctu); सायम् 'in the evening' (this last may be an ind. part. of so, 'to finish').

714. The Instrumental of nouns, pronouns, and obsolete words;

As, धर्मेण 'virtuously;' दक्षिणेन 'to the right,' 'southwards;' उत्तरेण 'northwards;' व्यतिरेकेण 'without;' उच्चैस् 'above,' 'aloud;' नीचैस् 'below;' शनैस् or शनकैस् 'slowly;' तेन 'therefore;' येन 'wherefore;' अन्तरा or अन्तरेण 'without,' 'except;' क्षणेन 'instantly;' चिरेण 'for a long time;' अचिरेण 'in a short time;' अशेषेण 'entirely;' दिवा 'by day;' दिष्ट्या 'fortunately;' सहसा, अञ्जसा, 'quickly;' अधुना 'now;' विहायसा 'in the air;' पुरा 'formerly;' क्षमा 'on the ground' (χαμαί).

a. The Dative case more rarely;

Observe—Some of the above are properly conjunctions; see 727.

Adverbial Suffixes.

718. चिद् cid, अपि api, and चन cana may form indefinite adverbs of time and place, when affixed to interrogative adverbs;

As, from कदा 'when?' कदाचिद्, कदापि, and कदाचन, 'sometimes;' from कुत्र and क्व 'where?' कुत्रचिद्, कुत्रापि, क्वचिद्, क्वापि, 'somewhere;' from कुतस् 'whence?' कुतश्चिद् and कुतश्चन 'from somewhere;' from कति 'how many?' कतिचिद् 'a few;' from कर्हि 'when?' कर्हिचिद् 'at some time;' from कथम् 'how?' कथमपि, कथञ्चन, 'somehow or other,' 'with some difficulty.' Compare 228, 230.

a. अपि following a word, generally signifies 'even,' but after numerals, 'all,' as त्रयोऽपि 'all three;' सर्वेऽपि 'all together.'

719. तस् tas may be added to the stem of any noun, and to some pronouns, to form adverbs;

As, from यत्न, यत्नतस् 'with effort;' from आदि, आदितस् 'from the beginning;' from त (the proper stem of the pronoun तद्), ततस् 'thence,' 'then,' 'thereupon,' 'therefore:' similarly, यतस् 'whence,' 'since,' 'because;' अतस्, इतस्, अमुतस्, 'hence,' 'hereupon.'

Obs.—In affixing tas to pronouns, the stem त is used for तद्, अ for एतद्, इ for इदम्, अमु for अदस्, य for यद्, कु for किम्.

a. This suffix usually gives the sense of the preposition 'from,' and is often equivalent to the ablative case; as in मत्तस् 'from me;' त्वत्तस् 'from thee*;' पितृतस् 'from a father;' शत्रुतस् 'from an enemy.'

b. But it is sometimes vaguely employed to express other relations; as, पृष्ठतस् 'behind the back;' अन्यतस् 'to another place,' 'elsewhere;' प्रथमतस् 'in the first place;' इतस्ततस् 'here and there,' 'hither and thither;' समन्ततस् 'on all sides;' समीपतस् 'in the neighbourhood;' पुरतस्, अग्रतस्, 'in front;' अभितस् 'near to;' विभवतस् 'in pomp or state.'

c. तात् is a suffix which generally denotes 'place' or 'direction;' as, from अधस्, अधस्तात् 'downwards;' from उपरि (which becomes उपरिस्), उपरिष्टात् 'above' (cf. 84. V).

720. त्र tra, forming adverbs of place with a locative sense from stems of pronouns, adjectives, &c.;

As, अत्र 'here;' तत्र 'there;' कुत्र 'where?' यत्र 'where;' सर्वत्र 'everywhere;' अन्यत्र 'in another place;' एकत्र 'in one place;' बहुत्र 'in many places;' अमुत्र 'there,' 'in the next world.'

a. त्रा trá; as, देवत्रा 'among the gods;' मनुष्यत्रा 'among men' (Pán. v. 4, 56); बहुत्रा 'amongst many.'

723. धा dhá, forming adverbs of distribution from numerals;

As, एकधा 'in one way;' द्विधा 'in two ways;' षोधा 'in six ways;' शतधा 'in a hundred ways;' सहस्रधा 'in a thousand ways;' बहुधा or अनेकधा 'in many ways.'

a. कृत्वस्, signifying 'times,' is added to पञ्च, 'five,' and other numerals, as explained at 215. सकृत्, 'once,' may be a corruption of सकृत्वस् ('this time'); and only स् is added to द्वि, त्रि, and dropped after चतुर् 'four times.'

724. वत् vat (technically called vati) may be added to any nominal stem to form adverbs of comparison or similitude (see 922);

As, from सूर्य, सूर्यवत् 'like the sun;' from पूर्व, पूर्ववत् 'as before.' It may be used in connexion with a word in the Accusative case.

a. This suffix often expresses 'according to;' as, विधिवत् 'according to rule;' प्रयोजनवत् 'according to need.' It may also be added to adverbs; as, यथावत् 'truly' (exactly as it took place).

---

* These are the forms generally used for the Ablative case of the personal pronouns, the proper Ablative cases मत्, त्वत् being rarely used.

725. शस् śas, forming adverbs of quantity, &c.;

As, बहुशस् 'abundantly;' अल्पशस् 'in small quantities;' सर्वशस् 'wholly;' एकशस् 'singly;' शतसहस्रशस् 'by hundreds and thousands;' क्रमशस् 'by degrees;' मुख्यशस् 'principally;' पादशस् 'foot by foot;' द्विशस् 'two by two;' त्रिशस् 'by threes;' अनेकशस् 'in great numbers;' अक्षरशस् 'syllable by syllable;' तावच्छस् 'in so many ways;' कतिशस् 'how many at a time?'

a. सात् is added to nouns in connexion with the roots कृ, अस्, and भू, to denote a complete change to the condition of the thing signified by the noun; as, अग्नि-सात् 'to the state of fire.' See 789, and cf. 70. i.

Adverbial Prefixes.

726. अ a, prefixed to nouns and even to participles with a privative or negative force, corresponding to the Greek α, the Latin in, and the English in, im, un; as, from शक्य 'possible,' अशक्य 'impossible;' from स्पृशत् 'touching' (pres. part.), अस्पृशत् 'not touching;' from कृत्वा 'having done' (indecl. part.), अकृत्वा 'not having done.' When a word begins with a vowel, अन् is euphonically substituted; as, from अन्त 'end,' अनन्त 'endless.'

a. अति ati, 'excessively,' 'very;' as, अतिमहत् 'very great.'

b. आ á, implying 'diminution;' as, आपाण्डु 'somewhat pale.'

ईषत् is prefixed with the same sense; as, ईषदुष्ण 'slightly warm.'

c. का ká or कु ku, prefixed to words to imply 'disparagement;' as, कापुरुष 'a coward;' कुरूप 'deformed.'

d. दुस् dus (or दुर् dur), prefixed to imply 'badly' or 'with difficulty;' as, दुष्कृत 'badly done' (see 72); दुर्भेद्य 'not easily broken.' It is opposed to सु, and corresponds to the Greek δυσ-.

e. निस् nis (or निर् nir) and वि vi are prefixed to nouns like अ a with a privative or negative sense; as, निर्बल 'powerless;' निष्फल 'without fruit' (see 72); विशस्त्र 'unarmed:' but not to participles.

f. सु su, prefixed to imply 'well,' 'easily;' as, सुकृत 'well done;' सुभेद्य 'easily broken.' In this sense it is opposed to दुस्, and corresponds to the Greek εὖ. It is also used for अति, to imply 'very,' 'excessively;' as, सुमहत् 'very great.'

CONJUNCTIONS.

Copulative.

727. च ca, 'and,' 'also,' corresponding to the Latin que and not to et. It can never, therefore, stand as the first word in a sentence, but follows the word of which it is the copulative. चैव (च एव), 'also,' is a common combination.

a. उत 'and,' 'also,' is sometimes copulative. Sometimes it implies doubt or interrogation.

b. तथा 'so,' 'thus,' 'in like manner' (see 721), is not unfrequently used for च, in the sense of 'also;' and like च is then generally placed after the word which it connects with another.

c. अथ 'now,' 'and,' अथो 'then,' are inceptive, being frequently used at the commencement of sentences or narratives. अथ is often opposed to इति, which marks the close of a story or chapter.

d. हि, 'for,' is a causal conjunction; like च it is always placed after its word, and never admitted to the first place in a sentence.

e. यदि, चेद्, both meaning 'if,' are conditional conjunctions.

f. ततस् 'upon that,' 'then' (719), तत् 'then,' अन्यच्च, किञ्च, अपरञ्च, परञ्च, अपिच, 'again,' 'moreover,' are all copulatives, used very commonly in narration.

Disjunctive.

728. वा vá, 'or' (like -ve in Latin), is always placed after its word, being never admitted to the first place in a sentence.

a. तु, किन्तु, 'but;' the former is placed after its word.

b. यद्यपि 'although;' तथापि 'nevertheless,' 'yet,' sometimes used as a correlative to the last; अथवा, किं वा, 'or else;' न वा 'or not;' यदि वा 'whether,' 'whether or no.'

c. अथवा may also be used to correct or qualify a previous thought, when it is equivalent to 'but no,' 'yet,' 'however.'

d. स्म, ह, नु, वै are expletives, often used in poetry to fill up the verse.

PREPOSITIONS.

729. There are about twenty prepositions (see 783), but in later Sanskṛit they are generally prefixes, qualifying the sense of verbs (and then called upasarga) or of verbal derivatives (and then called gati). About ten may be used separately or detached in government with the cases of nouns (and then called karma-pravaćaníya); e. g. आ, प्रति, अनु, अति, अधि, अभि, परि, अप, अपि, and उप; but of these the first three only are commonly found as separable particles in classical Sanskṛit.

730. आ á, generally signifying 'as far as,' 'up to,' 'until,' with Abl.; as, आ समुद्रात् 'as far as the ocean;' आ मनोस् 'up to Manu;' आ मणिबन्धनात् 'as far as the wrist;' आ मृत्योस् 'till death;' आ व्रतस्य समापनात् 'till the completion of his vow:' and rarely with Acc.; as, शतम् आ जातीस् 'for a hundred births.'

a. आ á may sometimes express 'from;' as, आ मूलात् 'from the beginning;' आ प्रथमदर्शनात् 'from the first sight;' आ जन्मनस् 'from birth.'

b. It may also be compounded with a word in the Accusative neuter forming with it an Avyayí-bháva (see 760); thus, आमेखलम् 'as far as the girdle' (where मेखलम् is for मेखलाम्).

c. प्रति prati, generally a postposition, signifying 'at,' 'with regard to,' 'to,' 'towards,' 'against,' with Acc.; as, गङ्गां प्रति 'at the Ganges;' धर्मं प्रति 'with regard to justice;' शत्रुं प्रति 'against an enemy;' मां प्रति 'as far as regards me.' When denoting 'in the place of,' it governs the Ablative.

d. अनु 'after,' with Acc., and rarely with Abl. or Gen.; as, गङ्गाया अनु 'along the Ganges;' तदनु or ततोऽनु 'after that.'

e. प्रति, and more rarely अनु and अभि, may be used distributively to signify 'each,' 'every;' thus, वृक्षमनु 'tree by tree.' They may also be prefixed to form Avyayí-bhávas; प्रतिवत्सरम् or अनुवत्सरम् 'every year,' 'year by year.' See 760.

f. अति, अभि, परि are said to require the Accusative; अधि the Locative or Accusative; अप and परि, in the sense 'except,' the Ablative; उप the Locative and Accusative: but examples of such syntax are not common in classical Sanskṛit.

g. Instances are common of prepositions united with the neuter form or Accusative of nouns, so as to form compounds (760. b); as, प्रतिस्कन्धम् 'upon the shoulders;' प्रतिमुखम् 'face to face;' अधिवृक्षम् 'upon the tree;' अनुगङ्गम् 'along the Ganges.'

ADVERBS IN GOVERNMENT WITH NOUNS.

731. There are many adverbs used like the preceding prepositions in government with nouns, and often placed after the nouns which they govern (for examples see 917).

These are, अग्रे 'before,' 'in front of,' with Gen.; अधरेण 'under,' with Gen. or Acc.; अधस् or अधस्तात् 'below,' with Gen. (अधस् is sometimes doubled; thus, अधोऽधस्); अनन्तरम् 'after,' 'afterwards,' with Gen.; अन्तर् 'within,' with Gen. or Loc.; अन्तरेण 'without,' 'except,' 'with regard to,' with Acc.; अन्तिकम् 'near,' with Gen. or Abl.; अभितस् 'on both sides of,' with Acc.; अभिमुखम् 'in front of,' with Gen. or Acc.; अभ्यासे 'near,' with Gen.; अर्थम् or अर्थाय or अर्थे 'on account of,' 'for,' with Gen.; अवाक् 'after,' 'beyond,' with Abl.; उत्तरात् 'to the north,' with Gen.; उत्तरेण 'to the north,' with Gen. or Acc.; उपरि 'above,' 'over,' 'upon,' with Gen. or Acc. (sometimes doubled; thus, उपर्युपरि); ऊर्ध्वम् 'above,' 'over,' 'upon,' with Gen. or Acc.; 'after,' 'beyond,' with Abl.; ऋते 'besides,' 'without,' 'except,' with Acc., sometimes with Abl.; कारणात् or कृते 'on account of,' 'for,' with Gen.; दक्षिणात् 'to the south,' with Gen.; दक्षिणेन 'to the right,' 'to the south,' with Gen. or Acc.; निमित्ते 'for the sake of,' 'for,' with Gen.; परतस् 'behind,' with Gen.; परम् or परेण 'after,' 'beyond,' with Abl.; पश्चात् 'after,' with Gen. or Abl.; पारे 'on the further side,' with Gen.; पुरतस् or पुरस् 'before,' 'in the presence of,' with Gen.; पूर्वम् 'before,' with Abl., rarely with Gen. or Acc.; प्रभृति 'inde a,' 'from a particular time,' 'beginning with,' with Abl.; प्राक् 'before,' with Abl., rarely with Gen. or Acc.; मध्ये 'in the middle,' with Gen.; बहिस् 'out,' 'outside of,' with Abl. or Gen.; यावत् 'up to,' 'as far as,' sometimes with Acc.; विना 'without,' with Inst. or Acc. or sometimes with Abl.; सकाशम् 'near,' with Gen.; सकाशात् 'from,' with Gen.; समक्षम् 'before the eyes,' 'in the presence of,' with Gen.; समम् 'together with,' with Inst.; समीपतस् or समीपम् 'near,' with Gen.; सह 'with,' 'along with,' with Inst.; साकम् 'with,' with Inst.; साक्षात् 'before the eyes,' 'in the presence of,' with Gen.; सार्धम् 'along with,' with Inst.; हेतोस् or हेतौ 'on account of,' 'for the sake of,' 'for,' with Gen.

Obs.—Many of the above, especially अर्थम्*, अर्थे, कारणात्, कृते, निमित्ते, हेतोस्, हेतौ, &c., are more usually found at the end of a compound, after a nominal stem.

a. The adverb अलम्, 'enough,' is used with the Inst. (see 918).

b. Some of the adverbs enumerated at 714, 715, may be used in government with the cases of nouns; e. g. दक्षिणेन, उत्तरेण above. व्यतिरेकेण, 'without,' is generally placed after the stem of a noun.

INTERJECTIONS.

732. भोस्, भो, हे are vocative; रे, अरे less respectfully vocative, or sometimes expressive of 'contempt.' धिक् expresses 'contempt,' 'abhorrence,' 'fie!' 'shame!' (with Accusative case); आस्, अहो, अहह, 'surprise,' 'alarm;' हा, हाहा, अहो, अहोबत, बत, 'grief;' साधु, सुष्ठु, 'approbation;' स्वस्ति, 'salutation.'

CHAPTER VIII.

COMPOUND WORDS.

733. COMPOUNDS abound in Sanskṛit to a degree wholly unequalled in any other language, and it becomes necessary to study the principles on which they are constructed, before the learner can hope to understand the simplest sentence in the most elementary book. In the foregoing chapters we have treated of simple nouns, simple verbs, and simple adverbs. We have now to treat of compound nouns, compound verbs, and compound adverbs.

---

* अर्थम् is generally found in composition with a nominal stem, and may be compounded adjectively to agree with another noun; as, द्विजार्थः सूपस् 'broth for the Bráhman;' द्विजार्थं पयस् 'milk for the Bráhman.' See 760. d.

a. Observe, that in this chapter the nom. case, and not the stem, of a substantive terminating a compound will be given; and in the instance of an adjective forming the last member of a compound, the nom. case masc., fem., and neut. The examples are chiefly taken from the Hitopadeśa, and sometimes the oblique cases in which they are there found have been retained.

SECTION I.

COMPOUND NOUNS.

734. The student has now arrived at that portion of the grammar in which the use of the stem of the noun becomes most strikingly apparent. This use has been already noticed at 77; and its formation explained at 80–87.

a. In almost all compound nouns the last word alone admits of inflexion, and the preceding word or words require to be placed in the stem, to which a plural as well as singular signification may be attributed. Instances, however, will be given in which the characteristic signs of case and number are retained in the first member of the compound, but these are exceptional.

b. It may here be noted, that while Sanskṛit generally exhibits the first member or members of a compound in the stem with the final letter unchanged, except by the usual euphonic laws, Latin frequently and Greek less frequently change the final vowel of the stem into the light vowel i; and both Greek and Latin often make use of a vowel of conjunction, which in Greek is generally o, but occasionally ι; thus, cœli-cola for cœlu-cola or cœlo-cola; lani-ger for lana-ger; χαλκί-ναος, ἰχθυ-ο-φάγος, fœder-i-fragus. Both Greek and Latin, however, possess many compounds which are completely analogous to Sanskṛit formations. In English we have occasional examples of the use of a conjunctive vowel, as in 'handicraft' for 'hand-craft.'

Obs.—A dot placed underneath words in Nágarí type marks the division of the different members of a compound.

735. Native grammarians class compound nouns under six heads:

I. DVANDVA, or those formed by the aggregation into one compound of two or more nouns (the last word being, according to circumstances, either in the dual, plural, or neuter singular, and the preceding word or words being in the stem), when, if uncompounded, they would all be in the same case, connected by a copulative conjunction; as, गुरुशिष्यौ 'master and pupil' (for गुरुः शिष्यश्च); मरणव्याधिशोकाः 'death, sickness, and sorrow' (for मरणं व्याधिः शोकश्च); पाणिपादम् 'hand and foot' (for पाणिः पादश्च).

II. TAT-PURUSHA, or those composed of two nouns, the first of which (being in the stem) would be, if uncompounded, in a case different from, or dependent on, the last; as, चन्द्रप्रभा 'moon-light' (for चन्द्रस्य प्रभा 'the light of the moon'); शस्त्रकुशलः, -ला, -लम्, 'skilled in arms' (for शस्त्रेषु कुशलः); मणिभूषितः, -ता, -तम्, 'adorned with gems' (for मणिभिर् भूषितः).

III. KARMA-DHÁRAYA, or those composed of an adjective or participle and substantive, the adjective or participle being placed first in its stem, when, if uncompounded, it would be in grammatical concord with the substantive; as, साधुजनः 'a good person' (for साधुर् जनः); सर्वद्रव्याणि 'all things' (for सर्वाणि द्रव्याणि).

IV. DVIGU, or those in which the stem of a numeral is compounded with a noun, either so as to form a singular collective noun, or an adjective; as, त्रिगुणम् 'three qualities' (for त्रयो गुणाः); त्रिगुणः, -णा, -णम्, 'possessing the three qualities.'

V. BAHU-VRÍHI, or attributive compounds, generally epithets of other nouns. These, according to Páṇini (II. 2, 24), are formed by compounding two or more words to qualify the sense of another word; thus, प्राप्तोदको ग्रामः for प्राप्तम् उदकं यं ग्रामम् 'a village to which the water has come.'

VI. AVYAYÍ-BHÁVA, or those resulting from the combination of a preposition or adverbial prefix with a noun. The latter, whatever may be its gender, always takes the form of an accusative neuter and becomes indeclinable.

a. Observe—These names either furnish examples of the several kinds of compounds, or give some sort of definition of them; thus, द्वन्द्वः (scil. समासः) is a definition of the 1st kind, meaning 'conjunction;' तत्पुरुषः, 'his servant,' is an example of the 2nd kind (for तस्य पुरुषः); कर्मधारयः is a somewhat obscure definition of the 3rd kind, i.e. 'that which contains or comprehends (धारयति) the object' (कर्म); द्विगुः is an example of the 4th kind, meaning 'anything to the value of two cows;' बहुव्रीहिः is an example of the 5th kind, meaning 'possessed of much rice.' The 6th class, अव्ययीभावः avyayí-bhávaḥ, means 'the indeclinable state' ('that which does not change,' na vyeti).

736. It should be stated, however, that the above six kinds of compounds really form, according to the native theory, only four classes, as the 3rd and 4th (i. e. the Karma-dhâraya and Dvigu) are regarded as subdivisions of the Tat-purusha class.

Obs.—Pâṇini (1. 2, 42) calls a Karma-dhârayaḥ a Tatpurushaḥ samánádhikaraṇaḥ.

As such a classification appears to lead to some confusion from the absence of sufficient distinctness and opposition between the several parts or members of the division, the subject will be discussed according to a different method, although it has been thought desirable to preserve the Indian names and to keep the native arrangement in view.

737. Compound nouns may be regarded either as simply or complexly compounded. The latter have reference to a class of compounds within compounds, very prevalent in poetry, involving two or three species of simple compounds under one head.

SIMPLY COMPOUNDED NOUNS.

738. These we will divide into, 1st, Dependent compounds or compounds dependent in case (corresponding to Tat-purusha); 2nd, Copulative (or Aggregative, Dvandva); 3rd, Descriptive* (or Determinative, Karma-dhâraya); 4th, Numeral (or Collective, Dvigu); 5th, Adverbial (or Indeclinable, Avyayí-bhâva); 6th, Relative (Bahu-vríhi). This last consists of, a. Relative form of absolute Dependent compounds, terminated by substantives; b. Relative form of Copulative or Aggregative compounds; c. Relative form of Descriptive or Determinative compounds; d. Relative form of Numeral or Collective compounds; e. Relative form of Adverbial compounds.

a. Observe—A list of the substitutions which take place in the final syllables of certain words in compounds is given at 778.

DEPENDENT COMPOUNDS (TAT-PURUSHA).

Accusatively Dependent.

739. These comprehend all those compounds in which the relation of the first word (being in the stem) to the last is equivalent to that of an accusative case. They are generally composed of a noun in the first member, and a participle (but not a present or indeclinable

* As being composed of an adjective or participle preceding a substantive, and always descriptive of the substantive. Bopp calls them 'Determinativa,' a word of similar import.

participle), root, or noun of agency in the last; as, स्वर्गप्राप्तः, -प्ता, -प्तम्, 'one who has obtained heaven' (equivalent to स्वर्गं प्राप्तः); प्रियवादी 'one who speaks kind words;' बहुदः 'one who gives much;' देवस्तुत् 'god-praising;' शस्त्रभृत् 'one who bears arms;' पत्रगतः, -ता, -तम्, 'committed to a leaf,' 'committed to paper' (as 'writing'); चित्रगतः, -ता, -तम्, 'committed to painting;' दर्शनीयमानी, -निनी, -नि, 'thinking one's self handsome.'

a. गत 'gone' (past pass. part. of गम् 'to go') is used loosely at the end of compounds of this description to express relationship and connexion, without any necessary implication of motion. In पत्रगत, चित्रगत above, and in others (such as शिलाभेदगतो मणिः 'a jewel lying in the cleft of a rock;' हस्ततलगतः, -ता, -तम्, 'lying in the palm of the hand'), it has the sense of स्थ 'staying:' but it may often have other senses; as, गोष्ठीगतः, -ता, -तम्, 'engaged in conversation;' सखीगतं किञ्चित् 'something relating to a friend.'

b. In theatrical language आत्मगतम् and स्वगतम् (lit. 'gone to one's self') mean 'spoken to one's self,' 'aside.'

c. Before nouns of agency and similar forms the accusative case is often retained, especially in poetry; as, अरिन्दमः, -मा, -मम्, 'enemy-subduing;' हृदयङ्गमः, -मा, -मम् 'heart-touching;' भयङ्करः, -री, -रम्, 'fear-inspiring' (see 580. a); सागरङ्गमः, -मा, -मम्, 'going to the ocean;' पण्डितम्मन्यः, -न्या, -न्यम्, 'one who thinks himself learned;' रात्रिम्मन्यः 'one who thinks it night.'

Instrumentally Dependent,

740. Or those in which the relation of the first word (being in the stem) to the last is equivalent to that of an instrumental case. These are very common, and are, for the most part, composed of a substantive in the first member, and a past passive participle in the last; as, लोभमोहितः, -ता, -तम्, 'beguiled by avarice' (for लोभेन मोहितः); वस्त्रवेष्टितः, -ता, -तम्, 'covered with clothes;' राजपूजितः, -ता, -तम्, 'honoured by kings;' विद्याहीनः, -ना, -नम्, 'deserted by (i. e. destitute of) learning;' बुद्धिरहितः, -ता, -तम्, 'destitute of intelligence;' दुःखार्तः, -र्ता, -र्तम्, 'pained with grief;' आत्मकृतः, -ता, -तम्, 'done by one's self;' आदित्यसदृशः, -शी, -शम्, 'like the sun' (for आदित्येन सदृशः, see 826); अस्मदुपार्जितः, -ता, -तम्, 'acquired by us.'

a. Sometimes this kind of compound contains a substantive or noun of agency in the last member; as, विद्याधनम् 'money acquired by science;' शस्त्रोपजीवी 'one who lives by arms.'

Datively Dependent,

741. Or those in which the relation of the first word to the last is equivalent to that of a dative; as, परिधानवल्कलम् 'bark for clothing;'

पादोदकम् 'water for the feet;' यूपदारु 'wood for a sacrificial post;' शरणागतः, -ता, -तम्, 'come for protection' (for शरणाय आगतः). This kind of compound is not very common, and is generally supplied by the use of अर्थम् (731); as, शरणार्थम् आगतः.

a. Parasmai-pada and Átmane-pada (see 243) are instances of compounds in which the sign of the dative case is retained.

Ablatively Dependent,

742. Or those in which the relation of the first word to the last is equivalent to that of an ablative; as, पितृप्राप्तः, -प्ता, -प्तम्, 'received from a father;' राज्यभ्रष्टः, -ष्टा, -ष्टम्, 'fallen from the kingdom' (for राज्याद् भ्रष्टः); तरङ्गचञ्चलतरः, -रा, -रम्, 'more changeable than a wave;' भवदन्यः 'other than you' (for भवतोऽन्यः); भवद्भयम् 'fear of you' (814. e); कुक्कुरभयम् 'fear of a dog;' शास्त्रपराङ्मुखः, -खी, -खम्, 'turning the face from books,' 'averse from study.'

Genitively Dependent,

743. Or those in which the relation of the first word to the last is equivalent to that of a genitive. These are the most common of all dependent compounds, and may generally be expressed by a similar compound in English. They are for the most part composed of two substantives; as, समुद्रतीरम् 'sea-shore' (for समुद्रस्य तीरम् 'shore of the sea').

a. Other examples are, अश्वपृष्ठम् 'horse-back;' धनुर्गुणः 'bow-string;' इष्टिकागृहम् 'brick-house;' गिरिनदी 'mountain-torrent;' जलतीरम् 'water's edge;' अर्थागमः or अर्थोपार्जना 'acquisition of wealth;' विपद्दशा 'state of misfortune;' सुहृद्भेदः 'separation of friends;' यन्मूर्ध्नि 'on whose brow' (locative); तद्वचः 'his words;' जन्मस्थानम् or जन्मभूमिः 'birth-place;' मूर्खशतैः 'with hundreds of fools' (inst. pl.); श्लोकद्वयम् 'a couple of Slokas;' भूतलम् 'the surface of the earth;' पृथिवीपतिः 'lord of the earth;' तज्जीवनाय 'for his support' (dative); ब्राह्मणपुत्राः 'the sons of a Bráhman;' अस्मत्पुत्राः 'our sons;' त्वत्कर्म 'thy deed;' पितृवचनम् 'a father's speech;' मृत्युद्वारम् 'the gate of death;' इच्छासम्पत् 'fulfilment of wishes;' मातृनन्दः 'a mother's joy;' जलाशयः 'a water-receptacle,' 'lake;' विद्यार्थी 'knowledge-seeker,' 'a scholar;' कुक्कुटाण्डम् (for कुक्कुट्याण्डम्) 'a hen's egg.'

b. Sometimes an adjective in the superlative degree, used substantively, occupies the last place in the compound; as, नरश्रेष्ठः or पुरुषोत्तमः 'the best of men.'

c. In occasional instances the genitive case is retained; as, विशाम्पतिः 'lord of men;' दिवस्पतिः 'lord of the sky.'

d. Especially in terms of reproach; as, दास्याःपुत्रः (or दासीपुत्रः) 'son of a slave girl.'

Locatively Dependent,

744. Or those in which the relation of the first word to the last is equivalent to that of a locative case; as, पङ्कमग्नः, -ग्ना, -ग्नम्, 'sunk in the mud' (for पङ्के मग्नः); गगणविहारी 'sporting in the sky;' जलक्रीडा 'sport in the water;' ग्रामवासी 'a dweller in a village;' जलचरः 'going in the water;' जलजः 'born in the water;' शिरोरत्नम् 'gem on the head.'

a. The sign of the locative case is retained in some cases, especially before nouns of agency; as, ग्रामेवासी 'a villager;' जलेचरः 'going in the water;' उरसिभूषितः, -ता, -तम्, 'ornamented on the breast;' अग्रेगः or अग्रेसरः 'going in front;' दिविषत् (rt. सद्) 'abiding in the sky;' दिविस्पृक् (rt. स्पृश्) 'touching the sky;' युधिस्थिरः 'firm in war.'

Dependent in more than one Case.

745. Dependent compounds do not always consist of two words. They may be composed of almost any number of nouns, all depending upon each other, in the manner that one case depends upon another in a sentence; thus, चक्षुर्विषयातिक्रान्तः, -न्ता, -न्तम्, 'passed beyond the range of the eye' (for चक्षुषो विषयम् अतिक्रान्तः); रथमध्यस्थः 'standing in the middle of the chariot;' भीतपरित्राणवस्तूपालम्भपण्डितः 'skilful in censuring the means of rescuing those in danger.'

a. There is an anomalous form of Tat-purusha, which is really the result of the elision of the second or middle member (uttara-pada-lopa, madhyama-pada-lopa) of a complex compound; e.g. शाकपार्थिवः for शाकप्रियपार्थिवः (see 775).

b. Dependent compounds abound in all the cognate languages. The following are examples from Greek and Latin; οἰνο-θήκη, οἰκο-φύλαξ, λιθό-στρωτος, γυναικο-κήρυκτος, ἀνθρωπο-δίδακτος, θεό-δοτος, θεό-τρεπτος, χειρο-ποίητος, auri-fodina, manu-pretium, parri-cida for patri-cida, parri-cidium, matri-cidium, marti-cultor, mus-cerda. English furnishes innumerable examples of dependent compounds; e.g. 'ink-stand,' 'snow-drift,' 'moth-eaten,' 'priest-ridden,' 'door-mat,' 'writing-master,' &c.

COPULATIVE (OR AGGREGATIVE) COMPOUNDS (DVANDVA).

746. This class has no exact parallel in other languages.

When two or more persons or things are enumerated together, it is usual in Sanskṛit, instead of connecting them by a copulative, to aggregate them into one compound word. No syntactical dependence of one case upon another subsists between the members of Dvandva compounds, since they must always consist of words which, if uncompounded, would be in the same case. The only grammatical connexion between the members is that which would be expressed by the copulative conjunction and in English, or च in Sanskṛit. In fact, the difference between this class and the last turns upon this dependence in case of the words compounded on each other; insomuch that the existence or absence of such dependence, as deducible from the context, is, in some cases, the only guide by which the student is enabled to refer the compound to the one head or to the other; thus, गुरुशिष्यसेवकाः may either be a Dependent compound, and mean 'the servants of the pupils of the Guru,' or a Copulative, 'the Guru, and the pupil, and the servant.' And मांसशोणितम् may either be Dependent, 'the blood of the flesh,' or Copulative, 'flesh and blood.' This ambiguity, however, can never occur in Dvandvas inflected in the dual, and rarely occasions any practical difficulty.

747. There are three kinds of Copulative compounds: 1st, inflected in the plural; 2nd, inflected in the dual; 3rd, inflected in the singular. In the first two cases the final letter of the stem of the word terminating the compound determines the declension, and its gender the particular form of declension; in the third case it seems to be a law that this kind of compound cannot be formed unless the last word ends in अ a, or in a vowel changeable to अ a, or in a consonant to which अ a may be subjoined; and the gender is invariably neuter, whatever may be the gender of the final word.

Inflected in the Plural.

748. When more than two animate objects are enumerated, the last is inflected in the plural, the declension following the gender of the last member of the compound; as, इन्द्रानिलयमार्काः 'Indra, Anila, Yama, and Arka' (for इन्द्रोऽनिलो यमोऽर्कश्च); रामलक्ष्मणभरताः 'Ráma, Lakshmaṇa, and Bharata;' मृगव्याधसर्पशूकराः 'the deer, the hunter, the serpent, and the hog.' The learner will observe, that although the last member of the compound is inflected in the plural, each of the members has here a singular acceptation. But a plural signification may often be inherent in some or all of the words constituting the compound; thus, ब्राह्मणक्षत्रियवैश्यशूद्राः 'Bráhmans, Kshatriyas, Vaiśyas, and Śúdras;' मित्रोदासीनशत्रवः 'friends, neutrals, and foes' (for मित्राणि उदासीनाः शत्रवश्च); ऋषिदेवपितृतिथिभूतानि 'sages, gods, ancestors, guests, and spirits' (for ऋषयो देवाः पितरोऽतिथयो भूतानि च); सिंहव्याघ्रमहोरगाः 'lions, tigers, and immense serpents;' श्वगृध्रकङ्ककाको-

ऌभासगोमायुवायसाः 'dogs, vultures, herons, ravens, kites, jackals, and crows.'

749. So also when more than two inanimate objects are enumerated, the last may be inflected in the plural; as, धर्मार्थकाममोक्षास् 'virtue, wealth, enjoyment, and beatitude' (for धर्मोऽर्थः कामो मोक्षश्च); इज्याध्ययनदानानि 'sacrifice, study, and liberality' (for इज्या अध्ययनं दानं च). In some of the following a plural signification is inherent; as, पुष्पमूलफलानि 'flowers, roots, and fruits;' अजातमृतमूर्खाणाम् 'of the unborn, the dead, and the foolish' (for अजातानां मृतानां मूर्खाणां च); नेत्रमनःस्वभावाः 'eyes, mind, and disposition;' रोगशोकपरितापबन्धनव्यसनानि 'sickness, sorrow, anguish, bonds, and afflictions;' काष्ठजलफलमूलमधूनि 'wood, water, fruit, roots, and honey.'

750. So also when only two animate or inanimate objects are enumerated, in which a plural signification is inherent, the last is inflected in the plural; as, देवमनुष्याः 'gods and men;' पुत्रपौत्राः 'sons and grandsons;' पातोत्पाताः 'falls and rises;' प्राकारपरिखाः 'ramparts and trenches;' सुखदुःखेषु 'in pleasures and pains' (for सुखेषु दुःखेषु च); पापपुण्यानि 'sins and virtues.'

Inflected in the Dual.

751. When only two animate objects are enumerated, in each of which a singular signification is inherent, the last is inflected in the dual, the declension following the gender of the last member; as, रामलक्ष्मणौ 'Ráma and Lakshmaṇa' (for रामो लक्ष्मणश्च); चन्द्रसूर्यौ 'moon and sun;' मृगकाकौ 'a deer and a crow;' भार्यापती 'wife and husband;' मयूरीकुक्कुटौ 'pea-hen and cock;' कुक्कुटमयूर्यौ 'cock and pea-hen.'

752. So also when only two inanimate objects are enumerated, in each of which a singular signification is inherent, the last is inflected in the dual; as, आरम्भावसाने 'beginning and end' (for आरम्भोऽवसानं च); अनुरागापरागौ 'affection and enmity' (for अनुरागोऽपरागश्च); हर्षविषादौ 'joy and sorrow;' क्षुत्पिपासे 'hunger and thirst' (for क्षुत् पिपासा च); क्षुद्व्याधी 'hunger and sickness;' स्थानासनाभ्याम् 'by standing and sitting' (for स्थानेन आसनेन च); मधुसर्पिषी 'honey and ghee;' सुखदुःखे 'pleasure and pain;' उलूखलमुषले 'mortar and pestle;' प्रत्युत्थानाभिवादाभ्याम् 'by rising and saluting;' मृद्वारिभ्याम् 'by earth and water.'

Inflected in the Singular Neuter.

753. When two or more inanimate objects are enumerated, whether singular or plural in their signification, the last may either be inflected as above (748, 749, 750, 751), or in the singular number, neut. gender; as, पुष्पमूलफलम् 'flowers, roots, and fruits' (for पुष्पाणि मूलानि फलानि च); यवसान्नोदकेन्धनम् 'grass, food, water, and fuel' (for यवसोऽन्नम् उदकम् इन्धनं च); अहोरात्रम् 'a day and night' (for अहो रात्रिश्च. A form अहोरात्रः masc. sing. also occurs); दिग्देशम् 'quarters and countries' (for दिशो देशाश्च); द्युनिशम् or दिवानिशम् 'day and night;' शिरोग्रीवम् 'head and neck;' चर्मांसरुधिरम् 'skin, flesh, and blood.'

a. Sometimes two or more animate objects are thus compounded; as, पुत्रपौत्रम् 'sons and grandsons;' हस्त्यश्वम् 'elephants and horses:' especially inferior objects; as, श्वचाण्डालम् 'a dog and an outcast.'

754. In enumerating two qualities the opposite of each other, it is common to form a Dvandva compound of this kind, by doubling an adjective or participle, and interposing the negative अ a; as, चराचरम् 'moveable and immoveable' (for चरम् अचरं च); शुभाशुभम् 'good and evil;' प्रियाप्रिये 'in agreeable and disagreeable' (for प्रिये अप्रिये च); दृष्टादृष्टम् 'seen and not seen;' कृताकृतम् 'done and not done;' मृदुक्रूरम् 'gentle and cruel.'

a. In the Dvandvas which occur in the Vedas the first member of the compound, as well as the last, may sometimes take a dual termination; thus, मित्रावरुणौ (see 97. a), इन्द्राविष्णू, पितरामातरौ: and some of the anomalous Dvandvas used in more modern Sanskṛit are probably Vedic in their character; thus, द्यावापृथिवी 'heaven and earth;' मातापितरौ 'mother and father,' &c.

b. It is a general rule, however, that if a compound consists of two stems in ṛi, the final of the first becomes आ, as in मातापितरौ above. This also happens if the last member of the compound be पुत्र, as पितापुत्रौ 'father and son.'

c. Greek and Latin furnish examples of complex compounds involving Dvandvas; thus, βατραχο-μυο-μαχία, 'frog-mouse war;' su-ovi-taurilia, 'pig-sheep-bull sacrifice;' ζωό-φυτον, 'animal-plant.' Zoophyte is thus a kind of Dvandva. In English, compounds like 'plano-convex,' 'convexo-concave' are examples of the relative form of Dvandva explained at 765.

DESCRIPTIVE (OR DETERMINATIVE) COMPOUNDS (KARMA-DHÁRAYA).

755. In describing, qualifying, or defining a substantive by means of an adjective or participle, it is common in Sanskṛit to compound the two words together, placing the adjective or participle in the first member of the compound in its stem; as, साधुजनः 'a good man' (for साधुर् जनः); चिरमित्रम् 'an old friend' (for चिरं मित्रम्); क्षुभ्राणिवः 'a troubled ocean;' पुण्यकर्म 'a holy act;' अनन्तात्मा 'the infinite soul;' संस्कृतोक्तिः 'polished speech;' पुण्यकर्माणि 'holy acts' (for पुण्यानि कर्माणि); उत्तमनराणाम् 'of the best men' (for उत्तमानां नराणाम्); महापातकम् 'a great crime' (see 778); महाराजः 'a great king' (see 778); प्रियसखः 'a dear friend' (778); दीर्घरात्रम् 'a long night' (778).

a. The feminine stems of adjectives do not generally appear in compounds; thus, प्रियभार्या 'a dear wife' (for प्रिया भार्या); महाभार्या 'a great wife' (for महती भार्या, see 778); रूपवद्भार्या 'a beautiful wife' (for रूपवती भार्या); पाचकस्त्री 'a female cook' (for पाचिका स्त्री).

b. There are, however, a few examples of feminine adjective stems in compounds; e. g. वामोरुभार्या 'a wife with beautiful thighs;' कामिनीजनः 'an impassioned woman,' where कामिनी may be used substantively (cf. 766. b).

756. An indeclinable word or prefix may take the place of an adjective in this kind of compound; thus, सुपथः 'a good road;' सुदिनम् 'a fine day;' सुभाषितम् 'good speech;' दुश्चरितम् 'bad conduct;' अभयम् 'not fear,' 'absence of danger;' बहिःशौचम् 'external cleanliness' (from vahis, 'externally,' and śauća, 'purity'); अन्तःशौचम् 'internal purity;' ईषद्दर्शनम् 'a slight inspection;' कुपुरुषः 'a bad man.'

757. Adjectives used as substantives sometimes occupy the last place in Descriptive compounds; as, परमधार्मिकः 'a very just man;' परमाद्भुतम् 'a very wonderful thing.'

a. In the same manner, substantives, used adjectively, may occupy the first place; as, मलद्रव्याणि 'impure substances;' राजर्षिः 'a royal sage.'

758. Descriptive compounds expressing 'excellence' or 'eminence' fall under this class, and are composed of two substantives, one of which is used as an adjective to describe or define the other, and is placed last, being generally the name of an animal denoting 'superiority;' as, पुरुषव्याघ्रः 'man-tiger,' पुरुषपुङ्गवः 'man-bull,' पुरुषसिंहः 'man-lion,' पुरुषर्षभः 'man-bull,' i. e. 'an illustrious man.'

Similarly, स्त्रीरत्नम् 'an excellent woman' (gem of a woman); वदनाम्भम् 'face-lotus,' i. e. 'lotus-like face.'

a. So other compounds expressive of 'comparison' or 'resemblance' are usually included in native grammars under the Karma-dháraya class. In these the adjective is placed last; as, छायाचञ्चलः, -ला, -लम्, 'fickle as a shadow;' अम्बुदश्यामः, -मा, -मम्, 'dark as a cloud;' भूधरविस्तीर्णः, -र्णा, -र्णम्, 'spread out like a mountain.'

b. The following are examples of Greek and Latin compounds falling under this class; μεγαλο-μήτηρ, ἰσό-πεδον, μεγαλό-νοια, ἡμι-κύων, sacri-portus, meri-dies (for medi-dies), decem-viri, semi-deus. Parallel compounds in English are, 'good-will,' 'good-sense,' 'ill-nature,' 'holiday,' 'blackguard,' &c.

NUMERAL (OR COLLECTIVE) COMPOUNDS (DVIGU).

759. A numeral is often compounded with a substantive to form a collective noun, but the last member of the compound is generally in the neuter singular; thus, चतुर्युगम् 'the four ages' (for चत्वारि युगानि);

चतुर्दिशम् 'the four quarters;' त्रिदिनम् 'three days' (triduum); त्रिरात्रम् 'three nights' (रात्र being substituted for रात्रि, see 778); त्र्यब्दम् 'three years' (triennium); पञ्चाग्नि 'the five fires.'

a. Rarely the stems of numerals are compounded with plural substantives; as, चतुर्वर्णाः 'the four castes;' पञ्चबाणाः 'five arrows;' सप्तर्षयः 'the seven stars of Ursa Major.'

b. Sometimes the last member of the compound is in the feminine singular, with the termination ई; as, त्रिलोकी 'the three worlds.'

c. Compare Greek and Latin compounds like τετραόδιον, τρινύκτιον, τέθριππον, triduum, triennium, trinoctium, quadrivium, quinquertium.

ADVERBIAL OR INDECLINABLE COMPOUNDS (AVYAYÍ-BHÁVA).

760. In this class of indeclinable (avyaya, i. e. na vyeti, 'what does not change') compounds the first member must be either a preposition (such as अति, अधि, अनु, प्रति, &c., at 783) or an adverbial prefix (such as यथा 'as,' यावत् 'as far as,' अ or अन् 'not,' सह 'with,' &c.) The last member is a substantive which takes the form of an accusative case neuter, whatever may be the termination of its stem; thus, यथाश्रद्धम् 'according to faith' (from यथा and श्रद्धा); प्रतिनिशम् 'every night' (from प्रति and निशा); प्रतिदिशम् 'in every quarter' (from प्रति and दिश्); अतिनु 'beyond the ship' (from अति and नौ).

a. Many of these compounds are formed with the adverbial preposition सह, generally contracted into स; thus, सकोपम् 'with anger' (from स and कोप); सादरम् 'with respect' (स आदरम्); साष्टाङ्गपातम् 'with prostration of eight parts of the body;' सोपधि (i. e. sa-upadhi) 'fraudulently;' साग्नि 'with fire.' Páṇini (II. I, 9, &c.) gives some unusual forms with postpositions; as, सूपप्रति 'a little sauce.'

b. The following are examples of indeclinable compounds with other prefixes; अनुज्येष्ठम् 'according to seniority;' प्रत्यङ्गम् 'over every limb;' प्रतिमासम् 'every month' (730. e); यथाविधि 'according to rule;' यथाशक्ति or यावच्छक्यम् (49) 'according to one's ability;' यथासुखम् 'happily;' यथार्हम् 'suitably,' 'worthily;' यथोक्तम् 'as described;' अनुक्षणम् 'every moment;' समक्षम् 'before the eyes' (778); प्रतिस्कन्धम् 'upon the shoulders;' अधिवृक्षम् 'upon the tree;' उपमालिनीतीरम् 'near the banks of the Málini;' असंशयम् 'without doubt;' निर्विशेषम् 'without distinction;' मध्येगङ्गम् 'in the middle of the Ganges.'

c. Analogous indeclinable compounds are found in Latin and Greek, such as admodum, obviam, affatim, ἀντιβίην, ἀντίβιον, ὑπέρμορον, παράχρημα. In these, however, the original gender is retained, whereas, according to the Sanskrit rule, obvium would be written for obviam, and affate for affatim. In Greek compounds like σήμερον, the feminine ἥμέρα appends a neuter form, as in Sanskṛit. In English 'uphill.'

d. The neuter word अर्थम् 'for the sake of,' 'on account of' (see 731. Obs.), is often used at the end of compounds; thus, स्वप्नार्थम् 'for the sake of sleep;' कर्मानुष्ठानार्थम् 'for the sake of the performance of business.' See, however, 731, note.

e. There is a peculiar adverbial compound formed by doubling a nominal stem, the final of the first member of the compound being lengthened, and the final of the last changed to इ i. It generally denotes mutual contact, reciprocity, or opposition; thus, मुष्टीमुष्टि 'fist to fist;' दण्डादण्डि 'stick to stick' (fighting); अंशांशि 'share by share;' केशाकेशि 'pulling each other's hair;' अङ्गाङ्गि 'body to body;' बाहूबाहवि 'arm to arm;' नखानखि 'scratching each other.'

f. Something in the same manner, अन्य and पर, 'another,' are doubled; thus, अन्योन्यम्, परस्परम्, 'one another,' 'mutually,' 'together.'

RELATIVE COMPOUNDS (MOSTLY EQUIVALENT TO BAHU-VRÍHI).

761. The compounds in the preceding four divisions are generally terminated by substantives, the sense of each being in that case absolute and complete in itself. Most of such compounds may be used relatively, that is, as epithets of other words, the final substantive becoming susceptible of three genders, like an adjective (see 108, 119, 130, 134. a). We have given the name relative to compounds when thus used, not only for the obvious reason of their being relatively and not absolutely employed, but also because they usually involve a relative pronoun, and are sometimes translated into English by the aid of this pronoun, and are, moreover, resolved by native commentators into their equivalent uncompounded words by the aid of the genitive case of the relative (यस्य). Thus, महाधनम् is a Descriptive compound, meaning 'great wealth,' and may be used adjectively in relation to पुरुषः, thus महाधनः पुरुषः 'a man who has great wealth;' or to स्त्री, thus महाधना स्त्री 'a woman who has great wealth;' and would be resolved by native commentators into यस्य or यस्या महद् धनम्. In English we have similar compounds, as 'high-minded,' 'left-handed,' and the like, where the substantive terminating the compound is converted into an adjective.

Relative form of Tat-purusha or Dependent Compounds.

762. Many Dependent compounds (especially those that are instrumentally dependent at 740) are already in their own nature relative, and cannot be used except in connexion with some other word in the sentence. But, on the other hand, many others, and especially those which are genitively dependent, constituting by far the largest number of this class of compounds, are in their nature absolute, and yield a sense complete in itself. These may be made relative by declining the final word after the manner of an adjective; thus, चन्द्राकृतिः, -तिः, -ति, 'moon-shaped' (see 119), from the absolute compound चन्द्राकृतिः 'the shape of the moon.'

a. Other examples are, देवरूपः, -पा, -पम्, 'whose form is godlike' (see 108); सूर्यप्रभावः, -वा, -वम्, 'splendid as the sun' (108); हस्तिपादः, -दा, -दम्*, 'elephant-footed' (see 57); सागरान्तः, -न्ता, -न्तम्, 'ending at the sea;' मरणान्तः, -न्ता, -न्तम्, 'terminated by death;' कर्णपुरोगमः, -मा, -मम्, or कर्णमुखः, -खा, -खम्, 'headed by Karṇa;' विष्णुशर्मनामा, -मा, -म, 'named Vishṇuśarman' (see 154); पुण्डरीकाक्षः, -क्षी, -क्षम्, 'lotus-eyed' (see 778); नारायणाख्यः, -ख्या, -ख्यम्, 'called Náráyaṇa;' धनमूलः, -ला, -लम्, 'founded on wealth;' लक्षसंख्यानि (agreeing with धनानि), 'money to the amount of a lac;' गदाहस्तः, -स्ता, -स्तम्, 'having a club in the hand,' or 'club-in-hand;' शस्त्रपाणिः, -णिः, -णि, 'arms-in-hand;' जालहस्तः, -स्ता, -स्तम्, 'net-in-hand;' पुष्पविषयः, -या, -यम्, 'on the subject of flowers,' 'relating to flowers;' ध्यानपरः, -रा, -रम्, 'having meditation for one's chief occupation;' तद्विद्यः, -द्या, -द्यम्, 'having his knowledge.' These examples are not distinguishable from absolute dependent compounds, except by declension in three genders.

b. Similar compounds are found in Greek; e.g. ἱππό-γλωσσος, 'horse-tongued.'

763. Many of them, however, are not found, except as relatives; and if used absolutely would yield a different sense; thus, कर्णमुखम् means 'the face of Karṇa,' but when used relatively, as कर्णमुखा राजानः, 'the kings headed by Karṇa.' So also चारचक्षुः signifies 'the eye of the spy,' but when used relatively, as चारचक्षू राजा, 'a king who sees by means of his spies.' See 166. c.

764. The substantive आदि, 'a beginning,' when it occurs in the last member of a compound of this nature, is used relatively to some word expressed or understood, and yields a sense equivalent to et cetera. It is generally found either in the plural or neuter singular; as, इन्द्रादयः 'Indra and the others' (agreeing with the nom. case सुराः expressed or understood, 'the gods commencing with Indra'); अग्न्यादीनाम् 'of Agni and the others' (agreeing with पूर्वोक्तानाम् understood, 'of those above-named things of which Agni was the first'); चक्षुरादीनि 'the eyes, &c.' (agreeing with इन्द्रियाणि 'the senses commencing with the eyes'). When used in the neut. sing. it either agrees with पूर्वोक्तम्, 'the aforesaid,' understood, or with a number of things taken collectively, and the adverb iti * may be prefixed; as, देवानित्यादि 'the word deván, &c.' (agreeing with पूर्वोक्तम् understood, 'the aforesaid sentence of which deván is the first word'); दानादिना 'by liberality, &c.' (agreeing with some class of things understood, 'by that class of things of which liberality is the first'). See also 772.

a. It may occasionally be used in the masc. sing.; as, मार्जन्यादिः 'brooms, &c.' (agreeing with उपस्करः 'furniture').

b. Sometimes आदिक is used for आदि; as, दानादिकम् 'gifts, &c.:' and sometimes आद्य; as, इन्द्राद्याः सुराः 'the gods of whom Indra is the first.'

c. The feminine substantive प्रभृति, 'beginning,' may be used in the same way; thus, इन्द्रप्रभृतयः सुराः 'the gods, beginning with Indra;' तेषां ग्रामनिवासिप्रभृतीनाम् 'of those villagers, &c.'

d. Observe—The neuter of आदि may optionally take the terminations of the masculine in all but the nom. and acc. cases; thus, हस्त्यश्वादेस् 'of elephants, horses, &c.' (agreeing with बलस्य gen. neut. of बल 'an army').

Relative form of Dvandva or Copulative Compounds.

765. Copulative (or Aggregative) compounds are sometimes used relatively; especially in the case of adjectives or participles; as, कृष्णशुक्लः, -क्ला, -क्लम्, 'black and white' (cf. λευκο-μέλας); स्नातानुलिप्तः, -प्ता, -प्तम्, 'bathed and anointed;' पौरजानपदः, -दा, -दम्, 'belonging to town and country;' कृतापकृतः, -ता, -तम्, 'done and done badly;' शुभाशुभः, -भा, -भम्, 'good and evil' (754); स्निग्धः, -ग्धा, -ग्धम्, 'thick and unctuous;' निःशब्दस्तिमितः, -ता, -तम्, 'noiseless and motionless' (night); गृहीतप्रतिमुक्तस्य 'of him taken and let loose.' See other examples under Complex Compounds.

Obs.—Many compounds of this kind are classed by native grammarians under the head of Tat-purusha (Páṇ. II. 1, 69), though the accent in many conforms to the rule for Bahu-vríhi (VI. 2, 3).

Relative form of Karma-dháraya or Descriptive Compounds.

766. A greater number of compound words may be referred to this head than to any other. Every style of writing abounds with them; thus, अल्पशक्तिः, -क्तिः, -क्ति, 'whose strength is small' (119).

a. Other examples are, महाबलः, -ला, -लम्, 'whose strength is great' (108, see also 778); महातेजाः, -जाः, -जः, 'whose glory is great' (164. a); अल्पधनः, -ना, -नम्, 'whose wealth is small;' महात्मा, -त्मा, -त्म, 'high-minded' (151); उदारचरितः, -ता, -तम्, 'of noble demeanour;' बहुमत्यः, -त्या, -त्यम्, 'having

* Sometimes evam is prefixed; as, एवमादीनि प्रलापानि 'lamentations beginning thus.'

many fish;' स्वल्पसलिलः, -ला, -लम्, 'having very little water;' पण्डितबुद्धिः, -द्धिः, -द्धि, 'of wise intellect' (119); प्रियभार्यः, -र्या, -र्यम्, 'having a dear wife;' अशक्यसन्धानः, -ना, -नम्, 'not to be reconciled;' संवृतसंवार्यः, agreeing with राजा, 'a king who conceals what ought to be concealed.'

b. Occasionally the feminine of the adjective appears in the compound; as, षष्ठीभार्यः 'having a sixth wife.' Compare 755. b.

767. Although a passive participle is not often prefixed to a noun in an absolute sense, this kind of combination prevails most extensively in the formation of relative compounds; as, प्राप्तकालः, -ला, -लम्, 'whose time has arrived.'

a. Other examples are, जितेन्द्रियः, -या, -यम्, 'whose passions are subdued;' शान्तचेताः, -ताः, -तः, 'whose mind is composed;' संहृष्टमनाः, -नाः, -नः, 'whose mind is rejoiced' (see 164); भग्नाशः, -शा, -शम्, 'whose hopes are broken;' हृतराज्यः, -ज्या, -ज्यम्, 'whose kingdom is taken away;' अमिततेजाः, -जाः, -जः, 'whose glory is boundless;' आसन्नमृत्युः, -त्युः, -त्यु, 'whose death is near;' कृतकामः, -मा, -मम्, 'whose desire is accomplished,' i. e. 'successful;' कृतभोजनः, -ना, -नम्, 'one who has finished eating;' अनधिगतशास्त्रः, -स्त्रा, -स्त्रम्, 'one by whom the Sástras have not been read;' भिन्नहृदयः, -या, -यम्, or दलहृदयः, 'whose heart is pierced;' जितशत्रुः, -त्रुः, -त्रु, 'who has conquered his enemies;' छिन्नकेशः, -शा, -शम्, 'having the hair cut;' मिताशनः, -ना, -नम्, 'eating sparingly;' पूतपापः, -पा, -पम्, 'purified from sin.'

b. The suffix क ka is often added; as, हतश्रीकः, -का, -कम्, 'reft of fortune;' हतत्विट्कः, -ट्का, -ट्कम्, 'shorn of (his) beams.' Cf. 769. a.

c. Examples of Greek and Latin compounds of this kind are, μεγαλο-κέφαλος, μεγαλό-μητις, λευκό-πτερος, πολύ-χρυσος, χρυσεο-στέφανος, ἡδύ-γλωσσος, ἐρημό-πολις, magn-animus, longi-manus, multi-comus, albi-comus, multi-vius, atri-color. In English compounds of this kind abound; e. g. 'blue-eyed,' 'narrow-minded,' 'good-tempered,' 'pale-faced,' &c.

Relative form of Dvigu or Numeral Compounds.

768. Numeral or Dvigu compounds may be used relatively; as, द्विपर्णः, -र्णी, -र्णम्, 'two-leaved;' त्रिलोचनः, -ना or -नी, -नम्, 'tri-ocular.'

a. Other examples are, त्रिमूर्धः, -र्धी, -र्धम्, 'three-headed' (मूर्धन् being substituted for मूर्धन्, see 778); चतुर्मुखः, -खी, -खम्, 'four-faced;' चतुष्कोणः, -णा, -णम्, 'quadrangular;' शतद्वारः, -रा, -रम्, 'hundred-gated;' चतुर्विद्यः, -द्या, -द्यम्, 'possessed of the four sciences' (108); सहस्राक्षः, -क्षी, -क्षम्, 'thousand-eyed' (see 778); पञ्चगवधनः, -ना, -नम्, 'having the wealth of five bullocks.'

Relative form of Compounds with Adverbial Prefixes.

769. The adverbial compounds most frequently employed relatively as adjectives are those formed with the adverbial preposition

Obs.—When adverbial compounds like यथोक्तम् (760. b) are used at the beginning of relative compounds, the final म् is dropped; e. g. यथोक्तव्यापारः, -रा, -रम्, 'employed in the manner described.'

a. The suffix क ka (80. LVI) is often added to this kind of compound; as, सश्रीकः, -का, -कम्, 'possessed of fortune;' सस्त्रीकः, -का, -कम्, 'accompanied by women.'

b. In some compounds सह remains; as, सहवाहनः 'with his army;' सहपुत्रः 'along with his son.'

c. स is also used for समान 'same;' as, सगोत्रः, -त्रा, -त्रम्, 'of the same family.'

d. There are of course many examples of nouns combined with adverbial prefixes, so as to form relative compounds, which cannot be regarded as relative forms of Avyayí-bháva; thus, उद्यायुधः, -धा, -धम्, 'with uplifted weapon;' नानाप्रकारः, -रा, -रम्, 'of various shapes;' क्वनिवासः, -सा, -सम्, 'where dwelling?' क्वजन्मा, -न्मा, -न्म, 'where born?' निरपराधः, -धा, -धम्, 'without fault;' निराहारः, -रा, -रम्, 'having no food;' सपभीः, -भीः, -भि, 'fearless' (123. b); तथाविधः, -धा, -धम्, 'of that kind,' 'in such a state;' दुर्बुद्धिः, -द्धिः, -द्धि, 'weak-minded;' दुष्प्रकृतिः, -तिः, -ति, 'ill-natured;' सुमुखः, -खा or -खी, -खम्, 'handsome-faced;' सुबुद्धिः, -द्धिः, -द्धि, 'of good understanding.' Some of the above may be regarded as relative forms of Descriptive compounds, formed with indeclinable prefixes; see 756. Similar compounds in Greek and Latin are, ἀν-ήμερος, εὖ-δηλος, in-imicus, in-felix, dis-similis, semi-plenus.

e. Observe—The adverbial prefixes दुस् and सु (726. d. f) impart a passive sense to participial nouns of agency, just as δυσ and εὖ in Greek; thus, दुष्कर 'difficult to be done,' सुकर 'easy to be done;' दुर्लभ 'difficult to be obtained,' सुलभ 'easy to be attained;' दुस्तर 'difficult to be crossed.' Cf. εὔφορος, 'easy to be borne;' δύσπορος, 'difficult to be passed,' &c.

f. सनाथः, -था, -थम्, 'possessed of a master,' is used at the end of compounds to denote simply 'possessed of,' 'furnished with;' thus, वितानसनाथं शिलातलम् 'a stone-seat furnished with a canopy;' शिलापट्टसनाथो मण्डपः 'an arbour having a marble-slab as its master,' i. e. 'furnished with,' 'provided with,' &c. Similarly, बहुवकसनाथो वटपादपः 'a fig-tree occupied by a number of cranes.'

g. Observe—The relative form of a compound would be marked in Vedic Sanskrit by the accent. In the Karma-dháraya compound mahá-báhu, 'great arm,' the accent would be on the last syllable, thus महाबाहु; but in the Relative mahá-báhu, 'great-armed,' on the ante-penultimate, thus, महाबाहु. So, native commentators often quote as an example of the importance of right accentuation, the word Indra-śatru, which, accented on the first syllable, would be Bahu-vríhi (see Páṇ. VI. 2, 1, by which the first member retains its original accent); but accented on the penultimate would be Tat-purusha. The sense in the first case is 'having Indra for a conqueror or destroyer;' in the second, 'the destroyer of Indra.'

h. Note, that आत्मक and रूप (80. LXXIX) are used at the end of relative compounds to denote 'composed of,' 'consisting of;' but are more frequently found at the end of complex relatives; see 774.

COMPLEX COMPOUND NOUNS.

770. We have now to speak of complex compound words, or compounds within compounds, which form a most remarkable feature in Sanskṛit composition. Instances might be given of twenty or thirty words thus compounded together; but these are the productions of the vitiated taste of more modern times, and are only curious as shewing that the power of compounding words may often be extravagantly abused. But even in the best specimens of Sanskṛit composition, and in the simplest prose writings, four, five, or even six words are commonly compounded together, involving two or three forms under one head. It will be easy, however, to determine the character of the forms involved, by the rules propounded in the preceding pages.

Instances of absolute complex compounds, whose sense is complete and unconnected, are not rare.

a. The following are examples: कालान्तरावृत्तिशुभाशुभानि 'good and evil (occurring) in the revolutions of the interval of time,' the whole being a dependent, involving a dependent and a copulative; सेनापतिबलाध्यक्षौ 'the general of the army and the overseer of the forces,' the whole being a copulative, involving two dependents; शोकारातिभयत्राणम् 'the protection from sorrow, enemies, and perils,' the whole being a dependent, involving an aggregative; अवधीरितसुहृद्वाक्यम् 'the disregarded words of a friend,' the whole being a descriptive, involving a dependent; शुक्लाम्बरमाल्यदाम 'a white robe and a string of garlands,' the whole being a copulative, involving a descriptive and dependent; सर्वशास्त्रपारगः 'one who has gone to the opposite bank (pára) of all the Sástras,' i.e. 'one who has read them through;' मृतसिंहास्थीनि 'the bones of a dead lion.'

771. Complex compounds are generally used as adjectives, or relatively, as epithets of some other word in the sentence; thus, गलितनखनयनः, -नौ, -नम्, 'whose nails and eyes were decayed,' the whole being the relative form of descriptive, involving a copulative; क्षुत्क्षामकण्ठः 'having a throat emaciated with hunger,' the whole being the relative form of descriptive, involving a dependent.

a. Other examples are, शुक्लमाल्यानुलेपनः, -ना, -नम्, 'having a white garland and unguents,' the whole being the relative form of copulative, involving a descriptive; पीनस्कन्धोरुबाहुः 'broad-shouldered and strong-armed,' the whole being a copulative, involving two descriptives; पूर्वजन्मकृतः, -ता, -तम्, 'done in a former birth,' the whole being a dependent, involving a descriptive; विद्यावयोवृद्धः, -द्धा, -द्धम्, 'advanced in learning and age,' the whole being a dependent, involving a copulative; हृपितस्रग्रजोहीनः, -ना, -नम्, 'having fresh garlands, and being free from dust,' the whole being the relative form of copulative, involving a descriptive and dependent; अभिषेकार्द्रशिराः, -राः, -रः, 'whose head was moist with unction;' यथेप्सितमुखः, -खा or -खी, -खम्, 'having the face turned in any direction one likes;' शूलमुद्गरहस्तः, -स्ता, -स्तम्, 'spear and club in hand;' एकरात्रनिर्वाहोचितः, -ता, -तम्, 'sufficient for support during one night' (see 778); ऋग्यजुःसामाख्यत्रयग्रन्थार्थाभिज्ञाः 'those who are acquainted with the meaning of the three Vedas, called Rig, Yajur, and Sáma;' सन्दष्टदन्तच्छदताम्रनेत्राः 'biting their lips and having red eyes' (agreeing with राजानः); परद्रोहकर्मधीः 'injuring another by action or by intention.'

772. The substantive आदि, 'a beginning,' often occurs in complex relative compounds, with the force of et cetera, as in simple relatives at 764; thus, शुकसारिकादयः 'parrots, starlings, &c.' (agreeing with पक्षिणः 'birds beginning with parrots and starlings'), the whole being the relative form of dependent, involving an aggregative; सन्धिविग्रहादि 'peace, war, &c.' (agreeing with पूर्वोक्तम् understood); गृहदेवागारादियुक्तः, -क्ता, -क्तम्, 'possessed of houses, temples, &c.;' करितुरगकोषादिपरिच्छदयुक्तस्, -क्ता, -क्तम्, 'possessed of property such as elephants, horses, treasure, &c.'

a. Similarly, आद्य in the example उत्तमगन्धाद्याः (agreeing with स्रजः 'garlands possessing the best odour and other qualities').

773. Long complex compounds may be generally translated by beginning at the last word and proceeding regularly backwards, as in the following: मत्तमधुकरनिकरमुक्तझङ्कारमिलितकोकिलालापसङ्गीतकसुखावहः, -हा, -हम्, 'causing pleasure by the music of the voice of the cuckoo, blended with the hum emitted by the swarms of joyous bees.'

774. आत्मक or रूप, at the end of a complex relative, denotes 'composed of;' thus, हस्त्यश्वरथपदातिकमैकरात्मकं बलम् 'a force consisting of elephants, horses, chariots, infantry, and servants;' प्राग्जन्मसुकृतदुष्कृतरूपे कर्मणी 'the two actions consisting of the good and evil done in a former birth.'

775. Complex compounds may sometimes have their second or middle member omitted; thus, अभिज्ञानशकुन्तलम् is really a complex compound, the whole being a descriptive, involving a dependent; but the middle member स्मृत is elided. Similarly, शाकपार्थिवः 'the era-king' is for शाकप्रियपार्थिवः 'the king (beloved) by the era;' विक्रमोर्वशी for विक्रमप्राप्योर्वशी 'Urvaśí gained by valour.'

a. Complex compounds expressive of comparison are not uncommon; as, जलबिन्दुलोलचपलः, -ला, -लम्, 'unsteady and trembling as a drop of water;'

नलिनीदलतोयतरलः, -ला, -लम्, 'tremulous as water on the leaf of a lotus;' the last two examples are complex. Compare 758. a.

b. A peculiar compound of this kind is formed from Dvandvas by adding the suffix íya; thus, काकतालीयः, -या, -यम्, 'like the story of the crow and the palm-tree;' श्येनकपोतीयः, -या, -यम्, 'like the story of the hawk and the pigeon.'

c. The substantive verb must often be supplied in connexion with a relative compound; as, प्रारम्भसदृशोदयः 'his success was proportionate to his undertakings;' पीताम्भसि 'on his drinking water,' for तेन अम्भसि पीते सति.

776. Complex compound adverbs, or indeclinable compounds, involving other compounds, are sometimes found; as, स्वगृहनिर्विशेषेण 'not differently from one's own house;' शब्दोच्चारणाननरम् 'after uttering a sound;' स्तनभरविनमन्मध्यभङ्गानपेक्षम् 'regardlessly of the curving of her waist bending under the weight of her bosom;' यथादृष्टश्रुतम् 'as seen and heard.'

ANOMALOUS COMPOUNDS.

777. There are certain compounds which are too anomalous in their formation to admit of ready classification under any one of the preceding heads.

a. कल्प, देशीय, दघ, इयस, मात्र, affixed to stems, form anomalous compounds; see 80. LVII, LXX—LXXII, LXXVI.

b. There is a common compound formed by placing अन्तर after a nominal stem, to express 'another,' 'other;' as, स्थानान्तरम् or देशान्तरम् 'another place;' राजान्तरेण सह 'along with another king;' जन्मान्तराणि 'other births.'

c. Similarly, मात्र is added to express 'mere;' see 919.

d. पूर्व or पूर्वक or पुरःसर (meaning literally 'preceded by') may be added to nominal stems to denote the manner in which anything is done; as, क्रोधपूर्वम् 'with anger;' पूजापूर्वकम् अन्नं ददौ 'he gave food with reverence.'

e. A peculiar compound is formed by the use of an ordinal number as the last member; thus, सारसद्वितीयः 'accompanied by the Sárasa;' सीतातृतीयः (agreeing with रामः) 'having Sítá for his third (companion),' i. e. including Lakshmaṇa; छायाद्वितीयः (नलः) 'Nala made double by his shadow;' मातृषष्ठाः (पाण्डवाः) 'the Páṇḍavas with their mother as the sixth;' वेदा आख्यानपञ्चमाः 'the Vedas with the Ákhyánas as a fifth;' वृषभैकादशा गावः 'ten cows and one bull' (Manu XI. 129).

f. The following are peculiar: त्यक्तजीवितयोधी 'a fighter who abandons life;' अकुतोभयः, -या, -यम्, 'having no fear from any quarter;' अदृष्टपूर्वः, -र्वा, -र्वम्, 'never before seen;' सप्तरात्रोषितः 'one who has lodged seven nights.'

g. With regard to compounds like गन्तुकाम 'desirous of going,' see 871.

h. The Veda has some peculiar compounds; e. g. vidad-vasu, 'granting wealth;' yávayad-dveshas, 'defending from enemies;' kshayad-víra, 'ruling over men.' These are a kind of inverted Tat-purusha.

CHANGES OF CERTAIN WORDS IN CERTAIN COMPOUNDS.

778. The following is an alphabetical list of the substitutions and changes which take place in the final syllables of certain words when used in certain compounds. They are called by native grammarians Samásánta suffixes. They are properly only added to Tat-purusha compounds (which include Karma-dháraya).

'great;' but in Tat-purusha or dependent compounds महत् is retained, as in महदाश्रयः 'recourse to the great;' also before भूत 'become,' and words of a similar import, as महद्भूतः 'one who has become great;' but महाभूतम् 'an element.'—मूर्ध at end of Bahu-vríhis (preceded by द्वि, त्रि, &c.) for मूर्धन् m. 'the head;' e.g. द्विमूर्धः, -र्धी, -र्धम् (see Páṇ. v. 4, 115; VI. 2, 197).—मेधस् at end of Bahu-vríhis (preceded by अ, सु, दुस्, अल्प, मन्द) for मेधा f. 'intellect;' e.g. अल्पमेधाः, -धाः, -धः.—रहस for रहस्, after अनु, अव, and तम; e.g. अनुरहसः 'solitary.'—राज at end of Karma-dhárayas and Tat-purushas for राजन् m. 'a king' (see 151. a); e.g. परमराजः 'a supreme monarch;' देवराजः 'the king of the gods.' But occasional instances occur of राजन् at the end of Tat-purushas; e.g. विदर्भराज्ञः

gen. 'of the king of Vidarbha' (Nala xi. 21).—रात्र at end of Dvigus, Karma-dhárayas, and Dvandvas, for रात्रि f. 'night;' e.g. अहोरात्रम् 'day and night;' द्विरात्रम् 'a period of two nights;' मध्यरात्रः 'midnight.'—लोम (after अनु, अव, and प्रति) for लोमन् n. 'hair;' e.g. अनुलोमः, -मा, -मम्, 'with the hair.'—वर्चस in Tat-purushas for वर्चस् n. 'splendour;' e.g. ब्रह्मवर्चसम् 'the power of a Bráhman.'—श्रेयस in Karma-dhárayas and Bahu-vríhis for श्रेयस् n. 'virtue,' 'felicity;' e.g. निःश्रेयसः, -सी, -सम्, 'destitute of excellence or happiness.'—श्व or श्वा for श्वन् m. 'a dog;' e.g. अतिश्वः, -श्वी, -श्वम्, 'worse than a dog;' श्वापदः 'a beast of prey;' श्वादन्तः 'a dog's tooth.'—स at beginning of Avyayí-bhávas and Bahu-vríhis for सह 'with;' e.g. सकोपम् 'with anger;' सपुत्रः 'accompanied by a son' (सहपुत्रः would be equally correct).—स for समान 'same;' e.g. सपिण्डः 'one who eats the same cake.'—सक्थ in Karma-dhárayas and Bahu-vríhis for सक्थि n. 'the thigh;' e.g. असक्थः, -क्था, -क्थम्, 'having no thighs.'—सख in Tat-purushas and Dvigus for सखि m. 'a friend;' e.g. मरुत्सखः 'the friend of the winds' (Indra).—सरस in Karma-dhárayas for सरस् n. 'a lake;' e.g. महासरसम् 'a great lake.'—साम (after अनु, अव, प्रति) for सामन् n. 'conciliation;' e.g. अनुसामः, -मा, -मम्, 'friendly.'—हल for हलि m. 'a furrow;' e.g. अहलः, -ला, -लम्, 'unploughed.'—हृद् for हृदय n. 'the heart;' e.g. हृच्छयः 'sleeping in the heart;' सुहृत् m. 'a friend.'

779. It is evident from the above list that the most common substitution is that of अ a for the final vowel or final vowel and consonant of a word. Other stems ending in च्, ह्, ज्, भ्, द्, ष्, स्, ह् may add a; as, त्वच for त्वच् in वाक्त्वचम् 'voice and skin;' यजुष for यजुस् in ऋग्यजुषम् 'the Ṛig and Yajur-veda.' Also रजस for रजस्, आयुष for आयुस्, शरद for शरद्, &c. Also ऋच for ऋच् in अर्धर्चः, -र्चम्, 'half a verse of the Veda;' and बह्वृचः 'one conversant with the Ṛig-veda.'

a. Some words as the first member of a compound lengthen their finals (see Páṇ. vi. 3, 117; viii. 4, 4); e.g. कोटर before वन (कोटरावणम् 'a wood full of hollow trees'); अभ्रन before गिरि (अभ्रनागिरिः 'name of a mountain'); विश्व before राज् and मित्र (विश्वाराट् 'a universal sovereign;' विश्वामित्रः 'Viśvámitra'). This is more common in the Veda.

b. Some few shorten their finals, when they stand as the first member, especially nouns terminating in ऊ ú or ई í; e.g. भ्रु for भ्रू in भ्रुकुटिः f. 'a frown;' ग्रामणि for ग्रामणी in ग्रामणिपुत्रः 'the son of a harlot' (Páṇ. vi. 3, 61): so लक्ष्मिसम्पन्नः for लक्ष्मीसम्पन्नः 'endowed with good fortune' (Rámáy. i. 19, 21).

c. A few feminine words in आ á (such as छाया, सभा, निशा, शाला, कन्या) may be made neuter at the end of certain compounds; e.g. इक्षुच्छायम् 'the shade of sugar-canes' (Páṇ. ii. 4, 22); प्रच्छायम् 'a shady place;' ईश्वरसभम् 'an assembly of princes;' स्त्रीसभम् 'an assembly of women;' श्वनिशम् (or -शा) 'a night when dogs howl.'

d. A sibilant is sometimes inserted between two members of a compound; as, प्रायश्चित्तम् (for प्रायःचित्तम्) 'expiation of sin;' परस्परम् 'mutually:' cf. आस्पदम् 'place.'

780. Numerals, when preceded by particles, prepositions, or other numerals, may change their finals to अ a; or if their final letter be a consonant, may either drop that consonant or add अ a to it; thus, द्वि (nom. -द्वास्, -द्वास्, -द्वाणि) 'two or three;' षष्प (nom. -षास्, -षास्, -षाणि), 'five or six;' उपचतुर् (nom. -रास्) 'nearly four.'

781. अहम् is found in the beginning of certain anomalous compounds (such as अहङ्कार, अहम्मूर्विका, &c.) for मद् 'I.'

SECTION II.

COMPOUND VERBS.

782. It might be supposed that 2000 simple roots (74. b) would convey every possible variety of idea, and that the aid of prepositions and adverbial prefixes to expand and modify the sense of each root would be unnecessary. But in real fact there are comparatively few Sanskrit roots in common use; and whilst those that are so appear in a multitude of different forms by the prefixing of one or two or even three prepositions, the remainder are almost useless for any practical purposes, except the formation of nouns. Hence it is that compound verbs are of more frequent occurrence than simple ones.

They are formed in two ways: 1st, by combining roots with prepositions or prefixes; 2ndly, by combining the auxiliaries कृ 'to do' and भू 'to be' with adverbs, or nouns converted into adverbs.

Compound Verbs formed by combining Prepositions and Prefixes with roots.

783. The following list exhibits the prepositions chiefly used in combination with roots:

a. अति ati, 'across,' 'beyond,' 'over;' as, अतिया, अतौ (pres. अत्येमि, &c.), अतिक्रम्, 'to pass by,' 'to pass along,' 'to transgress.'

b. अधि adhi, 'above,' 'upon,' 'over;' as, अधिष्ठा 'to stand over,' 'to preside' (pres. अधितिष्ठामि); अधिरुह् 'to climb upon;' अधिशी 'to lie upon;' अधिगम् 'to go over towards;' अधी 'to go over,' in the sense of 'reading.' The initial अ a is rarely rejected in Epic poetry; as, धिष्ठित for अधिष्ठित.

c. अनु anu, 'after;' as, अनुचर् 'to follow;' अनुष्ठा 'to stand by,' 'to perform;' अनुकृ 'to imitate;' अनुमन् 'to assent;' अनुभू 'to experience,' 'to enjoy.'

d. अन्तर् antar, 'between,' 'within' (Gr. ἐν-τός; Lat. in-tus, inter); as, अन्तर्धा 'to place within,' 'to conceal,' in pass. 'to vanish;' अन्तर्भू 'to be within;' अन्तश्चर् 'to walk in the midst.'

e. अप apa, 'off,' 'away,' 'from' (ἀπό); as, अपगम्, अपसृ, अपे (from अप and इ), 'to go away;' अपनी 'to lead away;' अपकृष् 'to abstract;' अपवह् 'to bear away.' It also implies 'detraction;' as, अपवद् 'to defame.'

f. अपि api, 'on,' 'over' (ἐπί), only used with धा and नह्; as, अपिधा 'to cover over;' अपिनह् 'to bind on.' The initial अ a is often rejected, leaving पिधा, पिनह्.

g. अभि abhi, 'to,' 'unto,' 'towards;' as, अभिया, अभी, 'to go towards;' अभिधाव् 'to run towards;' अभिदृश् 'to behold;' अभिवद् or अभिधा (see धा at 664) 'to address,' 'to accost,' 'to speak to,' 'to salute.'

h. अव ava, 'down,' 'off;' as, अवरुह्, अवत्, 'to descend;' अवेक्ष् 'to look down;' अवकॄ 'to throw down,' 'to scatter;' अवकृत् 'to cut off.' It also implies 'disparagement;' as, अवज्ञा 'to despise;' अवक्षिप् 'to insult.' With धा, 'to attend.' The initial अ a may be optionally rejected from अवगाह 'bathing.'

i. आ á, 'to,' 'towards,' 'near to' (Latin ad); as, आविश् 'to enter;' आक्रम् 'to go towards;' आरुह् 'to mount up.' When prefixed to गम्, या, and इ, 'to go,' and दा 'to give,' it reverses the action; thus, आगम्, आया, ए, 'to come;' आदा 'to take.' With चर्, 'to practise.'

j. उद् ud, 'up,' 'upwards,' 'out' (opposed to नि); as, उच्चर् (48), उदि, 'to go up,' 'to rise;' उड्डी 'to fly up;' उड्डन् 'to strike up' (उद् and हन्, 50); उद्धृ (उद् and हृ, 50) 'to extract;' उन्मिष् and उन्मील् (47) 'to open the eyes;' उत्कृत्, उच्छिद्, 'to cut up;' उन्मूल् 'to root up;' उच्छ्रि 'to lift up' (उद् and श्रि, 49).

When prefixed immediately to स्था and स्तम्भ् it causes the elision of s; as, उत्था 'to stand up;' उत्तम्भ् 'to prop up.' In some cases it reverses the action; as, from नम् 'to bend down,' उन्नम् (47) 'to raise up;' from यम् 'to keep down,' उद्यम् 'to lift up.'

k. उप upa (opposed to apa), 'to,' 'towards' (ὑπό), 'near,' 'down,' 'under,' joined like आ and अभि to roots of motion; as, उपया 'to approach;' उपचर् 'to wait upon;' उपस्था 'to stay near,' 'to be present,' 'to arrive.' With विश् (cl. 6, उपविशति), 'to sit down;' with आस्, 'to sit near.'

Obs.—उप with ओषति (from उष्) = उपोषति 'he burns;' see 784. a.

l. नि ni (thought to be for primitive ani; cf. Lat. in, Gr. ἐνί, ἐν, εἰν), 'in,' 'on,' 'down,' 'downwards,' 'under' (opposed to उद्); as, निपत् 'to fall down;' नियम् 'to suppress;' निमिष् and निमील् 'to close the eyes;' निक्षिप्, निधा, न्यस्, 'to lay down,' 'to deposit;' निविश् 'to go within,' 'to encamp.' With वृत्, 'to return,' 'to desist;' with शम्, 'to hear.' In some cases it does not alter, or simply intensifies the sense; as, निहन् 'to kill outright.'

m. निस् nis, 'out;' as, निष्क्रम् (69. a), निर्गम्, निःसृ, 'to go out,' 'to come out;' निष्कृत् 'to cut up;' निर्वृत् 'to come to an end,' 'to cease;' निश्चि 'to determine.'

n. परा parά, 'back,' 'backwards' (παρά), combined with जि and भू in the sense of 'defeat;' as, पराजि 'to overcome' (cf. παρανικάω); पराभू 'to be defeated.' With इ, cl. 2, it signifies 'to retreat' (pres. परैमि); with इ or अय्, cl. 1, Átm., 'to run away,' parά being changed to palά (pres. पलायें).

o. परि pari, 'around,' 'about' (περί, per); as, परिवेष्ट्, परिवृ, 'to surround;' परिचर्, परिगम्, 'to go round;' परीक्ष् 'to look round,' 'to examine;' परिवृत् 'to turn round;' परिधाव् 'to run round.' When prefixed to कृ it signifies 'to adorn,' and स् is inserted, परिष्कृ. With भू, 'to despise,' and with हृ, 'to avoid.' It sometimes merely gives intensity or completeness to the action; as, परित्यज् 'to abandon altogether;' परिज्ञा 'to ascertain completely.'

p. प्र pra, 'before,' 'forward' (πρό, pro, præ); as, प्रगम्, प्रसृप्, 'to proceed;' प्रयम् 'to set before,' 'to present;' प्रक्रम् 'to begin;' प्रवृत् 'to proceed,' 'to begin;' प्रधाव् 'to run forward;' प्रस्था 'to set out,' 'to advance;' प्रभू 'to be superior,' 'to prevail;' प्रदृश् 'to foresee.' With लभ्, 'to deceive.'

Obs.—प्र with कृच्छति 'he goes,' makes प्राच्छति (or प्राछति) 'he goes on quickly' (38.f); प्र with एषय, causal stem of इष् 'to go,' makes प्रेषयामि 'I send.' Similarly, प्र + एजते = प्रेजते 'he trembles;' and प्र + ओषति (from उष्) = प्रोषति 'he burns.' See 784. a.

The r of pra influences a following n by 58; as, प्रणम् 'to bend before,' 'to salute.' Sometimes प्र does not alter the sense of a root, as in प्राप् 'to obtain' (see 681).

q. प्रति prati, 'against,' 'to,' 'towards,' 'near,' 'at,' 'back again' (πρός); as, प्रतियुध् 'to fight against;' प्रती 'to go towards' (pres. प्रत्येमि); प्रतिगम् 'to go towards,' 'to return;' प्रतिवस् 'to dwell near or at;' प्रतिकृ 'to counteract;' प्रतिहन् 'to beat back,' 'to repel;' प्रतिवच् 'to answer;' प्रतिलभ् 'to recover;' प्रतिनी 'to lead back;' प्रतिनन्द् 'to re-salute.' With श्रु, 'to promise;' with पद्, 'to arrive at,' 'to obtain;' with ईक्ष्, 'to wait for,' 'to expect.'

r. वि vi, 'apart,' 'asunder,' implying 'separation,' 'distinction,' 'distribution,' 'dispersion' (Latin dis-); as, विचर् 'to wander about;' विचल् 'to vacillate;' विहृ 'to roam for pleasure;' विकृ 'to dissipate;' विदृ 'to tear asunder;' विभज् 'to divide;' विविच् 'to distinguish.' Sometimes it gives a privative signification; as, वियुज् 'to disunite;' विस्मृ 'to forget;' विक्री 'to sell.' With कृ, 'to change for the worse.' Sometimes it has little apparent influence on the root; as, विनश् 'to perish,' or 'to perish entirely;' विचिन् 'to think.'

s. सम् sam, 'with,' 'together with' (σύν, con); as, सञ्चि, सङ्गृह्, 'to collect;' संयुज् 'to join together;' सङ्गम् 'to meet together;' सम्पद् 'to happen;' सङ्क्षिप् 'to contract.' With कृ it signifies 'to perfect,' and स् is inserted, संस्कृ. It is often prefixed without altering the sense; as, सञ्जन् 'to be produced.'

t. दुस् dus, 'badly,' and सु su, 'well,' are also prefixed to verbs or verbal derivatives; see 726. d.f.

u. Also other indeclinable prefixes; thus, अस्तम् 'decline' is compounded with इ in the sense of 'to go down,' 'to set;' तिरस् 'across,' with धा in the sense of 'to conceal,' with गम् 'to disappear,' with कृ 'to revile;' श्रत् with धा 'to believe.'

784. Two prepositions are often combined with a root; as, व्यादा (वि + आ) 'to open;' व्यापद् (cl. 10) 'to kill;' उपागम् (उप + आ) 'to go under,' 'to undergo,' 'to arrive at;' समे (सम् + आ + rt. इ) 'to assemble;' प्रणिपत् (प्र + नि, 58) 'to prostrate one's self;' प्रोद्वह् (प्र + उद् + rt. वह्) 'to raise up:' and occasionally three; as, प्रव्याहृ (प्र + वि + आ) 'to predict;' प्रत्युदाहृ (प्रति + उद् + आ) 'to answer.' Other combinations of three prepositions, occasionally prefixed to roots, are सं + उप + आ; अभि + वि + आ; सं + अभि + प्र; उप + सं + प्र; अनु + सं + वि.

a. Observe—Final अ a and आ á of a preposition combine with the initial ऋ ṛi of a root into ár, and are rejected before initial ए e and ओ o (except in forms from the roots इ i, 'to go,' and एध् 'to increase), see 38. f. g; and see प्र and उप above: but in other cases prepositions ending in vowels combine with roots beginning with vowels according to the rules of Sandhi; thus, आ with इ 'to go' becomes ए (32), and in pres. ऐमि (आ + एमि 33), &c.; in impf. आयम्, ऐस् (645, 33), &c.; in pot. एयाम् (आं + इयाम्), &c.; in impv. आयानि (आ + यानि), &c. Similarly, अप with एमि becomes अपैमि by 33.

b. Observe also, a sibilant is generally inserted between the prepositions अप, उप, परि, प्रति, सम्, and the roots कृ 'to do' and कॄ 'to scatter;' see above under परि and सम्. Similarly, from अव and कॄ is formed अवस्कर 'excrement.'

c. The final i of अति, प्रति, परि, नि, is optionally lengthened in forming certain nouns from compound verbs; as, अतीसार, प्रतीकार, परीहास, नीकार.

785. In conjugating compound verbs formed with prepositions, neither the augment nor the reduplication change their position, but remain attached to the root*; as, पर्यणयम्, impf. of नी, with परि; उपाविशम्, impf. of विश्, with उप; अन्वतिष्ठम्, impf. of स्था, with अनु; प्रतिजघान, perf. of हन्, with प्रति; प्रोज्जहार, perf. of हृ, with प्र and उद्.

a. In the Veda, as in Homer, prepositions may be separated from the root by other words; as, आ त्वा विशन्तु 'let them enter thee.'

786. Grammarians restrict certain roots to either Parasmai-pada or Átmane-pada when in combination with particular prepositions or when peculiar meanings are involved†. Most of the examples specified by Páṇini (1. 3, 1–93) are here added. The 3rd sing. present will be given, the termination either in ti or te marking the Pada to which in each case the root is supposed to be limited.

अस् 'to throw' is generally Parasmai, and ऊह् 'to reason' is generally Átmane, but combined with any preposition may take either Pada.—कृ 'to do;' anu-karoti, 'he imitates;' adhi-kurute, 'he overcomes;' ut-kurute, 'he informs against,' 'reviles;' ud-á-kurute, 'he reviles;' upa-kurute, 'he worships;' upa-s-kurute (784. b), 'he prepares;' upa-s-karoti, 'he polishes;' parā-karoti, 'he rejects;' pra-kurute, 'he offers violence,' 'he recites (stories).'—कॄ 'to scatter;' apa-s-kirate (784. b), 'he (the cock) throws up earth;' but apa-kirati, 'he scatters (as flowers).'—क्रम् 'to go;' á-kramate, 'he (the sun) ascends;' but á-krámati when not in the sense of 'the rising of a luminary, &c.;' vi-kramate, 'he (the horse) steps out;' but vi-krámati, 'it (the joint) splits in two;' upa-kramate or pra-kramate, 'he is valiant;' but upa-krámati, 'he approaches;' and pra-krámati, 'he departs.'—क्री 'to buy;' ava-kríṇíte, pari-kríṇíte, 'he buys;' vi-kríṇíte, 'he sells;' but krí alone takes either Pada.—क्रीड् 'to play;' á-kríḍate or anu-kríḍate, 'he sports;' pari-kríḍate, 'he plays about;' san-kríḍate, 'he plays;' but san-kríḍati, 'it (the wheel) creaks.'—क्षिप् 'to throw;' ati-kshipati, 'he throws beyond;' abhi-kshipati, 'he throws on;' prati-kshipati, 'he throws back or towards.'—क्षṇु 'to sharpen;' san-kshṇute, 'he sharpens.'—गम् 'to go;' á-gamayate, 'he delays or waits patiently;' vy-ati-gaććhanti, 'they go against each other;' san-gaććhati when motion towards anything is implied, as 'he goes towards (the village);' but Átm. in the sense of 'he goes with' or 'agrees with.'—गॄ 'to swallow;' san-girate, 'he promises,' 'he proclaims;' but san-girati, 'he swallows;' ava-girate, 'he swallows.'—चर् 'to go;' uć (for ud)-ćarate, 'he goes astray;' uć-ćarati, 'it (the tear) overflows;' san-ćarate or sam-ud-á-ćarate, 'he goes in a chariot.'—जि 'to conquer;' vi-jayate, parά-jayate, 'he conquers;' with other prepositions ji is generally Parasmai.—ज्ञा 'to know;' apa-jánite, 'he denies (the debt);' prati-jánite or saṅ-jánite, 'he acknowledges.' Without a prep. this root is restricted to either Pada if certain meanings are involved; as, sarpisho (for sarpishά) jánite, 'he engages (in sacrifice) by means of ghee;' gáṃ jánite, 'he knows (his own) cow;' svάṃ gáṃ jánάti or jánite, 'he knows his own cow.'—नी 'to lead;' un (for ud)-nayate, 'he lifts up;' upa-nayate, 'he invests (with the sacred thread);' vi-nayate, 'he pays,' or 'he grants,' or 'he restrains;' vi-nayati, 'he takes away' (the anger of his master); vi-nayati, 'he turns away (his cheek).' Without a prep. this root is Átm. if it means 'to excel,' or 'to ascertain.'—नु 'to praise;' á-nute, 'he praises.'—तप् 'to burn;' ut-tapati or vi-tapati, 'he warms;' ut-tapate or vi-tapate, 'it shines,' 'he warms (his own hand).' Without a prep. this root is Átm., cl. 4, if it means 'to perform penance.'—दा 'to give;' á-datte, 'he receives;' vy-á-dadάti, 'he opens (his mouth);' vy-á-datte, 'he opens (the mouth of another);' saṃ-yaććhate, 'he gives' (as dásyά, 'to the female slave,' the instr. being used for the dative).—दृश् 'to see;' sam-paśyate, 'he considers thoroughly.'—याच् 'to ask for;' always Átm. if used with gen., as madhuno náthate, 'he asks for honey.'—प्रच्छ् 'to ask;' á-pṛiććhate, 'he bids adieu to;' sam-pṛiććhate, 'he interrogates.'—भुज् 'to eat' is Átm. if it means 'to eat,' 'to possess,' or 'to suffer;' but Par. if it means 'to protect.'—मृष् 'to bear;' pari-mṛishyati, 'he endures or forgives.'—यम् 'to restrain;' á-yaććhate, '(the tree) spreads;' á-yaććhate, 'he stretches out (his hand);' but á-yaććhati, 'he draws up' (as a rope from a well); upa-yaććhate, 'he takes (a woman) to wife;' but upa-yaććhati, 'he takes the wife (of another);' á-yaććhate, 'he puts on (clothes);' ud-yaććhate, 'he takes up (a load);' but ud-yaććhati, 'he studies vigorously (the Veda, &c.);' saṃ-yaććhate, 'he collects' (or stacks as rice, &c.)—युज् 'to join;' ud-yunkte, 'he makes effort;' anu-yunkte, 'he examines;' ni-yunkte, 'he appoints;' pra-yunkte, 'he applies;' but pra-yunakti, 'he sets in order (sacrificial vessels).'—रम् 'to sport;' upa-ramati, 'he causes to refrain*;' á-ramati, 'he rests;' vi-ramati, 'he ceases.'—लू 'to cut;' vy-ati-

* There are a few exceptions to this rule in the Mahá-bhárata; as in अन्वसञ्चरत् (Johnson's Selections, p. 33, l. 14).

† In Epic poetry, however, there is much laxity; e. g. यत् and प्रार्थ्, which are properly Átmane-pada verbs, are found in Parasmai. Instances of passive verbs taking Parasmai terminations have been given at 461. c. On the other hand, नन्द् 'to rejoice,' which is properly Parasmai, is found in Átmane.

lunîte, 'he performs cutting (of wood) which was the office of another.'—वद् 'to speak;' anu-vadate, 'he speaks after or like' (with gen.); but anu-vadati, 'he imitates' (as giram, 'a voice,' acc.); upa-vadate, 'he coaxes,' 'he advises;' vi-pra-vadante or vi-pra-vadanti, 'they dispute;' sam-pra-vadante, 'they speak together;' but sam-pra-vadanti, 'they (the birds) sing together;' apa-vadate, 'he reviles improperly;' but apa-vadati, 'he speaks against.' Without prep. vad is Átm., 'to be learned in interpreting' (the Śástras), or 'to be earnest in the study of anything' (as agriculture, &c.)—वह् 'to carry;' pra-vahati, 'it (the river) flows along.'—विद् 'to know;' saṃ-vitte, 'he is conscious;' saṃ-vidate or saṃ-vidrate, 'they are conscious' (308).—विश् 'to enter;' ni-viśate, 'he enters.'—शप् 'to swear;' śapate, 'he swears at' (with dat.)—श्रु 'to hear;' saṃ-śṛiṇoti, 'he hears (the speech);' but saṃ-śṛiṇute, 'he hears well' (intransitively).—स्था 'to stand;' ava-tishṭhate, 'he waits patiently;' pra-tishṭhate, 'he sets out;' vi-tishṭhate, 'he stands apart;' san-tishṭhate, 'he stays with;' upa-tishṭhate, 'he worships,' 'he attends on.' Without prep. sthá takes the Átmane when it denotes 'adhering to,' 'giving one's self up to shewing amatory feelings' (Páṇ. I. 3, 23), as tishṭhate gopí Kṛishṇáya, 'the shepherdess gives herself up to Kṛishṇa;' but upa-tishṭhati, 'he waits on' (not in a religious sense, and governing an acc.); ut-tishṭhate, 'he aspires' (to salvation); but ut-tishṭhati, 'he rises' (from a seat).—हन् 'to strike;' á-hate (see 654), 'he or it strikes' ('himself or itself,' the object being omitted); but á-hanti vṛishabham, 'he strikes the bull.'—स्वृ 'to sound;' saṃ-svarate, 'it sounds clearly.'—हृ 'to seize;' anu-harate, 'he takes after' (the disposition of his father or mother), otherwise anu-harati.—ह्वे 'to call;' upa-hvayate or ni-hvayate or vi-hvayate or saṃ-hvayate, 'he calls,' 'he invokes;' á-hvayate, 'he challenges' (an enemy); but á-hvayati, 'he calls' (his son).

a. Some causals are also restricted to either Parasmai or Átmane, according to the preposition prefixed or the meaning involved; thus the causal of मुह् with परि, meaning 'to bewitch,' is limited to Átm. So also, गृध् 'to be greedy,' when its causal means 'to deceive,' is restricted to Átm.: and the causal of वञ्च्, meaning 'to deceive,' takes Átm.; meaning 'to avoid,' Par. Again, कृ in the causal, when joined with mithyá, and signifying 'to pronounce badly,' takes Par.; but only in the sense of doing so once. In the sense of 'causing a false alarm' it requires Átm.; but the above specimens will suffice to shew the little profit likely to be derived from pursuing this part of the subject farther.

Compound Verbs formed by combining Adverbs with कृ and भू.

787. These are of two kinds: 1st, those formed by combining adverbs with कृ 'to make' and भू 'to become;' 2ndly, those formed by combining nouns used adverbially with these roots.

a. Examples of the first kind are, अलङ्कृ 'to adorn;' आविष्कृ 'to make manifest' (see 72); बहिष्कृ 'to eject;' पुरस्कृ 'to place in front,' 'to follow;' विनाकृ 'to deprive;' सत्कृ 'to entertain as a guest;' नमस्कृ 'to revere;' साक्षाद्भू, प्रादुर्भू, 'to become manifest,' &c.

788. In forming the second kind, the final of a stem, being a or á, is changed to í; as, from सज्ज, सज्जीकृ 'to make ready,' सज्जीभू 'to become ready;' from कृष्ण, कृष्णीकृ 'to blacken;' from परिखा 'a ditch,' परिखीकृ 'to convert into a ditch:' and sometimes a becomes á; as, प्रियाकृ 'to please,' from प्रिय. A final i or u is lengthened; as, from शुचि, शुचीभू 'to become pure;' from लघु, लघूकृ 'to lighten.' A final ṛi is changed to री rí; as, from मातृ, मात्रीभू 'to become a mother.' A final as and an become í; as, from सुमनस्, सुमनीभू 'to be of good mind;' from राजन्, राजीभू 'to be a king.'

a. But the greater number of compounds of this kind are formed from nominal stems in a. The following are other examples: तृणीकृ 'to esteem as a straw;' स्तब्धीकृ 'to stiffen;' एकचित्तीभू 'to fix the mind on one object;' स्वीकृ 'to make or claim as one's own;' मैत्रीभू 'to become friendly.' Substantives are sometimes formed from these; as, मैत्रीभाव 'the state of being friendly,' 'friendship.'

Obs.—This change of a final to í before kṛi and bhú is technically said to be caused by the suffix ćvi, and the change to á by ḍáć.

b. These compounds often occur as passive participles; thus, अलङ्कृत 'adorned;' प्रादुर्भूत 'become manifest;' सज्जीभूत 'made ready;' लघूकृत 'lightened;' स्वीकरणीय 'to be agreed to.'

789. Sometimes सात्, placed after a nominal stem, is used to form a compound verb of this kind; as, from जल 'water,' जलसात्कृ 'to reduce to liquid;' from भस्मन् 'ashes,' भस्मसात्कृ (57) 'to reduce to ashes.' Cf. 725. a.

SECTION III.

COMPOUND ADVERBS.

790. Compound adverbs are formed, 1st, by combining adverbs, prepositions, and adverbial prefixes, with nouns in the acc. singular neuter; 2ndly, by placing adverbs, or adjectives used as adverbs, after nominal stems.

a. The first kind are identical with indeclinable compounds (760).

791. Most of the adverbs at 731 may be placed after the stems of nouns; thus, बालकसमीपम् 'near the child;' रक्षार्थम् 'for the sake of protection;' प्रजार्थे 'for the sake of offspring;' किमर्थम् 'on what account?' शब्दोच्चारणानन्तरम् 'after uttering a sound.' See also 777. d.

792. The indeclinable participle आरभ्य, 'having begun,' is joined with अद्य, 'to-day' (अद्यारभ्य), in the sense of 'from this time forward;' and with the stems of words to express 'beginning from;' see 925. प्रभृति is used adverbially in the same sense; as, जन्मप्रभृति 'from birth upwards;' तदाप्रभृति 'from that time forward' (see 917).

CHAPTER IX.

SYNTAX.

793. SANSKRIT syntax, unlike that of Greek and Latin, offers fewer difficulties than the other portions of the Grammar. In fact, the writer who has fully explained the formation of compounds has already more than half completed his exposition of the laws which regulate the order, arrangement, and collocation of the words in a sentence (vákya-vinyása, vákya-viveka, padánvaya).

794. Observe—In the present chapter on Syntax, that the subject may be made as clear as possible, each word will be separated from the next, and vowels will not be allowed to coalesce, although such coalition be required by the laws of combination. When compounds are introduced, a dot will generally be placed underneath, to mark the division of the different members. Much vagueness and uncertainty, however, may be expected to attach to the rules propounded, when it is remembered that Sanskrit literature consists almost entirely of poetry, and that the laws of syntax are ever prone to yield to the necessities of metrical composition.

THE ARTICLE.

795. There is no indefinite article in classical Sanskṛit; but कश्चिद् (228) and in modern Sanskṛit एक (200) are sometimes used to supply the place of such an article; thus, एकस्मिन् प्रदेशे 'in a certain country;' कश्चित् शृगालः 'a certain jackal.' The definite article may not unfrequently be expressed by the pronoun तद् (220); thus, स पुरुषः may mean simply 'the man,' not necessarily 'that man.' It is, however, more commonly omitted, and तद् when joined to a noun must generally be translated by 'that.'

CONCORD OF THE VERB WITH THE NOMINATIVE CASE.

796. The verb must agree with the nominative case in number and person; as, अहं करवाणि 'I must perform.'

a. Other examples are, त्वम् अवधेहि 'do thou attend;' स ददाति 'he gives;' आवां ब्रूवः 'we two say;' कपोता ऊचुः 'the pigeons said;' युवां चिन्तयतम् 'do you two reflect;' यूयम् आयात 'do ye come;' सज्जनाः पूज्यन्ते 'good men are honoured;' वाति पवनः 'the wind blows;' उदेति शशाङ्कः 'the moon rises;' स्फुटति पुष्पम् 'the flower blossoms.'

Obs.—Of course, therefore, two nouns in the singular connected by च require the verb in the dual; as, राजा मन्त्री च जग्मतुः 'the king and minister went;' यावच् चन्द्रार्कौ तिष्ठतः 'as long as the moon and sun remain.'

b. The position of the verb is not always the same as in English. It may sometimes come last in the sentence.

797. When a participle takes the place of a finite verb, it must agree with the nominative in number and gender; as, स गतः 'he went;' सा गता 'she went;' नार्यौ उक्तवत्यौ 'the two women spoke;' राजा हतः 'the king was killed;' बन्धनानि छिन्नानि 'the bonds were cut.'

a. Sometimes, when it is placed between two or more nominative cases, it agrees with one only; as, स्वबधूः प्रबोधिता पुत्रश्च 'his wife and son were awakened.'

b. The following is noticeable: राज्यम् आत्मा वयं वधूर् नीतानि पणताम् 'kingdom, self, we, and wife were brought (neut. pl.) to the state of a stake (to be played for),' Kirát. XI. 47. See also 906.

c. Very often the copula, or verb which connects the subject with the predicate, is omitted; when, if an adjective stand in the place of the verb, it will follow the rules of concord in gender and number; as, धनं दुर्लभम् 'wealth is difficult of attainment;' आवां कृताहारौ 'we two have finished eating.' But if a substantive stand in the place of the verb, no concord of gender or number need take place; as, सम्पदः पदम् आपदाम् 'successes are the road to misfortune.'

CONCORD OF THE ADJECTIVE WITH THE SUBSTANTIVE.

798. An adjective, participle, or adjective pronoun, qualifying a substantive, when not compounded with it, must agree with the substantive in gender, number, and case; as, साधुः पुरुषः 'a good man;' महद् दुःखम् 'great pain;' एतेषु पूर्वोक्तेषु राष्ट्रेषु 'in these beforementioned countries;' त्रीणि मित्राणि 'three friends.'

CONCORD OF THE RELATIVE WITH THE ANTECEDENT.

799. The relative must agree with the antecedent noun in gender, number, and person; but in Sanskrit the relative pronoun generally precedes the noun to which it refers, this noun being put in the same case with the relative, and the pronoun तद् follows in the latter clause; as, यस्य नरस्य बुद्धिः स बलवान् 'the man who has intellect is strong' (lit. 'of whatever man there is intellect, he is strong').

a. The noun referred to by the relative may also be joined with तद्, as यस्य बुद्धिः स नरो बलवान्; or may be omitted altogether, as यत् प्रतिज्ञातं तत् पालय 'what you have promised, that abide by;' येषाम् अपत्यानि खादितानि तैः (पक्षिभिः understood) जिज्ञासा समारब्धा 'by those (birds) whose young ones were devoured an inquiry was set on foot;' यः सर्वान् विषयान् प्राप्नुयाद् यश्च एतान् उपेक्षते तयोर् विषयोपेक्षकः श्रेयान् 'he who would obtain all objects of sense, and he who despises them, of the two the despiser is the best.'

800. The relative sometimes stands alone, an antecedent noun or pronoun being understood, from which it takes its gender and number; as, श्रुतेन किं यो न धर्मम् आचरेत् 'Of what use is scriptural knowledge (to one) who does not practice virtue?' धनेन किं यो न ददाति 'What is the use of wealth (to him) who does not give?'

a. Sometimes, though rarely, the antecedent noun precedes the relative in the natural order; as, न सा भार्या यस्यां भर्ता न तुष्यति 'she is not a wife in whom the husband does not take pleasure.'

801. तावत् and यावत् stand to each other in the relation of demonstrative and relative; as, यावन्ति तस्य द्वीपस्य वस्तूनि तावन्ति अस्माकम् उपनेतव्यानि 'as many products as belong to that island, so many are to be brought to us.' See also 876.

a. Similarly, तादृश and यादृश; as, यादृशं वृत्तं तादृशं तस्मै कथितवन्तः 'as the event occurred, so they related it to him.' Cf. 920. a.

SYNTAX OF SUBSTANTIVES.

802. Under this head it is proposed to explain the construction of substantives, without special reference to the verbs which govern them; and for this purpose it will be desirable to exhibit examples beginning with the nominative case.

Nominative Case.

803. A substantive simply and absolutely expressed must be placed in the nominative case; as, हितोपदेशः 'the Hitopadeśa;' भट्टिकाव्यम् 'the poem of Bhaṭṭi.'

a. Two nominative cases in different numbers may be placed in apposition to each other; as, तृणानि शय्या 'grass as a bed.'

Accusative Case.

804. Substantives are not found in the accusative, unconnected with verbs or participles, except as expressing 'duration of time' or 'space.' See 821.

Instrumental Case.

805. This case yields a variety of senses. The most usual is that of 'the agent' and 'the instrument' or 'means' by which anything is done; as, मया (उक्तम्) 'by me it was said;' व्याधेन (पाशो योजितः) 'by the fowler a snare was laid;' वेदाध्ययनेन 'by the study of the Vedas;' स्वचक्षुषा 'with one's own eye.'

806. It also has the force of 'with' in expressing other collateral ideas; as, बलीयसा स्पर्धा 'vying with the strong;' मित्रेण सम्भाषः 'conversation with a friend;' पशुभिः सामान्यम् 'equality with beasts;' पितुर्

गोचरेण 'with the knowledge of (his) father:' especially when 'accompaniment' is intended; as, शिष्येण गुरुः 'the master with his pupil;' सात्मनापञ्चमः 'the fifth with myself,' i. e. 'myself and four others.'

807. The other senses yielded by this case are, 'through,' 'by reason of,' 'on account of:' as, कृपया 'through compassion;' तेन सपराधेन 'on account of that transgression:' especially in the case of abstract nouns formed with ता (80. LXII); as, मूढतया 'through infatuation.'

a. 'According to,' 'by:' as, विधिना 'according to rule;' मम सम्मतेन 'according to my opinion;' जात्या 'by birth.'

b. 'The manner' in which anything is done, as denoted in English by the adverbial affix 'ly,' or by the prepositions 'in,' 'at;' as, बाहुल्येन 'in abundance;' धर्मेण 'virtuously;' यथेच्छया or स्वेच्छया 'at pleasure;' सुखेन 'at ease;' अनेन विधिना 'in this way;' महता स्नेहेन (निवसतः) 'they both dwell together in great intimacy;' (नृपः सर्वभूतानि अभिभवति) तेजसा 'a king surpasses all beings in glory;' मनसा (न कर्तव्यम्) 'such a deed must not even be imagined in the mind;' मानुषरूपेण 'in human form;' प्रतिबन्धेन 'for a hindrance.'

808. Substantives expressive of 'want,' 'need,' may be joined with the instrumental of the thing wanted; as, चर्चया न प्रयोजनम् 'there is no occasion for inquiry;' मया सेवकेन न प्रयोजनम् 'there is no need of me as a servant;' तृणेन कार्यम् 'there is use for a straw.'

809. 'The price' for which anything is done may be in the instrumental; as, पञ्चभिः पुराणैः (याति दासत्वम्) 'for five Puráṇas he becomes a slave;' बहुभिः दत्तैः (युध्यन्ते) 'they fight for great rewards.' Similarly, प्राणपरित्यागमूल्येन (श्रीः न लभ्यते) 'fortune is not obtained at the price of the sacrifice of life.'

a. So also 'difference between' two things; as, त्वया समुद्रेण च महद् अन्तरम् 'there is great difference between you and the ocean.'

b. 'Separation from,' either with or without सह; as, भर्त्रा वियोगः 'separation from a husband' (or भर्त्रा सह वियोगः). Similarly, विच्छेदो हरिणा सह 'separation from Hari.'

c. The English expression 'under the idea that' is expressed by the instrumental case of the substantive बुद्धि; as, व्याघ्रबुद्ध्या 'under the idea that he was a tiger.'

Double Instrumental.

810. Sometimes when two substantives come together, expressing 'parts' of a common idea, they are both placed in the instrumental, instead of one in the genitive; as, वकुलैः पुष्पैः वास्यते 'an odour is emitted by the Vakula-plants by their flowers' (for वकुलानां पुष्पैः). Similarly, ताम् आश्वासयामास प्रेष्याभिश् चन्दनोदकैः 'he caused her to revive by her attendants by sandal-water.'

Dative Case.

811. This case is of very limited applicability, and its functions, irrespectively of the influence of verbs, are restricted to the expression of 'the object,' 'motive,' or 'cause' for which anything is done, or 'the result' to which any act tends; as, आत्मविवृद्धये 'for self-aggrandizement;' आपत्प्रतीकाराय 'for the counteraction of calamity;' शस्त्रं च शास्त्रं च प्रतिपन्नये 'arms and books (lead) to renown.'

a. When, as in the last example, 'the result' or 'end' to which anything leads is denoted by this case, the verb is seldom expressed, but appears to be involved in the case itself. The following are other examples: यत्र आस्ते विषसंसर्गोऽमृतं तदपि मृत्यवे 'where there is admixture of poison, then even nectar (leads) to death;' उपदेशो मूर्खाणां प्रकोपाय न शान्तये 'advice to fools (leads) to irritation, not to conciliation;' स वृद्धपतिस् तस्याः सन्तोषाय न अभवत् 'that old husband was not to her liking;' स राजा तस्या रुचये न बभूव 'that king was not to her liking;' सिद्धै गच्छ 'go for the accomplishment' (of this matter).

b. It will be seen hereafter that certain verbs of giving and relating govern the dative. Substantives derived from such verbs exercise a similar influence; as, अन्यस्मै दानम् 'the giving to another;' अन्यस्मै कथनम् 'the telling to another.'

c. Words expressive of 'salutation' or 'reverence' are joined with the dative; as, गणेशाय नमः 'reverence to Gaṇeśa;' कुशलं ते 'health to thee.'

Ablative Case.

812. The proper force of the ablative case is expressed by 'from;' as, लोभात् (क्रोधः प्रभवति) 'from avarice anger arises;' गिरेः पतनम् 'falling from a mountain;' चाराणां मुखात् 'from the mouth of the spies.'

813. Hence this case passes to the expression of various correlative ideas; as, आहारात् किञ्चित् 'a portion of (from) their food:' and like the instrumental it very commonly signifies 'because,' 'by reason of,' 'in consequence of:' as, गोमनुष्याणां वधात् 'on account of the slaughter of cows and men;' अनवसरप्रवेशात् (पुत्रं निन्दति) 'he blames his son for entering inopportunely;' दण्डभयात् 'through fear of punishment;' अस्मत्पुण्योदयात् 'by reason of my good fortune;' फलतोऽविशेषात् 'because (there is) no difference as to the result.'

a. 'According to:' as, मन्त्रिवचनात् 'according to the advice of the minister.' Abstract nouns in त्व are often found in this case to express some of these ideas; as, अनवस्थितचित्तत्वात् 'by reason of the unsteadiness of his mind:' especially in the writings of commentators; as, वक्ष्यमाणत्वात् 'according to what will be said hereafter;' स्पृष्टेषत्स्पृष्टेषद्विवृतविवृतसंवृतभेदात् 'according to the division of touched, slightly touched, slightly open, open and contracted.'

814. It also expresses 'through the means' or 'instrumentality of;' as, शृगालात् पाशबद्धः 'caught in the toils through the instrumentality of the jackal;' न औषधपरिज्ञानाद् (व्याधेः शान्तिर् भवेत्) 'the alleviation of disease is not effected by the mere knowledge of the medicine.'

a. 'The manner' in which anything is done is often expressed by the ablative; it is then used adverbially (compare 715); as, यत्नात् 'with diligence,' or 'diligently;' बलात् 'forcibly;' कुतूहलात् 'with wonder;' उपचारात् 'figuratively;' मूलाद् उद्धरणम् 'tearing up by the roots:' or by the ablative suffix तस्; as, स्वेच्छातः 'at one's own pleasure' (see 719. a. b).

b. This case also denotes 'after;' as, शरीरविगमात् 'after separation from the body;' मुख्यप्रतिबन्धनात् 'after the imprisonment of the chief;' तस्य आगमनात् 'since his arrival.'

c. So also, in native grammars the ablative case is used to express 'after;' thus, रेफाभ्याम् 'after the letters ra and ha;' शात् 'after the letter śa;' ऋवर्णाद् नस्य णत्वं वाच्यम् 'it should be stated that after the letters ṛi and ṝi the cerebral ण ṇ is substituted in place of the dental न n.'

d. In reference to time, 'within;' as, त्रिपक्षात् 'within three fortnights.'

e. Nouns expressive of 'fear' are joined with the ablative of the thing feared; as, मृत्योर् भयम् 'fear of death;' चौरतो भयम् 'fear of robbers.'

Genitive Case.

815. This and the locative case are of the most extensive application, and are often employed, in a vague and indeterminate manner, to express relations properly belonging to the other cases.

a. The true force of the genitive is equivalent to 'of,' and this case appears most frequently when two substantives are to be connected, so as to present one idea; as, मित्रस्य वचनम् 'the speech of a friend;' भर्ता नार्याः परमं भूषणम् 'the best ornament of a woman is her husband;' न नरस्य नरो दासो दासस् तु अर्थस्य 'man is not the slave of man, but the slave of wealth.'

816. 'Possession' is frequently expressed by the genitive case alone, without a verb; as, सर्वाः सम्पत्तयस् तस्य सन्तुष्टं यस्य मानसम् 'all riches belong to him who has a contented mind;' धन्योऽहं यस्य ईदृशी भार्या 'happy am I in possessing such a wife.'

a. It often, however, has the force of 'to,' and is very generally used to supply the place of the dative; as, प्राणा आत्मनोऽभीष्टाः 'one's own life is dear to one's self;' न योजनशतं दूरं वाह्यमानस्य तृष्णया 'a hundred Yojanas is not far to one borne away by thirst (of gain);' किं प्रज्ञावताम् अविदितम् 'What is unknown to the wise?' किम् अन्धस्य (प्रकाशयति) प्रदीपः 'What does a lamp (shew) to a blind man?' किं मया अपकृतं राज्ञः 'What offence have I committed towards the king;' किम् अयम् अस्माकं (कर्तुं समर्थः) 'What can this man do to us?'

b. And not unfrequently of 'in' or 'on;' as, स्त्रीणां विश्वासः 'confidence in women;' मम आयत्तत्वम् 'dependence on me.'

c. It is even equivalent occasionally to 'from' or 'by,' as usually expressed by the ablative or instrumental; as, न कस्यापि (उपायनं गृह्णीयात्) 'one ought not to accept a present from any one;' अस्माकं (वनं त्याज्यम्) 'the wood is to be abandoned by us;' स धन्यो यस्य अर्थिनो न प्रयान्ति विमुखाः 'he is blessed from whom suppliants do not depart in disappointment;' नलस्य उपसंस्कृतं मांसम् 'meat cooked by Nala.'

d. 'Difference between two things' is expressed by the genitive; as, सेव्यसेवकयोर् महद् अन्तरम् 'there is great difference between the master and the servant' (cf. 809. a).

e. In native grammars it expresses 'in place of;' as, उरण् रपरः 'aṇ in place of ṛi is followed by ra.'

Locative Case.

817. The locative, like the genitive, expresses the most diversified relations, and frequently usurps the functions of the other cases. Properly it has the force of 'in,' 'on,' or 'at,' as expressive of many collateral and analogous ideas; thus, रात्रौ 'in the night;' ग्रामे 'in the village;' पृष्ठे 'on the back;' त्वयि विश्वासः 'confidence in you;' मरुस्थल्यां वृष्टिः 'rain on desert ground;' प्रथमबुभुक्षायाम् 'at the first desire of eating;' पृथिव्यां रोपितो वृक्षः 'a tree planted in the earth.'

818. Hence it passes into the sense 'towards;' as, क्षमा शत्रौ च मित्रे च 'leniency towards an enemy as well as a friend;' सर्वभूतेषु दया 'compassion towards all creatures;' सुहृत्सु अजिह्मः 'upright towards friends;' सुकृतशतम् असत्सु नष्टम् 'a hundred good offices are thrown away upon the wicked;' नलेऽनुरागः 'love for Nala;' तस्याम् अनुरागः 'affection for her.'

819. Words signifying 'cause,' 'motive,' or 'need' are joined with the locative; as, सत्रपत्वे हेतुः 'the cause of his modesty;' भूपालयोर् विग्रहे भवद्वचनं निदानम् 'your speech was the cause of the war between the two princes;' प्रार्थकाभावः सतीत्वे कारणं स्त्रियाः 'the absence of a suitor is the cause of a woman's chastity;' नौकायां किं प्रयोजनम् 'What need of a boat?' Also words signifying 'employment' or 'occupation;' as, अर्थार्जने प्रवृत्तिः 'engaging in the acquisition of wealth.'

a. So words derived from the root yuj usually require the locative; as, मम राज्यरक्षायाम् उपयोगः 'I am of service in preserving the kingdom.'

b. This case may yield other senses equivalent to 'by reason of,' 'for,' &c.; as, मे छिद्रेषु 'through my faults;' चारः परराष्ट्राणाम् अवलोकने 'a spy is for the sake of examining the territory of one's enemies;' युद्धे कालोऽयम् 'this is the time for battle;' उपदेशेऽनादरः 'disregard for advice;' का चिन्ता मरणे रणे 'What anxiety about dying in battle!' कालं मन्ये पलायने 'I think the time has come for escaping;' पुत्रस्य अनुमते 'with the consent of a son.'

c. It is also used in giving the meaning of a root; as, ग्रह् उपादाने 'the root grah is in taking,' i. e. conveys the idea of 'taking.'

d. In native grammars it expresses 'followed by;' thus ङिति means 'when anything having an indicatory n follows.' So again, मान्तस्य पदस्य अनुस्वारो हलि 'in the room of m final in a word followed by any consonant (hal) there is Anusvára.'

e. The locative case is often used absolutely; see 840.

SYNTAX OF NOUNS OF TIME.

820. When reference is made to any particular division of time, the instrumental case is usually required; as, त्रिभिर् वर्षैः 'in three years;' द्वादशभिर् मासैः 'in twelve months;' क्षणेन 'in an instant;' कियता कालेन 'In how long time?' वर्षशतैः 'in hundreds of years;' कालपर्यायेण (or simply कालेन) 'in process of time;' मासेन 'in a month;' मासमात्रेण 'in the space of a month;' एतावता कालेन 'in so much time.'

821. When duration of time is implied, the accusative case is generally used; as, क्षणम् 'for a moment;' अनेककालम् 'for a long time;' कियन्तं कालम् 'for some time;' एकं मासम् 'for one month;' विंशतिं मासान् 'for twenty months;' द्वौ मासौ 'for two months;' वर्षशतम् 'for a hundred years;' शाश्वतीः समाः 'to all eternity;' शतं वर्षाणि 'for a hundred years;' बहूनि अहानि 'for many days.' The instrumental, however, is sometimes used in this sense, and to express other relations of time; as, द्वादशभिर् वर्षैर् वाणिज्यं कृत्वा 'having traded for twelve years;' कतिपयदिवसैः 'for a few days:' and even the genitive; as, चिरस्य कालस्य (or simply चिरस्य) 'for a long time;' कतिपयाहस्य 'after a few days.'

822. When any particular day or epoch is referred to, as the date on which any action has taken place or will take place, the locative may be employed; as, कस्मिंश्चिद् दिवसे 'on a certain day;' तृतीये दिवसे 'on the third day;' द्वादशेऽह्नि 'on the twelfth day;' इतः सप्तदशेऽहनि 'seventeen days from this time.' Or sometimes the accusative; as, यां रात्रिं ते दूताः प्रविशन्ति स्म पुरीं तां रात्रिं भरतेन स्वप्नो दृष्टः 'on the night when the ambassadors entered the city, on that night a dream was seen by Bharata.'

a. The adverbs at 731 may often be found expressing relations of time; as, षण्मासाद् ऊर्ध्वम् or परम् 'after six months;' षण्मासेन or षण्मासाभ्यन्तरेण पूर्वम् 'six months ago;' or (employing the locative absolute) पूर्णे वर्षसहस्रे 'after a thousand years.'

NOUNS OF PLACE AND DISTANCE.

823. Nouns expressive of 'distance or space between two places' (according to Carey) may be in the nominative; as, शतं क्रोशाः सोमनाथात् 'a hundred Kos from Somanáth:' but they are more properly in the accusative; as, योजनम् 'for a Yojana;' क्रोशम् 'for a Kos:' or in the instrumental; as, क्रोशेन गत्वा 'having gone for a Kos.' 'The place' in which anything is done is expressed by the locative; as, विदर्भेषु 'in Vidarbha.'

SYNTAX OF ADJECTIVES.

Accusative after the Adjective.

824. Adjectives formed from desiderative stems will often be found governing an accusative in the same way as the verbs from which they are derived; as, स्वगृहं जिगमिषुः 'desirous of going home;' पुत्रम् अभीप्सुः 'desirous of obtaining a son;' राजानं दिदृक्षुः 'desirous of seeing the king.'

Instrumental after the Adjective.

825. Adjectives, or participles used adjectively, expressive of 'want' or 'possession,' require the instrumental case; as, अर्थेन हीनः 'destitute of wealth;' अर्थैः समायुक्तः 'possessed of riches;' वारिणा पूर्णो घटः 'a jar full of water.'

826. So also of 'likeness,' 'comparison,' or 'equality;' as, अनेन सदृशो लोके न भूतो न भविष्यति 'there never has been, nor will there ever be, any one like him in this world;' ब्राह्मणेन तुल्यम् अधीते 'he reads like a Bráhman;' प्रारम्भैः सदृश उदयः 'his success was equal to his undertakings;' प्राणैः समा पत्नी 'a wife as dear as life;' दाता अभ्यधिको नृपैः 'more liberal than (other) kings;' आदित्येन तुल्यः 'equal to the sun.' These are sometimes joined with a genitive; see 827. b.

Genitive after the Adjective.

827. Adjectives signifying 'dear to,' or the reverse, are joined with the genitive; as, राज्ञां प्रियः 'dear to kings;' भर्तारः स्त्रीणां प्रियाः 'husbands are dear to women;' न कश्चित् स्त्रीणाम् अप्रियः 'women dislike nobody;' द्वेष्यो भवति मन्त्रिणाम् 'he is detestable to his ministers.'

a. Adjectives expressive of 'fear' may govern the genitive or ablative; as, ऋषेर् भीतः 'afraid of the sage.'

b. Adjectives expressive of 'equality,' 'resemblance,' 'similitude,' sometimes require the genitive as well as the instrumental (826); thus, सर्वस्य समः 'equal to all;' तस्य अनुरूपः 'like him;' चन्द्रस्य कल्पः 'rather like the moon;' न तस्य तुल्यः कश्चन 'nobody is equal to him.'

c. So also other adjectives; as, परोपदेशः सर्वेषां सुकरः नृणाम् 'giving advice to others is easy to all men;' सुखानाम् उचितः 'worthy of happiness;' उचितः क्लेशानाम् 'capable of toil;' अज्ञातं धृतराष्ट्रस्य 'unknown to Dhṛita-rásht̤ra;' धर्मस्य कल्पः 'competent for duty.'

Locative after the Adjective.

828. Adjectives, or participles used adjectively, expressive of 'power' or 'ability,' are joined with a locative; as, अध्वनि क्षमा अश्वाः 'horses able for the journey;' महति शत्रौ क्षमो राजा 'a king who is a match for a great enemy;' अशक्ता गृहकरणे शक्ता गृहभञ्जने 'unable to build a house, but able to demolish one.'

a. So also other adjectives; as, शस्त्रेषु कुशलः 'skilled in arms;' अल्पेषु प्राज्ञः 'wise in trifles;' त्वयि अनुरक्तो विरक्तो वा स्वामी 'Is your master attached or adverse to you?' अनुजीविषु मन्दादरः 'neglectful of his dependants.'

SYNTAX OF THE COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE DEGREE.

829. Adjectives in the comparative degree require the ablative case; as, पत्नी प्राणेभ्योऽपि गरीयसी 'a wife dearer even than one's life;' पुत्रस्पर्शात् सुखतरः स्पर्शो लोके न विद्यते 'there is no pleasanter touch in this world than the touch of a son;' वर्धनात् प्रजारक्षणं श्रेयः 'the protection of one's subjects is better than aggrandizement;' न मत्तो (719. a) दुःखिततरः पुमान् अस्ति 'there is not a more wretched man than I;' मनिर् बलाद् बलीयसी 'mind is more powerful than strength.'

830. Sometimes they govern the instrumental; as, प्राणैः प्रियतरः 'dearer than life;' न अस्ति मया कश्चिद् अल्पभाग्यतरो भुवि 'there is nobody upon earth more unfortunate than I.'

a. When it is intended to express 'the better of two things' the genitive may be used; as, अनयोर् देशयोः को देशो भद्रतरः 'Of these two countries which is the better?'

831. The comparative in Sanskṛit is often expressed by 'better and not' or 'but not;' as, वरं प्राणपरित्यागो न पुनर् ईदृशे कर्मणि प्रवृत्तिः 'better abandon life than (but not) engage in such an action;' वरं मौनं कार्यं न च वचनम् उक्तं यद् अनृतम् 'it is better that silence should be kept than a speech uttered which is untrue;' विद्यया सह वेदाध्यापकेन वरं मर्तव्यं न तु अध्यापनयोग्यशिष्याभावे अपात्राय एतां प्रतिपादयेत् 'a teacher of the Veda should rather die with his learning than commit it to an unworthy object, in the absence of a pupil worthy to be instructed in it.'

832. The superlative degree is usually joined with the genitive; as, ब्राह्मणो द्विपदां श्रेष्ठो गौर् वरिष्ठा चतुष्पदाम् । गुरुर् गरीयसां श्रेष्ठः पुत्रः स्पर्शवतां वरः 'a Brâhman is the best of all bipeds, a cow of quadrupeds, a Guru of venerable things, a son of things possessed of touch:' but sometimes with the locative; as, नरेषु बलवत्तमः 'the most powerful of men:' and even with an ablative; as, धान्यानां सङ्ग्रह उत्तमः सर्वसङ्ग्रहात् 'a store of grain is the best of all stores.'

a. Rarely with an instrumental; as, नृवीरः कुन्याः प्राणैर् इष्टतमः 'a hero dearer than the life of Kuntí.' Hence it appears that comparison may sometimes be expressed by a superlative suffix. Another example is अज्ञेभ्यो ग्रन्थिनः श्रेष्ठाः 'people well-read in books are better than ignorant people.'

b. A superlative degree may even take a comparative suffix, and govern the genitive; as, तेषां ज्येष्ठतरः 'the eldest of them.' See 197. a.

c. A comparative word may have a superlative sense; as, दृढतरः 'very firm.'

833. 'Comparison' is often expressed by an adjective in the positive degree, joined with a noun in the ablative or instrumental case; as, नास्ति तस्मात् पुण्यवान् 'there is not a happier than he;' स मत्तो (719. a) महान् 'he is greater than I.' Similarly, अन्यैर् विशेषतः 'more excellently than all.'

a. In more modern Sanskṛit 'comparison' is sometimes expressed by the use of अपेक्ष्य 'regarding,' 'with reference to' (indecl. part. of root ईक्ष् with अप), which may take the place of 'than' in English; thus, दशोपाध्यायान् अपेक्ष्य आचार्य आचार्यशतम् अपेक्ष्य पिता गौरवेण अतिरिक्तो भवति 'an Áćárya ought to be higher in estimation than ten Upádhyáyas, a father than a hundred Áćáryas.'

834. Many words have a kind of comparative influence, and require an ablative case, especially वरम्, अवरम्, अन्य, अन्यदा, अन्यत्र, इतर, पर, पूर्व, अधिक, ऊन, अवशिष्ट, गुण; as, प्रक्षालनात् पङ्कस्य अस्पर्शनं वरम् 'it is better not to touch mud than to wash it off;' दारिद्र्यम् अवरं मरणात् 'poverty is less desirable than death;' को मां मित्राद् अन्यस् त्रातुं समर्थः 'Who is able to rescue me, other than a friend?' किन्नु दुःखम् अतः परम् 'What grief is greater than this?' न श्रुताद् अन्यद् विब्रूयात् 'one ought not to speak differently from what one has heard;' तत्कालाद् अन्यदा 'at another time than the present;' नरस्य न अन्यत्र मरणाद् भयम् 'there is no cause of fear to man from any other quarter than from death;' श्राद्धाहात् (731, 778) पूर्वेद्युः दिने 'on the day before that of the Śráddha;' योजनशताद् अधिकम् 'more than a hundred Yojanas;' कान्तोदन्तः सङ्गमात् किञ्चिद् ऊनः 'intelligence of a lover is something less than a meeting;' अन्नाद् अवशिष्टम् 'the remainder of the food;' मूल्यात् पञ्चगुणम् 'five times more than the value.'

NUMERALS.

835. The syntax of numerals is explained at 206, 207. The following examples may be added: नवतेर् नराणाम् 'of ninety men;' षष्टेर् नराणाम् 'of sixty men;' सहस्रस्य नराणाम् 'of a thousand men;' सहस्रं पितरः 'a thousand ancestors;' त्रिभिर् गुणितं शतम् 'one hundred multiplied by three;' फलसहस्रे द्वे 'two thousand fruits;' एषां त्रयाणां मध्याद् अन्यतमः 'one of these three;' अयुतं गा ददौ 'he gave ten thousand cows;' पञ्चशतं मृगान् जघान 'he killed five hundred deer.'

a. Sometimes the plural of the numerals from ऊनविंशति upwards may be used; as, पञ्चाशद्भिर् वाणैः 'with fifty arrows.'

b. The aggregative numerals may be employed at the end of compounds for the cardinals; thus, सैन्यद्वयम् 'two armies;' विवाहचतुष्टयम् 'four marriages.' See 214.

c. Numerals from nineteen (úna-viṅśati) upwards may take the genitive after them of the things numbered; as, अश्वानां शतसहस्राणि 'a hundred thousand of horses;' पत्तीनां सप्तशतानि 'seven hundred foot-soldiers;' शतम् आचार्याणाम् 'a hundred preceptors;' गवां पञ्चशतानि षष्टिश्च 'five hundred and sixty cows;' सर्गाणां षट् शतानि विंशतिश्च 'six hundred and twenty chapters;' नराणां त्रिंशदधिकशतं द्वे सहस्रे च 'two thousand one hundred and thirty men;' पञ्च रथसहस्राणि 'five thousand chariots;' एकशतं गवाम् 'a hundred and one cows' (Manu XI. 129). They may be used at the end of genitively dependent compounds; as, तृचाशीति 'eighty Tṛićas,' i. e. eighty of Tṛićas.

Obs.—But the genitive is not admissible after numerals below nineteen; e. g. दश नराः 'ten men' (not दश नराणाम्).

d. When numerals are used comparatively they may take an ablative; as, विवादाद् द्विगुणो दमः 'a fine the double of that in dispute.'

SYNTAX OF PRONOUNS.

836. The chief peculiarities in the syntax of pronouns have already been noticed at 216–240, and at 799–801.

With regard to the alternative of एनम्, &c. (see 223), it is properly only allowed in case of the re-employment (anvádeśa) of this pronoun in the subsequent part of a sentence in which इदम् or एतद् has already been used; thus, अनेन व्याकरणम् अधीतम् एनं छन्दोऽध्यापय 'the grammar has been studied by him, now set him to study the Veda' (cf. Nala XII. 31, 32). It is an enclitic, and ought not to begin a sentence.

a. In the use of the relative and interrogative pronouns a very peculiar attraction is often to be observed; that is, when either a relative or interrogative pronoun has been used, and an indefinite pronoun would naturally be expected to follow, the relative or interrogative is repeated, as in the following examples: यो यस्य (for कस्यचिद्) भावः स्यात् 'whatever may be the disposition of whom (i. e. any one);' यद् रोचते यस्मै 'whatever is pleasing to any one;' यो यस्य मांसम् अश्नाति 'whoever eats the flesh of any animal;' यस्य ये गुणाः सन्ति 'whatever excellences belong to any one;' यद् येन युज्यते 'whatever corresponds with anything;' केषां किं शास्त्रम् अध्ययनीयम् 'What book is to be read by whom?'

837. The relative and interrogative are sometimes used together, in an indefinite distributive sense; as, यानि कानि मित्राणि 'any friends whatever:' or more usually with चिद् affixed to the interrogative; as, यस्मै कस्मैचित् 'to any one whatever.'

a. The neuter of the interrogative (किम्) is often joined with the instrumental to signify 'What is the use of?' 'there is no need of;' as, श्रुतेन किं यो न धर्मम् आचरेत् । किम् आत्मना यो न जितेन्द्रियो भवेत् 'Of what use is scriptural knowledge (to one) who does not practice virtue? Of what use is a soul (to one) whose passions are not kept in subjection?' किं ते अनेन प्रश्नेन 'What business have you to make this inquiry?' किं बहुना 'What need of more!' 'in short.'

b. As already shewn at 761, a relative pronoun is sometimes rendered unnecessary by the use of the relative compound; thus, नगरी चन्द्रिकाधौतहर्म्या is equivalent to नगरी यस्याश् चन्द्रिकाधौतानि हर्म्याणि 'a city whose palaces were silvered by the moon-beams.'

c. The relative, when followed by a pluperfect tense in English, may be expressed in Sanskrit by the indeclinable participle; thus, सिंहो व्याधं हत्वा 'a lion having killed a hunter,' or 'a lion who had killed a hunter.'

838. The following examples will illustrate the use of pronouns of quantity and pronominals: यावतः (or यत्संख्यकान्) ग्रासान् भुंक्ते तावतः (or तत्संख्यकान्) ददाति 'as many mouthfuls as he eats, so many he gives away;' यदि एतावन् मह्यं दीयते तदा एतावद् अध्यापयामि 'if so much is given to me, then I will give so much instruction;' तेषां सर्वेषां मध्याद् एकतमः 'one out of all those.' See also 801.

SYNTAX OF VERBS.

839. Nothing is more common in Sanskrit syntax than for the verb to be omitted altogether, or supplied from the context.

a. This is more especially the case with the copula, or substantive verb; thus, यावन् मेरुस्थिता देवा यावद् गङ्गा महीतले । चन्द्रार्कौ गगने यावत् तावद् विप्रकुले वयम् 'as long as the gods have existed in Meru, as long as the Ganges upon earth, as long as the sun and moon in the sky, so long have we (existed) in the family of Bráhmans;' परिच्छेदः पाण्डित्यम् 'discrimination (is) wisdom.'

Locative and Genitive absolute.

840. The locative case is very commonly used absolutely with participles; as, तस्मिन् जीवति जीवामि मृते तस्मिन् क्षिये पुनः 'he living I live, he dying I die;' अवसन्नायां रात्रौ 'the night being ended;' ज्येष्ठे भ्रातरि अनूढे 'the elder brother being unmarried;' असति उपायान्तरे 'there being no other expedient;' तथा सति 'it being so.' Sometimes the participle is omitted; as, दूरे भये 'the danger (being) distant.' When the past passive participle is thus used absolutely with a noun in the locative, the present participle of अस् 'to be,' is often redundantly added; as, तथा कृते सति or तथा अनुष्ठिते 'it being so done*.'

* Possibly the object of adding the word sati may be to shew that the passive participle is here used as a participle, and not as a past tense. So also in commentaries सति is placed after a word like आगच्छति, to indicate the loc. sing. of the pres. part., as distinguished from the 3rd sing. of the pres. tense.

a. The genitive is less commonly used absolutely; as, आपदाम् आपतन्तीनाम् 'calamities impending;' पश्यतां नराणाम् 'the men looking on.'

b. When the nominative appears to be thus used there are really two sentences; as, सुहृन् मे समायातः पुण्यवान् अस्मि 'my friend having arrived, I am happy.'

c. It is evident that the locative and genitive absolute may often take the place of the English particles 'when,' 'while,' 'since,' 'although;' and may supply the place of a pluperfect tense; thus, तस्मिन् अपक्रान्ते 'when he had departed.'

Nominative Case after the Verb.

841. Verbs signifying 'to be,' 'to become,' 'to appear,' 'to be called,' or 'to be esteemed,' and other passive verbs similarly used, may take a nominative after them; as, राजा प्रजापालकः स्यात् 'let a king be the protector of his subjects;' सा निरानन्दा प्रतिभाति 'she appears sorrowful;' ग्रामोऽरण्यं प्रतिभाति 'the village appears like a desert;' राजा धर्मे अभिधीयते 'a king is called Justice.'

Accusative Case after the Verb.

842. Transitive verbs generally govern an accusative; as, विश्वं ससर्ज वेधाः 'Brahmá created the universe;' पुष्पाणि चिनोति नारी 'the woman gathers flowers;' प्राणान् जहौ मुमूर्षुः 'the dying man gave up the ghost;' मधु वर्जयेत् 'one should avoid wine;' तत्त्वं ब्रूहि 'speak the truth.'

a. Verbs of speaking to or addressing take an accusative; as, तम् अब्रवीत् 'he said to him;' इति उवाच फाल्गुनम् 'he thus addressed Arjuna.'

843. So also verbs of motion; as, सरति तीर्थं मुनिः 'the holy man goes to the place of pilgrimage;' नद्यः समुद्रं द्रवन्ति 'rivers run into the ocean;' भ्रमति महीम् 'he wanders over the earth.'

844. Verbs of motion are not unfrequently used with substantives, to supply the place of other verbs; as, ख्यातिं याति 'he goes to fame,' for 'he becomes famous;' समताम् एति 'he goes to equality,' for 'he becomes equal;' तयोः मित्रताम् आजगाम 'he came to the friendship of those two,' for 'he became a friend of those two;' पञ्चत्वं गतः 'he went to death,' for 'he died;' नृपतिं तुष्टिं नयति 'he leads the king to satisfaction,' for 'he satisfies,' &c.

a. The following are other examples: अन्येषां पीडां परिहरति 'he avoids paining others;' अप्राप्यम् इच्छति 'he desires what is unattainable;' विद्यां चिन्तयेत् 'he should think on wisdom;' अश्वम् आरोहति 'he mounts his horse;' कर्माणि आरेभिरे 'they began the business;' गतान् मा शुचः 'grieve not for the departed;' सर्वलोकाधिपत्यम् अर्हति 'he deserves the sovereignty of the universe;' पर्वतकन्दरम् अधिशेते 'he lies down in a cave of the mountain;' गां क्षीरं पिबन्तीं न निवारयेत् 'one ought not to prevent a cow from drinking milk.'

845. There are certain verbs which take a redundant accusative case after them of a substantive derived from the same root; as, शपथं शेपे 'he swore an oath;' वसति वासम् 'he dwells;' वर्तते वृत्तिम् 'he conducts himself;' वाक्यं वदति 'he speaks a speech;' जीविकां जीवति 'he lives a life;' नदति नादम् 'he raises a cry' (cf. the Greek expressions λέγω λόγον, χαίρω χαράν, &c.)

Double Accusative after the Verb.

846. Verbs of asking govern a double accusative; as, देवं वरं याचते 'he seeks a boon of the god;' धनं राजानं प्रार्थयते 'he begs money from the king;' तं सुस्नातं पृच्छति 'he asks whether he has had a good ablution.' Of speaking: as, राजानं वचनम् अब्रवीत् 'he addressed a speech to the king.' Of leading; as, तं गृहं नयति 'he leads him home;' राजसुतां राजान्तरं निनाय 'he led the princess to another king.'

a. Other examples of the use of verbs of this kind are, गां दोग्धि पयः 'he milks milk from the cow;' दुदुहुर् धरित्रीं रत्नानि 'they milked jewels out of the earth' (cf. 895. b); जित्वा नलं राज्यम् 'having won his kingdom from Nala,' i. e. 'having by play deprived Nala of his kingdom' (cf. 895. b); अवचिनोति कुसुमानि वृक्षान् 'she gathers blossoms from the trees;' तान् प्राहिणोद् यमसादनम् 'he sent them to the abode of Yama;' स्वचेष्टितानि नरं गुरुत्वं विपरीततां वा नयन्ति 'his own acts lead a man to eminence or the reverse;' शिक्षयामास तान् अस्त्राणि 'he taught them the use of arms;' तं सेनापतिम् अभिषिषिचुः 'they inaugurated him general,' more usually joined with an acc. and loc.; देवं पतिं वरयति 'she chooses a god for her husband.'

Obs.—When verbs which govern a double accusative are used in the passive, one accusative will remain (cf. 895. b); as, अम्बुनिधिर् अमृतं ममन्थे 'the ocean was churned for nectar' (Kirát. v. 30).

847. Causal verbs; as, अतिथिं भोजयति अन्नम् 'he causes the guest to eat food' (see Pán. I. 4, 52); त्वां बोधयामि यत् ते हितम् 'I cause you to know what is for your interest;' शिष्यं वेदान् अध्यापयति गुरुः 'the Guru teaches his pupil the Vedas;' तां गृहं प्रवेशयति 'he causes her to enter the house;' फलपुष्पोदकं ग्राहयामास नृपात्मजम् 'he presented the king's son with fruits, flowers, and water;' पुत्रम् अङ्कम् आरोपयति 'she causes her son to sit on her lap' (literally, 'her hip'); विद्या नरं नृपं सङ्गमयति 'learning causes a man to have access to a king.'

Instrumental Case after the Verb.

848. Any verb may be joined with the instrumental, to express 'the agent,' 'instrument,' or 'cause,' or 'manner' of the action; as, पुष्पं वातेन म्लायति 'the flower fades by reason of the wind;' अक्षैः क्रीडति 'he plays with dice;' मेघोऽग्निं वर्षैर् निर्वापयति 'the cloud puts out the fire with its rain;' सुखेन जीवति 'he lives happily.' See 865.

a. In this sense many causals take an instrumental; as, तां मिष्टान्नैर् भोजयामास

'he caused her to eat sweetmeats;' पक्षिभिः पिण्डान् खादयति 'he causes the pieces to be eaten by the birds.' Cf. 847.

849. After verbs of motion this case is used in reference either to the vehicle by which, or the place on which, the motion takes place; as, रथेन प्रयाति 'he goes in a chariot;' अश्वेन सञ्चरति 'he goes on horseback;' मार्गेण गच्छति 'he goes on the road;' शस्यक्षेत्रेण गच्छति 'he goes through a field of corn;' प्लुवे सागरं नौकया 'he navigated the ocean in a boat.' Similarly, सुस्राव नयनैः सलिलम् 'tears flowed through the eyes.'

a. After verbs of carrying, placing, &c., it is used in reference to 'the place' on which anything is carried; as, वहति मूर्ध्ना इन्धनम् 'he bears fuel on his head;' कुक्कुरः स्कन्धेन उह्यते 'the dog is borne on the shoulders.' कृ is found with this case in the sense of placing: as, शिरसा पुत्रम् अकरोत् 'he placed his son on his head.'

The following are other examples: शिष्येण गच्छति गुरुः 'the master goes in company with the pupil;' मन्त्रयामास मन्त्रिभिः 'he consulted with his ministers;' but in this sense सह is usually placed after it. भर्ता भार्यया सङ्गच्छति 'the husband meets the wife;' संयोजयति रथं हयैः 'he harnesses the horses to the chariot;' युध्यते शत्रुभिः 'he fights his enemies,' or शत्रुभिः सह, &c.; वैरं न केनचित् सह कुर्यात् 'one ought not to be at enmity with any one;' मां दोषेण परिशङ्कते 'he suspects me of a crime.'

850. Verbs of boasting, &c.; as, विद्यया विकत्थसे 'you boast of your learning;' परेषां यशसा श्लाघसे 'you glory in the fame of others.'

a. Of swearing: as, धनुषा शपे 'he swore by his bow.'

b. Of thinking, reflecting; as, मनसा विचिन्त्य 'thinking in his mind.'

c. Of comparing; as, जलौकया उपमीयते प्रमदा 'a beautiful woman is compared to a leech.'

851. Verbs denoting liberation, freedom from, sometimes take an instrumental after them; as, सर्वैः पापैः प्रमुच्यते 'he is released from all sins;' देहेन वियुज्यते 'he is separated from the body' (more usually with ablative).

852. Verbs of buying and selling take the instrumental of the price; as, सहस्रैरपि मूर्खाणाम् एकं क्रीणीष्व पण्डितम् 'buy one wise man even for thousands of fools;' गवां सहस्रेण गृहं विक्रीणीते 'he sells his house for a thousand cows;' क्रीणीष्व तद् दशभिः सुवर्णैः 'buy that for ten Suvarṇas.'

Dative after the Verb.

853. All verbs in which a sense of imparting or communicating anything is inherent, may take an accusative of the thing imparted, and a dative of the person to whom it is imparted. (Frequently, however, they take a genitive or even a locative of the recipient; see 857.) पुत्राय मोदकान् ददाति 'he gives sweetmeats to his son;' विप्राय गां प्रतिशृणोति 'he promises a cow to the Bráhman;' देवदत्ताय धनं धारयति 'he owes money to Devadatta;' कन्यां तस्मै प्रतिपादय 'consign the maiden to him,' more usually with the locative; see 861.

a. Other examples of the dative are, तेषां विनाशाय प्रकुरुते मनः 'he sets his mind on their destruction;' गमनाय मतिं दधौ 'he set his mind on departure,' or with the locative. तन् मह्यं रोचते 'that is pleasing to me;' शिष्येभ्यः प्रवक्ष्यामि तत् 'I will declare this to my pupils;' सर्वं राज्ञे विज्ञापयति 'he makes known all to the king,' these are also joined with the genitive of the person. अमृतत्वाय कल्पते 'he is rendered fit for immortality;' प्रभवति मम वधाय 'he has the power to kill me;' तान् मातुर् वधाय अचोदयत् 'he incited them to the murder of their mother;' पुत्राय क्रुध्यति 'he is angry with his son;' इयं मांसपेशी जाता पुत्रशताय 'this lump of flesh is produced for a hundred sons;' नाशंसे विजयाय 'I had no hopes of success.'

Ablative after the Verb.

854. All verbs may take an ablative of the object from which anything proceeds, or arises, or is produced; as, भ्रश्यति वृक्षात् पत्रम् 'the leaf falls from the tree;' रुधिरं स्रवति गात्रात् 'blood flows from the body;' आसनाद् उत्तिष्ठति 'he rises from his seat;' मृत्पिण्डः (719) कर्ता कुरुते यद्यद् इच्छति 'from the lump of clay the artist makes whatever he wishes;' विनयाद् याति पात्रताम् 'from education a person attains capacity;' निर्जगाम नगरात् 'he went out from the city.'

855. Verbs of fearing are joined with the ablative, and sometimes with the genitive; as, साधुर् न तथा मृत्योर् बिभेति यथा अनृतात् 'a good man does not fear death so much as falsehood;' मा शब्दाद् बिभीत 'be not afraid of a noise;' दण्डाद् उद्विजते जगत् 'the whole world stands in awe of punishment;' दक्षिणस्य ते कृतपश्चात्तापस्य बिभेमि 'I fear thee, a cunning penitent;' see 859.

856. Verbs which express superiority or comparison govern an ablative; as, प्रापणात् कामानां परित्यागो विशिष्यते 'the abandonment of pleasure is superior to (better than) the possession.'

a. Other examples of verbs followed by ablative cases are, प्रासादाद् अवरोहति 'he descends from the palace;' विष्णुः स्वर्गाद् अवततार 'Vishṇu descended from heaven;' कनकसूत्रम् अङ्गाद् अवतारयति 'he takes off (causes to descend) the golden bracelet from his body;' निवर्तते पापात् 'he ceases from wickedness;' वचनाद् विरराम 'he left off speaking;' नरकात् पितरं त्रायते पुत्रो धार्मिकः 'a virtuous son saves his father from hell;' अश्वमेधसहस्रात् सत्यम् अतिरिच्यते 'truth is superior to a thousand sacrifices;' स्वहितात् प्रमाद्यति 'he neglects his own interest;' मित्रम् अकुशलाद् निवारयति 'a friend guards one from evil.'

Genitive after the Verb.

857. The genitive in Sanskṛit is constantly interchangeable with the dative, locative, or even instrumental and accusative *. It is more especially, however, used to supply the place of the first of these cases, so that almost all verbs may take a genitive as well as dative of 'the recipient;' e. g. दरिद्रस्य धनं ददाति 'he gives money to the poor;' उपकुरुते परेषाम् 'he benefits others.'

* This vague use of the genitive to express 'various relations' prevails also in early Greek.

858. It may be used for the locative after verbs of consigning, as निक्षेपं मम समर्पयति 'he deposits a pledge with me;' or of trusting, as न कश्चित् स्त्रीणां श्रद्दधाति 'nobody puts trust in women:' and for the accusative in examples such as अचिन्तितानि दुःखानि आयान्ति देहिनाम् 'unexpected ills come upon corporeal beings.'

859. It is sometimes used after verbs of fearing; as, तस्य किं न भेष्यसि 'Why wilt thou not be afraid of him?' see 855. Also after verbs of longing for, desiring, envying; as, अवमानस्य आकांक्षेत् 'he should desire contempt;' स्पृहयामि पुरुषाणां सचक्षुषाम् 'I envy men who possess eyes.' After verbs of remembering; as, दिवो न स्मरन्ति 'they do not remember heaven' (Kirát. v. 28).

a. Other examples of verbs followed by genitive cases are, अजानताम् अस्माकं ख्यापय कस्य असि भार्या 'tell us, who are ignorant of it, whose wife you are;' कस्य (for कस्मात्) बिभ्यति धार्मिकाः 'Of whom are the righteous afraid?' यद् अन्यस्य प्रतिजानीते न तद् अन्यस्य दद्यात् 'one should not give to one what one promises to another;' मम न शृणोति 'he does not hear me' (cf. the Greek usage); मम स्मरेः 'remember me,' or with an accusative. अस्माकं मृत्युः प्रभवति 'death overcomes us;' अग्निर् न तृप्यति काष्ठानाम् 'fire is not satisfied with fuel;' तेषां क्षमेथाः 'forgive them;' किं मया तस्य अपराद्धम् 'What offence have I given him?'

Locative after the Verb.

860. This case is very widely applicable, but, as elsewhere remarked, is frequently interchangeable with the dative and genitive. The first sense of the locative requires that it should be united with verbs in reference only to 'the place' or 'time' in which anything is done; as, पङ्के मज्जति 'he sinks in the mud;' पुरे वसति 'he dwells in the city;' रणमूर्धि तिष्ठति 'he stands in the front of the fight;' सूर्योदये प्रबुध्यते 'at sunrise he awakes.'

861. The transition from 'the place' to 'the object' or 'recipient' of any action is natural; and hence it is that verbs are found with the locative of 'the object' to which anything is imparted or communicated, as in the following examples: मा प्रयच्छ ईश्वरे धनम् 'bestow not money on the mighty;' तस्मिन् कार्याणि निक्षिपामि 'I entrust my affairs to him;' पुत्रे अङ्गुरीयकं समर्पयति 'he consigns a ring to his son;' योग्ये सचिवे न्यस्यति राज्यभारम् 'he entrusts the burden of the kingdom to a capable minister;' राज्ञि or राजकुले निवेदयति 'he informs the king;' नले वद 'say to Nala.'

a. प्रेतं भूमौ निदध्यात् 'one should place (bury) a dead man in the ground;' धर्मे मनो दधाति 'he applies his mind to virtue.' In this sense कृ may be used; as,

पृष्ठे इन्धनम् अकरोत् 'he placed the wood on his back;' मतिं पापे करोति 'he applies his mind to sin.'

862. When दा, 'to give,' is used for 'to put,' it follows the same analogy; as, तस्य पुच्छाग्रे हस्तं देहि 'put your hand on the end of its tail;' भस्मचये पदं ददौ 'he placed his foot on a heap of ashes.' Similarly, वस्त्राञ्चले धृतोऽस्ति 'he was held by the skirt of his garment.' So also verbs of seizing, striking; as, केशेषु गृह्णाति or आकृषति 'he seizes or drags him by the hair;' सुप्ते प्रहरति 'he strikes a sleeping man;' गृहीत्वा तं दक्षिणे पाणौ 'having taken hold of him by the right hand.'

863. The locative is often put for the dative in sentences where the latter case stands for the infinitive; thus, भर्तुर् अन्वेषणे त्वरस्व 'hasten to seek thy spouse;' नलस्य आनयने यतस्व 'strive to bring Nala hither;' न शेकुस् तस्य धनुषो ग्रहणे 'they could not hold that bow;' न शक्तोऽभवन् निवारणे 'he was not able to prevent it.'

a. Other examples are, उग्रे तपसि वर्तते 'he is engaged in a very severe penance;' परकार्येषु मा व्यापृतो भूः 'do not busy yourself about other people's affairs;' विषयेषु सज्यते 'he is addicted to objects of sense;' सर्वलोकहिते रमते 'he delights in the good of all the world;' दुर्गाधिकारे नियुज्यते 'he is appointed to the command of the fort;' द्वौ वृषभौ धुरि नियोजयति 'he yokes two bulls to the pole;' सैनापत्ये अभिषिञ्च माम् 'anoint me to the generalship;' यतते पापनिग्रहे 'he strives to suppress evil-doers;' कोपस् तेषाम् आसीन् नृपे 'they had anger against the king;' परीक्षां कुरु वाहुके 'make trial of Váhuka;' आधास्ये त्वयि दोषम् 'I will lay the blame on you;' वरयस्व तं पतित्वे 'choose him for thy husband;' देवा अमृते यत्नवन्तो बभूवुः 'the gods exerted themselves for the nectar.'

b. न मद्विधे युज्यते वाक्यम् ईदृशम् 'such language is not suited to a person like me;' प्रभुत्वं त्वयि प्रयुज्यते 'sovereignty is suited to you;' आसने उपाविशत् 'he reclined on a seat;' वृष्याम् आसस्व* 'sit thou on a cushion;' शत्रुषु विश्वसिति 'he confides in his enemies;' चरणयोः पतति 'it falls at his feet;' लुठति पादेषु 'it rolls at the feet.'

Change of Case after the same Verb.

864. This sometimes occurs; as, विधुरो धृतराष्ट्राय कुन्ती च गान्धार्यै सर्वं न्यवेदयेताम् 'Vidhura and Kuntí announced everything, the one to Dhṛita-ráshṭra, the other to Gándhárí' (Astraśikshá 34), where the same verb governs a dative and genitive. Similarly, in the Hitopadeśa, शृङ्गिणां विश्वासो न कर्तव्यः स्त्रीषु च 'confidence is not to be placed in horned animals or women.'

INSTRUMENTAL CASE AFTER PASSIVE VERBS.

865. The prevalence of a passive construction is the most remarkable feature in the syntax of this language. Passive verbs are joined with 'the agent, instrument, or cause,' in the instrumental case *, and agree with 'the object' in number and person; as, वातेन रज उद्धूयते 'the dust is raised by the wind;' तेन सर्वे द्रव्याणि सज्जीक्रियन्ताम् 'let all things be prepared by him;' इषुभिर् आदित्योऽन्तरधीयत 'the sun was concealed by arrows.'

* आसस्व Epic form for आस्स्व or आस्व.

866. But the past passive participle usually takes the place of the past tenses of the passive verb, and agrees with 'the object' in gender and case as well as number; as, नेत्राणि समाप्लुतानि वारिणा '(their) eyes were suffused with tears;' तेन उक्तम् (इदम् being understood) 'it was said by him.' Cf. 895.

a. This instrumental construction after passive verbs is a favourite idiom in Sanskṛit prose composition, and the love for it is remarkably displayed in such phrases as the following: दुःखेन गम्यते, 'he is gone to by misery,' for दुखं गच्छति; and आगम्यतां देवेन, 'let it be come by your majesty,' for आगच्छतु देवः; and again, अस्माभिर् एकत्र स्थीयताम्, 'let it be remained by us in one spot,' for 'let us remain in one spot;' येन मार्गेण इष्टं तेन गम्यताम् 'by whatever road it is desired, by that let it be gone.'

b. Active or causal verbs, which take a double accusative, will retain one accusative when constructed passively; but the other accusative passes into a nominative case; thus, instead of स मां परुषाणि उवाच, 'he addressed me in harsh words,' may be written तेन अहं परुषाणि उक्तः, 'by him I was addressed in harsh words.'

SYNTAX OF THE INFINITIVE.

867. The infinitive (formed with तुम् tum) in Sanskṛit cannot be employed with the same latitude as in other languages. Its use is very limited, corresponding to that of the Latin Supines, as its termination tum indicates.

a. Let the student, therefore, distinguish between the infinitive of Sanskṛit and that of Latin and Greek. In these latter languages we have the infinitive made the subject of a proposition; or, in other words, standing in the place of a nominative, and an accusative case often admissible before it. We have it also assuming different forms, to express present, past, or future time, and completeness or incompleteness in the progress of the action. The Sanskṛit infinitive, on the other hand, can never be made the subject of a verb, admits of no accusative before it, and can only express indeterminate time and incomplete action. Wherever it occurs it must be considered as the object, and never the subject, of some verb expressed or understood. As the object of the verb, it may be regarded as equivalent to a verbal substantive, in which the force of two cases, an accusative and dative, is inherent, and which differs from other substantives in its power of governing a case. Its use as a substantive, with the force of the accusative case, corresponds to one use of the Latin infinitive; thus, तत् सर्वं श्रोतुम् इच्छामि 'I desire to hear all that,' 'id audire cupio,' where श्रोतुम् and audire are both equivalent to accusative cases, themselves also governing an accusative. Similarly, रोदितुं प्रवृत्ता 'she began to weep;' and महीं जेतुम् आरेभे 'he began to conquer the earth,' where महीजयम् आरेभे, 'he began the conquest of the earth,' would be equally correct.

b. Bopp considers the termination of the infinitive to be the accusative of the suffix tu (458. Obs.), and it is certain that in the Veda other cases of nouns formed with this suffix in the sense of infinitives occur; e.g. a dative in tave or tavai, as from han comes hantave, 'to kill;' fr. anu-i, anvetave, 'to follow;' fr. man, mantavai, 'to think:' there is also a form in tos, generally in the sense of an ablative; e.g. fr. i comes etos, 'from going;' fr. han, hantos, as in purá hantos, 'before killing:' and a form in tví corresponding to the indeclinable participle in tvá of the classical language; e.g. fr. han, hatví, 'killing;' fr. bhú, bhútví, 'being.' Infinitives may also be formed in the Veda by simply adding the usual case-terminations to the root; e.g. in the sense of an accusative, fr. á-ruh may come áruham, 'to ascend;' fr. á-sad, ásadam, 'to sit down:' of a dative, fr. á-dhṛish, ádhṛishe, 'to get at,' 'subdue;' fr. saṅ-ćaksh, saṅćakshe, 'to survey:' of an ablative, fr. ava-pad, avapadas, 'from falling down.' Infinitives are also formed by changing the final á of roots ending in this letter to ai; e.g. fr. pra-yá, prayai, 'to approach:' or by adding se (liable to be changed to she) to a root, as fr. ji comes jishe, 'to conquer:' or by adding ase; e.g. fr. jív, jívase, 'to live:' or adhyai; e.g. fr. bhṛi, bharadhyai, 'to bear;' fr. yaj, yajadhyai, 'to sacrifice,' &c.

868. But the Sanskṛit infinitive most commonly involves a sense which belongs especially to the Sanskṛit dative, viz. that of 'the end' or 'purpose' for which anything is done; thus, शावकान् भक्षितुम् आगच्छति 'he comes to devour the young ones;' शत्रून् योद्धुं सैन्यं प्राहिणोत् 'he sent an army to fight the enemy.'

a. In these cases it would be equally correct in Sanskṛit to substitute for the infinitive the dative of the verbal noun, formed with the suffix ana; thus, भक्षणाय, 'for the eating,' for भक्षितुम्; योधनाय, 'for the fighting,' for योद्धुम्; and in Latin the infinitive could not be used at all, but either the supine, devoratum, pugnatum, or, still more properly, the conjunction ut with the subjunctive mood, 'ut devoret,' 'ut pugnarent.' The following are other examples in which the infinitive has a dative force in expressing 'the purpose' of the action: पानीयं पातुं नदीम् अगमत् 'he went to the river to drink water;' मम बन्धनं छेत्तुम् उपसर्पति 'he comes to cut asunder my bonds;' मां त्रातुं समर्थः 'he is able to rescue me;' पाशान् संवरितुं सयत्नो बभूव 'he busied himself about collecting together the snares.'

b. The best Paṇḍits think that the infinitive ought not to be used when the verb which is connected with it refers to a different person, or is not समानाधिकरणे; thus तं गन्तुम् आज्ञापय, 'command him to go,' would be better expressed by तं गमनाय आज्ञापय.

c. The infinitive cannot be used after an accusative to express 'that,' as in Latin; thus, 'having heard that Duryodhana was killed' would be expressed by हतं दुर्योधनं श्रुत्वा.

869. The Sanskṛit infinitive, therefore, has the character of a Supine, and in this character is susceptible of either an active or passive signification. In its passive character, however, like the Latin Supine in u, it is joined with certain words only, the most usual being the passive verbs शक् 'to be able' and युज् 'to be fitting,' and their derivatives; thus, त्यक्तुं न शक्यते 'it cannot be abandoned;' पाशो न छेत्तुं शक्यते 'the snare cannot be cut;' न शक्याः समाधातुं ते दोषाः 'those evils cannot be remedied;' श्रोतुं न युज्यते 'it is not fitting to be heard;' छेत्तुम् अयोग्यः 'unfit to be cut;' त्वया न युक्तम् अवमानम् अस्य कर्तुम् 'contempt is not proper to be shewn by thee for him;' कीर्तयितुम् योग्यः 'worthy to be celebrated.'

a. The following are other instances: मण्डपः कारयितुम् आरब्धः 'the shed was begun to be built;' राज्ये अभिषेक्तुं भवान् निरूपितः 'your Honour has been selected to be inaugurated to the kingdom;' अर्हति कर्तुम् 'it deserves to be done;' कर्तुम् अनुचितम् 'improper to be done' (cf. factu indignum and ποιεῖν αἰσχρόν); सा मोचयितुं न्याय्या 'she ought to be released;' किम् इदं प्रार्थितं कर्तुम् 'what is sought to be done.' The infinitive of neuter verbs, which have a passive sense, will of course be passive; as, क्रोडुं न अर्हसि 'deign not to be angry.'

870. The root अर्ह् 'to deserve,' when used in combination with an infinitive, is usually equivalent to 'an entreaty' or 'respectful imperative;' as, धर्मान् नो वक्तुम् अर्हसि 'deign (or simply 'be pleased') to tell us our duties.' It sometimes has the force of the Latin debet; as, न मादृशी त्वाम् अभिभाषितुम् अर्हति 'such a person as I ought not to address you;' न तं शोचितुम् अर्हसि 'you ought not to bewail him.'

871. The infinitive is sometimes joined with the noun काम, 'desire,' to form a kind of compound adjective, expressive of wishing to do anything, but the final m is then rejected; thus, द्रष्टुकामः, -मा, -मम्, 'desirous of seeing;' जेतुकामः, -मा, -मम्, 'wishing to conquer.'

a. Sometimes the infinitive is joined in the same way with मनस्; thus, स द्रष्टुमनाः 'he has a mind to see.'

872. When kim follows the infinitive a peculiar transposition sometimes takes place, of which the 1st Act of Śakuntalá furnishes an example; thus, सखीं ते ज्ञातुम् इच्छामि किम् अनया वैखानसं व्रतं निषेवितव्यम्, 'I wish to know thy friend, whether this monastic vow is to be observed by her,' for ज्ञातुम् इच्छामि किं सख्या ते &c. 'I wish to know whether this vow is to be observed by thy friend.'

USE AND CONNEXION OF THE TENSES.

873. PRESENT TENSE.—This tense, besides its proper use, is often used for the future; as, क्व गच्छामि 'Whither shall I go?' कदा त्वां

पश्यामि 'When shall I see thee?' किं करोमि 'What shall I do?' and sometimes for the imperative; as, तत् कुर्मः 'let us do that.'

874. In narration it is commonly used for the past tense; as, स भूमिं स्पृष्ट्वा कर्णौ स्पृशति ब्रूते च 'he, having touched the ground, touches his ears, and says.'

875. It may denote 'habitual' or 'repeated' action; as, मृगः प्रत्यहं तत्र गत्वा शस्यं खादति 'the deer going there every day was in the habit of eating the corn;' यदा स मूषिकशब्दं शृणोति तदा विडालं संवर्धयति 'whenever he heard the noise of the mouse, then he would feed the cat.'

876. It is usually found after यावत् and तावत्; as, यावन् मे दन्ता न त्रुट्यन्ति तावत् तव पाशं छिनद्मि 'as long as my teeth do not break, so long will I gnaw asunder your fetters.' (Compare the use of the Latin dum.)

877. The present tense of the root आस्, 'to sit,' 'to remain,' is used with the present participle of another verb, to denote 'continuous' or 'simultaneous' action; as, पशूनां वधं कुर्वन् आस्ते 'he keeps making a slaughter of the beasts;' मम पश्चाद् आगच्छन् आस्ते 'he is in the act of coming after me.'

878. The particle स्म, when used with the present, gives it the force of a perfect; as, प्रविशन्ति स्म पुरीम् 'they entered the city;' निवसन्ति स्म 'they dwelt.' See 251. Obs.

879. POTENTIAL.—The name of this tense is no guide to its numerous uses. Perhaps its most common force is that of 'fitness' in phrases, where in Latin we should expect to find oportet with the infinitive; as, आगतं भयं वीक्ष्य नरः कुर्याद् यथोचितम् 'having beheld danger actually present, a man should act in a becoming manner.'

880. It is also employed, as might be expected, in indefinite general expressions: as, यस्य यो भावः स्यात् 'whatever may be the disposition of any one;' यदा राजा स्वयं न कुर्यात् कार्यदर्शनम् 'when the king may not himself make investigation of the case;' अप्राप्तकालवचनं ब्रुवन् प्राप्नुयाद् अपमानम् 'by uttering unseasonable words one may meet with dishonour.'

a. Especially in conditional sentences and suppositions; as, यदि राजा दण्डं न प्रणयेत् स्वाम्यं कस्मिंश्चिन् न स्यात् सर्वे सेतवश्च भिद्येरन् 'if the king were not to inflict punishment, ownership would remain with nobody, and all barriers would be broken down.' Sometimes the conjunction is omitted; as, न भवेत् 'should it not be so;' न स्यात् पराधीनः 'were he not subject to another.'

881. The potential often occurs as a softened imperative, the Sanskrit language, in common with others in the East, being averse to the more abrupt form; thus, गच्छेः, 'do thou go,' for गच्छ; and अद्यात् फलानि, 'let him eat fruits,' for अत्तु; स्यात्, 'let there be,' for 'there must be' (in comment. to Pāṇ.)

882. IMPERATIVE.—This tense yields the usual force of 'command' or 'entreaty;' as, आश्वसिहि 'take courage;' माम् अनुस्मर 'remember me.'

मा, and not न, must be used in prohibition; as, अनृतं मा ब्रूहि 'do not tell a falsehood;' मा लज्जस्व 'be not ashamed;' see 889. The first person is used to express 'necessity,' see example at 796.

a. The 3rd pers. singular is sometimes used interjectionally; thus, भवतु 'Be it so!' 'Well!' यातु 'Let it go!' 'Come along!' 'Come!'

883. The imperative is sometimes used in conditional phrases to express 'contingency;' as, अनुजानीहि मां गच्छामि 'permit me, (and) I will go,' i.e. 'if you will permit me, I will go;' आज्ञापय हन्मि दुष्टजनम् 'if you command me, I will kill the villain;' अभयवाचं मे यच्छ गच्छामि 'if you give me a promise of security, I will go.'

884. IMPERFECT.—Although this tense (see 242) properly has reference to 'past incomplete action,' and has been so rendered in the paradigms of verbs, yet it is commonly used to denote 'indefinite past time,' without any necessary connexion with another action; as, अर्थं ग्रहीतुं यत्नम् अकरवम् 'I made an effort to collect wealth,' not necessarily 'I was making.'

Obs.—The augment may be cut off after मा, as in the aorist; thus, मा स्म भवत् 'May he not become?' See 242. Obs.; Páṇ. VI. 4, 74.

885. PERFECT.—As explained at 242, this tense is properly used to express 'an action done at some definite period of past time;' as, कौशल्यादयो नृपतिं दशरथं चक्रन्दुः 'Kauśalyá and the others bewailed king Daśaratha.' It is frequently, however, employed indeterminately.

886. FIRST FUTURE.—This tense (see 242) expresses 'definite but not immediate futurity;' as, तासु दिक्षु कामस्य फलं लप्स्यसि 'in those regions thou shalt (one day) obtain the fruit of thy desire.'

887. SECOND FUTURE.—This tense, although properly indefinite, is employed to express 'all degrees and kinds of futurity,' immediate or remote, definite or indefinite; as, स्वादु पयः पास्यसि 'thou shalt drink sweet water;' तत्र अवश्यं पत्नीं द्रष्टा 'there certainly he will see his wife;' अद्य गमिष्यसि 'this very day thou shalt go.'

a. It is sometimes used for the imperative; as, यद् देयं तद् दास्यसि 'whatever is to be given, that you will give,' (do thou give.)

888. AORIST.—This tense (see 242) properly expresses 'time indefinitely past;' as, अभूत् नृपः 'there lived (in former times) a king.'

889. It is also employed to supply the place of the imperative, after the prohibitive particle मा or मा स्म, the augment being omitted (see 242. Obs.); as, मा कृथाः 'do not make;' मा त्याक्षीः समयम् 'do not lose the opportunity;' मा स्म अनृतं वादीः 'do not tell an untruth;' मा क्रुधः 'do not be angry;' मा शुचः 'do not grieve;' मा हिंसीः 'do not injure;' मा नीनशः 'do not destroy;' नैवं वोचः 'do not speak so;' मा भैषीः 'be not afraid' (contracted into मा भैः in Nala XIV. 3).

890. PRECATIVE.—Only one example of this tense occurs in the Hitopadeśa: नित्यं भूयात् सकलसुखवसतिः 'May he constantly be the abode of all happiness!' It is chiefly used in pronouncing benedictions. Also in imprecations.

a. In the latter case a noun formed with a suffix ani is frequently used; thus, अजीवनिस् ते भूयात् 'May there be loss of life to thee!' 'Mayst thou perish!'

891. CONDITIONAL.—This tense (see 242) is even less frequent than the last. The following are examples: यदि राजा दण्डं न प्रणयेत् तदा शूले मत्स्यान् इव अपक्ष्यन् दुर्बलान् बलवत्तराः 'if the king were not to inflict punishment, then the stronger would roast the weak like fish on a spit;' or, according to the Scholiast, हिंसाम् अकरिष्यन् 'would cause injury;' सुवृष्टिश् चेद् अभविष्यत् तदा सुभिक्षम् अभविष्यत् 'if there should be abundant rain, then there would be abundance of food.' According to Pāṇini (III. 3, 139) it is used क्रियातिपत्तौ 'when the action is supposed to pass by unaccomplished' (क्रियाया अनिष्पत्तौ Schol.)

a. LEṬ.—The Vedic mood, called Leṭ by native grammarians, corresponds to the subjunctive of the Greek language. In forming it a short a is inserted between the conjugational stem and the termination, or if the conjugational stem ends in a, this letter is lengthened; at the same time the augment of the imperfect and aorist is dropped, e.g. from han comes pres. ind. han-ti; but subj. han-a-ti: from pat, pres. ind. pata-ti; subj. patá-ti: from aś, impf. ind. áśno-t; subj. aśnava-t, i.e. aśno+a+t. So also, from pat, impf. ind. apata-t; subj. patá-t: from tṛ, aor. ind. atárīt (for atárish-t, cf. du. atárish-va, &c.); subj. tárish-a-t. It may also be mentioned that in the Átmane the final e may optionally be changed to ai, e.g. mádayádhvai; and that the subjunctive of the aorist sometimes takes the terminations of the present tense without lengthening a, e.g. from vaś comes aor. ind. avoćat, subj. voćati.

Observe—The characteristic of Leṭ is the insertion of a.

SYNTAX OF PARTICIPLES.

892. Participles in Sanskṛit often discharge the functions of the tenses of verbs. They are constantly found occupying the place of past and future tenses, and more especially of passive verbs.

893. Participles govern the cases of the verbs whence they are derived; as, व्याधं पश्यन् 'seeing the fowler;' अरण्ये चरन् 'walking in the forest;' तत् कृतवान् 'he did that;' शब्दम् आकर्ण्य 'having heard a noise;' पानीयम् अपीत्वा गतः 'he went away without drinking water.'

a. In the case of passive participles, as will presently appear, the agent is put in the instrumental case; and the participle agrees with the object, like an adjective.

Present Participles.

894. These are not so commonly used in Sanskṛit composition as past and future participles, but they are often idiomatically employed, especially where in English the word 'while' or 'whilst' is introduced; thus, अहं दक्षिणारण्ये चरन् अपश्यम् 'whilst walking in the southern forest, I beheld,' &c.

Past Passive Participle.

895. This most useful participle is constantly used to supply the place of a perfect tense passive, sometimes in conjunction with the auxiliary verbs as and bhú, 'to be;' thus, आदिष्टोऽस्मि 'I have been commanded;' वयं विस्मिताः स्मः 'we were astonished;' उषितोऽस्मि 'I have dwelt' (cf. 866). Of course the participle is made to agree adjectively with the object in gender, number, and case, as in Latin; and the agent, which in English would probably be in the nominative, and in Latin in the ablative, becomes in Sanskṛit instrumental. Thus, in Sanskṛit, the phrase 'I wrote a letter' would not be so idiomatically expressed by अहं पत्रं लिलेख, as by मया पत्रं लिखितम् 'by me a letter was written,' 'a me epistola scripta.' So again, तेन बन्धनानि छिन्नानि 'by him the bonds were cut' is more idiomatic than स बन्धनानि चिच्छेद 'he cut the bonds;' and तेन उक्तम् 'by him it was said' is more usual than स उवाच 'he said *.'

a. This participle may often be used impersonally, when, if the verb belong to the first group of classes, it may optionally be gunated; as, द्युतितम् or द्योतितं सूर्येण 'it is shone by the sun.' The same holds good if the beginning of an action is denoted; as, सूर्यः प्रद्युतितः or प्रद्योतितः 'the sun has begun to shine.'

b. When a verb governs a double accusative case (see 846), one accusative will be preserved after the past passive participle; as, विश्वामित्रेण दशरथो रामं याचितः 'Daśaratha was asked for Ráma by Viśvámitra;' मनीषितं द्योर् दुग्धा 'the sky has been milked of your wish,' i. e. 'your wish has been milked out of the sky;' जितो राज्यं वसूनि च 'deprived by defeat in play of his kingdom and property' (cf. 846. Obs.)

896. But frequently the past passive participle is used for the active past participle; in which case it may sometimes govern the accusative case, like a perfect tense active; thus, स वृक्षम् आरूढः 'he ascended the tree;' स गृहं गतः or आगतः 'he went home;' वर्त्म तीर्णः 'having crossed the road;' अहं पदवीम्

* This instrumental or passive construction, which is so prevalent in Sanskṛit, has been transferred from it to Hindí, Maráthí, Gujaráthí, and other dialects of India. The particle ne in Hindí and Hindústání corresponds to the Sanskṛit न na, the final letter of the commonest termination for the instrumental case, and can never occasion any difficulty if so regarded.

अवतीर्णोऽस्मि 'I have descended to the road;' अहं नगरीम् अनुप्राप्तः 'I reached the city;' आवाम् आश्रमं प्रविष्टौ स्वः 'we two have entered the hermitage.' But observe, that its use for the active participle is generally, though not invariably, restricted to intransitive verbs which involve the idea of 'motion,' and to a few other neuter verbs. The following are other examples: पक्षिण उत्पतिताः 'the birds flew away;' स मृतः 'he died;' व्याधो निवृत्तः 'the fowler returned;' स भक्षयितुं प्रवृत्तः 'he proceeded to eat;' स आश्रितः 'he had recourse to;' स प्रसुप्तः 'he fell asleep;' ते स्थिताः 'they stood;' उषितः 'he lodged.'

a. This participle has sometimes a present signification; thus, स्थित 'stood' may occasionally be translated 'standing,' भीत 'fearing,' स्मित 'smiling,' आश्लिष्ट 'embracing;' and all verbs characterized by the Anubandha त्रि may optionally use this participle in the sense of the present. See 75. e.

b. The neuter of the passive participle is sometimes used as a substantive; thus, दत्तम् 'a gift;' खातम् 'an excavation;' अन्नम् 'food;' दुग्धम् 'milk.'

Active Past Participle.

897. This participle is much used (especially in modern Sanskṛit and the writings of commentators) to supply the place of a perfect tense active. It may govern the case of the verb; as, सर्वं श्रुतवान् 'he heard everything;' पत्नी पतिम् आलिङ्गितवती 'the wife embraced her husband;' राज्ञो हस्ते फलं दत्तवान् 'he gave the fruit into the hand of the king;' तत् कृतवती 'she did that.' This participle may also be used with the auxiliaries as and bhú, 'to be,' to form a compound perfect tense; thus, तत् कृतवान् अस्ति 'he has done that;' तत् कृतवान् भविष्यति 'he will have done that.'

Indeclinable Past Participles.

898. The sparing use made in Sanskṛit composition of relative pronouns, conjunctions, and connective particles, is mainly to be attributed to these participles or gerunds, by means of which the action of the verb is carried on, and sentence after sentence strung together without the aid of a single copulative. They occur in narration more commonly than any other kind of participle; and some of the chief peculiarities of Sanskṛit syntax are to be traced to the frequency of their occurrence.

899. They are generally used for the past tense, as united with a copulative conjunction, and are usually translatable by the English 'having,' 'when,' 'after,' 'by,' see 555; thus, तद् आकर्ण्य निश्चितम् एव अयं कुक्कुर इति मत्वा छागं त्यक्त्वा ज्ञात्वा स्वगृहं ययौ 'having heard this, having thought to himself "this is certainly a dog," having left the goat, having bathed, he went to his own house.' In all these cases we should use in English the past tense with a conjunction; thus, 'When he had heard this, he thought to himself that it must certainly be a dog. He then left the goat, and, when he had bathed, went to his own house.'

a. It is evident from the above example that the indeclinable participles often stand in the place of a pluperfect tense, a tense which does not really exist in Sanskṛit.

b. But although they always refer to something past, it should be observed that they are frequently rendered in English by the present participle, as in the fifth sentence of the story at 930.

900. Another, though less frequent use of them is as gerunds in do; thus, नराः शास्त्राण्य् अधीत्य* भवन्ति पण्डिताः 'men become wise by reading the Śástras;' भार्या अपि अकार्यशतं कृत्वा भर्तव्या 'a wife is to be supported even by [or in] doing a hundred wrong things;' किं पौरुषं हत्वा सुप्तम् 'What bravery is there in killing a sleeping man?'

Observe—This participle is occasionally capable of a passive sense.

901. Note—The termination त्वा tvá is probably an instrumental case, and bears much of the character of an instrumental, as it is constantly found in grammatical connexion with the agent in this case; thus, सर्वैः पशुभिर् मिलित्वा सिंहो विज्ञप्तः 'by all the beasts having met together the lion was informed;' सर्वैर् जालम् आदाय उड्डीयताम् 'by all having taken up the net let it be flown away.'

a. Another and stronger proof of its instrumental character is, that the particle अलम्, which governs an instrumental, is not unfrequently joined with the indeclinable participle; thus, अलं भोजनेन, 'enough of eating,' is with equal correctness of idiom expressed by अलं भुक्त्वा; see 918. a.

Future Passive Participles.

902. The usual sense yielded by this gerundive participle is that of 'fitness,' 'obligation,' 'necessity' (see 568); and the usual construction required is, that the agent on whom the duty or necessity rests be in the instrumental, and the participle agree with the object; as, त्वया प्रवृत्तिर् न विधेया 'by you the attempt is not to be made.'

a. Sometimes, however, the agent is in the genitive case; thus, द्विजातीनां भक्ष्यम् अन्नम् 'boiled rice is to be eaten by Bráhmans.' Compare 865, note.

903. Occasionally the future passive participle may yield a sense equivalent to 'worthy of,' 'deserving;' as, कश्य 'deserving a whipping;' ताडनीय 'worthy of being beaten;' सुसल्य 'deserving death by pounding;' वध्य 'worthy of death.'

904. If the verb govern two accusatives, one may be retained after the future

* As the Latin gerund is connected with the future part. in dus, so the Sanskṛit indeclinable part. in ya is probably connected with the future passive part. in ya.

passive participle; as, नयनसलिलं त्वया शान्तिं नेयम् 'the tear of the eye is to be brought to assuagement by thee.'

905. Occasionally the neuter of this participle is used impersonally; in which case it does not agree with the object, but may govern it in the manner of the verb; thus, मया ग्रामं गन्तव्यम्, 'it is to be gone by me to the village,' for मया ग्रामो गन्तव्यः. So also, त्वया सभां प्रवेष्टव्यम् 'by you it is to be entered into the assembly.'

a. The neuter भवितव्यम् (from भू) is thus used, and, in accordance with 841, requires the instrumental after it, as well as before; thus, केनापि कारणेन भवितव्यम् 'by something it must become the cause,' i.e. 'there must be some cause;' स्वामिना सविशेषेण भवितव्यम् 'a ruler ought to be possessed of discrimination;' मया तव अनुचरेण भवितव्यम् 'I must become your companion;' आर्यया प्रवहणारूढया भवितव्यम् 'the lady must be seated in the carriage.'

906. Similarly, the neuter of शक्य may be adverbially used, and impart at the same time a passive sense to the infinitive; thus, पवनः शक्यम् आलिङ्गितुम् अङ्गैः for पवनः शक्यः &c. 'the breeze is able to be embraced by the limbs' (Sakuntalá, verse 60). Again, शक्यम् अञ्जलिभिः पातुं वाताः 'the breezes are able to be drunk by the hollowed palms;' विभूतयः शक्यम् अवाप्तुम् 'great successes are able to be obtained.' Observe a similar use of युक्तम् in न युक्तं भवान् वक्तुम् 'his Highness is not proper to be addressed' (Mahá-bh. Ádi-p. 27).

907. It is not uncommon to find this participle standing merely in the place of a future tense, no propriety or obligation being implied, just as the past passive participle stands in the place of a past tense; thus, नूनम् अनेन लुब्धकेन मृगमांसार्थिना गन्तव्यम् 'in all probability this hunter will go in quest of the deer's flesh,' where गन्तव्यम् is used impersonally; त्वां दृष्ट्वा लोकैः किञ्चिद् वक्तव्यम् 'when the people see you, they will utter some exclamation;' यदि पक्षी पतति तदा मया खादितव्यः 'if the bird falls, then it shall be eaten by me.' See 930. xi.

908. The neuter of this participle is sometimes used infinitively or substantively, as expressive merely of 'the indeterminate action' of the verb, without implying 'necessity' or 'fitness.' In such cases इति may be added; thus, वञ्चयितव्यम् इति 'the being about to deceive,' 'deception' (Hitop. line 416); मर्तव्यम् इति 'the being about to die,' 'dying:' but not always; as, जीवितव्यम् 'life.'

Participial Nouns of Agency.

909. The first of these nouns of agency (580) is constantly used in poetry as a substitute for the present participle; implying, however, 'habitual action,' and therefore something more than present time. It is sometimes found governing the same case as the present participle, but united with the word which it governs in one compound; thus, पुरञ्जय 'city-conquering;' प्रियंवद 'speaking kind words;' जलेचर 'going in the water;' सरसिज 'lake-born.' But the word governed is often in the stem; thus, तेजस्कर, 'light-making' (see 69), from tejas and kṛi; मनोहर, 'mind-captivating,' from manas and hṛi (64); बहुद, 'giving much,' from bahu and dá; आत्मज्ञ, 'self-knowing,' from átman and jńá (57. b).

910. The second (581) is sometimes, but rarely, found as a participle governing the case of the verb; thus, वाक्यं वक्ता 'speaking a speech;' बहुमार्गां वोढा 'bearing the Ganges.'

911. The first and second species of the third (582. a. b), like the first, have often the sense of present participles, and are then always united with the stem of the word which they govern in one compound; thus, मनोहारिन्, 'mind-captivating,' from manas and hṛi; कार्यसाधक, 'effective of the business,' from kárya and sidh. They may sometimes govern the case of the verb whence they are derived, and may then be compounded, or not, with the word which they govern; thus, ग्रामेवासिन् or ग्रामे वासिन् 'dwelling in a village;' मुकुलानि चुम्बकः 'kisser of the buds' (Ratnávalí, p. 7).

SYNTAX OF CONJUNCTIONS, PREPOSITIONS, ADVERBS, &c.

Conjunctions.

912. च 'and' (727) is always placed after the word which it connects with another, like que in Latin, and can never stand first in a sentence, or in the same place as 'and' in English; thus, परिक्रम्य अवलोक्य च 'walking round and looking.' Unlike que, however, which must always follow the word of which it is the copulative, it may be admitted to any other part of the sentence, being only excluded from the first place; thus, तनयम् अचिरात् प्राची इव अर्कं प्रसूय च पावनम् 'and having after a short time given birth to a pure son, as the eastern quarter (gives birth to) the sun.'

a. Sometimes two ca's are used, when one may be redundant or equivalent to the English 'both;' or the two ca's may be employed antithetically or disjunctively, or to express the contemporaneousness of two events; thus, अहश्च रात्रिश्च 'both day and night;' क्व हरिणकानां जीवितं च अतिलोलं क्व च शरास् ते 'Where on the one hand is the frail existence of fawns? Where on the other are thy arrows?' क्रन्दितुं च प्रवृत्ता स्त्रीसंस्थानं च ज्योतिर् उत्क्षिप्य एनां जगाम 'no sooner had she began to weep, than a shining apparition in female shape, having snatched her up, departed' (Sakuntalá, verse 131); ते च प्रापुर् उदन्वन्तं बुबुधे च आदिपुरुषः 'they reached the ocean and the Supreme Being awoke' (from his sleep), Raghu-v. x. 6.

b. Observe—When क्व, 'where?' is used as in the above example, it implies 'excessive incompatibility,' or 'incongruity.'

c. Sometimes च is used as an emphatic particle, and not as a copulative; thus, किं च मया परिणीतपूर्वा 'Was she indeed married by me formerly?'

913. तथा 'so,' 'likewise' (727. b), frequently supplies the place of च; thus, अनागतविधाता च प्रत्युत्पन्नमतिस् तथा 'both Anágata-vidhátri and Pratyutpanna-mati' (names of the two fish in Hitop. Book IV).

914. हि 'for,' तु 'but,' वा 'or' (727. d, 728. a), like च, are excluded from the first place in a sentence; thus, पूर्वावधीरितं श्रेयो दुःखं हि परिवर्तते 'for happiness formerly scorned turns to misery;' विपर्यये तु 'but on the contrary;' एनां त्यज वा गृहाण वा 'either abandon her or take her.'

915. यदि 'if' and चेद् 'if' (727. e) may govern the potential or conditional (see 891), but are also used with the indicative; thus, यदि जीवति भद्राणि पश्यति 'if he live, he will behold prosperity;' यदि मया प्रयोजनम् अस्ति 'if there is need of me;' तृष्णा चेत् परित्यक्ता को दरिद्रः 'If avarice were abandoned, who would be poor?'

Prepositions and Adverbs.

916. Prepositions often govern cases of nouns. See 729, 730.

917. The following examples illustrate the use of adverbs in construction with cases of nouns, as explained at 731.

मांसं शुनोऽग्रे निक्षिप्तम् 'flesh thrown before the dog;' तरूणाम् अधः 'under the trees;' नाभेर् अधस्तात् 'below the navel;' वृक्षस्य अधस्तात् 'beneath the tree;' भोजनानन्तरम् 'after eating;' फलम् अन्तरेण 'without fruit;' भर्तुर् अनुमतिम् अन्तरेण 'without the consent of her husband;' धनस्य अर्थम्, or more usually धनार्थम्, 'for the sake of wealth;' विवाहाद् अर्वाक् 'after marriage;' अर्वाक् सञ्चयनाद् अस्थ्नाम् 'after collecting the bones:' उपरि, with genitive, occurs rather frequently, and with some latitude of meaning; thus, नाभेर् उपरि 'above the navel;' सिंहस् तस्य उपरि पपात 'the lion fell upon him;' मम उपरि विकारितः 'changed in his feelings towards me;' तव उपरि असदृश्यव्यवहारी 'not behaving properly towards thee;' पुत्रस्य उपरि क्रुद्धः 'angry with his son;' नाभेर् ऊर्ध्वम् 'above the navel;' तदवधेर् ऊर्ध्वम् 'after that period;' संवत्सराद् ऊर्ध्वम् 'after a year,' i. e. 'above a year having expired;' न दण्डाद् ऋते शक्यः कर्तुं पापविनिग्रहः 'the restraint of crime cannot be made without punishment;' तव कारणात् 'on thy account;' तस्याः कृते or तत्कृते 'for her sake;' वाटिकाया दक्षिणेन 'to the right of the garden;' तन्निमित्ते 'on that account;' अभिवादनात् परम् 'after saluting;' अस्माकं पश्चात् 'after us;' स्नानात् पूर्वम् 'before bathing;' विवाहात् पूर्वम् 'before marriage;' अवलोकनक्षणात् प्रभृति 'from the moment of seeing (him);' जन्मप्रभृति 'from birth;' ततः प्रभृति 'from that time forward;' उपनयनात् प्रभृति 'from the time of investiture;' प्राङ् निवेदनात् 'before telling;' प्राग् उपनयनात् 'before investiture;' भोजनात् प्राक् 'before eating:' प्राक् may take an accusative; as, प्राग् द्वादशसमाः 'before twelve years are over;' शतं जन्मानि यावत् 'for a hundred births;' सर्पविवरं यावत् 'up to the serpent's hole;' विवराद् बहिर् निःसृत्य 'creeping out of the hole;' हेतुं विना 'without cause;' अपराधेन विना 'without fault;' प्राणिहिंसाव्यतिरेकेण 'without injury to living beings;' पितुः सकाशाद् धनम् आदत्ते 'he receives money from his father;' मम समक्षम् 'in my presence;' राज्ञः समीपम् 'near the king;' पुत्रेण सह 'along with his son:' साक्षात् may take an instrumental; as, अन्यैः साक्षात् 'before others;' पुत्रहेतोः 'for the sake of a son.'

918. अलम्, 'enough,' is used with the instrumental, with the force of a prohibitive particle; as, अलं शङ्कया 'away with fear,' 'do not fear.'

a. It is also used with the indeclinable participle; as, अलं रुदित्वा 'enough of weeping!' अलं विचार्य 'enough of consideration!' see also 901. a.

Obs.—खलु is used in the same way; e.g. खलु कृत्वा = अलं कृत्वा (Pán. III. 4, 18).

b. It is sometimes followed by an infinitive; as, न अलम् अस्मि हृदयं निवर्तयितुम् 'I am not able to turn back my heart.'

919. मात्रम् 'even,' 'merely,' at the end of a compound is declinable; as, उत्तरमात्रं न ददाति 'he does not even give an answer;' न शब्दमात्राद् भेतव्यम् 'one ought not to be afraid of mere noise;' शब्दमात्रेण 'by mere sound;' वचनमात्रेण 'by mere words;' उक्तमात्रे वचने 'immediately on the mere utterance of the speech.'

920. तथा and यथा, when used as correlatives, are equivalent to the English 'so that,' and the Latin ita ut; thus, यथा स्वामी जागर्ति तथा मया कर्तव्यम् 'I must so act that my master awake,' i. e. 'I must do something to make my master awake.'

So also, त्वं न जानासि यथा गृहरक्षां करोमि 'Do not you know that I keep watch in the house?'

a. ईदृशम्, तादृशम्, and यादृशम् may be used in the same way; thus, तादृशम् अनायुष्यं न किञ्चिद् विद्यते यादृशं परदारगमनम् 'nothing is so opposed to length of life as intercourse with the wife of another.'

b. यत्, as well as यथा, is used for 'that;' thus, अयं नूतनो न्यायो यद् अरातिं हत्वा सन्तापः क्रियते 'this is a new doctrine, that having killed an enemy remorse should be felt.'

921. किम्, 'why?' may often be regarded as a mark of interrogation which is not to be translated, but affects only the tone of voice in which a sentence is uttered; as, जातिमात्रेण किं कश्चित् पूज्यते 'Is any one honoured for mere birth?' (Cf. 837. a.)

a. It sometimes has the force of 'whether;' as, ज्ञायतां किम् उपयुक्त एतावद् वर्तनं गृह्णाति अनुपयुक्तो वा 'let it be ascertained whether he is worthy to receive so large a salary, or whether he is unworthy;' मन्त्री वेत्ति किं गुणयुक्तो राजा न वा 'the minister knows whether the king is meritorious or not.'

922. वत् (technically vati) as a suffix of comparison or similitude (724) may be compounded with a nominal stem, which if uncompounded would be in the accusative case; thus, आत्मानं मृतवत् सन्दर्श्य 'shewing himself as if dead;' आश्चर्यवद् इदं पश्यति 'he regards it as a wonder.' Also in the locative or genitive case; thus, मथुरावत् सुघ्ने प्राकारः 'a wall in Srughna like that in Mathurá.' According to Páṇini v. 1, 115, it is used for the instrumental after adjectives of comparison, when some action is expressed; thus, ब्राह्मणेन तुल्यम् अधीते (see 826) may be rendered ब्राह्मणवद् अधीते, but it would not be correct to say पुत्रवत् स्थूलः for पुत्रेण तुल्यः स्थूलः.

923. The negative न is sometimes repeated to give intensity to an affirmation; thus, न न वक्ष्यति 'he will not not say'=वक्ष्यति एव 'he will certainly say.'

924. The indeclinable participle उद्दिश्य, 'having pointed out,' is sometimes used adverbially to express 'on account of,' 'with reference to,' 'towards,' and governs an accusative; thus, किम् उद्दिश्य 'On account of what?' तम् उद्दिश्य 'with reference to him.'

925. The indeclinable participle आरभ्य, 'having begun,' is used adverbially to express 'from,' 'beginning with,' and may either govern an ablative or be placed after a nominal stem; thus, निमन्त्रणाद् आरभ्य श्राद्धं यावत् 'from the time of invitation to the time of the Śráddha.' निमन्त्रणारभ्य would be equally correct.

926. The interjections धिक् and हा require the accusative; as, धिक् पापिष्ठम् 'Woe to the wretch!' and the vocative interjections the vocative case; as, भोः यान्य 'O traveller!'

a. Adverbs are sometimes used for adjectives in connexion with substantives; as, तत्र शालायाम् for तस्यां शालायाम् 'in that hall;' अमात्येषु मुख्यशः for अमात्येषु मुख्येषु 'among the principal ministers.'

ON THE USE OF THE PARTICLE इति.

927. In Sanskṛit the obliqua oratio is rarely admitted; and when any one relates the words or describes the sentiments or thoughts of another, the relator generally represents him as speaking the actual words, or thinking the thoughts, in his own person.

a. In such cases the particle इति (properly meaning 'so,' 'thus') is often placed after the words quoted, and may be regarded as serving the purpose of inverted commas; thus, शिष्या ऊचुः कृतकृत्या वयम् इति 'the pupils said, "We have accomplished our object;"' not, according to the English or Latin idiom, 'the pupils said that they had accomplished their object.' So also, कलहकारी इति ब्रूते भर्ता 'your husband calls you "quarrelsome,"' where कलहकारी is in the nominative case, as being the actual word supposed to be spoken by the husband himself in his own person. So again, युष्मान् विश्वासभूमय इति सर्वे पक्षिणो मम अग्रे प्रस्तुवन्ति 'all the birds praise you in my presence, saying, "He is an object of confidence,"' where the particle इति is equivalent to 'saying,' and the word विश्वासभूमयः is not in the accusative, to agree with युष्मान्, as might be expected, but in the nominative, as being the actual word supposed to be uttered by the birds in their own persons. In some cases, however, the accusative is retained before इति, as in the following example (Manu II. 153): अज्ञं बालम् इति प्राहुः 'they call an ignorant man "child."' But in the latter part of the same line it passes into a nominative; as, पिता इति एव तु मन्त्रदम् 'but (they call) a teacher of scripture "father."'

928. In narratives and dialogues इति is often placed redundantly at the end of a speech. Again, it may have reference merely to what is passing in the mind either of another person or of one's self. When so employed, it is usually joined with the indeclinable participle, or of some other part of a verb signifying 'to think,' 'to suppose,' &c., and may be translated by the English conjunction 'that,' to which, in fact, it may be regarded as equivalent; thus, मर्कटो घण्टां वादयति इति परिज्ञाय 'having ascertained that it is a monkey who rings the bell;' पुनर् अर्थवृद्धिः करणीया इति मतिर् बभूव 'his idea was that an increase of wealth ought again to be made;' धन्योऽहं यस्य एतादृशी भार्या इति मनसि निधाय 'reflecting in his mind that I am happy in possessing such a wife.' The accusative is also retained before इति in this sense; as, मृतम् इति मत्वा 'thinking that he was dead.' In all these examples the use of इति indicates that a quotation is made of the thoughts of the person at the time when the event took place.

929. Not unfrequently the participle 'saying,' 'thinking,' 'supposing,' &c., is omitted altogether, and इति itself involves the sense of such a participle; as, बालोऽपि न अवमन्तव्यो मनुष्य इति भूमिपः 'a king, even though a child, is not to be despised, saying to one's self, "He is a mortal;"' सौहार्दाद् वा विधुर इति वा मयि अनुक्रोशात् 'either through affection or through compassion towards me, saying to yourself, "What a wretched man he is!"' अयं वराहः। अयं शार्दूल इति वनराजिषु आहिण्ड्यते 'There's a boar! Yonder's a tiger! so crying out, it is wandered about (by us) in the paths of the woods.'

931. Observe in this story: 1st, the simplicity of the style; 2ndly, the prevalence of compound words; 3rdly, the scarcity of verbs; 4thly, the prevalence of the past passive participle with the agent in the instrumental case for expressing indefinite past time, in lieu of the past tense active with the nominative: see 895, with note.

SCHEME OF THE MORE COMMON SANSKRIT METRES.

934. Metres are divided into two grand classes: 1. Varṇa-vṛitta, 2. Mátrá-vṛitta. The first has two subdivisions, A and B.

Class I.—Varṇa-vṛitta.

A. Metres, consisting of two half-verses, determined by the number of SYLLABLES in the Páda or quarter-verse.

Note—It may be useful to prefix to the following schemes of metres a list of technical prosodial terms: पाद = the fourth part of a verse; मात्रा = an instant or prosodial unit = a short syllable; गण = four Mátrás; यति = a pause; गुरु or ग = a long syllable (–); लघु or ल = a short syllable (∪); मगण = a spondee (– –); ललण = a pyrrhic (∪ ∪); गलण = a trochee (– ∪); लगण = an iambus (∪ –); मण = a molossus (– – –); भण = a dactyl (– ∪ ∪); नण = a tribrach (∪ ∪ ∪); यण = a bacchic (∪ – –); रण = a cretic (– ∪ –); सण = an anapæst (∪ ∪ –); तण = an anti-bacchic (– – ∪); जण = an amphibrach (∪ – ∪).

Śloka or Anushṭubh (8 syllables to the Páda or quarter-verse).

935. The commonest of all the infinite variety of Sanskṛit metres is the Śloka or Anushṭubh. This is the metre which chiefly prevails in the great epic poems.

It consists of four quarter-verses of 8 syllables each or two lines of 16 syllables, but the rules which regulate one line apply equally to the other; so that it is only necessary to give the scheme of one line, as follows:—

•	•	•	•	⏑	⏒	⏒	•	‖	•	•	•	•	⏑	–	⏑	•	‖

Note—The mark • denotes either long or short.

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th syllables may be either long or short. The 8th, as ending the Páda, and the 16th, as ending the half-verse, are also common. Since the half-verse is considered as divided into two parts at the 8th syllable, it is an almost universal rule that this syllable must end a word, *whether simple or compound.

The 5th syllable ought always to be short. The 6th and 7th should be long; but instances are not unusual in the Mahá-bhárata of the 6th being short, in which case the 7th should be short also. But occasional variations from these last rules occur.

The last 4 syllables form two iambics; the 13th being always short, the 14th always long, and the 15th always short.

Every Śloka, or couplet of two lines, ought to form a complete sentence in itself, and contain both subject and predicate. Not unfrequently, however, in the Rámáyaṇa and Mahá-bhárata, three lines are united to form a triplet.

936. In the remaining metres determined by the number of syllables in the Páda, each Páda is exactly alike (sama); so that it is only necessary to give the scheme of one Páda or quarter-verse.

In printed books each Páda, if it consist of more than 8 syllables, is often made to occupy a line.

937. Trishṭubh (11 syllables to the Páda or quarter-verse).

Of this there are 22 varieties. The commonest are—

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
938. Indra-vajrá,	–	–	⏑	–	–	⏑	⏑	–	⏑	–	•	‖
939. Upendra-vajrá,	⏑	–	⏑	–	–	⏑	⏑	–	⏑	–	•	‖

There is generally a cæsura at the 5th syllable.

Note—The above 2 varieties are sometimes mixed in the same stanza; in which case the metre is called Upajáti or Ákhyánakí.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
940. Rathoddhatá,	–	⏑	–	⏑	⏑	⏑	–	⏑	–	⏑	–	‖

Of this there are 12 varieties; none of which are common.

953. Atyashṭi (17 syllables to the Páda or quarter-verse).

* The mark ⏓ is meant to shew that the last syllable is long at the end of the Páda or quarter-verse, but long or short at the end of the half-verse.

959. Atidhṛiti (19 syllables to the Páda or quarter-verse).

Of this there are 13 varieties. The commonest is—

960. Śárdúla-vikríḍita, 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 | 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 ‖

962. Prakṛiti (21 syllables to the Páda or quarter-verse).

— — — — ∪ — — | ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ — | — ∪ — — ∪ — ‖

Cæsura at the 7th and 14th syllables.

964. Of the remaining metres determined by the number of syllables in the Páda, Ákṛiti has 22 syllables, and includes 3 varieties; Vikṛiti 23 syllables, 6 varieties; Sankṛiti 24 syllables, 5 varieties; Atikṛiti 25 syllables, 2 varieties; Utkṛiti 26 syllables, 3 varieties; and Daṇḍaka is the name given to all metres which exceed Utkṛiti in the number of syllables.

965. There are two metres, called Gáyatrí and Ushṇih, of which the first has only 6 syllables to the quarter-verse, and includes 11 varieties; the second has 7 syllables to the quarter-verse, and includes 8 varieties.

a. When the Páda is so short, the whole verse is sometimes written in one line.

b. Observe, that great license is allowed in metres peculiar to the Vedas; thus in the which may be regarded as consisting of a triplet of 3 divisions of 8 syllables each, or of 6 feet of 4 syllables each, generally printed in one line, the quantity of each syllable is very irregular. The following verse exhibits the most usual quantities:

a b a b a b
• • • • | ∪ — ∪ • ‖ • • • • | ∪ — ∪ • ‖ • • • • | ∪ — ∪ • ‖

but even in the b verse of each division the quantity may vary.

B. Metres, consisting of two half-verses, determined by the number of SYLLABLES* in the HALF-VERSE (each half-verse being alike, ardha-sama).

967. This class contains 7 genera, but no varieties under each genus. Of these the commonest are—

* This class of metres is said to be regulated by the number of feet or Mátrás in the half-verse, in the same way as class II. But as each half-verse is generally distributed into fixed long or short syllables, and no option is allowed for each foot between a spondee, anapæst, dactyl, proceleusmaticus, and amphibrach, it will obviate confusion to regard this class as determined by syllables, like class I. A.

968. Vaitáliya (21 syllables to the half-verse).

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 | 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 ‖

∪ ∪ – ∪ ∪ – ∪ – ∪ – | ∪ ∪ – – ∪ ∪ – ∪ – ∪ • ‖

There is a cæsura at the 10th syllable.

969. Aupaćchandasika (23 syllables to the half-verse).

The scheme of this metre is the same as the last, with a long syllable added after the 10th and last syllable in the line; the cæsura being at the 11th syllable.

970. Pushpitágrá (25 syllables to the half-verse).

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 | 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 ‖

∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ – ∪ – ∪ – – | ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ – ∪ ∪ – ∪ – ∪ – • ‖

There is a cæsura at the 12th syllable.

Class II.—Mátrá-vṛitta, consisting of two half-verses, determined by the number of FEET in the whole verse (each foot containing generally four Mátrás).

971. Note—Each foot is supposed to consist of four Mátrás or instants, and a short syllable is equivalent to one instant, a long syllable to two. Hence only such feet can be used as are equivalent to four Mátrás; and of this kind are the dactyl (– ∪ ∪), the spondee (– –), the anapæst (∪ ∪ –), the amphibrach (∪ – ∪), and the proceleusmaticus (∪ ∪ ∪ ∪); any one of which may be employed.

Of this class of metres the commonest is the 972. Áryá or Gáthá.

Each half-verse consists of seven and a half feet; and each foot contains four Mátrás, excepting the 6th of the second half-verse, which contains only one, and is therefore a single short syllable. Hence there are 30 Mátrás in the first half-verse, and 27 in the second. The half-foot at the end of each half-verse is generally, but not always, a long syllable; the 6th foot of the first half-verse must be either an amphibrach or proceleusmaticus; and the 1st, 3rd, 5th, and 7th feet must not be amphibrachs. The cæsura commonly takes place at the end of the 3rd foot in each half-verse, and the measure is then sometimes called Paṭhyá. The following are a few examples:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

– – | ∪ – ∪ | ∪ ∪ – ‖ – ∪ ∪ | – ∪ ∪ | ∪ – ∪ | – – | –

∪ ∪ – | ∪ – ∪ | ∪ ∪ – ‖ – – | ∪ ∪ – | ∪ | – – | ∪

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

– – | ∪ ∪ – | – – ‖ – – | – ∪ ∪ | ∪ – ∪ | – ∪ ∪ | –

∪ ∪ – | – ∪ ∪ | ∪ ∪ – ‖ ∪ – ∪ | – – | ∪ | – ∪ ∪ | –

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

∪ ∪ – | – ∪ ∪ | – – ‖ ∪ ∪ – | – ∪ ∪ | ∪ – ∪ | – – | ∪

∪ ∪ – | ∪ ∪ ∪ ∪ | – ∪ ∪ ‖ – – | ∪ ∪ – | ∪ | – – | –

973. The Udgíti metre only differs from the Áryá in inverting the half-verses, and placing the short half-verse, with 27 Mátrás, first in order.

974. There are three other varieties:—In the Upagíti, both half-verses consist of 27 Mátrás; in the Gíti, both consist of 30 Mátrás; and in the Áryágíti, of 32.

ACCENTUATION.

975. Accentuation (svara, 'tone') in Sanskṛit is only marked in the Vedas. Probably the original object of the marks used was to denote that peculiar change in the ordinary intonation practised in reciting the hymns, which consisted in the occasional raising of the voice to a higher pitch than the usual monotone. Only three names for different kinds of accent or tone are generally recognized by grammarians; viz. 1. Udátta, 'raised,' i. e. the elevated tone or high pitch, marked in Roman writing by the acute accent; 2. An-udátta, 'not raised,' i. e. the accentless tone; 3. Svarita, 'sounded,' i. e. the moderate tone, neither high nor low, but a combination of the two (samáhára, Páṇ. 1. 2, 32), which is produced in the following manner: In pronouncing the syllable immediately following the high-toned syllable, the voice unable to lower itself abruptly to the level of the low intonation, is sustained in a tone not as high as the udátta, and yet not so low as the an-udátta. A syllable uttered with this mixed intonation is said to be svarita, 'sounded.' These three accents, according to native grammarians, are severally produced, through intensifying (áyáma), relaxing (viśrambha), and throwing out the voice (ákshepa); and these operations are said to be connected with an upward, downward, and horizontal motion (tiryag-gamana) of the organs of utterance, which may be illustrated by the movements of the hand in conducting a musical performance *.

976. But although there are only three general names for the accents, it is clear that there are only two positive tones, viz. the udátta or high tone, and svarita or mixed tone, the an-udátta representing the neutral, monotonous, accentless sound, which lies like a flat horizontal line below the two positive sounds. There remains

* In native grammars the udátta sound of a vowel is said to result from employing the upper half of the organs of utterance, and the an-udátta from employing the lower half. In my recent travels in India I frequently heard the Vedas recited and intoned by Paṇḍits at Benares, Calcutta, Bombay, Poona, &c., and found to my surprise that the voice is not now raised in pronouncing the udátta syllable. Great stress is laid on the an-udátta and svarita, but none upon the udátta; and I was told that the absence of all mark on this latter syllable is an indication of the absence of accent in intoning.

no designation for the low tone, properly so called, i. e. the tone which immediately precedes the high and is lower than the flat horizontal line taken to represent the general accentless sound. The fact is that the exertion required to produce the high tone (udátta) is so great that in order to obtain the proper pitch, the voice is obliged to lower the tone of the preceding syllable as much below this flat line as the syllable that bears the udátta is raised above it; and Páṇini himself explains this lower tone by the term sannatara (compar. of sanna, 'sunk,' for which the commentators have substituted the expression anudáttatara), while he explains the neutral, accentless tone by the term eka-śruti, i. e. the one accentless sound in which the ear can perceive no variation.

977. The expression anudáttatara, then, is now adopted to designate the lowest sound of all, or that immediately preceding the udátta or high tone. But no special mark distinguishes this sound from the an-udátta. It must be borne in mind that no simple uncompounded word, whatever the number of its syllables, has properly more than one syllable accented. This syllable is called either udátta or svarita, according as it is pronounced with a high or mixed tone. But if a word have only a svarita accent, then this svarita must be of the kind called independent, although it may have arisen from the blending of two syllables, one of which was originally udátta, as in तन्वा (for tanu-á, where the middle syllable was udátta). A word having either the udátta or the svarita accent on the first syllable is called in the one case ády-udátta, in the other ádi-svarita; having either the one or other accent on the middle is in the one case madhyodátta, in the other madhya-svarita; having either the one or other accent at the end is in the one case antodátta, in the other anta-svarita. All the syllables of a word except the one which is either an udátta or independent svarita are an-udátta. Although, however, no one word can have both an udátta and an independent svarita, yet, if a word having an udátta is followed by an an-udátta, this an-udátta becomes a dependent svarita, which is really the commonest form of svarita accent.

978. As to the method of marking the tones, the udátta or high tone is never marked at all, so that if a word of one syllable is udátta it remains simply unmarked, as पूः; if a monosyllable is an-udátta it has a horizontal stroke underneath, as नो; if svarita, it has an upright mark above, as द्यौः. A word of two syllables, both of which are an-udátta, has two horizontal marks below, thus समः; and if the first syllable is udátta it is marked thus, इन्द्रः; if the last is udátta, thus अग्नि. A word of more than two syllables being entirely an-udátta (sarvánudátta) has horizontal marks under all the syllables, thus अवर्धन्त; but if one of the syllables is udátta, the horizontal stroke immediately preceding it marks the anudáttatara, as in आप्नुवानः, where the first and second syllables are an-udátta and the third anudáttatara, the fourth being udátta; and if the udátta syllable is followed by another an-udátta, this becomes a dependent svarita, and is marked by an upright stroke, as in वैश्वानराय (Ṛig-veda III. 3, 1). Similarly, in a word of three syllables like चकार, the syllable च is anudáttatara, का is udátta, and र is svarita.

It should be noted that in Romanized Sanskṛit printing and writing it is usual instead of leaving the udátta unmarked to treat that as the only accent to be marked, and to treat both anudáttatara and dependent svarita as an-udátta or without any accent at all.

979. The foregoing explanations will make clear how it is that in the Saṃhitá of the Ṛig-veda an anudáttatara mark is generally the beginning of a series of three accents, of which the dependent svarita is the end; the appearance of this anudáttatara mark preparing the reader for an udátta immediately following, as well as for a dependent svarita. This last, however, may sometimes be retarded by a new udátta syllable, as in दि॒वा प॒तयं॑तम्, where the syllable प, which would otherwise be a dependent svarita, becomes changed to an anudáttatara because of the udátta syllable त following.

980. But if an independent svarita is immediately followed by an udátta or by another independent svarita, a curious contrivance is adopted. Should the syllable bearing the independent svarita end in a short vowel, the numeral ९ is used to carry the svarita with an anudáttatara under it, e. g. अप॒स्य९॑न (Ṛig-veda x. 89, 2), सु॒ष्व९॑: पर्व॑तास॒ (iv. 17, 2); and should the syllable end in a long vowel, the numeral ३ is employed in the same way, but the anudáttatara mark is placed both under the long vowel and the numeral, e. g. वि॒श्वो३॑विभू॑तयो (i. 166, 11), न॒द्यो३॑ऽप॑ (iv. 55, 6), आ३॑पि॑: (vi. 21, 8).

981. It should also be pointed out that the absence of mark is employed in a sentence to denote an-udátta as well as udátta; thus, in the Saṃhitá of the Veda, at the commencement of a sentence a horizontal stroke underneath marks the first anudáttatara syllable of the sentence as well as all such an-udátta syllables as precede; the next syllable, if without mark, is udátta; and the next, if it has an upright mark, is svarita; but the next, if it has no mark, is an-udátta; and the absence of all mark after the upright mark, continues to denote an-udátta until the appearance of the next horizontal mark, which is anudáttatara. In fact, all the syllables, both in words and sentences, which follow the svarita are supposed to be pronounced in the accentless tone until the voice has to be depressed for the utterance of another udátta syllable.

With regard to the absence of accentuation, we may note that in direct sentences a verb (unless it is the first word) is regarded as an enclitic and loses its accent. The same rule applies to Vocative cases, which are accented only when they begin a sentence, and then on the first syllable. Verbs preserve their accent in conditional sentences and in a few exceptional cases.

982. The system of accentuation in the Prátiśákhyas often differs from that of Páṇini. The rules given by these treatises for determining the accent when two vowels (each bearing an accent) blend into one are very precise, but are liable to exceptions. The following are some of those most usually given: udátta+udátta =udátta; udátta+anudátta=udátta; anudátta+anudátta=anudátta; anudátta+ udátta=udátta; svarita+udátta=udátta; svarita+anudátta=svarita.

When anudátta vowels are pronounced with the udátta tone, this is called in the Prátiśákhyas praćaya. When the accent of two vowels is blended into one, this is called praślishṭa, samáveśa, ekíbháva. The expressions tairovyañjana and vaivṛitta are used to denote forms of the dependent svarita; while kshaipra and játya apply to the independent svaritas caused by the blending of the accents of two vowels, the first of which has passed into the semivowel y or v.

983. A few compound words (generally names of Vedic deities) have two accents, and are therefore called dvir-udátta, e. g. बृहस्पतिः, तनूनपात्, where the first syllable being udátta remains unmarked, and the second being an-udátta ought to become a dependent svarita, but the third being udátta again the second becomes anudáttatara and is so marked. In मित्रावरुणौ both the second and third syllables are udátta. A compound (called trir-udátta) may even have three udátta syllables, as in इन्द्राबृहस्पती.

984. In the Pada text where compounds are divided, if the first half of the compound ends in a svarita coming after an udátta, and the second begins with an udátta, the svarita accent at the end of the first member of the compound is called táthábhávya.

985. Observe—The accent in Sanskṛit is not confined to the last three syllables of a word, as in Greek and Latin.

Observe also—Although the Sanskṛit independent svarita is in some respects similar to the Greek circumflex, it should be borne in mind, that the latter is confined to long, whereas the svarita may also be applied to short syllables *.
